I, Eric B. Kingsley, state and declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted before all courts of the State of California and a partner in the law firm of Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers, counsel of record for Plaintiff in this action. I am completely familiar with the present litigation, including the pleadings, discovery, and filings submitted in this matter. I make this Declaration from my own personal knowledge, and, if called upon, I could and would competently testify to the following.

2. I graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara, in 1993 with a degree in History. I graduated from Loyola Law School of Los Angeles in 1996. I am admitted to practice before the following Courts: United States Supreme Court; United States District Court, Northern, Eastern, Southern and Central of California; all California State Courts.

3. I make this Declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Class Action Settlement in the above-captioned case.

RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4. On September 8, 2022, Plaintiff filed this wage and hour class action lawsuit, alleging six causes of action, including: (1) failure to pay wages and/or overtime under Labor Code sections 510, 511, 1194, and 1199; (2) failure to provide meal breaks pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512; (3) failure to provide rest breaks pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7; (4) failure to issue accurate itemized wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a); (5) penalties under Labor Code section 203; and (6) violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200. Also on September 8, 2022, Plaintiff sent a notice letter, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699 (“PAGA”), to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) regarding her intent to seek civil penalties for the same Labor Code violations above, under Labor Code section 2699, et seq.

5. On December 20, 2022, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint adding an additional cause of action for penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on the underlying Labor Code violations already pled. (Hereafter, the “Action”.)

1 6. Plaintiff brings the Class Action on behalf of a Proposed Class defined as: “[a]ll
2 hourly employees worked for Balda C. Brewer, Inc., directly or through a staffing agency, who 3 are employed or have been employed by Balda C. Brewer, Inc., in the State of California who 4 worked one or more pay periods since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present.”

5 THE DISCOVERY PROCESS

6 7. The Parties started to engage in formal discovery but agreed to stay formal 7 discovery to focus their efforts on resolving this case through early mediation.

8 8. Plaintiff served her first set of Special Interrogatories and Requests for Production
9 of Documents on April 26, 2023. Defendant produced the employee handbook as well as a 10 randomized 20% sample of time and pay data for the Proposed Class for mediation purposes only.

11 9. On March 11, 2024, and September 11, 2024, the Parties attended two days of 12 mediation with experienced mediator Peter S. Rukin.

13 10. The Parties engaged in arms-length settlement negotiations for months before this 14 Settlement was reached.

15 11. Defendant denies any liability or wrongdoing of any kind associated with the claims
16 alleged in the Action, disputes the damages and penalties claimed by Plaintiff, and further contends
17 that, for any purpose other than settlement, Plaintiff’s claims are not appropriate for class or 18 representative action treatment. Defendant contends, among other things, that, at all times, it has 19 complied with the California Labor Code, and the Industrial Wage Commission Orders

20 12. Based on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of 21 the opinion that the Agreement with Defendant is fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best
22 interest of the settlement classes in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk
23 of significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, uncertainties regarding a class and 24 representative action trial on the merits, and numerous potential appellate issues. Although 25 Defendant denies any liability, Defendant is agreeing to this Agreement solely to avoid the cost of 26 litigation. Accordingly, the Parties and their counsel desire to fully, finally, and forever settle,
27 compromise and discharge all disputes and claims arising from or relating to the Action on the 28 terms set forth here.

2 CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

3 13. Plaintiff maintains that the proposed Class is ascertainable. Defendant has agreed
4 in the Agreement to provide a class list to the Administrator containing the name, last known
5 mailing address, last known telephone number, social security number, and number of Covered
6 Period Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods in Defendant's possession and/or the records of the 7 staffing agencies employing any Class Member for putative class members after issuance of the 8 preliminary approval order.

9 14. Settlement Class Members consist partly of Defendant's hourly employees, and 10 Defendant is required to keep records of its hourly employees' names, home addresses, and social 11 security numbers.

12 15. Because of the itinerant nature of the workforce and the as-yet missing contact
13 information for some Settlement Class Members, the Parties are requesting that the Court approve
14 class notice by way of both mailed Class Notices and also by publication.

15 16. The Parties met and conferred extensively with Phoenix and propose that, in 16 addition to mailed notices, additional class notice is published in the La Opinion newspaper and 17 Facebook, specifically targeting demographics of which Defendant believes the most Settlement
18 Class Members reside and will most likely see it.

19 17. The notice published in La Opinion and Facebook will also be translated to Spanish.

20 18. Therefore, Plaintiff is confident she will be able to establish that the proposed Class 21 is ascertainable and sufficiently numerous.

22 19. Plaintiff argues that there are questions of law and fact common to the proposed 23 Class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members.

24 20. These common questions include:

- 25 1) Whether Defendant failed to pay all wages and/or overtime compensation;
26 2) Whether Defendant failed to provide lawfully required meal periods and/or failed
27 to compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;
28 3) Whether Defendant failed to provide lawfully required rest periods and/or failed to compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;

4) Whether Defendant failed to reimburse for all necessary business expenses;

5) Whether Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements;

6) Whether Defendant failed to pay compensation due and owing upon termination of employment;

7) Whether Defendant engaged in unfair competition; and,

8) Whether Defendant violated § 2699, et seq. of the Labor Code by engaging in the acts previously alleged.

21. Defendant maintained a company handbook containing uniform meal, rest, and wage policies for all hourly employees

22. However, Plaintiff maintains that the uniform procedures applied to all Settlement Class Members did not actually comply with California law and the presence of a company-wide meal and rest policies and procedures suggest that Defendant applied the same policies and procedures to all employees, which would weigh in favor of class certification.

23. Plaintiff's challenge to Defendant's uniform policies and practices involves common factual and legal issues that are amenable to class treatment.

24. Plaintiff maintains that the proposed Settlement Class Members suffered the same injuries, in the same manner: (1) Settlement Class Members were not properly paid all wages/overtime; (2) Settlement Class Members did not receive their meal and rest periods as required; (3) Settlement Class Members were not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses; (4) Settlement Class Members were not provided accurate itemized wage statements; and (5) Settlement Class Members were not paid all wages owed upon termination/resignation.

25. Accordingly, for purposes of settlement, the time and pay records reviewed by Class Counsel and its retained expert demonstrates that common meal and rest policies/procedures and wage policies/procedures applied to the proposed Settlement Class Members and certification for settlement purposes is appropriate.

26. Plaintiff worked as an hourly employee for Defendant at the Ontario, California location.

1 27. Plaintiff alleges that she: (1) worked without being paid all wages and/or overtime;
2 (2) worked without being provided meal/rest periods as required by law; (3) was not reimbursed
3 for all necessary business expenses; (4) worked without being provided accurate itemized wage
4 statements; and (5) worked without being paid all wages due upon separation.

5 28. She also alleges that she experienced derivative claims for unfair business
6 competition (B&P Code §17200) and Labor Code §2699, et seq.

7 29. Plaintiff also contends that her claims are typical of those of the Class.

8 30. Plaintiff believes that she is capable of fairly representing and adequately protecting 9 the interests of the proposed Settlement Class Members.

10 31. The members of the proposed Class all worked for Defendant during the relevant 11 time period and incurred the same type of alleged damages with regard to Defendant's alleged 12 violations of the law.

13 32. Moreover, Plaintiff has agreed to serve as Class Representative and has retained
14 qualified Counsel who is experienced in prosecuting wage and hour class actions.

15 33. This demonstrates her commitment to bringing about the best possible results for 16 the benefit of the proposed Class.

17 34. Plaintiff has provided her Counsel with all necessary and pertinent information.

18 35. She has been a very active participant in the litigation including being available if 19 Settlement Class Members wish to contact her and working closely with Class Counsel to develop 20 the theories of liability.

21 36. Plaintiff has provided her Counsel with all necessary and pertinent information.

22 37. She also made herself available for both days of mediation in this matter and was 23 informed of and involved in all settlement negotiations.

24 38. Therefore, Plaintiff believes that she has and will continue to adequately represent 25 the proposed Settlement Class Members.

26 39. In this regard, the superiority of class treatment is evident here because individual 27 pursuit of class members' claims may not be economically viable.

28 40. The only alternative to certification would be to force over 1,543 employees to join

1 this action, file individual, uniform actions, or abandon their legal rights altogether.

2 41. Plaintiff maintains that this economic reality would result in a windfall for 3 Defendant if this case were not certified.

4 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

5 42. For purposes of Agreement, the settlement class is defined as: “all hourly
6 employees of Balda C. Brewer, Inc. who worked one or more pay periods in California during the 7 Covered Period, and those individuals working at Balda C. Brewer, Inc. on an hourly basis through 8 a staffing agency, for one or more pay periods in California during the Covered Period.”

9 43. The “Settlement Class Members” or “Class Member” means a member of the Class, 10 as either a Participating Class Member or Non-Participating Class Member (including a Non-11 Participating Class Member who qualifies as an Aggrieved Employee).

12 44. The Covered Period is the period from September 8, 2018 to October 6, 2024.

13 45. As of February 19, 2026 Defendant estimates there are approximately 1,543
14 Settlement Class Members.

15 46. For purposes of Agreement, the “Aggrieved Employee” or “PAGA Employee”
16 means “all hourly employees of Balda C. Brewer, Inc. who worked one or more pay periods during 17 the PAGA Period in the State of California, and those individuals working for Balda C. Brewer,
18 Inc. on an hourly basis through a staffing agency, in California for one or more pay periods during 19 the PAGA Period.”

20 47. The PAGA Period means the period of September 8, 2021 to October 6, 2024.

21 48. As detailed fully in the Agreement, the Settlement provides for Defendant to pay a
22 Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00, which includes the sum of the Individual Class
23 Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class
24 Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment and the Administrator’s Expenses.

25 49. The Net Settlement Amount is the Gross Settlement Amount, less Individual PAGA
26 Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel
27 Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses
28 Payment.

KULLAR ANALYSIS

50. The proposed settlement satisfies each of the Kullar factors.

51. This discovery permitted Class Counsel to fairly evaluate the strength of the case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation.

52. The Parties also engaged in meaningful confirmatory discovery after the mediation.

53. Class Counsel is experienced in handling wage and hour class actions and, after weighing all of the following factors, supports this Agreement.

a) The Risks Associated with the Wages/Overtime Claim

54. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class allege that they were not properly compensated for all hours worked at the appropriate rate of pay.

55. For approximately the first year of Plaintiff's employment, she worked 9-hour shifts, five (5) days per week. Plaintiff's work schedule was typically from 10:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. Towards the end of her employment, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant instituted an improper alternative workweek schedule that resulted in unpaid overtime.

56. Plaintiff's alternative workweek schedule consisted of 12-hour shifts for three (3) days per week, and a 6-hour shift one day per week, for a total of 42 hours per week.

57. However, Defendant's overtime policy states that non-exempt employees only receive overtime pay if the employee works over 40 hours in one week and or the first 8 hours worked on a seventh consecutive day of work in the same workweek.

58. Plaintiff maintains that this policy is unlawful on its face for employees who do not work the same AWS as Plaintiff, nor does it state that employees on the 12/12/12/6 AWS are entitled to overtime after the 10th hour of work or after the 12th hour of work.

59. Under a valid AWS, the applicable wage order permits an alternative work schedule of no more than 10 hours per day without the payment of an overtime rate of compensation.

60. However, under its general overtime policy in the Employee Handbook, an employee only earns overtime compensation if the employee works over 40 hours in a week or on a seventh consecutive day of work

61. Plaintiff also argues that Defendant maintained an unlawful rounding practice.

1 62. Plaintiff further alleges that she signed in/out sheets every day when beginning or
2 ending her shift and for meal periods, but that supervisors actually recorded and rounded
3 employees' time which resulted in meal violations and unpaid wages.

4 b) The Risks Associated with the Meal Break Claim

5 63. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant failed to inform Plaintiff of her right to take
6 compliant first and second meal period by way of lawful policy.

7 64. Defendant forced Plaintiff to five (5) hours in one day without being provided a 8 thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break.

9 65. Plaintiff alleges that she was subjected to late meal periods because she could not 10 leave her machine unattended and was required to wait under a supervisor could relieve her for a 11 meal break.

12 66. Plaintiff also maintains that regularly worked 12-hour shifts during the time she 13 worked an alternative work schedule and was not provided a second meal period, nor did she sign 14 a meal waiver waiving her second meal periods.

15 67. Defendant has maintained an unlawful meal rounding policy wherein it rounded 16 time for an employee's meal break regardless of whether a 30-minute compliant meal period was 17 actually provided under California law.

18 68. This rounding policy was unlawful and did not account for whether the meal
19 periods were provided, employees took their meal periods at all, took timely meal periods, and/or 20 took meal periods of less than thirty minutes.

21 69. Defendant heavily contested this claim.

22 70. Defendant argued that the employees did receive their meal and rest periods and, at 23 trial, would present other employees who would testify to that fact. Defendant argued that its 24 policies and practices ensured high compliance with meal and rest break laws because employees 25 were required to document non-compliant meal periods for every shift through its electronic 26 timekeeping system. Additionally, because Defendant maintained facially valid meal and rest
27 period policies, Defendant argued that it would be entitled to inquire of each and every Settlement
28 Class Member whether his/her meal periods were provided, and if not, why not – essentially

1 arguing that any untimely or short meal periods in the records were a result of an employee's
2 volition rather than Defendant's own failure to provide them. Had the Parties proceeded to trial,
3 Defendant would have retained an expert to analyze extrinsic evidence to rebut any alleged meal
4 break violations by arguing that meal breaks were taken and not recorded or were voluntarily
5 missed. These presented risks on the meal and rest period claims that Plaintiffs considered when 6 evaluating this settlement.

7 c) The Risks Associated with the Rest Break Claim

8 71. Plaintiff could not leave her machine unattended to take her meal or rest breaks.

9 72. A supervisor needed to ensure Plaintiff's machine was covered by another
10 employee so that Plaintiff could take her meal or rest break.

11 73. In its defense, Defendant would have argued that Plaintiffs' rest period claim was 12 not appropriate for certification because California law does not require employees to record rest
13 periods. Absent a shift-by-shift, break-by-break, employee-by-employee inquiry, Defendant
14 would have argued that there was simply no way to know (1) whether a break was taken; and (2)
15 if not, why not. For each instance where an employee did not take a 10- minute rest period by the 16 end of the fourth hour of work, the trier of fact would still have to determine why that particular 17 employee had less than their full allotment of rest time. Plaintiff had to acknowledge that it could 18 potentially be easy for Defendant to defeat certification of this claim if it was able to gather
19 testimonial evidence from class members indicating that they were able to take all required rest
20 breaks each day. Though Plaintiff does not believe this was the case, Plaintiff must acknowledge 21 it poses risks for the Class. There is certainly risk as to both sides as to what declarations and 22 depositions of class members might reveal.

23 d) The Risks Associated with the Reimbursement Claim

24 74. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse employees for the cost of using 25 tools that were not provided by Defendant but were necessary for the performance of Plaintiff and 26 the Proposed Class's job duties. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required that he and the Proposed 27 Class use their personal cell phones to communicate with supervisors and send photos throughout 28 their shifts if they needed assistance, as well as respond to calls or texts regarding work-related

1 matters while they were off the clock. Defendant did not reimburse Plaintiff and the Proposed
2 Class for this business use of their personal cell phone.

3 75. Defendant strongly argued that, if there was work-related use of personal cell
4 phones, that use of their personal cell phones was minimal and infrequent, which would greatly
5 reduce the actual amount of damages owed under this claim.

6 e) The Risks Associated with the Inaccurate Wage Statement Claim

7 76. Plaintiff and the Class are issued wage statements that do not include the total hours
8 worked by the employee.

9 77. Plaintiff and the Class are issued wage statements that do not include all applicable
10 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 11 hourly rate by the employee.

12 f) The Risks Associated with the Waiting Time Penalty Claim

13 78. Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to properly pay overtime for any work in 14 excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or any work in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

15 79. The risk analysis for the section 203 claim flows from the risk analysis for the 16 underlying wage claim discussed above.

17 80. If Defendant could prove, as it contends, that class members were paid for all hours
18 worked, there would be no recovery of wages and no waiting time penalties that flow therefrom.

19 81. Plaintiff also alleged that Defendant owes waiting time penalties by not paying 20 former alleged employees all wages owed and all premium payments for non-compliant meal or 21 rest periods under Labor Code § 226.7.

22 82. Pursuant to Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2002) 40 Cal.4th 1094,
23 1120, Plaintiff contended that break premium payments constitute “wages” under Labor Code §
24 203. (“We hold that section 226.7’s plain language, the administrative and legislative history, and 25 the compensatory purpose of the remedy compel the conclusion that the ‘additional hour of pay’
26 is a premium wage, not a penalty”).

27 83. The bigger risk that Plaintiff analyzed, however, is that to establish liability for 28 waiting time penalties, Plaintiff would have to establish not only that the underlying violations

1 occurred, but also that Defendant's conduct was "willful."

2 84. If Defendant could establish that any alleged failure was the result of mistake or
3 oversight and not "willful", then it is possible that Plaintiff would not be able to recover penalties
4 for this claim.

5 85. Because of this risk, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount for settlement
6 purposes was appropriate.

7 g) The Risks Associated with the PAGA Claim

8 86. The Agreement's contemplated PAGA payment of $20,000.00 is appropriate.

9 87. There is significant expense associated with the class certification process, which 10 the Parties can avoid by entering into the contemplated Agreement now.

11 88. If the Court did eventually certify a meal or wage statement class, trial of a case
12 involving approximately 1,543 Settlement Class Members would require the retention of 13 expensive expert witnesses, the accrual of extensive litigation costs, and a significant time overlay
14 by the parties.

15 89. Moreover, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues in this case it is 16 likely that any outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal
17 would result in further delay for the Settlement Class Members who are waiting for a resolution in 18 this matter.

19 90. This case has not been certified to be tried as a class action. Moreover, in class
20 actions, decertification is always a possibility. In attempting to certify a class, the parties would 21 need to conduct multiple depositions, including of the Class Representative and of several 22 person(s) most knowledgeable regarding Defendant's meal, rest, reimbursement, and wage
23 policies. There is a risk for both sides as to what these depositions will reveal and whether they 24 will support class certification to the extent expected.

25 91. It was very difficult for the Parties to reach this Settlement of $2,500,000.00.

26 92. This Settlement is the result of adversarial, non-collusive, and arms-length
27 negotiations. The Parties arrived at it after extensive investigation and discovery, careful 28 evaluation of the law, risks, and all information substantiating the amount of penalties reasonably likely to be awarded to the class were the trier of fact to find Defendant liable, and the assistance of an experienced mediator, Peter S. Rukin.

93. Plaintiff retained an expert to analyze a randomized sample of time and pay data provided by Defendant in advance of mediation.

94. Plaintiff assessed full value of the Unpaid Wages claim, without any discount, at approximately $133,493.00.

95. Out of the 53,592 shifts analyzed in the provided sample, only 228 employees were underpaid due to the rounding policy and practice.

96. The full value of the Meal Period claim, without any discount, was approximately $1,022,473.00, including interest.

97. This amount is comprised of $948,875.00 in damages for Settlement Class Members.

98. For the reasons above, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount of the full amount was appropriate.

99. The full value of the Rest Period claim, without any discount, was approximately $6,854,744.00 including interest.

100. This amount is comprised of $6,392,611.00 in damages for class members assuming a 100% violation.

101. However, taking the significant risks at trial and that the actual violation rate is likely lower than 100%, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount of the full amount was appropriate.

102. Plaintiff valued the Wage Statement Claim, without discount, at $2,000,00.00.

103. However, this figure is overstated because Labor Code §226(e)(1) uses $50 for the initial pay period (not $100) and puts a $4,000 cap on wage statement penalties.

104. Due to the risk discussed above that 226(a) liability wouldn't attach under Naranjo and Maldonado, Plaintiff determined that a steep discount of this claim was fair for settlement purposes.

105. Plaintiff valued the Waiting Time Claim, tied to the Wage/Overtime claim, at 1 $2,760,928.00.

2 106. Considering the derivate nature of Labor Code §203 and the dispute over whether
3 class members were owed any wages, Plaintiff determined that accepting a discount on this claim
4 was appropriate.

5 107. Finally, Plaintiff calculated the value of the PAGA claim at $8,492,600.00 for 6 Settlement Class Members (using $100 per pay period) and “stacked” violations per Labor Code 7 section alleged.

8 108. However, the main risk taken into account with PAGA is the discretionary nature
9 of the penalty award.

10 109. A judge can award the statutory maximum of $100 for the initial violation and $200
11 thereafter or – in theory – one cent per wage statement.

12 110. While there is a dearth of available authority, in Plaintiff’s view, were she to 13 succeed on any of the underlying Labor Code violations, it is not likely that a Judge would also 14 award a large amount of penalties of top of any damages recovered.

15 111. Further, if the Court awarded only a single “stack” of PAGA penalties, the 16 maximum value of the PAGA claim could actually be $332,660.00 (33,266 pay periods x $100
17 per pay period.

18 112. Thus, Plaintiff believed accepting a steep discount on this claim was reasonable for 19 purposes of settlement.

20 113. Per Plaintiff’s assessment, the maximum potential value of all of Plaintiff’s and the 21 Settlement Class Members’ claims was approximately $9,807,639.00 with reasonable discounts
22 taken into account.

23 114. However, as a result of the forgoing risks on the merits, Class Counsel believes the 24 Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00 is fair and reasonable.

25 ATTORNEY COMPETENCE

Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.

Within 14 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Defendant will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration from Defendant and Defense Counsel disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.

8.2 Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports to state and federal tax authorities.

- 8.4.2 Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail, the Class Notice substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.
- 8.4.3 Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator’s receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. - 8.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members’ written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 60 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.
- 8.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, including any persons responding to the Publication Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

8.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 6.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

8.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 60 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination of the challenges.

8.7 Objections to Settlement.

The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

Defendant may elect not to increase the Gross Settlement Amount proportionately and instead may elect to reduce the Class Period so as to come within the escalator clause, Defendant shall notify Class Counsel of its decision in writing within ten (10) days of receiving the number of Class Members from the Settlement Administrator.

10. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 15% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than thirty days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

NANCY MARQUEZ MALDONADO A.K.A. NANCY MALDONADO MARQUEZ, an individual, on behalf of herself, others similarly situated, and on behalf of the State of California, as a private attorney general, Plaintiff, v. BALDA C. BREWER, INC.; and DOES 1 thru 50, inclusive, Defendants, Case No. CIVSB2219827

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class and representative action lawsuit ("Action") against BALDA C. BREWER, INC. ("Defendant" or "Balda" is used herein as a placeholder) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former Balda employee, NANCY MARQUEZ MALDONADO A.K.A. NANCY MALDONADO MARQUEZ ("Plaintiff") and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for all hourly employees who worked for Balda C. Brewer, Inc., directly or through a staffing agency, who are employed or have been employed by Balda C. Brewer, Inc., in the State of California who worked one or more pay periods during September 8, 2018 to October 6, 2024 ("Class" or "Class Members") Covered Period; and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act ("PAGA") for all hourly employees who worked for Balda C. Brewer, Inc., directly or through a staffing agency, who are employed or have been employed by Balda C. Brewer, Inc., in the State of California who worked one or more pay periods during the PAGA Period ([date] to October 6, 2024, or the date of preliminary approval, whichever is earlier) ("Aggrieved Employees" or "PAGA Employees").

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA").

Based on Defendant's records, and the Parties' current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $_____ (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $_____. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant's records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn't work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant's records showing that you worked _____ workweeks during the Covered Period and you worked _____ pay periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks or pay periods during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's attorneys ("Class Counsel"). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Covered Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Covered Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Covered Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [date]	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel

but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by [date]	and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the [date] Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [date]. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [date]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Covered Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number Covered Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant's records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [date]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former Balda employee. The Action accuses Defendant of violating California labor laws by failing to pay wages and/or overtime under Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1199; failing to provide meal and rest breaks pursuant to Labor Code section 512 and 226.7; failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a); waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203; and violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Kingsley Szamet ("Class Counsel.")

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval.

Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant will pay $2,500,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $833,333.33 (33-1/3% of the Gross Settlement] to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $30,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $15,000.00 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $9,450.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $20,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% ($15,000.00) to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($5,000.00) in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Covered Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of one-third of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and two-thirds to interest and penalties. (“Non-Wage Portion.”) The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [date], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [date] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.

8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, Apex (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement (and separately paid all employer payroll taxes), Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Covered Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) any and all debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, guarantees, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, damages, action or causes of action contingent or accrued for, arising out of the factual allegations and claims asserted in the FAC, or any claims through the Covered Period which could have been asserted based on the facts alleged in the FAC, including without limitation to, any and all claims (1) pled in the complaint, including Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1199 (OT and Wages), 226.7, 512 (Meal and Rest), 226 (itemized wage statements), and 203 (waiting time); (2) all claims that could have been pled based on facts alleged; and (3) all related PAGA claims. Close date on the release is October 6, 2024 or the date of preliminary approval, whichever is earlier (collectively, the “Released Class Claims”). Covered Period Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Covered Period..

10. Aggrieved Employees’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved

Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties, from all civil penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs under PAGA for all Labor Code provisions included in the LWDA Letter (collectively, the "PAGA Claims") that arose during the PAGA Period.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $5,000.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Covered Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [date] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as NANCY MARQUEZ MALDONADO A.K.A. BREWER, INC., and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [date], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least [insert] days before the [date] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website [need details].
