DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff DESIREE SANCHEZ (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Orange. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Orange.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff DESIREE SANCHEZ is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Fresno.

6. Defendant HORIZON HEALTH & SUB-ACUTE, LLC, at all times herein mentioned, is and was, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Orange.

1 7. At all relevant times, Defendants HORIZON HEALTH & SUB-ACUTE, LLC
2 was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and 3 statutes.

4 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants HORIZON HEALTH & SUB-ACUTE,
5 LLC and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers,
6 joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators
7 and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course
8 and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
9 representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or 10 omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission,
11 encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

12 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 13 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
14 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 15 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
16 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused
17 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
18 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 19 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

20 10. Defendants HORIZON HEALTH & SUB-ACUTE, LLC and DOES 1 through 21 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

22 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 23 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 24 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and 25 employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

1 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 12. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members
3 of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil
4 Procedure section 382.

5 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

6 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees employed by
7 Defendants within the State of California at any time between April 22, 2017
8 and March 31, 2023.

9 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

10 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 11 the litigation:

12 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
13 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 14 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 15 greater than two hundred (200) individuals and the identity of such 16 membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants'
17 employment records.

18 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
19 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately
20 protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a 21 well-defined community of interest.

22 ///

23 ///

24 ///

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 2 each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of
3 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no
4 interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed
28 meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to 2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 6 the other class members to worked overtime and earned incentive pay
7 and sick pay;
- 8 e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of 9 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class
10 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 11 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 12 other class members for all hours worked;
- 13 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 14 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 15 resignation;
- 16 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 17 the other class members during their employment;
- 18 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 19 Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 20 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 21 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 22 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 23 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 24 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 25 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 26 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 27 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 28 compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Fresno.

19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members' employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

23. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, sick leave, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of California law.

25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

1 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
3 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
4 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

5 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's
8 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 9 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
10 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
11 period was missed.

12 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
14 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff
15 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 16 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 17 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 18 missed.

19 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
21 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 22 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

23 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
25 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
26 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did
27 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

28 ///

1 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, Plaintiff
4 and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 5 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 6 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

7 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 9 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

10 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
12 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not 13 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

14 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
16 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 17 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
18 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
19 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

20 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
21 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 22 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)
23 hours per week without overtime compensation.

24 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
25 calculate and pay sick leave to Plaintiff and the other class members.

26 37. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide the 27 requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class

43. Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against HORIZON HEALTH & SUB-ACUTE, LLC and DOES 1 through 100)

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 43, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

45. Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

1 46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 2 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who
3 work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at 4 the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more
5 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

6 47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 7 required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two 8 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

9 48. Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-
10 one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or 11 forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, 12 and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of 13 twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

14 49. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
15 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a 16 week.

17 50. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and 18 willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

19 51. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
20 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 21 Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

22 52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are 23 entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys'

4 96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
5 through 95, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
6 forth herein.

7 97. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that
8 any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected

15 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
16 is a copy of the October 21, 2022 written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about 17 December 26, 2022, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the 18 LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff
19 exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

20 99. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved 21 employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current and former

Re: HORIZON HEALTH & SUB-ACUTE, LLC

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Desiree Sanchez against Horizon Health & Sub-Acute, LLC (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "HORIZON").

Ms. Sanchez is pursuing her California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Sanchez may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Horizon Health & Sub-Acute, LLC is a California corporation located at 15472 Chemical Lane, Huntington Beach, California 92549.

HORIZON employed Ms. Sanchez as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee within the relevant time period in the State of California. HORIZON directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Ms. Sanchez may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of HORIZON within the State of California.

¹ Ms. Sanchez does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. Sanchez will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. Sanchez is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. Sanchez and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

HORIZON failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Ms. Sanchez has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at HORIZON, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

HORIZON has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. HORIZON failed to compensate Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, donning and doffing uniforms, and during meal breaks. HORIZON also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, HORIZON failed to pay Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees with paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, HORIZON routinely required Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with HORIZON's policies and expectations. HORIZON failed to provide coverage to Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, HORIZON also failed to authorize and permit Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, HORIZON failed to compensate Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, HORIZON failed to pay Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, HORIZON failed to pay Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, HORIZON did not provide Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from HORIZON were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years.

During the relevant time period, HORIZON failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, HORIZON did not provide Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, donning and doffing uniforms, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Ms. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by HORIZON, including for purchasing tools and equipment they were required to use and wear while working, and using their personal vehicles for work related purposes.

We believe that Ms. Sanchez and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Sanchez will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of HORIZON within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
