1 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for preliminary settlement
2 approval under California law and falls within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, Plaintiff 3 respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement.

4 II. FACTS AND PROCEDURE

5 A. Brief Overview of the Litigation

6 On December 28, 2022 Plaintiff files a putative class action complaint entitled Danielle
7 Ervin, et al. v. Welcome Sacramento LLC, et al., Sacramento County Superior Court No. 34-2022-
8 00332108 seeking damages for Defendants' alleged: failure to pay minimum and overtime wages, 9 failure to provide meal periods, failure to provide rest periods, failure to pay all wages earned and 10 owed upon separation from Defendants' employ, failure to pay wages timely during employment, 11 failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to reimburse necessary business 12 expenses, improper use of consumer credit reports, failure to pay reporting time pay, and issuing 13 payment of wages in the form of a non-labor code-compliant instrument, and violation of Business 14 & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 3-6).

15 On December 28, 2022, Named Plaintiff submitted a PAGA Notice to the LWDA. (Id.)

16 On March 6, 2023 Plaintiff on behalf of the general public as private attorney general filed 17 a PAGA representative action entitled Danielle Ervin, et al. v. Welcome Sacramento LLC, et al., 18 Sacramento County Superior Court, Case No. 34-2023-00335704 seeking damages for 19 Defendants' alleged failure to pay minimum and overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, 20 failure to provide rest periods, failure to pay all wages earned and owed upon separation from 21 Defendants' employ, failure to pay wages timely during employment, failure to provide accurate 22 itemized wage statements, failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, improper use of 23 consumer credit reports, failure to pay reporting time pay, failure to provide suitable seating and 24 issuing payment of wages in the form of a non-labor code-compliant instrument. Id.

25 B. The Parties Settled After Mediation and Ex-pert Analysis

26 On February 6, 2024, the Parties engaged in private mediation with a well-respected wage and 27 hour class action mediator, Louis Marlin. In preparation for the mediation Defendants provided Class 28 Counsel with hire and term dates for all employees, time and payroll records and relevant policies for Class

1 Members during the Class Period.

2 Defendants deny that they engaged in any misconduct in connection with the wage-and-hour
3 practices associated with the Class Members (inclusive of the Aggrieved Employees). Defendants further
4 deny that they have any liability of any kind associated with the claims alleged in the Actions. Defendants
5 contend that they have complied with both federal and state wage-and-hour laws, and all other laws
6 regulating its relationship with the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees, including the Named
7 Plaintiff. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶39-43).

8 In short, Defendants provided discovery sufficient to enable the Plaintiff and Class Counsel to 9 rigorously evaluate the strengths and risks of the case and perform an analysis of the potential damages 10 arising from the claims made in this case. As a result of settlement efforts, the Parties agreed to settle this 11 matter for the Gross Settlement Amount of $850,000.00 for approximately 344 class members and the 12 terms of which are fully memorialized in the Settlement Agreement (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 6, Ex. A.)

13 III. SUMMARY OF SETTLEMENT TERMS

14 A. The Proposed Settlement Fully Resolves Plaintiff's Claims

15 1. Composition of the Settlement Class

16 The "Class Members" are defined as all persons who have been employed by Defendants as 17 Non-Exempt Employees or equivalent positions however titled in the state of California during the 18 Class Period, December 28, 2018, through the earlier date of either 90 days after full execution of 19 the settlement agreement or the date the Court enters the Preliminary Approval Order. Defendants 20 represent there are approximately 344 Class Members as of February 7, 2024. (Settlement 21 Agreement ¶9) "PAGA Employee" or "Aggrieved Employee" means all individuals who are or 22 previously were employed by Defendants as non-exempt California employees during the PAGA
23 Period. Defendants represent there are approximately 214 Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA 24 Period who worked approximately 3,818 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Settlement 25 Agreement ¶2). "PAGA Period" means the period from December 28, 2021, through the earlier 26 date of either 90 days after full execution of the settlement agreement or the date the Court enters 27 the Preliminary Approval Order. (Settlement Agreement ¶25).

1 2. Settlement Consideration

2 Plaintiff and Defendants have agreed to settle the underlying class claims in exchange for the Gross 3 Settlement Amount of $850,000.00. The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) attorneys' fees in the 4 amount of $283,305.00 ("Attorneys' Fees and Costs") and reimbursement of reasonable litigation costs and 5 expenses in the amount of up to $25,000.00 to Class Counsel; (2) Class Representative's incentive award to 6 Plaintiff in the amount of up to $10,000.00 ("Named Plaintiff Enhancement Award"); (3) fees and 7 expenses of administration of the Settlement to the Settlement Administrator in an amount not to exceed 8 $9,200.00 ("Settlement Administration Costs"); (4) $50,000.00 ("PAGA Payment") with twenty-five 9 percent (25%) share of the PAGA Penalties to be a part of the Net Settlement Sum that will be distributed 10 to Class Members in the PAGA Group in the amount of $12,500.00; (5) the seventy-five percent (75%)
11 share of PAGA Penalties in the amount of $37,500.00 to the California Labor and Workforce Development 12 Agency ("LWDA"); and the remainder to of the Net Settlement Amount to the Settlement Class Members.
13 (Settlement Agreement ¶50).

14 3. Formula for Calculating Payments from the Net Settlement Amount

15 The "Net Settlement Amount" means the net amount available for payment of claims to Class 16 Members after deducting attorney fees and costs, settlement administration fees, Enhancement Award to 17 Plaintiff, 75% of the $50,000.00 PAGA Payment that is payable to the LWDA, and the employer-side 18 payroll taxes attributed to the wage portion of settlement payments to Class Members for release for the 19 Class Released claims. (Settlement Agreement I). The Net Settlement Amount estimated at $472,495.00.
20 (Settlement Agreement ¶50; Hawkins Decl. ¶ 15).

21 Based on the estimated Net Settlement Amount of $472,495.00 provides on average workweek 22 value of $49.32. As a result, each Settlement Class Member will receive approximately $1,373.53 per 23 Class Member. A Class Member working for 3 years or approximately 150 workweeks during the Class 24 Period would receive $7,398. The lowest payment is estimated to be approximately $49.32 for someone 25 who worked only one workweek. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 26).

26 This average net recovery is in line with many other wage and hour class action settlements 27 approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., Sandoval v. Nissho of Cal., Inc., Case No. 37-28 2009-00091861 (San Diego County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $145); Fukuchi v.

1 Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120);
2 Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net
3 recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018 (L.A.
4 County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Case 5 No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal.) (average net recovery of approximately $65); Sorenson v.
6 PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (E.D. Cal.) (average net recovery of approximately 7 $60); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County Super. Ct.) (average net
8 recovery of approximately $35); Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No. BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.)
9 (average net recovery of approximately $20); Jones v. Bath & Body Works, Inc., No. 2:13-cv-05206-FMO-10 AJW (C.D. Cal.) (average net recovery of approximately $50); and Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, No.
11 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $80).

12 4. Release by the Settlement Class

13 The release is narrowly tailored to release the claims litigated in the complaints in exchange 14 for the Gross Settlement Amount. Plaintiff and Participating Class Members will agree to release the 15 Released Claims during the Class Period as follows: The Claims set forth in the Operative Complaint, 16 including, but not limited to, failure to pay minimum and overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, 17 failure to provide rest periods, failure to pay all wages earned and owed upon separation from Defendants' 18 employ, failure to pay wages timely during employment, failure to provide accurate itemized wage 19 statements, failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, improper use of consumer credit reports, 20 failure to provide suitable seating, failure to pay reporting time pay, and issuing payment of wages in the 21 form of a non-labor code-compliant instrument, Unfair competition under Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code ¶¶17200, 22 et seq., and Violation of the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Labor Code ¶ 2698, et seq.)
23 predicated on the same or similar facts and/or claims alleged in the Lawsuit and/or any PAGA letter sent to 24 the LWDA by Plaintiff in or prior to the Lawsuit, as well as any claims that could have been pled which 25 arise from the same or similar facts concerning the Named Plaintiff or the putative class, and claims for 26 interest, penalties (including but not limited to waiting time penalties), as well as any claims under the 27 California Labor Code and California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders that were alleged 28 (specifically for violations of Labor Code sections 201-204, 212, 213, 226, 510, 558, 226.3, 1174, 1174.5,

3 IV. ARGUMENT

4 A. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Proposed Class Action Settlement

5 1. Courts Review Class Action Settlements to Ensure that the Terms Are Fair, 6 Adequate, and Reasonable

7 California Rule of Court (“Rule”), Rule 3.769 requires litigants to obtain court approval of class 8 action settlements. Approval occurs in two steps: (1) an early “preliminary” review by the trial court; and 9 (2) a subsequent “final” review after notice of the settlement has been distributed to class members for their 10 comments and objections. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(c)-(g); Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th 11 1344, 1118 (2010) (the court first “preliminarily approves the settlement” and later “conducts a final 12 approval hearing to inquire into the fairness of the proposed settlement”). The motion for preliminary 13 approval must be accompanied by (1) the settlement agreement, (2) proposed notice to the class, and (3) the 14 proposed order. Id. at 3.769(c). The motion must also identify any agreement concerning the payment of 15 attorneys’ fees. Id. at 3.769(b).

16 If the trial court grants preliminary approval of a settlement, Rule 3.769(f) requires the court to (1) 17 schedule a final approval hearing and (2) approve the method by which the parties are to provide notice to 18 the class of the hearing and “an explanation of the proposed settlement.” The court must also approve a 19 procedure for class members to file objections to the settlement. Id. at 3.769(f). At the final approval 20 hearing, the court must conduct an inquiry into the fairness of the proposed settlement. Id. at 3.769(g).

21 Although Rule 3.769 does not provide detail as to the scope of review of the proposed settlement, 22 preliminary approval is warranted if the settlement falls within a “reasonable range.” See North County
23 Contractor’s Assn., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Services, 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1089-90 (1994); Conte &
24 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, §§ 11.26 (4th ed. 2002) (“Newberg”).

25 Reasonableness and fairness are presumed where, as here: (1) the settlement is reached through 26 “arms-length bargaining;” (2) investigation and discovery are “sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 27 act intelligently;” (3) counsel is “experienced in similar litigation;” and (4) the percentage of objectors “is 28

1 small” (collectively, “Dunk Factors”). Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996).¹

2 2. Plaintiff’s Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation of the Factual and 3 Legal Issues and Were Thus Able to Objectively Assess the Settlement’s
4 Reasonableness

5 Plaintiff’s Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the factual and legal issues implicated 6 by Plaintiff’s claims and were able to objectively assess the settlement’s reasonableness. For example, prior 7 to filing the action, Plaintiff contacted Plaintiff’s Counsel to discuss the factual bases for pursuing their 8 respective actions against Defendants for Labor Code violations. Plaintiff was intimately familiar with 9 Defendants’ labor policies and practices, and over the course of multiple interviews, knowledgeably 10 summarized those policies and practices to Plaintiffs’ Counsel. During those conversations, Plaintiff’s 11 Counsel explained how the policies and practices were instituted and provided valuable insight into how 12 they gave rise to the alleged Labor Code violations. Based on these interviews with Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s 13 Counsel determined that there were legally sufficient grounds for pursuing the Actions against Defendants 14 and in preparation for drafting the complaint, Plaintiff’s Counsel conducted their own independent 15 preliminary investigations into the factual bases for Plaintiff’s claims, which entailed, inter alia, a careful 16 examination of Plaintiff’s personnel files and associated records. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 7-12.)

17 In summary, Plaintiff’s Counsel performed a thorough investigation into the claims at issue, which 18 included: (1) determining Plaintiff’s suitability as private attorneys general and class representative through 19 interviews, background investigations, and analyses of their employment files and related records; (2) 20 evaluating all of Plaintiff’s potential representative claims; (3) researching similar wage and hour class

21 ¹ The presumption of fairness is consistent with California’s public policy goal of favoring 22 settlements. Stambaugh v. Super. Ct., 62 Cal. App. 3d 231, 236 (1976) (“the law wisely favors
23 settlements”); Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th at 1118 (“public policy 24 generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation”); 7-Eleven Owners for Fair 25 Franchising v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1151 (2000) (“voluntary conciliation and 26 settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution . . . [t]his is especially true in complex 27 class action litigation”); Skulnick v. Roberts Express, Inc., 2 Cal. App. 4th 884, 891 (1992) 28 (“public policy strongly discourages litigation and encourages settlement [because settlements] can produce peace and goodwill in the community while reducing the expense and persistency of litigation”). Additionally, in reviewing the fairness of a class action settlement, due regard should be given to what is “otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th at 1117. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id. at 1118.

1 actions as to the claims brought, the nature of the positions, and the type of employer; (4) analyzing 2 employees' time and wage records; (5) reviewing Defendants' employment policies and practices; (6) 3 researching settlements in similar cases; (7) evaluating Plaintiff's claims and estimating Defendants' 4 liability for purposes of settlement; (8) drafting the mediation brief; and (9) participating in the mediation.
5 (Id.)

6 By engaging in such a thorough investigation and evaluation of Plaintiff's claims, Plaintiff's 7 Counsel can opine that the Settlement, for the consideration and on the terms set forth in the Settlement 8 Agreement, is fair, reasonable, an adequate, and is in the best interests of Class Members in light of all 9 known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay and uncertainty associated with 10 litigation, and various defenses asserted by Defendants. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 14-37).

11 3. The Settlement Was Reached Through Arm's-Length Bargaining in which 12 All Parties Were Represented by Experienced Counsel

13 “[W]hat transpires in settlement negotiations is highly relevant to the assessment of a proposed 14 settlement’s fairness.” State of Cal. v. Levi Strauss & Co., 41 Cal. 3d 460, 482 (1986). Courts presume the 15 absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless evidence to the contrary is offered; 16 thus, there is a presumption that settlement negotiations are conducted in good faith. Newberg, ¶ 11.51.

17 As explained above, the Parties settled this matter with the assistance of an experienced wage and 18 hour class and PAGA action mediator. Mr. Marlin helped to manage the Parties' expectations and provided 19 a useful, neutral analysis of the issues and risks to both sides. See In re Bluetooth Headset Prod. Liab.
20 Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 948 (9th Cir. 2011) (the presence of a neutral mediator is a factor weighing in favor of 21 finding of no collusion); In re Apple Computer, Inc. Derivative Litig., No. C 06-4128 JF (HRL), 2008 U.S.
22 Dist. LEXIS 108195 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 5, 2008) (mediator's participation weighs considerably against any 23 inference of a collusive settlement); D'Amato v. Deutsche Bank, 236 F.3d 78, 85 (2d Cir. 2001) (a 24 “mediator’s involvement in pre-certification settlement negotiations helps to ensure that the proceedings 25 were free of collusion and undue pressure.”); Villegas v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., No. 09-00261, 2012 26 WL 5878390, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2012) (participation in mediation “tends to support the conclusion 27 that the settlement process was not collusive”); Ogbuehi v. Comcast of California/Colorado/Fla./Oregon, 28 Inc., 303 F.R.D. 337, 350 (E.D. Cal. 2014) (participation in mediation “tends to support the conclusion that

1 the settlement process was not collusive”). At all times, the Parties’ negotiations were adversarial and non-2 collusive. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 6.)

3 The Parties were represented by experienced class action counsel throughout the negotiations 4 resulting in this Settlement. Plaintiff is represented by James Hawkins, APLC. Plaintiff’s Counsel employ 5 seasoned class action attorneys who regularly litigate wage and hour claims through certification and on the 6 merits, and have considerable experience settling wage and hour class actions. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 34).

7 Defendants are represented by GORDON REES SCULLY MANSUKHANI, LLP, a respected 8 defense firm.

9 4. The Consideration Provided for the Class Claims Is Fair and Reasonable in 10 Light of the Amount in Controversy Discounted by the Risks of Continued 11 Litigation

12 In seeking approval, a settling party must provide sufficient information to “enable the court to 13 make an independent assessment of the adequacy of the settlement terms.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, 14 Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 131-32 (2008). However, “[i]t is well-settled law that a cash settlement 15 amounting to only a fraction of the potential recovery will not per se render the settlement inadequate or 16 unfair.” See Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n of City & Cty. of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 628 17 (9th Cir. 1982). “The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure 18 of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Id. at 625. “Estimates of a fair settlement figure are 19 tempered by factors such as the risk of losing at trial, the expense of litigating the case, and the expected 20 delay in recovery (often measured in years).” In re Toys R Us-Delaware, Inc.-- Fair & Accurate Credit 21 Transactions Act (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 453 (C.D. Cal. 2014). In other words, in valuing the 22 claims within a realistic range of outcomes, the settling plaintiff should discount the value of the settled 23 claims for risks such as changes in the law, the probability of success, and other factors.²

24 ² Federal district courts also recognize that there is an inherent “range of reasonableness” 25 in determining whether to approve a settlement “which recognizes the uncertainties of law and fact 26 in any particular case and the concomitant risks and costs necessarily inherent in taking any 27 litigation to completion.” In re World Trade Ctr. Lower Manhattan Disaster Site Litig., 66 F.

F.R.D. 523, 527 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“well-settled law that a proposed settlement may be acceptable even though it amounts to only a fraction of the potential recovery”); In re Global Crossing Sec.
and ERISA Litig., 225 F.R.D. 436, 461 (S.D.N.Y. 2004) (“settlement amount’s ratio to the maximum potential recovery need not be the sole, or even dominant, consideration when assessing settlement’s fairness”); In re IKON Office Solutions, Inc. Sec. Litig., 194 F.R.D. 166, 184 (E.D.

1 Settling parties are not, however, required to partake in a hypothetical accounting exercise: “Kullar
2 does not ... require any such explicit statement of [maximum] value; it requires a record which allows 3 ‘an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the 4 litigation.’” Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 409-10 (2010) (quoting Kullar, 5 168 Cal. App. 4th at 120 (emphasis added)). Overall, “the most important factor” in determining “whether 6 a settlement is fair and reasonable” is the “strength of the case for plaintiffs on the merits, balanced against 7 the amount offered in the settlement.” Id. at 409 n.6 (quoting Kullar, 168 Cal. App. 4th at 130). As 8 explained in detail below, the Gross Settlement Amount is within the range of reasonableness in light of the 9 nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential impediments to recovery.

10 As explained in detail below and in the Hawkins Declaration, the Gross Settlement Amount is 11 within the range of reasonableness in light of the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the 12 various potential impediments to recovery. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 14-38.)

13 Defendants deny that they engaged in any misconduct in connection with the wage-and-hour
14 practices associated with the Class Members (inclusive of the Aggrieved Employees). Defendants further 15 deny that they have any liability of any kind associated with the claims alleged in the Actions. Defendants
16 contend that they have complied with both federal and state wage-and-hour laws, and all other laws
17 regulating its relationship with the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees, including the Named
18 Plaintiff. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 41)

19 Accounting for the risks of continued litigation and impediments to discovery, Plaintiff determined 20 that a settlement amounting to $850,000.00 was fair and reasonable, and accounts for an approximate 23%- 21 47% of total possible recovery and courts have routinely approved settlements that provided a similar 22 discounted range of the maximum potential recovery. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 22-27). See, e.g., In re Warfarin

10 Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal. App. 4th 1157 (2008).

11 It should be noted that PAGA gives the Court wide latitude to reduce the amount of civil penalties 12 “based on the facts and circumstances of a particular case” when “to do otherwise would result in an award 13 that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” Cal. Lab. Code ¶ 2699(h). In reducing PAGA 14 penalties, courts have considered issues including whether the employees suffered actual injury from the 15 violations, whether the Defendants was aware of the violations, and the employer’s willingness to fix the 16 violation. Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504, 528 (2018) (awarding PAGA penalties of 17 only 0.2% of the maximum); see also Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F. Supp. 3d 1030, 1037 (N.D. Cal. 2016);

20 For example, during the penalty phase of trial in Carrington, the plaintiff requested PAGA 21 penalties in the amount of approximately $70 million. The trial court instead awarded only $150,000—or 22 0.21% of the maximum—and stated that this reduction was warranted because imposing the maximum 23 penalty would be “unjust, arbitrary, and oppressive” based on Starbucks’s “good faith attempts” to comply 24 with meal period obligations and because the court found the violations were minimal. Carrington, 30 Cal.
25 App. 5th at 517. The Court of Appeal affirmed the lower court’s reduced award of a $150,000 penalty

3 v. Schwan Food Co., No. B223911, 2011 WL 1797254, at *5-*7 (Cal. Ct. App. May 12, 2011) (reversing 10 PAGA violations from $1.8 million to $500,000, after rejecting numerous other PAGA claims).

11 Plaintiff therefore determined an appropriate range of settlement for PAGA penalties as a 12 percentage of the settlement range that was consistent with other hybrid class/PAGA settlements approved 13 by California courts.⁴ Where PAGA penalties are negotiated in good faith and “there is no indication that

10 and, sometimes, to recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney general.” Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 13 of the class.” Clark v. American Residential Services LLC, 175 Cal. App. 4th 785, 806 (2009).

14 Approximately 344 current and former employees will share a $850,000.00 settlement fund due 15 entirely to the effort and commitment of Plaintiff. Subject to Court approval, therefore, the Settlement 16 provides for Named Plaintiff Enhancement Award of $10,000.00 to the Class Representative⁵. The

1 Named Plaintiff Enhancement Award is fair and reasonable compensation for Plaintiff's effort in pursuing 2 the action, assisting counsel with the litigation and settlement, regularly conferring with counsel on the 3 status of their case and the strategies for prosecuting the claims, and reviewing the proposed settlement to 4 ensure that its terms are fair and provide adequate relief for the Settlement Class. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 27; see 5 also generally, Ervin Decl.)

6 D. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Negotiated Attorneys' Fees and 7 Costs

8 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who took the 9 risk of non-payment and invested in a case that achieved a substantial positive result for the class.
10 California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equalling one-third or more of the potential value of the 11 common fund. See Laffitte v. Robert Half, Inc., 1 Cal. 5th 480 (2016) (affirming a fee award representing 12 one-third of the common fund); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66 n.11 (2008) ("Empirical 13 studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 14 class actions average around one-third of the recovery."). At final approval, Plaintiff will seek Court-
15 approval of attorneys' fees of $283,305.00 (one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) and litigation costs 16 and expenses not to exceed $25,000.00 which are currently approximately $15,261.43.

17 E. California Law Authorizes Provisional Certification for Settlement Purposes

18 1. The California Standard for Class Certification

19 Class actions are statutorily authorized "when the question is one of common or general interest, of 20 many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court."
21 Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 382; Lee v. Dynamex, Inc., 166 Cal. App. 4th 1325, 1332 (2008). Class certification 22 is appropriate when there is an "ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among class the named plaintiffs); Kabamba v. Victoria's Secret Stores, LLC, No. BC368528 (L.A. County 2011) (awarding $10,000 enhancement payment).

1 members.” Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004). Class treatment is 2 appropriate even if class members at some point may be required to make an individual showing as to 3 eligibility for recovery. Bufile v. Dollar Financial Group, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 1193, 1207 (2008); Sav-
4 On, 34 Cal. 4th at 333.

5 Conditional certification of the proposed Settlement Classes is particularly warranted here given 6 the relatively relaxed standard for certification at the preliminary approval stage. See Dunk v. Ford Motor 7 Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794 (1996) (courts can apply a “lesser standard of scrutiny” for class certification in 8 settlement cases).⁶ In Dunk, the California Court of Appeal specifically rejected the argument that the 9 standard for certifying a class for purposes of settlement is identical to the standard for certifying the same 10 class for purposes of litigation:

11
12 Geer argues the court must use the same standard under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 13 rule 23 (28 U.S.C.) to determine the propriety of both settlement and litigation class 14 certifications . . . That rule is contrary to the Ninth Circuit rule, stated in Officers for Justice
15 v. Civil Service Com. supra, 688 F.2d at p. 633, and the position of the leading commentators 16 (Newberg & Conte, supra, ¶ 11.28 at p. 11–58), which allow a lesser standard of scrutiny for 17 settlement cases . . . We agree with the latter. The two basic purposes for the Rule 23 18 certification requirements, as they relate to questions of a nationwide class, are: (1) to keep 19 the lawsuit manageable for trial; and (2) to protect the interests of the non-representative class 20 members. The first purpose is inapposite in the settlement context, and the second, as it relates 21 to commonality of issues, only makes a difference if the non-representative class members 22 would do much better by litigating on their own or in their own jurisdiction. The second 23 category concerns are protected by the trial court’s fairness review of the settlement. Id. at 24 n19.

25
26 2. The Proposed Settlement Class Is Ascertainable and There Is a Well-27 Defined Community of Interest Among Class Members

28 Whether a class is “ascertainable” within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 is “determined by examining (1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class, and (3) the means available for identifying class members.” Lee, 166 Cal. App. 4th at 1334. Class members are ascertainable where they ⁶ See also Newberg on Class Actions § 13:18 (5th ed.) (courts “declin[e] to treat formal class certification as a prerequisite for preliminary approval and undertak[e] a more cursory class certification analysis at the preliminary approval stage.”); Dearaujo v. Regis Corp., No. 2:14-CV-01408-KJM-AC, 2016 WL 3549473, at *6 (E.D. Cal. June 30, 2016) (“[D]espite the Supreme Court’s cautions in Amchem . . . , a cursory approach appears the norm.”); In re Amtrak Train Derailment in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, No. 15-MD-2654, 2016 WL 1359725, at *4 (E.D. Pa.

Apr. 6, 2016) (“[A] settlement class can be preliminarily certified based on a less rigorous analysis than that necessary for final certification.”); In re Processed Egg Prod. Antitrust Litig., No. 08-MD-2002, 2014 WL 828083, at *2 (E.D. Pa. Feb. 28, 2014) (at the preliminary approval stage, “the Court must determine whether the proposed class should be conditionally certified, and leave the final certification decision for the Fairness Hearing.”).

1 may be readily identified without unreasonable expense or time by reference to official records. Id.

2 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 3 questions of law or fact; (2) a class representative with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) a 4 class representative and counsel who can adequately represent the class. Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 382.

5 In April of 2012, the California Supreme Court expounded on the element of predominance:

6 The “ultimate question” the element of predominance presents is whether “the issues 7 which may be jointly tried, when compared with those requiring separate 8 adjudication, are so numerous or substantial that the maintenance of a class action would be advantageous to the judicial process and to the litigants.”

9 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super. Ct., 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012) (citations omitted).

10 The proposed Settlement Class Members consists of the individual Class Members who did not 11 opt-out of the Settlement by submitting a valid request for exclusion. The Class is defined as all current and 12 former non-exempt employees of Defendants who worked in California at any time from December 28, 13 2018, through the earlier date of either 90 days after full execution of the settlement agreement or the date
14 the Court enters the Preliminary Approval Order. Defendants represent there are approximately 344 Class 15 Members as of February 7, 2024. Because all Class Members are either current or former employees of 16 Defendants, subject to the same policies and practices, the class is readily ascertainable from Defendants’ 17 regular business records. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 7-39).

18 Here, common issues of fact and law predominate because the California statutes relating to each 19 of Plaintiff’s claims, and Defendants’ defenses thereto, apply with equal force and effect to all Class 20 Members. Factually, Plaintiff contends that Defendants’ policies and practices apply class-wide and 21 Defendants’ liability can be determined by facts common to all members of the class. The wage and hour 22 issues are both numerous and substantial, and a class action is the most advantageous method of dealing 23 with the claims of the Settlement Class Members. (Id.).

24 Plaintiff’s wage and hour claims are typical of the proposed Settlement Class because they arise
25 from the same factual bases and are based on the same legal theories applicable to the other Class 26 Members. Likewise, Plaintiff’s interests are entirely coextensive with the interests of the Class. Plaintiff 27 maintains that Plaintiff was injured by the same company-wide practices to which the proposed Settlement 28 Class was subject and seek the same relief. Plaintiff has already demonstrated the ability to advocate for the

1 interests of the Class by initiating this litigation, undertaking representative investigation and informal 2 discovery, and evaluating the proposed settlement to assure that it is fair. (Id.)

3 Additionally, Plaintiff is represented by competent counsel who have extensive experience in 4 litigating wage and hour class action cases. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 34). Plaintiff's Counsel has successfully 5 briefed, argued, certified, and gained state and federal court settlement approval of the same class-wide
6 causes of action that are at issue in this case. (Id.) Plaintiff's Counsel's wage and hour class action 7 expertise establishes that they are well qualified to represent the interests of this Class.

8 A class action is superior to a multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of 9 each individual Class Member's claim, Class Members likely have little incentive to litigate their claims on 10 an individual basis because the out-of-pocket expense and personal commitment necessary to litigate each 11 claim outweighs any potential recovery. In sum, class treatment is superior to individual, case-by-case 12 adjudication.

13 3. The Proposed Notice Properly Informs Class Members about the Case and 14 the Settlement

15 Class members are entitled to the best practical notice under the circumstances. Kass v. Young, 67 16 Cal. App. 3d 100, 106 (1977). The purpose of the notice is to give class members sufficient information to 17 decide whether they should accept the benefits offered, opt out and pursue their own remedies, or object to 18 the settlement. Trotsky v. Los Angeles Fed. Savings & Loan Assn., 48 Cal. App. 3d 143, 151-52 (1975).
19 The notice must advise class members "that they may be excluded from the class if they so request and that 20 they will be bound by the judgment, whether favorable or not, if they do not request exclusion." Kass, 67
21 Cal. App. 3d at 106. In a case such as this involving a significant number of class members, California 22 authorities generally require service of the class notice by mail or similar reliable means. Chance v. Super.
23 Ct., 58 Cal. 2d 275, 290 (1962); Cartt v. Super. Ct., 50 Cal. App. 3d 960, 972 (1975).⁷

24 The Parties have jointly drafted the Notice of Class Action settlement ("Class Notice") which fairly 25 and neutrally informs Class Members of their rights and remedies in this action. (Hawkins Decl., Exhibit B;

26
27 ⁷ Due process does not require that each Class Member actually receive a notice, but rather 28 a procedure reasonably certain to reach Class Members. Wright, A. Miller & M. Kane, Federal Practice and Procedure § 1789, at 253 (2d ed. 1986). If appropriate notice is given, Class Members will be bound by the judgment even if they never actually receive the notice. Fontana v. Elrod, 826 F.2d 729, 732 (7th Cir. 1987).

1 Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 32-34.)

2 Accordingly, both the method of disseminating the Class Notice and content of the Class Notice 3 satisfy due process and the requirements of California law. See Cal. R. Ct. 3.776(e)-(f); State of Cal. v. Levi
4 Strauss, 41 Cal. 3d 460, 485 (1986) (the class notice must “fairly apprise the class members of the terms of 5 the proposed compromise and of the options open to dissenting class members.”).

6 V. CONCLUSION

7 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of claims. Having appropriately 8 presented the materials and information necessary for preliminary approval, the Parties request that the 9 Court preliminarily approve the settlement.
