DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff LINDA CARLIN (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants PRIME HEALTHCARE PARADISE VALLEY, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order 5-2001 (“Wage Order 5”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.

2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including San Diego County, and some of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in San Diego County. Furthermore, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within San Diego County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197,

1 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Order 5.

2 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 3 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
4 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
5 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within San Diego County, and the State of California and,
6 therefore, were (and are) doing business in San Diego County and the State of California.

7 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 8 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
9 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 10 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed and 11 believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
12 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, 13 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 14 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

15 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 16 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
17 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
18 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 19 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

20 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
21 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 22 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 23 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
24 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 25 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

26 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 27 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 28 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

1 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and 2 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 3 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

4 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

5 10. Defendants own and operate a hospital in National City, California. During the 6 relevant time period, Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee as a 7 licensed vocational nurse.

8 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
9 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 10 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly 11 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 12 belief, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their 13 scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to 14 compensate employees for this time. Upon information and belief, Defendants also failed to 15 incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration into the regular rate of 16 pay. As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not compensated for all earned 17 minimum and overtime wages.

18 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 19 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 20 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
21 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt
22 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed
23 by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiff's 24 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when 25 employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt 26 employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled,
27 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal
28 period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code

1 § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7 by failing to pay 2 meal period premiums at the correct regular rate of compensation by incorporating all non-
3 discretionary incentive compensation in the event that a legally compliant meal period was not 4 provided to their non-exempt employees.

5 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 6 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 7 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
8 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
9 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other 10 non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods
11 to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period
12 premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.
13 Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period
14 premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest 15 period was not authorized and permitted to their non-exempt employees.

16 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 17 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration into the paid 18 sick leave pay rate.

19 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 20 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as 21 alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage
22 statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to 23 pay all minimum and overtime wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, 24 Defendants failed to timely pay all final wages to former non-exempt employees upon their 25 separation of employment from Defendants.

26 16. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to use 27 their personal cellphones to receive text messages from their supervisors. Despite requiring 28 employees to incur these necessary business expenses, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and

1 other non-exempt employees for the cost of these expenses.

2 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

3 17. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and the following
4 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 5 a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
6 in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll 7 policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 8 this action through the present.
- 9 b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 10 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 11 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during 12 the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 13 c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 14 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours;
15 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years
16 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 17 d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 18 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the 19 four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 20 e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
21 in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year
22 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 23 f. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the 24 Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class 25 during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the 26 present.
- 27 g. Expense Reimbursement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of 28 Defendants in the State of California who were not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime Class;
- b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to members of the Minimum Wage Class;
- c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- e. Whether Defendants reimbursed members of the Expense Reimbursement Class for all necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code § 2802;
- f. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and
- g. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

1 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 2 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 3 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual
4 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

5 20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 6 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
7 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
8 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due
9 to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, not provided all required meal periods,
10 not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal 11 and rest periods, not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses, and not provided with 12 accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements.

13 21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
14 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
15 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
16 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 17 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 18 members of the Classes.

19 22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
20 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 21 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 22 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 23 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this 24 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 25 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 26 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 27 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited 28 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

1 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
2 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file
3 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 4 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
5 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
6 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

7 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, 8 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
9 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 10 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 11 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 12 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 13 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 14 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 25. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
19 fully set forth herein.

20 26. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Order 5, § 4 establish the right of 21 employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law.
22 Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 23 minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with 24 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid
25 wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its 26 pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the 27 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were 28 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and

1 Wage Order 5.

2 27. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 3 conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 4 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 5 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount 6 equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

7 28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and 8 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including
9 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
10 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 11 3289.

12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
13 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
14 (Against All Defendants)

15 29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
16 fully set forth herein.

17 30. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 18 Wage Order 5, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages
19 and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure 20 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

21 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-
22 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours
23 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 5. Wage Order 5, § 3 requires an employer
24 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay
25 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime
26 Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours 27 actually worked.

28 ///

1 32. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and 2 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
3 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
4 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
5 3287 and 3289.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
7 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS
8 (Against All Defendants)

9 33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
10 fully set forth herein.

11 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
12 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 13 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 14 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 5, § 11.

15 35. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 16 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 17 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

18 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 19 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
20 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
21 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 5, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
23 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS
24 (Against All Defendants)

25 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
26 fully set forth herein.

27 38. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 5, § 12 and establish the right of 28 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period

1 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that
2 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
3 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 4 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 5 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

6 39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 7 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
8 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
9 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 5, and Civil Code §§
10 3287 and 3289.

11 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
15 fully set forth herein.

16 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff
18 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements
19 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay
20 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay 21 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 22 Labor Code § 226.

23 42. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class 24 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 25 to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period
26 premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies
27 in Defendants' reported payroll data.

28 ///

1 43. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and 2 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable
3 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

4 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
8 fully set forth herein.

9 45. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an 10 employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the 11 employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their 12 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit, 13 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 14 date of employment.

15 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
16 to timely pay members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their separation 17 from employment, including unpaid minimum, paid sick leave, and overtime wages as well as 18 unpaid meal and rest period premium wages.

19 47. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 20 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay members of the Waiting 21 Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to the 22 requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

23 48. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor 24 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay members of the Waiting Time Class their 25 earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of daily wages up to 26 thirty days from the time the wages were due.

27 49. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, members of the Waiting Time
28 Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 203.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
5 fully set forth herein.

6 51. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 7 states that “an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 8 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his 9 or obedience to the directions of the employer.”

10 52. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and 11 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class all necessary business expenses they incurred in the 12 performance of their job duties.

13 53. As a consequence of Defendants’ unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 14 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable 15 attorneys’ fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

16 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 UNFAIR COMPETITION

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
20 fully set forth herein.

21 55. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business 22 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 23 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum 24 wages due;
- 25 b. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 26 c. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
27 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
28 wages due;

1 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest
2 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium
3 wages due;
4 e. failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses to Plaintiff and members of the 5 Expense Reimbursement Class;
6 f. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of
