COMES NOW plaintiff ARACELI FUENTES (“Plaintiff”), as aggrieved employees, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys’ General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against MAYFLOWER MEDICAL GROUP, INC, a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“MAYFLOWER”), and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiffs, or some of them, and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

1 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 2 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 3 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 4 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
5 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 6 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 7 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

8 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 9 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
10 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 11 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

12 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 13 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 14 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 15 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 16 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

17 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 18 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 19 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 20 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

21 8. On or around September 6, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 22 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 23 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 24 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

25 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 26 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 27 calendar days of the September 6, 2022 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 28 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

4 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 5 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 6 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 7 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 8 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 9 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 10 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 11 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 12 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws

13 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 14 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 15 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 16 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 17 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting

19 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 20 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

21 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
22 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 23 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 24 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 25 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 26 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 27 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 28 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

1 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 3 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
4 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 5 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 6 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiffs and other 7 Aggrieved Employees.

8 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
9 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 10 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime 11 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 12 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

13 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 14 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 15 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 16 and applicable Wage Orders.

17 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 18 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 19 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred in purchasing and/or 20 providing mileage and/or gas costs incurred in driving personal vehicles for work-related purposes; 21 using cellular phones for work-related purposes, in direct consequence of the discharge of their 22 duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 2802.

23 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 24 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 25 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 26 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 27 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 28 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information

1 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants
2 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

3 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 4 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 5 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 6 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 7 all other Aggrieved Employees.

8 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 9 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 10 Section 204, which requires that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 11 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 12 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 13 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

14 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 15 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 16 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 17 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 18 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 19 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 20 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 21 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 22 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

23 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 24 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 25 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 26 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 27 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ herein-described policies 28 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information

1 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 2 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

3 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 4 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 5 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 6 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 7 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 8 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 9 economic liberty.

10 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 11 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 12 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 13 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

10 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

11 34. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 12 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 13 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 18 35. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 19 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 20 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 21 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor

12 38. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 13 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

14 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 15 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 8 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 9 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

10 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

11 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 12 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 13 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 14 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 15 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business

19 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
20 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars 21 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 22 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

23 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

24 44. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 25 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 26 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 27 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 28 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts,

18 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 19 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

20 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 21 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 22 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
23 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
24 under Labor Code section 1174.

25 49. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 26 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 27 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 28 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

12 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

13 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 14 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 15 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 16 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 17 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 18 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.
