DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff, MICHAEL SPANN (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) hereby submits his Complaint against
2 Defendant EXTENDED STAY AMERICA, LLC, a California Limited Liability Company; ESA
3 Management, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company; and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, (hereinafter
4 referred to as “Defendants”) on behalf of himself and the class of all other similarly situated current and
5 former employees of Defendant as follows:

6 NATURE OF THE CASE

7 1. This is a class action brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382,
8 challenging Defendants’ systemic illegal employment practices resulting in violations of California Labor
9 Code §§ 201-204, 221, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1174.5, 1182, 1194, 1197, 1198, California
10 Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. (“Unfair Competition Law”); and the applicable Industrial 11 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders.

12 2. Plaintiff seeks relief on behalf of himself and members of the Plaintiff Class as a result of 13 employment policies, practices, and procedures more specifically described below, which violate the 14 California Labor Code, and the orders and standards promulgated by the California Department of 15 Industrial Relations, Industrial Welfare Commission, Division of Labor Standards, and which have 16 resulted in the failure of Defendants to pay Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class all wages due to 17 them. Said employment policies, practices, and procedures are generally described as follows:

- 18 a. Failure to Pay Employees for All Overtime;
- 19 b. Failure to Pay Employees for All Hours Worked;
- 20 c. Failure to Provide Employees with Compliant Meal Periods;
- 21 d. Failure to Provide Employees with Compliant Rest Periods;
- 22 e. Failure to Provide Employees with Suitable Seating;
- 23 f. Failure to Provide Sick Pay at the Regular Rate;
- 24 g. Failure to Pay Accrued Vacation Wages;
- 25 h. Failure to Reimburse Employees’ Business Expenses;
- 26 i. Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment;
- 27 j. Failure to Pay All Wages Owed at Termination; and,
- 28 k. Failure to Provide Employees and Aggrieved Employees with Accurate, Itemized Wage

Statements and Failed to Maintain Accurate Records;

3. At all times relevant herein, on information and belief, Defendants, Extended Stay America, LLC, and ESA Management, LLC, are a hotel and hospitality company that own and operate hotel chains in numerous states, including the State of California.

4. Defendants have maintained practices which have failed and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees all wages. Specifically, Defendants do not properly record, nor compensate Plaintiff's and other non-exempt employees' the overtime they are owed based on their total overtime hours worked. Sick pay is also not calculated, recorded, or paid at the proper rate. Additionally, Plaintiff and the other non-exempt employees who have been terminated by Defendants have not been timely paid for all the wages they are owed.

5. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide employees with timely, complete, and uninterrupted meal and rest breaks. Plaintiff's and the other non-exempt employees' meal and rest periods are regularly skipped or cut short. Defendants did and do not pay Plaintiff and the non-exempt employees for the time they spent working within their meal and rest periods.

6. In light of the foregoing, Defendants have also failed to provide accurate wage statements.

7. Plaintiff brings the claims herein as a class action on behalf of himself and other similarly situated individuals who have worked for Defendants in California, at any time from four-years prior to the filing of this complaint, through the resolution of this action. Plaintiff, on his own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members, brings the class claims pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 201-204, 221, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1174.5, 1182, 1194, 1197, 1198, the applicable wage order and under Business & Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, for unfair competition due to Defendants' unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business acts and practices.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have engaged in, among other things a system of willful violations of the California Labor Code and the applicable IWC wage orders by creating and maintaining policies, practices and customs that knowingly deny employees the above stated rights and benefits.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff, Michael Spann, is an individual over the age of eighteen (18) and is now, and/or

1 at all relevant times mentioned in this Complaint was, a resident and domiciliary of the State of California.
2 During the Relevant Time Period, Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a 'Team Lead' from November 5,
3 2024, until his date of termination on May 26, 2025. His duties included overseeing the job site, answering
4 phone calls and managing employees.

5 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant Extended Stay
6 America, LLC is a California Limited Liability Company. And that Defendant ESA Management, LLC,
7 is a Delaware Limited liability Company. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all times
8 relevant hereto, Defendants have transacted, and continues to transact, business throughout the State of 9 California.

10 11. At all times relevant herein, on information and belief, Defendants, Extended Stay
11 America, LLC, and ESA Management, LLC, are a hotel and hospitality company that own and operate
12 hotel chains in numerous states, including the State of California.

13 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that at all times herein
14 mentioned Defendants and DOES 1 to 10, is and was a corporation, business entity, individual, and 15 partnership, licensed to do business and actually doing business in the State of California.

16 13. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or 17 corporate, of the Defendant sued herein as DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, and for that reason, said Defendant
18 is sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff prays for leave to amend this complaint when the true
19 names and capacities are known. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of 20 said fictitious Defendant was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately
21 caused Plaintiff and members of the general public and class to be subject to the illegal employment
22 practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

23 14. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter
24 alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore, the Defendant, and each of them,
25 were the agents, servants and employees of each of the other Defendants, as well as the agents of all
26 Defendant, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting within the course and scope of said agency and 27 employment.

28 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times material

1 hereto, each of the Defendants named herein are the agent, employee, alter ego and/or joint venturer of,
2 or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and were acting within the course and scope
3 of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent said acts, conduct, and
4 omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendant, each of the remaining Defendants confirmed and ratified
5 said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendant.

6 16. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendant, and each of 7 them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the other Defendant
8 in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged. At all times herein mentioned,
9 Defendant, and each of them, ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein. At all times
10 herein mentioned, the Defendant, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and 11 all of the other Defendant in proximately causing the damages as herein alleged.

12 17. The Members of the Classes (as defined below), including the representative Plaintiff
13 named herein, have been employed during the Class Period in California. The practices and policies which 14 are complained of by way of this Complaint are enforced throughout the State of California.

15 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 18. The Court has jurisdiction over this class action pursuant to Article 6, Section 10 of the 17 California Constitution and Code of Civil Procedure § 410.10.

18 19. Additionally, this Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's and the Class's claims for 19 injunctive relief, including restitution of earned wages, arising from Defendants' unfair competition under 20 Business & Professions Code § 17203 and 17204. The Court also has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's and the 21 Class's claims pursuant to the applicable provisions.

22 20. The Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because they are authorized to do business in 23 the State of California and are registered with the California Secretary of State. Defendants do sufficient
24 business with sufficient minimum contacts in California, and/or otherwise intentionally avails themselves
25 of the California market through the advertising, marketing and sale of goods and services, to render the 26 exercise of jurisdiction over Defendants by the California court consistent with traditional notions of fair
27 play and substantial justice.

28 21. Venue is proper in Riverside County because the acts which give rise to this litigation

1 occurred in this county and because Defendants have employed Class Members in this county and transact
2 business in this county.

3 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

4 22. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

5 Defendants' Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

6 23. Because Plaintiff and members of the Class worked shifts of eight (8) hours a day or more
7 and/or forty (40) hours a week or more, and/or shifts of twelve (12) hours a day or more, some of the 8 above off-the-clock work qualified for overtime premium pay.

9 24. Defendants did not compensate their hourly non-exempt employees for all overtime and/or 10 double time premium pay that accrued, despite systematically recording employees' time.

11 25. For example, Plaintiff worked through many of his meal and rest breaks due to there not
12 being enough staff coverage during the day. This was time Plaintiff spent working, but without being paid
13 at the proper meal period premium rate.

14 Defendants' Failure to Pay all Wages and Minimum Wages

15 26. During the Relevant Time Period, Defendant shad, and continue to have, a company-wide
16 policy requiring work during Plaintiff's and Class Members' meal and rest periods.

17 27. As illustrated above, Plaintiff and the non-exempt employees did not receive payment at 18 the proper rate for the times they worked through their meal and rest breaks.

19 28. Thus, Defendants did not compensate their hourly non-exempt employees for all the 20 minutes that they worked as described above, including but not limited to the time that the employees
21 were subject to the control and direction of Defendants; and/or the time that the employees were suffered
22 or permitted to work.

23 Defendants' Failure to Provide Compliant Meal Periods

24 29. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a matter of 25 policy and/or practice, Defendants routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff
26 class, with meal periods during which they were relieved of all duties, by requiring them to remain on 27 duty. Specifically, Plaintiff regularly had to skip his meal breaks or cut them short in order to meet the 28 pressuring demands to get back to work made by Defendants.

30. Throughout the Class Period, Defendants regularly:

- a. Failed to provide Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff class with a first meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes during which they are relieved of all duty before working more than five (5) hours;
- b. Failed to provide Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff class with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes during which they are relieved of all duty before working more than ten (10) hours per day;
- c. Failed to pay Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff class one hour of pay at their regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided; and,
- d. Failed to accurately record all meal periods.

Defendants' Failure to Provide Compliant Rest Periods

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to effectively communicate California rest period requirements to Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff class. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that throughout the Relevant Time Period Defendants failed to provide paid rest periods.

32. Throughout the Class Period, Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff class were routinely denied the rest breaks they were entitled to under California law.

33. Specifically, throughout the Class Period, Defendants regularly:

- a. Failed to provide paid rest periods of ten (10) minutes during which Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff class were relieved of all duty for each four (4) hours of work and able to take rest periods within the middle of the shift; and
- b. Failed to pay Plaintiff and the members of the plaintiff class one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not permitted.

34. Plaintiff alleges that he regularly had to skip any chances at taking his rest breaks during his shifts or cut them short of the 10-minute timeframe. As was the case for his skipped and interrupted meal breaks, he had to skip or cut short his rest breaks and get back to work sooner due to the pressure placed on him by Defendants.

Defendants' Failure to Pay All Sick Wages

35. Sick pay must be compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay, for the workweek in which the paid leave was taken, or at a rate determined by averaging over 90-days. (Lab. Code § 246(1)).

36. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and aggrieved employees sick pay at the correct rate. Plaintiff received compensation in addition to hourly wages, but those additional amounts were not included when calculating sick pay wages. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that his accrued sick hours were tampered with by Defendants, and not all his sick hours were paid to him upon termination of his employment.

Defendants' Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

37. California Labor Code § 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

38. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees all wages due including, but not limited to, overtime wages, minimum wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums, within the time periods specified by California Labor Code § 204.

Defendants' Failure to Pay All Wages Due at Termination of Employment

39. At all times relevant hereto, California Labor Code § 201 required an employer that discharges an employee to pay compensation due and owing to said employee immediately upon discharge. California Labor Code § 202 requires an employer to pay an employee who quits any compensation due and owing to said employee within seventy-two (72) hours of an employee's resignation. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay compensation promptly upon discharge or resignation, as required under §§ 201 and 202, then the employer is liable for waiting time penalties in the form of continued compensation for up to thirty (30) workdays.

40. Defendants willfully and knowingly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Plaintiff Class upon termination of employment all accrued compensation, as described above, including, but not limited to, compensation required for time spent "off the clock," and time illegally rounded to Defendants' benefit.

1 Defendants' Failure to Provide Compliant Wage Statements

2 41. During the Relevant Time Period, Defendants has knowingly and intentionally provided
3 Plaintiff and members of the Classes with uniform, incomplete, and inaccurate wage statements. For
4 example, Defendants provided uniform wage statements to Plaintiff and members of the Classes that fail
5 to correctly list: gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; and all applicable hourly rates
6 in effect during the pay period, including rates of pay for overtime wages and/or meal and rest period
7 premiums, and the corresponding number of hours worked.

8 42. Because Defendants failed to provide the correct net and gross wages earned, applicable
9 rates of pay, and number of total hours worked on wage statements, Plaintiff and members of the Classes
10 have been prevented from verifying, solely from information on the wage statements themselves, that they
11 were paid correctly and in full. Instead, Plaintiff and members of the Classes have had to look to sources
12 outside of the wage statements themselves and reconstruct time records to determine whether in fact they 13 were paid correctly and the extent of underpayment, thereby causing them injury.

14 Facts Regarding Willfulness

15 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants are and were 16 advised by skilled lawyers, other professionals, employees with human resources background and advisors
17 with knowledge of the requirements of California wage and hour laws and that at all relevant times,
18 Defendants knew or should have known, that the Plaintiff Class Members, including Plaintiff, were
19 entitled to receive one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each day that a meal
20 and rest period was not provided and were and are entitled to receive pay for all hours worked, accurate
21 itemized wage statements, and pay in a timely manner.

22 Unfair Business Practices

23 44. Defendants have further engaged in, and continues to engage in, unfair business practices
24 in California by practicing, employing and utilizing the unlawful employment practices and policies
25 outlined above.

26 45. Defendants' utilization of such unfair business practices constitutes unfair competition and 27 provides an unfair advantage over Defendants' competitors.

28 46. Defendants' utilization of such unfair business practices deprives Plaintiff and the Plaintiff

Class of the general minimum working standards and entitlements due them under California law and the Industrial Welfare Commission wage orders as described herein.

47. As a direct result of the wage and hour violations herein alleged, Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class have suffered, and continue to suffer substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of wages, lost interest on such wages, and expenses and attorneys' fees in seeking to compel Defendants to perform their obligations under state law, all to Plaintiff's and the Plaintiff Class members' respective damage in amounts according to proof at the time of trial.

Plaintiff's Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies

48. Plaintiff is currently complying with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

49. By letter dated June 6, 2025, required notice was provided to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and Defendants, of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

50. This Complaint will be amended when more than sixty-five (65) days have passed since the date the notice was mailed to Defendants and the LWDA, if the LWDA chooses not to investigate the allegations herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

51. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

52. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382, this action is brought and may be properly maintained as a class action. This action satisfies the ascertainability, numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy, predominance, and superiority requirements of those provisions.

53. The classes which Plaintiff seeks to represent are composed of, and defined as follows:

- a. Plaintiff Class: All persons who have been, or currently are, employed by Defendants and who held, or hold, job positions which Defendants have classified as "non-exempt" employees in the State of California, at any time since four years prior to filing this action, through the date judgment is rendered in this action.
- b. Terminated Sub-Class: All members of the Plaintiff Class whose employment ended during the Class Period.

c. (Collectively, “Plaintiff Class” or “Class Members”)

54. Numerosity: Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that during the class period hundreds of Class Members have been employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in the State of California. Because so many persons have been employed by Defendants in this capacity, the members of the Plaintiff Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is impossible and/or impracticable.

55. Common Questions of Law and/or Fact: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Plaintiff Class and predominate over any questions affecting solely individual members of the Plaintiff Class. Among the questions of law and fact, that are relevant to the adjudication of Class Members’ claims are as follows:

- a. Whether Plaintiff and Class Members are subject to and entitled to the benefits of California wage and hour statutes;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked;
- c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all overtime;
- d. Whether Defendants had a standard policy of not providing compliant meal and rest breaks and/or premiums to Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all sick pay wages accrued during employment at a regular rate;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class during their employment;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay final wages to Plaintiff and members of the Terminated Sub-Class upon separation of employment;
- h. Whether Defendants unlawfully and/or willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class with true and proper wage statements upon payment of wages;
- i. Whether Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class sustained damages, and if so, the proper measure of such damages, as well as interest, penalties, costs, attorneys’ fees, and equitable relief;
- j. Whether Defendants’ conduct as alleged herein violates the Unfair Business Practices Act of California (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17200 et seq.).

56. Typicality: The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the members of the Plaintiff Class. Defendants' common course of conduct in failing to provide their non-exempt employees with meal and rest periods and all wages in compliance with the applicable wage order, or premium compensation at the regular rate in lieu thereof, failing to provide them with proper wages and overtime, and failing to provide them with compliant wage statements has caused Plaintiff and the proposed Class to sustain the same or similar injuries and damages. Plaintiff's claims are thereby representative of and co-extensive with the claims of the proposed Class. Plaintiff and the proposed Class sustained the same or similar injuries and damages arising from Defendants' common policies, practices, procedures, protocols, routines, and rules which were applied to other Class Members as well as Plaintiff. Plaintiff seeks recovery for the same type of losses, injuries, and damages as were suffered by other members of the proposed class.

57. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the proposed Class because he is a member of the class, and his interests do not conflict with the interests of the members he seeks to represent. Plaintiff has retained competent counsel, experienced in the prosecution of complex class actions, and together Plaintiff and his counsel intend to prosecute this action vigorously for the benefit of the Class. The interests of the Class Members will fairly and adequately be protected by Plaintiff and his attorneys.

58. Superiority of Class Action: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation since individual litigation of the claims of all Class Members is impracticable. It would be unduly burdensome to the courts if these matters were to proceed on an individual basis, because this would potentially result in hundreds of individual, repetitive lawsuits. Further, individual litigation presents the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments, and the prospect of a "race to the courthouse," and an inequitable allocation of recovery among those with equally meritorious claims. By contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management difficulties, and provides the benefit of a single adjudication, economics of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court.

59. The various claims asserted in this action are additionally or alternatively certifiable under the provisions of California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- a. The prosecution of separate actions by hundreds of individual class members would create a risk of varying adjudications with respect to individual class members, thus establishing incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants, and,
- b. The prosecution of separate actions by individual class members would also create the risk of adjudications with respect to them that, as a practical matter, would be dispositive of the interest of the other class members who are not a party to such adjudications and would substantially impair or impede the ability of such non-party class members to protect their interests.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages

Labor Code §§ 510, 1198, and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

(By Plaintiff and Members of the Putative Class Against Defendants)

60. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations set forth above.

61. At all times relevant herein, which comprise of the time period not less than four (4) years preceding the filing of this action, Defendants were required to compensate their hourly employees for all overtime hours worked.

62. California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) wage order require employers to pay employees working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek at the rate of one-and-one-half (1 ½) times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek. The applicable IWC wage order further provides that employers are required to pay employees working more than twelve (12) hours in a day overtime compensation at a rate of two (2) times their regular rate of pay. An employee’s regular rate of pay includes all remuneration for employment paid to, or on behalf of, the employee, including nondiscretionary bonuses and incentive pay.

63. Defendants willfully failed to pay all overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and members of the Class. During the Relevant Time Period, Plaintiff and members of the Class were not paid overtime premiums for all of the hours they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, in excess of twelve (12)

1 hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week, because all hours that they worked were not
2 recorded as alleged above.

3 64. For example, Plaintiff worked through many of his meal and rest breaks due to there not
4 being enough staff coverage during the day. This was time Plaintiff spent working, but without being paid
5 at the proper meal period premium rate.

6 65. Defendants knew or should have known that as a result of company-wide practices and/or
7 policies, that prevents Plaintiff and members of the Class from earning overtime, Plaintiff and members
8 of the Class were performing assigned duties off-the-clock and were suffered or permitted to perform
9 work for which they were not paid. Because Plaintiff and members of the Class worked shifts of eight (8)
10 hours a day or more or forty (40) hours a week or more, some of this off-the-clock work qualified for 11 overtime premium pay. Therefore, Plaintiff and members of the Class were not paid overtime wages for 12 all of the overtime hours they actually worked.

13 66. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and members of the Class the balance of overtime
14 compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.
15 Plaintiff and members of the Class are entitled to recover civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest
16 thereon.

17 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

18 Failure to Pay All Wages and Minimum Wages

19 Labor Code §§ 221, 223, 1182, 1194, 1197, and 1198, and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

20 (By Plaintiff and Members of the Putative Class Against Defendants)

21 67. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations set forth above.

22 68. At all times relevant herein, which comprise the time period not less than four (4) years
23 preceding the filing of this action, Defendants were required to compensate their hourly employees for all 24 hours worked.

25 69. For at least the four (4) years preceding the filing of this action, Defendants failed to 26 compensate employees for all hours worked. Defendants implemented policies that actively prevented
27 employees from being compensated for all time worked by subjecting Plaintiff and members of the Class
28 to work off-the-clock as mentioned above as a result of late or missed meal and rest breaks. As illustrated

1 above, Plaintiff and the non-exempt employees did not receive payment at the proper rate for the times
2 they worked through their meal and rest breaks.

3 70. Under the applicable wage order and state regulations, Plaintiff and the Plaintiff Class are 4 entitled to recover compensation for all hours worked, but not paid, for the four (4) years preceding the 5 filing of this action, in addition to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit in accordance with Labor
6 Code § 218.5, and penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 203 and 206.

7 71. The applicable IWC wage order section 2(G) defines “hours worked” to mean “the time
8 during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee 9 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

10 72. Defendants suffered or permitted Plaintiff and members of the Class to work portions of 11 the day for which Defendants failed to compensate them. This includes time spent under Defendants’
12 control prior to clocking in and during meal periods as described above.

13 73. Labor Code § 1194(a) provides in relevant part: “Notwithstanding any agreement to work
14 for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage ... is entitled to recover in a
15 civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage ... including interest thereon,
16 reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.”

17 74. Labor Code § 1194.2(a) provides in relevant part: “In any action under § 1193.6 or § 1194 18 to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the minimum wage fixed by an order of the 19 commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages
20 unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.”

21 75. Labor Code § 1197 provides: “The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission
22 is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed 23 is unlawful.”

24 76. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and therefore alleges, that Defendants’ compensation
25 schemes do not fairly compensate Plaintiff and other Class Members for all hours spent performing their 26 job duties.

27 77. The failure to pay at least minimum wages to Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class
28 for each and every hour worked violates Labor Code §§ 1182.11-1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197; the

1 applicable IWC wage order section 4; and Business & Professions Code.

2 78. The failure to pay designated wages to Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class for each
3 and every hour worked violates Labor Code § 221 and 223; the applicable IWC wage order section 3; and 4 Business & Professions Code.

5 79. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned violations. Plaintiff and the Plaintiff Class
6 have been damaged in an amount according to proof at time of trial.

7 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

8 Failure to Provide Compliant Meal Breaks

9 Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 516, 1198 and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

10 (By Plaintiff and Members of the Putative Class Against Defendants)

11 80. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every one of the allegations contained
12 in the preceding paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth herein.

13 81. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and the Class Members
14 regularly worked more than five (5) hours per shift and were entitled to a meal period of not less than 15 thirty (30) minutes without duty.

16 82. Nevertheless, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and the members of the Class with such meal periods without duty,
18 notwithstanding the fact that Plaintiff and the members of the Class had not waived their right to the same.
19 Thus, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the members of the Class with compliant meal periods
20 required by Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 516 and the applicable IWC wage order section 10, and 21 categorically failed to pay any and all meal period wages due.

22 83. Plaintiff and Class Members seek damages pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the 23 applicable IWC wage order section 10(F), in the amount of one additional hour of pay at the regular rate
24 for each work day that the meal period is/was not provided to Plaintiff and any member of the Class, the 25 cumulative sum of which is to be determined at trial.

26 84. Under the foregoing, California employers must provide meal periods and authorize and 27 permit rest periods to all employees during their shifts. In Augustus et al. v. ABM Security Services, Inc.
28 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, the California Supreme Court reaffirmed that the required meal and rest periods

1 must be “off-duty,” which means that employees must be relieved of “all work-related duties,” including
2 the duty to remain “on call,” and they must be “free from employer control” over how they “spend their
3 time.” Id. at 264, 269. Employees must have the freedom to use meal and rest periods for their own
4 purposes. Id. at 270; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1038-39.

5 85. When employees must either “remain at the ready and capable of being summoned to 6 action,” “respond when the employer seeks contact with [them],” “perform other work if the employer so
7 requests,” and/or remain “on call” during their meal and rest periods, the employees have not been
8 “relieve[d] ... of all work-related duties and employer control.” Augustus, supra, 2 Cal.5th at 270. Such a 9 meal or rest period is not “off duty” and therefore is “impermissible.” Ibid.

10 86. The Supreme Court’s decision in Augustus demonstrates a series of meal and rest break
11 cases affirming California’s broad, protective standard for employees.¹

12 87. Moreover, as the mere existence of a facially lawful meal and rest break policy is 13 unavailing if there are practical constraints and pressures on employees to perform their duties in ways
14 that omit breaks. See Brinker, supra, 53 Cal.4th at 1040.

15 88. Yet, Defendants did and do not provide Plaintiff and members of the Class with meal
16 periods during which they are completely relieved of duty for at least thirty (30) minutes by the fifth hour
17 of work and again by the tenth hour of work. Specifically, Plaintiff regularly had to skip his meal breaks
18 or cut them short in order to meet the pressuring demands to get back to work made by Defendants.

19 89. Plaintiff alleges that meal breaks were frequently late as described above. As a result,
20 Plaintiff and members of the Class were forced to work in excess of five (5) hours before taking a meal
21 period.

22 90. Thus, Defendants have failed to perform its obligations to provide Plaintiff and the 23 members of the Plaintiff Class with off-duty meal periods by the end of the fifth hour of work and a second
24 meal period by the end of the tenth hour of work. Defendants have also failed to pay Plaintiff and the 25 members of the Plaintiff Class one (1) hour of pay at the regular rate for each off-duty meal period that 26

27 ¹ See, e.g., Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004; Lubin v. Wackenhut Corp. (2016) 5
28 Cal.App.5th 926 , rehg. denied (Dec. 14, 2016); Faulkinbury v. Boyd & Assocs., Inc. (2013) 216 Cal.App.4th 220;
Berlanga v. Equilon Enterprises LLC (N.D.Cal., Aug. 31, 2017, No. 17-CV-00282-MMC) 2017 WL 3782245 at *3 (a policy requiring employees to “remain in contact with supervisors and other employees working in their units throughout their shifts... would appear to be unlawful under [Augustus.]”)

1 they have been denied.

2 91. Employers must pay premium payments to employees for missed meal, rest, and recovery
3 breaks at the employee's "regular rate of pay" instead of their base hourly rate. Ferra v. Loews Hollywood
4 Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858.

5 92. Defendants knew or should have known that as a result of their policies and/or practices,
6 that Plaintiff and members of the Class were not actually relieved of all duties to take timely, uninterrupted
7 meal periods. Defendants further knew or should have known that it did not pay Plaintiff and members of 8 the Class all meal period premiums when meal periods were missed, late, short, and/or interrupted.
9 Furthermore, Defendants have engaged in a company-wide practice and/or policy of not paying meal
10 period premiums owed when compliant meal periods are not provided. Because of this practice and/or 11 policy, Plaintiff and members of the Class have not received all premium pay for missed, interrupted, or 12 late meal periods. Accordingly, Defendants failed to provide all meal periods in violation of Labor Code
13 §§ 226.7, 512(a), 516, and 1198.

14 93. Plaintiff and members of the Class are entitled to civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and 15 interest thereon.

16 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 Failure to Provide Compliant Rest Breaks

18 Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 1198 and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

19 (By Plaintiff and Members of the Putative Class Against Defendants)

20 94. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every one of the allegations contained
21 in the preceding paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth herein.

22 95. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, and 1198, and the applicable IWC wage order require
23 employers to provide rest periods and to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's
24 regular rate for each work day that a meal or rest period is not provided. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that 25 no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of 26 the IWC. The applicable IWC wage order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all 27 employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period"
28 and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes

1 net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three
2 and one-half (3 ½) hours.

3 96. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon allege, that Plaintiff and Class Members
4 were entitled to a paid rest period of not less than ten (10) minutes without duty for each and every four
5 (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked during the workday.

6 97. Nevertheless, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class with such paid rest periods
8 without duty, notwithstanding the fact that Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class had not waived
9 their right to the same. Plaintiff alleges that he regularly had to skip any chances at taking his rest breaks
10 during his shifts or cut them short of the 10-minute timeframe. As was the case for his skipped and 11 interrupted meal breaks, he had to skip or cut short his rest breaks and get back to work sooner due to the 12 pressure placed on him by Defendants.

13 98. Thus, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with rest periods required
14 by Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 516, IWC wage order section 11 and categorically failed to pay any 15 and all rest period wages due.

16 99. Plaintiff and Class Members seek damages pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the
17 applicable IWC wage order section 11(D), in the amount of one additional hour of pay at the regular rate
18 for each work day that the rest period is/was not provided or provided late to Plaintiff and any member of 19 the Class, the cumulative sum of which is to be determined at trial.

20 100. Therefore, Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class are entitled to compensation for 21 Defendants’ failure to provide rest periods, plus interest, attorneys’ fees, expenses, and costs of suit
22 pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable wage order.

23 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 Failure to Provide Sick Pay at the Regular Rate

25 Labor Code § 246 and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

26 (By Plaintiff and Members of the Putative Class Against Defendants)

27 101. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs a though fully set forth
28 herein.

102. Sick pay must be compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay, for the workweek in which the paid leave was taken, or at a rate determined by dividing total wages, excluding overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours in pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. (Labor Code § 246(1)(1-2).)

103. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and members of the Class sick pay at the correct rate. Plaintiff received compensation in addition to hourly wages, including but not limited to incentive pay, but those additional amounts were not included when calculating sick pay wages. By failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for sick pay at the regular rate of pay, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code § 246.

104. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that his accrued sick hours were tampered with by Defendants, and not all his sick hours were paid to him upon termination of his employment.

105. Defendants' unlawful acts deprived Plaintiff and the Class of all wages. Plaintiff and members of the Classes seek damages for sick pay in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recover these amounts with interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

Labor Code § 204 and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

(By Plaintiff and Members of the Putative Class Against Defendants)

106. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every one of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth herein.

107. California Labor Code § 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

108. California Labor Code § 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. Alternatively,

California Labor Code § 204 provides that its requirements are deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period.

109. During the Class Period, Defendant⁷ willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and members of the Classes all wages due including, but not limited to, overtime wages, minimum wages, and/or meal and rest period premiums, within the time periods specified by California Labor Code § 204.

110. Plaintiff and members of the Classes are entitled to recover civil penalties, attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code § 210.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Wages at Time of Termination

Labor Code §§ 201-203 and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

(By Plaintiff and Members of the Terminated Sub-Class Against Defendants)

111. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

112. At all times, relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all wages owed in a timely fashion during and at the end of their employment, pursuant to Labor Code § 201-203.

113. As a pattern and practice, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the members of the Terminated Sub-Class their final wages pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

114. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

115. On information and belief, Defendants have a company-wide practice or policy of paying departing employees their final wages late, instead of adhering to the time requirements set forth in Labor Code § 201 and 202.

1 116. Plaintiff and members of the Terminated Sub-Class are entitled to recover civil penalties,
2 attorney's fees, costs, and interest thereon, pursuant to Labor Code § 256.

3 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements and Maintain Accurate Records

5 Labor Code §§ 226, 1174.5 and Applicable IWC Wage Orders

6 (By Plaintiff and Members of the Putative Class Against Defendants)

7 117. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every one of the allegations contained
8 in the preceding paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth herein.

9 118. California Labor Code § 226(a) and the applicable IWC wage order section 6(B) requires
10 employers to furnish each employee with a statement itemizing, among other things, the total hours
11 worked by the employee, on a semi-monthly basis or at the time of each payment of wages.

12 119. California Labor Code § 226(e) provides that if an employer fails to comply with providing 13 an employee with properly itemized wage statements as set forth in § 226(a), then the employee is entitled
14 to recover the greater of all actual damages or $50 for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs
15 and $100 per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed $4,000. Further, Labor
16 Code § 226.3 provides that any employer who violates § 226(a) shall be subject to a civil penalty in the 17 amount of $250 per employee per violation in an initial citation and $1,000 per employee for each violation
18 in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage statement or fails
19 to keep the required records pursuant to § 226(a).

20 120. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to furnish Plaintiff and the members of the 21 Classes with timely, itemized statements in compliance with Labor Code § 226(a) and the applicable IWC
22 Wage order section 6(B).

23 121. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knowingly and 24 intentionally failed to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Classes with timely, itemized statements
25 showing (a) total hours, (b) gross wages earned, (c) all deductions, and/or (d) all applicable hourly rates
26 in effect during each respective pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly
27 rate by each respective individual.

28 122. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants did not maintain

1 accurate business records pertaining to the total hours worked for Defendants by Plaintiff and the members
2 of the Classes as required under Labor Code § 1174.5. This is a result of, inter alia, missing hours worked,
3 unpaid overtime, and missed meal and rest-break premiums, as illustrated above.

4 123. As a result of not having kept accurate records, Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class
5 suffered injuries in the form of confusion over whether they received all wages owed to them, and
6 difficulty and expense in reconstructing pay records in addition to other injuries which may come to light
7 during the discovery process.

8 124. California Labor Code § 1198 provides that the maximum hours of work and the standard
9 conditions of labor shall be those fixed by the Labor Commissioner and as set forth in the applicable IWC
10 wage order. Furthermore, Labor Code § 1198 provides that “[t]he employment of any employees for 11 longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”
12 Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage order, employers are required to keep accurate time records showing 13 when the employee begins and ends each work period and meal period.

14 125. During the Relevant Time Period, Defendants failed, on a company-wide basis, to keep
15 accurate records of work and meal period start and stop times for Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff
16 Class, in violation of Labor Code § 1198.

17 126. Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class herein seek damages and penalties pursuant 18 to Labor Code § 226(e) for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code § 226(a).

19 127. Plaintiff and Class Members also seek preliminary and permanent injunctive relief and an 20 award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 226(h).

21 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 Business & Professions Code* § 17200, et seq.

23 (By Plaintiff and the Members of the Plaintiff Class Against Defendants)

24 128. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth
25 herein.

26 129. Business & Professions Code § 17200 defines unfair competition to include, “unlawful,
27 unfair or fraudulent business practices.”

28 130. Plaintiff and all proposed Class Members are “persons within the meaning of Business &

1 Professions Code § 17204, who have suffered injury in fact and have lost money or property as a result
2 of Defendants' unfair competition.

3 131. Defendants have been committing, and continues to commit, acts of unfair competition by 4 engaging in the unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business practices and acts described in this Complaint,
5 including, but not limited to:

- 6 a. violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1198;
- 7 b. violations of Labor Code §§ 221, 223, 1182, 1194, 1197, 1198;
- 8 c. violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 516 and 1198;
- 9 d. violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516 and 1198;
- 10 e. violations of Labor Code § 246;
- 11 f. violations of Labor Code § 204;
- 12 g. violations of Labor Code §§ 201-203; and,
- 13 h. violations of Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 1174.

14 132. As a result of its unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent business acts and practices, Defendants
15 have reaped and continues to reap unfair benefits and illegal profits at the expense of Plaintiff and 16 proposed Class Members. Defendants' unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent conduct has also enabled 17 Defendants to gain an unfair competitive advantage over law-abiding employers and competitors.

18 133. Business & Professions Code § 17203 provides that the Court may restore to an aggrieved
19 party any money or property acquired by means of the unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent business acts or 20 practices.

21 134. Plaintiff seeks a court order enjoining Defendants from the unlawful, unfair, and/or 22 fraudulent activity alleged herein.

23 135. Pursuant to California Civil Code § 3287(a), Plaintiff and other members of the Plaintiff
24 Class are entitled to recover pre-judgment interest on wages earned, but not paid.

25 136. Plaintiff further seeks an order requiring an audit and accounting of the payroll records to 26 determine the amount of restitution of all unpaid wages owed to himself and members of the proposed
27 Plaintiff Class, according to proof, as well as a determination of the amount of funds to be paid to current 28 and former employees that can be identified and located pursuant to a court order and supervision.

137. Plaintiff seeks restitution for himself, and all others similarly situated of these amounts, including all earned and unpaid wages and attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, and the Class Members pray for judgment as follows:

1. For an order certifying the proposed Plaintiff and Terminated Sub-Class;
2. For an order that counsel for Plaintiff be appointed class counsel;
3. Designation of Plaintiff as the class representative of the Plaintiff and Terminated Sub-Class;
4. For restitution of all monies due to Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class and disgorgement of all profits from the unlawful business practices of Defendants;
5. Prejudgment and post judgment interest on all sums awarded;
6. For compensatory damages;
7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 226, 226.7;
8. For interest accrued to date;
9. For costs of suit and expenses incurred herein pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226 and 1194;
10. For reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code § 226 and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and/or other applicable law; and,
11. A declaratory judgment that Defendants have knowingly and intentionally violated the following provisions of law:
 - a. California Labor Code §§ 510, 1198 for failing to pay overtime;
 - b. California Labor Code §§ 221, 223, 1182, 1194, 1197, and 1198 for failing to pay all wages;
 - c. California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 516, and 1198 for failing to provide compliant meal and rest breaks;
 - d. California Labor Code § 246 for failing to pay sick pay at regular rate;
 - e. California Labor Code § 204 for failing to timely pay wages during employment;
 - f. California Labor Code §§ 201-203 for failing to pay all wages owed at termination;

- 1 g. California Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 1174 for failing to provide accurate, itemized
2 wage statements and failing to maintain accurate records; and,
3 h. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200-08 for violating the provisions set forth
4 herein above.

5 12. For all such other and further relief that the Court may deem just and proper.
