8 DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

10 All allegations in this Complaint are based upon information and belief except for those 11 allegations which pertain to the Plaintiff named herein and her counsel. Each allegation has ev-
12 identitary support or is likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for fur-13 ther investigation and discovery.

14 ALICIA DEANN MAHONEY (“Plaintiff”) alleges the following:

15 1. This is a class action brought under California law by an individual who was 16 employed by Professional Event Services, Inc. (“PES”) (along with DOES 1 through 100, 17 collectively “Defendants”). Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and others similarly 18 situated to recover wages from Defendant due to Defendant’s systematic failure to pay
19 overtime/double time wages, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to provide meal/rest breaks 20 (or pay the statutory compensation due), failure to issue accurate wage statements, failure to 21 pay all wages on termination, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to pay sick pay 22 and failure to allow inspection of employment records.

23 2. Plaintiffs have worked as employees for Defendant’s event services company at 24 various locations in California. While working, Plaintiffs have been forced to endure stressful
25 and illegal workplace conditions created by Defendant’s efforts to maximize profits and tightly 26 control labor costs.

27 3. Plaintiff, like her co-workers whom Defendant also employed during the 28 applicable limitations period, spend their workdays at Defendant’s events in California, under illegal and highly regimented circumstances. That regimen results from Defendant’s insistence

1 to strictly monitor and curtail labor costs, which Defendant accomplishes by not paying for all 2 labor costs, failing to pay overtime/double time, failing to pay minimum wages, refusing to 3 provide timely meal/rest periods, not paying the required extra hour for missed meal/rest
4 breaks, failing to issue accurate wage statements, failing to pay all wages on termination, 5 failing to reimburse business expenses, failing to pay sick leave, failing to allow inspection of 6 employment records, and by using other unlawful stratagems to ensure that labor costs remain 7 artificially low.

8 4. Plaintiff brings this class action to recover, among other things, wages and 9 penalties from unpaid wages earned and due, including but not limited to, premium
10 overtime/double time wages, minimum wages, late meal/rest break wages, penalties for failure
11 to provide accurate itemized wage statements, wages and penalties for failure to issue all wages
12 on termination, damages for unreimbursed business expenses, damages and penalties for failure
13 to pay sick leave, penalties for failure to allow inspection of employment records and interest, 14 attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses.

15 5. Plaintiff seeks compensatory, statutory, declaratory, and injunctive relief for 16 herself and all members of the class, to compensate these workers for the unpaid wages and to 17 protect current and future workers of Defendant from being subjected to similar wage theft and 18 otherwise unlawful working conditions.

19 6. Plaintiff also brings an action seeking relief for Defendant's violations of 20 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq., including full restitution and 21 disgorgement of all compensation retained by Defendant as a result of its unlawful and unfair 22 business practices, as well as injunctive relief.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this Complaint under Code of Civil Procedure
25 §410.10. This action is brought under Code of Civil Procedure § 382, and Business &
26 Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. Plaintiff Alicia Deann Mahoney brings this Complaint on 27 her own behalf and on behalf of all persons in the Class as defined in paragraph 17 below.
28

8. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §§ 395 and 395.5, because the claims made, and the Labor Code violations as against the persons identified herein, occurred in the County of Yuba and because Defendant owned and operated its business in the County of Yuba.

PAGA NOTICE

9. Pursuant to the California Labor Code, on or about July 1, 2025, Plaintiff filed a notice with Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA) of her intent to pursue claims against Defendant under the Private Attorney General Act (PAGA). As such, Plaintiff further reserves the right to amend this Complaint once she completes and complies with the provisions under the law.

4 the Labor Code.

5 DEFENDANT

6 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief,
7 alleges, Defendant PES is, and at all times mentioned herein was:

- 8 (a) A California corporation, with a principal place of business at 1130 2nd
9 Street, Colusa, CA 95932. Defendant has been authorized to do business
10 and has been doing business in the County of Yuba;
11 (b) The former employer of Plaintiff and the current and former employer of 12 the putative Class members;
13 (c) Paid Plaintiff and all Class members on an hourly basis;
14 (d) Failed to pay Plaintiff and all putative Class members premium
15 overtime/double time wages;
16 (e) Failed to pay Plaintiff and all putative Class members minimum wages;
17 (f) Failed to provide Plaintiff and all putative Class members with meal/rest
18 periods and failed to provide Plaintiff and all putative Class members
19 with accurate itemized wage statements;
20 (g) Failed to pay Plaintiff and all putative Class members wages owed on 21 termination and/or resignation;
22 (h) Failed to reimburse Plaintiff's and Class members' business expenses;
23 (i) Failed to provide sick pay for Plaintiff and all putative Class members; 24 and
25 (j) Failed to provide Plaintiff and all putative Class members their personnel
26 records. Each of these was a violation of the Labor Code.

27 12. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, subsidiary,
28 partnership, associate or otherwise of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown

1 to Plaintiff, who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names pursuant to Code of
2 Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend her Complaint to allege the true
3 names and capacities of DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, when they are ascertained.

4 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief
5 alleges, that Defendant DOES 1 through 100 are persons, corporations or other entities which 6 reside in or are authorized to do, or are otherwise doing, business in the State of California.
7 Specifically, DOES 1 through 100 maintain offices, operate businesses, employ persons, and 8 conduct business in the County of Yuba. Each of the Defendants DOES 1 through 100 was the 9 managerial agent, employee, predecessor, successor, joint-venturers, co-conspirator, alter ego
10 and/or representative of one or more of the other Defendants named herein, and acting with 11 permission, authorization, and/or ratification and consent of the other Defendants.

12 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief
13 alleges, that the Defendants named in this Complaint, including DOES 1 through 100,
14 inclusive, are responsible in some manner for one or more of the events and happenings that 15 proximately caused the injuries and damages hereinafter alleged.

16 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief
17 alleges, that Defendants named in this Complaint, including DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, 18 are, and at all times mentioned herein were, the agents, servants, and/or employees of each of 19 the other Defendants and that each Defendant was acting within the course and scope of his,
20 hers or its authority as the agent, servant and/or employee of each of the other Defendants.
21 Consequently, all of the Defendants are jointly and severally liable to the Plaintiff, and the 22 Class, for the damages sustained as a proximate result of their conduct.

23 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief
24 alleges, that the Defendants named in this Complaint, including DOES 1 through 100,
25 inclusive, knowingly and willfully acted in concert, conspired and agreed together among 26 themselves and entered into a combination and systemized campaign of activity to inter alia
27 damage Plaintiff, and the Class, and to otherwise consciously and/or recklessly act in 28 derogation of the rights of Plaintiff and the Class, and the trust reposed by Plaintiff, and the

1 Class, in each of the Defendants, the acts being negligently and/or intentionally inflicted. Their 2 conspiracy, and Defendants' concerted actions, were such that, to Plaintiff's information and
3 belief, and to all appearances, Defendants, and each of them, represented a unified body so that 4 the actions of one Defendant was accomplished in concert with, and with the knowledge,
5 ratification, authorization and approval of each of the other Defendants.

6 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

7 A. The Definition of the Class

8 17. The Class ("the Class") is defined as follows:

9 (a) "All current and former employees who were hourly paid employees of 10 Defendant and worked for Defendant in California at any time during the period 11 commencing on the date that is four (4) years prior to the filing of this 12 Complaint and continuing through the present date (the "Class Period")."

13 (b) "All persons who were hourly paid employees of Defendant and worked for 14 Defendant in California and left the employ of Defendant at any time during the 15 period commencing on the date that is within one (1) year prior to the filing of 16 this Complaint and continuing through the present date (the "Class Period")."

17 Plaintiff reserves her right under Rule 3.765 of the California Rules of Court to 18 amend or modify the Class description with greater specificity or further 19 division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

20 B. Maintenance of the Action

21 18. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of herself and as 22 representative of all similarly situated persons under Business & Professions Code §§ 17203
23 and 17204 and Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

24 C. The Class Requisites

25 19. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

26 20. The Class action meets the statutory prerequisites for maintaining a class action
27 under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 in that:
28

- 1 (a) The persons who comprise the Class are so numerous that the joinder of all
2 those persons is impracticable and the disposition of their claims as a Class
3 will benefit the parties and the Court;
- 4 (b) Nearly all factual, legal, statutory, declaratory and injunctive relief issues
5 that are raised in this Complaint are common to the Class and will apply
6 uniformly to every Class member;
- 7 (c) The claims of the representative Plaintiff are typical of the claims of each
8 Class member. Plaintiff, like all Class members, has sustained damages
9 arising from Defendant's violations of the laws of the State of California.
10 Plaintiff, and the Class members, were and are similarly or identically
11 harmed by the same unlawful, deceptive, unfair, systematic and pervasive 12 pattern of misconduct engaged in by the Defendant;
- 13 (d) The representative Plaintiff has, and will continue to, fairly and adequately
14 represent and protect the interests of the Class and has retained counsel
15 who are competent and experienced in class action litigation. There are no 16 material conflicts between the claims of the representative Plaintiff and the 17 Class members that would make class certification inappropriate. Counsel
18 for the Class will vigorously assert the claims of all Class members.

19 21. The persons who comprise the Class are so numerous that joining all of them is 20 impracticable, and jointly adjudicating their claims will benefit the parties and the Court.
21 Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Class that Plaintiff seeks to represent. Plaintiff
22 will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class she seeks to represent. Plaintiff does 23 not have any interests that are antagonistic to the Class she seeks to represent. Counsel for 24 Plaintiff are experienced, qualified and generally able to conduct complex class action 25 litigation.

26 22. The Court should permit the action to be maintained as a class action under 27 Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:
28

- 1 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 2 question affecting only individual members:
3 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for fairly and 4 efficiently adjudicating the claims of the Class;
5 (c) The Class members are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all of 6 them before the Court;
7 (d) Plaintiff and other Class members will not be able to obtain effective and 8 economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
9 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and 10 equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate 11 compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendant is 12 responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the Class 13 members;
14 (f) Without Class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by 15 individual Class members would create a risk of:
16 i. Inconsistent or varying adjudications for individual Class members 17 that would establish incompatible standards of conduct for 18 Defendant; and/or,
19 ii. Adjudication for individual Class members that would, as a 20 practical matter, dispose of other non-party members' interests, or 21 that would substantially impair or impede the non-parties' ability
22 to protect their interests, by, for example, potentially exhausting
23 the funds available from Defendant, and 24 (g) Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 25 the Classes, making final injunctive relief appropriate for the Class, as a 26 whole.

27 23. Plaintiff contemplates eventually issuing notice to the proposed Class Members
28 that would set forth the subject and nature of the action. The Defendant's own business records

1 may be utilized for assisting to prepare and issue the contemplated notice. To the extent that 2 any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would contemplate using additional media and/or 3 mailing.

4 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

5 24. At all times material hereto, Defendant has been and is, an event services 6 company.

7 25. Plaintiff and members of the Class were employed as Security Guards and other 8 non-exempt employees by Defendant in California at various times during the Class Period.

9 26. The employment by Defendant of the Class members, and each them, is 10 governed by Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order No. 10, which covers those persons 11 employed in the Amusement and Recreation industry.

12 THE CONDUCT

13 27. Plaintiff seeks relief from Defendant's uniform policies and practices of denying 14 Plaintiff and members of the Class wages and compensation owed under California law.

15 28. Starting on or about February 1, 2022 and continuing to May 24, 2025, 16 Defendant employed Plaintiff on an hourly basis as a Security Guard at various events in 17 California. Plaintiff worked at weddings and festivals, among other events.

18 29. While employed by Defendant as a Security Guard, Plaintiff was paid 19 approximately $18.00 per hour.

20 OFF THE CLOCK WORK

21 30. Employers must compensate non-exempt employees for "off-the-clock" work 22 (before punching in or after punching out on a time clock) if the employers knew or should 23 have known that the employees were working those hours. Morillion v. Royal Packing Co.
24 (2000) 22 Cal. 4th 575, 585.

25 31. Defendant required Plaintiff and the Class to regularly perform compensable
26 tasks off-the-clock for which they did not receive any compensation. Specifically, at all times
27 relevant, Plaintiff and Class members consistently worked hours for which they were not paid
28 because Plaintiff and the Class members were required to engage in pre- shift activities while

1 off the clock. Plaintiff and Class members were required arrive early to work to prepare for 2 their shifts, but would not clock in.

3 32. As a result, and because they improperly treated such off the clock work as non-
4 compensable, Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Class for such time.

5 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME/DOUBLE TIME WAGES

6 33. Under California law, non-exempt employees as defined by Wage Order No. 10,
7 are entitled to premium wages for overtime worked. Under California law, an hourly paid
8 employee is entitled to overtime pay when they exceed eight hours of work in a single day, 9 exceed 40 hours of work in a week or work seven days in a row. Defendant was required to 10 compensate Plaintiff with premium pay for all double-time performed, for hours worked in 11 excess of twelve (12) hours per workday and for work in excess of eight hours on any seventh 12 day of a workweek.

13 34. During the Class Period, it was the practice and policy of Defendant to not 14 properly pay employees' overtime/double time. At times, Plaintiff and Class members were 15 not paid overtime/double time. Monies for unpaid overtime/double time remain due and 16 owing. As a result, Plaintiff and Class members were not paid for all of the overtime/double 17 time hours they worked.

18 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

19 35. Under California law, non-exempt employees as defined by IWC Wage Order
20 No. 10 are entitled to minimum wages. Labor Code Section 1197 states the California
21 requirement that employees must be paid at least the minimum wage fixed by the Commission 22 or by any applicable state or local law, and any payment of less than the minimum wage is 23 unlawful. Similarly, Labor Code Section 1194 entitles "any employee receiving less than the 24 legal minimum wage...is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full 25 amount of this minimum wage." The applicable IWC Wage Order(s), including IWC Wage
26 Order No. 10-2001, obligates employers to pay each employee minimum wages for all hours 27 worked.

1 36. These minimum wage standards apply to each hour employees worked or were 2 subject to control by the employer for which they were not paid. Therefore, an employer's 3 failure to pay for any particular hour of time worked by an employee or subject to the 4 employer's control is unlawful, even if averaging an employee's total pay over all hours
5 worked, paid or not, results in an average hourly wage above minimum wage. Armenta v.
6 Osmose, Inc., 135 Cal. App. 4th 314, 324 (2005).

7 37. Plaintiff and Class members were not afforded compliant meal/rest breaks and 8 were required to engage in off the clock activities. As a result, Defendant failed to pay
9 Plaintiff and Class members all minimum wages due.

10 38. At all times during the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the Class routinely
11 worked schedules such that they were due pay at minimum wage rates. During this period, it 12 was the practice and policy of Defendant to not pay employees' minimum wages. Monies for 13 unpaid minimum wages remain due and owing.

14 FAILURE TO AFFORD COMPLIANT MEAL BREAKS

15 39. Under California law, non-exempt employees as defined by Wage Order No. 10,
16 are entitled to premium wages for overtime worked, a 30-minute lunch period for each 5 hours
17 worked, or major fraction thereof. Non-exempt employees are entitled to one hour pay at their 18 regular pay rate for each day the requisite meal periods are not provided.

19 40. Plaintiff and Class members' meal breaks were routinely interrupted and/or not 20 afforded.

21 41. Defendant's policies and procedures were applied to all non-exempt employees
22 in California and resulted in non-exempt employees working time which was not compensated
23 by any wages in violation of Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and Wage Order No. 10. As a 24 result, Defendant owes wages at the legal overtime rate for unpaid overtime to each of their 25 California non-exempt employees whose daily hours were reduced even though their meals 26 periods were not properly afforded.

27 REST PERIODS NOT PROPERLY AFFORDED

28

1 42. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class members rest breaks were interrupted,
2 restricted and/or not afforded. As a result, rest breaks were on duty.

3 FAILURE TO ISSUE ACCURATE WAGE STATEMENTS

4 43. As a result of Defendant's failure to pay employees at required overtime/double
5 time rates, minimum wages and premium pay for meal/rest breaks not afforded, the wage
6 statements issued to the employees did not comply with Labor Code §226 and the California
7 Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order No. 10 in that they did not accurately 8 reflect all wages earned and due and owing.

9 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES ON TERMINATION

10 44. As a further result of Defendant's failure to pay employees at required 11 overtime/double time rates, minimum wages, afford proper meal/rest breaks, when the 12 employees left their employ, they were not timely paid all wages due them, as required by 13 Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and IWC Wage Order No. 10.

14 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

15 45. Defendant required Plaintiff and Class members to use their personal cell 16 phones and vehicles for work-related purposes.

17 FAILURE TO PROPERLY PAY SICK PAY WAGES

18 46. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Class sick pay wages.

19 FAILURE TO ALLOW INSPECTION OF PERSONNEL RECORDS

20 47. Defendant failed to allow Plaintiff and Class members to timely inspect their 21 records and payroll files.

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

23 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME/DOUBLE TIME

24 (Labor Code §§510, 511 558, 1194, 1198 and IWC Wage Order No. 10 by Plaintiff Against 25 Defendant and Does 1-100)

26 48. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations
27 set forth in this Complaint.

1 49. During Plaintiff's entire employment with Defendant, pursuant to Cal. Lab.
2 Code §§510, 1194, and 1198, and IWC Wage Order No. 10, Defendant was required to 3 compensate Plaintiff and Class members with premium pay for all overtime work performed,
4 for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week and for 5 the first eight (8) hours on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of any work week. Defendant was 6 required to compensate Plaintiff and Class members with premium pay for all double-time 7 performed, for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours per workday and for work in 8 excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek.

9 50. At all times relevant herein, Cal. Lab. Code §1194(a) provided that an employee 10 who had not been paid overtime/double time compensation could recover the unpaid balance of 11 the full amount of overtime/double time wages due, including interest thereon, together with 12 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

13 51. Pursuant to IWC Wage Order No. 10, § 3, "Employment beyond eight (8) hours
14 in any workday is permissible provided the employee is compensated for such overtime at not 15 less than: (a) One and one-half (1 1/2) times the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours 16 worked in excess of eight (8) hours up to and including twelve (12) hours in any workday... "

17 52. California Labor Code section 558 provides in pertinent part:

18 (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who 19 violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any 20 provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the 21 Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows:

22 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid 23 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages.

24 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 25 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was 26 underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages.

27 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 28 employee...

1 (c) The civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any 2 other civil or criminal penalty provided by law.

3 53. Throughout Plaintiff's and Class members' employment, Plaintiff and Class
4 members worked overtime/double time hours and were not fully paid overtime/double time 5 pay.

6 54. The foregoing overtime/double time compensation is owed and unpaid. As a
7 direct and proximate result of Defendant's failure and refusal to pay overtime/double time,
8 Plaintiff and Class members suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

9 55. Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code §1194(a), Plaintiff, who retained the services of legal 10 counsel in order to enforce Plaintiff's rights to overtime/double time pay, is entitled to recover
11 Plaintiff's attorneys' fees, costs and interest.

12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

13 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

14 (IWC Wage Order No. 10; Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2, 1997, 1197.1, 1198 By Plaintiff 15 Against Defendant and Does 1 through 100)

16 56. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations
17 set forth in this Complaint.

18 57. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) states: "Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a 19 lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime
20 compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid
21 balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest 22 thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

23 58. Labor Code § 1197 states the California requirement that employees must be 24 paid at least the minimum wage fixed by the Commission, and any payment of less than the 25 minimum wage is unlawful. Similarly, Labor Code § 1194 entitles "any employee receiving 26 less than the legal minimum wage...entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of 27 the full amount of this minimum wage." IWC Wage Order No. 10-2001 also obligates
28 employers to pay each employee minimum wages for all hours worked. These minimum wage standards apply to each hour employees worked for which they were not paid. Therefore, an employer's failure to pay for any particular hour of time worked by an employee is unlawful, even if averaging an employee's total pay over all hours worked, paid or not, results in an average hourly wage above minimum wage. Armenta v. Osmose, Inc., 135 Cal. App. 4th 314, 324 (2005).

59. Pursuant to IWC Wage Order No. 10, Defendant is required to pay the members of the Class for all hours worked, meaning the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

60. Furthermore, pursuant to Labor Code § 1198, "[t]he maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor fixed by the commission shall be the maximum hours of work and the standard conditions of labor for employees. The employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful."

61. Defendant failed to satisfy minimum wage requirements because they failed to afford compliant meal/rest breaks to Plaintiff and Class members in violation of Labor Code §§ 1197, 1198 and IWC Wage Order No. 10.

62. Defendant's pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code § 218, to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the Class, in a civil action, of the unpaid balance of the full amount of wages owing, calculated at the appropriate rate.

63. Labor Code § 1194.2 allows an employee to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon for any action under Labor Code § 1194. Where an employee, such as Plaintiff and the other Class members, are not paid for all hours worked under Labor Code § 1194, the employee may recover minimum wages for the time associated with the overtime for which they received no compensation. See Sillah v. Command Int'l Sec. Servs., 154 F. Supp. 3d 891 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (holding that employees

1 suing for failure to pay overtime could recover liquidated damages under § 1194.2 if they also
2 showed they were paid less than minimum wage); accord Andrade v. Arby's Rest. Grp., Inc., 3 225 F. Supp. 3d 1115, 1132-33 (N.D. Cal. 2016).

4 64. Plaintiff and the other Class members suffered and continue to suffer losses
5 related to the use and enjoyment of compensation due and owing to them as a direct result of 6 Defendant's unlawful acts and Labor Code violations in an amount to be shown according to 7 proof at trial and within the jurisdictional limitations of this Court.

8 65. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code §§200, 218.5, 558 and 1194, Plaintiff and the 9 Class are entitled to recover the unpaid balances of the minimum wages Defendant owes them, 10 plus interest, penalties, attorneys' fees, expenses and costs of suit, in amounts according to 11 proof.

12 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

13 FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE TIMELY OFF-DUTY MEAL PERIODS

14 (IWC Wage Order No. 10; Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 By Plaintiff Against Defendant and 15 Does 1 through 100)

16 66. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations
17 set forth in this Complaint.

18 67. California Labor Code §226.7(a) prohibits an employer from requiring an 19 employee to work during any meal period mandated by an applicable Industrial Wage Order.
20 Section 226.7(b) of the California Labor Code provides that "[a]n employer shall not require an 21 employee to work during a meal or rest break or recovery period mandated pursuant to an 22 applicable statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare
23 Commission..."

24 68. California Labor Code §1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee
25 under conditions the IWC prohibits.

26 69. Wage Order No. 10 provides, in relevant part: "No employer shall employ any 27 person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30-
28

1 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day's
2 work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee."

3 70. IWC Wage Order No. 10, section (11)(c) further provides, in relevant part:
4 "Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period 5 shall be considered an 'on duty' meal period and counted as time worked."

6 71. Section 512(a) of the California Labor Code provides, in relevant part, that:

7 An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five 8 hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less 9 than 30-minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is 10 no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 11 both the employer and employee. An employer may not employ an employee 12 for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the 13 employee with a second meal period of not less than 30-minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

14 72. The Labor Code and Wage Order No. 10 provisions cited above require 15 California employers to provide employees with off-duty 30-minute meal periods on or before 16 the fifth hour of their shifts. To satisfy this obligation, California employers must: (1) make 17 employees aware of their right to off-duty 30-minute meal periods before the fifth hour of their 18 shifts, and (2) ensure that employees are actually free of job duties for thirty minutes per day on 19 or before the fifth hour of their shifts.

20 73. As alleged herein, Defendant failed to relieve employees of duties for meal
21 breaks throughout the Class Period. Plaintiff and the members of the Class's meal periods 22 were not compliant since their meal breaks were interrupted and/or not afforded.

23 74. Under California law, employers must also record their employees' meal
24 periods: "Every employer shall keep accurate information with respect to each employee, 25 including the following: ... Meal periods ... shall also be recorded. Meal periods during which 26 operations cease ... need not be recorded." IWC Wage Order No. 10, § (7)(A)(3). Where the 27 employer has failed to keep records required by statute, the consequences of such failure should 28 fall on the employer, not the employee. In such a situation, imprecise evidence by the employee

1 can provide a sufficient basis for liability." Hernandez v. Mendoza, 199 Cal. App. 3d 721, 727
2 (1988). Inasmuch as Defendant had an obligation under the record-keeping requirements of the 3 Wage Order to track meal periods unless "all work ceases", Defendant knew or should have 4 known its employees were regularly not being afforded compliant meal periods during the 5 Class Period.

6 75. Defendant has a policy or practice of failing to ensure that Plaintiff and 7 members of the class take off duty meal periods required by California Labor Code §226.7 and 8 Wage Order No. 10, §11.

9 76. By their actions in failing to afford Plaintiff and Class members compliant meal
10 periods, Defendant violated Cal. Lab. Code §226.7(b) and section 11 of Wage Order No. 10 in 11 the amount of one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for 12 each work period during each day in which Defendant failed to provide employees with 13 statutory timely off-duty meal periods.

14 77. Defendant also has a policy or practice of failing to pay each of their employees
15 who was provided with an on-duty meal period an additional one hour of compensation at each 16 employee's regular rate of pay.

17 78. Cal. Labor Code § 218 authorizes Plaintiff and the members of the Class to 18 bring a private right of action to recover wages due based on the deprivation of timely meal
19 periods under Cal. Labor Code § 226.7(b).

20 79. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unlawful conduct as alleged 21 herein, Plaintiff and members of the Class have sustained economic damages, including but not 22 limited to unpaid wages and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and are entitled 23 to recover economic and statutory damages, attorneys' fees and penalties and other appropriate 24 relief due to Defendant's violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order No. 10.

25 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE TIMELY OFF-DUTY REST PERIODS

27 (IWC Wage Order No. 10; Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 By Plaintiff Against Defendant and 28 Does 1 through 100)

1 80. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations
2 set forth in this Complaint.

3 81. Labor Code § 226.7 and Wage Order No. 10 provide that employers shall 4 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods at the rate of ten minutes net rest time
5 per four hours of work, or major fraction thereof.

6 82. Labor Code § 226.7 and IWC Wage Order No. 10 provide that if an employer
7 fails to provide an employee with rest periods in accordance with those provisions, the 8 employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 9 compensation for each workday that the rest periods were not so provided.

10 83. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and members of the Class have worked 8 11 hours daily.

12 84. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant failed to provide rest periods as required 13 by Labor Code § 226.7 and Wage Order No. 10. Plaintiff and Class members' rest breaks were 14 routinely not afforded, restricted and/or interrupted.

15 85. Defendant has intentionally and improperly denied compliant rest periods to 16 Plaintiff and the Class in violation of Labor Code § 226.7 and Wage Order No. 10. As a result,
17 all rest breaks were on duty. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class members were not afforded 18 second rest and third breaks.

19 86. By virtue of Defendant's unlawful failure to provide compliant rest periods to 20 the Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, 21 damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed 22 the jurisdictional limits of the Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

23 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 FOR FAILURE TO MAINTAIN RECORDS AND PROVIDE ACCURATE WAGE

25 ITEMIZED STATEMENTS

26 (Labor Code §226 By Plaintiff Against Defendant and Does 1 through 100)

27 87. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations
28 set forth in this Complaint.

1 88. Pursuant to IWC Wage Order No. 10, Defendant was the employer of Plaintiff
2 and the Class.

3 89. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 226 and 1174, and Wage Order No.
4 10, section 7, Defendant is required to maintain and provide accurate records relating to 5 employee compensation including all formulas and production records used to calculate wages 6 due.

7 90. Defendant is further required to provide, inter alia, semimonthly or at the time
8 of each payment of wages, an accurate itemized statement showing: (1) gross wages earned; (2) 9 all deductions from wages; (3) net wages earned; (4) the inclusive dates of the period for which 10 the employee is being paid; (5) the name of the employee; and (6) the name and address of the 11 legal entity that is the employee's actual employer. Cal. Labor Code §226(a).

12 91. Section 226(e) provides that an employee is entitled to recover $50 for the initial 13 pay period in which a violation of Section 226 occurs and $100 for each subsequent pay period,
14 not to exceed $4,000, plus an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, for all pay periods
15 in which the employer knowingly and intentionally failed to provide accurate itemized 16 statements to the employee causing the employee to suffer injury.

17 92. Notwithstanding these provisions. Defendant has engaged in a uniform practice 18 of refusing to maintain and provide the accurate records and wage statements required by 19 California law.

20 93. Throughout the Class Period, Defendant intentionally and knowingly provided 21 Plaintiff and other members of the Class with weekly itemized wage statements containing 22 inaccurate information regarding the wages earned by Plaintiff and members of the Class in 23 that the payments owed to Plaintiff and the members of the Class for overtime/double time 24 compensation, minimum wages, on duty meal/rest periods and sick pay were not included in 25 gross wages earned by Plaintiff and members of the Class.

26 94. As a result, Plaintiff and members of the Class have been injured by having been 27 deprived of the true facts pertaining to their compensation and employment.
28

1 95. Plaintiff and members of the Class were damaged by these failures because,
2 among other things, the failures led them to believe that they were not entitled to 3 overtime/double time compensation, minimum wages, pay for meal/rest periods not properly 4 provided and sick pay, even though they were so entitled and these failures hindered them from 5 determining the amounts of wages owed to them.

6 96. Plaintiff and members of the Class are entitled to the amounts provided in Labor
7 Code §226(e), plus attorneys' fees and costs.

8 97. As result, Plaintiff seeks recovery of the penalties authorized by Labor Code 9 sections 226(e) and 558, and such other penalties and legal and equitable remedies as are 10 provided by law for Defendant's improper conduct.

11 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 FOR FAILURE TO PAY WAGES UPON TERMINATION

13 (Labor Code §§201-203 By Plaintiff against Defendant and Does 1 through 100)

14 98. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations
15 set forth in this Complaint.

16 99. Labor Code § 201(a) provides that a discharged employee's unpaid wages are 17 due and payable immediately. Labor Code § 202(a) provides that when an employee resigns 18 from employment, unpaid wages are due and payable within 72 hours of resignation.

19 100. Labor Code § 203(a) provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages as 20 mandated by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, the employee's wages shall continue to accrue until 21 paid, not to exceed thirty days.

22 101. Plaintiff and the Class were discharged and/or resigned from Defendant's 23 employ and Defendant willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class wages due them.

24 102. Under Labor Code § 203(a), Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to one day's 25 wages for each day he or she was not timely paid, not to exceed 30 days' wages.

26 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

27 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

28 (Cal. Labor Code §2802 By Plaintiff Against Defendant and Does 1 through 100)

103. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations set forth in this Complaint.

104. Labor Code §2802 requires employers to indemnify employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by employees in the discharge of their duties.

105. Defendant required Plaintiff and Class members to use their personal cell phones and vehicles for work-related purposes. However, Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and members of the Class for their cell phone and vehicle expenses incurred on Defendant's behalf.

106. At all times relevant herein, Defendant was aware that Plaintiff and Class members were using their personal cell phones and vehicles for work-related purposes, but failed to indemnify Plaintiff and Class members for all their business-related expenses, in accordance with Labor Code §2802. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times, Defendant maintained a practice of not reimbursing Plaintiff and Class members for their work-related expenses that they incurred in using their personal cell phones and vehicles, including wear and tear, for work-related purposes.

107. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff and Class members suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not reimbursed for all of their business-related expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

108. Pursuant to Labor Code §2802, Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unreimbursed business expenses, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY ALL SICK LEAVE WAGES WHEN DUE

(Cal. Labor Code §§201-204, 218, 218.5, 233, 245, 246 et. seq. By Plaintiff Against Defendant and Does 1 through 100)

109. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations set forth in this Complaint.

1 110. Section 246 (1) requires that employers pay sick time pay to non-exempt
2 employees at the employee's "regular rate of pay." Employers must calculate paid sick leave for 3 nonexempt employees (1) "in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in 4 which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime
5 in that workweek" or (2) "by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime
6 premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days
7 of employment."

8 111. The "regular rate of pay" includes all remuneration for employment paid to the 9 employee with the exception of overtime pay and includes, but is not limited to base hourly
10 wages, shift differentials and other forms of non-discretionary wages.

11 112. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class members any sick pay wages.
12 Plaintiff's paystubs do not reflect any sick leave and/or sick leave wages.

13 113. Moreover, Section 204 provides that wages are generally due and payable no later 14 than seven days after the end of a pay period or at least twice during each calendar month, on 15 days designated in advance as the regular paydays. Section 201 provides if an employer 16 discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and 17 payable immediately. Section 202 provides that an employee is entitled to receive all unpaid
18 wages no later than 72 hours after an employee quits his or her employment, unless the employee
19 has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case 20 the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. Section 203 provides that if 21 an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed in accordance with Sections 201 and 202, then 22 the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date, and at the same rate 23 until paid, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

24 114. Because Defendant did not pay Plaintiff and members of the Class all owing and 25 underpaid sick pay wages, Defendant violated Sections 201-204, 246, and other Labor Code
26 sections. Defendant willfully failed to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Class all their 27 wages due during employment and failed to timely pay all their wages due upon the termination
28 of their employment within the times prescribed by the Labor Code and is therefore subject to

1 applicable penalties, including a waiting time penalty, for each day, up to a thirty (30) day
2 maximum, pursuant to Section 203.

3 115. Labor Code section 233 provides: “Any employer who provides sick leave for 4 employees shall permit an employee to use in any calendar year the employee's accrued and 5 available sick leave entitlement, in an amount not less than the sick leave that would be accrued 6 during six months at the employee's then current rate of entitlement, for the reasons specified in 7 subdivision (a) of Section 246.5.”

8 116. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to 9 pay Plaintiff and members of the Class their sick pay wages at the regular rate of pay required
10 by law. Accordingly, Plaintiff and members of the Class did not receive the full amount of paid
11 sick time that they were entitled to receive by law, and were therefore denied the right to use
12 sick leave within the meaning of Labor Code Sections 233(a) and (c).

13 117. Any employer who violates Labor Code section 233 is liable to employees for 14 the greater of one day’s pay or actual damages, reasonable equitable relief, and reasonable 15 attorneys' fees and costs. Lab. Code sections 233(d), (e).

16 118. Labor Code section 218 authorizes a private right of action to recover unpaid 17 wages, including under sections 204 and 233.

18 119. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 218 and 218.5, Plaintiff and members of the 19 Class are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid wages, applicable penalties,
20 prejudgment interest on the amount of their unpaid wages, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs 21 of suit.

22 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 FAILURE TO ALLOW INSPECTION OF EMPLOYMENT RECORDS

24 (Labor Code §1198.5 By Plaintiff Against Defendant and Does 1 through 100)

25 120. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations
26 set forth in this Complaint.

27 121. California Labor Code Section 1198.5 provides:
28

1 (a) Every current and former employee, or his or her representative, has the 2 right to inspect and receive a copy of the personnel records that the 3 employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning the employee.

4 (b) The employer shall make the contents of those personnel records available
5 for inspection to the current or former employee, or his or her
6 representative, at reasonable intervals and at reasonable times, but not later
7 than 30 calendar days from the date the employer receives a written request, 8 unless the current or former employee, or his or her representative, and the 9 employer agree in writing to a date beyond 30 calendar days to inspect the 10 records, and the agreed-upon date does not exceed 35 calendar days from 11 the employer's receipt of the written request to inspect the records. Upon a written request from a current or former employee, or his or her representative, the employer shall also provide a copy of the personnel records,..... later than 30 calendar days from the date the employer receives the request...

12 (k) If an employer fails to permit a current or former employee, or his or her
13 representative, to inspect or copy personnel records within the times specified I 14 this section... the current or former employee may recover a penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from the employer.

15 (1) A current or former employee may also bring an action for injunctive relief 16 to obtain compliance with this section, and may recover costs and reasonable attorney's fees in such an action.

17 122. Additionally, pursuant to IWC Wage Order No. 10, at section 7 re: Records,
18 employers are required to keep accurate payroll records on each employee, and such records
19 must be made readily available for inspection by the employee upon reasonable request. The 20 employer must also maintain accurate production records.

21 123. On or about July 1, 2025, Plaintiff's counsel issued a written request to 22 Defendant for copies of her personnel records.

23 124. Under California Labor Code Sections 226, 432 and 1198.5, such records were 24 to include all records relating to Plaintiff's hours worked, wage statements and compensation.
25 Plaintiff's counsel and Defendant did not enter into an agreement to enlarge the time for 26 Defendant's compliance, and Defendant has failed and refused to permit Plaintiff copies of her 27 records.
28

125. As a direct result and consequence of Defendant's failure and refusal to permit Plaintiff full access to her records, Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief in the form of an order or decree mandating Defendant's compliance. Plaintiff has suffered and will suffer harm as a result of Defendant's ongoing refusal to comply. Plaintiff also seeks recovery of the statutory penalty of $750 based upon Defendant's violation of §1198.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR COMPETITION

(Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. By Plaintiff Against Defendant and Does 1 through 100)

126. Plaintiff and the Class reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations set forth in this Complaint.

127. Pursuant to IWC Wage Order No. 10, Defendant was the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Defendant is also a "person" as that term is defined in Business & Professions Code §17021.

128. The Business & Professions Code defines unfair competition as any unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business practice. At all times relevant herein, by and through the conduct described herein, Defendant has engaged in unfair and unlawful practices by failing to (1) pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime/double time compensation; (2) pay minimum wages; (3) pay Plaintiff and the Class for meal periods improperly afforded, (4) pay Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods improperly afforded, (5) furnish Plaintiff and the Class with accurate itemized wage statements, as mandated by the applicable Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission requirements, (6) pay all wages on termination, (7) reimburse business expenses, (8) pay sick pay, and (9) provide personnel records, all in violation of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

129. By and through the unfair and unlawful business practices described herein, Defendant has obtained valuable property, money and services from the Plaintiff and the Class and has deprived them of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law all to the detriment of Plaintiff and the Class.

130. All the acts described herein are violations of, among other things, the Labor Code and Industrial Commission Wage Order No. 10, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

131. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to restore to them the money and property which Defendant has acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived by means of the above-described unfair and unlawful business practices.

132. Plaintiff and the Class are further entitled to, and do, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair and unlawful and that injunctive relief should be issued restraining Defendant from engaging in any of the above described unfair and unlawful business practices in the future.

133. Plaintiff and the Class have no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which they have suffered as a consequence of the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendant. As a result of the unfair and unlawful business practices described above, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless Defendant is restrained from continuing to engage in these unfair and unlawful business practices. In addition, Defendant should be required to disgorge the unpaid moneys to Plaintiff and the Class.
