MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of a proposed Settlement Agreement entered into between Plaintiff (on behalf of the Class) and Defendant. The Settlement Agreement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 92 Class Members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and after extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement on April 6, 2026. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the Class, approve the proposed Class Notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff's Claims

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 3.) Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. (Id.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, and failure to produce requested employment records. (Id.)

Based on these allegations, on June 3, 2025, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code § 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); (8) failure to produce requested employment records (Labor Code §§ 226 and

1 1198.5); and (9) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.).
2 (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 4.) Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & 3 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant 4 to the PAGA on May 23, 2025. (Id.) On February 5, 2026, Plaintiff filed a first amended 5 complaint against Defendant adding a cause of action for PAGA civil penalties (the “Operative 6 Complaint”). (Id.)

7 B. Discovery and Investigation

8 Following the filing of the Action, the Parties exchanged information, data, and 9 documents before going to mediation. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 5.) Defendant produced a 10 sample of time and pay records for Class Members. (Id.) Defendant also provided documents of 11 its wage and hour policies and practices during the Class Period and information regarding the 12 total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id.) The 13 Parties have engaged in sufficient informal discovery and investigation to assess the relative 14 merits of the claims and contentions of the Parties. (Id.)

15 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices 16 and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate 17 the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum monetary 18 exposure for all claims. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the 19 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the Action. (Id.) Class Counsel 20 reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) This extensive 21 investigation and discovery allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently and effectively in 22 negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

23 C. Settlement Negotiations

24 On January 6, 2026, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class
25 action mediator Michael Strauss, Esq. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 7.) The settlement negotiations
26 were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) 27 After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of 28 Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached the Settlement, the material

terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1, Settlement Agreement.)

Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 14.) Based on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, just, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id.)

Indeed, the Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 62.7% of the realistic maximum recovery of $358,933.92. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 22.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant’s maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $1.2 million, when the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was $358,933.92, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 14-26.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. (Id. at ¶ 23.)

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Settlement’s key terms include:

1. Class Period: “means the period from June 3, 2021, through February 6, 2026.” (Settlement, § 1.12.)

2. Class: “means all persons who have been employed by Defendant in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees at any point during the Class Period, including current and former employees (“Class Member(s)).” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

3. Aggrieved Employee: “all persons who have been employed by Defendant in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees at any point during the PAGA Period, as more fully defined in Labor Code section 2699(c)(1), including current and former employees (“Aggrieved Employee(s)).” (Settlement, § 1.4.)

1 4. PAGA Period: “means the period is July 28, 2024, through February 6, 2026.”
2 (Settlement, § 1.32.)

3 5. Gross Settlement Amount or GSA: “means $225,000.00 which is the total amount 4 Defendant agrees to pay under the Settlement, except as provided in [of the Settlement Agreement], 5 Escalator Clause.” (Settlement, § 1.22.)

6 6. Uncashed Checks: “For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check 7 or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and canceled after the void date, the Administrator
8 shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed 9 Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no “unpaid residue” subject to the 10 requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).” (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

11 7. Released Class Claims: “Upon Defendant’s payment in full of the GSA and the 12 employer’s taxes for the portion of the Settlement allocated to settlement of wage claims, the 13 claims waived, released, and discharged by Class Members (other than those who submit timely 14 and valid requests for exclusion) as to the Released Parties are all claims arising during the Class 15 Period which were asserted against Defendant in the Operative Complaint filed in the Action or 16 which reasonably could have been asserted against Defendant based on the factual allegations 17 stated the Operative Complaint filed in the Action.” (Settlement, § 5.2.)

18 8. Released PAGA Claims: “Upon Defendant’s payment in full of the GSA and the 19 Employer’s taxes for the portion of the Settlement allocated to settlement of wage claims, the 20 claims waived, released, and discharged by Aggrieved Employees and the State of California as to 21 the Released Parties are all claims under PAGA arising during the PAGA Period (a) which were 22 asserted against Defendant in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice preceding the Action and/or the operative 23 complaint filed in the Action or (b) which reasonably could have been asserted against Defendant 24 based on the factual allegations stated in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice preceding the Action and/or the 25 operative complaint filed in the Action.” (Settlement, § 5.3.)

26 9. No Reversion: “The Gross Settlement Amount is non-reversionary and does not 27 include employer payroll taxes owed on the wage portions of the Individual Class Payments, which 28 Defendant will pay separately.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

1 10. PAGA Penalties: “means the total amount of PAGA civil penalties to be paid from 2 the Gross Settlement Amount ($20,000.00), allocated 35% to the Aggrieved Employees
3 ($7,000.00) and 65% to LWDA ($13,000.00) in settlement of PAGA claims.” (Settlement, § 1.35.) 4 Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for 5 Preliminary Approval. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 9, Ex. 2.)

6 11. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following 7 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: PAGA Penalties payment, Enhancement, Class 8 Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Costs.
9 The remainder is to be paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.”
10 (Settlement, § 1.28.)

11 12. Distribution Formula: As to Class: “An Individual Class Payment is calculated by 12 (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all 13 Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each 14 individual Participating Class Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The 15 Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the 16 Aggrieved Employees’ 35% share of PAGA Penalties ($7,000.00) by the total number of PAGA
17 Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period, and (b)
18 multiplying the result by each individual Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved 19 Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA 20 Payment.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

21 13. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments: “Twenty percent (20%) of each 22 Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to the Settlement of wage 23 claims (the “Wage Portion”). The Wage Portion is subject to tax withholding and will be reported
24 on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining eighty percent (80%) of each Participating Class Member’s 25 Individual Class Payment will be allocated to the settlement of claims for interest and penalties 26 (the “Non-Wage Portion”). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will 27 be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and 28 liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

1 14. Class Representative Service Award or Enhancement Award: “A payment for the 2 Enhancement Award to Plaintiff of not more than $10,000.00 in addition to any Individual Class
3 Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a 4 Participating Class Member. Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff’s request for an Enhancement 5 Award that does not exceed this amount.” (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

6 15. Class Counsel Fees Payment: “means an award of attorneys’ fees granted to Class
7 Counsel and paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. The Parties have agreed Plaintiff will request 8 approval from the Court of up to one-third (1/3) of the GSA (currently estimated at $75,000.00).”
9 (Settlement, § 1.7.)

10 16. Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment: “means the amount allocated to Class 11 Counsel for reimbursement of reasonable expenses and costs incurred to prosecute the Action, not 12 to exceed $17,000.00, and paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.” (Settlement, §1.8.)

13 17. Administrator: “means Apex Class Action LLC, the neutral entity the Parties have 14 agreed to appoint to administer the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.2.)

15 18. Administration Costs: “An Administrator Costs for actual costs, not to exceed 16 $7,500.00 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court.” The Administrator’s 17 bid is not to exceed $4,990.00 for 100 Class Members (the “Administration Costs”). (Settlement, 18 § 3.2.3; Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 10, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

19 19. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Class Notice sets forth in plain 20 terms, a statement of the Action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount 21 of the Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Costs, and Class Representative Service Award being 22 sought, and an explanation of how the Settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, 23 Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the Settlement. (Settlement, § 24 1.11.) The Settlement Administrator will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the Class Notice 25 is provided to the current addresses of Class Members, including conducting a national change of 26 address search and re-mailing the Class Notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 27 10, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

1 III. DISCUSSION

2 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 3 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 4 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
5 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.)

6 A. A Presumption of Fairness Exists Over The Settlement

7 Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; 8 (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is 9 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk at p. 1800.)

10 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Arm's-Length Negotiations

11 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 12 evidence to the contrary is offered. No evidence to the contrary has been offered here; thus, there 13 is a presumption that the negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg 14 on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)

15 On January 6, 2026, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class
16 action mediator Michael Strauss, Esq. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 7.) The Parties' settlement 17 discussions were conducted at arms' length and although the Parties were professional, the 18 settlement negotiations were adversarial with each of the Parties prepared to litigate their position 19 through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 20 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses, 21 the Parties reached the Settlement. (Id.)

22 2. The Parties Conducted Sufficient Investigation

23 Prior to reaching this Settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 24 the claims set forth in the Action, such as a sample of Class Member timekeeping and payroll 25 records, Defendant's policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 26 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 27 as information regarding the number of putative Class Members and the mix of current versus 28 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages

1 paid to Class Members. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual
2 investigation, Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses 3 asserted in the Action. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and Class Counsel were able to act intelligently and 4 effectively in negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

5 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

6 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
7 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 8 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 36-53.) Although 9 Plaintiff and Class Counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the Action, they believe 10 the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of the Class.

11 4. The Percentage of Objectors Is Small

12 This factor cannot yet be determined unless and until the Court preliminarily approves the 13 Motion and the Class Notice. This factor will be properly addressed in Class Counsel’s Motion 14 for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, should this Court grant the instant Motion.

15 B. The Settlement Is Fair, Just, Reasonable, and Adequate

16 In considering whether a settlement is fair, just, reasonable, and adequate the trial court 17 should consider relevant factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, 18 expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action 19 status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the 20 stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, ... and the reaction of the class 21 members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 22 116, 128.) Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh
23 v. Super. Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236.)

24 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 25 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 26 proposed Settlement is fair, just, adequate, and reasonable.

1 1. Plaintiff’s Strengths and Risks of Continued Litigation

2 Based on Plaintiff’s discovery and investigation, Class Counsel reached the conclusion that 3 Defendant had a policy and practice of: requiring its employees to work “off-the-clock” prior to 4 clocking in for the workday, during meal periods, and after clocking out for the workday, time
5 which it did not pay for; not providing its employees with California compliant meal and rest 6 periods, which it did not pay appropriate premiums for; and failing to reimburse its employees for 7 business-related expenses. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 16.) Defendant denies these claims.

8 While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate controversy exists as 9 to each cause of action. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 24.) Plaintiff recognizes that proving the amount 10 of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain 11 proposition. (Id.) Although the Parties had engaged in significant amount of investigation, informal 12 discovery and Class-wide data analysis, the Parties had not yet completed formal written discovery.
13 (Id. at ¶ 25.) Plaintiff intended to depose corporate officers and managers of Defendant. (Id.) 14 Moreover, preparation for a class certification and a trial remained for the Parties as well as the 15 prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiffs and/or adverse 16 summary judgment ruling. (Id.) Had the Court certified any claims, Defendant could move to 17 decertify the claims. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys’ fees 18 and costs through trial. (Id.) This Settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of 19 further litigation. (Id.)

20 Balancing the strengths of Plaintiff’s claims against the risks of continued litigation of the 21 Action, Plaintiff and Class Counsel determined that the proposed Settlement was in the best 22 interests of the Class.

23 2. The Gross Settlement Amount Is Reasonable

24 In order to approve a class action settlement, the Court must satisfy itself that the class
25 settlement is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Kullar, at 133.) The fact that a plaintiff 26 might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve the 27 settlement. (Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447.) The record need not contain an 28 explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of

1 Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit

2 statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims”,

3 but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of 4 outcomes of the litigation.”].)

5 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 6 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.

7 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent

8 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement

9 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no

10 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement

11 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

12 The proposed Gross Settlement Amount represents a substantial recovery when compared 13 to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Class Counsel Decl. at ¶¶ 14-26.) Because of the 14 proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk

15 of an unfavorable judgment. (Id.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties

16 involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the 17 probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the Settlement is within the “ballpark”

18 of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Class

19 Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $1,065.33. (Id. at ¶ 26.)

20 C. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

21 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class

22 Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. These amounts are 23 disclosed to all Class Members in the proposed Class Notice and are reasonable. (Class Counsel 24 Decl., at Ex. 1, Ex. A.)

25 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Based

26 on the “Common Fund” Method

27 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created

28 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that “when a number

1 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 2 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 3 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 4 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

5 Class Counsel seeks approval of the Class Counsel Fees based on the "percentage of 6 recovery/common fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs 7 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 8 burden alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v.
9 State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends 10 attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require 11 those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, 12 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court 13 recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied "consistently in California when an 14 action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share." (Id. at p.
15 110.)

16 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 17 480 that, "when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 18 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 19 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 20 fund created." (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: "The recognized advantages of the percentage 21 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 22 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 23 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—24 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts."
25 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

1 2. The Requested Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are in Line with Typical 2 Cases

3 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on 4 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually, 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 5 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 6 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages
7 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
8 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 9 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 10 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 11 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 12 million].)

13 Here, the Class Counsel Fees Payment is equal to one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement 14 Amount, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and 15 academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 16 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage 17 method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 18 recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees 19 as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

20 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

21 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 22 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 23 section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 24 larger than the total Class recovery at the conclusion of this Action should it proceed. The 25 Settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, 26 energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their 27 decision to assume risk by taking on this Action. In fact, prosecution of this Action involved 28 significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 36-37.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once Class Counsel undertook this Action on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns. (Id.)

4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 36-53.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the Settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested Class Counsel Fees are reasonable and fair.

D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and "there is no indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other" class members, such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement. (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].)

1 Here, the PAGA Amount is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved by 2 the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g., Zubia v.
3 Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, 4 at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, supra, 2008 WL 3385452, at *1 5 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
6 Oct. 31, 2012) No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA
7 settlement of 0.27%].) The Parties negotiated the PAGA Penalties, 35% to the Aggrieved 8 Employees ($7,000.00) and 65% to LWDA ($13,000.00) in settlement of PAGA claims.
9 (Settlement, § 1.35.) The PAGA Amount equates to approximately 9% of the Gross Settlement 10 Amount, which far exceeds amounts that are routinely approved. The Parties negotiated to allocate 11 9% of the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA Penalties in good faith and this amount is reasonable.
12 (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 21.)

13 E. The Class Representative Service Payment Payment Is Reasonable

14 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 15 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 16 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 17 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 18 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 19 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
20 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

21 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 22 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 23 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 24 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 25 work under substandard unlawful conditions” Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has 26 noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 27 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
28 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 1 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.

2 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

3 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 4 the Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. Courts 5 routinely approve service awards of $10,000.00 for plaintiffs represented by counsel. (See, e.g., 6 Moreno v. Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court 7 concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of America, National 8 Association (N.D. Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, at *4 [“The court 9 approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].)

10 A 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 11 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median 12 award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action 13 Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev. 1303, 1308.) That same study found that 14 named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of 15 $69,850.00 and a median award of $31,081.00, while named plaintiffs in other employment class 16 actions received an average award of $12,121.00 and a median award of $13,059.00. (Id. at p.
17 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the 18 “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of 19 their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p.
20 1308.)

21 Class Counsel represents that Plaintiff devoted a great deal of time and work assisting Class
22 Counsel litigate the Action, and Plaintiff communicated with Class Counsel during the mediation 23 and the preparation leading up to mediation. (See generally Plaintiff’s declaration; Class Counsel 24 Decl., ¶¶ 27-31.) The Class Representative Service Award is reasonable particularly in light of the 25 substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all Class Members and as compared to similarly situated 26 plaintiffs in other employment class and representative actions. (Id.)

1 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

2 A. Legal Standard

3 The proposed Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a 4 core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the reasons 5 set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the prerequisites for 6 certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when the question is one 7 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is 8 impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of 9 all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382). There are three requirements to section 382: Class certification 10 requires proof (1) of a sufficiently numerous, ascertainable class, (2) of a well-defined community 11 of interest, and (3) that certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., 12 that proceeding as a class is superior to other methods. (In re Tobacco II Cases, (2009) 46 13 Cal.App.4th 298, 313.)

14 The California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to further 15 explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 16 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 17 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc.
18 (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

19 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
20 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 21 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system.” (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 22 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in 23 favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

24 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 25 Settlement Purposes.

26 1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

27 A class is ascertainable if a plaintiff supplies a reasonable means of identifying potential 28 class members and the class is defined in terms of objective characteristics and common facts

1 sufficient to allow a class member to identify himself or herself as having a right to recover based 2 on that description. (ABM Industries Overtime Cases, (2017) 19 Cal.App.5th 277, 303.) Courts 3 also consider the size or numerosity of the class when determining whether or not it is 4 ascertainable. (Id. at 302).

5 a) Class Definition

6 When defining a class, the terminology used must convey “sufficient meaning to enables 7 persons hearing to determine whether they are members of the class” and if the proposed class 8 definition offers an objective way to identify those who will be bound by the results of the 9 litigation. (Id. at 302-303.) Courts have routinely certified classes defined using language to that 10 here. (Faulkinbury v. Boyd & Associates, Inc. (2013) 216 Cal.App.4th 220, 227; see also Brinker 11 at 1017-1018, 1019, defining several subclasses such as employees “who worked one or more work 12 periods in excess of three and a half hours without receiving a paid 10 minute break” and those 13 “who worked ‘off-the-clock’ or without pay.”)

14 Here, the Class definition (as stated above) is objective as it is limited in scope to a specific 15 time frame (during the Class Period) and is limited to the potential class members’ employment 16 classification (hourly-paid or non-exempt employees). Further, there are common facts that exist 17 here (such as those employees who worked without pay, were not given proper meal or rest periods, 18 etc.) that are encapsulated by the causes of action alleged in the Action. This definition therefore 19 provides sufficiently clear information to allow current and former employees to readily and 20 reasonably determine whether or not they are a putative Class Member in this Action based upon 21 this definition. (ABM at 304, stating “As long as the potential class members may be identified 22 without unreasonable expense or time and given notice of the litigation, and the proposed class 23 definition offers an objective means of identifying the persons who will be bound by the results of 24 the litigation, the ascertainability requirement is met.”) Thus, the proposed Class that Plaintiff 25 seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes approximately former and current 92 26 employees of Defendant.

27 b) Numerosity

28 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a

1 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981)
2 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 3 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
4 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 5 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries
6 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 7 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) If even as 8 little as 10 persons can constitute a class, then certainly the 92 Class Members here satisfy the 9 numerosity requirement.

10 2. There is a Well-Defined Community of Interest in the Questions of 11 Law and Fact

12 The community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 13 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 14 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond at 470.)

15 a) *There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which 16 Predominate

17 The Court should grant conditional Class certification for settlement purposes here on the 18 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all Class and subclass predominate over any 19 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 20 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 21 Cal.App.3d 605.)

22 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 23 policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether Defendant had 24 legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether 25 Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees 26 to take rest periods; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether 27 payment of wages during employed was timely; whether final payment of wages was untimely and 28 excluded unpaid wages, including meal and rest period premium wages; whether wage statements

1 were consequently non-compliant; and whether Defendant failed to keep requisite payroll records.
2 Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all the identified Class Members, 3 including Plaintiff. Further, all Class Members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same 4 alleged injuries.

5 b) *Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

6 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 7 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 8 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 9 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 10 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 11 situated" vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 12 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 13 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as such, 14 Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly 15 situated employees. Thus, Plaintiff's claims arise out of the same practices of Defendant and rest 16 on the same legal theories as those of the Class. Therefore, Plaintiff can easily meet the typicality 17 requirement in favor of certification.

18 c) *Plaintiff and Class Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

19 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 20 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 21 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 22 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

23 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained Class 24 Counsel, whom have extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar 25 class actions that previously settled. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 36-53.) Class Counsel 26 unquestionably is "qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." 27 (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and 28 Plaintiff has, with Class Counsel, litigated this Action and diligently reviewed the Settlement

1 terms, showing their dedication. Plaintiff’s willingness to serve as Class Representative and to 2 sacrifice the value of their own individual claims by executing a general release broader than that 3 of the other Class Members so that the Class may benefit from this Settlement demonstrates 4 Plaintiff’s serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the Class, thereby 5 also demonstrating that Plaintiff’s interests are aligned with those of the Class and no conflict
6 exists. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

7 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

8 Finally, in making its Class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 9 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
10 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 11 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 12 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-13 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 14 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 15 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 16 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns 17 are essentially non-existent.

18 V. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

19 A. The Proposed Class Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

20 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 21 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 22 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 23 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this Action, 24 the Class Notice will be disseminated through direct U.S. first class mail to the last known address 25 for each Class Member. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a 26 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members” (Id. at p. 974.)
27 In this Action the Class Notice will be provided by direct mailing, which is the best possible form 28 of notice as it provides the most reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the 1 Class.

2 B. The Class Notice is Accurate and Informative

3 The proposed Class Notice is informative. It informs the Class Members of the terms of the 4 Settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. If there are Class Members who 5 wish to object to this proposed Settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections 6 and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

7 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & 8 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date 9 and the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement, in an informative and coherent 10 manner. It makes clear that the Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission of 11 liability by the Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled 12 on the merits of the Action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to 13 be made. The Class Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and 14 neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

15 C. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

16 The proposed Class Notice, in the form attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement, 17 should be approved for dissemination to the Class. The Class Notice informs the Class of the terms 18 of the Settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 19 Members who wish to object to the Settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their 20 objections and be heard at the final approval hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Class Notice 21 meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court and should be 22 approved.
