COMES NOW Plaintiff CELSO OMAR LAINEZ SOSA (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of the general public and all non-exempt aggrieved employees, acting on behalf of the California Attorney General as private attorney general, and asserts claims against Defendants DIAMOND LANDSCAPING, INC., a California corporation; DIAMOND LANDSCAPING, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company; and DOES 1-20, inclusive (collectively “Defendants”) as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a representative action for recovery of penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Cal. Lab. Code sections 2698 et seq. PAGA permits “aggrieved employees” to bring a lawsuit as a representative action on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other current and former aggrieved employees, to recover civil penalties and address an employer’s violations of the California Labor Code.

2. In this case, Defendants violated various provisions of the California Labor Code. As set forth below, Defendants implemented policies and practices which led to unpaid wages resulting from Defendant’s: (a) failure to accurately pay overtime wages, (b) failure to pay minimum wages (c) failure to provide meal periods before the end of the fifth hour worked and failure to pay an additional hour’s of pay in lieu of providing a meal period before the end of the fifth hour worked; (d) failure to authorize and permit rest breaks for every four hours or major fraction thereof worked and failure to pay an additional hour’s of pay in lieu of providing a rest period; (e) failing to pay all wages earned and owed upon separation from Defendant’s employ; and (f) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (g) knowingly and intentionally failing to maintain accurate and complete records; and (h) failure to indemnify for necessary business expenses. As a result, Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq. on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other aggrieved employees.

The California Superior Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California Constitution Article VI, Section 10, which grants the Superior Court “original jurisdiction in all cases except those given by statute to other trial courts.” The statutes under which this action is brought do not give jurisdiction to any other court.

1 4. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
2 each Defendant either has sufficient minimum contacts in California – Los Angeles County, or 3 otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California – Los Angeles County market so as to render
4 the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California Courts consistent with traditional notions of fair
5 play and substantial justice.

2 from Defendant's employ; (f) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (g) knowingly 3 or intentionally failing to maintain accurate and complete records; and (h) failure to indemnify for

5 9. On information and belief, during the statutory liability period and continuing to the

15 11. On information and belief, during the statutory liability period and continuing to the 16 present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay minimum wages, overtime wages, 17 and wages earned on a regular pay period for all hours worked while subject to the control of 18 Defendants.

19 12. On information and belief, during the statutory liability period and continuing to the 20 present (rest and meal period liability period), Defendants have had a consistent policy of requiring 21 its Non-Exempt Employees within the State of California, including Plaintiff, to work at least five 22 (5) without a meal period and failing to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at the employee's 23 regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period was untimely, interrupted and/or

25 13. On information and belief, as a result of these unlawful acts, Defendants failed to pay

III. PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

19. Plaintiff CELSO OMAR LAINEZ SOSA is a resident of Panorama City, California, who was employed by Defendants in Los Angeles County, California, as a non-exempt employee within the last year preceding the filing of this action. Specifically, Plaintiff was employed as a Gardener in Los Angeles County.

20. As Defendants' employees, Plaintiff, and all other aggrieved employees were regularly required to and subsequently suffered:

(a) work in excess of eight (8) hours per day, and/or forty (40) hours per week; all in violation of California labor laws, regulations, and the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“IWC”);

(b) perform work subject to the control of the employer without being compensated at least minimum wages, all in violation of California labor laws, regulations, and the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order (“IWC”);

- (c) work without being permitted or authorized a minimum ten-minute rest period for every four hours or major fraction thereof worked and not compensated one (1) hour of pay at his regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided, all in violation of California labor laws, regulations, and the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“IWC”);
- (d) work in excess of five hours per day without being provided meal periods and not compensated one (1) hour of pay at the regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided, all in violation of California labor laws, regulations, and the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“IWC”);
- (e) not paid all wages upon separation from Defendant’s employment (“IWC”);
- (f) not reimbursed for business related expenses; and
- (g) not provided accurate itemized wage statements.

21. Plaintiffs seek penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq. on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other aggrieved employees.

B. Defendants

22. On information and belief, Defendant DIAMOND LANDSCAPING, INC., is a California corporation operating in and authorized to conduct business in the State of California. Defendant provides gardening services in California, including in Los Angeles County, and employs numerous non-exempt employees on teams throughout Los Angeles County and California.

23. On information and belief, Defendant DIAMOND LANDSCAPING, LLC was a California Limited Liability Company reformed as a Delaware Limited Liability Company operating in and authorized to conduct business in the State of California. Defendant provides gardening services throughout California, including in Los Angeles County, and employs numerous non-exempt employees on teams at each of these locations.

24. Other than identified herein, Plaintiff is unaware of the true names, capacities, relationships and extent of participation in the conduct alleged herein, of the defendants sued as DOES 1 through 20, but is informed and believes and thereon alleges that said defendants are legally responsible for the wrongful conduct alleged herein and therefore sues these defendants by such

1 fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint when their true names and capabilities are 2 ascertained.

3 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant, directly or 4 indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and other members of the 5 Representative Group, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions.
6 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each defendant acted in all respects
7 pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business plan
8 or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 9 other defendants.

10 IV. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

11 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employ 12 or employed Non-Exempt Employees throughout Northern California during the liability period.
13 Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees were compensated based upon an hourly rate and have 14 at all times pertinent hereto been non-exempt within the meaning of the California Labor Code and 15 the implementing rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

16 27. On information and belief, and during the relevant time frame, all aggrieved
17 employees are residents of California and citizens of the United States.

18 28. On information and belief, Defendants provide gardening services throughout 19 California, including in Los Angeles County. Plaintiff was employed as a non-exempt gardener for 20 Defendants and worked on a team with other non-exempt employees under Defendants' supervisor, 21 Francisco.

22 29. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was not exempt from 23 the Employment Laws and Regulations, in that he routinely spent a majority of his working hours
24 performing duties delegated to non-exempt employees including, but not limited to, tending 25 multiple sites as a gardener on a team with other non-exempt gardeners.

26 30. Throughout Plaintiff's entire employment with Defendants, Plaintiff spent few to 27 none of his working hours performing work that was primarily intellectual, managerial or creative, 28

1 or work that required the regular and customary exercise of discretion and independent judgment
2 with respect to matters of significance on more than an occasional basis.

3 31. During Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was either required to 4 work through mandatory meal and rest breaks, or was often times interrupted during his meal and 5 rest breaks resulting in shortened meal and rest breaks. Additionally, Plaintiff was often not 6 provided with or allowed to take his mandatory meal break within the first five hours of work
7 because he was meeting with clients and had no one to relieve him for such a break. On information
8 and belief, Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees were not paid for their missed meal
9 and/or rest breaks with one hour of premium pay at the regular rate of pay.

10 32. During Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was regularly required to 11 work over 8 hours in one day, and/or over 40 hours in one week. On information and belief, 12 Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees were not paid for all overtime worked.

13 33. Upon information and belief, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and other 14 non-exempt employees for all hours worked including minimum wage, overtime and double time 15 pay.

16 34. As a consequence, Plaintiff and other similarly situated non-exempt employees, 17 were not paid all wages upon termination and were not provided accurate wage statements.

18 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not 19 compensated for all hours/time worked as Defendants would regularly suffer and permit Plaintiff
20 and Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock but Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not 21 compensated for hours worked off the clock. For example, Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff
22 and Aggrieved Employees while they were required to pick up from and hand in their timesheets
23 to the office every week. This policy resulted in Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees being 24 subjected to Defendants' unlawful policy of not compensating Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees
25 for all hours worked including overtime while under the control of Defendants. Defendants' 26 unlawful off-the-clock policy over time resulted in a large and disproportionate underpayment of 27 wages including overtime wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees.
28

1 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were 2 caused to endure unprovided, untimely, interrupted meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for 3 many of the work days such employees worked more than six hours (6) hours, were not provided
4 uninterrupted second meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for any work days such employees
5 worked more than ten (10) hours, and were not paid one (1) hour of wages by Defendants in lieu 6 thereof, all in violation of the California Labor Code.

7 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were 8 regularly required to work in excess of six (6) hours per day without Defendants providing them a 9 timely, uninterrupted (30) minute meal period as mandated under the California Labor Code and 10 the implementing rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders as Plaintiff and 11 Aggrieved Employees were required to take shortened meal periods or not at all because they were 12 meeting or scheduling their clients. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not 13 provided lawful meal periods and were not provided with one hour of wages in lieu thereof under 14 Defendants' policies and practices, which included work schedules placed upon the Aggrieved
15 Employees from Defendants' management and supervisors to perform work at the expense of their 16 meal periods and Defendants' implementation of work schedules and workload requirements that 17 denied Aggrieved Employees all of their authorized meal periods. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 18 employees did not waive any of their authorized and required meal periods, nor did they receive 19 one hour of regular pay for each day Defendants failed to provide a lawful meal period.

20 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes that during the liability period, Plaintiff and 21 Aggrieved Employees were consistently required to work in excess of four (4) hours (or major 22 fraction thereof) without receiving lawful ten (10) minute rest periods. On information and belief, 23 Defendants' management would require that Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees continue to 24 work throughout their scheduled shift without relief, and as a result would often have to take their 25 breaks late or be forced to skip their breaks. The Aggrieved Employees were also not provided with 26 one hour of wages in lieu thereof. Defendants' policies and practices included Defendants' 27 implementation of a work schedule and workload requirements that denied and failed to provide 28 the Aggrieved Employees all of their authorized rest periods, including first rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for every shift worked of at least three and a half (3 1/2) to four (4) hours, a first and second rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for every shift worked greater than six (6) hours.

39. Defendants did not fully compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for hourly wages during the liability period, including by virtue of the fact that Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with one extra hour of pay for Defendants' failure to provide such Non-Exempt Employees with each of their authorized rest periods and meal periods during the rest and meal period liability period.

40. On information and belief, Defendants also failed to accurately pay minimum wage and overtime pay owed to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees by failing to compensate them for Defendants' policy of having Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees pick up and drop off their timesheets to Defendants' office weekly, and hours worked over eight hours in a workday or over 40 hours in the workweek at one and one-half times the Aggrieved Employees regular rate of pay.

41. Upon information and belief, Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees as the wage statements provided failed to accurately account for all hours worked. Further, Defendants failed to provide accurate wage statements as Defendants' wage statements do not identify premium pay or pay period start dates as required by Labor Code § 226.

42. Upon information and belief, Defendants failed to reimburse and/or indemnify Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all necessary expenditures incurred including personal cell phone usage; and

43. Upon information and belief, Defendants failed to keep accurate records pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5.

44. Upon information and belief, Defendants knew and or should have known that it is improper to implement policies and commit unlawful acts such as:

- (a) requiring employees to work over eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in a work week without being provided the required overtime pay;
- (b) requiring employees to perform work subject to the control of the Defendant without being compensated at least minimum wages;

- 1 (c) requiring employees to work four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof
2 without being provided a minimum ten (10) minute rest period and without 3 compensating the employees with one (1) hour of pay at the employees'
4 regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not 5 provided;
- 6 (d) requiring employees to work in excess of five (5) hours or ten (10) hours per 7 day without being provided an uninterrupted thirty- minute meal period
8 and/or a second meal period, and without compensating employees with one 9 (1) hour of pay at the regular rate of compensation for each workday that 10 such a meal period was not provided;
- 11 (e) requiring employees to drop off and pick up their timesheets to Defendant's 12 office weekly without compensation;
- 13 (f) requiring employees to incur necessary business expenses without 14 indemnification and/or reimbursement;
- 15 (g) failing to pay all wages earned during the regular pay period;
- 16 (h) failing to pay all wages earned upon separation from Defendants' employ; 17 and
- 18 (i) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

19 45. In addition to the violations above, and on information and belief, Defendants knew 20 they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for the allegations asserted herein,
21 and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly,
22 recklessly, and/or intentionally failed to do so.

23 V. REPRESENTATIVE CLAIMS

24 THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT- LABOR CODE §§ 2698 *et seq.

25 46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation contained 26 above, as though fully set forth herein.

27 47. On or about October 25, 2022, Plaintiff complied with notice requirements pursuant 28 to Labor Code section 2699.3. A copy of the submission to LWDA is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1 A copy of Plaintiff's letter to Defendants indicating that they were put on notice of the claims alleged
2 here and that the notice requirement has been satisfied is attached as Exhibit B. Sixty-five days have 3 passed and the LWDA has not indicated intent to investigate the claims. Therefore, Plaintiff may 4 proceed with this action in a representative capacity. The substance and violations set forth in this 5 Complaint of which the LWDA was provided timely notice, Plaintiff has also sent a copy of this 6 PAGA Representative Action Complaint to the LWDA.

7 48. Plaintiff is an aggrieved employee as defined in Labor Code Section 2699(a). Plaintiff
8 brings this cause of action on behalf the general public and all non-exempt aggrieved employees,
9 acting on behalf of the California Attorney General as private attorney general.

10 49. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a) Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties due 11 and owing for which Defendants are liable due to numerous Labor Code violations as set forth in 12 this Complaint, including without limitation Labor Code section 201-203, 204, 218, 218.5, 218.6, 13 226, 266.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 2802, 2802(a) and 2698
14 et seq., applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et 15 seq.

16 50. At all times relevant, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees regularly 17 performed non-exempt work in excess of 50% of the time, and thus, were subject to the meal and 18 rest break requirements of the applicable IWC wage order and the Labor Code.

19 51. Defendants violated Labor Code sections 510, 558, and 1194 by failing to accurately
20 pay overtime wages as discussed above due to Defendants' unlawful off the clock policy and failure
21 to pay all hours worked in excess of eight hours in a day and/or 40 hours in a workweek. Therefore,
22 Defendants violated section 510, 558 and 1194 by not compensating its Non- Exempt Employees for 23 work performed in excess of eight hours (8) in a day or forty hours in a work week (40). Section
24 510 of the Labor Code codifies the right to overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half
25 times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40)
26 hours in a work week.

27 52. Defendants also violated Labor Codes sections 200, 1194, and 1197 for failing to pay
28 minimum wages as described above. Labor Code §1197 provides that employees are to be paid

1 minimum wage for each hour worked and cannot be averaged and/or payment of a lesser wage than 2 the established is unlawful.

3 53. Defendants violated Labor Code sections 512 and 226.7 for failing to provide timely,
4 uninterrupted meal periods and requiring unlawful on duty meal periods, or compensation in lieu
5 thereof. Pursuant to Labor Code section 512, no employer shall employ an employee for a work
6 period of more than five (5) hours without providing a meal break of not less than thirty (30) minutes
7 in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties..

8 54. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees
9 uninterrupted duty free first meal periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes. Defendants 10 implemented and enforced policies of on duty meal period practices which required employees to 11 work during their meal periods, to forego their meal periods, and/or to return to work from meal
12 periods prior to thirty (30) uninterrupted minutes. As a proximate result of the aforementioned 13 violations, Plaintiff and all other Aggrieved Employees have been damaged in an amount according 14 to proof at time of trial.

15 55. Plaintiff, and on information and belief, all aggrieved employees, were systematically 16 not permitted or authorized to take one ten-minute rest period for every four hours worked or major 17 fraction thereof, which is a violation of the Labor Code and IWC wage order 16-2001, section 11.
18 On shifts where Plaintiff and aggrieved employees worked in excess of three and a half hours, they 19 were routinely not permitted or authorized to take lawful rest periods. Plaintiff, and on information 20 and belief, aggrieved employees, were not compensated with one hour of wages for every day in 21 which a rest period was missed, untimely or cut short as a result of Defendants' policies, practices, 22 or work demands. By failing to authorize and permit a ten-minute rest period for every four hours or 23 major fraction thereof worked per day, and by failing to provide compensation for such unprovided
24 rest periods as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code sections
25 226.7, 512 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

26 56. Plaintiff, and on information and belief, all aggrieved employees, were required to 27 text their supervisors on personal cell phones for which they were not reimbursed. By failure to reimburse and/or indemnify as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 2802.

57. On information and belief, Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226 which failed to include, all hours worked, including off the clock, overtime and the accurate overtime rate, and the lawful meal and rest period premiums earned, which are due and owing to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees. As a result, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were harmed as they are unable to determine if they were appropriately compensated for all hours worked.

58. On information and belief, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records as required by Labor Code section 1174.5.

59. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Aggrieved employees are entitled to penalties to the extent they were not paid at the prevailing wage rate for all hours worked.

60. Plaintiff and the Representative Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover Penalties and attorneys' fees and costs under Labor Code section 2698, et. seq.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, as follows:

1. For penalties according to proof, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.;
2. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and
3. For such other and further relief as the Court deems proper.
