1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Under Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff seeks approval of the Settlement
4 Agreement entered between Plaintiff and Defendant Beach Babies LLC (“Defendant”). Plaintiff
5 entered the Settlement Agreement on behalf of Plaintiff and all current and former hourly-paid
6 and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California during the 7 period from May 19, 2024, to March 1, 2026.

8 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

9 On May 19, 2025, Plaintiff provided a written notice to the California Labor and 10 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant. On August 5, 2025, Plaintiff filed
11 this lawsuit against Defendant.¹

12 On January 29, 2026, the Parties participated in private mediation that ultimately resulted 13 in the settlement of this matter on a PAGA-only basis. On March 9, 2026, Plaintiff filed a First
14 Amended Complaint that removed the wage-and-hour class action causes of action.²

15 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

16 A. Allocation of the Gross Settlement Amount

17 The Settlement Agreement provides that Defendant will pay a non-reversionary Gross
18 Settlement Amount of $525,000. The PAGA Penalties will be the Gross Settlement Amount less
19 the following payments: (1) PAGA Counsel Fees Payment of $183,750; (2) PAGA Counsel
20 Litigation Expenses Payment of $15,410.58; (3) Service Payment of $10,000; and (4)
21 Administration Expenses Payment of $7,000.³

25 ¹ (Declaration of Douglas Han (“Han Decl.”), ¶ 10; Exhibits 8-10.)

26 ² (Id. at ¶¶ 10-15; Exhibit 11.)

27 ³ (Settlement Agreement attached as Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Douglas Han
28 (“Settlement Agreement”), §§ 1.12, 3.1, 3.2.)

1 The current amount of the PAGA Penalties is estimated to be $308,839.42. Sixty-five
2 percent (65%) of the PAGA Penalties will be transmitted to the LWDA as the LWDA PAGA
3 Payment pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(m). The remaining thirty-five percent (35%) of 4 the PAGA Penalties will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees.⁴

5 B. Distribution of the PAGA Penalties

6 No later than the Effective Date, Defendant, through Defense Counsel, will deliver the 7 Aggrieved Employee Data to the Administrator in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet.
8 Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount by transmitting the funds to the 9 Administrator into an account set up solely for distribution of funds pertaining to this Settlement
10 within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Effective Date. No later than fourteen (14) calendar
11 days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks to 12 the appropriate entities and persons. The uncashed settlement checks will be transferred to the 13 California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee.⁵

14 C. The Scope of the Release

15 Effective on the date when Defendant has fully funded the entire Gross Settlement Amount, 16 the State of California and all Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of 17 themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 18 administrators, successors, assigns, and the LWDA, the Released Parties from all claims for civil 19 penalties under PAGA that were alleged, or could have been alleged, in the lawsuit, Operative
20 Complaint and/or in the PAGA Notice.⁶ (Arias v. Sup. Ct. (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980, 986 [a 21 plaintiff suing under PAGA "does so as the proxy or agent of the state's labor law enforcement
22 agencies," and, as such, "represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law
23 enforcement agencies"].) A judgment in a PAGA action "binds not only that [plaintiff]
24 employee but also the state labor law enforcement agencies." (Ibid.) Furthermore, "[b]ecause an aggrieved employee's action under [PAGA] functions as a substitute for an action brought by the government itself, a judgment in that action binds all those, including nonparty aggrieved employees, who would be bound by a judgment in an action brought by the government.” (Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46 Cal.4th at p. 986) “Accordingly, with respect to the recovery of civil penalties, nonparty employees as well as the government are bound by the judgment in an action brought under [PAGA]” (Ibid.)

D. No Right to Object to or Opt Out of the Settlement

“[A] PAGA action is a statutory action for penalties brought as a proxy for the state ... there is no need to protect absent employees’ due process rights[.]” (Williams v. Sup. Ct. (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 546.) “Unnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” (Ochoa-Hernandez v. CJADERS Foods, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010), 2010 WL 3570777, at *5.) “PAGA does not make other potentially aggrieved employees parties” and no “due process concerns arise under PAGA because absent employees do not own a personal claim for PAGA civil penalties and whatever personal claims the absent employees might have for relief are not at stake.” (Williams, at pp. 546-547 (internal references omitted, citing Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Sup. Ct. (2009) 46th Cal.4th 993, 1003 and Iskanian v. CLS Trans. Los Angeles, LLC, (2014) 58 Cal.4th 348, 381.)) “[A]bsent fellow employees will be bound by the outcome of any PAGA action[.]” (Williams, at p. 548 (internal references omitted, citing Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46 Cal.4th at pp. 980-981; Fireside Bank v. Sup. Ct. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1069, 1074 and Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal, 3d 462, 474.)

Consistent with this law, the Settlement Agreement does not have a procedure for the Aggrieved Employees to object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement.

1 IV. STANDARD FOR APPROVAL OF PAGA SETTLEMENT

2 The PAGA allows an “aggrieved employee” to bring a civil action on behalf of himself,
3 other aggrieved employees, and State of California to recover civil penalties with respect to 4 provisions of the Labor Code that do not provide for civil penalties. Before bringing a civil action
5 under PAGA, an employee must comply with Labor Code section 2699.3. (Lab. Code, § 2699(a).)
6 A court “may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount ... if, based on the 7 facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is 8 unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Id. at § 2699(e)(2).)

9 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. (Lab. Code, § 2699(s)(2).) “A 10 PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis . . . is not considered a class action but 11 a law enforcement action” and does not have to meet the requirements of a class action. (Casida
12 v. Sears Holdings Corp. (E.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2012) 2012 WL 253217, at *3; Thomas v. Aetna
13 Health of Cal., Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 2, 2011) 2011 WL 2173715, at *11; Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra,
14 46 Cal.4th at pp. 980-988 (affirming lower court’s holding that “plaintiff need not satisfy class
15 action requirements” to assert a PAGA claim); Pedroza v PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2013)
16 2013 WL 1490667, at *15.) A court’s review of a PAGA settlement involves analysis of several 17 unique features that render the approval process distinct from approval of a class action
18 settlement. A court reviewing a PAGA settlement only needs to “ensur[e] that a negotiated 19 resolution is fair to those affected.” (Williams v. Sup. Ct., supra, 3 Cal.5th at p. 549 (citing Lab.
20 Code, § 2699(s)(2)).) The Court of Appeal has held that “a trial court should evaluate a PAGA
21 settlement to determine whether it is fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA’s purposes
22 to remediate present labor law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state
23 labor laws.” (Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, 77.)

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

1 The court’s focus is on whether the total settlement amount achieves PAGA’s objectives.
2 PAGA’s purpose “to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that
3 otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement
4 agencies.” (Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 3570777, at *4 (citing Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra,
5 46 Cal.4th at p. 986).) The penalties recovered under PAGA are, in part, to “be distributed to the 6 [LWDA] for enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers and employees about 7 their rights and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously appropriated to supplement
8 and not supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes.” (Lab. Code, § 2699(n).)

9 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

10 A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist.

11 A settlement agreement that is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial 12 negotiations between the parties” is entitled to a presumption of fairness. (Wershba v. Apple
13 Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.)

14 The Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion
15 of counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the Agreement is a product
16 of hard-fought negotiations that was entered without collusion. (Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal.
17 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight); 18 Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-617, 622 (recommendations of 19 PAGA Counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed.
20 Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating the “assistance of an 21 experienced mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive”).)
22 The Settlement Agreement is presumptively fair. This is because the Settlement Agreement: (1) 23 is the product of non-collusive, arm’s-length negotiations; (2) was negotiated by counsel with 24 experience in similar wage-and-hour litigation; and (3) occurred after the Parties’ counsel
25 engaged in investigation of the strengths of this case and risks of continued litigation.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 B. The Relative Strength of the PAGA Claim and Range of Possible Outcomes.

2 Defendant maintained that it had compliant employment policies and practices throughout
3 the statutory period. If this case had not been settled, Defendant would have challenged Plaintiff's
4 standing as an Aggrieved Employee and denied that the other employees were aggrieved.
5 Defendant further argued that the Court was unlikely to assess cumulative penalties for the 6 maximum number of possible separate Labor Code violations because the "subsequent violation"
7 theory of PAGA recovery would not be triggered in this case, and it would be unjust, arbitrary,
8 oppressive, and/or confiscatory. (See e.g. Bernstein v. Virgin Am., Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 3 F.4th
9 1127, 1144.) Defendant even asserted that the PAGA penalties are not mandatory but permissive
10 and discretionary and maintained that it had a strong argument that it would be unjust to award
11 the maximum PAGA penalties. (Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203
12 Cal.App.4th 1112 [reducing penalties by 30% under this authority].)⁷

13 The provisions of the Labor Code potentially triggering the PAGA penalties in this case
14 include Labor Code 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 15 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and any violations of 16 the applicable Wage Orders. To recover civil penalties, it must be proven that the Aggrieved
17 Employees suffered from the underlying Labor Code violations and that Defendant's conduct
18 gave rise to penalties. (See e.g. Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC (C.D. Cal. 2008) 572 F.Supp.2d 19 1169, 1181-1182.)⁸

20 When using a one hundred percent (100%) violation rate based on the twenty-six (26)
21 average pay periods, the penalties exposure for the eligible pay periods could be approximately 22 $899,600 ([26 average pay periods x $100 per penalty] x 346 employees). But when considering 23 the PAGA penalties that could be awarded by the Court, PAGA Counsel had to account for 24 Defendant's defenses and counterarguments along with the amendments made to PAGA as of 25

26 ⁷ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 19-22.)

27 ⁸ (Id. at ¶ 23.)

July 1, 2024. These considerations, in turn, prompted PAGA Counsel to apply discounts to the potential PAGA penalties prior to and during settlement negotiations.⁹

Plaintiff recognized the risk that any PAGA award could be reduced, and many of the claimed Labor Code violations underlying the PAGA claim were cumulative. Thus, the Gross Settlement Amount to the PAGA penalties was reasonable and significant. When the PAGA penalties are negotiated in good faith and “there is no indication that [the] amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other Class Members,” such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009) No. 08-00844, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *24; see e.g. Nordstrom Com. Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 579 (“[T]rial court did not abuse its discretion in approving a settlement which does not allocate any damages to the PAGA claims.”).) PAGA Counsel even negotiated an average of $57.73 in penalties per pay period, which would be fair and reasonable [$$525,000 \div 9,094$ total pay periods through January 29, 2026]. Therefore, the recovery can be deemed to be fair and reasonable.¹⁰

C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Litigation.

The courts favor voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. (Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276.) Generally, “unless the settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive litigation with uncertain results.” (Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526 (citation omitted).)

Both sides used pre-mediation time to investigate the veracity, strength, and scope of the PAGA claim. The Parties engaged in discovery and exchanged documents and data to mediate the claims relevant to the Labor Code violations and applicable defenses thereto and to determine the potential value and strength of the PAGA claim. PAGA Counsel believed that it would be best to pursue a settlement rather than take the risky and uncertain trial route. Even if the Parties had managed to negotiate a similar settlement later, it would have been undercut but the additional costs and expenses incurred. In other words, the Settlement Agreement offers immediate recovery rather than only the possibility of recovery at some indeterminate later date.¹¹

⁹ (Id. at ¶¶ 24-27.)

¹⁰ (Han Decl, supra, at ¶ 28.)

D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable.

“[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” (Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n (9th Cir. 1981) 688 F.2d 615, 624.) “The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” (Id. at p. 625.)

The Settlement Agreement provides a monetary benefit to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees. The proposed plan for allocation of the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees also fully complies with Labor Code section 2699(m). Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel recognize the expense, length, risk, and uncertainty of continued proceedings necessary to litigate this dispute. To recover civil penalties, Plaintiff would have to prove that the Aggrieved Employees suffered from the underlying Labor Code violations and that Defendant’s conduct gave rise to the penalties, which could take several months, or even years, to prove. Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel even considered Defendant’s agreement to enter a settlement that confers immediate relief. Plaintiff and PAGA Counsel determined that the Settlement Agreement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution.¹²

E. Experience and Views of PAGA Counsel Favor Settlement Approval.

PAGA Counsel are experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation. PAGA Counsel believe that the benefit offered by the Settlement is fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees.¹³

1 VI. APPROVAL OF THE PAGA COUNSEL FEES PAYMENT.

2 A. A Fee Award of Percentage of the Entire Fund is Appropriate.

3 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of PAGA Counsel Fees Payment of 4 $183,750 (35% of the Gross Settlement Amount). The PAGA Counsel Fees Payment is 5 commensurate with the: (1) risks taken by PAGA Counsel; (2) time, effort, and expense dedicated 6 by PAGA Counsel; (3) skills and determination shown by PAGA Counsel; (4) value achieved by 7 PAGA Counsel; and (5) other cases turned down. PAGA Counsel have also been routinely 8 awarded at least thirty-five percent (35%) fee requests or more in similar class action and 9 representative matters throughout State of California, including Los Angeles County.¹⁴

10 The propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary
11 fund preserved or recovered for the benefit of others has been confirmed by the California
12 Supreme Court. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 486, 506.) While trial 13 courts have discretion to apply either a lodestar method or percentage of-the-fund method, the 14 California Supreme Court has taken the position trial courts "retain the discretion to forgo a 15 lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage
16 fee[.]" and "[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California." (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l,
17 Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at pp. 486, 506 (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba v. Apple
18 Computer, Inc., supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 253.)

19 The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because "it better 20 approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach." (Lealao v. Beneficial
21 Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 49.) California law provides that the award for attorneys'
22 fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable 23 litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. (Lealao, at pp. 47, 50; Laffitte v. Robert 24 Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 503.) In cases where the agreement provides the defendant 25 agrees to pay the attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the agreement, the use of that 26 percentage method is appropriate. (Lealao, at p. 32.) The fees in class and representative actions
27 should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated

28 ¹⁴ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 35.)

1 attorney and client. (Id. at p. 48.) “The ultimate goal ... is the award of a ‘reasonable’ fee to 2 compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation.” (Consumer
3 Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-558 (quotation omitted).)

4 PAGA Counsel are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs as a matter of 5 right. (Lab. Code, § 2699(k)(1).) PAGA Counsel are entitled to fees and costs under Code of Civil 6 Procedure section 1021.5 as this case is by definition “for the benefit” of others and has secured
7 monetary awards for the Aggrieved Employees.¹⁵ The payment to the LWDA will also benefit
8 the agency in enforcing labor laws and educating “employers and employees about their rights
9 and responsibilities under [the Labor Code].” (Lab. Code, at § 2699(m).)

10 B. The PAGA Counsel Fees Payment is Reasonable Based on the Factors
11 Considered.

12 The factors courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable are: (1) time 13 and labor required; (2) novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) requisite skills to perform the 14 legal services; (4) preclusion of other employment by the attorney; (5) customary fee; (6) whether 15 the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitation imposed; (8) amount involved and results
16 obtained; (9) experience, reputation and ability of the attorney; (10) undesirability of the case;
17 (11) nature and length of the professional relationship; and (12) awards in similar cases. (Camden
18 I Condo. Ass’n, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772.) It should be highlighted that 19 the percentage award sought is commensurate with the: (1) results obtained; (2) risks taken; (3)
20 difficulty of this case; and (4) skills displayed and the quality of work, which are addressed below.

21 1. *The Results Obtained

22 The results attorneys obtain for their clients is an important factor when determining the 23 reasonability of a percentage-based fee. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p.
24 489.) Law firms that obtain exceptional results expect those results to be reflected in their fees.

25
26 ¹⁵ (Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package Sys. Inc. (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17 27 (recognizing that recovery obtained on behalf of 209 individual satisfies the “significant benefit,”
28 “public interest,” and “large class of persons” requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, regardless of plaintiff’s personal motivation).)

1 The results obtained herein are reasonable as PAGA Counsel obtained a settlement of 2 $525,000 without the need for extended litigation. If this case went to trial, there was no guarantee
3 that the trial would have been short or that either party would have prevailed. Even if the Parties
4 reached a similar settlement, it would have been undercut by additional expenses incurred. The 5 resolution of this dispute at this stage is preferred as the Parties were moving to a phase where 6 significant time and money would inevitably have to be spent to prepare for trial.

7 By avoiding the uncertainties associated with conducting trial and Defendant's responses
8 to the allegations, PAGA Counsel obtained those results more quickly and surely than if the 9 matter had been litigated to final resolution. Under the law, this factor supports the PAGA
10 Counsel Fees Payment. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

11 2. The Risks Taken

12 Whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

13 A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they 14 are performed [and] [...] compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he 15 renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not 16 being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

17 (Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823.)

18 Plaintiff executed a contingent fee agreement. This meant that no recovery would have 19 equated to no compensation for 254.1 hours of work and $15,410.58 litigation costs incurred.
20 Moreover, several factors have made this case difficult, thereby contributing to the risks taken.
21 These factors included: (1) locating and interviewing putative aggrieved employees to 22 corroborate the allegations; (2) difficulties in pinning down job responsibilities, wages paid, and 23 breaks taken; (3) number of documents that had to be reviewed and analyzed; (4) shifting wage-
24 and-hour laws; (5) Defendant conducting its business in different locations; and (6) Defendant's
25 initial firm resistance to the relief sought.¹⁶

26 ///

27 _____
28 ¹⁶ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 29, 31, 32, 36.)

Attorneys being paid on an hourly basis as opposed to being paid on a contingent basis are assuming less risks. (See e.g. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-1133.) The contingent risks are a major factor when determining attorneys' fees. (See e.g. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 504 (noting that trial court had carefully considered risks and contingency involved in awarding 33 and 1/3% fee).)

3. The Difficulty of the Litigation

The state of the law, factual complexities underlying the policies and practices in place, and other issues made this case complex and difficult. PAGA Counsel overcame these obstacles by obtaining a settlement that is fair, adequate, and reasonable. PAGA Counsel obtaining a fair settlement despite these roadblocks speaks volumes of their skill and experience. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 42 ("special skill and experience of counsel" is a relevant factor when determining fee award).)

Due to the difficulty of this case, PAGA Counsel devoted several hours to this matter. The Task & Time Chart sets forth the hours, allocating the total time to the tasks required to conclude this lawsuit. As stated in the previous section, this was not a clear-cut case. PAGA Counsel had to overcome roadblocks and obstacles before they could reach the settlement, which further illustrates the difficulty of this case.¹⁷

4. The Skill Displayed and Quality of Work

The level of skill displayed and quality of work it produced justify the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment. PAGA Counsel are skilled and experienced representatives and class action wage-and-hour litigators, and the Task & Time Chart illustrates this assertion.

PAGA Counsel used the pre-mediation time period to investigate the veracity, strength, and scope of the PAGA claim and to prepare for representative adjudication. This included: (1) engaging case strategy and analysis; (2) requesting and gathering relevant documents; (3) drafting, reviewing, and revising the pleadings and mediation brief; (4) preparing for and appearing at court proceedings; (5) calculating potential damages for mediation purposes; (6)

¹⁷ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 3.)

1 preparing for and attending mediation and engaging in settlement negotiations; and (7) working
2 with Defense Counsel to draft, update, and finalize the Settlement Agreement. PAGA Counsel 3 also undertook the arduous task of locating and interviewing putative aggrieved employees to 4 verify if the PAGA claim raised any individualized issues.¹⁸

5 PAGA Counsel's accumulated skill and expertise contributed to the settlement. Under 6 California law, this factor (skills displayed and quality of work) supports the PAGA Counsel Fees
7 Payment. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

8 C. The Lodestar Methodology Justifies the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment.

9 When a common fund is involved, courts may use the lodestar method. A court tasked 10 with cross-checking a percentage-based fee considers the reasonableness of the lodestar figure, 11 which is the time reasonably spent multiplied by the reasonable hourly compensation of the 12 attorneys. (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48.) The court may then adjust, increase, or 13 decrease that figure after considering factors like the novelty and complexity of the issues, skill
14 and expertise, extent the litigation precluded other employment, and risk involved. (Id. at p. 49.)

15 Based on the 254.1 hours worked, the base lodestar fees calculation is $187,140, resulting 16 in a negative multiplier of 0.98 when cross-checked with the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment.¹⁹

17 1. The Work Performed for a Reasonable Number of Hours.

18 Counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent. (Ketchum v. Moses, 19 supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1133.) The reasonableness is assessed by "the entire course of the 20 litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the 21 trial itself[.]" (Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.)

22 This matter required a fair amount of time and labor. The Task & Time Chart evidenced 23 the several tasks that were performed to seek all necessary information. The Task & Time Chart
24 illustrates that PAGA Counsel spent a reasonable number of hours working on this case, thereby
25 demonstrating the application for the attorneys' fees is reasonable.²⁰

26 ¹⁸ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 13.)

27 ¹⁹ (Id. at ¶¶ 32, 34.)

28 ²⁰ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 31; Exhibit 3.)

1 The case involved, among other things, gathering and analyzing data from Defendant and 2 other sources. PAGA Counsel also undertook preparation to resolve the entire matter through
3 mediation. These preparations included locating and interviewing putative aggrieved employees,
4 gathering and reviewing a myriad of documents, determining the scope of the Aggrieved
5 Employees, verifying the strengths of the PAGA claim, etc.

6 2. The Hourly Rates are Reasonable.

7 PAGA Counsel's hourly rates are supported by the 2022 Real Rate Report that was 8 compiled by Wolters Kluwer, which surveyed the hourly rates charged in 2022 by hundreds of 9 attorneys in California. By extension, the hourly rates are in line with the Laffey Matrix. The 10 hourly rates are also reasonable for the following reasons: (1) several courts in the State of 11 California have awarded PAGA Counsel fees at similar rates; (2) comparable hourly rates for 12 similar services have been deemed reasonable in several cases in the State of California; and (3)
13 surveys of legal rates have supported the hourly rates. This shows that the hourly rates used for 14 the lodestar calculation are well within the range of non-contingent rates charged by comparable
15 attorneys performing similar work in the State of California.²¹

16 VII. THE PAGA COUNSEL LITIGATION EXPENSES PAYMENT SHOULD BE 17 APPROVED

18 The Settlement Agreement allows for the payment of the PAGA Counsel Litigation
19 Expenses Payment of up to $25,000. PAGA Counsel incurred $15,410.58 litigation in costs and 20 expenses. PAGA Counsel request that the Court order the reimbursement of the above-mentioned
21 costs and expenses.²²

27 ²¹ (Id. at ¶¶ 32-34; Exhibits 4, 5.)

28 ²² (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 36; Exhibit 6.)

1 VIII. THE SERVICE PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

2 The purpose of such an award is to incentivize plaintiffs to step into the shoes of the state
3 labor agency and undertake the risks associated with initiating a lawsuit and serving in a
4 representative capacity. (Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (“service
5 payments” compensate named plaintiff “for [her] efforts in bringing the action”); Clark v. Am.
6 Residential Servs., LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (“an incentive award is appropriate ‘if 7 it is necessary to induce an individual to participate in the suit’”); accord Ingram v. The Coca-
8 Cola Co. (N.D. Ga. 2001) 200 F.R.D. 685, 694 (internal quotation marks omitted) (“Courts
9 routinely approve incentive awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provided
10 and the risks they incurred during the course of the [...] litigation.”).)

11 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of the Service Payment of $10,000
12 to Plaintiff for the services and contributions on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff
13 spent time and effort in locating and producing relevant documents and past employment records, 14 reviewing relevant documents, and providing the facts and evidence supporting the allegations.
15 Plaintiff was available whenever needed by PAGA Counsel and actively tried to obtain and 16 provide as much information as possible. Plaintiff spent hours speaking with PAGA Counsel 17 about the alleged violations, discussing the work experience and work environment, helping 18 PAGA Counsel develop a strategy to obtain additional documents, aiding PAGA Counsel to 19 determine the importance of the documents produced, and reviewing the operative complaints
20 and Settlement Agreement. Plaintiff also made herself available all day to participate in and assist 21 with mediation and settlement negotiations.²³

22 Plaintiff was advised of and accepted the risks and sacrifices associated with serving as 23 the named plaintiff. Plaintiff is also not related to anyone associated with PAGA Counsel. This
24 is further proof that Plaintiff’s interests are not adverse to the Aggrieved Employees.²⁴

28 ²⁴ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 37; Onusic Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 10-13.)

1 IX. THE ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

2 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of Administration Expenses
3 Payment of up to $7,000 The Administration Expenses Payment are intended to cover the costs
4 incurred by the Administrator for performing its duties outlined in the Settlement Agreement.
5 PAGA Counsel have previously worked with the Administrator several times in the past and are 6 familiar with its superior reputation and work.²⁵

7 X. CONCLUSION

8 Plaintiff requests that the Court grant approval of the Settlement Agreement. Plaintiff
9 further requests that the Court retain continuing jurisdiction over the enforcement and 10 administration of the Settlement Agreement.
