Kern County Superior Court
By Vanessa Castro, Deputy

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

¡AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 ó más de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte pueda desechar el caso.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

PLAINTIFF, SAMUEL BARRIENTOS RUIZ, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, and on behalf of the general public, complains of Defendants as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Class Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on behalf of Plaintiff and certain individuals who are employed by, or were formerly employed by, Robinson Calf Ranch, LLC and any subsidiaries or affiliated companies (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) within California.

2. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present (the “liability period”).

3. Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were forced to continue working through their meal and rest breaks in order to assist Defendant’s needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour’s pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

1 4. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-
2 exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in
3 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a
4 workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of
5 Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per
6 week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate.
7 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for
8 all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all
9 overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

10 5. Defendants have required Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees to work
11 hours in excess of eight hours in a day and forty in a week but had not paid these employees
12 overtime compensation as required by their collective bargaining agreement in violation of Labor
13 Code § 222.

14 6. Defendants failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately
15 itemized wage statements. As Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendants' California
16 employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all
17 gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of
18 Labor Code § 226(a)(2), all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the
19 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(4), and net
20 wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5). Moreover, Plaintiff and the California
21 employees wage statements' failed to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity that is
22 the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(8), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay
23 period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a
24 result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages due. These violations also violate Labor Code
25 §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees.

26 7. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's
27 California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code §
28 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and
Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendants, have not accurately reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

1 8. Our client further alleges that Defendants paid him and Defendant's California
2 employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As they
3 were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result of
4 Defendants' failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation, they
5 were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This violates
6 Labor Code §§ 201-203.

7 9. Defendant pays Plaintiff and it's California employees on a weekly basis and has
8 failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a weekly basis must be
9 paid no later than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations
10 described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages
11 earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

12 10. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the
13 equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendant such as face masks. Moreover, Defendant
14 further failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the
15 benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or
16 her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct
17 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties." As such, Plaintiff and Defendant's California
18 employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which
19 were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

20 11. Defendants failed to continue to take precautions to ensure employee safety after the
21 onset of COVID. Under LC §6409.6(a)(1). "COVID-19" means severe acute respiratory syndrome
22 coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2). Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees, directly after the
23 onset of COVID, were required to partake in mandatory temperature and health checks, but these
24 activities were not enforced or practiced quickly after the onset of COVID and when COVID was
25 still a health risk to the employees. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also
26 required to provide their own masks at the workplace. As a result of these practices, Defendants have
27 violated Cal. Labor Code §§ 6400, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, and 6407 for failure to provide a safe
28 and healthful environment for their Employees, as outlines above. Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 2699 et seq.

12. Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these practices, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were underpaid for hours worked, including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

13. Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees bring this claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all Defendants as alleged above has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

14. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all proposed Plaintiff Class members (specifically, the "California Class" as defined herein), brings this action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, Labor §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2, Labor § 226(a)(e), 1174(d), Labor Code § 201-203, Labor Code § 204(a)(b), Labor § 2802, Labor § 210, 218, 222, Labor § 6400.

15. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 395. Defendants operate within the State of California. The unlawful acts alleged herein took place in Bakersfield, California.

II. PARTIES

A. PLAINTIFF

16. Plaintiff Samuel Barrientos Ruiz is a resident of Bakersfield, California. At all times relevant herein, he was employed by Defendants in Kern County, California. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt, hourly employee in California, including in and around the city of Bakersfield, County of Kern. During Plaintiff's employment:

A. Plaintiff did not receive final wages upon termination.

B. Plaintiff and the Class were not paid in a timely manner pertaining to the waiting time penalties in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201-203.

C. Plaintiff was forced to receive inaccurately itemized and deficient wage statements, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a).

D. Plaintiff did not receive his compensation in accordance with Labor Code Section 204 in that Defendant failed to issues wages to its employees within seven (7) calendar days after the pay period ended.

E. Plaintiff was required to work without meal and rest periods, nor compensation in lieu thereof, as required by the Labor Code and relevant Wage Orders.

F. Plaintiff was required to work either in excess of eight hours per workday or in excess of forty hours per workweek without receiving compensation at a rate of one and one half the regular rate of pay.

G. Defendant also failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

B. DEFENDANTS

17. Defendant Robinson Calf Ranch, LLC is doing business in Bakersfield, California. It operates within the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff and similarly situated employees within California. The violations alleged herein arose in Bakersfield, California.

18. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

19. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the proposed Class.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

20. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to continue working through their meal and rest breaks in order to assist Defendant's needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees

1 who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558,
2 and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

3 21. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-
4 exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in
5 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a
6 workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of
7 Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per
8 week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate.
9 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for
10 all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all
11 overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

12 22. Defendants have required Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees to work
13 hours in excess of eight hours in a day and forty in a week but had not paid these employees
14 overtime compensation as required by their collective bargaining agreement in violation of Labor
15 Code § 222.

16 23. Defendants failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately
17 itemized wage statements. As Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendants' California
18 employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all
19 gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of
20 Labor Code § 226(a)(2), all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the
21 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(4), and net
22 wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5). Moreover, Plaintiff and the California
23 employees wage statements' failed to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity that is
24 the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(8), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay
25 period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a
26 result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages due. These violations also violate Labor Code
27 §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees.

28 24. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's
California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code §
226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and
Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendants, have not accurately

1 reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest
2 premiums, and total hour worked.

3 25. Our client further alleges that Defendants paid him and Defendant's California
4 employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As they
5 were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result of
6 Defendants' failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation, they
7 were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This violates
8 Labor Code §§ 201-203.

9 26. Defendant pays Plaintiff and it's California employees on a weekly basis and has
10 failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a weekly basis must be
11 paid no later than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations
12 described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages
13 earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

14 27. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the
15 equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendant such as face masks. Moreover, Defendant
16 further failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the
17 benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or
18 her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct
19 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties." As such, Plaintiff and Defendant's California
20 employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which
21 were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

22 28. Defendants failed to continue to take precautions to ensure employee safety after the
23 onset of COVID. Under LC §6409.6(a)(1). "COVID-19" means severe acute respiratory syndrome
24 coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2). Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees, directly after the
25 onset of COVID, were required to partake in mandatory temperature and health checks, but these
26 activities were not enforced or practiced quickly after the onset of COVID and when COVID was
27 still a health risk to the employees. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also
28 required to provide their own masks at the workplace. As a result of these practices, Defendants have
29 violated Cal. Labor Code §§ 6400, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, and 6407 for failure to provide a safe
30 and healthful environment for their Employees, as outlines above. Defendants are liable for civil
31 penalties pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 2699 et seq.

1 29. Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant's California
2 employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these
3 practices, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were underpaid for hours worked,
4 including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages
5 owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure
6 to pay wages as required by law.

7 30. Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees bring this claim pursuant to Business &
8 Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all Defendants as alleged above has been and 9 continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

10 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

11 31. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as a 12 Class Action pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

13 32. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class composed of and defined as follows:

14 THE CALIFORNIA CLASS

15 33. All current and former California employees of Defendants since the date
16 four (4) year prior to the filing of this complaint.

17 34. Plaintiff reserves the right under Rule 3.765, California Rules of Court, to 18 amend or modify the class description with greater specificity or further division into 19 subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

20 35. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class
21 action under the provisions of § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure because there is a
22 well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily
23 ascertainable.

24 A. NUMEROSITY

25 36. The potential members of the proposed Class as defined are so numerous that joinder
26 of all the members of the proposed Class is impracticable. While the precise number of proposed 27 Plaintiff Class members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that 28 Defendants currently employ, and during the relevant time periods employed, over seventy-five (75)
Class members in the State of California.

37. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases this number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records would provide

1 information as to the number and location of all proposed Plaintiff Class members. Joinder of all
2 members of the proposed Class is not practicable.

3 B. COMMONALITY

4 38. There are questions of law and fact common to the proposed Class that predominate
5 over any questions affecting only individual Class members. These common questions of law and 6 fact include, without limitation, whether Defendants failed to provide members of the Class with 7 wage statements that fully and accurately itemize the requirements set forth in Labor Code §226(a),
8 accurate final wages, and final wages on the day of termination and or within seventy-two (72) hours
9 of separation and whether the rest periods were timely made available.

10 C. TYPICALITY

11 39. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the proposed Class.
12 Plaintiff and all members of the proposed Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and 13 caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of laws, regulations that have the 14 force and effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein.

15 D. ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

16 40. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the members
17 of the proposed Class. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating
18 large employment class actions.

19 E. SUPERIORITY OF CLASS ACTION

20 41. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 21 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all proposed Plaintiff Class members is not 22 practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the proposed Class predominate over any 23 questions affecting only individual members of the proposed Class. Each member of the proposed 24 Class has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendant's failure to comply with 25 Labor Code 226(a).

26 42. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their 27 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
28 Plaintiffs are unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF
(LABOR CODE §§ 226.7, 512 and 558)

43. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 42 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

44. Plaintiff is entitled to one hour of pay for each day that Defendants failed to properly provide one or more meal periods as set forth in the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 558.

45. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to continue working through their meal breaks in order to assist Defendant's needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were unable to take their required meal breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed meal break to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees who were denied timely meal breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

46. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 558 Plaintiff seeks the payment of all meal period compensations, which he was owed since he commenced to work for Defendant, according to proof.

47. Additionally, Plaintiff is entitled to, and seeks, attorney's fees and costs, and prejudgment interest.

48. Wherefore, Plaintiff seeks to represent request relief as described below.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF
(LABOR CODE §§ 226.7, 512 and 558)

49. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 48 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

50. Plaintiff is entitled to one hour of pay for each day that Defendants failed to properly provide one or more rest periods as set forth in the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 558.

1 51. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were routinely unable, and not
2 authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and
3 Defendant's California employees were forced to continue working through their rest breaks in order
4 to assist Defendant's needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were 5 unable to take their required rest breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one
6 hour's pay for each missed rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees who were
7 denied timely rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-
2001, Section 12.

8 52. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 558 Plaintiff seeks the payment of all rest 9 period compensations, which he was owed since he commenced to work for Defendant, according to proof.

10 53. Additionally, Plaintiff is entitled to, and seeks, attorney's fees and costs, and 11 prejudgment interest.

12 54. Wherefore, Plaintiff seeks to represent request relief as described below.

13 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES IN VIOLATION OF
15 (LABOR CODE §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2)

16 55. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

17 56. During the liability period, Defendant failed to pay all wages to Plaintiff and 18 Defendant's California employees.

19 57. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-
20 exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in
21 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a
22 workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of
23 Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per
24 week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate.
25 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for 26 all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

27 ///

1 58. As a result, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all
2 hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages
3 constitute violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

4 59. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants in willfully failing to pay all alleges,
5 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees have been deprived of wages in amounts to be
6 determined at trial, and are entitled to restitution and recovery of such amounts, plus interest thereon,
7 attorneys' fees, and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and liquidated damages pursuant to Labor
8 Code § 1194.2.

9 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 KNOWING AND INTENTIONAL FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ITEMIZED 11 EMPLOYEE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS (LABOR CODE § 226(a),(e), 1174(d))

12 60. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set
13 forth herein.

14 61. Section 226(a) of the California Labor Code requires Defendants to provide wage 15 statements to employees. In those wage statements, Defendants must accurately set forth, among 16 other things, the total gross and net wages earned, and all hourly rates in effect, for Plaintiff.
17 Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a).

18 62. Defendants failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately
19 itemized wage statements. As Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendants' California
20 employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all
21 gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of 22 Labor Code § 226(a)(2), all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the
23 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(4), and net
24 wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5). Moreover, Plaintiff and the California
25 employees wage statements' failed to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity that is
26 the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(8), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay
27 period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a
28 result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages due. These violations also violate Labor Code
§§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees.

63. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's
California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code §

1 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and
2 Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendants, have not accurately
3 reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest
4 premiums, and total hour worked.

5 64. The wage statements provided to Plaintiff and members of the Class fail to accurately
6 itemize in wage statements total gross and net wages earned, and all hourly rates in effect for 7 Plaintiff. Defendants' violations of Labor Code § 226(a) are knowing and intentional, and Plaintiff
8 has suffered injury as a result of the receipt of defective wage statements, thereby entitling them to 9 penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY WAGES DUE AT THE TIME OF DISCHARGE IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE §§ 201-202, RESULTING IN SECTION 203 WAGES AND PENALTIES (WAITING TIME PENALTIES)

12 65. Plaintiff hereby incorporates preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though 13 fully set forth herein.

14 66. At all times material herein, the California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 15 203 were in effect and binding on Defendant.

16 67. California Labor Code § 202 requires employers to pay employees all wages due
17 within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation. California Labor Code § 201 states in pertinent 18 part that "if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 19 discharge are due and payable immediately." California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an 20 employer willfully fails to timely pay such wages the employer must, as penalty, continue to 21 pay the subject employee's wages until the back wages are paid in full or an action is 22 commenced. The penalty cannot exceed 30 days of wages.

23 68. Plaintiff was entitled to compensation for unpaid wages, but to date has not 24 received such compensation. Specifically, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff all wages due to 25 Plaintiff at the time of his separation of employment from Defendant's. Thus, since Defendant
26 failed to promptly pay Plaintiff all wages due to Plaintiff at the time of his separation of 27 employment, Defendant violated Section 201 of the Labor Code and Plaintiff is therefore 28 entitled to wages and penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.

69. More than 30 days have passed since Plaintiff's employment ended with Defendant.

70. As a consequence of Defendant's willful conduct in not paying wages owed to Plaintiff, Plaintiff is entitled to 30 days of wages as a penalty pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for Defendant's failure to timely pay legal wages, together with attorney's fees and cost of suit, and interest pursuant to California Labor Code Section 218.5.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY EMPLOYEES IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 204(a)(b)

71. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

72. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code § 204 was in full force and effect and binding on Defendants.

73. Wages must be paid according to a regularly set schedule. (Labor Code § 204). All earned wages must be paid at least twice a month, on days designated in advance by the employer. Work performed between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 26th day of the same month. Work performed between the 16th and the last day of the month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. (Labor Code § 204). Weekly or bi-weekly (every two weeks) payroll must be paid within seven (7) days of the end of the pay period in which the wages were earned (Labor Code §§ 204(a), 204(b)).

74. Defendants pay Plaintiff and its California employees on a weekly basis and have failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a weekly basis must be paid no later than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

75. Defendants have failed to comply with the above-section because they waited longer than ten days from the close of the pay period to pay its weekly paid employees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR BUSINESS EXPENSES IN VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2802

76. Plaintiff hereby incorporates preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

77. Labor Code § 2802 provides that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.”

78. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees for the equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendant such as face masks. Moreover, Defendant further failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.” As such, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

79. Plaintiff is entitled to reimbursement for these necessary expenditures, plus interest and attorneys’ fees and cost, under Labor Code § 2802.

80. Plaintiff also requests relief as described below.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL HOURS WORKED, INCLUDING OVERTIME HOURS
WORKED IN VIOLATION OF (LABOR CODES §§ 210, 218, 222)

81. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

82. Section 2(K) or Wage Order 5 defines “hours worked” as “the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.” Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 required employers to compensate Plaintiff for all hours worked at least at a minimum wage as established by the Wage Order. Defendants did not pay for all hours worked and frequently required Plaintiff to work off the clock. Defendants have been engaged in many

1 unlawful employment practices which resulted in underpayment for hours worked each pay
2 period as more set forth below:

3 83. Failure to Pay All Wages Owed Twice Per Month. Defendants were required to 4 pay Plaintiff all wages earned twice during each calendar month pursuant to Labor Code §
5 204(a). Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff as a result of the unlawful 6 employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these practices, Plaintiff was 7 underpaid for hours worked, including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment
8 resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are 9 liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

10 84. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages. Defendants have required to work hours in 11 excess of eight hours in a day and forty in a week but had not paid Plaintiff overtime
12 compensation as required by their collective bargaining agreement in violation of Labor Code §
13 222. As a result, Plaintiff has been denied payment for all hours worked as required by Cal.
14 Labor Code § 222, § 1194, § 1198. Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor
15 Code §§ 558.

16 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO PROVIDE PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT THAT IS SAFE AND 18 HEALTHFUL IN VIOLATION OF

19 (LABOR CODE §§ 6400, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, 6407, 8 CCR 3202)

20 85. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully
21 set forth herein.

22 86. Cal. Labor Code § 6400(a) provides that every employer shall furnish 23 employment and a place of employment that is safe and healthful for Plaintiff therein. Cal.
24 Labor Code § 6401 provides that “every employer shall furnish and use safety devices and 25 safeguard, and shall adopt and use practices, means, methods, operations, and processes which 26 are reasonably adequate to render such employment and place of employment safe and 27 healthful. Every employer.

28 87. Pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 6402, no employer shall require, or permit any employee to go or be in any employment or place of employment which is not safe and healthful. Cal. Labor Code § 6403 states that no employer shall fail or neglect to provide and use safety devices and safeguard reasonably adequate to render the employment and place of

1 employment safe, or adopt and use methods and processes reasonably necessary to protect the
2 life, safety, and health of Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

3 88. Cal. Labor Code § 6404 provides that no employer shall occupy or maintain any 4 place pf employment that is not safe and healthful. Cal. Labor Code § 6407 provides that every 5 employer and every employee shall comply with occupational safety and health standards, with 6 Section 25910 of the Health and Safety Code, and with all rules, regulations, and orders
7 pursuant to this division which are applicable to his own actions and conduct. Defendants failed
8 to continue to take precautions to ensure employee safety after the onset of COVID. Under LC
9 §6409.6(a)(1). "COVID-19" means severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-
10 CoV-2). Plaintiff, directly after the onset of COVID, were required to partake in mandatory 11 temperature and health checks, but these activities were not enforced or practiced quickly after 12 the onset of COVID and when COVID was still a health risk to Plaintiff and Defendant's 13 California employees. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees was also required to 14 provide their own masks at the workplace.

15 89. As a result of these practices, Defendants have violated Cal. Labor Code §§
16 6400, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, and 6407 for failure to provide a safe and healthful environment
17 for Plaintiff, as outlines above.

18 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 UNFAIR COMPETITION PURSUANT TO 20 BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200

21 90. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully
22 set forth herein.

23 91. This is an Action for Unfair Business Practices. Plaintiff Samuel Barrientos Ruiz
24 brings this claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all 25 Defendants as alleged in this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and 26 harmful to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees as a result of Defendant's failure to 27 comply with the labor code sections as set out above including but not limited to Labor Code
28 Sections 6400, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, 6407. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

92. Plaintiff is a "person" within the meaning of Business & Professions Code §

17204, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

93. Business & Profession Code § 17200 et. seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair business practices.

94. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged in this Complaint, Defendants, and each of them, have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., depriving Plaintiff, of rights, benefits, and privileges guaranteed to Plaintiff under law.

95. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, constitutes unfair competition in violation of § 17200 et. seq. of the Business & Professions Code.

96. As a proximate result of the above mentioned acts of Defendants, Plaintiff has been damaged in a sum as may be proven.

97. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in the unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code, this Court should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment, by Defendants, their agents, or Plaintiff, of any unlawful or deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, and/or, including but not limited to, disgorgement of profits which may be necessary to restore Plaintiff to the money Defendants have unlawfully failed to pay.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

1. For a money judgment representing compensatory damages including lost wages, earnings, retirement benefits and other employee benefits, and all other sums of money, together with interest on these amounts, according to proof;

2. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 203 for failure to timely pay wages due at termination.

3. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 226(e) for failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions.

4. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 1174(d) for failure to comply with itemized employee wage statement provisions.

1 5. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 226.7
2 for failure to provide meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof.

3 6. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 510 for 4 failure to pay all wages.

5 7. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 1194.2
6 for failure to pay all wages.

7 8. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 204(b)
8 for failure to timely pay employees.

9 9. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 2802
10 for failure to reimburse for business expenses.

11 10. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 210 for 12 failure to pay all hours worked, including overtime hours worked.

13 11. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 222 for
14 failure to pay all hours worked, including overtime hours worked.

15 12. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 218 for
16 failure to pay all hours worked, including overtime hours worked.

17 13. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Labor Code § 6400
18 for failure to provide a place of employment that is safe and healthful.

19 14. That Defendants are found to have violated the requirements of Business and 20 Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

21 15. An award of prejudgment and post-judgment interest;

22 16. An award providing for payment of costs of suit;

23 17. An award of attorneys' fees; and 24 18. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

CASE NUMBER:

BCV-23-100947

By order of the presiding judge, the above entitled case is assigned to the Honorable Bernard C. Barmann, JR for all purposes. It will be managed on the direct calendar program in Bakersfield Division H until its conclusion. Peremptory challenges, if any, must be made within the times set out in CCP §170.6. Please include the initials BCB after the case number on all future pleadings filed in this case.

TO PLAINTIFF AND PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL:

You are ordered to appear on July 13, 2023 in Bakersfield Division H at 8:30 AM to give any legal reason why sanctions shall not be imposed for failure to serve the complaint on all named defendants and file proof(s) of service with the court within sixty (60) days after the filing of the complaint pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.110. All appearances are mandatory, unless the court receives the required proof(s) of service five (5) court days prior to the hearing date, and then no appearance is necessary.

TO EACH PARTY AND THEIR RESPECTIVE ATTORNEY(S) OF RECORD:

This case is set for Case Management Conference, by the Honorable Bernard C. Barmann, JR on September 26, 2023 at 8:30 AM in Bakersfield Division H. Case management statements are to be filed at least fifteen (15) days prior to the conference in accordance with California Rules of Court, Rules 3.720 – 3.730. All parties shall comply with California Rules of Court, Rules 3.720 – 3.730.

NOTICE TO PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL

IMPORTANT: You are required to serve this Notice of Assignment and Notice of Order to Show Cause Date and Notice of Case Management Conference Date with the Summons, Complaint [Local Rule 3.7(a)], Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information Packet, and ADR Stipulation and Order Form (California Rules of Court, Rule 3.221).

NOTICE TO CROSS COMPLAINANT'S COUNSEL

IMPORTANT: If you are bringing a cross complaint against new parties, you are, likewise, required to serve this Notice of Assignment pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.110 and Notice of Order to Show Cause date and Notice of Case Management Conference date on the new cross defendants.

The Clerk of the Superior Court's office has received a civil complaint from you for filing. Pursuant to the Trial Court Delay Reduction Act, your case has been assigned to the Honorable Bernard C. Barmann, JR as monitoring judge.

Judge Bernard C. Barmann, JR has instituted a direct calendaring system for all cases assigned to him/her as the monitoring judge.

All law and motion, case management and trial setting conferences, ex parte matters and trials will be scheduled before him/her in Bakersfield Division H. This will involve all cases in which the clerk has assigned the initials BCB to the complaint at the time of filing. Counsel is expected to make the initials of the monitoring judge a part of the case number on all pleadings and papers.

Law & Motion and Ex-Parte hearing dates must be pre-cleared by contacting the Direct Calendaring Clerk at 661-610-6460. Tentative rulings can be located by visiting "<http://www.kern.courts.ca.gov/>", after 4:00 pm. Click on the Non-Criminal Case Information link to enter the case number. Please note, not all departments provide tentative rulings.

At the time of filing the complaint, plaintiff's counsel will be given a Notice of Case Management Conference which sets a conference approximately one hundred eighty (180) days after filing of the complaint. This notice must be served with the summons and complaint on all defendants. Defendants must serve the notice on all cross-defendants named. The notice must also be served on interveners and lien claimants.

Telephonic appearances for case management conferences and law and motion hearings are available through Court Call. The toll free telephone number for Court Call is (888) 88-COURT. Proper procedures must be complied with under California Rules of Court, Rule 3.670. Arrangements to make appearances through Court Call must be made at least five (5) court days prior to the hearing date.

Another judge will hear settlement conferences in cases assigned to Judge Bernard C. Barmann, JR. However, those cases that do not settle will be set for trial before him/her.

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF KERN
SPECIAL RULES RELATING TO CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCES

At least fifteen (15) days prior to the case management conference, each party shall prepare, file and serve on each other party a case management conference statement providing the Court with the following information:

1. The “at-issue” status of the case including any new parties that may be contemplated;
2. A brief statement of the type of case and the general facts or contentions;
3. A description of the discovery done to date and that contemplated to be done;
4. Estimated time for trial and whether a jury is demanded;
5. Whether or not the case is entitled to priority in trial setting and if so, the legal authority thereof;
6. An evaluation of the case for alternative dispute resolution, including arbitration (judicial or binding), mediation or private judge handling;
7. If a person injury action, a description of the injuries sustained by each plaintiff and the elements of claimed damage;
8. A statement of any settlement negotiations undertaken thus far;
9. The name of the attorney primary responsible for the case on behalf of the party filing the statement.

More than one party may join in the filing of a single statement.

The case management conference shall be attended by the attorney primarily responsible for the case on behalf of each party or a member of his or her firm or counsel formally associated in the case. The attorney attending shall be thoroughly familiar with the case, and be able to engage in meaningful discussions with court and counsel, and to enter into agreements on behalf of his or her client on the following subjects:

1. The “at-issue” status of the case including the dismissal of the unnamed doe defendants or cross-defendants by agreement of all parties;
2. Discovery conducted and remaining to be done;
3. Amenability of the case to alternative dispute resolution including, but no limited to, arbitration (judicial or binding), mediation, and private judge handling.
4. Delineation of issues including stipulation of facts not in substantial controversy;
5. Settlement prospects;
6. Setting the matter for trial, pre-trial conferences, settlement conference or further case management conference;
7. Any other matters relevant to the processing of the case to a final resolution.

Any violation of these rules shall result in the imposition of substantial sanctions which may include monetary, issue, termination, or other appropriate sanctions.
