1 Plaintiff Avery Palmer (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support
2 or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation
3 and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants GE United Technologies, LLC, GE
6 United Technologies II, Inc., and Does 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”)
7 for California Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’
8 failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods,
9 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked 10 and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify
11 necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations 17 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present employees of Defendants (hereinafter 21 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

22 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 23 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, and based 24 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants
25 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
26 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

27 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 28 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 1 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
2 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code
3 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 4 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 5 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 6 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 7 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 8 violation occurred;
- 9 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
10 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
11 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 12 period violation occurred;
- 13 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 14 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 15 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within 16 the time period specified by California law when employment terminates; 17 and
- 18 (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked.
- 19 (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
20 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 21 IWC Wage Orders.

22 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 23 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 24 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 25 willful and deliberate.

26 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 27 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 28 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are

1 responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 2 “respondeat superior”.

3 THE PARTIES

4 A. Plaintiff

5 8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Los 6 Angeles, State of California, as a delivery driver and CSR primarily in Los Angeles county from 7 approximately December 2020 to August 2022.

8 9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new 9 plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v.
10 American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

11 B. Defendants

12 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief
13 alleges, that Defendant GE United Technologies, LLC is:

- 14 (a) A limited liability company with its principal places of business in Los 15 Angeles, California;
- 16 (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the 17 State of California, including in Los Angeles County;
- 18 (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer 19 of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the 20 Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions; 21 and
- 22 (d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, are and were 23 the joint employers of Plaintiff and the Class.

24 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief
25 alleges, that Defendant GE United Technologies II, Inc. is:

- 26 (a) A California corporation with its principal places of business in Los 27 Angeles, California;
- 28 (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the

State of California, including in Los Angeles County;

- (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions; and
- (d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, are and were the joint employers of Plaintiff and the Class.

12. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

13. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and

1 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

2 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

3 15. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of Los 4 Angeles, State of California, as a delivery driver and CSR during the statutory period. During the 5 statutory period, Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from California's overtime
6 requirements, and paid Plaintiff an hourly wage.

7 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours
8 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with 9 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest
10 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all 11 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish 12 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 13 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

14 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 15 not paying Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked, including all overtime wages. Throughout 16 the statutory period, Plaintiff and the Class were required to work off the clock, and 17 uncompensated. For example, Plaintiff and the Class were required to pass through a security
18 check after clocking out of work, off the clock and uncompensated. Plaintiff and the Class were 19 also required to maintain the vehicles while off the clock, including filing the gas and cleaning 20 the vehicle.

21 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 22 Plaintiff and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants sometimes, but not 23 always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without 24 providing 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of 25 work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for meal periods that were not provided by 26 the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not adequately
27 inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of 28 work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Defendants also

1 failed to accurately record meal periods. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not
2 provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Class in compliance with California law.

3 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 4 and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants
5 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of four consecutive 6 hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous 7 and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or 8 without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or 9 permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take 10 a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 11 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Class, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or 12 practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or 13 practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Class were taking their required rest periods.
14 Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore 15 Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Class took rest periods during the middle of 16 each work period. Plaintiff and the Class were also not permitted to leave the premises during 17 rest breaks. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit
18 Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

19 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the 20 Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without 21 reimbursement, including the use of their own personal cellular telephones for work purposes, 22 which was especially true for the months prior to obtaining a company telephone. Plaintiff and 23 the Class were also required to use their own personal vehicles for work purposes, and although 24 they were given some mileage reimbursement, Defendants did not provided full reimbursement 25 for all automobile expenses.

26 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
27 pay Plaintiff and the Class at the conclusion of their employment all wages for all minimum 28 wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages.

1           22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 2 Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross
3 and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked,
4 correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in 5 accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and 6 permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address). Further, the wage
7 statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As a result of these 8 violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury because,
9 among other things:

- 10           (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
11 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 12 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 13 entitled;
- 14           (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
15 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 16 though they had not been;
- 17           (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid
18 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 19 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 20           (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime,
21 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct
22 California rate even though they had not been;
- 23           (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 24 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 25           (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 26 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 27 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages 28

owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;

- (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

23. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

24. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

25. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

26. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

27. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

28. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so

1 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
2 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time,
3 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 4 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 5 Defendants' records.

6 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
7 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
8 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any)
9 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

10 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
11 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
12 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 13 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 14 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in 15 the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
16 Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 17 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 18 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 19 benefit of each class member.

20 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 21 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration 22 of:

- 23 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually
- 24 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 25 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
- 26 already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 27 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of
- 28 the claims in the particular forum; and

1                   4)     The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a 2                               class action.

3                   (e)     Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California
4                               is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through 5                               a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their 6                               rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are 7                               also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former 8                               employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
9                               references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members
10                              who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 11                              for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 12                              protected.

13                29.     There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 14                              any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 15                              limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 16                   (a)     Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 17                               wages, and overtime wages;
18                   (b)     Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 19                               Class Members;
20                   (c)     Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
21                               wages to Class Members;
22                   (d)     Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their 23                               discharge or resignation;
24                   (e)     Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked,
25                               and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
26                   (f)     Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses;
27                               and
28

(g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

30. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
  - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or
  - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from

1                               those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
2                   (g)     Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 3                               the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 4                               the class as a whole.

5           31.     Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 6     the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own 7     business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 8     contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would 9     contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 10    published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 11    other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

12                               FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13                   (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

14           32.     Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
15    paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

16           33.     “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 17    an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 18    not required to do so.

19           34.     At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 20    Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 21    compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 22    provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage
23    Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

24           35.     Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all 25    non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

26           36.     By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 27    deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.
28

37. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

38. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

39. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

40. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

41. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

43. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

44. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California

1 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional
2 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
3 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 4 by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

5 45. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight
6 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

7 46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
8 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
9 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the Class 10 are regularly required to work overtime hours.

11 47. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate 12 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the 13 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently 14 unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be 15 ascertained according to proof at trial.

16 48. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 17 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 18 Plaintiff and the Class.

19 49. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 20 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
21 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 22 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

23 50. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 24 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 25 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
26 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
27 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

3 51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
4 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

5 52. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 6 Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 7 start of Plaintiff and the Class's sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
8 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the 9 California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer
10 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
11 violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee
12 to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

13 53. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff
14 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
15 and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact 16 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 17 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 18 the applicable Wage Orders.

19 54. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 20 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 21 plus interest thereon.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

24 55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
25 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

26 56. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 27 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 28 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that

1 the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 2 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten
3 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so
4 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 5 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest
6 period mandated under any Wage Order.

7 57. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 8 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a 9 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 10 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take 11 these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of 12 the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 58. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 14 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), 15 plus interest thereon.

16 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

18 59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
19 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

20 60. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by 21 failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiff and the Class for their necessary expenditures and 22 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to 23 directions of Defendants.

24 61. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 25 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

26 62. Plaintiff and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and 27 costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 28 2802(b).

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time
3 Penalties)

4 63. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
5 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

6 64. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 7 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 8 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment,
9 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter,
10 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 11 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

12 65. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 13 other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 14 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 15 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be 16 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 17 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

18 66. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer
19 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 20 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor
21 Code §§ 201 and 202.

22 67. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 23 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 24 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 25 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

26 68. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 27 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days
28 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

69. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

70. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

71. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

72. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list the true "total hours worked by the employee," and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

73. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

74. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage

1 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

2 75. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 3 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as 4 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
5 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related 6 laws and regulations.

7 76. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual 8 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

9 77. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 10 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor
11 Code § 226(h).

12 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 14 et seq.)

15 78. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
16 paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

17 79. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business
18 & Professions Code § 17201.

19 80. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
20 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff
21 seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 22 Procedure § 1021.5.

23 81. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 24 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
25 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

26 82. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 27 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 28 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of

1 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous,
2 and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of 3 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

4 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

5 83. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 6 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California
7 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

8 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

9 84. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation
10 of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
11 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

12 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

13 85. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 14 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or 15 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

16 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

17 86. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor
18 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or 19 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

20 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

21 87. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 22 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 23 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

24 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

25 88. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 26 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above,
27 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§
28 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

89. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

90. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

91. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

94. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

95. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other withholdings.

96. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

97. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this First Amended Complaint.

98. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

99. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

100. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On October 9, 2022, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and

1 former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations (See 2 attached as Exhibit A). Plaintiff's PAGA case number is No. LWDA-CM-912844-22. At the 3 time of this filing, 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and
4 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants' Labor
5 Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to 6 recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor
7 Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under 8 California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

9       101. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor
10 Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, 11 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 12 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable
13 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins
14 and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
15 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total 16 hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

17       102. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 18 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to 19 maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing when employees
20 begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by 21 the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to 22 know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of 23 their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 24 Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an 25 unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 26 Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and 27 enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking 28 to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective

1 damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to 2 comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
3 Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing,
4 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

5 103. Based on the conduct described in this First Amended Complaint, Plaintiff is 6 entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and 7 similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in 8 all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all 9 other remedies permitted by law.

10 103. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs 11 pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in 12 any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

13 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

14 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to 15 the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as 16 follows:

17 Class Certification

- 18 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second,
19 Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;
20 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and 21 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

22 As to the First Cause of Action

- 23 4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
24 Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 25 minimum wages due;
26 5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
27 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
28 such amounts were due;

- 1           7.     For liquidated damages;
- 2           8.     For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to
- 3 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
- 4           9.     For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

5                               As to the Second Cause of Action

6           10.    That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California

7 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all

8 overtime wages due;

9           11.    For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

10          12.    For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing

11 from the date such amounts were due;

12          13.    For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to

13 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

14          14.    For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

15                               As to the Third Cause of Action

16          15.    That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California

17 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

18          16.    For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

19          17.    For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date

20 such amounts were due;

21          18.    For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5,

22 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

23          19.    For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

24                               As to the Fourth Cause of Action

25          20.    That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California

26 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

27          21.    For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

28

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be appropriate;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

- 1           36.     For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);
2           37.     For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
3 Labor Code § 226(h);
4           38.     For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
5           39.     For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

6                               As to the Eighth Cause of Action

7           40.     That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
8 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked 9 (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain 10 accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to 11 maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage
