DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

COMES NOW plaintiff NICHOLAS BRUCE MARES (“Plaintiff”), as aggrieved employees, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys’ General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against AMAZON.COM SERVICES, LLC, a Washington limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“AMAZON”), and LAST PIECE LOGISTICS, LLC, a California limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“LAST PIECE,” and together with “AMAZON” and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

3. Venue is proper in Fresno County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Fresno County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiffs, or some of them, and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees in Fresno County, and because Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved

1 Employees in Fresno County.

2 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 3 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 4 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 5 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code 6 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 7 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 8 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

9 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 10 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
11 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 12 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

13 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 14 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 15 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 16 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 17 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

18 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 19 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 20 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 21 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

22 8. On or around December 14, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 23 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 24 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 25 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 2 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 3 calendar days of the December 14, 2022 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 4 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

5 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

6 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 7 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 8 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 9 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 10 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 11 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 12 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 13 limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to 14 clock in for all that time, to complete post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods 15 and continue working, to make phone calls or drive off the clock, and/or go through security 16 screenings and/or temperature checks off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, 17 including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, and other forms of remuneration into the regular 18 rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was 19 earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee 20 time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, 21 and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay to the detriment of Employee and other aggrieved 22 employees.

23 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 24 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 25 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 26 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to come early 27 to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to complete post-shift 28 tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to make phone calls or

1 drive off the clock, and/or go through security screenings and/or temperature checks off the clock; 2 failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, and 3 other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was 4 worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate 5 of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries 6 to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay to the 7 detriment of Employee and other aggrieved employees.

8 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 9 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 10 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 11 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 12 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 13 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 14 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 15 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 16 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 17 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws

18 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 19 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 20 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 21 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 22 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 23 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 24 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 25 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

26 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 27 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 28 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross

1 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 2 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 3 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 4 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 5 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

6 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
7 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
9 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 10 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 11 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiffs and other 12 Aggrieved Employees.

13 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 14 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 15 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime 16 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 17 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

18 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 19 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 20 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 21 and applicable Wage Orders.

22 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 23 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 24 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred in direct consequence 25 of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by 26 Labor Code 2802.

27 ///

28 ///

1 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 4 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 5 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 6 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 7 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 8 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

9 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 10 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 11 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 12 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 13 all other Aggrieved Employees.

14 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 15 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 16 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 17 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 18 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 19 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

20 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 21 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 22 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 23 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 24 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 25 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 26 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 27 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 28 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty.

25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

12 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

14 33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 15 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

16 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

17 34. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 18 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 19 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 20 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 21 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

22 35. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 23 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 24 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 25 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 26 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 27 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 28 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

1 36. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 2 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 3 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 4 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor 5 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 6 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee 7 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 8 Code section 204.

9 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

10 37. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code 11 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 12 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 13 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 14 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 15 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 16 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 17 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

18 38. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 19 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 20 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 21 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 22 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

23 39. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 24 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

25 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 26 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 27 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 28 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the

1 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 2 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 3 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 4 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

5 41. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 6 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
7 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period 8 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 9 period for each subsequent violation.

10 Violation of Labor Code § 558

11 42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 12 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 13 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 14 penalty as follows:

- 15 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 16 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 17 to recover underpaid wages;
- 18 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 19 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 20 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- 21 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

22 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 23 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 24 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 25 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 26 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business 27 as" names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance 28 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

44. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

45. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, or papers of the person.”

46. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

47. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units earned.”

48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any

1 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 2 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

3 49. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 4 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 5 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
6 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
7 under Labor Code section 1174.

8 50. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 9 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to
