Class Certification in California: SECOND INTERIM REPORT FROM THE STUDY OF CALIFORNIA CLASS ACTION LITIGATION - FEBRUARY 2010	15

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rules 3.769, Plaintiff requests that this Court preliminarily
3 approve the class action settlement set forth in the CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT
4 AGREEMENT AND CLASS NOTICE (“Settlement” or “Agreement”) with MIDWAY
5 CONSTRUCTION CORPORATION (“Defendant”).

6 After the exchange of documents and data, and an arm’s-length mediation session with mediator
7 Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.), Plaintiff and Defendant (collectively referred to herein as the “Parties”) reached 8 a proposed class action settlement with a gross settlement amount (“GSA”) of $350,000.00 in 9 compromise of disputed claims asserted on behalf of the below-defined Class consisting of 10 approximately 747 members.¹ Plaintiff believes this settlement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable 11 compromise of disputed claims for alleged wage and hour violations and penalties asserted in this case.

12 Plaintiff now submits this Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, along 13 with the Settlement (attached to the Declaration of H. Scott Leviant [“Leviant Decl.”], Exhibit 1 thereto).
14 For the Court’s convenience, below is a summary of the key provisions of the Settlement.

15 II. THE MAJOR TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

16 The provisions of the proposed Settlement include the following:

- 17 • Defendant agrees not to oppose certification for purposes of Settlement (Settlement, ¶ 12.1);
- 18 • Class: All persons who worked for Defendant in California as non-exempt employees during 19 the Class Period (the “Class Period” is the period from December 27, 2021, through August 20 24, 2024). “Participating Class Member” means a Class Member who does not submit a 21 valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Class portion of the Settlement. (Settlement, 22 ¶¶ 1.5, 1.9, 1.12, 1.34)
- 23 • Settlement Amount: Defendant will pay a maximum of $350,000.00, referred to as the 24 Gross Settlement Amount (or GSA herein), resulting in an estimated average gross benefit 25 per Class Member of about $468.54 (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.21, 3.1; Leviant Decl., ¶ 17);

27 ¹ NOTE: Defendant’s employees signed arbitration agreements. This presents a severe risk factor 28 for class treatment and is also the reason for a class settlement period limited to one year prior to the filing of the action.

- 1 • Funding of Gross Settlement Amount: Defendant shall fund half of the Gross Settlement
2 Amount within 60 days of the Effective Date and fund the remaining portion of the Gross
3 Settlement Amount within six months of the first payment, along with Defendant's share of 4 any employer taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments.
5 (Settlement, ¶ 4.3.)
- 6 • Class Size: About 747 individuals who worked about 33,910 workweeks (Settlement, ¶ 8.);
- 7 • PAGA Group Size: An estimated 747 aggrieved employees who worked about 16,955 pay 8 periods during the PAGA Period (Settlement, ¶ 8);
- 9 • PAGA Period: December 27, 2021, through August 24, 2024 (Settlement, ¶ 1.30);
- 10 • Kullar/Munoz Analysis: Plaintiff addresses the claims analysis herein, at Part V.B.3, and in 11 the Declaration of Leviant, at Paragraph 18;
- 12 • No Reversion: The Settlement is a non-reversionary settlement (Settlement, ¶ 3.1);
- 13 • Certification: Plaintiff addresses certification requisites herein, at Part V.A., and in the 14 Declaration of Leviant, at Paragraphs 34-40;
- 15 • No Claim Form: No claim form is required (Settlement., ¶ 3.1);
- 16 • Class Release: The Settlement will release wage-and-hour claims for Participating Class 17 Members (those Class Members who do not opt out of the Settlement) all claims that were 18 alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative 19 Complaint (Settlement, ¶ 5.2);
- 20 • PAGA Release: Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA will release all PAGA penalties that 21 were alleged, or could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the PAGA Notice, 22 regardless of whether they opt out of the class portion of the Settlement (Settlement, ¶ 5.3);
- 23 • Net Settlement Amount Available to the Class: After deducting Class Counsel's attorneys'
24 fees and costs, service payment to Plaintiff, administration costs, and the PAGA penalty, 25 the remainder will be available for distribution to Class Members who do not opt out, with 26 each Class Member receiving a share based on the number of Workweeks each Class 27 Member worked for Defendant within the Class Period. The Net Settlement Amount is 28 estimated to be at least $169,333.33, resulting in an average net payment per Class Member of approximately $226.68, before any tax withholdings (Settlement, ¶ 1.27.);

- Tax Allocation: The amounts distributed to Class Members will be characterized as 20% alleged unpaid wages, 80% to interest and penalties, and PAGA Settlement payments to Aggrieved Employees will be allocated as 100% penalties (Settlement, ¶¶ 3.2.4.1, 3.2.5.);
- Employer's Portion of Payroll Taxes Paid Separately: Defendant's portion of payroll taxes (e.g., FICA, FUTA, etc.) owed on any settlement payments to Class Members that constitute wages will be paid separate and apart from the GSA (Settlement, ¶ 3.1);
- Settlement Administrator: The notice portion of the Settlement will be administered by a third-party Administrator, ILYM Group, Inc., with the costs of administration at a flat rate of up to $8,550.00. ILYM's estimate for settlement administration services in the amount of $8,550.00 was selected as the lowest bid from a competitive bidding process, and is below the Parties' estimated cost of $10,000.00 (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3; Mullins Decl.);
- Class Data for Administration: The Settlement Administrator will receive the Class Data within 14 calendar days of Preliminary Approval, use the National Change of Address ("NCOA") database to update the Class Data, and then use skip tracing on returned Notices (Settlement, ¶¶ 4.2; 1.10);
- Notice: The Notice will issue within 14 days of receipt of the Class Data (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2). The Notice describes how to dispute workweeks, submit an objection in writing, in person, or through an attorney, or request exclusion (Settlement, ¶¶ 7.5 – 7.7);
- Notice Language: Notice will issue in English and Spanish (Settlement, ¶ 1.11; 7.4.2);
- Objections: Objections can be submitted in person, by attorney, or in writing to the Administrator, with no pre-requisite to being heard (Settlement, ¶¶ 7.7.1 – 7.7.3);
- Exclusion Requests: The procedure for exclusion requests, mailing a request to the Settlement Administrator, is the same as the procedure for submitting a written objection (Settlement, ¶¶ 7.5.1 and 7.7.2);
- PAGA Allocation: From the GSA, $35,000.00 will be allocated to settle claims brought pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code § 2699 et seq. ("PAGA"), and seventy-five percent (75%), or $26,250.00, will be paid to the California

Labor & Workforce Development Agency. (Settlement, ¶ 1.33; 3.2.5);

- Notice to LWDA: Notice was provided prior to the filing of this Motion. Evidence is attached to the Leviant Declaration;
- Enhancement/Service Award to Plaintiff: Defendant will not oppose the application for Class Representative Service Payment of up to $5,000.00 for Plaintiff, to be paid from the GSA (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1);
- Fees and Costs: Defendant will not oppose Class Counsel’s application for fees not to exceed 33 1/3% of the GSA ($116,666.66), and actual costs, in an amount not to exceed $14,000.00, to be paid out of the GSA (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2);
- Check Void Period: Settlement checks will be valid for 180 days (Settlement, ¶ 4.4.1);
- Uncashed Checks: Any settlement checks that are mailed to the Class Members and remain uncashed after 180 days of the date of issuance will be cancelled, and the moneys will be directed to the cy pres recipient, the State Bar’s Justice Gap Fund (Settlement, ¶ 4.4.3);
- Judgment Notice: Judgment will be posted on the Settlement Administrator’s website after entry (Settlement, ¶ 7.8.1);
- Confidentiality Provisions: The Settlement permits Class Counsel to discuss the Settlement with Class Members (Settlement ¶ 12.2).

(Leviant Decl., ¶¶ 11-12 and Exhibit 1 thereto.)

III. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. Plaintiff’s Claims

On December 27, 2022, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes of action against Defendant for failure to pay minimum and regular rate wages, failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and provide rest breaks, failure to timely pay final wages at termination, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and unfair business practices. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 4.) Defendant operates in the commercial and residential construction industry, focusing on painting and drywall work. (Id.)

Plaintiff sent a letter to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3, providing notice of his intent to seek civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA Letter”). (Leviant Decl., ¶ 5.) The LWDA did not indicate that it intended to investigate the alleged violations referenced in the letter, and the 65-day time period permitted for the LWDA to provide such a notification expired. On April 21, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint (the “Operative Complaint”) alleging an additional cause of action against Defendant for violation of the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”). Defendant denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any failure to comply with the laws identified in in the Operative Complaint and denies any and all liability for the causes of action alleged.

B. Pre-Mediation Data Production and Analysis

The Parties conducted informal discovery and investigation of the facts and law. Such investigation included, inter alia, the exchange of extensive data and discoverable information in preparation for the mediation session. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 6.) The Parties have analyzed time clock, pay and other data pertaining to Plaintiff and the Class during the relevant Settlement Period, including but not limited to the numbers of former and current members of the Class, average workweeks and pay periods, and average rate of hourly pay. Time and pay data for was used for Plaintiff’s pre-mediation analysis. In addition, Defendant also provided other data pertaining to Plaintiff and the Class during the relevant Class Period, including but not limited to documents reflecting wage and hour policies and practices during the Class. (Id.)

After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices and other information obtained during the exchange of informal discovery, Class Counsel were able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and the reasonably obtainable maximum monetary exposure for all claims. Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 7.)

C. Settlement

On June 25, 2024, the Parties participated in mediation with Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.), which ultimately led to a proposed settlement. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 8.) The Parties discussed at length the burdens and risks of continuing with the litigation as well as the merits of claims and defenses. (Id.) After the mediation, and the eventual settlement, the Parties then signed a long form settlement agreement (the “Agreement”). (Id.) In particular, the extreme risk posed by arbitration agreements was discussed extensively during the mediation. (Id.)

Plaintiff and Class Counsel are aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims asserted in the Action, both generally and in response to Defendant’s defenses thereto. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 9.) Plaintiff and Class Counsel have also taken into account Defendant’s agreement to enter into a Settlement that confers substantial relief upon the Class. (Id.)

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in this Agreement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable Settlement and is in the best interests of the Class. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 10.) Solely for the purpose of settling this case, the parties agree that the requirements for establishing class action certification with respect to this class have been met and are met. (Id.) If this Settlement is not approved by the Court for any reason, Defendant reserves the right to contest class certification. (Id.) This Settlement, if approved, will result in the termination of the litigation through the entry of the Judgment and the release of all Released Claims for all Class Members, including all within the class definition who have not elected to exclude themselves from the Class. (Id.)

IV. CLASS DEFINITION

The Class is defined as follows:

All persons who worked for Defendant in California as non-exempt employees during the Class Period (the “Class Period” is the period from December 27, 2021, through August 24, 2024). “Participating Class Member” means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Class portion of the Settlement. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.5, 1.9, 1.12, 1.34)

(Leviant Decl., ¶ 34 and Exhibit 1.)

V. DISCUSSION

A. The Court Should Conditionally Certify the Class for Settlement Purposes

The Class should be provisionally certified for settlement because: (1) the Class is ascertainable and numerous; (2) there exists a well-defined community of interest; and (3) a class action is the superior method of adjudication for this settlement. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super. Ct., 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012); Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435 (2000); Sav-on Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 326, 332 (2004). For purposes of this Settlement only,

Defendant stipulates to conditional certification. (Settlement ¶ 12.1.)

“The certification question is ‘essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action is legally or factually meritorious.’” Id., at 326, quoting Linder. Indeed, the certification question simply asks whether the theory of recovery advanced by the plaintiff is likely to prove amenable to class treatment. See, e.g., Jaimez v. Daiohs USA, Inc., 181 Cal. App. 4th 1286, 1298 (2010). “[I]t is also well established that trial courts should use different standards to determine the propriety of a settlement class, as opposed to a litigation class certification. Specifically, a lesser standard of scrutiny is used for settlement cases.” Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal. App. 4th 836, 859 (2003), citing Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1807 n. 19 (1996).

In view of these standards, the Class should be certified for purposes of settlement. Code Civ. Proc. § 382; Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(c).

1. The Members of the Class Are Both Ascertainable and Numerous.

Whether an ascertainable class exists turns on three factors: (1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class, and (3) the means of identifying the class members. See Miller v. Woods, 148 Cal. App. 3d 862, 873 (1983). A class is ascertainable when “it is defined ‘in terms of objective characteristics and common transactional facts’ that make ‘the ultimate identification of class members possible when that identification becomes necessary.’” Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 Cal. 5th 955, 980 (2019). The class definition is sufficiently specific to enable the Parties, Class Members, and the Court to determine the parameters of the class. See Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp., 191 Cal. App. 3d 605, 617 (1987). Here, there were about 747 Class Members, all of whom may be identified by reference to Defendant’s records. The Class is not only ascertainable, but also numerous. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 35.)

2. There Are Common Questions That Predominate Over Any Questions That May Be Unique to Individual Class Members.

The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant questions of law and fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1806; Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 473-75. A question of law or fact is common to the members of a class if it may be resolved through common proof. See, Jaimez, 181 Cal.App.4th at 1305. As for predominance, it “is a comparative

1 concept, and ‘the necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not
2 mean individual fact questions predominate.’” Sav-on, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

3 In this case, common questions include, but are not limited to: i. Whether or not Defendant paid
4 proper wages to the Class; ii. Whether or not Defendant provided meal periods to the Class; iii. Whether 5 or not Defendant provided rest periods to the Class; iv. Whether or not Defendant paid compensation
6 timely upon separation of employment to former Class Members; v. whether or not Defendant paid
7 compensation timely throughout Class Members’ employment; vi. Whether or not Defendant provided
8 accurate itemized wage statements to the Class; vii. Whether or not waiting-time penalties are available
9 to the Class for violation of California Labor Code § 203; and, viii. Whether or not Defendant engaged in 10 unlawful or unfair business practices affecting the Class in violation of California Business. (Leviant 11 Decl., ¶¶ 37-38.)

12 In the Action, Plaintiff’s claims present sufficient common issues of law and fact that 13 predominate over individual issues and warrant class certification. From their review of the 14 documentation provided, Class Counsel determined that for purposes of these claims, Defendant’s 15 policies and practices are either identical, or sufficiently similar, to raise the same questions of liability,
16 and applied to all Class Members. Because Class Members would have to prove the same issues of law 17 and fact to prevail, and because their potential legal remedies are identical, it would be preferable to 18 resolve all Class Members’ claims by means of the Settlement than to require each Class Member to 19 litigate his or her individual claims. Therefore, common questions predominate over questions that may 20 be unique to individual Class Members, and class-wide settlement is superior to any other resolution.

21 3. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of Those of the Class.

22 Typicality “requires a showing that the class representative has claims or defenses typical of the 23 class.” See, e.g., Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 1534 (2008), approved 24 by Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super. Ct., 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012). California law does not require that 25 plaintiffs have claims identical to the other class members. Rather, the test of typicality for a class 26 representative is whether other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on 27 conduct which is not unique to the named plaintiffs, and whether other class members have been injured 28 by the same course of conduct. Seastrom v. Neways, Inc., 149 Cal. App. 4th 1496, 1502 (2007).

1 In light of these standards, Plaintiff is typical of class members. Like other Class Members, 2 Defendant employed Plaintiff as an hourly employee during the Class Period, and Plaintiff claims that he 3 was subject to the same policies alleged to have impacted the entire class. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 36.) Plaintiff
4 alleges that he and other Class Members share the same claims stemming from Defendant's alleged 5 violations of the Labor Code and relevant wage order. In addition, Defendant's main defenses, including 6 its arbitration agreements and that the wage and hour policies and practices fully comply with California
7 law, apply equally to the claims of all Class Members. Thus, Plaintiff is typical of the Class.

8 4. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class.

9 Adequacy is shown where the plaintiff is represented by counsel qualified to conduct the 10 litigation and the plaintiff's interest in the litigation is not antagonistic to class members. McGhee v. Bank
11 of America, 60 Cal. App. 3d 442, 451 (1976). In other words, where the plaintiff has adequate counsel, 12 the plaintiff may represent the entire class absent any disabling conflicts of interest that might hinder the 13 plaintiff's ability to represent the class. Id. In the Action, Plaintiff has no conflicts of interest with other 14 Class Members and has agreed to place Class interests above Plaintiff's own. (Clemente Decl., ¶¶ 5-19; 15 Leviant Decl., ¶ 39.) Moreover, Plaintiff's counsel is experienced in wage and hour class litigation and 16 have no conflicts of interest with absent Class Members. (Leviant Decl., ¶¶ 21-26, 39.) Thus, this Court 17 should appoint Plaintiff as Class Representative and appoint Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel.

18 5. Proceeding as a Class Action is Superior to Individual Actions

19 Plaintiff contends that proceeding as a class action is a superior means of resolving this dispute, 20 as the Class Members and the Court will derive substantial benefits. Class certification would serve as 21 the only means to deter and redress the alleged Labor Code violations. See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. 23
22 Cal. 4th at 434. Furthermore, individual actions arising out of the same operative facts would unduly 23 burden the courts and could result in inconsistent results, which may be avoided by class certification.

24 6. The Proposed Class Notice Complies with Rule 3.766(d) and (e)

25 Notice requirements are set forth in Rules of Court, Rule 3.766. In determining the manner of 26 notice, the court must consider interests of the class, relief requested, stakes of individual class members, 27 costs of notifying class members, resources of the parties, possible prejudice to class members who do 28 not receive notice, and the res judicata effect on class members. Rules of Court, Rule 3.766(e).

1 a) The Notice Procedure Satisfies Due Process

2 The proposed procedure for distributing the Proposed Notice is robust and meets the requirement
3 that it have “a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members.” Cartt v.
4 Sup. Ct., 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 974 (1975). There is no statutory or due process requirement that all class
5 members receive actual notice, but in this matter, the Class Members will receive direct notice. Here, the 6 proposed procedure includes safeguards, including, but not limited to, mailing notice to Class Members’
7 last known addresses; skip tracing; searches for address changes; and the re-mailing of returned notices
8 to any forwarding addresses. This manner of giving notice complies with Rule of Court 3.766(c)
9 because it provides a reasonable chance that Class Notice will reach most if not all Class Members.

10 b) The Notice is Accurate and Informative

11 The proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement should be approved for dissemination to the 12 Class Members because its content complies with Rule of Court 3.766(d) in that it contains a brief
13 explanation of the case, including the basic contentions or denials of the Parties, detailed information
14 about Class Members’ rights to be excluded from the Settlement and object to the Settlement; a 15 statement that the Settlement will bind all members who do not timely opt-out. Thus, the Notice also 16 satisfies Rule of Court 3.769(f) regarding the contents of settlement notices.

17 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. 3 NEWBERG § 8.39. It
18 summarizes the proceedings and the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement, in an informative 19 and coherent manner, in compliance with the Manual for Complex Litigation (“MANUAL”), (2d Ed.
20 1993), which states that “the notice should be accurate, objective, and understandable to Class Members .
21 . . .” MANUAL, § 30.211. It makes clear that the Settlement does not constitute an admission of liability
22 by Defendant and recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits. It also states that the final 23 settlement approval decision has yet to be made. Accordingly, the Notice complies with the standards of 24 fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

25 B. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Settlement Because It Is a Fair,
26 Adequate, and Reasonable Compromise of Disputed Wage Claims

27 California courts favor settlement. See, e.g., Stambaugh v. Superior Court, 62 Cal. App. 3d 231, 28 236 (1976). Unlike most settlements, class action settlements involve a court approval process that exists

1 to prevent fraud, collusion, and unfairness to class members. Malibu Outrigger Bd. of Governors v.
2 Superior Court, 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579 (1980). For the reasons discussed below, this Court
3 should preliminarily approve the Settlement, allow the Parties to give notice to the Class as proposed,
4 and schedule a final fairness and final approval hearing.

5 1. Class Action Settlements Are Subject to Review and Approval.

6 Any settlement of class litigation must be reviewed and approved by the presiding court. Rules
7 of Court, Rule 3.769(a). Approval occurs in two steps: (1) an early (preliminary) review and (2) a 8 subsequent (final) review after notice has been distributed to the class members. The Preliminary 9 Approval Hearing and Final Approval Hearing coincide with these two steps. The present motion seeks 10 preliminary approval and the setting of a Final Approval Hearing.

11 To evaluate a settlement, the trial court must receive “basic” information about the nature and 12 magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the consideration being paid for the 13 release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.
14 App. 4th 116, 133 (2008). However, the record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum 15 theoretical amount that the class could recover. Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, 16 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 409 (2010).

17 2. The Parties Reached the Settlement Through Arms’ Length Negotiations
18 Between Experienced Counsel with the Assistance of a Highly Qualified 19 Mediator After Sufficient Data Was Exchanged to Evaluate Settlement.

20 A settlement is presumptively fair where it is reached through arms’ length bargaining, based on 21 sufficient discovery and investigation to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, counsel is 22 experienced in similar litigation, and the percentage of objectors is small.² Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802;
23 In re Microsoft I-V Cases, 135 Cal. App. 4th 706, 723 (2006); 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v.
24 Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1146 (2000). In exercising the power to approve a settlement, 25 the overriding concern is to ensure that a proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable,” Dunk, 26

27 ² Because the fourth prerequisite for the presumption to arise cannot be addressed until the final 28 approval hearing, only the first three prerequisites are relevant at this preliminary stage of the settlement approval process.

1 at 1801, considering “the complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class
2 action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the 3 state of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant,
4 and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. Id. These factors require balancing, are 5 non-exhaustive, and, as such, trial courts should tailor the factors considered to each case and give due 6 regard to “what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Id.

7 Here, the Settlement resulted from thorough, arms’ length negotiations between experienced
8 counsel with the assistance of a skilled mediator, Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.). (Leviant Decl., ¶¶ 8-10.)
9 Plaintiff obtained data from Defendant and then carefully reviewed that information. Counsel for 10 Plaintiff also examined relevant policies and interviewed witnesses in detail about their work experiences
11 and Defendant’s practices.

12 Based on the review of data, Plaintiff estimated potential exposure and then estimated risk factors 13 to adjust the reasonable expected outcome. The investigation that Plaintiff’s counsel conducted was 14 sufficient to provide them with enough information to intelligently evaluate the estimated exposure for 15 purposes of negotiating the Settlement in view of the risks discussed below and was sufficient to allow 16 this Court to do the same. See, e.g., Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 245 (2001).

17 3. The Settlement Represents a Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable Compromise
18 of Class Members’ Claims Based on Defendant’s Estimated Liability
19 Exposure Given the Risks Continued Litigation Would Entail.

20 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 21 trial and does not have to provide 100% of damages sought to be fair and reasonable. “In the context of a 22 settlement agreement, the test is not the maximum amount plaintiffs might have obtained at trial on the 23 complaint, but rather whether the settlement is reasonable under all of the circumstances.” Wershba, 91
24 Cal. App. 4th at 250. Accordingly, because settlements involve compromise, even one that provides for 25 substantially narrower relief than would likely be obtained if the suit were successfully litigated can be 26 reasonable given that “the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each 27 side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.” Id.

28 With respect to the claims asserted on behalf of the Class, there are serious risks that support this

1 compromise amount. These risks include, but are not limited to: (i) the risk that Plaintiff would be unable 2 to establish liability for unpaid wages, see Duran v. US Bank Nat'l Ass'n, 59 Cal. 4th 1, 39 & n. 33
3 (2014) ("Duran"); (ii) the risk that Defendant's meal and rest period policies might not support class
4 certification or a class-wide liability finding; (iii) the risk that uncertainties about the legality of 5 Defendant's policies and practices could preclude class-wide awards of statutory penalties; (iv) the risk
6 that individual differences between Class Members could be construed as pertaining to liability and not 7 just damages; (v) the risk that any penalty award under PAGA could be reduced by the Court in its 8 discretion; (vi) the risk that lengthy trial or appellate litigation could ensue; (vi) the risk that violation 9 rates could prove lower than expected; and, (vii) the extreme risk that arbitration agreements would 10 preclude class treatment. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 16.) These risks are non-exhaustive.

11 In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation, the settlement amount reflects a fair and 12 reasonable recovery for the Class Members. (Leviant Decl. ¶¶ 13-20.) The settlement amount is, of 13 course, a compromise figure. (Leviant Decl. ¶ 17.) By necessity it took into account risks related to 14 liability, damages, and the defenses asserted by Defendant. (Id.) Moreover, each Class Member will be 15 given the opportunity to opt-out of the Settlement, allowing those who feel they have claims that are 16 greater than the benefits they can receive under this Settlement to pursue their own claims. (Id.) For the 17 approximately 747 members of the Class, the average gross benefit is $468.54 per class member, and the 18 estimated average net recovery for each Class Member would be approximately $226.68. (Id.) Given 19 that Defendant could challenge certification and liability, this is the best result that could have been 20 achieved in settlement. Moreover, a Class Member who worked a greater number of workweeks will 21 receive a larger Settlement share than a Class Member who worked for a shorter time during the class
22 period. (Id.)

23 After analyzing the claims in this matter, Plaintiff has concluded that the Gross Settlement
24 Amount of $355,000.00 is about 97.22% of the $360,006.24 estimate of risk-adjusted recovery
25 (excluding interest) at this stage in the litigation. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 18.) This assessment is based on a 26 carefully constructed model of the current fair value of the case, using estimated risks, average wage
27 rates, numbers of employees, and the amount of time covered by the class period. (Id.)

- 28 • A reasonably estimated exposure for unpaid off-the-clock wages was calculated, with the

1 assistance of an expert, to be approximately $51,039.50. However, with the high risk factor
2 discounts for certification and liability proof, the value of that claim is estimated by 3 Plaintiff's counsel to be approximately $4,083.16, assuming certification probability of 20%
4 and merits success at 40%. The off-the-clock time resulted from employees having to 5 perform cleanup tasks after clock-out times were recorded, and from waiting to start their 6 shifts. Here, a \$4,083.16 exposure has a value of about 8% of its maximum, given a likelihood of success on both certification and the merits, which is an approximation of the chain probability of certification multiplied by merits chances: $0.2 \times 0.4 = 0.08$. Arbitration agreements pose a very high risk for this claim. This theory of recovery also has a high degree of risk because it depends on Class Member estimates of the frequency and duration and is testimony dependent.

- 7 • A reasonably estimated exposure for rest break violations over the class period was 8 calculated at $152,595.00, but with chances of certification and proof of liability (20% and 9 20% respectively) for a risk-adjusted exposure of $6,103.80. This claim is based entirely on 10 class member testimonials that rest breaks were sometimes missed due to work demands, 11 Plaintiff asserted value for settlement purposes, while understanding that this theory carries the potential for high risk given that employees were often allowed to determine when to take rest breaks. Arbitration agreements pose a very high risk for this claim. The exposure assumes about a quarter of the class at any one time missed a rest break every single week.
- 12 • A reasonably calculated exposure for meal break violations over the class period was 13 calculated at $76,297.50, with chances of certification and liability risks (30% and 30% 14 respectively) resulting in a risk-adjusted exposure of $6,866.78. This exposure is based upon 15 assumed violations from class member testimony, given that the records overwhelmingly show identical, 30-minute meal periods for all class members. Employee choice is a serious issue in the context of a meal period claim. So long as an employee has the opportunity to take a lawful meal period, an employee can choose to take it late, cut it short, or skip it.
Arbitration agreements pose a very high risk for this claim.
- 16 • The risk-adjusted penalty recovery for Labor Code § 203 penalties was estimated to be 17 approximately $64,921.50, on a maximum exposure of $1,082,025.00 (with certification and 18 merits success chances of 20% and 30% respectively, based on all theories of unpaid wages, adjusted for the additional risk of needing to prove other elements in addition to the underlying wage claim). The need to show a knowing and intentional violation constitutes an additional risk factor.
- 19 • The risk-adjusted penalty recovery for wage statement penalties were estimated to be 20 approximately $23,706.00, on a maximum exposure of $395,100.00 (with certification and 21 merits success chances of 20% and 30% respectively, based on all theories of unpaid wages, adjusted for the additional risk of needing to prove other elements in addition to the 22 underlying wage claim). The value of this claim was just dealt a severe blow by the recent California Supreme Court decision of Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc. (May 6, 23 2024), which significantly strengthened the good faith defense to Section 226 penalties.
- 24 • Performing risk-adjusted valuations for all claims yields a total value in the range of $105,681.24, excluding PAGA.³

26
27 ³ It is difficult to assign specific percentages to future events, but it does provide a specific method 28 for attempting to reduce the concept of "very high risk" or "high risk" to a quantifiable amount.
Certification of a claim is typically a binary event. One does not obtain a 20% certification; a claim is either certified or it is not. But the current expected value is best quantified by applying a risk reduction,

- PAGA penalties exposure was calculated to be $1,695,500. But, assuming issues with proof and cooperation of aggrieved employees, along with the Court’s power to reduce penalties, the realistic exposure was calculated to be $254,325.00.

(See, Leviant Decl., ¶ 18.)

This result here is fully supportable as reasonable. First, it is important to recognize the wilfulness finding required for Labor Code §§ 203 and 226 is challenging to establish. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 19.) Second, rest break and meal period claims have been challenging to certify for many years, even after Brinker. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 19.) Arbitration agreements present a very high risk to all class claims. The Judicial Council’s Class Certification in California: SECOND INTERIM REPORT FROM THE STUDY OF CALIFORNIA CLASS ACTION LITIGATION - FEBRUARY 2010 (“Second Interim Report”), at page 5, states that “less than a quarter of disposed cases in the study sample were certified, either through a litigated motion for certification or as part of a classwide settlement agreement.” See, Second Interim Report, at 5 (emphasis added).⁴ That “or” is significant. The certification rates identified in the study of less than 25% includes both contested certifications and settlement certifications, which are the majority of certifications. In other words, one must assume in any wage and hour class action prior to certification that a contested certification motion will have a success rate of well under 25%, and probably closer to 10% as a starting point for risk evaluation. The facts of each case have significant bearing on these percentages. But it cannot be disputed that certification is an exceptionally difficult procedural hurdle to successfully overcome. Thus, it is not unreasonable to start from the proposition that a pre-certification settlement that is 10% to 15% of the maximum plausible exposure is a valid starting point for valuation. If roughly 10% of class actions are certified on a contested basis, then, on average, 90% of the time a class will not be certified and the result for the class is zero dollars.

Here, the estimated certification probabilities are above the average rate at which cases were certified in California over the study years, based upon data available through the California Courts based on the total experience of counsel. The numbers explain with math what can also be described conceptually in words.

⁴ The report is available at <https://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/classaction-certification.pdf> (last viewed March 12, 2024).

1 websites. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 19.) In sum, well under 20% of all cases filed as proposed class actions are 2 ultimately certified by way of a contested motion. (Id.) Here, the recovery falls within the expected
3 outcome under the likelihood of success metric. (Id.) It would also be appropriate to evaluate the result 4 by examining only the premium wages at issue (approximately $279,932.00, with no risk reduction),
5 excluding penalties and interest.⁵ This Settlement achieves the goals of the litigation.

6 4. The Proposed Method for Allocating Settlement Funds Is Fair.

7 The proposed method of allocating the Settlement Fund to Class Members also is fair and 8 reasonable. The Settlement Fund is to be allocated between all Class Members, based on time worked by 9 the Class Member during the Class Period, in relation to the total amount of time worked by all 10 participating Class Members. This proposed method is fair and reasonable because each Class Member's 11 actual potential damages vary based on the number of workweeks he or she worked (e.g., Lab. Code § 12 226.7 provides for an extra hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each violation, resulting 13 in a higher potential damage when a higher number of incidents occur). A Class Member who worked a 14 greater number of work weeks will receive a larger payment under the Settlement than a Class Member 15 who worked for a shorter amount of time. (Leviant Decl., ¶¶ 13, 17.)

16 5. The Proposed Enhancement Award to Plaintiff Warrants Approval.

17 The proposed enhancement of $5,000.00 to Plaintiff is intended to recognize substantial initiative
18 and significant efforts on behalf of the Class. Courts routinely approve incentive awards to compensate 19 named plaintiffs for the services they provide and the risks they incur during class action litigation, often 20 in much higher amounts than that sought here. Factors considered when awarding an incentive include 21 the actions the plaintiff has taken to protect the class, the degree to which the class has benefitted, the 22 amount of time and effort the plaintiff expended in the litigation, the risk to the class representative in 23

24 ⁵ The exclusion of interest and penalties from the fairness evaluation is proper because, first, PAGA
25 penalties are discretionary (see Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2) (the court in its discretion "may award a lesser 26 amount than the maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part...")), and, second, courts evaluate 27 the strength of a proposed settlement without taking potential penalties or interest into consideration. See
28 Rodriguez v. West Publishing Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 955 (9th Cir. 2000); see also Miller v. CEVA Logistics U.S.A., Inc., 2015 WL 729638, at *7 (E.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2015) (court utilized calculation of a defendant's exposure exclusive of interest and penalties to determine whether the settlement fell within the range of possible approval).

1 commencing suit (financial and otherwise), the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered, the 2 duration of the litigation, and the personal benefit (or lack thereof) enjoyed by the plaintiff as a result of 3 the litigation. Clark v. Am. Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal. App. 4th 785, 804 (2009). Here, Plaintiff
4 contributed time to the prosecution of this matter, including assistance prior to the mediation with 5 information and substantial time conferring with counsel over the course of this litigation and before it
6 was filed. (Lopez Decl., ¶¶ 5-19; Leviant Decl., ¶ 32.) The enhancement also recognizes risks Plaintiff
7 took to be personally liable for costs regardless of the success of the litigation, as well as the personal risk
8 of facing intrusive discovery and potential disclosure to future employers that Plaintiff sued an employer, 9 making future employment less certain.

10 6. The Proposed Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs Is Also Fair, Adequate, 11 and Reasonable and Merits Preliminary Approval.

12 The California Supreme Court removed any lingering doubt about the use of the percentage of 13 the fund method to award attorney's fees in California Courts. Laffitte v. Robert Half Intern. Inc., 1 Cal.
14 5th 480, 503 (2016).⁶ Thus, this Court may and, pursuant to Laffitte, should award fees to Plaintiff's 15 counsel based upon the percentage of the fund methodology.

16 Setting Laffitte aside, whether the once-again-confirmed percentage of the fund method or the 17 lodestar method is used, the outcome is roughly the same: "[F]ee awards in class actions average around 18 one-third of the recovery' regardless of 'whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used.'" Amaro v. Anaheim Arena Mgmt., LLC, 69 Cal. App. 5th 521 (2021). This is also consistent with 19 counsels' experience in class cases. Here, Plaintiff's attorneys intend to request attorneys' fees of up to 20 $116,666.67 (33 and 1/3% of the GSA), and costs capped at $14,000.00 (which includes payment for 21 mediation, filing fees, service of process fees, and other standard expenses). (Leviant Decl., ¶ 31.) Given 22 the efforts and risks involved in this case, as well as the results achieved, these amounts are within the 23 range of reasonableness and warrant preliminary approval.

26
27 ⁶ The Supreme Court also corrected the misconception that Dunk should be viewed as expressing 28 doubt about the use of the percentage method: "The Dunk court, while finding the percentage method inapplicable to the settlement before it due to the lack of a readily valued common fund, did not purport to bar its usage generally in common fund cases." Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 501.

1 7. The Proposed Payment to the Administrator Is Fair and Reasonable

2 ILYM Group Inc., which has been selected due to its competitive bid, states that administration
3 can be performed for a flat rate of $8,550.00. In counsel’s experience, based on similar wage-and-hour
4 actions, an estimated cost of $8,550.00 is a fair and reasonable amount for administration fees and should 5 be preliminarily approved, and it is below the Parties’ original estimated cost of $10,000 to administer
6 the Settlement. (Leviant Decl., ¶ 33.) ILYM has also confirmed its capabilities and security protocols in 7 the accompanying declaration.

8 8. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

9 The ultimate decision as to the amount of penalties is always up to the discretion of the Court.
10 Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) states: “In any action by an aggrieved employee seeking recovery of a civil 11 penalty available under subdivision (a) or (f), a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil 12 penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do 13 otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.”

14 Prior to the issuance of Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc., 72 Cal. App. 5th 56 (2021), the only sources 15 of persuasive guidance as to how to assess the reasonableness of a PAGA allocation were found in 16 federal court decisions. In their view, a PAGA allocation, even if a small portion of the total settlement, 17 could be reasonable if the settlement of the wage and hour claims is robust and serves the deterrent
18 purpose of PAGA. O’Connor v. Uber Technologies, Inc., 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1135 (N.D. Cal. 2016)
19 (“By providing fair compensation to the class members as employees and substantial monetary relief, a 20 settlement not only vindicates the rights of class members as employees, but may have a deterrent effect 21 upon the defendant employer and other employers, an objective of PAGA.”). Moniz provided explicit
22 confirmation that this was an appropriate yardstick by which to measure reasonableness of a PAGA
23 settlement. Moniz, 72 Cal. App. 5th at 77. Moniz, in agreeing with federal courts that have considered 24 how to evaluate a PAGA settlement, concluded that the class action factors are appropriately considered,
25 along with a consideration of whether the settlement furthers “PAGA’s purposes to remediate present 26 labor law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws.”

27 As to the first set of elements (the class-type analysis), it is embodied in Plaintiff’s discussion of 28 the adequacy of the settlement generally. Here, the expense, complexity and likely duration of future

1 litigation was to some extent an unknown. However, what is certain is that to adequately establish the 2 violations that would support a substantial penalty, tremendous time and expense would be invested.

3 The second element (the PAGA purposes element) is also satisfied here. As held by Moniz,
4 PAGA's purposes include (1) remediation of present labor law violations, (2) deterrence of future
5 violations, and (3) maximization of enforcement of state labor laws. Here the allocation of a major 6 portion of settlement funds to class members still advances the goal of labor law violation remediation.
7 The allocation of a major portion of settlement funds to class members also deters future violations. This 8 is a $350,000.00 settlement, a good result. Deterrence is fulfilled. Finally, allocation of a major portion 9 of settlement funds to class members still advances the goal of enforcement of state labor law. This 10 settlement is, by definition, a response to alleged violations of labor laws, balanced against risks.

11 In addition, there is no evidence that a court or a commissioner had informed Defendant that its 12 conduct violated the Labor Code. Amaral v. Cintas Corp., 163 Cal. App. 4th 1157, 1209 (2008); Willis v.
13 Xerox Bus. Servs., LLC, 2013 WL 6053831, *7-8 (E.D. Cal. 2013). And in Cotter, the court found a 14 significant reduction of the PAGA claim would be appropriate because "[t]his does not appear to be a 15 case where a company has deliberately sought to evade the law." Cotter, 176 F. Supp. 3d at 941.

16 Finally, the PAGA allocation is fair. The LWDA is receiving $26,250.00. The Class is 17 receiving, net, an estimated $169,333.33 for the releases of all other claims. While the proportion is 18 tipped slightly in favor of the employees, the allocation is not unfair because it satisfies California's wage 19 and hour policies.

20 VI. THE COURT SHOULD SCHEDULE A FINAL FAIRNESS HEARING

21 The last step in the settlement approval process is the fairness hearing, where the Court makes a 22 final determination about the propriety of settlement. Plaintiff requests that the fairness hearing in this 23 case be scheduled for about 130 days after issuance of the Court's Order granting preliminary approval 24 of the Settlement. Under the Settlement, the Defendant will have 14 days to provide the data to the 25 Settlement Administrator, which will then have 14 calendar days to mail out class notice. Class
26 Members have 45 days after mailing of the notice to submit exclusions or objections (with a 14-day 27 extension available for re-mailed notices). Therefore, Plaintiff proposes a final approval hearing 28 scheduled for the first available hearing date that is about 130 days after preliminary approval is granted.

1 VII. CONCLUSION

2 For all the foregoing reasons, because the Class meets the requirements for certification, because 3 the Settlement bears all requisite indicia of fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy, and because the 4 proposed notice procedure and forms comport with Rule 3.766 and due process, this Court should grant
5 this Motion for Preliminary Approval, adopt the [Proposed] Order Granting Preliminary Approval of 6 Class Action Settlement submitted herewith, and schedule a Final Fairness Hearing.

7 Respectfully submitted,
