DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff Jessica Lorenzo (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of San Mateo. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of San Mateo. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of San Mateo.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Jessica Lorenzo is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Mateo.

1 6. Defendant ANX Home Healthcare at all times herein mentioned, was and is,
2 upon information and belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of California,
3 and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged
4 throughout the State of California, including the County of San Mateo. ANX Hospice Care
5 Nursing Inc. at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a
6 California corporation headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein
7 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 8 California, including the County of San Mateo.

9 7. At all relevant times, Defendants ANX Home Healthcare and ANX Hospice Care
10 Nursing Inc. were each the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable laws
11 and statutes.

12 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants ANX Home Healthcare, ANX Hospice
13 Care Nursing Inc., and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint 14 venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-
15 conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within 16 the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 17 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and 18 assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification,
19 knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant
20 designated herein.

21 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 22 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
23 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 24 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
25 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 26 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
27 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 28 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. Defendants ANX Home Healthcare, ANX Hospice Care Nursing Inc., and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from June 18, 2020, through August 18, 2025 or the date of preliminary approval, whichever date is earlier.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other class members’ claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has 4 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;

28 ///

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to
2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 6 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay
7 and sick leave pay;
- 8 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class 9 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 10 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to Labor Code
11 section 226.7(c);
- 12 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 13 other class members for all hours worked;
- 14 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 15 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 16 resignation;
- 17 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 18 the other class members during their employment;
- 19 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 20 Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 21 j. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
22 for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 23 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 24 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 25 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 26 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 27 Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

28 ///

n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of the law; and

o. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of San Mateo.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of San Mateo.

19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members' employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

1 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
3 or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia,
4 failing to pay them for all hours worked, failing to pay sick leave pay, and failing to provide 5 legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay related premium wages in lieu thereof, in 6 violation of the law.

7 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
9 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 10 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

11 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required meal and rest periods
13 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”)
14 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

15 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 18 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 19 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
20 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
21 period was missed.

22 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
24 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s
25 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 26 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 27 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 28 missed.

1 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 4 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
8 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did
9 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

10 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 their wages within a specified time during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the other 13 class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period during 14 their employment.

15 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with the law, but, in fact, Plaintiff and 18 the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 19 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 20 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

21 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
23 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with the law, but, in fact, did not keep 24 complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

25 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 27 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.
28

1 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
3 members pursuant to the law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
6 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 9 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against ANX Home Healthcare, ANX Hospice Care Nursing Inc., and DOES 1 through 100)

47. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 46, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

48. Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

49. The applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

50. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

51. Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

87. Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

88. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to the thirty (30) day maximum as provided by Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against ANX Home Healthcare, ANX Hospice Care Nursing Inc., and DOES 1 through 100)

89. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 88, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 90. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code section 226(a)
2 provides that every employer shall furnish each of their employees an accurate itemized
3 statement in writing showing: (a) gross wages earned, (b) total hours worked by the employee,
4 (c) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid
5 on a piece-rate basis, (d) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders
6 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (e) net wages earned, (f) the 7 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (g) the name of the employee and 8 only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number

12 made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated,
13 showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions
14 shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at 15 a central location within the State of California.

16 91. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 17 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include,
18 but are not limited to, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and 19 other class members.

20 92. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and 21 the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

22 93. Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by Defendants'
23 intentional and willful violation of Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both
24 their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized
25 wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a).

26 94. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 27 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code
28 section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

1 95. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 2 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code section 226(h).

5 (Against ANX Home Healthcare, ANX Hospice Care Nursing Inc., and DOES 1 6 through 100)

7 96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
8 through 95, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set 9 forth herein.

10 97. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its 11 employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the 12 discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the 13 employer.

14 98. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 15 other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the other
16 class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs
17 incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date
18 on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in

100. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for a violation of the Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

101. On June 11, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code she contends were violated and the theories supporting her contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about August 15, 2025, the sixty-five (65) day notice period will expire, and the LWDA will not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Thus, Plaintiff believes that she will exhaust the statutory time to bring this action.

102. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from June 11, 2024, through August 18, 2025 or the date of preliminary approval, whichever date is earlier, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198.

104. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

1 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

2 105. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512,
3 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
4 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further
5 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five 6 (5) hours worked.

7 106. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
8 aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks
9 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

10 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

11 107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
12 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

13 108. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
14 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required
15 time period.

16 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

17 109. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
18 all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections 19 201 to 204.

20 110. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
21 failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to 22 Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor
23 Code section 203.

24 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

25 111. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
26 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226,
27 1174, and 1776.

28 ///

1 112. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to
2 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former
3 employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate
4 records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages
5 earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates
6 and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

7 Failure to Provide and Properly Pay Paid Sick Days

8 113. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to provide their 9 employees with paid sick days at their regular rate of pay pursuant to Labor Code section 246 10 et seq.

11 114. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other 12 aggrieved current and former employees with paid sick days at the proper rate of pay pursuant 13 to Labor Code section 246 et seq.

14 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

15 115. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its 16 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
17 consequence of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code
18 sections 2800 and 2802.

19 116. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other
20 aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them
21 within the required time period.

22 Penalties

23 117. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of 24 the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from 25 Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including but 26 not limited to.

- 1 a. Penalties under Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred

Re: ANX Holdings LLC, ANX Home Healthcare, and ANX Hospice Care Nursing Inc.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Jessica Lorenzo against ANX Holdings LLC, ANX Home Healthcare, and ANX Hospice Care Nursing Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (collectively referred to as "ANX HOLDINGS").

Ms. Lorenzo is pursuing her California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Lorenzo may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

ANX HOLDINGS is a California corporation headquartered at 1633 Bayshore Highway, Suite 234, Burlingame, California 94010.

ANX HOLDINGS employed Ms. Lorenzo as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee in the State of California. ANX HOLDINGS directly controlled the wages, hours, and/or working conditions of Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Ms. Lorenzo may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of ANX HOLDINGS within the State of California.

ANX HOLDINGS failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum wages and overtime wages and for noncompliant meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Ms. Lorenzo has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at ANX HOLDINGS, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

ANX HOLDINGS has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 229, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than 8 hours in one day and/or over 40 hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates.

During the relevant time period, Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. ANX HOLDINGS had a practice of improperly rounding Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees' timesheets to the nearest quarter hour. Furthermore, Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees' timesheets appeared to be subject to manipulated, synthetic time entries, which further contributed to ANX HOLDINGS' practice of unlawful rounding. By extension, ANX HOLDINGS did not compensate Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees for all time worked because of these inaccurate timekeeping practices, meaning that Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees were not fully compensated for overtime hours worked. Moreover, for overtime hours that were recorded, Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees were not paid overtime wages at their regular rate. Thus, Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for minimum and overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than 1 hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

During the relevant time period, ANX HOLDINGS failed to pay Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246. This included failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee 1 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided.

During the relevant time period, ANX HOLDINGS frequently prevented employees from receiving compliant meal and rest breaks. ANX HOLDINGS failed to maintain Brinker-compliant meal and rest break policies during the relevant time period. ANX HOLDINGS also had an impermissible policy of auto-deducting meal break times regardless of whether timely, compliant breaks were taken. As a result of this practice, employees were not paid premium wages for missed, short, or untimely breaks as ANX HOLDINGS automatically revised these records to appear compliant. Furthermore, Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees were improperly paid based on a piece-rate compensation formula which caused Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees to not receive compensation for any non-productive time, including time for rest breaks. Finally, despite these facts, ANX HOLDINGS failed to compensate Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable no later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is commenced. But the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

During the relevant time period, ANX HOLDINGS failed to pay Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees all wages, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 through 203. Therefore, ANX HOLDINGS is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. In addition, California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

During the relevant time period, ANX HOLDINGS failed to pay Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages owed for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep, and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees.

During the relevant time period, ANX HOLDINGS did not provide Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees received from ANX HOLDINGS were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include: (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees; (2) total hours worked by Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees; (3) all deductions for Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees; (4) net wages earned by Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees; and (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC Wage Order shall be subject to a civil penalty. The civil penalty is as follows: (1) for any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; (2) for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; and (3) wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

During the relevant time period, Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and wages paid to employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than 3 years.

During the relevant time period, ANX HOLDINGS failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and wages paid to Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

During the relevant time period, ANX HOLDINGS did not provide Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite having constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work and work performed during meal and rest breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

During the relevant time period, Ms. Lorenzo and other aggrieved employees incurred various necessary business-related expenses that were not fully reimbursed by ANX HOLDINGS. This included use of personal cell phones for work-related purposes without compensation for usage.

We believe that Ms. Lorenzo and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 229, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant must send a certified letter to the employer in question and California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims and basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Lorenzo will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of ANX HOLDINGS within 1 year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for your attention to this matter and noble cause you advance each and every day.

Very truly yours,
