DECLARATION OF PAUL K. HAINES IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Date: June 20, 2024

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Dept.: CX104

Complaint Filed: October 31, 2022

Trial Date: None Set

1 I, PAUL K. HAINES, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a shareholder and principal of Haines Law Group, APC, and counsel for the 3 named Plaintiff Alexandro Mora (“Plaintiff”) and the proposed Settlement Class in the above-
4 captioned matter. I am a member in good standing of the bar of the State of California and am
5 admitted to practice in this Court. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration 6 and could testify competently to them if called upon to do so.

7 2. I am a 2006 graduate of Pepperdine University School of Law, where I graduated
8 cum laude. During law school, I worked as a law clerk for the appellate firm of Horvitz & Levy, 9 located in Encino, California. I also spent a semester in law school working as an extern for the 10 Honorable Edward Rafeedie, District Judge for the United States District Court for the Central 11 District of California.

12 3. Since graduating from law school, my practice has focused almost exclusively on 13 employment litigation. In September 2007, I began working as an associate attorney at the 14 international law firm of Littler Mendelson P.C., at its Los Angeles office, which according to its 15 website is the “largest U.S.-based law firm exclusively devoted to representing management in 16 every aspect of labor and employment law.” While at Littler Mendelson, I was primarily staffed
17 on wage and hour class actions venued in both state and federal courts, and I also worked on a 18 number of single and multi-plaintiff wage and hour matters as well.

19 4. During my employment at Littler Mendelson, I played a significant role in the 20 class actions that I was staffed on, as I was often the only associate staffed on such cases. In 21 particular, I received a wide-array of wage and hour class action experience performing the 22 following types of tasks: drafting demurrers, motions to strike and/or dismiss; removing actions 23 from state court to federal court; drafting and responding to written discovery; drafting and 24 opposing discovery related motions; arguing discovery related motions; drafting motions to 25 consolidate related matters; interviewing putative class members and obtaining declarations in 26 connection with class certification; drafting oppositions to motions for class certification; drafting 27 motions for decertification following class certification; conducting exposure analyses to assess 28 the strengths and weaknesses of asserted claims, the likelihood of prevailing at class certification

1 and potential damages resulting from such claims; drafting mediation briefs; serving as the 2 primary contact to in-house counsel; deposing named plaintiffs and putative class members; 3 deposing retained expert witnesses; and defending the depositions of corporate witnesses. In 4 short, I played an integral role in all aspects of litigation from the inception of a matter through 5 and beyond class certification. I also supervised the work of several junior attorneys who were 6 staffed on the same wage and hour class actions.

7 5. In June 2011, I voluntarily resigned from Littler Mendelson in order to accept an 8 associate attorney position with the international law firm of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, at 9 its Los Angeles office, where I began working in July 2011. During my employment at Morgan, 10 Lewis & Bockius LLP, I worked exclusively on the defense of wage and hour class and collective 11 actions. For the vast majority of these cases, I was the only associate staffed on the matter, and I
12 performed the same job duties as described in the immediately preceding paragraph. In addition 13 to working on wage and hour class actions, I also worked on a number of “hybrid” actions
14 asserting nationwide wage and hour claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), as well 15 as California-specific claims under Rule 23 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

16 6. In July 2012, I transitioned into litigating wage and hour class actions from the 17 Plaintiff’s side, first as a Partner with the law firm of Boren, Osher & Luftman, LLP, and since 18 February 2016, as a Shareholder of the Haines Law Group, APC. Currently, over ninety percent 19 (90%) of my practice is dedicated exclusively to the prosecution of wage and hour class actions, 20 and I am currently responsible for prosecuting over fifty (50) wage and hour class actions filed in 21 both State and Federal courts throughout California. I have been appointed as Class Counsel in 22 over one hundred (100) wage and hour class action settlements in state and federal courts within 23 California. A few examples of the matters in which I have been appointed as Class Counsel, all
24 of which have been granted final approval, include the following: Sanchez v. Res-Care, Inc., Case
