[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

COMES NOW plaintiff JACKIE ESSARY (“Plaintiff”), as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys’ General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against COMMUNITY CORPORATION OF SANTA MONICA, a nonprofit corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“COMMUNITY CORPORATION OF SANTA MONICA” and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff, or some of them, and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants

1 employ numerous Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

2 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 3 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 4 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 5 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
6 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 7 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 8 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

9 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 10 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
11 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 12 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

13 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 14 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 15 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 16 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 17 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

18 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 19 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 20 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 21 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

22 8. On or around December 9, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 23 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 24 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 25 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

26 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 27 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65)

1 calendar days of the December 9, 2022 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 2 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

3 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

4 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 5 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 6 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 7 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 8 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 9 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 10 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 11 limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to 12 clock in for all that time, to suffer under Employer's control due to long lines for clocking in, to 13 complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for 14 meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, and/or safety equipment off the 15 clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock, and/or 16 go through security screenings and/or temperature checks off the clock; failing to include all forms 17 of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask 18 allowances, gift cards and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods 19 where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of 20 calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or 21 manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay 22 instead of overtime pay to the detriment of Employee and other aggrieved employees.

23 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 24 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 25 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 26 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to remain on-27 call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift

1 tasks after clocking out (including answering calls from dispatch and others), to clock out for meal 2 periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to 3 attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental 4 rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours 5 than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and 6 failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

7 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
8 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 9 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 10 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 11 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 12 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 13 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 14 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 15 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 16 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws

17 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 18 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 19 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 20 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 21 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 22 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 23 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 24 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

25 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
26 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 27 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross

1 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 2 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 3 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 4 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 5 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

6 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
7 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
9 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 10 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 11 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 12 Aggrieved Employees.

13 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
14 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 15 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
16 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 17 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

18 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 19 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 20 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 21 and applicable Wage Orders.

22 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 23 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 24 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for mileage and/or 25 gas costs incurred in driving personal vehicles for work-related purposes in direct consequence of 26 the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by 27 Labor Code 2802.

1 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft
3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
4 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 5 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 6 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 7 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants
8 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

9 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 10 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 11 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 12 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 13 all other Aggrieved Employees.

14 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 15 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 16 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 17 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 18 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 19 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

20 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
21 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 22 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 23 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 24 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 25 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 26 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 27

1 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 2 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

3 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 4 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 5 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 6 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 7 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
8 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 9 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 10 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

11 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 12 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 13 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 14 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 15 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 16 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 17 economic liberty.

18 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 19 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 20 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 21 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

11 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

13 32. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the

15 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

16 33. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 17 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 18 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor

27 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

35. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

38. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total

- 16 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and 17 for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 18 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- 19 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 20 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in 21 addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- 22 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 23 employee."

24 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 25 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 26 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 27 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the

1 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business 2 as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance 3 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

4 43. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
5 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
6 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
7 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 8 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

9 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

10 44. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 11 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 12 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 13 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 14 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 15 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 16 or papers of the person.”

17 45. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 18 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 22 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 23 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable

24 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 25 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 26 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 27 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units

1 earned.”

2 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully

6 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

7 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 8 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 9 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
10 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
11 under Labor Code section 1174.

12 49. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 13 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 14 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 15 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

16 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1
