Re: Labor Code § 2698, et seq. Penalties – PAGA Notice Letter to the LWDA
*Contreras v. Simply Right, et al.

Gentlepersons:

This office represents Plaintiff Enrique Ruiz Contreras (“Plaintiff”) and other similarly situated aggrieved non-exempt employees (collectively “Aggrieved Employees”) for violations of California Labor Code §§ 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq. and 2802; provisions of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) Wage Order(s); and California Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et. seq. (“the Act”). Plaintiff would like to bring a representative action, pursuant to the Act, on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, against Defendants, Simply Right; Simply Right, Inc.; Cinemark; and DOES 1 through 50 inclusive (all defendants being referred to herein collectively as “Defendants”).

Additionally, this correspondence will serve to satisfy the notice requirements under the Act, along with a copy of Plaintiff’s Class Action Complaint, which is attached to this Notice letter. The Complaint is being concurrently filed in Imperial Superior Court and will be assigned a local case number. The Complaint allegations and claims are incorporated into this Notice Letter.

Set forth herein are the facts and theories and the California Labor Code violations which Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of their Aggrieved Employees in California. This Notice Letter, addresses in detail numerous violations that subject Defendants to civil and statutory penalties under the Act.

The second purpose of this Notice letter is to provide Simply Right and Simply Right, Inc. with notice pursuant to Labor Code §2810.3(d) that, upon the running of the 30-day notice period under Section 2810.3 and the running of the PAGA Notice period addressed below, Plaintiff will be bringing claims under the Act against Defendants through a formal Complaint. Plaintiff is asserting against Defendants all claims asserted for civil penalties and other relief under the PAGA as articulated in this Notice Letter.

Defendant Cinemark (hereinafter collectively referred to as “The Client Employer”) is a privately held companies that operates movie theaters. The Client Employer supplements its labor force by using temporary workers supplied by various temporary staffing agencies, such as named defendants Simply Right and Simply Right, Inc. Plaintiff has alleged that these Defendants jointly employ Plaintiff and the putative Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, including those placed by Simply Right and Simply Right, Inc. and any other Labor Contractors (collectively “staffing companies”) to perform work at The Client Employer’s facilities. Plaintiff also asserts that the putative Class Members and Aggrieved Employees encompass both direct hires from The Client Employers and those whom the staffing companies placed to work at The Client Employers’ facilities, as they are all subject to uniform policies and practices and share common contentions as to the alleged violations that have arisen from them.

Plaintiff has therefore alleged that Defendants Cinemark is and has been a client employer within the definition of Labor Code § 2810.3 and shares with Simply Right and Simply Right, Inc. and the other staffing companies, i.e., the labor contractors under Labor Code § 2810.3, all civil legal responsibility and civil liability for failure to pay all wages earned and related and derivative claims by Plaintiff and the putative Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. This correspondence also satisfies the notice requirements under Section 2810.3, and the following details and liability theories summarize Plaintiff’s claims and provide notice to Simply Right and Simply Right, Inc. and the other staffing companies under Labor Code 2810.3(d) and firmly establish they are and have been joint employers of the Class members and the Aggrieved Employees with The Client Employers.

We also set forth herein the facts and theories and the California Labor Code violations which Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of their Aggrieved Employees in California. The attached Class Action Complaint provides the details of Plaintiff's class-wide claims and claims under the Act, and the applicable California law governing them. It, along with this Notice Letter, addresses in detail numerous violations that subject Defendants to civil and statutory penalties under the Act.

Relevant Facts

Aggrieved Employees were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees within the state of California within the statutory time period who suffer or suffered from the same wage and hour violations outlined below. Defendants had a common policy and/or practice of failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages for all hours worked.

Additionally, Aggrieved Employees were not paid for the time that they worked "post-shift" without compensation by being required to continue completing work tasks after clocking out. Moreover, Defendants required Employees to use their personal cell phones to respond to work demands outside of scheduled work hours, and Employees were not compensated for this time. Defendants also had a uniform policy and practice of rounding all time entries to reflect scheduled shift start and end times rather than paying Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours and minutes they actually worked. Defendants generally rounded time entries to the detriment of the Employees, and these unlawfully rounded time entries were inputted into Defendants' payroll system from which wage statements and payroll checks were created. Thus, Aggrieved Employees were required to work hours, under the control of Defendants, without wages.

Because of the foregoing understatement of hours worked, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees proper overtime wages. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees consistently worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, and/or forty (40) hours a week. However, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day. Moreover, the uncompensated time, discussed above, was worked by Aggrieved Employees in excess of 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours a week, further entitling Aggrieved Employees overtime wages which they were consistently denied, all in violation of Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

Defendants have consistently failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with paid rest breaks of not less than 10 minutes for every work period of 4 or more consecutive hours, as required by Labor Code. Specifically, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work through their rest breaks which they were continuously denied. What rest breaks were taken were on-duty due to Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting rest breaks with work demands.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenditures incurred in execution of their duties under Defendants' employ. Defendants have failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their job duties for Defendants, including personal cell phone usage, protective gear, and tools, all of which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ.

Defendants consistently failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements as required by Labor Code § 226(a). Specifically, Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Additionally, the wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees, by Defendants, failed to include the requirements enumerated above. Aggrieved Employees' wage statements did not include: the total hours worked in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2) and failed to accurately set forth all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each such rate in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9). The wage statements provided to Aggrieved Employees were confusing and required Aggrieved Employees to refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Aggrieved Employees. Moreover, the wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees failed to accurately account for unpaid wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficiently provided rest breaks, as discussed above.

Moreover, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees all wages owed at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation as required by Labor Code §§ 201-203. Defendants also consistently failed to pay Aggrieved Employees all wages due on a semi-monthly basis.

PAGA Claim Details, Legal Bases for Violations and Penalties:

As addressed above and in further detail in the attached Class Action Complaint, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees complain of the following violations committed by Defendants:

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages for all hours worked. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states, "[t]he minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful." The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the relevant period is found in the Wage Orders.

In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum wage for all hours worked, including under Labor Code § 1197, IWC Wage Order MW-2014, and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), and 4(A)-4(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders. Paragraph 2(H) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders defines "Hours Worked" as "the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so." Additionally, pursuant to Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” states: “The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.” The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: “Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit.”

As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also, California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate, or at the minimum rate in the absence of a contractually agreed upon one. The underpayment of wages to Aggrieved Employees is and has been a direct consequence of Defendants’ unlawful compensation policies and practices, which applied uniformly to the Aggrieved Employees working at locations and work sites throughout California.

Defendants thus failed to pay Employees minimum wages they were owed, including by their consistent policy of failing to pay Employees for all hours worked. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were not paid for the time that they worked, including as alleged above in connection with working “post-shift” without compensation by being required to continue completing work tasks after clocking out. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees were not paid for the time that they spent answering work-related phone calls and texts while off-the-clock. Thus, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work hours without wages. Defendants also had a uniform policy and practice of rounding all time entries to reflect scheduled shift start and end times rather than paying Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours and minutes they actually worked. Defendants generally rounded time entries to the detriment of the Employees, and these unlawfully rounded time entries were inputted into Defendants’ payroll system from which wage statements and payroll checks were created. Additionally, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. In light of the forgoing, the Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties. Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a). Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees further request recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory and civil penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other applicable statutes, including pursuant to Labor Code § 558, and Wage Order provisions. To the extent minimum wage compensation is determined to be owed to the Aggrieved Employees who have terminated their employment, Defendants' conduct also violates Labor Code §§ 201 and/or 202, and therefore these individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under California Labor Code § 203, which penalties are sought herein on behalf of these Aggrieved Employees. Defendants' failure to timely pay all wages owed also violated Labor Code § 204 and resulted in violations of Labor Code § 226 because they resulted in the issuance of inaccurate wage statements. Defendants' conduct as alleged herein was willful, intentional and not in good faith. Further, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to seek and recover statutory costs.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime in Violation of Labor Code § 510

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees earned wages and overtime. Specifically, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees consistently worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, and/or forty (40) hours a week. However, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day. Moreover, the uncompensated time, discussed above including the time they worked "post-shift" without compensation by being required to continue completing work tasks after clocking out and being required to respond to phone calls and texts received while off-the-clock caused Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours a week, further entitling Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to overtime wages which they were consistently denied, all in violation of Labor Code § 510 and applicable Wage Orders.

Defendants have violated Labor Code § 1194 and Labor Code § 510 (and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A) and 4(A)-4(B) of the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a workday or in excess of forty hours in any workweek or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of twelve hours in any one day or for hours worked in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Employees wages for all hours worked, including by requiring off the clock work as addressed above and by under-reporting actual hours worked. This unpaid off the clock work resulted in Aggrieved Employees working past eight hours on a shift or more than forty hours in a week, which required that they be paid at the correct overtime rate of 1.5 times their regular rate.

When considered in combination with the other wage violations addressed above, Aggrieved Employees were not properly compensated, nor were they paid overtime and double time rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours or twelve hours in a given day, and/or forty hours in a given week.

In light of the forgoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1174, 1194, 1198, 1199, and the relevant paragraphs of the IWC Wage Orders, including paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A), 4, and 20. Defendants are liable to Aggrieved Employees for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes and Wage Order provisions. Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7 and Penalties

Defendants have consistently failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with paid rest breaks of not less than ten minutes for every work period of four or more consecutive hours, as required under Labor Code § 226.7. Specifically, Defendants provided rest periods untimely or for shortened durations. Therefore, Defendants also miscalculated the rate at which they paid any rest period premiums when Defendants did attempt to pay them, resulting in further violations of section 226.7.

Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided, or miscalculated any premiums paid. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 12 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one hour of wages at their correctly calculated regular rate of compensation for each rest period not provided or deficiently provided, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code, including Labor Code § 558 and other applicable statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages as available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures in Violation of Labor Code § 2802

Defendants have consistently required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to incur necessary business expenses in the execution of their duties under Defendants' employ. Specifically, Defendants have failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their job duties for Defendants, including personal cell phone usage, protective gear, and tools, all of which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ in violation of Labor Code § 2802. Defendants systematically and uniformly failed to reimburse those lawful and necessary work-related expenses or losses incurred in direct discharge of their job duties during employment with Defendants and at the direction of the Defendants pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, paragraph 9. Defendants are liable for PAGA penalties resulting from their failure to reimburse necessary business expenses incurred by the Aggrieved Employees. Accordingly, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover, and hereby seek through this Representative Action, all civil and statutory penalties authorized for violations of California Labor Code §§ 1198 and 2802, and Section 9(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Plaintiff seeks all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2), and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Issue Accurate and Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Labor Code § 226

California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each employee with an accurate, itemized wage statements in writing. These statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a), Aggrieved Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees, by Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficiently provided rest breaks. Additionally, the wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees, by Defendants, failed to include the requirements enumerated above. Aggrieved Employees' wage statements did not include: the total hours worked in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2) and failed to accurately set forth all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each such rate in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9). The wage statements provided to Aggrieved Employees were confusing and required Aggrieved Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct and potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Aggrieved Employees.

In light of these violations, and pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and paragraphs 4(b), 7, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ..."

Failure to Issue Semimonthly Payments in Violation of Labor Code § 204

In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees wages, overtime, premium pay, etc., and failing to provide them with checks and wage statements, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as well as the rest periods taken by Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and the applicable IWC wage orders.

Defendants also required Aggrieved Employees to work hours off the clock for which they were not compensated, including during interrupted or otherwise on-duty rest periods.

Defendants also failed to pay all overtime premium wages owed for work conducted on a work shift and a workday. Therefore, when Aggrieved Employees received wage statements and pay checks, they did not compensate all hours worked on a timely basis, resulting in Defendants' systematic failure to pay all wages owed to Aggrieved Employees twice monthly in accordance with the requirements of Labor Code § 204. Additionally, by not providing wage statements as required under section 204, Defendants systematically violated Labor Code § 204 and § 226.

Given the above described off the clock work, Plaintiff was not paid at the correct overtime rate for all hours she worked after eight hours into a shift or over forty in a work week and was not paid all double time owed either. Defendants' uniformly applied payroll policies and practices thus resulted in further systematic and ongoing violations of the requirements of Labor Code § 204.

In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties, interest, fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201.3, 210, 218.5, 558, and 1194. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime, by requiring off the clock work, by not providing proper rest periods, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failing to pay Employees wages upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code §

1174 and paragraph 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, entitling Aggrieved Employees to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 203, 204, 2926, 2927, and 2699.5 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Keep Records In Accordance With Labor Code § 1174

Labor Code § 1174 requires employers to keep records showing payroll data and the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to employees. By failing to pay Aggrieved Employees proper wages, overtime, double time, premium pay, etc., all discussed herein, Defendants failed to maintain proper employment records in accordance with Section 1174. In light of the forgoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1174.5 and 2699, et seq. Defendants have also failed to comply with paragraph 7 of the applicable California IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period, wages earned pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, and total daily hours worked by itemizing in wage statements all deductions from payment of wages and accurately reporting total hours worked by the Aggrieved Employees, and they are entitled to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, 1198, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Waiting Time Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203

Some Aggrieved Employees no longer work for Defendants; they either resigned or were terminated from Defendants' employ. Based on the forgoing, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages earned by and owed to Aggrieved Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two hours of their resignation, as required by California under Labor Code § 203. In light of the forgoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558 and further specifically seek penalties and wages under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

Labor Code §201.3 sets forth the timing requirements for the payment of wages due during an employee's employment and upon separation of employment from a temporary services employer such as Defendants here.

Labor Code §201.3(b)(1) states: “Except as provided in paragraphs (2) to (5), inclusive, if an employee of a temporary services employer is assigned to work for a client, that employee's wages are due and payable no less frequently than weekly, regardless of when the assignment ends, and wages for work performed during any calendar week shall be due and payable not later than the regular payday of the following calendar week. A temporary services employer shall be deemed to have timely paid wages upon completion of an assignment if wages are paid in compliance with this subdivision.”

Labor Code §201.3(b)(2) states: “If an employee of a temporary services employer is assigned to work for a client on a day-to-day basis, that employee's wages are due and payable at the end of each day, regardless of when the assignment ends, if each of the following occurs: (A) The employee reports to or assembles at the office of the temporary services employer or other location[;] (B) The employee is dispatched to a clients worksite each day and returns to or reports to the office of the temporary services employer or other location upon completion of the assignment [; and] (C) The employee's work is not executive, administrative, or professional, as defined in the wage orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission, and is not clerical.”

Labor Code §201.3(b)(3) states “[i]f an employee of a temporary services employer is assigned to work for a client engaged in a trade dispute, that employee's wages are due and payable at the end of each day, regardless of when the assignment ends.”

Labor Code §201.3(b)(4) and (5) provides that employees of a temporary services employer assigned to work for a client and is discharged or quits his or her employment with the temporary services employer, wages are due and payable as provided in California Labor Code §§201 and 202, respectively.

Labor Code §201.3(c) states that “[a] temporary services employer who violates this section shall be subject to the civil penalties provided for in Section 203, and to any other penalties available at law.”

During the relevant time period and through their conduct including that alleged herein, Defendants failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse, to pay Aggrieved Employees their wages, earned and unpaid, during employment by the times set forth by Labor Code § 201.3.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201.3, 203, 204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Unfair Competition Under Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

Consequently, Defendants' conduct has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees and the general public in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

Plaintiff's PAGA Claim under Labor Code § 2698 et seq. and Recovery Bases:

After complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code § 2699.3 and the running of the notice period after the filing of the attached Class Action Complaint, Plaintiff will file an amended Complaint asserting, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney General and the other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees seek penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants' violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5, including the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California Labor Code sections: §§ 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq. and 2802, including as follows:

(a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime premium wages for overtime hours worked under Labor Code §§ 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(b) Rest Period Claims: For failure authorize and permit them to take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with wage statements or with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ...";

(d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201.3, 203, 204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(e) Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses: For Defendants' failure to reimburse the necessary work related expenses incurred under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802, and Sections 2(K), 4, 9, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), seeking civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, 2699.5, and 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 9 and 20 of the IWC Wage Orders, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(f) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders constituting violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code § 2699.5, and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

We have been constrained to initially move forward with the filing of this Complaint, alleging the causes of action discussed herein, without the PAGA claim. Thus, any action by the LWDA would not resolve the entirety of the case, and the interest of judicial economy will be served by allowing the case to proceed as a cohesive whole.

This letter and the attached Complaint therefore provide the requisite notice under the Act to the LWDA and Defendants by setting forth the specific provisions of the Labor Code and related provisions Plaintiff alleges have been violated, including the facts and relevant theories alleged against Simply Right, Simply Right, Inc., Cinemark, and any other named Defendants and joint employers. To prevent the violations described in the Complaint and herein from occurring, and to remedy past violations, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the LWDA conduct an investigation into Defendants' employment practices in accordance with the Act.

Wherefore we request that you advise us, by certified mail within sixty days of the postmark on this letter, whether you intend to proceed with these claims or whether Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees should include them in an amended Labor Code § 2698 et seq. claim under the Act in an amended Complaint.

4. Reimbursement of Necessary Expenditures Under Labor Code § 2802;
5. Violation of Labor Code § 226(a);
6. Failure to Keep Required Payroll Records Under Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5
7. Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203; and
8. Violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff ENRIQUE RUIZ CONTRERAS, (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself
2 and all others similarly situated (collectively, “Employees”; individually, “Employee”) complains
3 of Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all current and former 6 Employees within the State of California who, at any time four (4) years prior to the filing of this 7 lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt, hourly employees by Defendants SIMPLY RIGHT,
8 an entity of unknown form; SIMPLY RIGHT, INC., a Utah corporation; CINEMARK, an entity
9 of unknown form; and DOES 1 through 50 (all defendants being collectively referred to herein as 10 “Defendants”). Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of 11 the California Labor Code, relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) and 12 California Business & Professions Code, and seeks redress therefore.

13 2. Plaintiff is a resident of California and during the time period relevant to this 14 Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within the State of 15 California at Defendants’ facilities and offices in California. Plaintiff and the other Class members
16 worked for Defendants in Imperial County, and in other nonexempt positions, throughout 17 California and, and consistently worked at Defendants’ behest without being paid all wages due.
18 More specifically, Plaintiff and the other similarly situated Class members were employed by 19 Defendants and worked at Defendants’ offices and other facilities where the conduct giving rise to 20 the allegations in this Class Action Complaint occurred. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff 21 was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities, (2) was 22 subjected to the same policies and practices, and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of 23 Defendants as the other Employee Class members who served in similar and related positions.

24 3. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class to perform work
25 while remaining under Defendants’ control before and after being on the clock for their daily work
26 shift. Defendants further failed to accurately record time worked by Plaintiff and Employee Class 27 members by rounding hours worked to reflect scheduled shift start and end times as opposed to 28 actual hours worked. Defendants thus failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours

1 worked and provided them with inaccurate wage statements that prevented Plaintiff and the Class
2 from learning of these unlawful pay practices. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the 3 Class with lawful rest periods, as employees were not provided with the opportunity to take 4 timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods as required by the Labor Code.

5 THE PARTIES

6 A. The Plaintiff

7 4. Plaintiff ENRIQUE RUIZ CONTRERAS has resided in California and during the 8 time period relevant to this Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly
9 employee within the State of California.

10 B. The Defendants

11 1. Defendant SIMPLY RIGHT is an entity of unknown form and has been listed as 12 the employer on Plaintiff's personnel file and paystubs during the relevant time period. SIMPLY 13 RIGHT does not list a mailing address with the California Secretary of State, but upon information
14 and belief, employs Plaintiff and the Class members in Imperial County, including at Defendants'
15 offices and facilities in El Centro, California, and throughout California and conducts business
16 throughout California. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 17 SIMPLY RIGHT is a "labor contractor" within the meaning of Labor Code § 2810.3 that provides 18 outplacement staffing and payroll services for various industries and professions, including for 19 CINEMARK.

20 5. Defendant SIMPLY RIGHT, INC. is a Utah corporation and has been listed as the 21 employer on Plaintiff's personnel file during the relevant time period. SIMPLY RIGHT, INC lists
22 a mailing address in Salt Lake City, Utah with the California Secretary of State and employs 23 Plaintiff and the Class members in Imperial County, including at Defendants' offices and facilities
24 in El Centro, California, and throughout California and conducts business throughout California.
25 Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that SIMPLY RIGHT, INC. is a
26 "labor contractor" within the meaning of Labor Code § 2810.3 that provides outplacement staffing 27 and payroll services for various industries and professions, including for CINEMARK.

2. Defendant CINEMARK is an entity of unknown form and has been listed as the employer on Plaintiff's personnel file during the relevant time period. CINEMARK does not list a mailing address with the California Secretary of State, but upon information and belief, employs Plaintiff and the Class members in Imperial County, including at Defendants' offices and facilities in El Centro, California, and throughout California and conducts business throughout California. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that CINEMARK is a "client employer" within the meaning of Labor Code § 2810.3 that procures outplacement staffing and payroll services from various staffing agencies, including but not limited to, SIMPLY RIGHT and SIMPLY RIGHT, INC.

6. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them, exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or permitted Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed Employees.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil

1 Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought
2 as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Employees of Defendants pursuant to California
3 Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial district
4 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, the 5 obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred at least in part in Imperial County
6 and Defendants maintain and operate company offices and facilities in Imperial County, and 7 employ Plaintiff and other Class members in Imperial County and throughout California.

8 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9 9. The Employees who comprise the Class and Collective, including Plaintiff, are 10 nonexempt employees pursuant to the applicable Wage Order of the IWC. Defendants hire 11 Employees who work in nonexempt positions at the direction of Defendants in the State of 12 California. Plaintiff and the Class members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours
13 worked or were not paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Specifically, 14 Plaintiff and Employees were not paid for the time that they worked “post-shift” without 15 compensation by being required to continue completing work tasks after clocking out. Moreover,
16 Defendants required Employees to use their personal cell phones to respond to work demands
17 outside of scheduled work hours, and Employees were not compensated for this time. Defendants 18 also had a uniform policy and practice of rounding all time entries to reflect scheduled shift start
19 and end times rather than paying Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours and minutes they 20 actually worked. Defendants generally rounded time entries to the detriment of the Employees, 21 and these unlawfully rounded time entries were inputted into Defendants’ payroll system from 22 which wage statements and payroll checks were created. Plaintiff also contends that Defendants
23 failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members all wages due and owing, failed to provide rest 24 breaks, and failed to furnish accurate wage statements, all in violation of various provisions of the 25 California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

26 10. During the course of Plaintiff and the Class members’ employment with 27 Defendants, they were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed and 28 for all overtime hours worked and were forced to work during their rest breaks. Defendants also

1 failed to maintain timekeeping records for Plaintiff that would permit him to discover the nature
2 and extent of Defendants' understatement of hours worked.

3 11. As a matter of uniform Company policy, Plaintiff and the Class members were 4 required to work during their rest breaks which were not compensated by Defendants in violation
5 of the California Labor Code. Plaintiff and the Class members were also not paid regular wages
6 and overtime for the time they were required to comply with other requirements imposed upon 7 them, which they had to complete while working through their rest breaks and without 8 compensation. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked shifts over eight (8) hours in a 9 day and over forty (40) hours in a work week, but they were not paid at the appropriate overtime
10 rate for all such hours, including by being required to perform work duties and tasks without pay
11 and while off-the-clock. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked substantial overtime 12 hours during their employment with Defendants for which they were not compensated, in 13 violation of the California Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

14 12. As a result of the above described daily work demands and pressures to work
15 through breaks, and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants' hands, Plaintiff and the 16 Class members were not properly paid for all wages earned and for all wages owed to them by 17 Defendants, including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than 18 forty (40) hours in any given week. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices,
19 Plaintiff and Class members incurred overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately
20 and completely compensated. To the extent applicable, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and 21 the Class members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for the first eight hours of the 22 seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the rate of 2 times the regular 23 rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work day, as required under the 24 Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

25 13. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 26 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
27 Employees for all hours worked and failing to pay minimum wage for all time worked as required
28 by California Law.

1 14. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
2 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
3 Employees overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all hours worked in excess of 4 eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time rates for all hours worked in 5 excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510 and the corresponding 6 sections of IWC Wage Orders.

7 15. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 8 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with paid rest breaks of not less 9 than ten (10) minutes for every work period of four (4) or more consecutive hours; nor did
10 Defendants pay Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not 11 provided or were deficiently provided at one hour of wages at each Employee's effective regular 12 rate of pay, for each rest period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

13 16. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 14 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
15 accurate, and itemized wage statements as required by California wage-and-hour laws.
16 Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees by Defendants failed to accurately account
17 for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient rest breaks all of which Defendants knew or 18 reasonably should have known were owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. The wage 19 statements provided to Employees were confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery
20 and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a 21 miscalculation by the Employees.

22 17. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
23 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
24 accurate, and itemized wage statements, in writing, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

25 18. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 26 present, Defendants have failed to reimburse Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the 27 performance of their job duties for Defendants including the cost of personal cellphone usage,
28 protective gear, and tools, all of which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants'

1 employ in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

2 19. Additionally, from at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 3 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to keep accurate time and wage
4 records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

5 20. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing 6 to the present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages fur and owed to 7 Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 8 required by California wage-and-hour laws. Defendants also consistently failed to pay Plaintiff
9 and Class members all wages due on a semi-monthly basis.

10 21. In light of the foregoing, Employees bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor
11 Code §§ 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 12 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1199, and 2802.

13 22. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, 14 Employees seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have 15 enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code.

16 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

17 23. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and all others similarly 18 situated pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as 19 follows: all individuals employed by Defendants within the State of California at any time within 20 four (4) years of the filing of this lawsuit.

21 24. Further, Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Subclasses composed of and 22 defined as follows:

23 a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not 24 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

25 b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class members who were not 26 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all 27 hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

28 c. Subclass 3. Rest Break Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Employees to take uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

d. Subclass 4. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

e. Subclass 5. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

f. Subclass 6. Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' failure to reimburse for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of Employees job duties for Defendants.

g. Subclass 7. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon termination.

h. Subclass 8. UCL Subclass. All Class members who are owed restitution as a result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

25. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

26. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

A. Numerosity

27. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the

1 time period relevant to this lawsuit, employed more than 100 individuals within the State of 2 California.

3 28. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 4 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 5 information as to the number and location of all class members.

6 B. Commonality

7 29. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any 8 questions affecting only individual class members. These common questions of law and fact 9 include:

- 10 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages;
- 11 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees wages for all hours worked;
- 12 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees overtime as required under Labor
13 Code § 510;
- 14 d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage 15 Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite rest breaks or premium pay 16 in lieu thereof;
- 17 e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a);
- 18 f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;
- 19 g. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Employees for necessary business 20 expenses;
- 21 h. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay 22 wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- 23 i. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and
- 24 j. Whether Employees are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and 25 Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

26 C. Typicality

27 30. The claims of the named plaintiff are typical of those of the other Employees.
28 Employees all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common

1 course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of 2 law, as alleged herein.

3 D. Adequacy of Representation

4 31. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Employees.
5 Counsel who represents Employees are experienced and competent in litigating employment class 6 actions.

7 E. Superiority of Class Action

8 32. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 9 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Employees is not practicable, and 10 questions of law and fact common to all Employees predominate over any questions affecting only 11 individual Employees. Each Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of 12 Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Employees properly.

13 33. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their 14 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
15 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class action.

16 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 34. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 20 full herein.

21 35. Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages for all hours worked.
22 Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Employees time records and failing to pay
23 Employees for all hours worked. Employees would work hours and not receive wages, including 24 as alleged above in connection with working "post-shift" without compensation by being 25 required to continue completing work tasks after clocking out and being required to respond to 26 work-related phone calls and texts received while off-the-clock. Defendants also had a uniform
27 policy and practice of rounding all time entries to reflect scheduled shift start and end times
28 rather than paying Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours and minutes they actually

1 worked. Defendants generally rounded time entries to the detriment of the Employees, and these 2 unlawfully rounded time entries were inputted into Defendants' payroll system from which wage
3 statements and payroll checks were created. Defendants thus regularly failed to pay minimum
4 wages to Plaintiff and Class members. Moreover, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and 5 Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants' uniform pattern of 6 unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a 7 whole, as a result of implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate
8 compensation to Plaintiff and the other members of the Class as to minimum wage pay.

9 36. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage"
10 states:

11 The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the 12 minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

13 37. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 14 relevant period is found in the Wage Orders. Pursuant to the Wage Orders, Employees are 15 therefore entitled to double the minimum wage during the relevant period.

16 38. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private 17 civil action pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a) which states:

18 Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any 19 employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 20 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest
21 thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

22 39. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages
23 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission.

24 40. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies:

25 In any action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the minimum wages fixed by an 26 order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully
27 unpaid and interest thereon.
28

41. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Employees.

42. Wherefore, Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

(Against All Defendants)

43. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

44. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code § 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Employees wages for all hours worked including time off the clock working “post-shift” without compensation by being required to continue completing work tasks after clocking out and being required to respond to phone calls and texts received while off-the-clock. Employees regularly worked over 8 hours on a given day or over 40 hours in a given week without receiving overtime compensation.

45. Defendants' failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages

1 and overtime compensation earned by Employees. Each such failure to make a timely payment of 2 compensation to Employees constitutes a separate violation of California Labor Code § 204.

3 46. Employees have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code §§
4 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

5 47. Consequently, pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 204, 510, and 1194 (and the 6 relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission), Defendants are liable to Employees for 7 the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their 8 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

9 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 48. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 13 full herein.

14 49. Employees consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts. Pursuant to the 15 Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order, Employees were entitled to paid rest breaks of 16 not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift.

17 50. Defendants failed to provide Employees with timely rest breaks of not less than ten 18 (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. What rest breaks were provided were also 19 not duty-free due to Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting rest breaks with work 20 demands.

21 51. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each rest period not 22 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC
23 Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in 24 accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the 25 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.
26 Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each rest period not provided or 27 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage 28 Order.

1 52. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 2 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day
3 worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to be proven at trial.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
5 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES
6 IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2802
7 (Against All Defendants)

8 53. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
9 full herein.

10 54. Under Labor Code § 2802(a), an employer must indemnify its employees for all 11 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge 12 of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

13 55. Employees incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job duties
14 for Defendants, including the costs of cell phone usage, protective gear, and tools, all of which 15 were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ. From four (4) years prior to the 16 original filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants consistently failed to 17 reimburse Employees for these necessarily incurred business expenses.

18 56. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Employees have been deprived of 19 reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts,
20 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

21 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
22 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)
23 (Against All Defendants)

24 57. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 25 full herein.

26 58. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her 27 employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, 28 total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these

1 statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else
2 serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these 3 statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the 4 employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

5 59. Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in 6 writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees, by 7 Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient rest
8 breaks, and reflected incorrect hours worked, all of which Defendants knew or reasonably should 9 have known were owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. Additionally, the wage statements
10 given to Employees, by Defendants, failed to include the requirements enumerated above.
11 Employees' wage statements did not include: the total hours worked in violation of Labor Code §
12 226(a)(2) and failed to accurately set forth all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay
13 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each such rate in violation of Labor Code
14 § 226(a)(9). The wage statements provided to Employees were confusing and required Employees
15 to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, 16 potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees.

17 60. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a),
18 Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received 19 all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and 20 forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact 21 compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

22 61. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e), Employees are entitled to recover
23 the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation 24 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not 25 exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an 26 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

27 62. With respect to violations of Labor Code § 226, Labor Code § 226.3 imposes a 28 civil penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for initial violations for each employee for

1 each pay period, and one thousand dollars ($1000) for each subsequent violation for each
2 employee for each pay period.

3 63. Plaintiff is seeking penalties against Defendants under Labor Code § 226.3, and 4 any other applicable statute allowing recovery of penalties as alleged herein in an amount to be 5 shown according to proof.

6 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174

8 AND 1174.5

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 64. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 11 full herein.

12 65. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time 13 and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any 14 employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek 15 damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

16 66. During the course of Plaintiff's and Employees' employment, Defendants 17 consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Employees as 18 required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Employees proper wages, 19 overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

20 67. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California
21 Labor Code § 1174.5. for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

22 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 68. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 26 full herein.

27 69. Numerous Employees are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit
28 Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

1 70. Defendants failed to pay these Employees all wages due and certain at the time of 2 termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

3 71. The wages withheld from these Employees by Defendants remained due and owing 4 for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation of employment.

5 72. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged above, was willful in that Defendants
6 knew wages to be due but failed to pay them; this violation entitles these Employees to penalties
7 under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up 8 to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

9 73. Labor Code §201.3 sets forth the timing requirements for the payment of wages
10 due during an employee's employment and upon separation of employment from a temporary 11 services employer such as Defendants here.

12 74. Labor Code §201.3(b)(1) states: "Except as provided in paragraphs (2) to (5), 13 inclusive, if an employee of a temporary services employer is assigned to work for a client, that 14 employee's wages are due and payable no less frequently than weekly, regardless of when the 15 assignment ends, and wages for work performed during any calendar week shall be due and 16 payable not later than the regular payday of the following calendar week. A temporary services
17 employer shall be deemed to have timely paid wages upon completion of an assignment if wages
18 are paid in compliance with this subdivision."

19 75. Labor Code §201.3(b)(2) states: "If an employee of a temporary services employer
20 is assigned to work for a client on a day-to-day basis, that employee's wages are due and payable 21 at the end of each day, regardless of when the assignment ends, if each of the following occurs:
22 (A) The employee reports to or assembles at the office of the temporary services employer or other
23 location[;] (B) The employee is dispatched to a clients worksite each day and returns to or reports 24 to the office of the temporary services employer or other location upon completion of the 25 assignment [; and] (C) The employee's work is not executive, administrative, or professional, as 26 defined in the wage orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission, and is not clerical."

27 76. Labor Code §201.3(b)(3) states "[i]f an employee of a temporary services employer
28 is assigned to work for a client engaged in a trade dispute, that employee's wages are due and

1 payable at the end of each day, regardless of when the assignment ends.”

2 77. Labor Code §201.3(b)(4) and (5) provides that employees of a temporary services
3 employer assigned to work for a client and is discharged or quits his or her employment with the 4 temporary services employer, wages are due and payable as provided
5 in California Labor Code §§201 and 202, respectively.

6 78. Labor Code §201.3(c) states that “[a] temporary services employer who violates
7 this section shall be subject to the civil penalties provided for in Section 203, and to any other 8 penalties available at law.”

9 79. During the relevant time period and through their conduct including that alleged 10 herein, Defendants failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse, to pay Employees their 11 wages, earned and unpaid, during employment by the times set forth by Labor Code §201.3.

12 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.

14 (Against All Defendants)

15 80. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 16 full herein.

17 81. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, Employees, and the general public, brings this claim
18 pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as alleged in 19 this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Employees and the 20 general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 21 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

22 82. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code
23 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive 24 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

25 83. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair
26 business practices.

27 84. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 28 wages and overtime, providing them with rest periods, etc., are fundamental public policies of

1 California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State vigorously to enforce 2 minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to work under 3 substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their employees
4 from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to comply with minimum labor 5 standards.

6 85. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 7 in this Complaint, Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 8 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 9 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Defendants' conduct has deprived 10 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and 11 privileges guaranteed to all employees under the law.

12 86. Defendants' conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 13 violation of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

14 87. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 15 overtime, failing to provide rest periods, etc., either knew or in the exercise of reasonable care
16 should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct violates the Business
17 & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

18 88. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Employees have 19 been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

20 89. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in such 21 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court 22 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be 23 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 24 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 25 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Employees to the money Defendants 26 have unlawfully failed to pay.
