1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff John Davis (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of a non-reversionary $166,000.00 gross
4 settlement of claims for civil penalties alleged pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, 5 Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). After a fully day of negotiations with the Hon. C Katherine
6 A. Bacal, and months of extended settlement negotiations, Plaintiff reached a resolution with Defendant 7 Truly Nolen of America, Inc. (“Defendant”) (collectively, Plaintiff and Defendant are the “Parties”). The 8 Parties have executed an Amended PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”), a true and correct 9 copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Motion for 10 Approval of PAGA Settlement (“Moon Decl.”) submitted concurrently herewith. Pursuant to Labor Code 11 section 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff now files this motion seeking an order approving the proposed Settlement.

12 The Settlement resolves all claims for civil penalties under PAGA that arose during the PAGA
13 Period and that were alleged in the above-captioned matter (“Action”). (Settlement, ¶ 2.1.) For purposes
14 of settlement, the “PAGA Period” is the period from May 17, 2024, to November 12, 2025. (Id. at ¶ 1.23.)
15 This Settlement is on behalf of the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”), 16 Plaintiff, and all current and former non-exempt, hourly-paid employees of Defendant who worked in 17 California at any time during the PAGA Period (“Aggrieved Employees”). (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) Plaintiff is 18 unaware of any other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted 19 by approval of the Settlement. (Moon Decl., ¶ 24.)

20 Settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. Pursuant to the operative PAGA statute, the 21 “court shall review and approve any penalties sought as part of a proposed settlement agreement pursuant 22 to this part.” (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) In deciding whether to grant approval of a proposed settlement, 23 the primary issue to be decided is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Specifically, 24 the issue is whether the PAGA penalties to which the parties have agreed provide “genuine and 25 meaningful” relief that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public,” and 26 whether the penalties are reasonable in light of the potential verdict value in this case. (Villalobos v.
27 Calandri Sunrise Farm LP (C.D. Cal. July 22, 2015) No. CV 12-2615 PSG (JEMx), 2015 WL 12732709, 28 at *5; see also O’Connor v. Uber Techn., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1135.)

1 As set forth herein, the proposed Settlement embodies all the features of a settlement that is fair, 2 adequate, and reasonable, as (1) it is the product of an arm's-length negotiation, (2) negotiated by 3 attorneys experienced in wage and hour litigation, (3) following sufficient investigation necessary to 4 evaluate the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, and (4) reflects a reasoned compromise
5 based directly on the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, as well as the risks, expense, 6 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation.

7 The meaningful value achieved by the Settlement at issue may be gleaned from the fact that the 8 LWDA and the estimated 86 Aggrieved Employees will, cumulatively, receive no less than $88,889.07
9 as PAGA Penalties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.) This is a significant recovery, not only because further litigation 10 may have resulted in a net-zero recovery based on the facts of the case and defenses asserted by 11 Defendant, but also because an investigation by experienced PAGA counsel and analysis of discovery 12 revealed minimal identifiable violations, the discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties, and the 13 risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues 14 and current state of the law. For these reasons, as set forth more fully below, Plaintiff respectfully requests 15 the Court enter the proposed order and proposed judgment submitted concurrently herewith.

16 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

17 A. Plaintiff's Claims and Procedural Background

18 Defendant owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of 19 California, including San Diego County. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff worked for Defendant during the 20 statutory period as a Pest Control Technician. (Id.) Throughout his employment, Plaintiff was 21 classified as non-exempt and paid on an hourly basis. (Id.) Plaintiff contends he and his former 22 coworkers were subjected to the same or similar unlawful labor practices during their employment with 23 Defendant. (Id.)

24 Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages stems from allegations of Defendant's failure to pay 25 employees all minimum, overtime, sick pay, and regular rate wages owed, including due to 26 Defendant's failure to compensate employees for off-the-clock work and Defendant's failure to 27 incorporate all remunerations into the regular rate of pay. (Id. at ¶ 5.) Plaintiff's meal and rest period 28 claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work and Defendant's employment practices,

1 employees regularly experienced missed, untimely, or interrupted breaks, and that Defendant failed to 2 provide any premiums for non-compliant rest breaks or all premiums for non-compliant meals. (Id.)
3 Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work and 4 Defendant's employment practices, employees regularly experienced missed, untimely, or interrupted
5 breaks, and that Defendant failed to provide any premiums for non-compliant rest breaks or all premiums
6 for non-compliant meals. (Id.) Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse employees for all 7 reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred, including expenses incurred for the use of 8 employees' personal cellphone and vehicle for work purposes. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges he and other 9 employees did not receive all wages owed at the time of termination nor accurate itemized wage 10 statements due to Defendant's failure to pay all wages and premiums. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff alleges 11 Defendant is liable for civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

12 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of the Labor Code, Plaintiff filed a Class Action
13 Complaint on May 21, 2025, alleging Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum wages, (2) 14 failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit 15 rest breaks, (5) failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at 16 termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business
17 practices. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

18 Pursuant to PAGA, and on May 17, 2025, Plaintiff submitted notice of the alleged Labor Code 19 violations to the LWDA, with certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at 20 ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) The administrative exhaustion period under PAGA expired without the LWDA indicating any 21 intent to investigate the allegations. (Id. at ¶ 7.) July 23, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and 22 Representative Action Complaint to allege a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the 23 "Operative Complaint"). (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney 24 general with respect to the PAGA claims involved in this action. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code 25 section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative 26 Complaint containing the Court-assigned case number. (Id. at ¶ 8.) To date, the LWDA has not sought 27 to intervene in this action. (Id.)

28 After this action was filed, Defendant produced an arbitration agreement between Defendant

1 and Plaintiff containing a class action waiver. (Id. at ¶ 9.) On August 11, 2025, Defendant served Plaintiff
2 with Defendant’s request for Early Evaluation Conference and Request for Stay of Action Under PAGA,
3 California Labor Code section 2699(f). (Id.) On August 20, 2025, the Court granted and filed Defendant’s 4 request. (Id.)

5 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations. (Id.
6 at ¶ 10.) Defendant argues all employees were properly paid for all hours worked and that it did not require 7 or permit employees to work off-the-clock. (Id.) As for the regular rate claim, Defendant argues there was 8 no issue with paying employees the proper regular rate of pay because any additional remuneration was 9 discretionary and thus, not required to be incorporated into the regular rate of pay. (Id.) Defendant 10 maintains all employees were provided with the opportunity to take code-compliant meal and rest breaks 11 and that missed breaks, if any, were solely the result of employees’ voluntary choice. (Id.) As for the 12 unreimbursed business expenses, Defendant maintains it did not require employees to incur any business-13 related expenses. (Id.) To the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, 14 Defendant argues penalties are not warranted because employees suffered no actual damage or harm as a 15 result. (Id.; see, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013) No. C 12–05860 CRB, 2013 16 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to 17 provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not 18 sufficient.”].) Additionally, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes the 19 imposition of waiting time penalties because Plaintiff would be unable to show Defendant’s alleged 20 conduct was done willfully or knowingly. (Moon Decl., ¶ 10; see, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D.
21 Cal. June 14, 2012) No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx), 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, 22 Defendant claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA.
23 (Moon Decl., ¶ 10.) Defendant also maintains the claims are not susceptible to proof on a representative 24 basis because of the individualized and varying nature of each employee’s experience, making this matter
25 unmanageable. (Id.)

26 B. Discovery and Investigation

27 The Parties agreed to participate in an Early Evaluation Conference of the claims. (Id. at ¶ 11.)
28 The Parties engaged in informal discovery exchange prior to the Early Evaluation Conference. (Id.)

1 Defendant provided information and documents, which enabled PAGA Counsel to meaningfully 2 investigate Plaintiff's allegations and assess the value of the PAGA claims. (Id.) Specifically, 3 Defendant produced Plaintiff's personnel file, documents regarding Defendant's written policies and 4 practices in effect during the relevant period, and time and corresponding payroll records for 5 approximately 24% of all Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)

6 Prior to the Early Evaluation Conference, PAGA Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the 7 information that Defendant produced, including time and pay records and Defendant's written policies, 8 in conjunction with information provided by Plaintiff. (Id. at ¶ 12.) PAGA Counsel retained an expert to 9 analyze the records and prepare a damage analysis prior to the Early Evaluation Conference. (Id.) The 10 time and pay records contained 3,642 shifts actually worked (roughly 24% of all shifts), which allowed 11 the expert to prepare an analysis with a high degree of certainty. (Id.) Further, PAGA Counsel investigated
12 the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in this action. (Id.) Accordingly, PAGA 13 Counsel were able to evaluate the probability of success on the merits and Defendant's monetary 14 exposure. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and his Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues
15 involved allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

16 C. Settlement Negotiations

17 On November 12, 2025, the Parties participated in the Early Evaluation Conference 18 facilitated by the Hon. Katherine A. Bacal. (Id. at ¶ 13.) The negotiations were at arm's length and 19 although conducted in a professional matter, were adversarial. (Id.) Both sides went into the 20 mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but they were also prepared 21 to litigated their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) 22 Negotiations were protracted, with extended discussions and instances in which it appeared the 23 Parties would not reach a resolution. (Id.) Following a full discussion of the strengths and weaknesses 24 of the claims and defenses, the Parties ultimately reached a resolution, the material terms of which 25 are encompassed within the Settlement at issue. (Id.)

26 In reaching a resolution, the Parties recognized that the issues presented in this action are 27 likely only to be resolved with extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings, and that further 28 litigation will lead to inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense disproportionate to

1 the potential benefits of litigation. (Id. at ¶ 14.) Plaintiff and his Counsel also considered the risk and 2 uncertainty of the outcome inherent in any litigation when determining whether this Settlement was 3 the correct option. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and his Counsel believe the proposed Settlement is in the 4 best interests of Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code 5 section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the proposed Settlement has been 6 submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff’s motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 7 15, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 15.)

8 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

9 The Settlement’s key financial and other terms include:

10 1. Gross Settlement Amount, Funding, Disbursement, and Uncashed Checks. The Gross 11 Settlement Amount (“GSA”) is $166,000.00, subject to potential increase under an Escalator Clause and 12 entry of the Court’s Approval Order, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant shall fully 13 fund the Gross Settlement Amount by transmitting the funds, plus any increase owed under the Escalator 14 Clause, to the Administrator no later than 15 calendar days after the Effective Date. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.) The 15 “Effective Date” means the date upon which all of the following have occurred: (i) the Court has approved 16 the Settlement; and (ii) the court has issued the Final Order and entered Judgment in accordance with the 17 terms described in the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 1.10.) Disbursement will occur within 14 days after Defendant 18 fully funds the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 4.3.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance will be 19 transmitted to the California State Controller’s Office, to be held pursuant to the Unclaimed Property Law 20 in the name of each individual who failed to cash his or her check prior to the void date. (Id. at ¶¶ 4.3.1, 21 4.3.3.)

22 2. Escalator Clause. The GSA was negotiated based on an estimate that as of the date of the 23 Parties’ Early Evaluation Conference, there are 3,742 aggregate PAGA Pay Periods worked by 24 approximately 86 Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶ 8.) The Settlement includes an Escalator Clause
25 whereby should the actual number of PAGA Pay Periods exceed the 10% of the estimated count, either 26 (1) the Gross Settlement Amount shall be increased by the percentage that the actual number of pay 27 periods exceeds 4,171; or (2) if Plaintiff elects to enforce the escalator clause, Defendant will have the 28

1 right, in the exercise of its sole discretion, to limit the PAGA Period to the time at which the number of 2 pay periods reaches 4,171. (Id.)

3 3. Enhancement Award. The Settlement includes an Enhancement Award to Plaintiff in an 4 amount up to $7,500.00, payable from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 1.24.) This payment is in exchange for Plaintiff's 5 general release of claims and dismissal with prejudice of his individual claims and without prejudice of 6 class claims alleged in the Action. (Id.)

7 4. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. The Settlement includes attorneys' fees in an amount up to one-8 third (33%) of the GSA (i.e., at least $55,333.33), plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs
9 not to exceed $15,000.00, payable to PAGA Counsel from the GSA. (Id.)

10 5. Administration Costs. The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses Payment to the 11 Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount up to $3,250.00, for its fees and expenses in 12 administering this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.2.) In the event the amount of actual administration costs is less 13 and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the Administrator will retain the 14 remainder as PAGA Penalties. (Id.) Following a competitive bidding process, the Parties jointly selected 15 Phoenix Class Action Administration as the neutral entity to administer the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 1.3; Moon
16 Decl., ¶ 20, Ex. 5; Declaration of Jodey Lawrence on Behalf of Phoenix Class Action Administration, ¶
17 22, Ex. B.)

18 6. Net Settlement Amount. After deducting the Enhancement Award, PAGA Counsel Fees and 19 Litigation Expenses Payments, and Administration Expenses Payment from the GSA, in the amounts 20 specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded 21 will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount as PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ 1.22.) Accordingly, the Net 22 Settlement Amount is estimated to be no less than $88,889.07,¹ which will be distributed 65% (i.e., no
23 less than 65% * $88,889.07 = $57,777.90) to the LWDA and 35% (i.e., no less than 35% * $88,889.07 =
25

26
27 ¹ The estimated Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following amounts from the 28 GSA ($166,000.00): $7,500.00 for the Enhancement Award, $11,027.60 for the PAGA Counsel Litigation
Expenses Payment, $55,333.33 for the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment, and $3,250.00 for the Administration Expenses Payment. (See Settlement, ¶ 3.2.)

1 $31,111.17) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff's claims. (Moon Decl., 2 ¶ 21.)

3 7. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA 4 Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 35% share of PAGA Penalties by the 5 total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees for Defendant in California in a 6 non-exempt position during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved
7 Employee's PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶¶ 3.1, 3.2.3.1.) This results in an average Individual PAGA 8 Payment of roughly $361.76 for each of the estimated 86 Aggrieved Employees ($$31,111.17 / 86$), and 9 a PAGA Pay Period value of $8.31 for each of the 3,742 estimated PAGA Pay Periods ($$31,111.17 /$ 10 $3,742$). Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated to 100% penalties for tax purposes. (See id. at ¶ 11 3.2.3.2.)

12 8. Released PAGA Claims. Upon the Court's Approval Order and Defendant's payment to the 13 Administrator of all funds owed in settlement of the Action, the LWDA and all Aggrieved Employees, 14 on behalf of themselves and their respective representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, and assigns, will 15 release the Released Parties from all PAGA claims alleged in the Operative Complaint, including civil 16 penalties sought for unpaid wages, overtime, missed meal and rest periods, reimbursement claims, and 17 wage statement violations, from May 17, 2024 to November 12, 2025 ("Released PAGA Claims"). (Id.
18 at ¶ 5.) The "Released Parties" means Defendant and their past, present and future subsidiaries, parents, 19 affiliated and related companies, divisions, successors, predecessors or assigns; and their past, present, 20 and future officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, insurers, employee, advisors, accountants, 21 representatives, trustees, heirs, executors, administrators, predecessors, successors or assigns. (Id. at ¶ 22 1.26.)

23 III. DISCUSSION

24 A. Availability of Civil Penalties

25 The LWDA and its constituent departments and divisions are authorized to assess and collect civil 26 penalties for specified violations of the Labor Code committed by an employer. With a stated goal of 27 improving enforcement of existing Labor Code obligations, the California Legislature adopted the Private 28 Attorneys General Act of 2004, permitting, as an alternative, an aggrieved employee to initiate a private civil action on behalf of him- or herself and other current or former employees.” (Lab. Code § 2699(a).) Before an employee may file an action seeking to recover civil penalties for violations of any of the Labor Code provisions enumerated in Labor Code section 2699.5, he or she must comply with the Act’s administrative procedures as set forth in Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), which include providing notice to the LWDA and the employer of the alleged Labor Code violations, and then waiting a prescribed period of time to permit the LWDA to investigate and to decide whether to cite the employer for the alleged violations. (Id. at §§ 2699.3, 2699.5; Caliber Bodyworks, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 134 Cal.App.4th 365, 370; see also Dunlap v. Superior Court (2006) 142 Cal.App.4th 330.)

Here, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff submitted notice of the Labor Code violations at issue to the LWDA, and he exhausted administrative remedies without the LWDA noticing any intent to investigate the claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general pursuant to PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

B. The Settlement Merits Approval

Settlement of PAGA claims must be approved by a Court. (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) Here, the circumstances weigh heavily in favor of approval, as explained below.

1. The Relief Is Genuine, Meaningful, and Consistent with the Dual Statutory Purposes of Deterrence and Punishment under PAGA

The $166,000.00 GSA amounts to “genuine and meaningful” relief “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 34; see O’Connor, 201 F.Supp.3d at 1133–35 [denying settlement approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].) This is an excellent result, particularly because, under the Settlement, Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of not being able to recover anything at all. (Moon Decl., ¶ 34.)

The Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in employee-wide discovery, and participate in the Early Evaluation

Conference. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Assuming approval is granted, Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. (Id.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs, Defendant will pay at least $166,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which at least $88,889.07 is allocated toward PAGA Penalties and will be distributed as 65% to the LWDA and 35% to Aggrieved Employees, in compliance with PAGA law governing the claims in this Action. (See Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3.) This amount represents roughly 79% of the realistic exposure for the claims, as discussed below. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Additionally, the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any individual (non-PAGA) claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties. (Id.; Settlement, ¶ 5.)

2. The Settlement Amount Provides a Realistic Value for the Claims that is within the “Ballpark” of Reasonableness

There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-collusive, and arm’s-length negotiations between the Parties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 25.) PAGA Counsel performed an extensive investigation into the facts, claims, and defenses at issue and Defendant’s potential liability, including a review of governing law and analysis of informal discovery, including Defendant’s written policies and time and pay data for a majority of Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–12.) PAGA Counsel used the foregoing discovery and investigation to prepare for mediation and, with the assistance of a statistics expert, assessed the probability of success on the merits and Defendant’s monetary exposure, discussed the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses in depth at mediation and months of continued negotiations, and ultimately negotiated the resulting Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–14.)

Based on PAGA Counsel’s analysis of the arguments and information provided by Defendant, on an expert analysis of the time and pay records, and on information from Plaintiff, PAGA Counsel evaluated Defendant’s both maximum (optimistic) and risk-adjusted (realistic) potential exposure in preparation for the Early Evaluation Conference. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although the expert’s analysis revealed that the time and pay records supported several violations by Defendant, those identifiable violations were primarily limited to the regular rate and meal period claims. (Id.) The records themselves did not provide strong support for the off-the-clock work, rest period, and expense reimbursement claims, and derivative penalties for those claims, as these claims are predominantly testimony based. (Id.) In other words,

1 Plaintiff's analysis revealed that certain claims were not as strong as originally believed. (Id.)

2 Because Defendant did not require employees to record rest periods, there are no records to 3 establish the rest period claim on the merits. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Additionally, there are no records to establish 4 the off-the-clock work claim on the merits. (Id.) Rather, proof of these claims would need to be supported 5 by declarations from Aggrieved Employees regarding missed rest periods and off-the-clock work as the 6 records themselves cannot demonstrate what breaks were missed, when, and why and they cannot 7 demonstrate the time, if any, Aggrieved Employees spent working off the clock. (Id.)

8 Indeed, the maximum exposure figures that were calculated for mediation were based on assumed 9 high violation rates that would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as they assume either the participation 10 of all Aggrieved Employees (which would be difficult given the particularly large size of this group), or 11 alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation 12 of a majority of Aggrieved Employees to establish a sound representation of all non-exempt employees).
13 (Id. at ¶ 27.) The reality is that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear 14 of retaliation. (Id.) However, even assuming those employees would be willing to participate, obtaining 15 such declarations would potentially reveal that each Aggrieved Employee had a different experience.
16 (Id.) The individualized nature of their employment experience and the numerosity of employees
17 affected present significant risk with manageability and proof on the merits. (Id.)

18 Even as to the regular rate and meal period claims, our analysis found that Defendant's exposure 19 is less than initially believed. (Id. at ¶ 28.) As to meal periods, a review of the time and pay records shows 20 82.4% of meal break violations had meal waivers. (Id.) As to the regular rate issue, Plaintiff's expert 21 identified 184 total additional payments made to offset overtime. (Id.)

22 The likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its 23 overall exposure. (Id. at ¶ 29.) For example, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the 24 claims could bar manageability of this representative action or otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's 25 overall liability. (Id.) Further, the maximum exposure analysis involved a claim-by-claim penalty 26 calculation, which is overly optimistic as it presumes Plaintiff would be able to stack the penalties, 27 although penalty stacking is not expressly permitted by PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 30.) Rather, without either (i) a 28 prior finding by the LWDA or a court within the past five years that the employer violated PAGA or (ii)

1 evidence that the employer's conduct was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive, PAGA only provides for 2 a maximum $100 penalty for each pay period. (Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2)(A)–(B).) Moreover, PAGA
3 Counsel believe it would be unrealistic to expect the Court would award the full (penalty-stacked)
4 exposure given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties and given Defendant's defenses, including 5 that any failure to pay premiums, regular rate wages, or for off-the-clock work was not knowingly or 6 willfully done, and additionally, to the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly 7 inaccurate, employees suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. (Moon Decl., ¶ 30.) Moreover, 8 awarding the full penalties amount would likely raise Due Process concerns. (Id.) For the foregoing 9 reasons, the realistic exposure is thus far below the optimistic maximum estimate. (Id. at ¶ 31.)

10 Based on the foregoing, PAGA Counsel believe it is more reasonable to assess penalties on a $100 11 civil penalty per pay period basis pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)(A) for each of the estimated 12 3,742 pay periods at issue, as opposed to a claim-by-claim approach. (Id. at ¶ 32.) Accordingly, PAGA
13 Counsel estimate Defendant's maximum PAGA exposure to be $374,200.00 ($100 x 3,742). (Id.) 14 However, based on the discovery, Defendant's arguments at the Early Evaluation Conference and 15 continued settlement discussions, an understanding that the claims are heavily dependent on the 16 unlikely participation by Aggrieved Employees and their varying employment experience, and other 17 important considerations discussed above, it is reasonable to assume a violation occurred only in at 18 most one-half of all pay periods, which results in a realistic (risk-adjusted) exposure of $211,100.00
19 ($422,200.00 / 2). (Id.) As a result, the GSA of $166,000.00 represents roughly 79% of the realistic 20 exposure ($166,000.00 / $211,100.00). (Id.)

21 The proposed Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 22 reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶ 33.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 23 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability 24 of appeal, it is clear the GSA of $166,000.00 is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that settlement 25 approval is appropriate. (Id.; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; see
26 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar 27 does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 28 prevailed on all its claims," but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

3. The Settlement Is a Fair and Reasonable Result Following a Thorough Investigation and Accounting of Various Litigation Risks

PAGA Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the allegations. (Moon Decl., ¶ 36.) Based on the foregoing discovery and on their own independent investigation and evaluation, PAGA Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id.) Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, appellate risk, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant on the merits, the Settlement is in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California. (Id.)

Although PAGA Counsel believe there is merit to Plaintiff’s allegations, they also acknowledge a legitimate controversy exists as to each allegation. (Id. at ¶ 37.) PAGA Counsel also recognize that proving the amounts of penalties owed to each Aggrieved Employee would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Moreover, PAGA Counsel are also of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 38.) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Id.) While PAGA Counsel believe there would be no persuasive grounds to reduce penalties, they recognize that the Court could determine otherwise and significantly reduce any award of penalties. (Id. at ¶ 39.) This wide range of potential recovery and additional delays and risks of trial provide justification to settle for a reasonable amount of recovery at this point in the litigation. (Id.) In all, based on the investigation and analysis of the claims in preparation for mediation, the maximum exposure did not comport with the realistic exposure that Defendant faced, as discussed above. (Id.)

PAGA Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues, the risk of not prevailing at trial, and the risk that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, the penalties would be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 40.) The provisions of the Labor Code triggering PAGA penalties

1 in this case include Labor Code sections 203, 210, 226, 1197.1, and 2802. (Id.) However, PAGA
2 penalties are not mandatory, but rather, permissive. Accordingly, it is entirely possible that even if 3 Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming he is first able to win on the merits regarding his 4 individual claims at arbitration and then defeat the manageability issues presented at litigation by the 5 large number of Aggrieved Employees in this action, Plaintiff may still be awarded substantially less 6 than what was obtained through the Settlement. (Moon Decl., ¶ 40.)

7 The Settlement avoids the significant risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further 8 litigation. (Id. at ¶ 41.) Though the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, 9 informal discovery, and employee data analysis, they have not participated in formal discovery 10 procedures, including depositions and expert discovery. (Id.) Preparation for trial and the prospect of 11 appeals in the wake of any summary judgment ruling would remain for the Parties. (Id.) As a result, 12 the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial, a lengthy and 13 uncertain process that could result in recovering less than was settled for. (Id.)

14 C. The Enhancement to Plaintiff is Reasonable and Should Be Approved

15 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 16 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is codified 17 in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this state to vigorously 18 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to work 19 under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, the California Supreme 20 Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code 21 is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
22 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, PAGA representatives should be rewarded for 23 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of aggrieved employees.

24 Here, in light with the Settlement and subject to the Court's approval, Plaintiff requests an 25 Enhancement Award of $7,500.00. (Settlement, ¶ 1.24.) Plaintiff and his Counsel respectfully submit 26 that the requested enhancement is reasonable in recognition of Plaintiff's role as the named Plaintiff 27 and PAGA Representative, for the risks to future employment inherent in undertaking this role and for 28 his service and participation in litigation that resulted in a fair settlement under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 42–45; Declaration of Plaintiff John Davis in Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement, ¶¶ 6–19.)

D. The Requested Attorneys’ Fees/Costs Are Reasonable and Should Be Approved

In line with the Settlement, my firm requests an award of attorneys’ fees in an amount of one-third of the GSA (i.e., no less than $55,333.33, subject to potential increase under the escalator clause), plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs in the amount of $11,027.60. (Moon Decl., ¶ 62; see Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.)

1. PAGA Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the Common Fund Method

California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created by counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.) The California Supreme Court has held, “when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.” (Id. at p. 34.)

Here, PAGA Counsel seek an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common fund” theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 63) The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of Cal. (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, “one who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons[] are entitled to share.” (Id. at pp. 110–11 [pincite omitted].) The reasons for applying this doctrine include:

fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit because his recovery might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair advantage to the others who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their share of the burden of its recovery; encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or recovery of the fund if he is assured that he will be properly and directly compensated should his efforts be successful.

(Id. at p. 111.)

Several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative “lodestar” approach for deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable time records. Commenting on the lodestar approach, Chief Judge Marilyn Hall Patel wrote in In re Activision Securities Litigation (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp.1373:

This court is compelled to ask, “Is this process necessary?” Under a cost-benefit analysis, the answer would be a resounding, “No!” Not only do the Lindy and Kerr-Johnson analyses consume an undue amount of court time with little resulting advantage to anyone, but, in fact, it may be to the detriment of the class members.

(Id. at p. 1375 [emphasis added].) The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands on judicial resources. (Id. at pp. 1378–79.) California Courts now routinely use the percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (See, e.g., In re Pac. Enter. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378–79 [approving attorneys’ fee award of 33%].)

2. The Matter Involves a Fee and Cost Shifting Provision under PAGA

Labor Code section 2699 provides for the recovery reasonable attorney’s fees as well as costs of suit. (Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Specifically, it states: “Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs . . .” (Id.) Under this provision, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total recovery for the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This fee/cost-shifting provision reflects the understanding that PAGA Counsel must accept significant risk of substantial expenses and consumption of time, energy, and other resources in litigating a PAGA claim, and thus, that PAGA Counsel is not only permitted, but entitled, to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs if successful in litigating a PAGA claim.

The Settlement at issue is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding PAGA Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for PAGA Counsel who undertook this matter on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 66–73.) Once PAGA Counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, they committed to pursue it to its conclusion, and were accordingly precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain. (Id. at ¶ 69.)

3. Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their prior experience in pursuing class and representative actions on behalf of employees, PAGA Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class action and representative matters. (Id. at ¶¶ 46–59.) PAGA Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in a multitude of class and representative actions resulting in beneficial results to class members and aggrieved employees in California. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate PAGA Counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

PAGA Counsel’s experience in wage-and-hour class and representative actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 60.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of representative action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 58.) Based on these and other factors, PAGA Counsel have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for aggrieved employees. (See id. at ¶¶ 50, 55, 56, 57.) Thus, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

4. While the Lodestar Method Is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, the Court May Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees

“Despite its primacy, the lodestar method is not necessarily utilized in common fund cases.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 27.) Courts have criticized the lodestar method as a drain on the judicial system and a disincentive on attorneys to take on high-risk, challenging cases. (Id. at p. 29.) Indeed, the lodestar approach: “(1) ‘increases the workload of an already overtaxed judicial system,’ (2) is ‘insufficiently objective and produce[s] results that are far from homogenous,’ (3) ‘creates a sense of mathematical precision that is unwarranted in terms of the realities of the practice of law,’ (4) ‘is subject to manipulation by judges who prefer to calibrate fees in terms of percentages of the

1 settlement fund or the amounts recovered by the plaintiffs or of an overall dollar amount,’ (5) ‘encourages 2 lawyers to expend excessive hours, and . . . engage in duplicative and unjustified work,’ (6) ‘creates a 3 disincentive for the early settlement of cases,’ (7) deprives trial courts of ‘flexibility to reward or deter 4 lawyers so that desirable objectives, such as early settlement, will be fostered,’ (8) ‘works to the particular 5 disadvantage of the public interest bar,’ and (9) results in ‘confusion and lack of predictability.’” (Id.
6 [quoting Third Circuit Task Force, Court Awarded Attorney Fees (1985) 108 F.R.D. 237, 246– 7 49].)

8 Although California Courts support the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 9 to cross-check fee awards. “It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can be 10 monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to ‘cross-check’ or adjust the lodestar in comparison to 11 a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and within the range of 12 fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In re Consumer Privacy 13 Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557 [quoting Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at pp. 49–50].)
14 Applying the lodestar method is a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the number of hours 15 reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate, and the second step is to apply a multiplier to the 16 lodestar to account for various factors. (Id. at p. 556.) “The purpose of such adjustment is to fix a fee at 17 the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, retrospectively, whether the 18 litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of the 19 unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate for such services.” (Id.) “Under certain 20 circumstances, a lodestar calculation may be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit 21 analysis.” (Id. at pp. 556–57.)

22 Further, “California case law permits fee awards in the absence of detailed time sheets.” 23 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 255.) The Court “should defer to 24 the winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to how much time he was required to spend on 25 the case.” (Moreno v. City of Sacramento (9th Cir. 2008) 534 F.3d 1106, 1112.) Generally, hours 26 are reasonable if they were “reasonably expended in pursuit of the ultimate result achieved in 27 the same manner that an attorney traditionally is compensated by a fee-paying client.” (Hensley 28 v. Eckerhart (1983) 461 U.S. 424, 431.)

1 Here, PAGA Counsel current lodestar is no less than $63,997.50, which is based on no less 2 than 81.8 hours of attorney time spent to-date at their customary hourly rates. (Moon Decl., ¶ 64.) Thus, 3 in comparison to this lodestar, although application of a positive multiplier would be warranted in this 4 case, none is requested. (Id. at ¶¶ 64–65.) In other words, PAGA Counsel are requesting less than what 5 they are reasonably entitled to. Further, the foregoing lodestar does not reflect additional works that will 6 be devoted to this litigation, including to obtain and monitor approval of the Settlement and 7 requested awards, oversee the settlement administration process and distribution of funds, 8 respond to inquiries, and communicate with Plaintiff regarding the case. (Id. at ¶ 66.) The amount 9 of fees requested under the Settlement is warranted based on the contingent risk that PAGA Counsel
10 incurred, the difficulty of the questions involved, the substantial benefit conferred on the Aggrieved 11 Employees and State of California as a result of the Settlement, and the skill displayed by PAGA Counsel.
12 (Id. at ¶ 68.) PAGA Counsel also bear the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary if Defendant 13 fails to pay. (Id. at ¶ 66.) Thus, the request for attorneys’ fees is more than reasonable under a lodestar 14 check.

15 5. PAGA Counsel’s Costs Were Actually and Reasonably Incurred

16 Winning counsel are entitled to recover the out-of-pocket costs and expenses they 17 reasonably incurred in investigating, prosecuting, and settling a case. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th 18 Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 974; Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Here, PAGA Counsel seek 19 reimbursement in the total amount of $11,027.60 for expenses that were actually and reasonably 20 incurred in this litigation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 72, Ex. 4.) Moreover, this amount is below the 21 maximum allocation under the Settlement and thus, the remainder ($3,972.40) will revert to the 22 PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ 73; Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.) Thus, costs should be reimbursed in full.
