SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA

CHRISTINE KHANH LE, TRA DANG
HUONG NGUYEN, and MICHAEL TANG
LOC HO, on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiffs,

v.

SIRENA DEL MAR LLC, a California limited liability company; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 25CV05925

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiffs CHRISTINE KHANH LE, TRA DANG HUONG NGUYEN, and MICHAEL 2 TANG LOC HO (“Plaintiffs”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely 3 to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, 4 allege as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendant SIRENA DEL MAR LLC and DOES 7 1 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the 8 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”)
9 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight 10 time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest 11 periods, failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure to maintain accurate records 12 of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate 13 wage statements, and failure to indemnify for necessary expenditures.

14 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and legislature have recognized that this 15 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
16 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his 17 or her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws 18 so that employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has 19 required for employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the 20 Legislature has criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter 21 violations of these underlying statutes—since Plaintiffs are not seeking general and/or special 22 damages, restitution, or other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted the 23 PAGA to permit an individual to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise 24 and sole nature of this action.

25 3. All California employees during the relevant statutes of limitations who are or 26 were harmed by Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved 27 Employees worked for Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 28 applicable statutory period.

10. Plaintiff MICHAEL TANG LOC HO is a resident of Santa Barbara County, California who has worked for Defendants in Santa Barbara County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately November 2023 to the present.

B. Defendants

11. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief allege, that Defendant SIRENA DEL MAR LLC is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

- (a) A business entity qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Santa Barbara County; and,
- (b) The former employer of Plaintiff CHRISTINE KHANH LE and Plaintiff TRA DANG HUONG NGUYEN, the current employer of Plaintiff MICHAEL HO, and the current and/or former employer of the Aggrieved Employees because Defendant SIRENA DEL MAR LLC suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

12. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

13. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured Plaintiffs and a significant number of the Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

14. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all relevant times, each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions.

1 Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all relevant times, each 2 Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling 3 shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor 4 in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other 5 Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of 6 the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged 7 below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each Defendant acted 8 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew 9 or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 10 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

11 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

12 15. Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in Santa Barbara County, California as hourly-13 paid, non-exempt employees. During Plaintiffs' employment for Defendants, Defendants paid 14 Plaintiffs hourly wages and classified them as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically 15 scheduled Plaintiffs to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but 16 Plaintiffs regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours 17 in a workweek.

18 16. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 19 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experiences working for Defendants 20 were typical and illustrative.

21 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, and 22 Overtime Wages

23 17. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
24 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and 25 includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

26 18. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 27 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 28 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

1 19. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall 2 not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 3 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor 4 Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by 5 the IWC is unlawful.

6 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 7 paying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight 8 time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work 9 “off-the-clock,” uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 10 Employees to perform work prior to clocking in for the workday, during unpaid meal periods, and 11 after clocking out for the workday. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime 12 rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of 13 the hours Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

14 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to include non-15 discretionary bonuses, commissions, incentive pay, production pay, performance pay, and/or shift 16 differentials in the calculation of Plaintiffs’ and the Aggrieved Employees’ regular rate of pay used 17 to calculate their overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 18 Employees earned non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, incentive pay, production pay, 19 performance pay, and/or shift differentials in the same pay periods where they worked overtime 20 hours. Accordingly, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for 21 all overtime compensation they were owed.

22 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

23 22. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 24 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the 25 start of the sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, 26 duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in a workday. Further, 27 employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not 28 provided with all required meal period(s).

23. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods. Defendants also regularly, but not always, required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing an uninterrupted and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

24. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

25. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

26. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not

1 authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiffs and the 2 Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which 3 could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying 4 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' 5 policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to take 6 rest periods in compliance with California law.

7 27. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 8 additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all 9 required rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 10 Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and 11 that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

12 D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

13 28. Based on their failure to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages 14 as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

15 29. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times 16 per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, 17 employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period 18 premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours 19 worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the 20 employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not 21 paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not 22 authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, 23 Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 24 Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

25 E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

26 30. Plaintiffs seek penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to 27 California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully 28 fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject

1 to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall 2 keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods 3 and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

4 31. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all 5 meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees.

6 32. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California 7 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees 8 the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the 9 accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiffs and the 10 Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which 11 resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiffs and the 12 Aggrieved Employees have suffered, and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use 13 and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in 14 seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform their obligation under state law, all to their 15 respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing 16 failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and 17 the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, 18 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

19 F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

20 33. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 21 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 22 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 23 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-24 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled 25 to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

26 34. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff 27 CHRISTINE KHANH LE, Plaintiff TRA DANG HUONG NGUYEN, and many other 28 Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the

1 employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants
2 failed, and continue to fail, to pay Plaintiff CHRISTINE KHANH LE, Plaintiff TRA DANG
3 HUONG NGUYEN, and other terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages 4 required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 5 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These unpaid wages include 6 wages for unpaid work time (including minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, rest 7 and recovery periods, and other nonproductive time), missed meal period premium wages, and 8 missed rest period premium wages.

9 35. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides 10 that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the 11 wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid 12 or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

13 36. Accordingly, Plaintiff CHRISTINE KHANH LE, Plaintiff TRA DANG HUONG 14 NGUYEN, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants their 15 additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, 16 up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

17 G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

18 37. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her 19 employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including:
20 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned 21 and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided 22 that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, 23 (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name 24 of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification 25 number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 26 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number 27 of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if 28 this information is missing. (Labor Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

1 38. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a 2 knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to 3 recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which 4 a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a 5 subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), 6 and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

7 39. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs and the 8 Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly 9 rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for 10 meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for 11 rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

12 40. Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved 13 Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiffs 14 and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 15 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate 16 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee.

17 H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

18 41. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her employees 19 for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct 20 discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause 21 of action, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses 22 that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 23 Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, 24 without limitation, work equipment and use of personal cell phones and vehicles for work related 25 purposes. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result 26 of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiffs and 27 the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

42. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

43. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

44. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

45. Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On July 18, 2025, they gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and current and former Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiffs also paid the filing fee on July 18, 2025. Plaintiffs’ PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-1113001-25 (Christine Khanh Le, et al. v. Sirena Del Mar LLC, et al).

46. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative remedies with California’s LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code § 2699.3(d).)

47. More than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since Plaintiffs provided notice, but the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may commence a civil action to recover

1 penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code 2 described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under 3 California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

4 48. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to an award 5 of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of 6 Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 7 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

8 49. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs 9 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action 10 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiffs, on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failing to timely pay final wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify for necessary expenditures.

2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves and all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA;

3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,

6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.

Respectfully submitted,
