JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. Venue is proper in Alameda County, because Defendants maintains its locations and transacts business in this county, the obligations and liability primarily arise in this county, and work was primarily performed by Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees in this county.

12. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction over this matter. The individual claims are under the seventy-five thousand dollar ($75,000.00) jurisdictional threshold for federal court and PAGA penalties cannot be aggregated to meet the minimum jurisdictional amount required for diversity removal. Further, there is no federal question at issue as the issues herein are based solely on California statutes and law, including, but not limited to, the California Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, California Code of Civil Procedure, and California Rules of Court.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

13. Defendants, aplumbing company, employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees, in non-exempt positions, in California during the relevant PAGA period. Plaintiff began working or on about August 2021 to July2022, as a plumber.

14. The position required Plaintiff to work more than 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours per week without lawful compensation. Plaintiff and nonexempt aggrieved employees were regularly not paid for minimum wages and overtime for compensable work time spent under the control of Defendants, but which was performed off-the-clock, even though such additional work time was in excess of regularly scheduled, eight-hour daily shifts.

15. Plaintiff and nonexempt aggrieved employees were subject to not having all their compensable work time recorded. Not all of Plaintiff and nonexempt aggrieved employees' compensable work time spent under the control of Defendants was accounted for and compensated. Specifically, Defendants (1) adjusted clock in and clock out times to the disadvantage of Plaintiff and other non-exempt aggrieved employees by rounding up clock-in times when Plaintiff and non-exempt employees clocked in before the scheduled start of their respective shifts and rounded down clock-out times when Plaintiff and nonexempt aggrieved employees worked past the scheduled end time for their shifts, as well as (2) requiring Plaintiff and non-exempt employees to continue working when ostensibly on duty-free meal periods, or requiring them to return to work before the end of their thirty-minute meal periods but prohibiting them from clocking back in until the legally required thirty-minute mark.

16. Based on information and belief, Plaintiff believes non-exempt employees were also not being fully reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their job duties. Specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff and aggrieved employees, regardless of classification, to use their personal cellular telephones to send and receive messages and calls with supervisors to understand their duties and the scope of work. As well as having Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees purchase their own caulk guns, concrete drill bits, bubble levels, grinders, set squares and other tools to complete work on behalf of Defendants. Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintifff and Aggrieved Employees fully for use of their personal cellular devices, forconsumption of personal calling or data plans and for their costs of buying special tools to perform their work duties

17. Defendants failed to authorize and permit all required meal and rest periods for Plaintiff and nonexempt aggrieved employees because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintained unlawful meal/rest period policies and practices. In order to curtail labor costs, Defendants regularly did not staff enough employees to provide sufficient coverage to maintain their business operations so Plaintiff and aggrieved employees could not both complete their assigned daily duties and take complete, timely and uninterrupted meal and rest breaks. Defendants prioritized completion of daily duties ahead of meal and rest period compliance. Furthermore, Defendants nevertheless deducted a half hour from the daily time worked by Plaintiff and aggrieved employers for ostensible meal periods despite the fact such breaks not actually taken or delayed or interrupted. Moreover, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and aggrieved employees with an additional hour of premium pay at the regular rate of pay for each meal/rest period violation, as required by Labor Code section 226.7.

18. As a result of the violations described above, Plaintiff and nonexempt aggrieved employees experienced collateral or derivative violations. Specifically, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and nonexempt Aggrieved Employees accurate itemized wage statements in writing in compliance with Labor Code section 226 and failed to compensate Plaintiff and other former nonexempt aggrieved employees for all wages owed at the time employment with Defendants had ended.

19. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for violation of the code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

20. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

21. Defendants' conduct during the PAGA period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees violates numerous Labor Code sections as detailed herein.

22. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants has engaged in a systematic pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

23. At all relevant times herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as employees who were subject to the employment policies, in whole or in part, and therefore suffered the same or substantially similar violations, in whole or in part.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive wages for all hours worked, including the applicable minimum, regular, and overtime wages, and that they were not receiving all wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for all hours worked. Accordingly, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and aggrieved employees all earned minimum, regular, and/or overtime compensation.

25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all required meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty meal period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendants had a pattern, practice, and policy of not providing timely meal periods. Defendants failed to pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for late meal periods. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policy and practice, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees did not receive all meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted 30 minute off-duty meal period.

26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all required rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty rest period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendants had a pattern, practice, and policy of not providing timely rest periods. Defendants failed to pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for each rest periods were not provided or was interrupted. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policy and practice, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees did not receive all requited rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted 10 minute off-duty rest period.

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and certain aggrieved employees were entitled to timely payment of wages due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and certain aggrieved employees did not receive payment of all wages due, within permissible time periods, upon separation of employment.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive itemized wage statements that accurately showed their actual hours worked, total hours worked, number of hours worked at each hourly rate, gross and net wages earned, and correct employer information in accordance with California law. As a result of the wage violations specified above, and in violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements that accurately reported their gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, each applicable rate of pay in effect during the pay period with the corresponding number of hours worked, and the address of the legal entity that is the employer, among other things.

29. Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were employees covered under one or more statutes under the Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2802, but were not reimbursed by Defendants for all business expenses incurred, including but not limited to expenses arising from use of personal cellular devices for work purposes, buying special tools to complete their work assignments and the prorated cost of personal cellular plans utilized for work purposes.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to maintain accurate records of the hours worked by Plaintiff and aggrieved employees. In violation of the Labor Code, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked by Plaintiff and aggrieved employees due to its off-the-clock and/or unfair rounding practices, among other things.

SUBJECT: Armando Rivera v. Can-Am Plumbing Inc., and Ronald Capilla; ET AL — NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS UNDER CAL. LABOR CODE §2699.3

Dear Representative:

This office represents Armando Rivera ("Mr. Rivera") with respect to his claims against Can-Am Plumbing Inc., and Ronald Capilla ("Employers") for violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. This letter is being sent simultaneously to Employers by certified mail.

Employers are a corporation doing business in the State of California. Employers employed Mr. Rivera from approximately August 2021 to July 2022, as a non-exempt employee. During his employment with Employers, Mr. Rivera was employed as a "Plumber". Employers' office is located at 151 Wyoming Street Pleasanton, CA 94566. Mr. Rivera's job responsibilities included installing plumbing in new buildings.

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees did not receive all wages for compensable work time. Employers implemented an illegal time rounding system that did not pay all Aggrieved Employees all compensable work time that further resulted in incorrect wage statements and unpaid wages.

Despite working more than 8 hours in a given workday, Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees would not receive appropriate overtime pay. Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees regularly did not receive timely, uninterrupted, or complete meal or rest breaks, because employers expected round-the-clock coverage with insufficient staffing. Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were also required to use their own personal cell phones to participate in internal communications with employer. Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees would also have to purchase tools to complete work tasks on behalf of Defendants. Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees would also have to wash and maintain a company safety best without compensation several times per week.

Mr. Rivera intends to seek penalties for violations of the California Labor Code which are recoverable under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"). Mr. Rivera is seeking penalties on behalf of himself and in a representative capacity on behalf of the State of California and all current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Employers ("Aggrieved Employees"). This letter is being sent in compliance with California Labor Code section 2699.3.

As detailed below, Employers violated several of California's wage and hour laws during Mr. Rivera employment, including but not limited to violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("IWC Wage Order") including inter alia, IWC Wage Order No. 5. The claims made on behalf of Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees are based upon the following facts and theories:

1. FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL TIME WORKED AT CORRECT RATES OF PAY, INCLUDING MINIMUM WAGES, STRAIGHT TIME WAGES, AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION.

Employers have engaged in numerous unlawful practices which resulted in the failure to pay Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees for all time worked at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation.

First, Employers regularly required Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock in order to complete their duties and responsibilities. This off-the-clock work included, amongst other things, requiring Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees to: (1) respond to Employers and work-related requests and perform work while clocked out for purported meal breaks; (2) perform work before clocking in for the start of their shift; and (3) perform work after clocking out for the end of their shift. Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for this off-the-clock work, resulting in a failure to pay minimum wages and straight time wages. Moreover, this off-the-clock work typically caused Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees to work more than eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in week, resulting in a failure to pay overtime compensation.

In addition to requiring Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock without compensation, Employers also failed to accurately record the actual time worked by Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees, which resulted in a failure to pay Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages. Finally, and as a matter of policy and/or practice, Employers failed to pay overtime to Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

As a result of the foregoing practices, Employers have failed to pay Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees for all wages earned at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198.

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

2. FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS AND PAY MEAL PERIOD PREMIUMS

Employers failed to provide Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant 30-minute meal periods. Employers required Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees to work more than five (5) hours per day but were not provided with uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods. Further, Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted 30-minute meal period when they worked over ten (10) hours per day. Employers regularly required Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees to work through their first and second meal periods, to take their first meal period after their fifth (5th) hour of work, and/or to take their second meal periods after their tenth (10th) hour of work. On the occasions that Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees did take a meal period, their meal periods were frequently interrupted or cut short.

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, complete and duty-free meal periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of meal periods or systematically disregarded its own purported meal period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all hourly-non-exempt employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant meal period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant meal periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (6) Employers required Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times, including during meal periods, which included responding to in-person verbal interruptions; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented

Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods.

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for the meal periods which were not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), 512(a) and 1198.

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

3. FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE AND PERMIT REST PERIODS AND PAY REST PERIOD PREMIUMS.

Employers failed to authorize and permit Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees take legally compliant 10-minute periods. Employers required Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods. Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods when they worked more than four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof. Further, Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted, duty-free rest period when they worked more than six (6) hours in a day, or a third uninterrupted, duty-free rest period after working more than ten (10) hours in day. In the rare event that a rest period was taken, it was frequently interrupted or cut short. Moreover, Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were never completely relieved of duty as required by Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal.5th 257 (2016).

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and complete rest periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods or systematically disregarded its own purported rest period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all hourly-non-exempt employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant rest period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant rest periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (6) Employers required Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times, including during rest periods, which included responding to in person verbal interruptions; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Mr. Rivera and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive rest periods.

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for the rest periods which were not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), and 1198.

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

4. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 204(a).

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

5. FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE TO DISCHARGED AND QUTTING EMPLOYEES.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 201(a), 202(a) and 203(a).

Ms. Armendariz and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

6. FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS.

As a result of the practices described above, the wage statements provided to Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees never included the actual hours worked, the name and address of the legal employing entity, all owed wages and the correct rates of pay. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 226(a).

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.3; and attorneys' fees and costs.

7. FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE RECORDS.

Employers have failed to maintain accurate records relating to Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours worked, and total hours worked per payroll period. Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Wage Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 1198.5 and 1174(d).

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; California Labor Code section 1174.5 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

8. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY EXPENDITURES.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. IWC Wage Order No. 5 requires employers to provide employees with the tools or equipment necessary for the performance of their job. During the relevant time period, Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Employers. These costs include but are not limited to the use of Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees use of their personal cell phone to send and receive messages and calls with supervisors to understand their duties and the scope of work. As well as having Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees buy and have caulk guns, concrete drill bits, bubble levels, grinders, set squares and other tools to complete work on behalf of defendants.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Order No. 5 and California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

Mr. Rivera and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order No. 5; and attorneys' fees and costs.

Sincerely,

JUSTIN LO ESQ.
