1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 The parties to this action have reached a class and PAGA settlement and the Court preliminarily
3 approved the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement”), a true and correct
4 copy of which is attached as Exhibit #2 to the Declaration of Norman Blumenthal (“Blumenthal 5 Decl.”).¹ In accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order dated March 27, 2025 (“Preliminary 6 Approval Order”), the approved Class Notice has been disseminated to the Class.²

7 The purpose of this hearing is to determine whether the proposed settlement of the litigation 8 should be finally approved. Plaintiffs Jon Riley and Leshay Streeter (“Plaintiffs”) respectfully move 9 for final approval, including attorneys’ fees, costs and the service awards, and the proposed entry of 10 the Final Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith. The settlement represents an excellent 11 result for the Class and avoids the delays, risks, and costs of further litigation. After disseminating the 12 Class Notice to the 297 members of the Class, to date there have been no objections and only two 13 (2) requests for exclusion from the Class, which means that nearly the entire Class (99.3%) has elected 14 to participate in the settlement. Blumenthal Decl. ¶4. This is a positive response from the Class 15 evidencing their collective approval of the settlement. As a result, Plaintiffs respectfully submit that 16 the settlement should be finally approved for the same reasons that the Court preliminarily approved 17 the settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

18 II. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

19 As consideration for this settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant Best 20 Practice Medicine, LLC (“Defendant”) is Seven Hundred Five Thousand Dollars ($705,000).
21 (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Under the Agreement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following 22 elements: (i) all Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments; (ii) the LWDA PAGA
23 Payment; (iii) the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; 24 (iv) the Class Representative Service Payments; and (v) the Administration Expenses Payment.

26 ¹ Capitalized terms are defined in the Agreement.

27 ² The “Class” is defined as “all individuals who were employed by Defendant in the State of 28 California and classified as non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period.” The Class Period is August 12, 2018 through May 28, 2024. (Preliminary Approval Order, at ¶5).

(Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendants. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(b). The following is a table of the key financial terms of the Agreement and the proposed deductions:

$705,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- $15,000 (Plaintiffs' proposed service awards - not to exceed $7,500 each)
- $30,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses - not to exceed amount)
- $235,000 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed one-third of settlement)
- $15,000 (PAGA Penalties - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
- $7,550 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

$402,450 (Net Settlement Amount)

The specific details of the Settlement were discussed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and are set forth again in the Declaration of Blumenthal at ¶¶ 3(c)-3(i).

The Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable to the class and should be finally approved for the same reasons the Court granted preliminary approval of the Agreement, agreeing that the settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable" (Preliminary Approval Order at ¶3.) In sum, the settlement valued at $705,000 is an excellent result for the Class. This result is particularly favorable in light of the fact that liability and class certification in this case were far from certain in light of the defenses asserted by Defendant. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses asserted, the uncertainty of class certification, along with the uncertainties of proof at trial and appeal, the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(j).

III. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum, 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 265 (1997). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran. v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (2000) ("[V]oluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation.")

The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, taking into account that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See

1 Wershba v. Apple Computer, 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (2001) (“The proposed settlement is not to be 2 judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs 3 prevailed at trial.”) In Wershba, the Court explained that “the merits of the underlying class claims are 4 not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Id.; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

5 In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 6 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 7 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The presumption of 8 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 9 act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is 10 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 11 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the 12 proposed settlement satisfies that standard and the presumption applies.

13 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

14 The Court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v.
15 Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service 16 Com'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the 17 settlement is fair. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117 (2009). “The 18 well-recognized factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class 19 action settlement agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and 20 likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 21 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 22 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the 23 class members to the proposed settlement.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 24 128 (2008) (internal citations omitted); see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L. A., 186 25 Cal.App.4th 399, 408 (2010).

26 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
27 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
28 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the

1 agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, 2 and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id.
3 “Ultimately, the [trial] court’s determination is nothing more than ‘an amalgam of delicate balancing, 4 gross approximations and rough justice.’ [Citation omitted.]” Id.

5 These factors are analyzed seriatim below, and all support final approval of the class action 6 settlement before this Court, consistent with this Court’s Preliminary Approval Order.

7 A. The Settlement Satisfies the California Test for Fairness

8 1. The Investigation and Analysis of Documents are Sufficient to Allow Counsel 9 and the Court to Act Intelligently

10 Over the course of three years of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of the 11 claims, including the production of documents, class data, and other information, allowing for the full 12 and complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in this Action. The procedural history 13 and investigation performed was detailed at length in support of the motion for preliminary approval.
14 The Settlement was the product of one arms-length mediation and contentious negotiations through an 15 all-day mediation presided over by Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. The details of the litigation are set forth 16 in the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 6(a)-6(g).

17 2. The Settlement was Reached Through Arm’s Length Bargaining

18 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations 19 before an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to 20 deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiffs and 21 Class Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released 22 Class Claims and the Released PAGA Claims in accordance with this Settlement, based upon the 23 experience of Class Counsel who has previously litigated similar claims against other employers.
24 Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(a).

25 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq., a 26 respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, to reach the Settlement. In 27 preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with necessary information, including 28 a sampling of the Class payroll and timekeeping data. Plaintiffs analyzed the data with the assistance

1 of a damages expert, Berger Consulting, and prepared and submitted a mediation brief and damage 2 valuation to the Mediator. Following the all-day mediation, the Parties reached the Settlement based 3 upon a mediator's proposal, which was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding.
4 Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(b).

5 The fact that the settlement was negotiated with the assistance of an experienced mediator 6 supports approval. Alberto v. GMRI, Inc., 252 F.R.D. 652, 666 (E.D. Cal. Jun 24, 2008); Glass v. UBS
7 Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 at *15 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (where settlement was "negotiated 8 and approved by experienced counsel on both sides of the litigation, with the assistance of a 9 well-respected mediator" this factor supports approval of the settlement).

10 From September of 2024 to February of 2025, the Agreement and exhibits thereto were 11 finalized and executed. On March 27, 2025, the Court granted the Motion for Preliminary Approval, 12 and entered the Order granting preliminary approval of the settlement as fair and reasonable to the 13 Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(c).

14 3. Class Counsel Is Experienced in Similar Litigation

15 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience and has represented thousands 16 of persons in class actions including employment litigation, wage and hour class actions, and complex 17 litigation. Class Counsel has previously litigated wage and hour class actions involving employees and 18 claims similar to this case and have been approved as experienced class counsel during contested 19 motions in state and federal courts throughout California. The experience of counsel and class action 20 cases managed and settled by the Class Counsel in this action is provided to the Court in the 21 Blumenthal Decl. at Exhibit #1 and at the Declaration of Jessica Campbell ("Campbell Decl.") at ¶¶ 3-22 15. Class Counsel have participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and have concluded 23 the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. Blumenthal Decl.
24 ¶ 3(j).

25 4. There Are No Objections and Only Two (2) Requests for Exclusion

26 The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. On May 27, 2025, 27 the Administrator mailed the Court-approved Class Notice to the Class Members, which provided each 28 Class Member with the terms of the settlement, including notice of the claims at issue and the financial

1 terms of the settlement, including the attorneys' fees, costs, and service awards that were being sought, 2 how individual settlement awards would be calculated, and the specific, estimated payment amount to 3 that individual. See Declaration of Nathalie Hernandez ("Hernandez Decl.") at ¶ 7, Exh. A. In 4 disseminating the notice, the Administrator followed the notice procedures authorized by the Court in 5 its Preliminary Approval Order. The Administrator has not received any written objections and has 6 only received two (2) requests for exclusion. Hernandez Decl. at ¶¶ 11-12. As such, 99.3% of the 7 Class will participate in the Settlement and will be sent a settlement check. Hernandez Decl. at ¶ 14; 8 Blumenthal Decl. ¶4.

9 The absence of any objector strongly supports the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the 10 Settlement. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation, 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 (S.D.N.Y.
11 2000) ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the 12 adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetznier v. U.S. Steel Corp., 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (3d. Cir. 1990) (29 13 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l Union, 638 F.2d 954 14 (6th Cir. 1981) (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement should 15 be considered when determining fairness of settlement). Here, where there are no objections, the 16 approval of the class is evident.

17 5. The Strength of Plaintiffs' Case

18 The Action generally alleges that Plaintiffs and other Class Members were not properly paid 19 all overtime wages for hours worked and at the correct rate, were not provided meal and rest periods, 20 were not timely paid earned wages, were not provided reimbursement for required expenses, were not 21 provided accurate itemized wage statements, were not paid all accrued and used sick pay at the correct 22 rate of pay, and were not paid all wages at the time of termination. The Action seeks unpaid wages, 23 penalties, attorney fees, litigation costs, and any other equitable or legal relief allegedly due and owing 24 to Plaintiffs and the other Class Members by virtue of the foregoing claims. Blumenthal Decl. ¶5.

25 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
26 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by Defendant 27 present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiffs and the other Class Members. Defendant maintains 28 that its practices complied with all applicable wage and hour laws. Defendant maintains that all Class

1 Members' work time was properly recorded and compensated. Specifically, Defendant argued that it 2 used a valid alternative workweek schedule and applied the correct overtime rules for ambulance 3 drivers. Defendant contended that its meal and rest period policies and practices provide Class 4 Members with meal and rest periods and that Class Members could voluntarily waive meal periods and 5 in compliance with California law since the Class Members were ambulance drivers. As to expense 6 reimbursement, Defendant maintains that it did not fail to provide reimbursement for necessary 7 business expenses because, among other things, the Defendant adequately reimbursed Class Members 8 by paying a cell phone stipend. Defendant could argue that the decisions in Brinker v. Superior Court, 9 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), Lockheed Martin Corp. v. Superior Ct., 29 Cal. 4th 1096, 1108 (2003), and 10 Salazar v. See's Candy Shops Inc., 64 Cal.App.5th 85 (2021), weakened Plaintiffs' claims in terms of 11 liability and value, and preclude claims from proceeding on a class or representative basis. Defendant 12 also maintains that a good faith dispute and absence of willfulness would negate the claims for waiting 13 time penalties and/or failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements. See e.g. Naranjo v.
14 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024) ("if an employer reasonably and in good faith 15 believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in compliance with the requirements 16 of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the wage statement 17 law.") If successful, Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the 18 Class. While Plaintiffs believe that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these 19 defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Blumenthal Decl.
20 ¶8(a).

21 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 22 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 (N.D. Cal. 2009), explained in approving an overtime class action settlement:

23 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued litigation are great.
24 Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' principal claim... [...T]he gross 25 settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

26 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009); see also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 27 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiff's case, legal 28 uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor

1 approval.”). As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

2 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting 3 final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the 4 uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse 5 judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay 6 payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today 7 outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, 8 the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential 9 recovery through full adjudication.

10 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
11 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

12 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would be unable 13 to obtain class certification and thereby not recover on behalf of any employees other than themselves.
14 Defendant argued that the individual experience of each putative class member varied with respect to 15 the claims, which would preclude the claims from proceeding on a class basis. For instance, Plaintiffs' 16 meal and rest period claims would require individualized inquiries into whether each employee took 17 a compliant meal or rest period on a given shift and, if not, why. Plaintiffs are aware of other cases 18 where class certification of similar claims was denied. See e.g. Cacho v. Eurostar, Inc., 43 Cal. App.
19 5th 885 (2019) (denying certification of rest break claims). Finally, even if class certification was 20 successful, as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National 21 Association, 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery 22 even where a class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification of wage and 23 hour claims, class certification in this Action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a 24 foregone conclusion. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(b).

25 In sum, the settlement is a fair and reasonable result, and provides the Class with a significant 26 recovery, particularly when viewed in light of the fact that the Defendant asserted serious and 27 substantial defenses both to liability and to class certification. Currently, the maximum and average 28 class member allocation are $8,134.04 and $1,364.24, respectively. See Hernandez Decl. ¶ 15. Given 29 the complexities of this case, the defenses, along with the uncertainties of proof and appeal, the 30 proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl.
31 at ¶8(e).

32 6. The Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

1 As demonstrated by the decision in Duran, the complexities and duration of further litigation 2 cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that Defendant would post a bond and appeal in the event
3 of an adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal by Defendant would have required many more years 4 to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the 5 case could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today 6 outweigh an uncertain result three or more years in the future. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

7 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against Defendant 8 through possible appeals which could take at least another two or three years. Class Counsel also have 9 taken into account the uncertain outcome, the risk of litigation, especially in complex actions such as 10 this one. Class Counsel are also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and 11 alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would 12 have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted and recovery would have been delayed if not denied, 13 thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory. The settlement confers substantial benefits upon 14 the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have determined that the 15 settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

16 Although Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that their case has merit, which Defendant 17 continues to vigorously deny, they recognized the potential risks both sides would face if litigation of 18 the Action continued. As the federal court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar 19 to those in this litigation:

20 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 21 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 22 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 23 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 24 litigating an appeal. "The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 25 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement."

26 Id. at *12.

27 7. The Amount Offered in Settlement

28 The settlement in this case is fair, reasonable and adequate considering Defendant's defenses to Plaintiffs' claims. As set forth in the Declaration of Jessica Campbell in support of preliminary approval which discussed the value of the class claims in detail, the Gross Settlement Amount compares

1 favorably to the value of the claims. Based upon 295 Participating Class Members who collectively
2 worked 6,531 Workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount provides a value of $2,389 per Class Member 3 and $107.94 per Workweek and, after deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average 4 recovery of $1,364.23 per Class Member and $61.62 per Workweek. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶8(d).

5 As explained in detail in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, the calculations to compensate 6 for the amount due to the Class Members at the time the settlement was negotiated were calculated by 7 Plaintiffs' expert, Berger Consulting, in advance of mediation. Class Counsel analyzed the data for 8 putative class members and determined the potential maximum damages for the class claims. For the 9 Class, the maximum potential damages for alleged unpaid wages based on the theory that Defendant 10 failed to compensate the Class Members for daily overtime resulting in maximum potential damages 11 for $189,274, the maximum potential damages for alleged meal period violations were estimated to be 12 $877,966 based upon a 99% violation rate observed in the time records, the maximum potential 13 damages for alleged rest period violations were estimated to be $884,806 based upon a 100% violation 14 rate for shifts worked by the Class, and the maximum potential damages for the alleged failure to 15 reimburse business expenses were calculated to be $98,899 based upon $50 per month. In total, the 16 damages for the Class were calculated to have a maximum potential total value of $2,050,945. In 17 addition, Plaintiffs calculated that the maximum value of the potential waiting time penalties were 18 between $301,148 and $20,466, depending on the predicate violation, and the maximum value of the 19 potential wage statement penalties were $681,950.³ Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiffs' 20 calculations and exposure theories. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶ 8(d).

21 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount represents more than 34% of Plaintiffs' calculation 22 of the potential maximum damages at issue for the Class in this case, assuming these amounts could 23

24
25 ³ While Plaintiffs alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 26 226, at mediation Plaintiffs recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses 27 asserted by Defendant, including but not limited to, a good-faith dispute defense as to whether any 28 premium wages for meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiffs and Class Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal.
App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

1 all be proven in full at trial.⁴ Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by 2 the employer in Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely 3 negate the claims for waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the class.
4 The maximum calculations should then be realistically risk rated in consideration for both the risk of 5 class certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of 6 the settlement as compared to the potential value of the claims, the settlement is most certainly fair and 7 reasonable.⁵ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met.

8 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARD SHOULD 9 BE APPROVED

10 A. The Attorneys' Fees are Reasonable and Supported by the Percentage of the Fund
11 Method

12 Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated at one-third (1/3) of the total value of the settlement 13 for the successful prosecution and resolution of this action. California state and federal courts have 14 recognized that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a 15 percentage of the total value of benefits to class members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple 16 Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977); Boeing Co.
17 v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir.
18 1997). The purpose of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment to the Class and to "spread 19 litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear 20 the entire burden alone." Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

22 ⁴ Because the PAGA claim does not provide a recovery to the Class, Plaintiffs did not include the 23 PAGA claim in this discussion of the class claim valuation. The PAGA claim was addressed in the 24 Motion for Preliminary Approval in the Declaration of Campbell at ¶ 41.

25 ⁵ See Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) 26 approving settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery"); Stovall-Gusman 27 v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval 28 where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Viceral v. Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D.
Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full verdict value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D. Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of full verdict value).

1 The California Supreme Court has provided guidance regarding the award of attorneys' fees in 2 wage and hour class action settlements. Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common 3 fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v.
4 Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) ("We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state 5 courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the 6 class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, 7 the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 8 fund created"). Under the percentage of the fund method, a court's objective remains to "mimic the 9 market" in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998).

10 First, the fee award representing one-third of the fund clearly falls within that range and is 11 consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and 12 fee awards. Attorneys' fees awards of one-third of the fund are within the expected range in the market 13 in legal services. In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (2016), the California Supreme 14 Court both endorsed the award of a fee as a percentage of that fund, and expressly approved one-third 15 (1/3) as a reasonable percentage in a contingent common fund class settlement. Such similar awards 16 by other Courts are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. ¶11.

17 Second, the results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the 18 fund. Here, Plaintiffs and their counsel secured a $705,000 settlement for the benefit of the Class and 19 only two (2) of the Class Members elected to opt out. Similarly, not one Class Member objected. The 20 settlement was possible only because Class Counsel was able to convince Defendant that Plaintiffs 21 could potentially prevail on the contested issues regarding liability, maintain class certification, 22 overcome difficulties in proof as to monetary relief and take the case to trial if need be. Blumenthal 23 Decl. ¶10(f). In successfully navigating these hurdles Class Counsel displayed the necessary skills in 24 both wage and hour and class action litigation. Moreover, as discussed above, there were significant 25 risks to the contingent litigation. See Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp., 297 F.R.D. 431, 449 26 (E.D. Cal. 2013) ("Like this case, where recovery is uncertain, an award of one-third of the 27 common fund as attorneys' fees has been found to be appropriate.")

28 Third, "the response of the class members to attorneys' fee notice, though not decisive, is 1 relevant to the...reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 2 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court’s “approximation of the 3 market” for fees is well supported. Id. at 1269. Here, the Class Notice specifically notified the Class 4 that Class Counsel would be seeking a one-third fee award. Again, there were no objections.

5 Fourth, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney’s fees 6 reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly 7 contingent in nature and the case presented far more risk than the usual contingent fee case. Among the 8 risks was the cost inherent in class action litigation, as well as a long battle with a corporate Defendant 9 who had retained a premier and highly experienced defense firm. Counsel retained on a contingency 10 fee basis, whether in private matters or in class action litigation, is entitled to a premium above 11 their hourly rate in order to compensate for both the risks and the delay in payment. See e.g.
12 Stanger v. China Elec. Motor, Inc., 812 F.3d 734, 741 (9th Cir. 2016) (courts "must" apply a risk 13 enhancement); Stetson v. Grissom, 821 F.3d 1157, 1166 (9th Cir. 2016) (abuse of discretion not to 14 apply risk multiplier).

15 Fifth, the requested fee award is supported by the lodestar cross-check. The reasonableness of 16 the requested attorneys’ fee of one-third equal to $235,000 is also established by reference to Class 17 Counsel’s lodestar in this matter. The contemporaneous billing records for Class Counsel evidence 18 that through October 3, 2025, Class Counsel’s total lodestar is $246,898.00, with significant 19 additional fees still to be incurred to complete final approval and the settlement process. (See 20 Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12 and Exhibit #3 [lodestar of $138,942]; Campbell Decl. at ¶ 18 [lodestar of 21 $107,965.]) The requested fee award is therefore less than Class Counsel’s current lodestar, representing 22 a negative multiplier, and there will be additional lodestar incurred by Class Counsel to complete the 23 settlement process and manage the settlement distribution and reports. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12.) Such 24 a lodestar cross-check is well below the range of positive multipliers approved in other cases such as 25 Laffitte and Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002).⁶ This multiplier cross-

27 ⁶ See Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal. 5th at 487 (approving 1/3 fee award with multiplier of 2.13); Vizcaino
28 supra, at 1051 (3.65 multiplier approved); Pellegrino v. Robert Half Intern., Inc., 182 Cal.App.4th 278 (2010) (in class actions reasonable multipliers of 2.0 to 4.0 are often applied); Wershba, 91 Cal. App.

1 check is not “extraordinarily high” so as to justify an adjustment of the percentage under Laffitte, supra, 2 1 Cal. 5th at 505. For such reasons, Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees in the amount of one-3 third of the common fund is reasonable and should be approved.

4 B. The Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses

5 The Agreement provides at paragraph 3.2(b), that Class Counsel may seek a “Class Counsel 6 Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $30,000.” Class Counsel requests reimbursement for 7 incurred litigation expenses and costs in the amount of $23,757.94 based upon counsel’s billing records
8 which evidence total combined expenses of $23,757.94.⁷ The details of the litigation expenses incurred 9 are set forth the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13 and Exhibit #3 [expenses of $10,156.04]; Campbell Decl. at 10 ¶20 and Exhibit #1 [expenses of $13,601.90]). These costs were reasonably incurred in the prosecution 11 of the Action. Because these costs were reasonable and necessary to the successful prosecution of these 12 claims, the request is reasonable and should be granted.

13 C. The Service Awards Are Reasonable and Should be Approved

14 Plaintiffs respectfully submit that for their service as the class representatives, Plaintiffs should 15 be awarded the agreed service award of $7,500 each in accordance with the Agreement for their time, 16 risk and effort expended on behalf of the Class as the class representatives. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).)
17 Defendant has agreed to these payments and there have been no objections to the requested service 18 award. The Blumenthal Decl., at ¶14, provides a long list of equivalent service awards approved in 19 California in similar cases, which further supports the request in this case. The Plaintiffs’ Declarations 20 in support of the request are attached as Exhibits #5 and 6 to the Blumenthal Decl.

21 As the representatives of the Class, Plaintiffs performed their duties to the Class admirably and Inc., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 142202 (E.D. Cal. 2016) (2.26 multiplier).

26 ⁷ Nontaxable costs are properly awarded where authorized by the parties’ agreement. Stetson, 821 27 F.3d at 1165. Accordingly, “[e]xpenses such as reimbursement for travel, meals, lodging, 28 photocopying, long-distance telephone calls, computer legal research, postage, courier service, mediation, exhibits, documents scanning, and visual equipment are typically recoverable.” Rutti v.
Lojack Corp., Inc., 2012 WL 3151077, at *12 (C.D. Cal. 2012).

1 without exception. Plaintiffs worked extensively with Class Counsel during the course of the litigation, 2 responding to numerous requests, searching for documents, working with counsel, and reviewing the 3 settlement documentation. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶ 14.) The Plaintiffs' Declaration detail the 4 involvement, stress and risks they undertook as a result of this Action. Plaintiffs also assumed the 5 serious risk that they might possibly be liable for costs and fees to Defendant, as well as the reputational 6 risk of being "blacklisted" by other future employers for having filed a class action on behalf of 7 employees. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶15.) Without the Plaintiffs' participation, cooperation and 8 information, no other employees would be receiving any benefit. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 15-16).

9 The payment of service awards to successful class representatives is appropriate and the amount 10 is below the currently awarded range for similar settlements. See, e.g., Andrews v. Plains All Am.
11 Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (service awards of $15,000 each 12 are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal.
13 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S.
14 Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was 15 $351); Louie, supra, 2008 WL 4473183 at *7 (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs 16 in overtime class action); Glass, supra, 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17 (awarding $25,000 service award).
17 Accordingly, Class Counsel respectfully requests approval of the Class Representative Service 18 Payments in accordance with the Agreement.

19 VI. CONCLUSION

20 Plaintiffs respectfully submit that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 21 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate 22 and requests entry of the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith.
