DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

1 Plaintiff JONANNE ELIZABETH LEE, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 2 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as 3 follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against ST. JOHN'S
7 COMMUNITY HEALTH ("ST. JOHN'S COMMUNITY"), a California Corporation; ST. JOHN'S 8 WELL CHILD AND FAMILY CENTER ACTION FUND ("ST. JOHN'S ACTION FUND"), a 9 California Corporation; ST. JOHN'S WELL CHILD CENTER, INC. ("ST. JOHN'S WELL"), a 10 California Corporation; JIM MANGIA ("MANGIA"), (collectively, and with DOES 1 through 100, 11 as further defined below, "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development 12 Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former 13 non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined 14 herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, 15 Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 16 245, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of 17 speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period 18 (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

19 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 20 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

21 3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 22 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 23 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 24 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 25 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 26 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, 27 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff 28 and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous 1 Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

2 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 3 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 4 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 5 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
6 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 7 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 8 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

9 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 10 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
11 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 12 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

13 During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the LWDA 14 regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 15 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 182.12, 200, 201, 202, 203, 16 204, 210, 212, 213, 22326, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 404, 432, 432.3, 17 432.5, 432.6, 432.7, 432.8, 438. 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 18 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 28020.5, 1527, 6400, et seq., 3366, 3457, 8397.4, among 19 others.

20 6. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 21 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 22 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 23 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

24 7. On or around December 29, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 25 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 26 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 27 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

28 8. Plaintiff also provided Defendants, and each of them, with notice under Labor Code

1 section 2810.3, subdivision (d) that Plaintiff would seek to hold them liable for each other's wage 2 and hour violations under Labor Code section 2810.3 on December 29, 2022 by certified mail with 3 return receipt requested.

4 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 5 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 6 calendar days of the December 29, 2022, postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 7 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

8 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

9 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 10 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 11 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 12 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 13 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 14 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 15 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 16 limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to 17 complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out (included, but were 18 not limited to, establishing works schedules creating onboarding material and establishing training 19 schedules for new doctors to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff 20 uniforms off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off 21 the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, 22 incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the 23 pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose 24 of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or 25 manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay 26 instead of overtime pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

27 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 28 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours

1 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 2 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to remain on-3 call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift 4 tasks after clocking out (included, but were not limited to, establishing works schedules creating 5 onboarding material and establishing training schedules for new doctors), to clock out for meal 6 periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms off the clock, to attend company meetings 7 off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding of employee time 8 entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; failing 9 to pay reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift 10 premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

11 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 12 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 13 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 14 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 15 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 16 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 17 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 18 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 19 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 20 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

21 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 22 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 23 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 24 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 25 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 26 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 27 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 28 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

1 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 3 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 4 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 5 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 6 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 7 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 8 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

9 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
10 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 11 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
12 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 13 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 14 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 15 Aggrieved Employees.

16 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
17 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 18 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
19 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 20 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

21 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 22 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 23 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 24 and applicable Wage Orders.

25 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 26 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 27 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 28 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits,

1 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, for the 2 purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the 3 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor 4 Code 2802.

5 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 6 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 7 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 8 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 9 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 10 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 11 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 12 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

13 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 14 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 15 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 16 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 17 all other Aggrieved Employees.

18 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 19 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 20 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 21 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 22 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 23 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

24 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
25 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 26 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 27 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 28 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what

1 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 2 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 3 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 4 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

5 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 6 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 7 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 8 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 9 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
10 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 11 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 12 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

13 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 14 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 15 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 16 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 17 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 18 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 19 economic liberty.

20 25. Defendants had a have a policy or practice of to work in excess of five (5) and ten 21 (10) hours without being afforded uninterrupted, timely meal periods. Labor Code 512 states (a) 22 "An employer shall not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day 23 without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the 24 total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived 25 by mutual consent of both the employer and employee. An employer shall not employ an employee 26 for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal 27 period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, 28 the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only

1 if the first meal period was not waived.” As such Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees are 2 entitled to premium payments under Labor Code 226.7. [“(b) An employer shall not require an 3 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable 4 statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the 5 Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, or the Division of Occupational Safety and 6 Health.”....(c) the employer shall pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's 7 regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal or rest or recovery period is not 8 provided.] The employer is thus liable for civil penalties under Labor Code 558 and 2699 for failing 9 to authorize the taking of compliant meal periods, as well for failing to provide premium pay.

10 26. Defendants had a have a policy or practice of compelling its non-exempt employees, 11 to work over work over four hours periods or fractions thereof without authorizing and permitting
12 Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees uninterrupted, timely and complete ten-minute rest periods 13 in which employees are completely relieved of their duties, including, without limitation: by failing 14 to provide rest periods altogether and/or requiring that they be bundled with meal periods. As such 15 Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to premium payments under Labor Code 16 226.7. [“(b) An employer shall not require an employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery 17 period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the 18 Industrial Welfare Commission, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, or the 19 Division of Occupational Safety and Health.”....(c) the employer shall pay the employee one 20 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the 21 meal or rest or recovery period is not provided.] The employer is thus liable for civil penalties under 22 Labor Code 558 and 2699 for failing to authorize the taking of compliant meal periods, as well for 23 failing to provide premium pay.

24 27. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 25 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 26 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 27 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

1 PARTIES

2 A. Plaintiff

6 creating onboarding material and establishing training schedules for new doctors from 7 approximately April of 2015 and through approximately August of 2022.

8 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from 9 approximately April of 2015 through at least August of 2022.

10 B. Defendants

11 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant St. John's 12 Community Health, a California Corporation, is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation
13 organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business 14 in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

15 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant St. John's
16 Well Child And Family Center Action Fund, a California Corporation; is, and at all times relevant
17 hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of 18 California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

19 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant, St. John's
20 Well Child And Family Center Action Fund, a California Corporation; is, and at all times relevant
21 hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of 22 California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

23 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Amber 24 Resources is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing 25 under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los 26 Angeles, State of California.

27 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant MANGIA 28 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as President and

1 CEO for ST. JOHN'S WELL and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below. Plaintiff is further 2 informed and believes and based thereon alleges that MANGIA violated, or caused to be violated, 3 the above-referenced and below-referenced Labor Code provisions in violation of Labor Code 4 section 558.1.

5 35. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 6 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 7 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
8 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 9 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
10 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 11 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 12 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 13 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 14 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 15 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 16 include ("St. John's Community"), ("St. John's Action Fund"), ("St. John's Well"), and ("Mangia"), 17 and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of California, as well as 18 DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

19 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

20 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 21 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 22 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 23 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 24 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

25 37. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 26 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 27 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 28 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 1 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 2 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 3 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 4 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 5 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

6 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 7 formation of the purported corporate existence of (“St. John’s Community”), (“St. John’s Action
8 Fund”), (“St. John’s Well”), and (“Mangia”), and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (the “Alter Ego
9 Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 51 through 100 (“Individual 10 Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following reasons:

11 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 12 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws 13 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 14 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 15 inequitable purpose;

16 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 17 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 18 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

19 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 20 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 21 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 22 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

23 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 24 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 25 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 26 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 27 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 28

1 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 2 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

3 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 4 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar as it would permit these defendants to 5 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 6 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 7 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
8 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

9 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 10 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 11 disregarded.

12 39. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 13 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

16 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 17 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

18 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

19 41. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 20 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 21 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 22 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 23 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

25 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 26 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 3 43. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 4 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as

16 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 17 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 18 entity securing the employer’s services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 19 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

20 45. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 21 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 22 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 23 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 24 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

25 46. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 26 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

27 47. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 28 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without

1 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 2 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 3 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 4 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 5 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 6 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

7 48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 8 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
9 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period

21 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 22 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

23 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

24 50. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 25 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 26 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 27 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 28 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business

1 as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance

13 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 14 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 15 or papers of the person.”

16 53. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 17 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 20 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 21 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours

24 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 25 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 26 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 27 earned.”

28 55. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully

1 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate

4 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

5 56. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 6 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 7 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
8 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
9 under Labor Code section 1174.

10 57. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
