Complaint Filed: December 31, 2020
Trial: None Set

1 Plaintiff ALBERTO SERNA individually and on behalf of other similarly situated
2 current and former employees of Defendant GUADALUPE COOLING COMPANY, INC.
3 (“Defendant”), and Plaintiff CARLOS CRUZ-PADILLA (collectively “Plaintiffs”),
4 individually and as a private attorney general and on behalf of other similarly situated current 5 and former employees of Defendant based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are 6 likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and 7 discovery, alleges as follows:

8 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure
10 section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal 11 jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

12 2. Plaintiffs’ First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 13 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
14 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 15 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages 16 and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

17 3. Plaintiff CARLOS CRUZ-PADILLA’s Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a 18 representative action on behalf of himself and certain other current and former employees of 19 Defendants against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter 20 collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”) from the period beginning on December 21 21, 2021 through the date of Court judgment, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698,
22 et seq. Plaintiff CARLOS CRUZ-PADILLA is an aggrieved employee against whom one or 23 more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff CARLOS CRUZ-
24 PADILLA exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 25 according to proof at trial.

26 4. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes"
28 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of San Luis Obispo. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of San Luis Obispo.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff ALBERTO SERNA is an individual residing in the State of California.

8. Plaintiff CARLOS CRUZ-PADILLA is an individual residing in the State of California.

9. Defendant, at all times therein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation and, at all times herein mentioned, whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of California, including the County of San Luis Obispo.

10. At all relevant times, Defendant, was the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

11. At all times herein relevant, Defendant and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

12. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs who sue said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

13. Defendant GUADALUPE COOLING COMPANY, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

14. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15. Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

16. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid and non-except employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's original Complaint to final judgment.

17. Plaintiffs reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

18. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than one hundred (100) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom they have a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom they have a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

19. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to

- 1 pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and the other class 2 members;
- 3 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of meal
4 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work
5 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 6 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other 7 class members for all hours worked;
- 8 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class 9 members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- 10 g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other 11 class members during their employment;
- 12 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California 13 Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- 14 i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by 15 the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- 16 j. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 17 k. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 18 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 19 l. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties 20 resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 21 m. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to compensatory 22 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

17 engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
18 employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing 19 to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for short, late, interrupted, and/or

7 know or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members and Aggrieved

11 hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class members' and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate

15 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they 16 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

17 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
18 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members and Aggrieved
19 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed upon discharge or resignation, including 20 overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 21 wages owed to them at the time their discharge or resignation.

22 35. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members and Aggrieved
24 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiffs 25 and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages,
26 including earned, but unpaid, overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums,
27 within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

28 36. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members and Aggrieved
Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with

1 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 2 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the accurate total number 3 of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

4 37. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
5 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records

7 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

8 38. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class

9 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 48. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 13 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

14 49. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 15 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 16 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 17 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

18 50. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 19 were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members employed by Defendants, and 20 working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the 21 rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than 22 forty (40) hours in a workweek.

23 51. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 24 required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two 25 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

26 52. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 27 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in 28 a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

53. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

54. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members and failed to pay class members overtime in the amount of one-and-one half time their correct regular rate of pay.

55. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

56. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

61. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee

1 to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
2 with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the 3 total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived
4 by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not 5 waived.

6 62. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members who were 7 scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 8 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 9 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or 10 rest period.

27 meal or rest period is not provided.

28

2 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

3 69. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
4 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiffs and the other class members' employment by 5 Defendants.

6 70. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
7 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
8 order of the California IWC.

9 71. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 10 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 11 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be 12 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
13 hours or major fraction thereof' unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 14 (3 ½) hours.

15 72. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiffs and other class
16 members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest 17 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

18 73. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiffs and the 19 other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class 20 members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

21 74. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other 24 Code section 226.7.

25 76. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
26 226.7(b), Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one
27 additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day 28 that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

1 (Against All Defendants)

2 77. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained above, and each and
3 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

4 78. All relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide 5 that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the 6 minimum so fixed is unlawful.

20 members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully 21 unpaid and interest thereon.

22 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 202 and 203)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 83. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 26 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

27 84. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 28 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter,

1 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in
2 which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

3 85. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 4 pay Plaintiffs and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their
