DECLARATION OF BRIAN J. MANKIN, ESQ., IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Hearing

Date: March 14, 2024

Time: 8:30 a.m.

Dept.: 1

I, Brian J. Mankin, state and declare:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice before all of the courts of the State of California. I manage the employment department within my firm where I am also a Partner. I represent Plaintiff in this action and I am thoroughly familiar with and have personal knowledge of all of the facts set forth herein. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of this Class Action Settlement. If called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

1 COUNSEL’S EXPERIENCE

2 2. I have been a member, in good standing, of the State Bar of California since 2001.
3 I am admitted to practice in the United States District Courts for the Central and Southern 4 District of California and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal and have tried cases in various 5 courts in California.

6 3. I have handled over 500 employee vs. employer litigation matters during my 22
7 years in practice. Over the last 15 years, my practice has almost entirely consisted of 8 representing employees, the majority of which has included class action and representative
9 action wage and hour matters. In total, I have handled over 250 class action and representative
10 action wage/hour cases, and have been appointed by the court as class counsel and have received 11 final court approval and judgment in close to half of those actions to date, and anticipate 12 receiving final approval in many more of those in the future.

13 4. As part of these settlements and judgments, I have recovered in excess of $250
14 million in damages for my clients and the class members (who often work as nurses, ambulance 15 drivers, technicians, warehouse workers, truck drivers, sales, professional occupations and 16 countless other trades). At one point, my team and I held the record for the largest known
17 PAGA-only case in California’s history - a $12.5 million-dollar court approved settlement,
18 which followed extensive litigation, summary adjudication and writs to the CA Supreme Court
19 against a Fortune 50 company (Garcia v. Macy’s, San Bernardino Superior Court).

20 5. I have tried two class and PAGA cases against Fortune 100 companies. In 2018, I
21 was lead counsel in a PAGA case that my firm tried to the bench in the Orange County Superior
22 Court and received a $425,000 judgment. In 2019, I was co-counsel in a class action case
23 against Walmart that was tried to the jury in District Court for the Central District, wherein the 24 jury awarded Plaintiffs over $6 million. Following the successful outcome in trial, both cases 25 were appealed.

26 6. I was named by the LA Times as one “Southern California Leading Lawyers” in 27 the May 2023 issue of Consumer Attorney’s of Southern California (a recognition given to 17 28 employment/labor law attorneys in 2023). Additionally, over the last five consecutive years, I have been selected by my peers as a “Super Lawyer” in Employment Litigation, a distinction that only 5% of lawyers receive.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

7. Following mediation, Plaintiff and Defendant (collectively, the “Parties”) eventually entered into a Class and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims resolving the wage and hour claims of the putative class (the “Settlement Agreement” or “S.A.”), which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. The Settlement Agreement seeks to release and discharge Defendant from the claims brought against it in exchange for Defendant’s agreement to pay $775,000 on a non-reversionary, non-claims made basis (each Class Member will receive his/her share of the Net Settlement Amount without having to submit a claim form or take any action, except for those who opt-out).

9. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all current and former nonexempt (hourly paid) employees employed by Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period (which is January 19, 2019, through February 2, 2024).

10. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff Counsel’s application for a reasonable award of attorneys’ fees not to exceed one-third of the Settlement Amount, litigation expenses not to exceed $20,000, Settlement Administrator Costs of $9,000, PAGA penalties of $50,000 (with 75% to the LWDA and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis), and a Service Payment of $7,500 to Plaintiff. After subtracting these deductions from the Settlement Amount, approximately $430,166.67 will be available to pay individual settlement amounts to approximately 410 Class Members who do not opt-out of the settlement, as follows:

Settlement Amount	$ 775,000.00
Attorneys’ Fees (1/3)	$ 258,333.33
Litigation Costs (not to exceed)	$ 20,000.00
Administrator Costs	$ 9,000.00
PAGA Penalties	$ 50,000.00
Class Representative Service Award	$ 7,500.00
Net Settlement Amount	$ 430,166.67

1 11. The Net Settlement Amount will be paid to the Class Members on a Work Week
2 basis, calculated by looking to the relative number of weeks worked by each class member in 3 certain time periods. And each Class Member will receive the Class Notice, explaining the 4 nature of the case, and the process for participating, objecting and opting-out, and advising of 5 his/her estimated settlement payment and the number of Work Weeks he/she is credited with 6 working during the applicable periods. True and correct copies of the Class Notice, Request for 7 Exclusion Form, Objection Form and Dispute Form are attached hereto as Exhibits B, C, D and 8 E, respectively.

9 PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

10 12. My office has performed considerable work and diligently investigated and 11 prosecuted this case to a successful conclusion. Our work has resulted in the creation of a 12 significant settlement fund for the benefit of the Class. We efficiently communicated and 13 exchanged information informally with Defense counsel which enabled the parties to 14 successfully settle the case. Because of the risks involved in litigating the case and the contested 15 legal and factual issues, my office believes this settlement to be fair, reasonable, and adequate.

16 13. After being retained by Plaintiff, we submitted a letter to the Labor and 17 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys
18 General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), and simultaneously sent a letter to Defendant requesting the 19 production of personnel and timekeeping records to further evaluate his wage and hour claims.
20 The LWDA ultimately declined to assert jurisdiction over the PAGA, thereby giving Plaintiff the 21 right to bring PAGA claims. A true and correct copy of Mr. Aldana’s LWDA Notice Letter is 22 attached hereto as Exhibit F.

23 14. On January 19, 2023, my office filed this class action, alleging that Defendant
24 violated various sections of the Labor Code. Then, on March 31, 2023, my office filed a First 25 Amended Complaint adding PAGA causes of action.

26 15. Defendant retained counsel and immediately began to defend the case. Then,
27 after early discussions among counsel, the Parties agreed to attend private mediation.
28

1 16. In preparation for mediation, the Parties informally exchanged documents and
2 information that allowed both sides to calculate the potential damages and evaluate potential risk,
3 including policies and procedures pertaining to the claims, statistics relating to the number of 4 current and former employees, number of shifts, pay periods worked and other things, and a
5 sampling of payroll and timekeeping records for Class Members (covering 97 Class Members
6 and including wage statements for every period worked and over 49,000 rows of excel data). In 7 sum, this information exchange enabled both parties to take a deep dive into the claims.
8 Additionally, during this process, Plaintiff and his counsel analyzed, researched, and investigated
9 the potential issues, including matters related to the calculation of damages, trial, and appellate 10 issues and risks.

11 17. On December 4, 2023, Plaintiff and Defendant participated in mediation before
12 Steve Serratore, Esq. a well-respected employment mediator. The matter resolved at mediation
13 and the Parties entered into the Settlement Agreement submitted herewith. The Parties now seek 14 the Court's preliminary approval of the Settlement.

15 SUMMARY OF THE CLAIMS AND DEFENSES

16 18. Plaintiff alleged numerous wage and hour violations on behalf of the Class.
17 However, Defendant vigorously contested and denied each of Plaintiff's material allegations on 18 the merits and as to the propriety of a class action or PAGA representative action. Still, Plaintiff
19 believed there were several strong claims.

20 19. For instance, Plaintiff alleged Defendant failed to pay proper wages due to several 21 distinct wage violations. First, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant paid the Class on an hourly basis
22 plus additional earned compensation but failed to include this compensation in the regular rate
23 calculations and overtime pay. Second, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to pay for all
24 compensable hours due to the failure to accurately record all hours worked. As a result, Plaintiff
25 argued these violations resulted in unpaid minimum wages and overtime, as well as waiting time
26 penalties under Labor Code § 203 and other derivative penalties. However, Defendant opposed 27 each of these unpaid wage claims on the merits and as to the propriety of class certification.
28

20. Plaintiff also alleged that he and the Class Members were often denied compliant meal and rest breaks due to the nature of the work. However, Defendant argued that it provided and made all mandated meal and rest breaks available to the Class, and any employee who did not take a break did so entirely of their own volition. Thus, Defendant argued that these claims were without merit because, for each violation, a fact-finder would have to determine why a break was noncompliant, because if it was by the employee's choice, no liability attaches to Defendant.

21. Despite the disputed nature of the claims, the Parties concluded that further litigation of the Action would be protracted and expensive, and that it is desirable that the Action be fully and finally settled to limit further risk, expense, and protracted litigation.

CMO COMPLIANCE

22. In accordance with CMO ¶ G, this section will specifically identify and address each CMO requirement. This information was compiled with the assistance of Peter Carlson, who was responsible for preparing the pre-mediation data and calculations, and primarily assisted in the preparation of the Kullar analysis. As such, the following is based largely on information and belief, as it was largely prepared with Mr. Carlson's assistance (but I reviewed all of the information).

CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(i)

23. Based on information obtained in formal discovery and through informal discovery before mediation, I estimate that there will be approximately 410 individuals that fall within the Class definition and 200 of those individuals are also PAGA “Aggrieved Employees.”

CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(ii), CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(iii), CMO ¶ G(9)(b)

24. The following paragraphs provide the maximum and risk-adjusted value for each claim, and this includes all claims on a class and PAGA basis as required by the CMO.

25. The calculations below are based upon data points obtained through formal and informal discovery, from which Plaintiff's counsel estimated the following through mediation: (1) 403 Class Members, (2) 242 former Class Members for purposes of Labor Code § 203, (3) 19,954 workweeks, (4) 93,784 shifts worked, and (4) approximately 9,006 wage statements

1 during the PAGA Period.

2 Unpaid Wage Claims (Minimum and Overtime)

3 26. Plaintiff alleged two unpaid wages on behalf of the Class: (1) Defendant paid the 4 Class on an hourly basis plus additional earned compensation but failed to include this
5 compensation in the regular rate calculations and overtime pay, and (2) Defendant failed to pay
6 for all compensable hours due to the failure to accurately record all hours worked.

7 27. As to the first unpaid wage, Plaintiff and the Class Members were paid on an 8 hourly basis along with nondiscretionary bonuses and other earned compensation. However, the 9 pre-mediation sampling showed that, on the occasions that a Class Member earned additional 10 compensation and worked overtime during the time period when such compensation was earned,
11 Defendant did not include the compensation in the regular rate (i.e., Defendant only paid
12 overtime at 1.5 times the base rate). Plaintiff alleged that this led to a failure to pay all overtime
13 owed. However, Defendant raised several defenses to this claim, including that the Class
14 Members were parties to a Collective Bargaining Agreement (“CBA”) that governed their terms
15 of employment. Defendant thus argued that Labor Code § 514 applied and permitted Defendant
16 to exclude bonuses and other compensation from the overtime calculations.

17 28. As to the second unpaid wage claim, Plaintiff argued that he and the Class
18 Members were subjected to a policy where they were required to be at their workstation at the 19 precise “start time” for their shift (e.g., if an employee’s start time was 8:00 a.m., the employee
20 was required to be at the facility early to wait in line and clock-in, put belongings away, walk to 21 the workstation, and be ready to start work at 8:00 a.m.). As a result, Plaintiff argued that he and 22 other Class Members were forced to perform uncompensated work during this time (which also 23 happened at the end of shifts) because they were under Defendant’s “control” at this time.

24 29. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(ii): we calculated the maximum potential damages for the unpaid
25 minimum and overtime wages as $922,150. This was calculated as $50,000 for the regular rate
26 violations [based on expert analysis of unpaid amounts plus interest owed], plus $837,364 owed
27 for the failure to pay all compensable hours. The value of this claim was calculated by 28 multiplying the number of violative workweeks (18,249) by the alleged number of unpaid hours per week (0.8, equal to 10 minutes per shift) by the applicable rate of pay ($57.35; because the average shift was over 8 hours, the rate for unpaid wages was the overtime rate [$28.90 x 1.5] plus liquidated damages of $14 per hour under Labor Code § 1194.2) [18,249 weeks x 0.8 unpaid hours per week x $57.35 per hour = $837,264].

30. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(iii): we calculated the risk-adjusted value of these unpaid minimum and overtime claims as $387,303. Defendant vehemently opposed these unpaid wage claims on the merits and as to the propriety of class certification. Due to the defenses and arguments raised, Plaintiff assigned a 30% risk for each respective unpaid wage claim at the class certification stage and an additional 40% risk on the merits.

31. CMO ¶ G(9)(b): as for the PAGA penalty claims on these issues, Plaintiff calculated the maximum potential PAGA penalty at trial as $900,600 based on a 100% violation rate for 9,006 wage statements issued during the period. We placed the same merits risk (40%) on PAGA as we did the class claims. However, we recognize that there were certain factors that reduce the possible value at trial. Specifically, when considering the amount of discretionary reduction to apply against the maximum penalties, we believe the Court would consider that: (a) if this claim succeeded, the Class would already be receiving compensation for the same violations [and would thus apply a smaller penalty because otherwise it is a double penalty], and (b) there were several “good faith” defenses (including the CBA). As a result, we applied an assumed 60% discretionary reduction, resulting in a PAGA risk-adjusted value of $216,144.

Meal and Rest Break Claims

32. Plaintiff also alleged meal and rest break claims against Defendant, and this section provides CMO-compliant information as to the value and basis for such claims.

33. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(ii): we calculated the maximum potential damages as follows. For the meal period claims, we calculated 83,655 violations (based on 89.2% violation rate in the sampling) and multiplied that by $28.90 (the applicable premium rate under Labor Code § 226.7) to arrive at maximum potential damages of $2,417,630. For the rest break claims, we calculated 46,892 violations (50% violation) and multiplied that by $28.90 to arrive at maximum potential damages of $1,355,176.

1 34. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(iii): we calculated the risk-adjusted value of the meal period
2 claims as $725,289 and for the rest break claim as $388,794. These risk-adjusted figures are 3 based on the numerous defenses and risks attached to such claims. For instance, Defendant
4 raised numerous arguments in response to this claim, including that it maintained fully compliant
5 written policies and specifically authorized the Class Members to take meal and rest breaks,
6 meaning that no one had a reason or cause to miss a break or take a short/late break. Therefore,
7 Defendant asserted that a fact-finder would have to determine for each Class Member whether a
8 break was missed and why, and why a break was noncompliant or nonexistent, because if it was 9 by the employee's choice, no liability attaches to Defendant. Additionally, Defendant argued that 10 because of the employees were covered by a CBA and worked in a construction industry,
11 Coreslab was entitled to (and protected from liability by) the meal period exemption under Labor
12 Code § 512(f). These defenses are factored into Plaintiff's analysis in two ways. First, these 13 issues raise questions regarding whether the meal and rest break claims could be certified, and 14 Plaintiff placed a 40% risk at the class certification stage for meal periods and a 50% risk for rest
15 breaks. Second, these defenses also go toward the merits given the evidentiary question of 16 proving the number of meal and rest violations. As such, Plaintiff placed a 50% risk on the 17 merits for meal breaks, and an additional 50% risk on the merits for rest breaks. This returns
18 risk-adjusted values for meal periods of $87,480 [$$2,417,630 \times 40\% \text{ class cert risk} \times 50\% \text{ merits}$
19 risk] and for rest breaks of $388,794 [$$1,355,176 \times 50\% \text{ cert risk} \times 50\% \text{ merits risk}$].

20 35. CMO ¶ G(9)(b): as for the PAGA penalty claims on these issues, Plaintiff
21 calculated the maximum potential PAGA penalty at trial as $900,600 for meal period and 22 $900,600 for rest breaks based on a 100% violation rate (i.e., one violation in a biweekly pay 23 period) for the 9,006 wage statements issued during the period multiplied by $100. But these 24 claims faced the same merits and evidentiary risks discussed above, so we applied a 50% risk on 25 the merits for each claim. Then we also assumed that the Court, when considering what 26 discretionary reduction to apply, would give credit to Defendant's attempt to enact and apply a
27 compliant written meal and rest period policy. And, as a result, we estimated that the Court
28 would apply a discretionary reduction of 75%, leading to risk-adjusted PAGA values of 1 $112,575 for meal periods and the same for rest breaks.

2 Wage Statement Claims

3 36. Plaintiff alleged that, because of the unpaid wage and meal/rest violations above, 4 Defendant's wage statements failed to accurately reflect the gross and net wages payable.

5 37. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(ii): based on the formula under Labor Code § 226(e) ($50 for 6 initial violation and $100 for subsequent violations), we calculated the maximum class wage 7 statement penalties as $890,600 (200 "initial" violations at $50 and 8,806 "subsequent"
8 violations at $100 ([200 x $50] + [8,806 x $100] = $890,600).

9 38. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(iii): we calculated the risk-adjusted value of the class wage
10 statement claims as $311,710. This analysis incorporated Defendant's arguments and defenses
11 from above, and also accounted for the fact that these were "derivative" as opposed to "direct"
12 wage statement violations (i.e., because these claims were entirely derivative of the claims 13 above, they only had merit if the claims for unpaid wages or meal/rest breaks were successful).
14 Moreover, Defendant argued that "derivative" violations cannot trigger liability under § 226 and,
15 even if there was a "technical" violation, Plaintiff would be unable to prove the required
16 "knowing and intentional" and "injury" elements. Based on these facts and defenses, we placed 17 a 30% risk at class certification (in line with the claims on which the derivative wage statement 18 claim was based) and estimated another 50% risk on the merits, leading to a risk-adjusted value
19 for the derivative claims of $311,710 [$890,600 x 30% cert risk x 50% merits risk].

20 39. CMO ¶ G(9)(b): as for the PAGA penalty claims on these issues, Plaintiff
21 calculated the maximum potential PAGA penalty at trial as $900,600 for wage statement claims
22 based on a 100% violation rate for the 9,006 wage statements issued during the period multiplied
23 by $100. However, like above, the risk-adjusted value must consider the difference between the 24 direct and derivative claims. Thus, we applied the same 50% merits risk and, even though there
25 is no requirement for "knowing and intentional" under PAGA, we assumed that the Court would 26 apply a discretionary reduction of 75% based on Defendant's likely argument (if liability was 27 found) that they were already liable for damages to the Class and for PAGA penalties for the 28 overarching violations that triggered the derivative wage statement violations. Thus, the total combined risk-adjusted PAGA penalties are $112,575.

Waiting Time Penalty Claims

40. Plaintiff's claim for failure to timely pay final wages (and for waiting time penalties under Labor Code § 203) was entirely derivative of the claims above (e.g., because Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums owed, Defendant did not timely pay all final wages owed because there are still amounts due and payable).

41. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(ii): we calculated the maximum potential value of this claim as $1,825,382 based on 242 former employees who were paid $251.43 per day (242 employees x $251.43 daily pay x 30-day penalty] = $1,825,382).

42. CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(iii): we calculated the risk-adjusted value of the waiting time penalty claim as $88,200. The valuation had to account for the fact that this claim was derivative of the unpaid wage and meal/rest break claims and, if those claims failed at certification or on the merits, there would be no waiting time penalties owed, so the same risks for those claims applied to this claim. Furthermore, even if the unpaid wage and/or meal/rest claims succeeded at certification and on the merits, Plaintiff would have to prove that the violations (if any existed) were "willful" under the meaning of Labor Code § 203. And, here, Defendant argued there was no "willful" violation since they had compliant written policies and any deviations therefrom were inadvertent and unintentional. Additionally, argued that they had a "good faith" defense that prevents imposition of the waiting time penalties because they believed that the various exemptions available for CBA and construction industry would apply. As a result of this analysis, Plaintiff's counsel applied a 40% risk at class certification and a 60% risk on the merits, setting a risk-adjusted value of $438,092.

43. CMO ¶ G(9)(b): as for the PAGA penalty claims, Plaintiff calculated the maximum potential PAGA penalty at trial as $8,000 based on 80 violations multiplied by $100. But we had to incorporate the same risks as above (60% on the merits) and also assumed that, given Defendant's good faith attempts at compliance with California law, that the Court would also apply a 50% discretionary reduction in PAGA penalties, setting the risk-adjusted PAGA penalty value at $1,600.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages Each Period

44. This claim is pursued on a PAGA basis (the remedy for a violation is enforceable either through PAGA or the Labor Commissioner); thus, the analysis here focuses on PAGA.

45. CMO ¶ G(9)(b): Plaintiff calculated the maximum potential PAGA penalty at trial as $900,600 for Labor Code § 204 claims based on a 100% violation rate for the 9,006 wage statements issued during the period multiplied by $100. This claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not pay all wages and wage premiums (for meal/rest violations) timely each period, which violated Labor Code § 204. However, because these claims were entirely derivative of the claims above, they only had merit if the claims for unpaid wages or meal/rest breaks were successful. And, as such, we had applied a 30% risk on the merits to align with the merits risk of the claims above. Additionally, we assumed that the Court would apply a discretionary reduction of 95% based on Defendant's likely argument (if liability was found) that PAGA penalties for § 204 violations should be greatly reduced because these are "derivative" and they were already liable for damages to the Class and for PAGA penalties for the overarching violations. Thus, the risk-adjusted PAGA penalties under § 204 are $31,521.

Collective Maximum and Risk-Adjusted Class Damages/Penalties and PAGA Penalties

CMO ¶¶ G(3)(a)(ii)(C), CMO G(3)(a)(iii)(C), and CMO ¶ G(9)(b)(iii and iv)

46. The table below provides the total sums (for all claims) of the maximum and risk-adjusted class damages and penalties and the total maximum and risk-adjusted PAGA penalties.

Claim	Class Values		PAGA Values
	Maximum	Risk-Adjusted	Maximum	Risk-Adjusted
Unpaid Wages	$922,150	$387,303	$900,600	$216,144
Meal Periods	$2,417,630	$725,289	$900,600	$112,575
Rest Breaks	$1,355,176	$388,794	$900,600	$112,575
Wage Statement	$890,600	$311,710	$900,600	$112,575
Waiting Time Penalties	$1,825,382	$438,092	$8,000	$1,600
Labor Code § 204	n/a	n/a	$900,600	$31,521
Totals	$7,410,938	$2,251,188	$4,511,000	$586,990

1 CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(iv)

2 47. Based on an assumed Net Settlement Amount of $430,166.67, and an estimated
3 410 Class Members, the average payment will be $1,049.19. However, the actual amounts
4 payable to the Class will be based on each individual's weeks worked compared to the total
5 Class weeks worked. While we cannot generate an exact "range of recoveries" right now since
6 the Class Data will not be provided to the Settlement Administrator until after Preliminary 7 Approval, I can provide reasonable estimates of the high and low payments as follows.

8 48. Based on our analysis, we estimate that there will be 20,000 weeks worked by the 9 Class and each week worked will receive an estimated net amount of $21.51 ($$430,166.67 /$
10 $20,000$). Thus, on the low end, a Class Member that worked only 2 weeks during the Class
11 Period will receive $43.02. And, at the high end, a Class Member that worked for the entire 12 Class Period (i.e., the 263 calendar weeks from January 19, 2019, through February 2, 2024), 13 will receive an estimated high payment of $5,659.76 ($263 \times \21.51).

14 49. Given that these are only preliminary estimates, the Settlement Administrator will 15 update the average, high, and low payments in the Class Notice (if necessary) after Preliminary 16 Approval and after calculating those figures from the Class Data.

17 CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(v)

18 50. From the data and analysis conducted prior to mediation, derived through both 19 formal and informal discovery, I estimate the following recoveries by the Aggrieved Employees.
20 First, given that we estimate 200 Aggrieved Employees, those individuals will receive an 21 estimated average share of $62.50 ($$12,500 / 200$). Then, based on an estimated 9,006 wage
22 statements during the PAGA Period, we estimated the value of each PAGA Workweek as $1.39
23 ($$12,500 / 9,006$); if an Aggrieved Employee worked only 2 weeks in the PAGA Period, the low
24 payment would be $2.78 and, if an Aggrieved Employee worked the maximum weeks during the 25 PAGA Period (106), then the maximum PAGA payment will be $147.34.

26 CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(vi)

27 51. My office conducted substantial informal discovery to investigate the size of the 28 class and strength of the claims. Specifically, in preparation for mediation, we demanded and

1 received informal discovery, including documents and information that allowed us calculate the 2 potential damages and evaluate potential risk, including policies and procedures pertaining to the 3 claims, statistics relating to the number of current and former employees, number of shifts, pay
4 periods worked and other things, and a sampling of payroll and timekeeping records for Class
5 Members (covering 97 Class Members and including wage statements for every period worked 6 and over 49,000 rows of excel data).

7 CMO ¶ G(3)(a)(vii)

8 52. I am not aware of any other class, representative, or collective action in this or 9 any other court that asserts claims similar to those asserted in this action or behalf of a class or 10 group of individuals, some or all of whom would also be members of this Class. I have also 11 made reasonable inquiry of other members of my firm (we have no associated firms in this 12 instance), and none of the other attorneys are aware of any such similar actions.

13 CMO ¶ G(3)(c)(i)

14 53. The Court, at CMO ¶ G(C)(i), states that it “believes that redistribution of the 15 value of uncashed settlement check(s) to those class members who have cashed their checks will 16 better serve the public interest and the interest of the class than distribution in the manner
17 otherwise prescribed by [CCP § 384(b)]” (i.e., payments to a cy pres).

18 54. Here, the Parties are not sending the value of uncashed checks to a cy pres.
19 Instead, any uncashed checks will be sent to the California State Controller in the name of the 20 Class Member (or Aggrieved Employee). Thus, those funds are – and always will be – paid to 21 and available for collection by the Class Member (or Aggrieved Employee) at any point in the 22 future. This does not fall under the umbrella of CCP § 384(b), as that section only relates to 23 payment of residue to “nonprofit organizations or foundations to support projects that will 24 benefit the class or similarly situated persons, or that promote the law consistent with the 25 objectives and purposes of the underlying cause of action, to child advocacy programs, or to 26 nonprofit organizations providing civil legal services to the indigent.”

27 55. I do not believe there is a need for the Parties to “explain[] the factual basis for 28 the disagreement” with the Court’s proposed method of redistributing funds, because the Court’s proposal is, by its plain language, only applicable in lieu of a cy pres (not where the uncashed funds are still paid to the Class Member, essentially held in trust by the State Controller).

56. However, in an abundance of caution and to prevent a delay, I want to explain why we do not want to redistribute uncashed checks to class members that did cash checks.

57. First, the process to carry out the Court's proposed redistribution is not as simple as it sounds. Under the CMO's proposed method, after 180 days have passed, the uncashed funds would be redistributed to Class Members that cashed their checks. That step, on a standalone basis, is not concerning. However, that is nowhere near the end of the process. Indeed, after the second checks are issued, there will be another batch of checks that go uncashed, as there always are in these class actions. What, then, happens to the funds from the uncashed second checks? Are those amounts redistributed again? And to whom? Should the third round of checks only go to those who cashed the first and second checks? Regardless of the answer to these questions, the problem will continue because some of the third checks will likely go uncashed as well, meaning that this process can repeat over and over – each time with a 180-day check cashing period.

58. Second, the Court's proposal to redistribute uncashed checks to class members is also problematic because it will greatly increase the cost of settlement administration. After all, the administrator will have to keep banking and taxing accounts open for a much longer period, possibly for multiple years, and will have to issue multiple tax forms with each new payment. But how much extra will the Administrator charge to be exact? And how many additional checks will be mailed a second and third time? How will this be priced? And once the court has approved a specific amount of money for the Settlement Administrator, who will pay for the increased costs, and who will be responsible for ensuring that the increased costs are fair, reasonable and adequate - because after all, this entire process is occurring after the Court has entered judgment.

CMO ¶ G(3)(d)

59. In accordance with CMO ¶ G(3)(d), we requested bids from four different settlement administrators, which resulted in the following bids: CPT Group ($12.000), ILYM

1 ($9,950), Rust Consulting ($13,400), Xpand ($10,000) and Phoenix ($9,000). Based on its low
2 bid, the Parties agreed to retain Phoenix based on its all-in (fixed) fee to administer the 3 settlement for $9,000.

4 CMO ¶ G(9)(b)

5 60. The paragraphs above provide the information requested in CMO ¶ G(9)(b)(i-iv);
6 this section addresses the remaining requests under CMO ¶ G(9)(b)(v-viii).

7 61. CMO ¶ G(9)(b)(v): I'd first like to point out that a finding of "knowing and 8 intentional" is not necessary under claims for PAGA penalties; that is a required element of wage
9 statement violations (on a class, not PAGA, basis) under Labor Code § 226(e). However, with 10 that said, we believe there is an argument that Defendant's unpaid wage claims would not be 11 found "knowing and intentional" (for purposes of Labor Code § 203, for instance) because the of 12 the possible exemption under Labor Code § 514. Additionally, we believed that Defendant had a 13 good argument that the derivative wage statement violations were not "knowing and intentional."

14 62. CMO ¶ G(9)(b)(vi): If this action proceeded to trial, Defendant would have 15 argued for a discretionary reduction in PAGA penalties because the assessment of significant 16 PAGA penalties would be "unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory" in light of "the facts 17 and circumstances of [this] case." See Labor Code § 2699(h). Defendant's reliance on several 18 Labor Code exemptions presents a "mistake of law" fact pattern, and similar cases have applied
19 large reductions in PAGA penalties in such situations. See, e.g., Cotter v. Lyft, Inc. (N.D. Cal.
20 2016) 193 F.Supp.3d 1030, 1037 (97.5% reduction in PAGA penalties "appropriate" based on 21 the "unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory" factors because (i) the employer did not 22 "deliberately evad[e] a clear obligation to provide legally required pay and benefits to 23 employees," (ii) the employer did not "negligently fail to learn about its obligations under the 24 wage and hour laws," and (iii) the employer's obligations were "genuinely unclear" because 25 "there is no straight answer to the question").

26 63. CMO ¶ G(9)(b)(vii): The parties only reached settlement and the agreed-upon 27 PAGA penalties after extensive informal discovery and arms-length negotiation between the 28 parties and through an experienced mediator. Notably, Defendant raised many defenses which,

1 if accepted by the Court, could result in a significant reduction of penalties, or the elimination of
2 penalties altogether through dispositive motions. As such, an assessment of penalties greater
3 than those agreed-upon would be unjust at this stage because this settlement reflects an informed,
4 fundamentally fair, and reasonable settlement of the PAGA claims herein based on the unique
5 facts, defenses, and risks in this case.

6 64. CMO ¶ G(9)(b)(viii): the sections above show that the amount of the agreed-upon 7 penalties is fair.

8 THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, JUST, AND REASONABLE

9 65. The settlement was the product of extensive arm's length negotiations, facilitated
10 by an experienced mediator. Though cordial and professional, the settlement negotiations were 11 adversarial and non-collusive in nature. The settlement reached is the product of substantial 12 effort by the parties and their counsel. Although we believed that there was a possibility of 13 certifying the claims, we recognized the potential risk, expense, and complexity posed by 14 litigation, such as unfavorable decisions on class certification, summary judgment, at trial and/or 15 on the damages awarded, and/or on an appeal that can take several more years to litigate.

16 66. The settlement will result in a fair payment to each class member based on the 17 number of weeks worked. Plaintiff and my firm have diligently investigated the claims and 18 defenses on behalf of the Class Members and worked to achieve a resolution of the claims to 19 maximize the recovery by avoiding further expenditure of attorneys' fees and costs. After 20 evaluating the significant risks attendant with further litigation described above and weighing 21 them against the benefits of a known compromise and settlement as set forth in the Settlement
22 Agreement, settlement on the terms agreed to is believed to be in the best interest of Plaintiff and 23 the Class, and is a fair and reasonable resolution of the claims alleged.

24 67. My firm brought to bear a great deal of experience in negotiating the settlement of 25 this case. As detailed herein, I, along with my senior associate Peter Carlson, engaged in the 26 necessary discovery and investigation, making it possible to exercise informed judgment
27 throughout the settlement process, including significant document review (e.g., documents 28 pertaining to Defendant's policies and procedures, personnel documents, among others), and

1 conducted an extensive analysis of the detailed class-wide data provided by Defendant.

2 68. Based on my experience in other cases, including wage and hour matters, I
3 believe I am qualified to evaluate the class claims and viability of defenses in this class action.
4 In this case, the recovery for each class member is reasonable, fair, and adequate, and this
5 settlement is in the best interests of the class. The settlement provides each class member with 6 compensation for the alleged violations when viewed in relation to the costs and risks inherent in 7 obtaining class certification and proceeding to trial.

8 69. My firm, as well as defense counsel, fully endorse the terms and conditions of the 9 settlement as set forth in the abovementioned Settlement Agreement.

10 70. Of course, the settlement amount represents a compromise figure, taking into 11 account the various risks surrounding class certification and the merits of Defendant's asserted
12 defense. Nevertheless, the settlement provides for fair and adequate payments to the class
13 members, with no reversion to Defendant.

14 PLAINTIFF'S REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT

15 71. Plaintiff seeks an enhancement payment of $7,500 for his service to the Class, 16 which I believe is fair and warranted. Plaintiff came forward and brought this case in an effort to 17 effectuate a policy and practice change that benefitted all other Class Members (and to recover 18 unpaid wages and other damages). He ultimately succeeded despite significant risk.

19 72. Plaintiff provided invaluable assistance to my office and the Class in this case, 20 including providing factual background; reviewing the litigation documents; providing 21 information and documents about Defendant's policies and practices; participating in phone calls 22 to discuss litigation and settlement strategy; making himself available throughout the litigation to 23 assist with analyzing the claims and defenses; helping Class Counsel prepare for the mediation;
24 making himself available for a full-day mediation, and reviewing the settlement documents.
25 Plaintiff agreed to participate in this case with no guarantee of personal benefit.

26 73. The Class Representative also assumed significant risk in bringing this 27 litigation—namely, had he lost, he would have been ordered to pay Defendant's costs. Moreover,
28 Plaintiff elected to pursue the class action claims on behalf of other employees. As part of the

1 negotiations, the parties ultimately reached a settlement of the class claims but the requested
2 service award is also reasonable and appropriate given that Plaintiff agreed to put the interests of 3 the class ahead of his own interests and performed work on behalf of the class. And, as part of 4 the negotiations, Plaintiff put the interests of the class ahead of his interests and agreed to a
5 general release as part of the settlement (whereas the Class will only release the claims alleged).

6 ADEQUACY OF COUNSEL AND THE PROVISIONAL REASONABLENESS OF THE 7 REQUESTED FEES AND COSTS

8 74. As set forth above, I have handled over 250 class and representative actions, have 9 been appointed as class counsel and have successfully resolved over half of those cases, and 10 many others remain pending and will successfully resolve in the future.

11 75. When this case was taken on a contingency fee basis, with my firm agreeing to 12 assume responsibility for all litigation costs, the ultimate result was far from certain. In the 13 course of this litigation, my firm and my co-counsel paid all costs including filing fees, court
14 costs, research fees, and mediation costs. There was never a guarantee that we would recoup 15 those expenditures.

16 76. It is my experience that attorney fee awards of one-third of a common fund
17 settlement is the standard in California. In this case, my firm agreed to seek one-third of the 18 Settlement Amount for attorneys' fees. Defendant does not oppose this fee request. The fee is 19 further warranted because it is within the range of reasonableness typically awarded in class
20 actions. The litigation costs are reasonably capped at $20,000 and will be based on the actual 21 amount of costs incurred at the time of final approval.

22 SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

23 77. The Parties request that the Court appoint Phoenix Settlement Administrators as 24 the Settlement Administrator. In accordance with CMO ¶ G(3)(d), we requested bids from four 25 different settlement administrators, which resulted in the following bids: CPT Group ($12,000), 26 ILYM ($9,950), Rust Consulting ($13,400), Xpand ($10,000) and Phoenix ($9,000). Based on its 27 low bid, the Parties agreed to retain Phoenix based on its all-in (fixed) fee to administer the 28 settlement for $9,000. The concurrently filed Declaration of Michael Moore of Phoenix covers the other information required in CMO ¶ G(3)(d)(ii).

SUBMISSION TO THE LWDA

78. Plaintiff has concurrently submitted the settlement and all moving papers to the LWDA in accordance with Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). The proof of submission is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

EXHIBITS AND CONCLUSION

79. A true and correct copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached as Exhibit A.

80. The proposed Class Notice is attached as Exhibit B.

81. The proposed Request for Exclusion Form is attached as Exhibit C.

82. The proposed Objection Form is attached as Exhibit D.

83. The proposed Dispute Form is attached as Exhibit E.

84. A true and correct copy of the notice letter we submitted on behalf of Plaintiff to the LWDA is attached as Exhibit F.

85. The LWDA's confirmation of receipt of this Motion and Declarations is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

86. Counsel has carefully reviewed both the terms and the terminology of the order and the accompanying forms (notice, objection form, exclusion form, dispute form) to confirm that the various documents are internally consistent, consistent with each other, and consistent with the settlement agreement.

87. For the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that the Court grant preliminary approval of the settlement as being fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the class, as well as preliminarily approve the requested attorneys' fees, costs, and enhancement payment to the Class Representative.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on February 21, 2024, at Riverside, California.

24 least one day for Defendant in California.

25 B. General Terms

26 42. On January 19, 2023, Plaintiff Esteban Aldana filed the instant class action,
27 alleging that Defendant violated various sections of the Labor Code. On the same day, Plaintiff
28 Esteban Aldana gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development

1 Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendant of the specific provisions of the Labor
2 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged
3 violations. Then, on about April 3, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding 4 causes of action under PAGA. Defendant filed its Answer to the First Amended Complaint on 5 May 2, 2023.

6 43. Defendant denies Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, and contends that the Action
7 is not suitable for class certification.

8 44. The Class Representative believes he can proceed with the representative and 9 class claims, that the Action is meritorious, and that class certification is appropriate.

10 45. The Parties have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the Action.
11 This includes conducting an exchange of formal discovery, as well as an extensive exchange of 12 informal discovery, including a sampling of payroll and timekeeping records for Class Members.
13 Class Counsel is both knowledgeable about and has done extensive research with respect to the 14 applicable law and potential defenses to the claims of the Class. Class Counsel has diligently 15 pursued an investigation of the Class Members’ claims against Defendant. Based on the 16 foregoing data and on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of 17 the opinion that the settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set forth in 18 this Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class
19 Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay
20 and uncertainty associated with litigation, various defenses asserted by Defendant, and numerous 21 potential appellate issues.

22 46. On December 4, 2023, Plaintiff and Defendant participated in a full-day
23 mediation with Steve Serratore, a well-respected wage-and-hour mediator. At the conclusion of 24 mediation and extensive arms-length negotiations, the Parties reached a global settlement and 25 entered into a Memorandum of Understanding.

26 47. The Parties agree that neither the Parties’ Settlement, this Agreement, nor the acts
27 to be performed or judgment to be entered pursuant to the terms of the Settlement and 28 Agreement, shall be construed as an admission by Defendant of any wrongdoing or violation of any statute or law or liability on the claims or allegations in the Action.

48. Stipulation for Class Certification. For settlement purposes only, Defendant will stipulate that the Class Members described herein who do not Request Exclusion from the Class may be conditionally certified as a Class. This stipulation to certification is in no way an admission that class action certification is proper and shall not be admissible in this action except for the sole purposes of enforcing this Agreement. Should, for whatever reason, the Court fail to issue Final Approval, the Parties' stipulation to class certification as part of the Settlement shall become null and void ab initio and shall have no bearing on, and shall not be admissible in this Action in connection with, the issue of whether certification would be appropriate in a non-settlement context. Defendant expressly reserves its rights and declare that it would continue to oppose class certification and the substantive merits of the case should the Court fail to issue Final Approval. Plaintiff expressly reserves his rights and declares that he will continue to pursue class certification and a trial should the Court fail to issue Final Approval.

C. Terms of Settlement

49. The financial terms of the Settlement are as follows:

(a) Settlement Amount: The Parties agree to settle this Action for the Settlement Amount, which is the maximum amount that will be paid by Defendant (except for the employer's share of payroll taxes), which includes payments to the Participating Class Members, PAGA Penalties (to the Aggrieved Employees and LWDA), Attorneys' Fees and Costs Award, the Service Payment to the Class Representative, and Settlement Administration Costs. Defendant shall separately pay the employer's share of its payroll tax obligations, which shall be reported through the Settlement Administrator.

(b) Net Settlement Amount: The "Net Settlement Amount" is defined as the Settlement Amount less the Attorneys' Fees and Costs Award, the Service Payment to the Class Representative as awarded by the Court, the Settlement Administration Costs, and PAGA Penalties. If the Court reduces the Attorneys' Fees and Costs Award, Service Award, or Settlement Administrator Costs, or either increases or decreases the amount allocated to the PAGA Penalties, the difference shall be placed in the Net Settlement Amount and allocated to

1 the Participating Class Members.

2 (c) Individual Class Payments for the Class will be calculated and apportioned
3 from the Net Settlement Amount based on the number of Weeks Worked by a Class Member
4 during the Class Period. Each specific Individual Class Payment will be calculated by: (a)
5 dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Weeks Worked by all Participating
6 Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating
7 Class Members' Weeks Worked. The entire Net Settlement Amount will be disbursed to all
8 Participating Class Members. If there are any valid and timely Requests for Exclusion, the 9 Settlement Administrator shall proportionally increase the Individual Class Payment for each
10 Participating Class Member according to the number of Weeks Worked, so that the amount 11 actually distributed to Participating Class Members equals one hundred percent (100%) of the 12 Net Settlement Amount.

13 (d) Allocation of Individual Class Payments: The Individual Class Payments
14 to Participating Class Members will be allocated as follows: twenty percent (20%) will be 15 allocated as wages subject to withholding of all applicable local, state and federal taxes; and 16 eighty percent (80%) will be allocated for interest and statutory penalties (pursuant to, e.g., 17 California Labor Code sections 203, 210, 226) from which no taxes will be withheld. The 18 Settlement Administrator will issue to each Participating Class Member an Internal Revenue
19 Service Form W-2 and comparable state forms with respect to the wage allocation and a Form 20 1099 with respect to the penalties and interest allocations.

21 (e) Service Payment to Class Representative: The amount, if any, awarded to 22 the Class Representative as a Service Payment will be set by the Court in its discretion, not to 23 exceed $7,500, in exchange for a full release and Civil Code § 1542 waiver as well as for the 24 service that Plaintiff performed on behalf of the Class. Defendant agrees not to oppose this 25 request. The Service Payment to Plaintiff will be paid out of the Settlement Amount. The Class 26 Representatives will be issued an IRS Form 1099 in connection with this payment. Plaintiff shall 27 be solely and legally responsible to pay any and all applicable taxes on this payment. The Parties
28 agree that any amount awarded as the Service Payment to Plaintiff less than the requested

1 amount shall not be a basis for Class Counsel to void this Settlement Agreement. Should the
2 Court approve a lesser amount for the Service Payment, the difference shall be added to the Net
3 Settlement Amount to be distributed to the Participating Class Members.

4 (f) Attorneys' Fees and Costs Award: Defendant agrees to not oppose a
5 request by Class Counsel to the Court for an award of attorneys' fees of one-third of the 6 Settlement Amount, plus reasonable litigation costs not to exceed $20,000 ("Attorney's Fees and 7 Cost Award"). Defendant agrees not to oppose any contention by Class Counsel that attorneys'
8 fees should be based on the common fund theory. The Attorney's Fee and Cost Award shall be 9 paid from the Settlement Amount, and, except for this award, Defendant shall have no further
10 obligation to pay any attorneys' fees, costs or expenses to Class Counsel. Should the Court
11 approve a lesser amount than what is sought by Class Counsel, the difference shall be added to 12 the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to the Participating Class Members. Any Court
13 order awarding less than the amount sought by Class Counsel shall not be grounds to rescind the 14 Settlement Agreement or otherwise void the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator shall 15 issue to Class Counsel an IRS Form 1099 reflecting the amount of attorneys' fees and costs
16 awarded by the Court.

17 (g) Settlement Administration Costs: The fees and other charges of the 18 Settlement Administrator will be paid from the Settlement Amount, not to exceed $9,000, unless 19 (1) the Escalator Clause is triggered (whereby any reasonable increase in Settlement
20 Administration Costs shall be paid from the increased Settlement Amount, subject to Court
21 approval), or (2) as otherwise approved by all Parties and the Court.

22 (h) PAGA Penalties: The Parties agree that $50,000 is allocated to PAGA
23 Penalties, and is to be paid from the Settlement Amount, subject to Court approval. Of this 24 amount, $37,500 (75%) shall be paid to the LWDA in satisfaction of civil penalties under the 25 Private Attorney General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") and $12,500 (25%) will form the Individual
26 PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees, which shall be calculated and allocated pro-rata
27 on a Work Week basis, which will be treated entirely as civil penalties and shall be reported as 28 required on an IRS Form 1099. Class Counsel shall give proper notice to the LWDA of the

1 Settlement.

2 (i) Tax Liability: Class Counsel and Defendant make no representations as to 3 the tax treatment or legal effect of settlement amounts called for hereunder, and Plaintiff and the 4 Class Members are not relying on any statement or representation by Class Counsel or Defendant
5 in this regard. Plaintiff, Participating Class Members, and Aggrieved Employees understand and 6 agree that they will be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes and penalties assessed on 7 their respective Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments, described herein.
8 Forms 1099 will be distributed in the manner required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the 9 “Code”) and consistent with this Agreement. If the Code, the regulations promulgated
10 thereunder, or other applicable tax law, is changed after the date of this Agreement, the processes
11 set forth in this Section may be modified in a manner to bring Defendant into compliance with 12 any such changes. Plaintiff, Participating Class Members, and Aggrieved Employees understand 13 and agree that they will be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes and penalties assessed 14 on their respective payments described herein.

15 (j) CIRCULAR 230 DISCLAIMER. EACH PARTY TO THIS 16 AGREEMENT (FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, THE “ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY”
17 AND EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT OTHER THAN THE ACKNOWLEDGING
18 PARTY, AN “OTHER PARTY”) ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT (1) NO
19 PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NO WRITTEN COMMUNICATION OR 20 DISCLOSURE BETWEEN OR AMONG THE PARTIES OR THEIR ATTORNEYS AND 21 OTHER ADVISERS, IS OR WAS INTENDED TO BE, NOR SHALL ANY SUCH 22 COMMUNICATION OR DISCLOSURE CONSTITUTE OR BE CONSTRUED OR BE 23 RELIED UPON AS, TAX ADVICE WITHIN THE MEANING OF UNITED STATES
24 TREASURY DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR 230 (31 CFR PART 10, AS AMENDED); (2) THE 25 ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY (A) HAS RELIED EXCLUSIVELY UPON HIS, HER OR ITS 26 OWN, INDEPENDENT LEGAL AND TAX COUNSEL FOR ADVICE (INCLUDING TAX 27 ADVICE) IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, (B) HAS NOT ENTERED INTO 28 THIS AGREEMENT BASED UPON THE RECOMMENDATION OF ANY OTHER PARTY

1 OR ANY ATTORNEY OR ADVISOR TO ANY OTHER PARTY, AND (C) IS NOT 2 ENTITLED TO RELY UPON ANY COMMUNICATION OR DISCLOSURE BY ANY
3 ATTORNEY OR ADVISOR TO ANY OTHER PARTY TO AVOID ANY TAX PENALTY
4 THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON THE ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY; AND (3) NO
5 ATTORNEY OR ADVISOR TO ANY OTHER PARTY HAS IMPOSED ANY LIMITATION
6 THAT PROTECTS THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF ANY SUCH ATTORNEY'S OR 7 ADVISOR'S TAX STRATEGIES (REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH LIMITATION IS 8 LEGALLY BINDING) UPON DISCLOSURE BY THE ACKNOWLEDGING PARTY OF 9 THE TAX TREATMENT OR TAX STRUCTURE OF ANY TRANSACTION, INCLUDING 10 ANY TRANSACTION CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT.

11 (k) "Non-Reversionary" Settlement. This is a "non-reversionary" settlement.
12 Under no circumstances will any portion of the Settlement Amount revert to Defendant.
13 Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees will not have to make a claim to receive 14 an Individual Class Payment or Individual PAGA Payment. Distributions, in the form of 15 Individual Class Payment or Individual PAGA Payments will be made directly to each 16 Participating Class Member and Aggrieved Employee. The Settlement Administrator shall be 17 responsible for accurately and timely reporting and remittance obligations with respect to 18 unclaimed funds as a result of a Participating Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee not 19 cashing any checks delivered pursuant to the Settlement by the check cashing deadline, as set 20 forth herein.

21 (l) Class Counsel and Plaintiff believe that the Settlement is fair and 22 reasonable and will so represent same to the Court.

23 D. Release by the Participating Class Members

24 50. Upon entry of the Final Approval Order and Defendant's funding of the 25 Settlement Amount and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual
26 Class Payments, and except as to such rights or claims as may be created by this Agreement, 27 Plaintiff and the Participating Class Members will forever completely release and discharge the 28 Released Parties from the Released Class Claims for the Release Period.

1 51. Each Participating Class Member will be deemed to have made the foregoing
2 Release as if by manually signing it.

3 52. Class Representative, on behalf of himself and the Class, acknowledges and 4 agrees that the claims for unpaid wages and untimely payment of wages in the Action are 5 disputed, and that the payments set forth herein constitute payment of all sums allegedly due to 6 them. Class Representative, on behalf of himself and the Class, acknowledges and agrees that
7 California Labor Code Section 206.5 is not applicable to the Parties or Settlement. Labor Code §
8 206.5 provides in pertinent part as follows: “An employer shall not require the execution of any 9 release of any claim or right on account of wages due, or to become due, or made as an advance
10 on wages to be earned, unless payment of those wages has been made.”

11 E. Release of PAGA Claims

12 53. Upon entry of the Final Approval Order and Defendant’s funding of the 13 Settlement Amount and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual
14 Class Payments, Plaintiff – in his individual capacity and on behalf of the State of California and 15 LWDA – shall completely release and discharge the Released Parties from the Released PAGA
16 Claims for the PAGA Period.

17 54. Regardless of submitting a valid Request for Exclusion, neither Plaintiff nor any 18 Aggrieved Employee shall have the right to opt-out or otherwise exclude themselves from 19 releasing the Released PAGA Claims.

20 55. It is the intent of the Parties that the Final Approval Order shall have full 21 equitable and collateral estoppel and res judicata effect to the fullest extent permitted by law.

22 F. Release by Plaintiff and Class Representative

23 56. Upon entry of the Final Approval Order and Defendant’s funding of the 24 Settlement Amount, and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual
25 Class Payments, Class Representative does hereby, for himself and his spouses, heirs,
26 successors, beneficiaries, devisees, legatees, executors, administrators, trustees, conservators, 27 guardians, personal representatives, and assigns forever and completely release and discharge the 28 Released Parties from any and all charges, complaints, claims, liabilities, obligations, promises,

1 agreements, controversies, damages, actions, causes of action, suits, rights, demands, costs,
2 losses, debts, and expenses (including back wages, statutory penalties, civil penalties, liquidated
3 damages, exemplary damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs) of any nature whatsoever,
4 from the beginning of time through the execution of this Stipulation, whether known or 5 unknown, suspected or unsuspected, including but not limited to all claims arising out of, based 6 upon, or relating to Class Representative's employment with Defendant or the remuneration for 7 or termination of such employment (the "Class Representative's Claims").

8 57. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this general release by Plaintiff
9 includes all federal, state and local statutory claims, federal and state common law claims
10 (including but not limited to those for contract, tort and equity), including without limitation any 11 claims for breach of any implied or express contract or covenant; claims for promissory estoppel;
12 claims of entitlement to any pay; claims of wrongful denial of insurance and employee benefits
13 (except workers' compensation benefits); claims for failure to hire, public policy violations, 14 defamation, invasion of privacy, fraud, misrepresentation, emotional distress, assault/battery, or 15 other common law or tort matters; claims of harassment, retaliation or discrimination based on 16 age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, protected
17 activity, medical condition, marital status, sexual preference, union activity, or veteran status;
18 claims under the Americans with Disabilities Act, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title
19 VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), the Civil Rights Act of 1991; 42 USC sec.
20 1981, 42 USC sec. 1983, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Family and Medical 21 Leave Act; claims for unfair competition; claims based on legal restrictions on Defendant's right 22 to terminate, not to hire or promote employees, or to change an employee's compensation; and 23 claims based on any federal, state or other governmental statute, regulation or ordinance, all 24 statutory, constitutional, contractual or common law claims for wages, damages, unpaid costs or 25 expenses, penalties, liquidated damages, punitive damages, interest, attorneys' fees, litigation
26 costs, restitution, or equitable relief, or any other claims arising under the Fair Labor Standards
27 Act, the Employment Retirement Security Income Act of 1974, the California Constitution, the 28 California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the California Unfair Competition Act (California

1 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.), the California Labor Code, or Industrial
2 Welfare Commission Wage Orders, or arising out of or based upon the following categories of 3 allegations regardless of the forum in which they may be brought, to the fullest extent such 4 claims are releasable by law: (i) all claims for unpaid overtime; (ii) all claims for unpaid wages;
5 (iii) all claims for meal break violations; (iv) all claims for rest period violations; (v) all claims
6 for paid sick leave violations; (vi) all claims for the failure to timely pay wages upon 7 termination; (vii) all claims for the failure to timely pay wages during employment; (viii) all
8 claims for wage statement violations; (ix) all claims for reporting time pay; and (x) all other
9 penalties recoverable for such claims under PAGA.

10 58. Plaintiff agrees that there is a risk that any injury that they may have suffered by 11 reason of the Released Parties' relationship with them might not now be known, and there is a
12 further risk that said injuries, whether known or unknown at the date of this Settlement
13 Agreement, might possibly become progressively worse, and that as a result thereof further 14 damages may be sustained. Nevertheless, Plaintiff agrees to forever and fully release and 15 discharge the Released Parties, and understands that by the execution of this Settlement
16 Agreement no further claims for any such injuries that existed at the time of the execution of this
17 Settlement Agreement may ever be asserted by Plaintiff with respect to claims arising in the time
18 period from the beginning of time to the execution of this Settlement Agreement.

19 59. Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes all rights and benefits afforded by 20 Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California and does so understanding and 21 acknowledging the significance of the waiver of Section 1542. Section 1542 of the Civil Code
22 of the State of California states:

23 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS
24 THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT 25 KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT 26 THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF 27 KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY
28 AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

1 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a
2 full and complete release and discharge of all parties, Class Representative expressly
3 acknowledges that this Settlement Agreement is intended to include in its effect, without 4 limitation, all claims that Class Representative knew of, as well as all claims that he does not
5 know or suspect to exist in his favor against the Released Parties, or any of them, for the time
6 period from the beginning of time to the execution of this Settlement Agreement, and that this
7 Settlement Agreement contemplates the extinguishment of any such Class Representative's
8 claims. Notwithstanding the above, the general release by Class Representative shall not extend 9 to claims for workers' compensation benefits, claims for unemployment benefits, or other claims
10 that may not be released by law.

11 G. Interim Stay of Proceedings

12 60. Pending completion of all prerequisites necessary to effectuate this Settlement, 13 the Parties agree, subject to Court approval, to a stay of all proceedings in the Action except such 14 as are necessary to effectuate the Settlement.

15 H. Notice Process

16 61. Appointment of Settlement Administrator. The Parties have agreed to the 17 appointment of the Settlement Administrator to perform the duties of a settlement administrator,
18 including mailing the Notice Packet, using standard devices to obtain forwarding addresses,
19 independently reviewing and verifying documentation associated with any claims or opt-out 20 requests, resolving any disputes regarding the calculation or application of the formula for 21 determining the Individual Settlement Amounts, drafting and mailing the settlement checks to 22 Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, issuing all necessary tax forms, and 23 performing such other tasks as set forth herein or as the Parties mutually agree or that the Court 24 orders.

25 62. Disputes Regarding Settlement Administration. Any and all disputes relating to 26 administration of the Settlement by the Settlement Administrator (except for disputes regarding 27 Class Data) shall be referred to the Court, if necessary, which will have continuing jurisdiction
28 over the terms and conditions of this Agreement, until Plaintiff and Defendant notify the Court

1 that all payments and obligations contemplated by this Agreement have been fully carried out.
2 Prior to presenting any issue to the Court, counsel for the Parties will confer in good faith to
3 resolve the dispute without the necessity of Court intervention. The Settlement Administrator
4 shall also be responsible for issuing to Plaintiff, Participating Class Members, and Aggrieved
5 Employees, and Class Counsel any Tax Forms as may be required by law for all amounts paid
6 pursuant to this Agreement.

7 63. Class Data. Within fourteen (14) days after entry of the Preliminary Approval
8 Order, Defendant shall provide the Class Data to the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement
9 Administrator will run a check of the Class Members' addresses against those on file with the 10 U.S. Postal Service's National Change of Address List. The Class Data provided to the 11 Settlement Administrator will remain confidential and will not be used or disclosed to anyone,
12 except as required by applicable tax authorities, pursuant to Defendant's express written consent,
13 or by order of the Court. Although Class Counsel will not be provided with the list of Class Data,
14 nothing herein shall prevent Class Counsel from communicating with Class Members regarding 15 the Action and Settlement.

16 64. Total Workweeks. At least 5 days prior to mailing the Notice Packet, the 17 Settlement Administrator shall provide a spreadsheet to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel
18 containing a preliminary calculation of all payments to be paid from the Settlement Amount,
19 including the estimated Individual Class Payments to each Class Member and Individual PAGA
20 Payments to each Aggrieved Employee (a person's name shall be redacted and a control number 21 used in place of the name). In the event that the total Workweeks worked by all Class Members
22 triggers the Escalator Clause, the Settlement Administrator shall notify the Parties of the 23 increased Settlement Amount, and related increased payments from the Settlement Amount,
24 including increased Attorneys' Fees and Costs and any increased Settlement Administration
25 Costs, all of which shall be subject to Court approval.

26 65. Notice Packet. The Notice Packet, as approved by the Court, shall be sent by the 27 Settlement Administrator to the Class Members, by first class mail, in English and Spanish, 28 within ten (10) calendar days following the Settlement Administrator's receipt of the Class Data.

1 For all Class Members, the Notice Packet will include the Notice, a Request for Exclusion Form,
2 an Objection Form, and a Dispute Form. The Settlement Administrator shall use standard
3 devices, including a skip trace, to obtain forwarding addresses of Class Members if any 4 envelopes are returned.

5 66. Returned Notice Packets. The Settlement Administrator will take steps to ensure 6 that the Notice Packet is received by all Class Members, including utilization of the National 7 Change of Address Database maintained by the United States Postal Service to review the 8 accuracy of and, if possible, update a mailing address. Notices will be re-mailed to any Class
9 Member for whom an updated address is located within ten (10) calendar days following both 10 the Settlement Administrator learning of the failed mailing and its receipt of the updated address.
11 The Notice Packet shall be identical to the original Notice Packet, except that it shall notify the 12 Class Member that the exclusion (opt-out) request or objection must be returned by the later of 13 the Response Deadline or fifteen (15) days after the remailing of the Notice Packet.

14 67. Presumption Regarding Receipt of Notice Packet. It will be conclusively
15 presumed that if an envelope has not been returned to Settlement Administrator by the Response
16 Deadline that the Class Member received the Notice Packet.

17 68. Disputes Regarding Class Data. Class Members are deemed to participate in the 18 Settlement unless they opt-out, and Aggrieved Employees may not opt out of the Released
19 PAGA Claims. The Notice will inform Class Members of his/her estimated Individual Class
20 Payment and Individual PAGA Payment, as well as the number of Weeks Worked during the 21 Class Period and the PAGA Period. Class Members may dispute their Weeks Worked by timely
22 submitting evidence to the Settlement Administrator. Defendant's records will be presumed 23 determinative absent reliable evidence to rebut Defendant's records, but the Settlement
24 Administrator will evaluate the evidence submitted by the Class Member and provide the 25 evidence submitted to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel who agree to meet and confer in good 26 faith about the evidence to determine the Class Member's actual number of Work Weeks, and 27 estimated Individual Class and PAGA Payments. If Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are 28 unable to agree, they agree to submit the dispute to the Court to render a final decision. Class

Members and Aggrieved Employees will have until the Response Deadline to dispute Weeks Worked, object or opt out, unless extended by the Court.

69. Declaration of Due Diligence. The Settlement Administrator shall provide counsel for the Parties, at least five (5) days after the initial Response Deadline, a declaration of due diligence and proof of mailing with regard to the mailing of the Notice Packet.

70. Class Members' Rights. Each Class Member will be fully advised of the Settlement, the ability to object to the settlement, and the ability to opt-out or request exclusion from the Class Claims portion of the Settlement. The Notice Packet will inform the Class Members of the Court-established deadlines for filing objections or requesting exclusion from the Settlement in accordance with the following guidelines:

(a) Requests for Exclusion from Class. Any Class Member, other than Plaintiff, may request to be excluded from the Class by completing the Request for Exclusion Form provided within the Notice Packet. The Request for Exclusion Form must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator and postmarked on or before the Response Deadline in order to be timely, unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing. Any such Request must be made in accordance with the terms set forth in the Notice Packet. The Settlement Administrator shall attach each Request for Exclusion to its declaration of due diligence and file with the Court prior to the Final Approval Hearing. Any Class Member who timely requests exclusion in compliance with these requirements: (i) will not have any rights under this Agreement, including the right to object, appeal or comment on the Settlement; (ii) will not be entitled to receive any payments under this Agreement; and (iii) will not be bound by this Agreement, or the Judgment. Any Class Member who is an Aggrieved Employee who requests timely exclusion will still be subject to the Released PAGA Claims to the fullest extent permitted by law and receive an Individual PAGA Payment. All Parties and their counsel, including Defendant and their agents and employees, shall not encourage or solicit opt-outs or objections, directly or indirectly, through any means.

(b) Binding Effect on Participating Class Members. All Participating Class Members will: (i) be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Judgment, and

1 the releases set forth herein; and (ii) except as otherwise provided herein, will be deemed to have
2 waived all objections and oppositions to the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the 3 Settlement.

4 (c) Objections to Settlement. Any Class Member, other than Plaintiff, who 5 does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion may object to the terms of this
6 Agreement by completing the Objection Form provided within the Notice Packet. Any Class
7 Member that intends to object must mail the Objection Form to the Settlement Administrator.
8 The Objection Form must be postmarked on or before the Response Deadline in order to be 9 timely, unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing. Additionally, any objection must be made
10 in accordance with the terms set forth in the Notice Packet. The Settlement Administrator shall 11 provide any objections to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel within three (3) days of receipt,
12 and the Settlement Administrator shall attach the same to its declaration of due diligence and file
13 with the Court prior to the Final Approval Hearing. Any Participating Class Member who files
14 an objection remains eligible to receive monetary compensation from the Settlement. Plaintiff
15 and Defendant shall not be responsible for any fees, costs, or expenses incurred by any Class
16 Member and/or his or her counsel related to any objections to the Settlement. Submitting an 17 objection does not preserve the right to appeal a final judgment. Rather, the right to appeal is 18 preserved by becoming a party of record by timely and properly intervening or filing a motion to 19 vacate the judgment under Code of Civil Procedure § 663.

20 (d) Failure to Object. Any Class Member who does not timely and properly 21 become a party of record by intervening or filing a motion to vacate the judgment waives any 22 and all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to any post-judgment proceeding
23 and appellate proceeding, such as a motion to vacate judgment, motion for new trial, a motion
24 under California Code of Civil Procedure § 473, and extraordinary writs.

25 (e) Responses to Objections. Counsel for the Parties may file a response to 26 any objections submitted by Objecting Class Members at least five (5) court days before the date
27 of the Final Approval Hearing.

28 (f) Class Members will have until the Response Deadline to object or submit

1 a Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator by U.S. Mail. The Settlement
2 Administrator shall disclose jointly to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel what objections or
3 Requests for Exclusion were timely submitted on a weekly basis, and upon the request of Class
4 Counsel or Defense Counsel.

5 71. Funding of the Settlement Amount. Defendant shall deposit the Settlement
6 Amount, plus Defendant's share of payroll taxes, with the Settlement Administrator within sixty
7 (60) days after the Effective Date.

8 72. Distribution of Funds. No later than ten (10) calendar days after the deposit of the 9 Settlement Amount by Defendant, the Settlement Administrator shall mail the Individual Class
10 Payments to the Participating Class Members, the Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved
11 Employees, the payment to Class Counsel for the Attorneys' Fees and Costs Award, any Service
12 Payment to the Class Representative, the payment to the LWDA for PAGA Penalties, mail to the 13 Aggrieved Employees their portion of the PAGA Penalties, and will pay itself the Settlement
14 Administration Costs. Disbursement of the Class Counsel's Attorney's Fees and Cost, Service
15 Payment to the Class Representative, Settlement Administration Costs shall not precede
16 disbursement of the Individual Class Payments and the PAGA Penalties.

17 73. Deadline for Cashing Settlement Checks. Participating Class Members and 18 Aggrieved Employees shall have 180 calendar days after mailing by the Settlement
19 Administrator to cash their settlement checks. The release will be binding upon all Participating 20 Class Members who do not cash their checks within the 180-day period. In the event that any 21 settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator within 180 days of mailing, the 22 Settlement Administrator will, within five (5) business days of receipt of the returned settlement
23 check, perform a skip trace to locate the individual, and notify Defense Counsel and Class
24 Counsel of the results. If a new address is located by these means, the Administrator will have 25 ten (10) business days to re-issue the check. Neither Defendant, Defense Counsel, Class
26 Counsel, Plaintiff, nor the Settlement Administrator will have any liability for lost or stolen 27 settlement checks, forged signatures on settlement checks, or unauthorized negotiation of 28 settlement checks. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event a Participating Class Member

1 and/or Aggrieved Employee notifies the Settlement Administrator that he or she believes that a
2 settlement check has been lost or stolen, the Settlement Administrator shall immediately stop
3 payment on such check. If the check in question has not been negotiated prior to the stop
4 payment order, the Settlement Administrator will issue a replacement check.

5 a. If any Participating Class Member's check is not cashed within the time
6 periods noted above, the check will be void and a stop-payment will be issued, and the 7 Settlement Administrator shall issue the unclaimed funds to the California State Controller's
8 Office in the name of the Class Member.

9 b. If any Aggrieved Employee's check is not cashed within the time periods
10 noted above, the check will be void and a stop-payment will be issued, and the Settlement
11 Administrator shall issue the unclaimed funds to the California State Controller's Office in the 12 name of the Aggrieved Employee.

13 I. Duties of the Parties Prior to the Court's Approval

14 74. Promptly after execution of this Agreement, Plaintiff will move the Court for 15 Preliminary Approval of this Settlement and entry of the Preliminary Approval Order 16 accomplishing the following:

17 (a) Scheduling the Final Approval Hearing on the issue of whether this 18 Settlement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate as to the Class Members
19 and a hearing on fees, costs and the Service Payments;

20 (b) Approving as to form and content the proposed Notice Packet;

21 (c) Directing the mailing of the Notice Packet by first class mail to the Class
22 Members;

23 (d) Preliminarily approving this Settlement; and

24 (e) Preliminarily certifying the class for purposes of this Settlement.

25 Further, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), Plaintiff shall submit a copy of this
26 Agreement and the Motion for Preliminary Approval to the LWDA, no later than the same day
27 Plaintiff files the Motion for Preliminary Approval with the Court.
28

1 J. Duties of the Parties Following Court's Final Approval

2 75. In connection with the Final Approval Hearing provided for in this Agreement,
3 Class Counsel shall submit a proposed Final Approval Order:

4 (a) Approving the Settlement, adjudging the terms thereof to be fair,
5 reasonable and adequate, and directing consummation of its terms and provisions;

6 (b) Approving Class Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees and 7 reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses, the Service Payment to the Class Representative,
8 and the payment to the Settlement Administrator for costs of administering the settlement; and 9 (c) Entering judgment approving settlement.

10 K. Voiding the Agreement

11 76. If the Court fails or refuses to issue the Final Approval Order or fails to approve
12 any material condition of this Agreement which effects a fundamental change of the Settlement, 13 the entire Agreement shall be rendered voidable and unenforceable as to all Parties herein at the 14 option of either Party.

15 77. If the Settlement is voided or fails for any reason, Plaintiff and Defendant will 16 have no further obligations under the Settlement, including any obligation by Defendant to pay
17 the Settlement Amount, or any amounts that otherwise would have been owed under this 18 Settlement.

19 78. If the Settlement is voided or fails for any reason, any costs incurred by the 20 Settlement Administrator shall be borne equally by Defendant and Plaintiff, unless otherwise
21 specified in this Agreement.

22 L. Other Terms

23 79. Waiver. The waiver by one Party of any breach of this Agreement by another 24 Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other prior or subsequent breach of this Agreement.

25 80. Parties' Authority. The signatories hereto represent that they are fully authorized
26 to enter into this Agreement and bind the Parties hereto to the terms and conditions hereof.

27 81. Mutual Full Cooperation. The Parties agree to fully cooperate with each other to 28 accomplish the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to, execution of such

1 documents and to take such other action as may reasonably be necessary to implement the terms
2 of this Agreement. The Parties to this Agreement shall use their best efforts, including all efforts
3 contemplated by this Agreement and any other efforts that may become necessary by order of the 4 Court, or otherwise, to effectuate this Agreement and the terms set forth herein. As soon as 5 practicable after execution of this Agreement, Class Counsel shall, with the assistance and
6 cooperation of Defendant and Defense Counsel, take all necessary steps to secure the Court's 7 preliminary and final approval of the settlement, and the final entry of judgment.

8 82. No Prior Assignments. The Parties hereto represent, covenant, and warrant that 9 they have not, directly or indirectly, assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign,
10 transfer, or encumber to any person or entity any portion of any liability, claim, demand, action,
11 cause of action or rights released and discharged by this Agreement.

12 83. No Admission. Defendant denies any and all liability to Plaintiff and/or any Class
13 Member and/or Aggrieved Employee in this Action, as to any and all causes of action that were 14 asserted or that might have been asserted in this Action. Nonetheless, Defendant wishes to settle 15 and compromise the matters at issue in the Complaint to avoid further substantial expense and 16 the inconvenience and distraction of protracted and burdensome litigation. Defendant has taken
17 into account the uncertainty and risks inherent in litigation, and without conceding any infirmity
18 in the defenses that they have asserted or could assert against Plaintiff, have determined that it is 19 desirable and beneficial that Plaintiff's claims be settled in the manner and upon the terms and 20 conditions set forth in this Agreement.

21 84. Inadmissibility of Agreement. Whether or not the Court issues the Final Approval
22 Order, nothing contained herein, nor the consummation of this Agreement, is to be construed or 23 deemed an admission of liability, culpability, negligence, or wrongdoing on the part of 24 Defendant or any of the other Released Parties. Each of the Parties hereto has entered into this 25 Agreement with the intention of avoiding further disputes and litigation with the attendant
26 inconvenience and expenses. This Agreement is a settlement document, and it, along with all 27 related documents such as the notices, and motions for preliminary and final approval, shall,
28 pursuant to California Evidence Code § 1152 and/or Federal Rule of Evidence 408, be

1 inadmissible in evidence in any proceeding, except an action or proceeding to approve the 2 settlement, and/or interpret or enforce this Agreement. The stipulation for class certification as 3 part of this Agreement is for settlement purposes only and if, for any reason the settlement is not
4 approved, the stipulation will be of no force or effect.

5 85. No Publicity. The Parties will not publicize the Settlement or disclose it to third
6 parties prior to the Court granting Preliminary Approval, except as required or necessary to 7 effectuate its terms and comply with law. After the Final Approval Date, Class Counsel and 8 Class Representatives agree that they will not discuss the Settlement with the media, any 9 settlement and verdict reporting service, any social media postings or other Internet postings.
10 Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent Class Counsel from the public filing of motions or 11 other case materials in the Action related to seeking and obtaining Court approval of this
12 Settlement and the related awards of attorneys' fees and costs, or to communications with Class
13 Members or their representatives about this Settlement, including through the posting of Court-
14 filed documents on Class Counsel's websites for access solely by the Class Members, or to 15 prevent the Parties or their representatives from communicating with financial or legal advisors
16 regarding the Settlement. In response to any media inquiry, Class Counsel may state only that 17 the Action has been settled on terms mutually agreeable to the Parties.

18 86. Notices. Unless otherwise specifically provided herein, all notices, demands or 19 other communications given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly 20 given as of the third business day after mailing by United States registered or certified mail,
21 return receipt requested, addressed:

87. Construction. The Parties hereto agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are the result of lengthy, intensive arms' length negotiations between the Parties and that this Agreement shall not be construed in favor of or against any Party by reason of the extent to which any Party or his or its counsel participated in the drafting of this Agreement. Plaintiff and Defendant expressly waive the common-law and statutory rule of construction that ambiguities should be construed against the drafter of an agreement and further agree, covenant, and represent that the language in all parts of this Agreement shall be in all cases construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning.

88. Captions and Interpretations. Paragraph titles or captions contained herein are inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit, extend, or describe the scope of this Agreement or any provision hereof. Each term of this Agreement is contractual and not merely a recital.

89. Modification. This Agreement may not be changed, altered, or modified, except in writing and signed by the Parties hereto, and approved by the Court. This Settlement Agreement may not be discharged except by performance in accordance with its terms or by a writing signed by all of the Parties hereto.

90. Dispute Resolution. Prior to instituting legal action to enforce the provisions of this Agreement or to declare rights and/or obligations under this Agreement, a Party shall provide written notice to the other Party and allow an opportunity to cure the alleged deficiencies, and Plaintiff and Defendant may agree to seek the help of the Mediator to resolve

1 any dispute they are unable to resolve informally. During this period, the Parties shall bear their
2 own attorneys' fees and costs. This provision shall not apply to any legal action or other
3 proceeding instituted by any person or entity other than Plaintiff or Defendant.

4 91. Choice of Law. This Settlement Agreement shall be governed by and construed,
5 enforced and administered in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard
6 to its conflicts-of-law rules.

7 92. Integration Clause. This Settlement Agreement contains the entire agreement
8 between the Parties relating to the settlement and transaction contemplated hereby, and all prior 9 or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, representations, and statements, whether oral
10 or written and whether by a Party or such Party's legal counsel, are merged herein. No rights 11 hereunder may be waived except in writing.

12 93. Binding On Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the 13 benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, trustees, executors, administrators, 14 successors and assigns.

15 94. Signatures of All Class Members Unnecessary to be Binding. It is agreed that,
16 because the members of the Class are numerous, it is impossible or impractical to have each
17 Class Member execute this Agreement. The Notice Packet will advise all Class Members of the 18 binding nature of the release provided herein and such shall have the same force and effect as if 19 this Agreement were executed by each Class Member.

20 95. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, and when each 21 Party has signed and delivered at least one such counterpart, each counterpart shall be deemed an 22 original, and, when taken together with other signed counterparts, shall constitute one fully 23 signed Agreement, which shall be binding upon and effective as to all Parties. Electronic 24 signatures shall have the same force and effect as an original.

EXHIBIT “B”

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Aldana v. Coreslab Structures (L.A.)

(Riverside Superior Court, Case No. CVRI2300287)

The Riverside Superior Court authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Defendant Coreslab Structures (L.A.) (“Coreslab” or “Defendant”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code.

The Action was filed by Esteban Aldana (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) and seeks payment of (1) unpaid wages, statutory damages and penalties, interest and attorneys’ fees on behalf of a class of nonexempt (hourly paid) employees employed by Defendant Coreslab in California (“Class Members”) during the Class Period (January 19, 2019, through February 2, 2024); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) for all nonexempt (hourly paid) employees employed by Defendant Coreslab in California during the PAGA Period (January 19, 2022 to February 2, 2024) (“Aggrieved Employees”). (Plaintiff and Defendant shall be collectively referred to as the “Parties.”)

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments to Class Members, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class and PAGA Payments are shown in the charts below, along with the applicable data points from which these estimates are derived.

[CLASS MEMBER NAME] [ID/CONTROL NUMBER]

Two Parts	Weeks Worked	Your Estimated Share
Class Member	INSERT (During Class Period)	$INSERT (Individual Class Payment)
Aggrieved Employee	INSERT (During PAGA Period)	$INSERT (Individual PAGA Payment)

Please note that the actual amount you receive may be different from the above and will depend on several factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.) Also, while the range of recovery will differ for Class Members, it is estimated that the average payment will be $XX, the high payment will be $XX, and the low payment will be $XX. If you believe that you worked more weeks during the periods discussed above, you can submit a challenge by DATE, 2024 (“Response Deadline”). See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendants.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have a few options as shown in the Chart below:

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT
DO NOTHING AND RECEIVE A SETTLEMENT PAYMENT	If you want to receive your full settlement payment, then no further action is required on your part. You will automatically receive a settlement payment if the Settlement receives final approval by the Court. You will be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement and will give up your right to sue on the Released Class Claims described in Section 3 .
EXCLUDE YOURSELF	If you do not wish to participate in the settlement of the Class Claims, you may “opt-out” of the settlement of the Class Claims. If you choose to opt-out, you must submit a Request for Exclusion Form by [REDACTED], 2024 (see Section 6 for more details on how to opt-out). If you opt-out, you will no longer be a Class Member, and you will (1) not receive an Individual Class Payment, but you will preserve your right to pursue the Released Class Claims described below subject to applicable statutes of limitations, and (2) be barred from filing an objection to the settlement. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released PAGA Claims. See Section 6 of this Notice.
OBJECT	If you decide to object to the settlement with respect to the Class Claims because you find it unfair or unreasonable, you must submit an Objection Form stating why you object to the settlement by [REDACTED], 2024 (see Section 7 for more details on how to object).
DISPUTE THE NUMBER OF WEEKS WORKED	If you believe the number of workweeks that you were credited with working in the chart above is incorrect, you may submit the enclosed Dispute Form with any supporting evidence to the XX (the “Settlement Administrator”), a third party that is responsible for sending this Notice) (see Section 4 for more details on how to submit a Dispute Form). Defendant’s records will be presumed correct, but you may provide evidence to the Settlement Administrator showing how many Work Weeks you believe you should be credited.

YOU MAY ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING, BUT IT’S NOT REQUIRED
DATE: [REDACTED], 2024 TIME: 8:30 A.M.	At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. See Section 8 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is an employee of Coreslab. The Action accuses Defendant of violating California labor laws by failing to pay minimum and overtime wages, failure to provide meal and rest breaks and pay meal and rest period premiums, failure to timely pay wages each period and upon separation of employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”).

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

Both Parties are represented by attorneys in the Action. See Section 9 below for their contact information.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”), Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant Will Pay $775,000 as the “Settlement Amount.” Defendant has agreed to pay a total Settlement Amount of $775,000, and will deposit the Settlement Amount into an account controlled by Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator will use the Settlement Amount to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, the Administrator’s Costs, and PAGA Penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Settlement Amount approximately 60 days after the Judgment entered by the Court becomes final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if the Judgment is appealed.

2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Settlement Amount, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:

A. Up to one-third of the Settlement Amount ($258,333.33) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $20,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.

B. Up to $7,500 to the Class Representative as a Service Payment for litigating the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. The Class Representative's Service Payment will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.

C. $XX to the Settlement Administrator for services administering the Settlement.

D. Up to $50,000 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their share of Weeks Worked during the PAGA Period.

E. Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the remainder (the “Net Settlement Amount”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their pro rata share of total Weeks Worked during the Class Period.

4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to penalties and interest (“Non-Wage Portion”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes they owe on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Settlement, unless you opt-out of the Settlement, not later than the Response Deadline. See Section 6 of this Notice for details on how to Opt-Out.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void If the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.

8. Settlement Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, XX (the “Settlement Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Settlement Administrator will also decide any Disputes over weeks worked, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.

9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Settlement Amount and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the facts alleged in the Action for the duration of the Class Period and PAGA Period, which are resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective representatives, agents, heirs, and assigns, release the Released Parties (which includes Defendant, and its officers, directors, employees and agents) from include all claims stated in the operative Complaint and those based solely upon the facts in the Complaint, including: (1) failure to pay minimum wages, (2) failure to pay overtime wages, (3) failure to provide meal periods, (4) failure to provide rest breaks, (5) failure to timely pay final wages, (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (7) unfair and unlawful competition (the “Released Class Claims”). The operative release period for the Released Class Claims is the Class Period. Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Release of Released PAGA Claims. After the Court's judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Settlement Amount (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), Plaintiff on behalf of himself, the State of California and the LWDA shall release the Released Parties (which includes Defendant, and its officers, directors, employees and agents) from all PAGA claims that Plaintiff alleged against the Released Parties (which includes Defendant, and its officers, directors, employees and agents) based on the facts stated in the relevant LWDA notice letters and only to the extent that they are alleged in the operative Complaint, including all PAGA claims seeking civil penalties premised upon: (1) failure to pay minimum wages, (2) failure to pay overtime wages, (3) failure to provide meal periods, (4) failure to provide rest breaks, (5) failure to timely pay wages each period, (6) failure to timely pay wages upon separation of employment, (7) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) all other claims for civil penalties recoverable under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code Section 2698 based on the facts or claims alleged in the LWDA notice letters and operative Complaint (“Released PAGA Claims.”) The time period governing the Released PAGA Claims shall be any time during the PAGA Period.

4. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Weeks Worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Weeks Worked by each individual Participating Class Member during the Class Period.

2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Settlement Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $12,500 by the total number of Weeks Worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Weeks Worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period.

3. Disputing Weeks Worked and/or Share Points. The number of weeks you worked during the Class Period and PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the tables on page 2 of this Notice. You have until DATE ("Response Deadline") to dispute the number of Workweeks credited to you by mailing the enclosed Dispute Form to the Settlement Administrator on or before [INSERT DATE 45 Days After Mailing]. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your dispute by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Settlement Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of weeks worked based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Settlement Administrator will resolve challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel. The Settlement Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Settlement Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (which includes every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) and Aggrieved Employee. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.

2. Aggrieved Employees Only. If you opted out of the Class settlement, but qualify as an Aggrieved Employee, then the Settlement Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee, including those who opt out of the Class Settlement.

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Settlement Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Settlement Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Settlement, unless you opt-out of the Settlement, not later than the Response Deadline. To opt-out, you must complete, sign, and mail the accompanying Request for Exclusion Form to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline (as a reminder, the “Response Deadline” is DATE, 2024). Any person who submits a timely Request for Exclusion from the Class Claims (1) will not have any rights under this Settlement, including the right to object, appeal or comment on the Settlement; (2) will not be entitled to receive an Individual Class Payment; (3) will preserve the right to pursue the Released Class Claims, and (4) will not be bound by this Settlement, or the Judgment.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Claims remain eligible to receive an Individual PAGA Payment.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Settlement may wish to object. If you wish to object to the proposed Settlement, you or your own attorney must submit a written objection, on the enclosed Objection Form and include any and all evidence and supporting papers. The Objection Form and any accompanying evidence and papers must be sent to the Settlement Administrator at the address listed in Section 9 on the Objection Form, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline. If you do not comply with these procedures and the deadline for objections, the Court may not consider your objection at the Final Approval Hearing, and you may lose the right to contest the approval of the Settlement. You are still eligible to receive a settlement payment should the settlement become Final even if you object to the settlement. Submitting an objection does not preserve the right to appeal a final judgment. Rather, the right to appeal is preserved by becoming a party of record by timely and properly intervening or filing a motion to vacate the judgment before entry of judgment.

Re: PAGA Civil Penalty Claim
Esteban Aldana vs. Coreslab Structures (L.A.) Inc.

To the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and Coreslab Structures (L.A.) Inc.:

Pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Labor Code §§ 2699, et seq., this letter shall serve as notification of the PAGA civil penalty claim of aggrieved employee Esteban Aldana (“Claimant”), on behalf of the State of California and all Aggrieved Employees, against his employer, Coreslab Structures (L.A.) Inc., and any affiliated entities (collectively, the “Company”), for violations of Labor Code §§ 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 208, 210, 218.6, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 1199, among possibly other sections inadvertently omitted, and/or sections of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s).

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Claimant was employed by the Company from approximately 2019 through January 2023. Claimant alleges that he and all other employees employed by the Company in California (the “Aggrieved Employees”) were subjected to the same policies, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations to which Claimant was subjected during his employment.

For instance, at all relevant times, Claimant and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided proper minimum and overtime wages due to the Company’s failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked. As one such example, at all relevant times, the Company utilized a rounding policy and practice that routinely undercompensated Claimant and resulted in a net benefit to the Company and a net loss for Claimant. In other words, the Company’s rounding policy is not neutral and results in systematic undercompensation for the Aggrieved Employees.

Also, at all relevant times, Claimant alleges that he and the Aggrieved Employees were compensated on an hourly basis plus additional earned compensation in the form of nondiscretionary bonuses and shift differentials. However, on the occasions when the Aggrieved Employees worked overtime hours and received additional earned compensation during the same workweek, the Company failed to properly include these amounts in the calculations for Claimant's regular rate of pay – in violation of California law and which led to the failure to pay proper overtime.

Claimant was also not provided 30-minute off-duty meal periods, as mandated by California law, during employment with the Company. As a result of the Company's policies and practices, as well as the hectic and demanding workload, Claimant was subjected to meal period violations when: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4) forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided a mandated second meal period for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

The Company also failed to provide Claimant with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. The Company did not schedule Claimant's rest breaks, Claimant was not permitted to leave the premises for rest breaks, and Claimant was often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks. Furthermore, on occasions when Claimant worked 10 hours or more in a shift, the Company failed to authorize and/or permit the mandated additional rest breaks.

The Company also failed to comply with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 204 and 210 regarding the timing of the payment of wages to its employees each period, including minimum and overtime wages, as well as meal and rest period premiums. Also, the Company failed to comply with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 201–203 regarding timing of payment of final wages and failed to pay all wages due and owing upon separation of employment including minimum wages, overtime, meal and rest break premiums, and the Company further failed to pay the Aggrieved Employees for mandated sick time at a rate "calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay."

Finally, during employment with the Company, Claimant received inaccurate and incomplete wage statements that failed to accurately state all necessary items required under Labor Code § 226(a).

Claimant alleges that she worked under the joint direction and control of the entities listed herein and is informed and believes that each of them acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the others, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respect pertinent hereto, and the acts of each are legally attributable to the others. On information and belief, a unity of interest and ownership between each exists such that the entities listed herein acted as a single employer of Claimant and the Aggrieved Employees. Furthermore, on information and belief, the entities listed herein are an integrated enterprise and should be treated as a single employer because the entities share an interrelation of operations, with common human resources and personnel policies and shared common offices and facilities. Upon information and belief, the entities listed herein share common management, a centralized control of labor operations, and common ownership or financial control. Claimant also alleges the entities listed herein were merely the alter-ego of the others in that there existed a unity of interest and ownership such that any separateness between them ceased to exist and each exercised undue dominance, control, influence, and management over the others.

As a result of these violations, and others described below, Claimant alleges that he and other Aggrieved Employees were denied specific rights to which they are/were entitled under California law and the rules promulgated by the IWC Wage Orders, including the following:

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY ALL MINIMUM, REGULAR, AND OVERTIME WAGES

(Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 221-223, 510, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198; IWC Wage Order §§ 3, 4(B))

As discussed above, the Company failed to pay all required minimum, regular, and overtime wages to Claimant and the Aggrieved Employees due to the Company's failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked and the failure to pay proper overtime. This resulted in earned, but unpaid, wages due and owing to Claimant and the Aggrieved Employees. Therefore, Claimants and the Aggrieved Employees performed work for the Company without receiving proper payment of the requisite minimum, overtime, and/or doubletime wages.

Accordingly, Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, and 2699, among possibly others, impose various penalties upon the Company for each employee and each pay period in which it failed to pay all wages including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages in violation of the Labor Code and/or the IWC Wage Orders.

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR DENIAL OF MEAL PERIODS, REST BREAKS, AND WAGE PREMIUMS

(Labor Code §§ 226.7(b) & (c), 512, 558; Cal. Admin. Code, Title 8, § 11090)

Labor Code § 226.7(b) states that “[a]n employer shall not require an employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission ...” Labor Code § 512(a) states in pertinent part: “[A]n employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 5 hours per day without providing the employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes [...] [a]n employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.” Section 12 of applicable IWC Wage Order states in pertinent part: “Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof.”

Here, Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were regularly not provided compliant mandatory meal periods and paid rest breaks due to the Company's policies described above. Although the Company was required to pay Claimant and all Aggrieved Employees premium wages equal to an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each violation under Labor Code § 226.7(c), the Company did not pay the mandatory one-hour wage premiums and did not do so at the proper rate. Labor Code § 558 imposes a penalty for each violation, plus an amount sufficient to recover the underpaid wages. Additionally, the civil assessment set forth in Labor Code § 2699 applies to these violations.

FAILURE TO PAY SICK TIME AT PROPER RATE OF PAY

(Labor Code § 246)

Labor Code § 246(l)(1) provides that paid sick time for non-exempt employees must be “calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek.” Additionally, Labor Code § 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be “calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment."

Here, Claimant and the Aggrieved Employees were compensated on an hourly basis plus additional compensation in the form of shift differentials and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, on the occasions that the Aggrieved Employees took sick time and received paid sick leave, the Company only paid sick time at the base rate of pay (not factoring in the additional compensation as required by Labor Code §§ 246(l)(1-2). As such, penalties may be assessed pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE AND OWING EACH PAYROLL PERIOD WITHIN THE TIME REQUIRED BY LAW

(Labor Code §§ 204, 204.1, 208, 210, 256 and 2699)

Labor Code § 204(a) states that all wages earned by a person are due and payable twice during each calendar month, and further states that wages earned during the first through fifteenth days of the month must be paid no later than the twenty-sixth day of the month, and that wages earned between the sixteenth and last day of the month must be paid by the tenth day of the following month. Labor Code § 204(d) states "[t]he requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period."

As a result of the Company's failure to pay Claimant and the Aggrieved Employees all compensation to which they were entitled, the Company had a pattern and practice of failing to pay all wages due and owing to Claimant and the Aggrieved Employees within the time mandated by Labor Code § 204. As a result of these violations, penalties may be assessed pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210 and/or 2699.

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

Labor Code § 201(a) provides in pertinent part: "If an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately." Labor Code § 202(a) states in pertinent part "If an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting." Labor Code § 203(a) states "If an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, [...] any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days."

The Company did not pay the Aggrieved Employees all wages that were due and owing within the required time following the end of their employment in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201-202. As a result, all such Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 30 days of wages as a "waiting time penalty." (Labor Code § 203.) Labor Code § 2699 also imposes a penalty.

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE, ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3, and 1174)

Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

At all times pertinent hereto, the Company failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements due to violations including: failure to accurately state total hours worked (the paystubs failed to accurately reflect total compensable hours); failure to accurately state gross wages earned, all deductions, and net wages earned (due to, for example, the failure to pay all required minimum and overtime wages); failure to state the applicable hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); failure to state the accurate start and end dates of the pay period; failure to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and; failure to accurately state the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. Additionally, the Company's wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a) each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal/rest breaks under § 226.7. Accordingly, Labor Code §§ 226.3 and 2699 impose civil penalties for these violations.

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR VIOLATIONS OF LABOR CODE § 1199

(Labor Code § 1199)

An employer violates Labor Code § 1199 if said employer: (a) requires or causes an employee to work for longer hours than those fixed, or under conditions of labor prohibited by an order of the commission; (b) pays or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an order of the commission; or, (c) violates or refuses or neglects to comply with any provision of this chapter or any order or ruling of the commission. Labor Code § 2699.5 specifically enumerates Labor Code § 1199 as a section to which the civil penalties under the PAGA apply. Therefore, as a result of the Company's violations described herein, the Company is subject to civil penalties in accordance with Labor Code § 2699.

ATTORNEYS' FEES, INTEREST, AND PENALTIES

(Labor Code §§ 2699(f)(2), 2699(g)(1), 2699.5)

Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), give employees the right to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of wages, including interest thereon, penalties and other damages, as applicable, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit. Additionally, Claimant seeks the assessment of penalties, including civil penalties, under Labor Code §§ 203, 210, 225.5, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2699, and/or § 20 of the IWC Wage Orders, among possibly other provisions inadvertently omitted herein. Furthermore, Claimant is entitled to bring a wage/hour claim on behalf of all current and former similarly situated employees of the Company. Thus, the Company is exposed to these same penalties for violations involving all Aggrieved Employees. Additionally, Claimant seeks attorney's fees pursuant to C.C.P. § 1021.5. Please construe this correspondence as Claimants' notification of alleged wrongdoing and attempted resolution in accordance with C.C.P. § 1021.5 and Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the Company may be liable for civil penalties related to the foregoing claims and remedies. If Claimant becomes aware of any additional claims for Labor Code violations related to his employment and/or other employees of the Company, he reserves the right to add new claims by supplementing this notice letter.
