DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff MIGUEL A. HUERTA ALVAREZ ("Plaintiff"), based upon facts that either have 2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 3 further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant ASAS GROUP, INC. and DOES 1 6 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants") for California Labor Code 7 violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants' failure to pay for all hours 8 worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to 9 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage 10 statements, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, and failure to produce requested 11 employment records.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action individually and as a class 13 action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 14 collectively referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members," and defined more fully below). The 15 Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendant in 16 California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period 17 applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Tenth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt employees by Defendants in the 21 State of California during the statute of limitations period for his PAGA claim (hereinafter referred 22 to as the "Aggrieved Employees").

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 24 establishment within the State of California, including Orange County. As such, and based upon 25 all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are 26 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission 27 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

28 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained

1 a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 2 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum, 3 straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor 4 Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 5 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 6 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 7 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing 8 to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period violation 9 occurred;
- 10 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest 11 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage 12 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 13 period violation occurred;
- 14 (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all expenditures, minimum wages, 15 straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 16 period premium wages due within the time period specified by California 17 law when employment terminates;
- 18 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements 19 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 20 IWC Wage Orders;
- 21 (f) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct discharge 22 of duties of employment; and,
- 23 (g) Failing to timely produce requested employment records as required by the 24 California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order;

25 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 26 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 27 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 28 willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff MIGUEL A. HUERTA ALVAREZ is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Orange County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately January 2024 to approximately January 2025.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant ASAS GROUP, INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

(a) A business entity qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Orange County; and,

(b) The former employer of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class, and the current and/or former employers of the Aggrieved Employees because Defendant ASAS GROUP, INC. suffered and permitted Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this

1 complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been 2 ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

3 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 4 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or 5 injured a significant number of the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in the State 6 of California.

7 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each 8 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the 9 other employees described in the class definitions below, and the Aggrieved Employees, and 10 exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and 11 believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, 12 partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent 13 corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other 14 Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for 15 profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable 16 for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 17 thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships 18 alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, 19 adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

20 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

21 14. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt 22 employee. During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly 23 wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff 24 to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff regularly 25 worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

26 15. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked 27 (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with legally 28 compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods, failed to timely

1 pay all final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated his employment, failed to furnish 2 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for expenditures, and failed to 3 produce requested employment records. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 4 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

5 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 6 paying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including 7 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff, the Class, and the 8 Aggrieved Employees to work "off-the-clock", uncompensated, by, for example, requiring 9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to continue working prior to clocking in for the 10 workday, during unpaid meal periods, and after clocking out for the workday. Some of this unpaid 11 work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants 12 also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 13 Employees worked.

14 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff, 15 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants 16 regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work in 17 excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free 18 meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and the 19 Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work 20 or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff, the Class, 21 and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks 22 which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by 23 denying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal period.
24 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiff, the 25 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

26 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 27 and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods.
28 Defendants regularly required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess

1 of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-2 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four 3 hours), or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods 4 that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over 5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them 6 to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory 7 rest periods, or by denying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a 8 rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff, 9 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

10 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely 11 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all final wages due at their termination of 12 employment. In addition, Plaintiff's final paychecks did not include payment for all expenditures, 13 minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 14 period premium wages owed to him by Defendants at the conclusion of his employment. On 15 information and belief, Defendants' failure to timely pay Plaintiff's final wages when his 16 employment terminated was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with 17 Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

18 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff, the Class, 19 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable 20 hourly rates, all overtime hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours 21 worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, 22 and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance 23 with California law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the 24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

25 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid 26 minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period 27 premium wages, even though they were entitled;

28 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,

1 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium 2 wages, even though they had not been;

3 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
4 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
5 wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;

6 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time, 7 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 8 correct California rate even though they had not been;

9 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
10 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium 11 wages owed to them;

12 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 13 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 14 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages 15 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 16 statements contained the required accurate information;

17 (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to 18 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 19 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;

20 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage 21 rates to which Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 22 entitled, and Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid 23 less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

24 Thus, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 25 California Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h).

26 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiff, the 27 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their 28 duties for Defendants. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid out-of-

1 pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, of work attire, 2 use of personal cellphone, and use of personal vehicle.

3 22. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as 4 a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify 5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

6 23. On May 1, 2025, Plaintiff sent requests through his counsel to Defendants for his 7 personnel file, pay records, wage statements, timekeeping records, and other employment-related 8 documents pursuant to Labor Code section 226 and 1198.5. However, Defendants failed to timely 9 produce the requested employment records, in violation of Labor Code sections 226 and 1198.5.
10 Defendants have not produced any of the requested employment records for Plaintiff as of the date 11 of this Complaint.

12 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13 24. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other 14 persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil 15 Procedure § 382.

16 25. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief 17 authorized by California law.

18 26. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

19
20 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-21 paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning 22 four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and 23 ending when notice to the Class is sent.

24 27. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

25 28. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 26 conditions of all Class Members.

27 29. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 28 readily ascertainable:

(a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so

1 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
2 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; 3 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and 4 the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 5 Defendants' records.

6 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 7 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-8 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) 9 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

10 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 11 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-12 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 13 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 14 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 15 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
16 Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 17 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 18 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 19 benefit of each class member.

20 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 21 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 22 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling 23 the prosecution or defense of separate actions; 24 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy 25 already commenced by or against members of the Class; 26 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the 27 claims in the particular forum; and,
28 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class

1 action.

2 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is 3 to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a 4 class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights 5 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful 6 of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might 7 damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other 8 means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the 9 complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their 10 rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

11 30. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 12 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 13 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 14 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, 15 straight time, and overtime wages;
16 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class 17 Members;
18 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium 19 wages to Class Members;
20 (d) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages; 21 (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements; 22 (f) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures; 23 (g) Failed to produce requested employment records to Class Members; and, 24 (h) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 25 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

26 31. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 27 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 28 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;

- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

32. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 1 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own 2 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated 3 notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of 4 additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail 5 notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the 6 Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
8 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

9 33. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 10 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

11 34. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 12 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 13 not required to do so.

14 35. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 15 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 16 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions 17 of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such 18 compensation to non-exempt employees.

19 36. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight 20 time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

21 37. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 22 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

23 38. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 24 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class 25 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff 26 and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

27 39. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 28 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage

1 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

2 40. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 3 recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

4 41. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 5 wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to 6 this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required 7 by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times, Defendants 8 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due and failed to 9 pay those wages twice a month.

10 42. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and 11 straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor 12 Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

15 43. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 16 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

17 44. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 18 employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they 19 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

20 45. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall 21 not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 22 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California 23 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 24 by the IWC is unlawful.

25 46. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight 26 hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of Defendants.

27 47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class 28 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours

1 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

2 48. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate 3 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class 4 have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 5 them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained 6 according to proof at trial.

7 49. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 8 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 9 Plaintiff and the Class.

10 50. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to 11 proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as 12 the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California 13 Labor Code and/or other statutes.

14 51. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 15 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 16 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all 17 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class 18 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

21 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
22 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

23 53. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 24 Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 25 start of Plaintiff's and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal 26 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor Code 27 § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal 28 periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of

1 California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal 2 period mandated under any Wage Order.

3 54. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff 4 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and 5 authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that 6 Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 7 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable 8 Wage Orders.

9 55. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 10 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 11 plus interest thereon.

12 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

14 56. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 15 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

16 57. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 17 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 18 two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer 19 permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour 20 period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 21 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself 22 a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for 23 an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage 24 Order.

25 58. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 26 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a 27 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 28 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

59. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

60. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

61. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

62. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

63. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

64. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as

1 a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; 2 but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

3 65. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages 4 for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum 5 pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

6 66. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also 7 entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this 8 action.

9 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 11 Compliant Wage Records)

12 67. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 13 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

14 68. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 15 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in 16 writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 17 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate 18 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made 19 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, 20 (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee 21 and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number 22 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 23 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 24 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

25 69. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 26 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure 27 to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list the true 28 "total hours worked by the employee," and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

1 70. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and 2 the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

3 71. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by 4 Defendants' intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both 5 their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage 6 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

7 72. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 8 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as 9 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following 10 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related 11 laws and regulations.

12 73. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 13 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or 14 an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

15 74. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 16 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code 17 § 226(h).

18 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

20 75. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 21 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

22 76. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial 23 necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their 24 obedience to directions of Defendants.

25 77. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify 26 Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the 27 discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

28 78. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 1 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

2 79. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs
3 of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code 4 § 2802(b).

5 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records)

7 80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
8 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

9 81. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, current and former employees have the 10 right to inspect or receive a copy of their records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable 11 request to their employer. Under this statute, an employer that receives a request to inspect or 12 receive a copy of records pertaining to a current or former employee must comply with the request 13 as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the request.

14 82. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5(a), every current and former employee, 15 or his or her representative, has the right to inspect and receive a copy of the personnel records that 16 the employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning the 17 employee. Under this statute, upon written request from a current or former employee or his or 18 her representative, an employer must make the contents of those personnel records available for 19 inspection or provide a copy of the personnel records to the current or former employee, or his or 20 her representative, not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the employer receives the 21 written request, subject to some limited exceptions. Failure to comply with these requests allows 22 for a civil penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750), pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1198.5(k) and 23 226(f).

24 83. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class are current and former employees of 25 Defendants.

26 84. As set forth above, Plaintiff sent written requests through his counsel to Defendants 27 for his payroll records, timecards, and personnel records. However, Plaintiff has not received any 28 of his requested records as of the date of this Complaint.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

97. Defendants' failure to reimburse expenses incurred in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

98. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

100. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the

1 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 2 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 3 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 4 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

5 101. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further 6 entitled to, and does, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair, 7 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, 8 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices 9 in the future.

13 result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, 15 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 16 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

19 withholdings.

20 104. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 21 putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 22 Defendants during a period that commences four years and 178 days prior to the filing of this 23 complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to 24 Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 25 Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

107. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3."

109. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. He gave written notice by online filing to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendant violated against Plaintiff and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee.

110. The LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendant's Labor Code violations discussed in the notice.
