Attorneys for Plaintiffs

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

ANN ESPINOZA and DIANA FONTANA, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

CICON ENGINEERING, INC., a corporation,
 and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 21STCV39385

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197);
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194 and 1198);
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512);
4. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7);
5. Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages at Termination (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203);
6. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements (Cal. Lab. Code § 226);
7. Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses (Cal. Lab. Code § 2802);
8. Unfair Business Practices (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.); and
9. Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act (Cal. Lab. §§ 2699, et seq.).

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiffs Ann Espinoza and Diana Fontana (“Plaintiffs”), based upon facts that either
2 have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity
3 for further investigation and discovery, allege as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendant Cicon Engineering, Inc. and Does 1
6 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code
7 violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours
8 worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to 9 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate
10 wage statements, and failure to reimburse employees for all necessary business expenses.

11 2. Plaintiffs bring the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 12 class action on behalf of Plaintiffs and certain current and former employees of Defendants
13 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully 14 below). The Class consists of Plaintiffs and all other persons who have been employed by any 15 Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of 16 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

17 3. Plaintiffs bring the Ninth Cause of Action against Defendants seeking only to recover
18 civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698
19 et seq. (“PAGA”) on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on 20 behalf of the State of California. Plaintiffs' Ninth Cause of Action does not seek to recover
21 anything other than penalties as permitted by California Labor Code section 2699 at this time.
22 To the extent that Plaintiffs' Ninth Cause of Action appears to allege claims for damages,
23 Plaintiffs expressly state that Plaintiffs' Ninth Cause of Action is not seeking any underlying
24 general and/or special damages for those violations, but instead seeks only penalties as permitted
25 by California Labor Code section 2699, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for themselves,
26 and all "Aggrieved Employees" as permitted by PAGA.

27 4. For purposes of Plaintiffs' Ninth Cause of Action, “Aggrieved Employees” refers to 28 all non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California after May 1, 2020.

1 5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 2 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, and based
3 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants
4 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
5 Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

6 6. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants 7 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 8 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum,
9 straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor
10 Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 11 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 12 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 13 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 14 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period
15 violation occurred;
- 16 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
17 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
18 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest
19 period violation occurred;
- 20 (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum, straight time, overtime,
21 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages due within the time
22 period specified by California law when employment terminates;
- 23 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
24 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 25 IWC Wage Orders; and
- 26 (f) Failing to reimburse employees for all expenses or losses incurred by the 27 employees in direct consequence of the discharge or their duties or 28 obedience to the directions of their employer.

7. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

8. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiffs

9. Plaintiff Ann Espinoza is a resident of Los Angeles County, California who worked for Defendants in Los Angeles County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2017 to approximately 2019.

10. Plaintiff Diana Fontana is a resident of Los Angeles County, California who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2017 to approximately 2020.

11. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

12. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant Cicon Engineering, Inc. is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

- (a) A corporation qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Los Angeles County; and,
- (b) The former employer of Plaintiffs, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class because Defendant Cicon Engineering, Inc. suffered and permitted Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

13. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

14. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

15. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

16. Plaintiff Ann Espinoza worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2017 to approximately 2019. During Plaintiff's

1 employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified her as non-
2 exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a
3 workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff also worked more than eight hours in a
4 workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

5 17. Plaintiff Diana Fontana worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid,
6 non-exempt employee from approximately 2017 to approximately 2020. During Plaintiff's
7 employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified her as non-
8 exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a
9 workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff also worked more than eight hours in a
10 workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

11 18. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked
12 (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with legally 13 compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take rest periods, failed to 14 timely pay all final wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated Plaintiffs' employment, 15 failed to furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs, and failed to indemnify Plaintiffs for 16 expenditures. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience working for Defendants was typical and 17 illustrative.

18 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 19 not paying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including 20 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants regularly used a system of time
21 rounding in a manner that results, over a period of time, in a failure to compensate Plaintiffs, the 22 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they actually worked, even though
23 the realities of Defendants' operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count
24 and pay for every minute of work performed. Due to Defendants' time rounding, Plaintiffs, the 25 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are frequently paid for less than all their work time.
26 Defendants also required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work "off-the-27 clock", uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiffs and the Class to clock out and 28 continue to work, sometimes between 5 to 30 minutes in one workday. Some of this unpaid

1 work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked,
2 Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees worked.

4 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide
5 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated 30-minute,
6 uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period. Defendants regularly required Plaintiffs, the Class, and 7 the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 8 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 9 compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees s for meal periods that were 10 not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants
11 continued to assert control over Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees s by 12 requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed
13 without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiffs, the Class, 14 and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal period. At all times relevant to 15 Plaintiffs' employment for Defendants, Plaintiffs were not informed of the right to, nor permitted
16 to take, a second meal period when Plaintiffs worked at least ten hours in a workday.
17 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs, the 18 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

19 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize
20 and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest
21 periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to 22 work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting 23 them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or 24 major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
25 Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued
26 to assert control over Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring,
27 pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without 28 working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the

1 Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and 2 practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to 3 take rest periods in compliance with California law.

4 22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
5 pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all final wages due at their termination of 6 employment. In addition, Plaintiffs' final paychecks did not include payment for all minimum,
7 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages owed to them by 8 Defendants at the conclusion of Plaintiffs' employment. On information and belief, Defendants'
9 failure to timely pay Plaintiffs' final wages when Plaintiffs' employment terminated was not a 10 single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with Defendants' policy and practice that 11 applied to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

12 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs, the Class,
13 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable
14 hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages
15 for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for 16 rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).
17 As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 18 Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- 19 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
20 minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period
21 premium wages, even though they were entitled;
- 22 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid all minimum,
23 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium 24 wages, even though they had not been;
- 25 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid
26 minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period
27 premium wages at the correct California rate even though they were 28 entitled;

- (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had not been;
- (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages owed to them;
- (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;
- (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage rates to which Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled, and Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, gas and mileage. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

25. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

26. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief authorized by California law.

27. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

28. At all material times, Plaintiffs were a member of the Class.

29. Plaintiffs undertake this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

30. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.
- (b) Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.
- (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately

¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a) (California Rules of Court), whereby "statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020."

1 protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared,
2 well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as
3 demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests
4 antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class
5 counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery,
6 certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the 7 duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that 8 have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this 9 action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

10 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 11 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration 12 of:

- 13 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually
14 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 15 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
16 already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 17 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of 18 the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 19 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a 20 class action.

21 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California
22 is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through 23 a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their 24 rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are 25 also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former 26 employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
27 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members 28 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

31. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay all meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- (f) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures; and,
- (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

32. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiffs, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

(f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:

- 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
- 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

33. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

1 34. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
2 paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

3 35. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 4 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 5 not required to do so.

6 36. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 7 Plaintiffs and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay
8 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 9 provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which 10 require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

11 37. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight
12 time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

13 38. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs and the Class have been 14 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

15 39. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 16 Plaintiffs and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs and the Class 17 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 18 Plaintiffs and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

19 40. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
20 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
21 compensation due to Plaintiffs and the Class.

22 41. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to 23 recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages.

24 42. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 25 wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to 26 this cause of action, Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
27 required by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times,
28

Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs and the Class all such wages due and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

43. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

44. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

45. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in a workday or eight hours on the seventh consecutive workday shall be compensated at a rate of twice the regular rate for an employee.

46. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

47. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs and the Class have worked more than eight hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

48. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

49. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate compensation to the Plaintiffs and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

50. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiffs and the Class.

51. Plaintiffs and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

52. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

53. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

54. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiffs and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiffs and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

55. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly, but not always, failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above

(or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

56. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

57. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

58. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage Order.

59. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

60. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

61. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

62. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

63. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

64. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

65. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

66. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

67. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

68. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

69. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

70. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs and the Class, the failure to list the true "total hours worked by the employee," the failure to list the true net wages earned, and the failure to list all the applicable pay rates in effect during pay periods.

71. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

72. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied

1 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage
2 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

3 73. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs and the Class are difficult
4 and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs and the Class were also
5 injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information
6 following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code
7 and related laws and regulations.

8 74. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 9 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or 10 an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

11 75. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 12 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor
13 Code § 226(h).

14 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for 16 Expenditures)

17 76. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 18 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

19 77. As set forth above, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to incur substantial 20 necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of 21 their obedience to directions of Defendants.

22 78. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and 23 indemnify Plaintiffs and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct 24 consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

25 79. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 26 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.
27
28

80. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(b).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

81. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

82. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business & Professions Code § 17201.

83. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

84. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

85. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages

86. Defendants' failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

87. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

88. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

89. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Business Expenses

90. Defendants' failure to reimburse expenses incurred in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

91. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

92. Plaintiffs and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

93. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, are entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiffs and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

1 94. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further
2 entitled to and does seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair,
3 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
4 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
5 practices in the future.

6 95. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no
7 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
8 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
9 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 10 above, Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, have suffered and 11 will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained
12 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

13 96. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 14 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 15 withholdings.

16 97. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs 17 and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 18 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a 19 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and 20 Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §
21 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

22 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 24 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

25 98. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
26 paragraphs 1 through 24 in this Complaint.

27 99. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 28 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

1 100. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action
2 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of 3 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by 4 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions,
5 commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative,
6 be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or
7 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section
8 2699.3.”

9 101. Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies pursuant to California
10 Labor Code § 2699.3. On October 19, 2022, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing to the 11 Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to Defendants of 12 the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and 13 current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the 14 violations. Plaintiffs also paid the filing fee.

15 102. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(A), no notice was received by Plaintiff
16 from the LWDA within sixty-five (65) calendar days of October 19, 2022. Accordingly,
17 Plaintiffs may pursue this representative PAGA action to recover civil penalties under Labor
18 Code § 2699 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. Plaintiffs seek 19 civil penalties under PAGA for violations of and/or penalties provided by California Labor Code
20 sections 201-204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 21 1198, 2699, and 2802.

22 103. In addition, Plaintiffs seek penalties for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code §
23 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor
24 who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is 25 subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every 26 employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period.
27 Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded. Additionally, pursuant to the 28

1 applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total hours worked in the payroll
2 period and applicable rates of pay.

3 104. During the time period of employment for Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
4 Employees, Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders
5 by failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing
6 when employees begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain
7 records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
8 Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal
9 periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore,
10 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages,
11 all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result,
12 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses
13 related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and 14 attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law,
15 all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants'
16 knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and 17 the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing,
18 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

19 105. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to an
20 award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved
21 Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount
22 to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies
23 permitted by law.

24 106. In addition, Plaintiffs seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
25 pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in 26 any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

27 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

28 Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;
2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representative of the Class; and,
3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum and straight time wages due;
5. For unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
7. For liquidated damages;
8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;
11. For unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;
12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Third Cause of Action

15. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

20. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

26. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

31. For all actual damages, according to proof;

32. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

33. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

34. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

35. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

36. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802 by willfully failing to indemnify employees for expenditures;

37. For unpaid wages or unreimbursed business expenses as may be appropriate;

38. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

39. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

40. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

41. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to indemnify employees for expenditures;

42. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiffs and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

43. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

44. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

45. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

46. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

47. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages) failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to pay all final wages to terminated employees, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked;

48. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 2699, et seq., and all other applicable Labor Code provisions;

49. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699;

50. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to all Causes of Action

51. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
