DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JOSHUA PARK (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of San Francisco. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of San Francisco. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of San Francisco.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff JOSHUA PARK is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Mateo.

6. Defendant BRENDA’S LLC DBA BRENDA’S FRENCH SOUL FOOD, at all times herein mentioned, is and was, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Francisco.

1 7. At all relevant times, Defendant BRENDA’S LLC DBA BRENDA’S FRENCH
2 SOUL FOOD was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California
3 laws and statutes.

4 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants BRENDA’S LLC DBA BRENDA’S
5 FRENCH SOUL FOOD and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners,
6 joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest,
7 co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting
8 within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 9 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and 10 all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, 11 permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

12 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 13 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
14 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 15 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
16 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 17 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
18 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 19 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

20 10. Defendants BRENDA’S LLC DBA BRENDA’S FRENCH SOUL FOOD and 21 DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

22 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 23 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 24 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and 25 employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

14. All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from October 29, 2017, through March 27, 2023 or preliminary approval, whichever is sooner.

15. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

16. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than two hundred (200) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay and sick pay;

- 1 e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of 2 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class
3 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
4 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 5 other class members for all hours worked;
6 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other
7 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 8 resignation;
9 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 10 the other class members during their employment;
11 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 12 Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
13 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class
14 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
15 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
16 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 17 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
18 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 19 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and 20 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 21 compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

22 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

23 18. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff
24 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

25 19. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-26 exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of San 27 Francisco.

28 ///

1 20. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
2 members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members'
3 employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

4 21. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 5 Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff
6 and the other class members.

7 22. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other
8 class members.

9 23. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 10 State of California.

11 24. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
12 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

13 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or 15 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing 16 to pay them for all hours worked, sick leave, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in 17 violation of California law.

18 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
19 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive 20 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 21 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

22 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
24 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
25 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's
4 and the other class members' regular rates of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 5 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
6 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rates of pay when a meal
7 period was missed.

8 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
10 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's 11 and the other class members' regular rates of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 12 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 13 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rates of pay when a rest period was 14 missed.

15 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 18 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

19 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
21 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
22 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did
23 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

24 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
26 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, Plaintiff 27 and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 28 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and the other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

37. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly calculate and pay sick leave to Plaintiff and the other class members.

45. Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against BRENDA'S LLC DBA BRENDA'S FRENCH SOUL FOOD and DOES 1 through 100)

46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 45, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

47. Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

49. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

50. Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

51. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

52. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

54. Per Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

15 90. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 16 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include but 17 are not limited to, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the 18 other class members.

19 91. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and 20 the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

21 92. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 22 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 23 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 24 itemized wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a).

25 93. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 26 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code
27 section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

28 ///

1 94. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 2 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code section 226(g).

1 100. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that
2 any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected
3 by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its
4 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the Labor
5 Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of 6 himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

7 101. On January 30, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and 8 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the 9 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
10 is a copy of the January 30, 2023 written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about 11 April 5, 2023, the sixty-five (65) day notice period will expire as to all Defendants, and the 12 LWDA will not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff will 13 have exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

14 102. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved 15 employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current and former 23 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

24 104. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other
25 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 26 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

2 105. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512,
3 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
4 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further
5 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5)
6 hours worked.

7 106. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other 8 aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest breaks and 9 failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

10 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

11 107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
12 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

13 108. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
14 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time 15 period.

16 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

17 109. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
18 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections 201
19 to 204.

20 110. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
21 failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to 22 Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor
23 Code section 203.

24 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

25 111. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
26 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226 and 27 1174.

28 ///

1 112. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 2 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
3 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding
4 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours
5 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 6 hours worked at each hourly rate.

7 Failure to Provide Paid Sick Days

8 113. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to provide their employees
9 with paid sick days pursuant to the methods outlined in Labor Code section 246.

10 114. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other 11 aggrieved current and former employees with paid sick days pursuant to methods outlined in 12 Labor Code section 246.

13 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

14 115. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees

19 aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them
20 within the required time period.

21 Penalties

22 117. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the 23 other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from 24 Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including but 25 not limited to:

26 ///

- 1 a. Penalties under Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred

4 per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 5 b. Penalties under Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount

- 19 e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or 20 other statutes; and
- 21 f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 1194, 22 and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

Re: BRENDA'S LLC DBA BRENDA'S FRENCH SOUL FOOD

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Joshua Park against Brenda's LLC DBA Brenda's French Soul Food (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "BRENDA'S").

Mr. Park is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Park may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Brenda's LLC DBA Brenda's French Soul Food is a California limited liability company located at 652 Polk St, San Francisco, California 94102.

BRENDA'S employed Mr. Park as an hourly-paid non-exempt Server until in or around July of 2018 in the State of California. BRENDA'S directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Park may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of BRENDA'S within the State of California.

BRENDA'S failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Park has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at BRENDA'S, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

BRENDA'S has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. BRENDA'S failed to compensate Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work. Such off-the-clock work consisted of but was not limited to: (1) pre-shift work including putting menus on tables, restocking condiments, and counting money; (2) post-shift work including restocking drinks in the fridge and bottles of wine, unloading deliveries made during employees' shifts that they did not have time to unload earlier, and counting money; and (4) working during meal breaks.

BRENDA'S also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and the value of discounted meals provided pursuant to an Employee Meal Plan in aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, BRENDA'S failed to pay Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. Until 2020, BRENDA'S did not have legally compliant meal and rest break policies in place. Moreover, during the relevant time period, BRENDA'S routinely required Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest because BRENDA'S was always very busy and there were never enough employees on-shift to attend to the high volumes of customers. In addition, BRENDA'S managers routinely interrupted and cut employees' meal breaks short by asking work-related questions and instructing employees to return to work. Despite these facts, BRENDA'S failed to compensate Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at Mr. Park's and other aggrieved employees' regular rates of pay.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, BRENDA'S failed to pay Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, BRENDA'S failed to pay Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, BRENDA'S did not provide Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from BRENDA'S were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees, (3) all deductions for Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees, (4) net wages earned by Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees, and (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, BRENDA'S failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, BRENDA'S did not provide Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Park and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by BRENDA'S, including (1) using their personal cellular phones for work-related purposes every shift, including to communicate with supervisors, use various apps, and write in the manager logs; (2) using their personal vehicles for work-related purposes, such as to go get ice during a shift; and (3) purchasing various items, including work shoes, company t-shirts, and headsets, out-of-pocket .

We believe that Mr. Park and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Park will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of BRENDA'S within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
