1 Plaintiff Samuel Lim (“Plaintiff Lim”) and Plaintiff Kevaughn Freeman (“Plaintiff
2 Freeman”) (together, “Plaintiffs”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are 3 likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and 4 discovery, allege as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants Upside Foods, Inc., and Does 1
7 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and 8 unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay
9 overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure 10 to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to 11 terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish 12 accurate wage statements.

13 2. Plaintiffs bring the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a class
14 action on behalf of themselves and certain current and former employees of Defendants 15 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 16 below). The Class consists of Plaintiffs and all other persons who have been employed by any 17 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations
18 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

19 3. Plaintiffs bring the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 20 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 21 Plaintiffs, the State of California, and all other current and former aggrieved employees who 22 worked for Defendants in California at any time within the applicable statute of limitations period
23 (hereinafter referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

24 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 25 establishment within the State of California, including Sacramento County. As such, and based 26 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are 27 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission
28 (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

1           5.       Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants maintained 2 a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 3           (a)     Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
4 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code
5 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 6           (b)     Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 7 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing
8 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing 9 to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period violation 10 occurred;
- 11          (c)     Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
12 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
13 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 14 period violation occurred;
- 15          (d)     Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 16          (e)     Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 17 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the 18 time period specified by California law when employment terminates;
- 19          (f)     Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked; 20 and
- 21          (g)     Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
22 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 23 IWC Wage Orders.

24           6.       On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 25 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 26 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 27 willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiffs are California residents that worked for Defendants. Plaintiff Lim worked for Defendants in the state of California as a food production operator during the statutory period. Plaintiff Freeman worked for Defendants as a manufacturing operator during the statutory period.

9. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief allege, that Defendants are:

- (a) Business entities with their principal places of business in California.
- (b) Business entities conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California;
- (c) The former employers of Plaintiffs, and the current and/or former employers of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions; and
- (d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendants are and were the joint employers of Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

11. Plaintiffs do not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

14. Plaintiffs are California residents who worked for Defendants in the state of California during the statutory period. During the statutory period, Defendants classified Plaintiffs as a non-exempt employees, and paid Plaintiffs an hourly wage.

15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs for all hours worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take uninterrupted rest periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiffs for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all final

1 wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated Plaintiffs' employment, and failed to furnish 2 accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience working for 3 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

4 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not
5 paying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all overtime wages.
6 Defendants regularly use a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of 7 time, in failing to compensate Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time
8 they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendants' operations are such that it is 9 possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Also throughout the 10 statutory period, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were required to work "off
11 the clock" and uncompensated. For example, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 12 sometimes performed work duties prior to and after clocking in and out, without compensation.
13 Also, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees' meal breaks were sometimes interrupted 14 without compensation. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees received different types of remuneration. However, Defendants failed to 16 incorporate all remuneration when calculating the correct overtime rate of pay, meal break
17 premium rate of pay, and sick day rate of pay, leading to underpayment to Plaintiffs, the Class, and 18 the Aggrieved Employees. Also, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not 19 receive their final pay, upon employment ending, within the statutory time period.

20 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 21 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods.
22 Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
23 Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing 30-minute, 24 continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 25 compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not 26 provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not
27 adequately inform Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal 28 period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the

1 tenth hour of work. Defendants also failed to accurately record meal periods. Accordingly,
2 Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

4 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize
5 and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest
6 periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and 8 permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours
9 of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 10 Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants also did
11 not adequately inform Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a 12 rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 13 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants
14 have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not 15 have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
16 Employees were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate
17 records of employee work periods, and therefore Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiffs,
18 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees took rest periods during the middle of each work period.
19 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs, the Class,
20 and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

21 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiffs, the 22 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their 23 duties for Defendants without reimbursement, which included the use of personal cellular 24 telephones for work purposes, and the use of personal vehicles for work purposes, as well as home 25 office expenses such as home internet, printer, computer accessories, home office equipment and 26 furniture, and office supplies.

1           20.     Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
2 pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of their employment all
3 wages for all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period
4 premium wages.

5           21.     Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable
7 hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages
8 earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were 9 not provided in accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not 10 authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address).
11 Further, the wage statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As 12 a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 13 Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- 14           (a)     the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
15                   minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 16                   period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 17                   entitled;
- 18           (b)     the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, 19                   overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 20                   though they had not been;
- 21           (c)     the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum, 22                   overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 23                   correct California rate even though they were;
- 24           (d)     the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime,
25                   meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct 26                   California rate even though they had not been;
- 27           (e)     the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 28                   overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;

- 1 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 2 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 3 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
4 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage
5 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 6 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose
7 entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, 8 unemployment, and other governmental benefits; and
- 9 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages
10 rates to which Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 11 entitled, and Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid 12 less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

13 Thus, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 14 California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

15 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

16 22. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other 17 persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil 18 Procedure § 382.

19 23. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief
20 authorized by California law.

21 24. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

22 All persons who worked for any Defendants in California as an hourly, non-23 exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the 24 filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

25 25. At all material times, Plaintiffs were members of the Class.

26 26. Plaintiffs undertake this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 27 conditions of all Class Members.

1           27.    There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 2 readily ascertainable:

3           (a)    Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so
4 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
5           The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time,
6 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 7 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 8 Defendants' records.

9           (b)    Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
10 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
11 defined community of interest, and Plaintiffs' claims (or defenses, if any)
12 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

13           (c)    Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
14 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
15 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 16 herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 17 Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 18 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
19 Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 20 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 21 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 22 benefit of each class member.

23           (d)    Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 24 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:
25           1)    The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling 26               the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
27           2)    The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
28               already commenced by or against members of the Class;

1                   3)     The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the 2                                 claims in the particular forum; and

3                   4)     The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class
4                                 action.

5                   (e)     Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is 6                                 to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a
7                                 class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights
8                                 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful 9                                 of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might 10                                damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other 11                                means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the 12                                complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their 13                                rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

14                28.     There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 15                   any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 16                   limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

17                   (a)     Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 18                                 wages, and overtime wages;

19                   (b)     Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class
20                                 Members;

21                   (c)     Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
22                                 wages to Class Members;

23                   (d)     Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their discharge
24                                 or resignation;

25                   (e)     Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, and 26                                 all meal periods Class Members took or missed;

27                   (f)     Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; and 28

1 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a
2 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

3 29. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 4 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 5 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 6 question affecting only individual members;
- 7 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 8 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 9 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all 10 members of the class before the Court;
- 11 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain 12 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a 13 class action;
- 14 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable 15 relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation
16 for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an 17 amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for 18 the injuries sustained;
- 19 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual 20 members of the class would create a risk of:
- 21 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
22 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
23 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
- 24 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
25 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members 26 not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or 27 impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not 28 limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those

1 parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

2 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 3 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 4 the class as a whole.

5 30. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 6 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own
7 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated
8 notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs would contemplate the 9 use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice,
10 e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable 11 to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

12 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

14 31. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
15 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

16 32. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 17 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 18 not required to do so.

19 33. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 20 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees compensation for all hours they worked. By 21 their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully
22 violated the provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable
23 Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

24 34. Accordingly, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 25 recover minimum wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

26 35. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 27 Aggrieved Employees have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their 28 employment with Defendants.

36. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

37. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

38. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

39. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all such wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

40. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

41. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

42. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

1           43.     California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall 2 not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 3 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
4 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 5 by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

6           44.     At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees have 7 worked more than eight hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

8           45.     At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 9 Aggrieved Employees overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the 10 maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198.
11 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are regularly required to work overtime hours.

12           46.     By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
13 compensation to the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for their overtime hours
14 worked, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered, and will continue to 15 suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the 16 jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

17           47.     By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 18 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 19 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

20           48.     Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees also request recovery of 21 overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California
22 Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in 23 a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

24           49.     California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 25 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 26 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all 27 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs, the Class, 28

1 and the Aggrieved Employees with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code §
2 204.

3 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

5 50. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
6 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

7 51. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 8 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of all duty in order to take their first daily meal
9 periods no later than the start of Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees' sixth hour of 10 work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh 11 hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the 12 applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30
13 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor
14 Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under 15 any Wage Order.

16 52. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiffs,
17 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with both meal periods as required by California law. By 18 their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take all 19 meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or 20 impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the 21 provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

22 53. Under California law, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are 23 entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with 24 all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

25 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

27 54. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
28 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

55. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage Order.

56. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

57. Under California law, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

58. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

59. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

60. As a result, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

61. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(b).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

62. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

63. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

64. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiffs and many other members of the Class ended, i.e., were terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

65. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and those Class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

1           66. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
2 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 3 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 4 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

5           67. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 6 Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular 7 hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

8           68. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiffs, the Class,
9 and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest,
10 expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

11                                   SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12                   (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 13                                   Compliant Wage Records)

14           69. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
15 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

16           70. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 17 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in 18 writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
19 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
20 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made 21 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned,
22 (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee
23 and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number 24 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 25 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 26 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

27           71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 28 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure

1 to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees,
2 the failure to list the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net
3 wages earned.

4 72. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs,
5 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-
6 protected rights.

7 73. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by 8 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both 9 their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage
10 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

11 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved 12 Employees is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs, the 13 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to 14 attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of 15 the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

16 75. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 17 Defendants their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor
18 Code § 226(a).

19 76. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to injunctive 20 relief, as well as an award of attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, 21 pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h).

22 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 24 et seq.)

25 77. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
26 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

27 78. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business
28 & Professions Code § 17201.

1           79. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
2 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs seeks 3 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil
4 Procedure § 1021.5.

5           80. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 6 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
7 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

8           81. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 9 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations
10 of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy;
11 and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby
12 constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business
13 & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

14                           Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

15           82. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 16 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California
17 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

18                           Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

19           83. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of 20 California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
21 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22                           Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

23           84. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 24 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or unfair
25 activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

26                           Failure to Provide Meal Periods

27           85. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor
28 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or

1 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

2 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

3 86. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 4 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 5 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

6 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

7 87. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 8 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above,
9 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200,
10 et seq.

11 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

12 88. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance 13 with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
14 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

15 89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 16 herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and 17 all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of 18 valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

19 90. Plaintiffs, the Class Members, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered monetary 20 injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

21 91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled 22 to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 23 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
24 Employees have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or 25 fraudulent business practices. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are not obligated
26 to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover
27 restitution.

1           92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 2 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, unlawful 3 and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from 4 engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the 5 future.

6           93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no plain,
7 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered
8 as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a
9 result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff,
10 individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to 11 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 12 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

13           94. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 14 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 15 withholdings.

16           95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs and 17 putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 18 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a
19 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and Class
20 Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and 21 other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

22                                   NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23                   (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act 24                   of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

25           96. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
26 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

27           97. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 28 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

1           98.     California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action
2 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law,
3 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
4 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
5 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 6 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 7 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

8           99.     Plaintiff Lim has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California
9 Labor Code § 2699.3. On or around June 1, 2025, he gave written notice by online filing to the 10 Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 11 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and certain current 12 and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations.
13 Plaintiff Lim also paid the filing fee. Plaintiff Lim’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-1102257-
14 25. A true and correct copy of the original PAGA letter is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

15           100.    More than 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff Lim provided notice, but the Labor
16 and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’
17 Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff Lim may commence a civil 18 action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the 19 Labor Code described in this First Amended Complaint. These penalties include, but are not 20 limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, and 2699(f)(2).

21           101.    In addition, Plaintiff Lim seeks penalties for Defendants’ violation of California
22 Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any 23 entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 24 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable
25 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins
26 and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
27 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total 28 hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

1           102. During the time period of employment for Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees,
2 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to 3 maintain accurate records showing meal periods. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain
4 records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved
5 Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal
6 periods. Therefore, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting 7 failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants.
8 As a direct result, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, 9 substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and 10 expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under 11 state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of 12 Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders,
13 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented 14 from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

15           103. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to an award
16 of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved
17 Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to 18 be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted 19 by law.

20           104. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant 21 to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action 22 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

1 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

2 Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to 3 the class claims, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

4 Class Certification

5 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third,
6 Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;

7 2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representatives of the Class; and 8 3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel.

9 As to the First Cause of Action

10 4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
11 Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 12 minimum wages due;

13 5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

14 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
15 such amounts were due;

16 7. For liquidated damages;

17 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 18 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

19 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

20 As to the Second Cause of Action

21 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
22 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all
23 overtime wages due;

24 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

25 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from 26 the date such amounts were due;

27 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 28 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Third Cause of Action

Notice of Labor Code Violations and PAGA Penalties

Re: Samuel Lim v. Upside Foods, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Samuel Lim (“Plaintiff”) to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against his former employer, Upside Foods, Inc. (“Defendant”). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant’s aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue a PAGA representative action on behalf of Plaintiff as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all other current and former aggrieved employees who worked for Defendant in California at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the “Aggrieved Employees”).

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of Defendant suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Factual Background Regarding Plaintiff’s Employment with Defendant

Defendant owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Sacramento County. As such, Defendant is subject to the California Labor Code and the Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”).

Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a food production operator from approximately September 2023 to May 2025, primarily in Sacramento County. Defendant classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from overtime. During the time period that Plaintiff was employed by Defendant, Plaintiff typically worked 5 to 6 days per week, and in excess of 8 hours each workday.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendant committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendant was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Overtime

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all overtime wages. Defendants regularly use a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendants' operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to work "off the clock" and uncompensated. For example, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees sometimes performed work duties prior to and after clocking in and out, without compensation. Also, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees's meal breaks were sometimes interrupted without compensation. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees received different types of remuneration. However, Defendants failed to incorporate all remuneration when calculating the correct overtime rate of pay, meal break premium rate of pay, and sick day rate of pay, leading to underpayment to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Also, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees did not receive their final pay, upon employment ending, within the statutory time period.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including overtime.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendant wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal periods. Defendant also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were taking their required meal periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Defendant, however, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendant authorizing and permitting them to take a 10 minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendant also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendant did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore Defendant cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees took rest periods during the middle of each work period. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take any rest periods.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendant are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendant, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendant's failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendant's records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendant's knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 1174.5 for failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods.

Failure to Reimburse and Indemnify Expenses

California Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to reimburse employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of the employer.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendant without reimbursement, which included the use of personal cellular telephones for work purposes, and the use of personal vehicles for work purposes, as well as home office expenses such as home internet, printer, computer accessories, home office equipment and furniture, and office supplies. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred these substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant, and Defendant has failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

Failure to Pay All Accrued Vacation Wages at Termination

Labor Code § 227.3 requires employers to pay employees for all unused vested vacation time at their final rate of pay upon termination of their employment.

During the statutory period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the correct amount of vacation pay owed at the termination of employment. For instance, when Plaintiff's employment with Defendant terminated, he was owed vacation wages at his true final wage rate on his final pay check from Defendant even though he had accrued unused vacation time. On information and belief, Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff the correct amount of vacation pay was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead part of Defendant's policy and practice that applied to the Aggrieved Employees.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay all accrued vacation wages at termination.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendant failed, and continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendant's employ. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum and straight time wages), missed meal periods, and missed rest periods.

Defendant's conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).)

Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify hourly rates, the failure to correctly list gross wages earned, and the failure to list the true net wages earned, including wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and correct wages earned for all hours worked.

As a result of Defendant violating Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendant's failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding $4,000 dollars per employee.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendant also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendant owes employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;

5. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse and indemnify employees for expenses and losses in the direct consequence and discharge of their duties;
6. Labor Code § 227.3 by failing to pay all vacation wages at termination;
7. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
8. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
9. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, and 2699(f)(2).

Plaintiff has placed Defendant on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence to its corporate address, as indicated on the first page.
