DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

COMES NOW plaintiff SABRINA CARRION (“Plaintiff”), as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys’ General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against CLUTTER, INC., a Delaware corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“CLUTTER”), and CHARLES ROBERTSON, an individual (“ROBERTSON,” and together with “CLUTTER” and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 245, et seq., restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiffs, or some of them, and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

1 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 2 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 3 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 4 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
5 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 6 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 7 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

8 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 9 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
10 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 11 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

12 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 13 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 14 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 15 432, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198.5, 2699, and 2810.5, among others.

16 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 17 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 18 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 19 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 8. On or around January 20, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 21 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 22 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 23 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

24 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 25 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 26 calendar days of the January 20, 2023 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 27 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Employer's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, , to attend company meetings off the clock, failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask allowances, gift cards and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay to the detriment of Employee and other aggrieved employees.

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Employer's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to attend company meetings off the clock, detrimental rounding of employee

1 time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; 2 and failing to pay split shift premiums. In addition, Employee and other aggrieved employees were 3 required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were furnished less than 4 half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or scheduled work at 5 their regular rate of pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

6 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 7 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute meal periods or 8 compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation: by interrupting meal periods; not 9 providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 10 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 11 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 12 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 13 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws

14 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 15 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 16 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 17 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 18 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 19 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 20 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 21 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

22 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
23 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 24 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 25 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 26 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 27 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the

1 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 2 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

3 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
4 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 5 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
6 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 7 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 8 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiffs and other 9 Aggrieved Employees.

10 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
11 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 12 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime 13 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 14 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

15 17. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 16 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 17 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 18 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 19 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 20 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 21 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 22 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

23 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 24 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 25 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 26 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 27 all other Aggrieved Employees.

19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code Section 204, which requires that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

20. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

21. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, fork lift operating and pulling down pull palettes. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately September of 2022 through approximately November of 2022.

B. Defendants

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant CLUTTER is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a Delaware corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

23. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant ROBERTSON is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as a supervisor of CLUTTER, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below.

24. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff,

1 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
2 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 3 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
4 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 5 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 6 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 7 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 8 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 9 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 10 include CLUTTER, ROBERTSON, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies 11 within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

12 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

13 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 14 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 15 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 16 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 17 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

18 26. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 19 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 20 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 21 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 22 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 23 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 24 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 25 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 26 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

27 ///

1 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 2 formation of the purported corporate existence of CLUTTER, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive 3 (the “Alter Ego Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 51 through 4 100 (“Individual Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following reasons:

5 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 6 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws 7 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 8 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 9 inequitable purpose;

10 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 11 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 12 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

13 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 14 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 15 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 16 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

17 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 18 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 19 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 20 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 21 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 22 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 23 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

24 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 25 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 26 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiffs for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 27 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be

1 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
2 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

3 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 4 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 5 disregarded.

6 28. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 7 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

10 29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 11 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

12 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

13 30. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 14 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 15 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 16 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 17 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

18 31. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 19 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 20 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 21 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 22 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 23 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 24 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

25 32. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 26 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 27 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other

1 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor 2 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 3 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee 4 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 5 Code section 204.

6 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

7 33. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code 8 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 9 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 10 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 11 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 12 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 13 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 14 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

15 34. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 16 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 17 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 18 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 19 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

20 35. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 21 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

22 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 23 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 24 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 25 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 26 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 27 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's

1 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 2 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

3 37. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 4 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
5 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
6 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 7 period for each subsequent violation.

8 Violation of Labor Code § 558

9 38. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 10 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 11 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 12 penalty as follows:

13 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 14 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 15 to recover underpaid wages;

16 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 17 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 18 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

19 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

20 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 21 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 22 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 23 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 24 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business 25 as" names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance 26 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

27 ///

40. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

41. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, or papers of the person.”

42. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

43. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units earned.”

44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate

1 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 2 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 3 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

4 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 5 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 6 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
7 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
8 under Labor Code section 1174.

9 46. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 10 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 11 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 12 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

13 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

14 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 15 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 16 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 17 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 18 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 19 Section 203 as follows:

20 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 21 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 22 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 23 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 24 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

25 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 26 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 27 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is

1 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
2 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
