Attorneys for Plaintiff ERICA CAMPOS MENDEZ, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES-CENTRAL DISTRICT

ERICA CAMPOS MENDEZ, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

CAMINO REAL FOODS, INC.; 2R
STAFFING, LLC; PERSONNEL STAFFING
GROUP, LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 23STCV04715

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF ERICA CAMPOS MENDEZ'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff ERICA CAMPOS MENDEZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants CAMINO REAL FOODS, INC.; 2R STAFFING, LLC; PERSONNEL STAFFING GROUP, LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated

1 with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all 2 hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure 3 to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period 4 premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or 5 pay rest period premium wages; statutory penalties for failure to timely pay earned wages during 6 employment; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting 7 time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due 8 upon separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the 9 Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 10 Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, 11 and others aggrieved.

12 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 14 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 15 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 16 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 17 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-18 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 19 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 20 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 2638 E. Vernon Ave., Los Angeles 21 90058.

22 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 23 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 24 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 25 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

26 III. PARTIES

27 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 28 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 1 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 2 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will 3 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 4 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 5 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 6 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or 7 around March 2018 until on or about October 29, 2021.

8 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant CAMINO 9 REAL FOODS, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing 10 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-25 are, and at all times relevant 11 hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant CAMINO REAL FOODS, INC. in the 12 establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies.
13 Defendant CAMINO REAL FOODS, INC. operates in Los Angeles County and employed 14 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, 2638 E.
15 Vernon Ave, Los Angeles 90058.

16 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant 2R 17 STAFFING, LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business 18 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 26-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto 19 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant 2R STAFFING, LLC in the establishment of, or 20 ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant 2R 21 STAFFING, LLC operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved 22 employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, 2638 E. Vernon Ave, Los Angeles 23 90058.

24 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant PERSONNEL 25 STAFFING GROUP, LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing 26 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 51-75 are, and at all times 27 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant PERSONNEL STAFFING GROUP, 28 LLC in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices

1 or policies. Defendant PERSONNEL STAFFING GROUP, LLC operates in Los Angeles County
2 and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited 3 to, 2638 E. Vernon Ave, Los Angeles 90058.

4 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 5 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 6 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 7 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 8 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

9 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 76
10 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 11 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 12 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 13 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 14 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

15 10. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 16 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 17 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 18 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 19 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 20 complaint.

21 11. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 22 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 23 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

24 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

25 CIVIL PENALTIES AND WAGES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS

26 GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

27 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

28 12. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

1 13. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial 2 PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 3 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, and Sections 14 and 15 of the applicable Wage 4 Orders.

5 14. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 6 Labor Code:

7 15. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
8 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
9 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,”
10 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 11 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 12 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

13 16. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 14 for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 15 Wage Orders.

16 17. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 17 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 18 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 19 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 20 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 21 not limited to:

22 (a) Since the outbreak of COVID-19, requiring Plaintiff and other current and former 23 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to line up and wait to undergo and 24 undergo off-the-clock COVID-19 temperature check and/or medical questionnaires prior to being 25 permitted to clock-in for the start of their shift.

26 18. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 27 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants’ 28 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 2 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 3 Wage Order.

4 19. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
5 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
6 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,”
7 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 8 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 9 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.’

10 20. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 11 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 12 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

13 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) 14 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 15 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-16 one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve 17 (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

18 Labor Code section 510.

19 21. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 20 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours 21 worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

22 (a) Since the outbreak of COVID-19, requiring Plaintiff and other current and former 23 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to line up and wait to undergo and 24 undergo off-the-clock COVID-19 temperature check and/or medical questionnaires prior to being 25 permitted to clock-in for the start of their shift.

26 22. Overtime is based upon an employee’s regular rate of pay. “The regular rate at 27 which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment paid 28 to, or on behalf, of the employee.” See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – Enforcement

1 Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

2 23. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 3 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 4 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all 5 remuneration when calculating the regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime wages.
6 Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all 7 remuneration such as, for example, attendance bonuses when calculating Plaintiff and other 8 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regular rate of pay 9 for the purpose of paying overtime wages.

10 24. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 11 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 12 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 13 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 14 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 15 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 16 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 17 sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

18 25. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 19 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other 20 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 21 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

22 26. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 23 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 24 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 25 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 1 at §11; Brinker 26 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 27 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 28 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh

1 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
2 shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and counted as time worked. A paid “on duty” meal 3 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 4 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

5 27. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 6 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay 7 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 8 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §11.

9 28. In this case, when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 10 California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, on-11 premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 12 hour of pay at Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-13 exempt employees regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 14 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, for example, attendance 15 bonuses when calculating Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 16 non-exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation for the purpose of paying meal period 17 premium wages.

18 29. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
19 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 20 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them 21 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

22 30. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other 24 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 25 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26 31. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 27 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor 28 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10

1 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 2 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so 3 on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code 4 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of 5 each work period. Wage Order 1 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates 6 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM 7 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 8 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

9 32. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer 10 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday 11 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; 12 Wage Order 1 at § 12.

13 33. In this case, when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and former 14 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, 15 short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) 16 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 17 non-exempt employees regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 18 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, for example, 19 attendance bonuses, when calculating Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-20 based hourly non-exempt employees regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying rest period 21 premium wages.

22 34. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
23 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 24 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with 25 rest periods in compliance with California law.

26 35. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 27 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 28 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages

1 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 2 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, 3 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following 4 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 5 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 6 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

7 36. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 8 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-9 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period 10 premium wages and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204.
11 Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay 12 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' 13 their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

14 37. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 15 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 16 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 17 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 18 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 19 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 20 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable 21 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 22 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 23 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 24 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 25 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 26 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

27 38. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff 28 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages

1 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest 2 period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-3 based hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code 4 section 226.

5 39. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 6 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 7 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 8 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

9 40. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay 10 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 11 all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 12 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 13 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

14 41. Defendants' violations of Wage Order 1 constituted violations of Labor Code 15 section 1198, which prohibits employment under conditions of labor that violate the Wage Orders.

16 42. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved 17 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 18 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 19 Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 43. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 21 Code section 2699.3. On December 27, 2022, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the 22 LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific 23 provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 24 support the violations alleged.

25 44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 26 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 27 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 28 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends

1 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

2 45. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 3 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204 226, 226.7, 510, 4 512, 1194, 1197 beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice
5 to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

6 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, 512, one 7 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 8 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 9 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

10 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 11 for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, 12 one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 13 established by Labor Code section 226.3].

14 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each 15 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 16 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 17 established by Labor Code section 558] and any unpaid wages.

18 d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars 19 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 20 subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 21 period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1] and any unpaid wages.

22 46. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 23 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.

24 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

25 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HERSELF AND ON OTHER 26 AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

27 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

28 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and

1 the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 3 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 4 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

5 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 6 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 7 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 8 appropriate
