Attorneys for Plaintiff OFELIA MIRANDA DE QUIROZ, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF ORANGE

OFELIA MIRANDA DE QUIROZ, on behalf of herself and other aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

COMFORT CALIFORNIA, INC.; and DOES 1
to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 30-2023-01308454-CU-OE-CXC

Judge Peter Wilson X-101

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF OFELIA MIRANDA DE QUIROZ'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff OFELIA MIRANDA DE QUIROZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants COMFORT CALIFORNIA, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage; failure to pay overtime wages for overtime hours worked; failure

1 to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period
2 premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or 3 pay rest period premium wages; statutory penalties for failure to timely pay earned wages during 4 employment; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting
5 time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due 6 upon separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the 7 Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 8 Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, 9 and others aggrieved.

10 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 12 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 13 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
14 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars
15 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-16 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 17 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 18 California, including but not limited to Orange County, at 616 W. Convention Way, Anaheim, 19 California 92802.

20 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 21 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 22 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 23 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

24 III. PARTIES

25 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 26 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 27 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 28 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will

1 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
2 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 3 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 4 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or 5 around January 2022 until on or about April 25, 2022.

6 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant COMFORT
7 CALIFORNIA, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing
8 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant 9 hereto were persons acting on behalf of COMFORT CALIFORNIA, INC. in the establishment of,
10 or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant 11 COMFORT CALIFORNIA, INC. operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and 12 aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 616 W. Convention 13 Way, Anaheim, California 92802.

14 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 15 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 16 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 17 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 18 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

19 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
20 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued
21 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 22 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 23 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 24 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

25 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
26 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 27 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 28 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously

1 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 2 complaint.

3 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 5 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CIVIL PENALTIES AND WAGES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS

8 GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

9 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

10 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

11 11. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial 12 PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 13 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197 and Sections 14 and 15 of the applicable Wage 14 Orders.

15 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
16 Labor Code:

17 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 21 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 22 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 28 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum
2 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 3 not limited to:

4 (a) Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
5 exempt employees who worked as housekeepers are required to load their cleaning carts with 6 supplies prior to being permitted to clock-in for their start shifts.

7 16. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 8 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 9 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 10 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 11 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
12 Wage Order.

13 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
14 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
15 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
16 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 17 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either
18 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

19 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 20 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 21 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

22 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) 23 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 24 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-
25 one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve 26 (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular 27 rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any 28 seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

27 Labor Code section 510.

28 19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours
2 worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

3 (a) Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
4 exempt employees who worked as housekeepers are required to load their cleaning carts with
5 supplies prior to being permitted to clock-in for their start shifts.

6 20. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
7 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
8 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 9 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
10 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday,
11 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed
12 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code
13 sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

14 21. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 15 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other
16 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 17 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

18 22. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 19 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 20 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 21 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 5 at §11; Brinker
22 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 23 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
24 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
25 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
26 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 27 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 28 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

1 23. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 2 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay
3 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code
4 section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §11.

5 24. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant
6 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-7 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 8 limited to:

9 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
10 non-exempt employees to remain on Defendant's premises during their meal breaks resulting meal 11 periods that are on-duty.

12 25. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 13 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
14 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
15 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
16 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code 17 section 226.7.

18 26. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
19 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 20 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them
21 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

22 27. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other
24 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 25 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26 28. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
27 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor
28 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10

1 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more
2 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so
3 on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code
4 section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of 5 each work period. Wage Order 5 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates
6 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM
7 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 8 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

9 29. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer
10 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday
11 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; 12 Wage Order 5 at § 12.

13 30. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 14 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 15 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 16 limited to:

17 (a) Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-18 exempt employees who worked as housekeepers were not provided with duty-free rest breaks of a 19 net ten (10) minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof due to the room
20 cleaning schedule and quota required by Defendants.

21 31. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
22 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
23 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
24 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor
25 Code section 226.7.

26 32. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
27 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 28 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with

1 rest periods in compliance with California law.

2 33. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 3 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 4 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 5 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 6 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day,
7 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following 8 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 9 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 10 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

11 34. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 12 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-13 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period 14 premium wages and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204.
15 Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay
16 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees'
17 their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

18 35. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 19 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 20 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 21 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 22 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 23 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 24 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable
25 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 26 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 27 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 28 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

36. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226.

37. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

38. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203..

39. Defendants’ violations of Wage Order 5 constituted violations of Labor Code section 1198, which prohibits employment under conditions of labor that violate the Wage Orders.

40. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

41. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code section 2699.3. On December 13, 2022, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

43. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197 beginning one (1) year preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, 512, one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 558] and any unpaid wages.

d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1] and any unpaid wages.

44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

1 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HERSELF AND ON OTHER
2 AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

3 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

4 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and 5 the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

6 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 7 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 8 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

9 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 10 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 11 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 12 appropriate
