JOSE DE JESUS LEPE, on behalf of himself and current and former other aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

GLASSFAB TEMPERING SERVICES, INC.;
and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.:

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF JOSE DE JESUS LEPE'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff JOSE DE JESUS LEPE, ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants GLASSFAB TEMPERING SERVICES, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive, and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all

1 hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure 2 to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period 3 premium wages; statutory penalties for failure to timely pay earned wages during employment; 4 statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties 5 in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon 6 separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor 7 and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor 8 Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and 9 others aggrieved.

10 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 12 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 13 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 14 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 15 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-16 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 17 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 18 California, including but not limited to San Joaquin County, at 1448 Mariani Court, Tray, 19 California 95376.

20 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 21 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 22 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 23 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

24 III. PARTIES

25 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 26 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 27 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 28 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will

1 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 2 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 3 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 4 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Robert Joaquin from in 5 or around July 18, 2022, until on or about September 1, 2022.

6 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant GLASSFAB 7 TEMPERING SERVICES, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is 8 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times
9 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant GLASSFAB TEMPERING 10 SERVICES, INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and 11 hour practices or policies. Defendant GLASSFAB TEMPERING SERVICES, INC. operates in 12 San Joaquin County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in San Joaquin County, 13 including but not limited to, at 1448 Mariani Court, Tray, California 95376.

14 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 15 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 16 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 17 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 18 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

19 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
20 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 21 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 22 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 23 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 24 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

25 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 26 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 27 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 28 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously

1 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 2 complaint.

3 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 5 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CIVIL PENALTIES AND WAGES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS

8 GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

9 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

10 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

11 11. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial 12 PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 13 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, and Sections 14 and 15 of the applicable Wage 14 Orders.

15 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 16 Labor Code:

17 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 21 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 22 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 28 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 2 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 3 not limited to:

4 (a) Defendant automatically deducted up to an hour each workday and attributed that 5 time to a meal break despite that Defendant routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and other current 6 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees meal breaks and/or duty-7 free meal breaks.

8 16. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 9 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 10 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 11 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 12 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 13 Wage Order.

14 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
15 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
16 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 17 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 18 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 19 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

20 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 21 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 22 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

23 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) 24 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 25 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-26 one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve 27 (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular 28 rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

1 19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 2 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours 3 worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

4 (a) Defendant automatically deducted up to an hour each workday and attributed that 5 time to a meal break despite that Defendant routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and other current
6 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees meal breaks and/or duty-7 free meal breaks.

8 20. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 9 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 10 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 11 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 12 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 13 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 14 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 15 sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

16 21. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 17 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other 18 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 19 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

20 22. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 21 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 22 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 23 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 1 at §11; Brinker 24 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 25 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 26 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 27 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 28 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal

1 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 2 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

3 23. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 4 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 5 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 6 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §11.

7 24. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 8 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-9 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 10 limited to:

11 (a) Defendant automatically deducted up to an hour each workday and attributed that 12 time to a meal break despite that Defendant routinely failed to provide Plaintiff and other current 13 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees meal breaks and/or duty-14 free meal breaks.

15 25. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 16 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-17 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
18 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
19 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code 20 section 226.7.

21 26. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff 22 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 23 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them 24 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

25 27. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 26 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 27 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 28 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the

1 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, 2 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following 3 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 4 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 5 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

6 28. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 7 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-8 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, and/or meal period 9 premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' aforementioned policies, 10 practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and other current and former 11 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned wages within the 12 applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

13 29. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 14 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 15 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 16 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 17 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 18 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 19 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable 20 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 21 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 22 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 23 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 24 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 25 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

26 30. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff 27 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 28 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, and/or meal period premium wages) rendered

1 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' 2 wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226.

3 31. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 4 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 5 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 6 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

7 32. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay 8 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 9 all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, and/or meal period premium 10 wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee's termination and/or 11 resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

12 33. Defendants' violations of Wage Order 1 constituted violations of Labor Code 13 section 1198, which prohibits employment under conditions of labor that violate the Wage Orders.

14 34. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved 15 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 16 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 17 Labor Code section 2699.3.

18 35. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 19 Code section 2699.3. On December 21, 2022, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the 20 LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific 21 provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 22 support the violations alleged.

23 36. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 24 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 25 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 26 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 27 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

28 37. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, 512, one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 558] and any unpaid wages.

d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1] and any unpaid wages.

38. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations

1 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 2 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

3 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 4 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 5 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 6 appropriate
