MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Kevin Becerra, Rigoberto Benavidez, Rafi Campbell, and Manuel Vargas Hernandez (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) seek preliminary approval of a proposed $425,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Pacific Distributing, Inc. (“PDI” or “Defendant”, and collectively with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 98 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Hon. Amy Hogue (Ret.), over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached a settlement on November 6, 2023. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiffs’ Claims

This is a wage and hour class action and PAGA representative action. Plaintiffs and putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant is headquartered out of Woodlake, California and provides growers with sales, services, and OEM parts for Orchard-Rite tree shakers and wind machines. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods, and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert related claims for failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

On September 27, 2022, Plaintiffs filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); and (8) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200 et seq.). On November 14, 2022, Plaintiffs sent notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging wage-and-hour violations pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act “PAGA” (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) On January 24, 2023, Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Complaint adding claims for civil penalties under PAGA. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 4.)

B. Discovery and Investigation

Following the filing of the Complaint, the parties exchanged documents and information before mediating this action. Defendant produced a sample of time and pay records for class members. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies and practices during the class period, and information regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices, analyzing Defendants’ timekeeping and payroll records, and interviewing Class Members, Class Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.)

1 C. Settlement Negotiations

2 On November 6, 2023, the parties participated in private mediation with experienced 3 class action mediator Hon. Amy Hogue (Ret.). (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via 4 Zoom. The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a 5 professional manner, were adversarial. The parties went into the mediation willing to explore 6 the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 7 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 8 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs' claims and 9 Defendant's defenses, the Parties reached a settlement the material terms of which are 10 encompassed within the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement 11 Agreement and Class Notice].)

12 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 13 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 14 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 15 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 16 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 17 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 15.)

18 Indeed, the $425,000.00 Settlement represents 85.4% of the realistic maximum 19 recovery of $497,559.25. (Id. at ¶ 24.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant's 20 maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $2.5 million, when the risk of 21 prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that 22 Defendant's realistic exposure was $497,559.25, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant 23 recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-28.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class 24 certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 24.) Indeed, because 25 of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid 26 the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

27 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

28 The Settlement's key terms include:

1 1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification
2 of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “Plaintiffs and all other 3 persons who have been employed by Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt
4 employee during the statute of limitations period applicable,” September 27, 2018 through the date
5 the Court Preliminarily Approves the settlement. (Settlement, § 1.2.)

6 2. Class Period: “means the period from September 27, 2018 through the date the Court 7 Preliminarily Approves this settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.10.)

8 3. PAGA Members: “means all non-exempt, hourly paid employees currently and 9 formerly employed by Defendant in the State of California from November 20, 2021 through the 10 date the Court Preliminary Approves this settlement. (Settlement, § 1.3.)

11 4. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $425,000.00, for all claims, including all 12 Individual Settlement Amounts to Settlement Class Members, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel
13 Costs, Settlement Administrator Costs, Class Representative Services Awards, Employee Taxes, 14 and PAGA Allocation. (Settlement, § 1.23.)

15 5. Uncashed Checks: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator 16 as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a valid mailing 17 address by performing a skip trace search and, if another address is identified, shall mail the check 18 to the newly identified address. (Settlement, § 3.12.3.) Any settlement checks remaining uncashed 19 after one hundred and eighty (180) days shall be transmitted to the California Controller's 20 Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" 21 subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).
22 (Settlement, § 3.12.4.)

23 6. Released Claims: “means any and all claims during the Class Period which were or 24 could have been raised based on the facts, conduct, and/or omissions alleged in the Action, 25 including all wage and hour claims, demands, rights, liabilities, and causes of action for unpaid 26 wages, including minimum wage payments, regular wages, overtime wages; failure to pay wages 27 during employment; failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment; failure to 28 maintain and provide accurate records; meal and rest break violations; meal and rest break

1 premiums; wage statement violations, failure to reimburse for necessary business expenditures, 2 violation of the Private Attorney General Act (California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.), civil 3 and statutory penalties, interest, liquidated damages, attorney's fees and costs, claims under 4 California Labor Code sections 201-204, 226, 226.7, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2699, 2802
5 and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, and claims under California Business
6 & Professions Code sections 17200-17204. It is understood and agreed that Released Claims do 7 not include claims for workers' compensation, unemployment, or disability benefits of any nature, 8 nor any claims, actions, or causes of action which may be possessed by Settlement Class Members 9 under state or federal discrimination statutes, including, without limitation, the California Fair
10 Employment and Housing Act, California Government Code section 12940, et seq.; the Unruh
11 Civil Rights Act, California Civil Code section 51, et seq.; the California Constitution; Title VII 12 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000, et seq.; the Americans with Disabilities Act, as 13 amended, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq.; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as 14 amended, 29 U.S.C. § 1001, et seq.; and all of their implementing regulations and interpretive 15 guidelines." (Settlement, § 1.39.)

16 7. No Reversion: "No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to 17 Defendant." (Settlement, § 3.10.)

18 8. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $20,000.00 allocated to Plaintiffs' 19 claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($15,000.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% 20 ($5,000.00) being paid to the PAGA Members. (Settlement, § 1.25.) Class Counsel submitted the 21 proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez 22 Decl., ¶ 10.)

23 9. Net Settlement Amount: "means the Gross Settlement amount, less the Class
24 Counsel Fees, the Class Counsel Costs, the Class Representative Service Awards, the Settlement 25 Administration Costs, the LWDA PAGA Allocation, and the PAGA Member Allocation."
26 (Settlement, § 1.29.)

27 10. Distribution Formula: "The Settlement Administrator shall divide the Net
28 Settlement Amount by the total number of workweeks Class Members worked for Defendant

1 during the Class Period in order to determine the amount each Settlement Class Member is entitled 2 to for each workweek he or she worked for Defendant (the “Weekly Amount”) during the Class
3 Period.” (Settlement, § 3.11.1.) As to PAGA: “Each PAGA Member’s Individual PAGA Payment
4 will be calculated based on the total number of pay periods he or she worked during the PAGA
5 Class Period. To establish the pay period value, the Settlement Administrator will first determine 6 the total number of pay periods worked by PAGA Members during the PAGA Class Period. 25% 7 of the PAGA Settlement Fund will then be divided by the total number of pay periods worked by 8 PAGA Members during the PAGA Class Period to determine the pay period value.” (Settlement, 9 § 3.12.)

10 11. Tax Allocation: “Individual Settlement Payments will be allocated as follows: 33% 11 as wages (for which an IRS Form W-2 will be issued) and 67% as interest and penalties (for which 12 an IRS Form 1099 will be issued).” (Settlement, § 3.3.)

13 12. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, each Plaintiff shall 14 be paid an enhancement award not to exceed $10,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.13.) This amount is for 15 Plaintiffs’ time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general 16 release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 17 1.36.) If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall 18 be added into the Net Settlement Amount. (Settlement, § 3.13.)

19 13. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose 20 a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($141,666.67) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-21 pocket costs not to exceed $30,000.00. (Settlement, §§ 1.7, 1.8.)

22 14. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a 23 statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys’ 24 fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations 25 are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. 1, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class 26 mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 7.4.) ILYM Group, Inc., the proposed Settlement 27 Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current 28 addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-

1 mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Marquez Decl., ¶ 10, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator
2 Bid].)

3 III. DISCUSSION

4 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 5 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 6 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
7 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 8 through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 9 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
10 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

11 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 12 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 13 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 14 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 15 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 16 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 17 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 18 that the class settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 19 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 20 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 21 require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 22 prevailed on all its claims", but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy 23 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation."].)

24 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 25 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 26 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

27 ///

28 ///

1 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 2 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

3 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed
4 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

5 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 6 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 7 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
8 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
9 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 10 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 11 to approve the settlement.”].)

12 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 13 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Hon. Amy Hogue (Ret.). (Marquez Decl. ¶ 7.)
14 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 15 were adversarial. (Id.) The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 16 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 17 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 18 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s defenses, 19 the Parties reached an agreement. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 8.)

20 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 21 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 22 records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 23 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 24 as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 25 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages 26 paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 27 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 28 litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiffs and their counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in

1 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

2 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 3 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 39-49.) Again, this supports the position that the 4 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 5 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 6 action.

7 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’
8 Respective Legal Positions

9 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 10 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
11 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 12 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 13 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no 14 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement 15 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

16 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
17 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 26.) While Plaintiffs are confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate 18 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Plaintiffs also recognize that proving 19 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 20 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

21 The proposed settlement of $425,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 22 compared to Plaintiffs’ reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-28.) Because of the proposed 23 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 24 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 25 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 26 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $425,000.00 is within 27 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 28 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately

1 $1,891.16. (Id. at ¶ 27.)

2 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

3 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
4 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 5 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 39-6 50.) Although Plaintiffs and their counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the 7 litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

8 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

9 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 10 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 11 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 12 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 13 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 14 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

15 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

16 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 17 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $141,666.67, which is 33 1/3% of the gross 18 Settlement Amount, and up to $30,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 19 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

20 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund"
21 Method

22 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 23 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 24 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 25 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 26 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 27 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

28 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common

1 fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all 2 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v.
3 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 4 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in 5 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 6 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 7 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 8 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 9 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

10 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 11 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 12 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 13 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 14 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 15 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 16 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 17 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—18 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
19 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

20 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

21 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 22 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 23 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 24 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 25 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
26 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 27 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 28 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most

1 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 2 million].)

3 Here, Plaintiffs request attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 4 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature
5 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 6 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the 7 lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].)
8 Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as 9 negotiated by the parties and requested herein.

10 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

11 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 12 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 13 section, Plaintiffs would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 14 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 15 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 16 Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 17 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class 18 Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 37-38.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 19 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the 20 Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class 21 ahead of all other concerns.

22 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 23 Requested Fee Award

24 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 25 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Marquez 26 Decl., ¶¶ 39-50.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class 27 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class 28 counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested fee award is supported here.

Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

D. The Service Awards to Plaintiffs Are Reasonable

Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions”). Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay Service Awards in the amount of $10,000.00 to each Plaintiff. Courts routinely approve a

1 $10,000 enhancement award for plaintiffs represented by Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v.
2 Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court
3 concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of Am., Nat’l Ass’n (N.D.
4 Cal. Jan. 11, 2024) No. 18-CV-01202-LB, 2024 WL 150721, at *4 [“The court approves awards
5 of $10,000 for each class representative.”]. This amount is also in exchange for Plaintiffs’ 6 general release of all claims against Defendant. Class Counsel represent that Plaintiffs devoted 7 a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very 8 frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class 9 Counsel during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 29-33.) This amount is reasonable 10 particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiffs generated for all class members. (Id.)
11 Indeed, in Karl Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-12 DB, Class Counsel Justin F. Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 13 339 class members, and the court approved a $25,000 class representative incentive award for 14 each named plaintiff. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 33.) Plaintiffs will also provide declarations in 15 advance of the motion for final approval to further highlight their time and efforts dedicated to 16 this case in support of their requests for enhancement awards.

17 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 18 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 19 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 20 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg 21 & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev.
22 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class 23 actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named 24 plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median 25 award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in 26 employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 27 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization 28 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

1 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

2 A. Legal Standard

3 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 4 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 5 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 6 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 7 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 8 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 9 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) 10 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest 11 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 12 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 13 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 14 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 15 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class 16 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 17 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

18 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
19 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 20 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 21 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 22 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 23 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

24 B. Plaintiffs Maintain That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 25 Settlement Purposes.

26 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

27 The proposed class that Plaintiffs seek to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 28 approximately 98 employees of Defendant.

1 Plaintiffs maintain that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 2 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business
3 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
4 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 5 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

6 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 7 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981)
8 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 9 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
10 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 11 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 12 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 13 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 14 Plaintiffs contend that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

15 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

16 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 17 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 18 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 19 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 20 Cal.App.3d 605.)

21 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 22 policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendant had legally 23 compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; 24 whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including 25 overtime wages; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether final 26 payment of wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages; meal period premium wages, and rest 27 period premium wages; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-compliant.
28 Plaintiffs contend that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified class members, including Plaintiffs. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries.

3. Plaintiffs' Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated" vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendant; as such, they allege that they were subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees.

4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiffs retained counsel with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 39-50.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiffs have no conflicts, and Plaintiffs have, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing their dedication. Plaintiffs' willingness to serve as representatives demonstrates their serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class

1 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
2 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 3 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 4 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-5 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 6 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 7 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 443, 457-62; Leyva v.
8 Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the 9 superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

10 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

11 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

12 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. Cal. Rules of Court, 13 Rule 3.766 (e) and (f). California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 14 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 15 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 16 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 17 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 18 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided 19 by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

20 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

21 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 22 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 23 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 24 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 25 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

26 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 27 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 28 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It

1 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 2 Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 3 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 4 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 5 combined settlement-certification class notice.

6 VI. CONCLUSION

7 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 8 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing in or after December 2024.

9 Respectfully submitted,
