DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff JADE BROOKS (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further
3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants BAD BAKERS INC DBA BAD
6 BAKERS, BAD STARS INC, and DOES 1 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as 7 “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from 8 Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages),
9 failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay 10 final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, and failure to indemnify employees for 11 expenditures.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of herself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of 17 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt employees by Defendants in 21 the State of California during the statute of limitations period for his PAGA claim (hereinafter 22 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 24 establishment within the State of California, including Sacramento County. As such, and based 25 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants
26 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
27 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

1 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants 2 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 3 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum,
4 straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor
5 Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 6 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 7 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 8 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 9 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 10 violation occurred;
- 11 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
12 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
13 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 14 period violation occurred;
- 15 (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all expenditures, minimum wages,
16 straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest
17 period premium wages due within the time period specified by California 18 law when employment terminates;
- 19 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
20 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 21 IWC Wage Orders; and,
- 22 (f) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct 23 discharge of duties of employment.

24 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 25 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 26 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 27 willful and deliberate.

28 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior.”

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff JADE BROOKS is a California resident who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 2022 to approximately October 2022.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendants BAD BAKERS INC DBA BAD BAKERS and BAD STARS INC are, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

- (a) Business entities qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Sacramento County; and,
- (b) The former employer(s) of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class because Defendants BAD BAKERS INC DBA BAD BAKERS and BAD STARS INC suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by

1 Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true
2 names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with 3 appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

4 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 5 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
6 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

7 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times
8 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 9 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 10 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 11 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
12 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
13 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 14 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 15 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
16 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted 17 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 18 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 19 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

20 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

21 14. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt
22 employee. During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly
23 wage and classified her as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff
24 to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff regularly 25 worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

26 15. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked 27 (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with legally 28 compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods, failed to

1 timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated his employment, failed to
2 furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, and failed to indemnify Plaintiff for expenditures.
3 As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

4 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 5 not paying Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and 6 overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Class to work "off-the-clock", 7 uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiff and the Class to continue working during 8 unpaid meal periods. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In 9 failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the 10 hours Plaintiff and the Class worked.

11 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff 12 and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants regularly, but not always,
13 required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without 14 providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or 15 without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for meal periods that were not provided by the end
16 of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control
17 over Plaintiff and the Class by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks 18 which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by 19 denying Plaintiff and the Class permission to take a meal period. Accordingly, Defendants'
20 policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Class in compliance with 21 California law.

22 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 23 and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take legally compliant rest periods. Defendants regularly
24 required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without 25 Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest
26 period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating
27 Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants
28 continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Class by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging

1 them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking
2 mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Class permission to take a rest period.
3 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the 4 Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

5 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
6 pay Plaintiff and the Class all final wages due at their termination of employment. In addition,
7 Plaintiff's final paychecks did not include payment for all expenditures, minimum wages,
8 straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium
9 wages owed to him by Defendants at the conclusion of her employment. On information and 10 belief, Defendants' failure to timely pay Plaintiff's final wages when his employment terminated
11 was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with Defendants' policy and 12 practice that applied to Plaintiff and the Class.

13 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 14 Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, all overtime
15 hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages
16 for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for 17 rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).
18 As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff and the Class 19 suffered injury because, among other things:

- 20 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
21 minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period 22 premium wages, even though they were entitled;
- 23 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
24 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium 25 wages, even though they had not been;
- 26 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
27 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
28 wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;

- 1 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time,
2 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 3 correct California rate even though they had not been;
- 4 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
5 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
6 wages owed to them;
- 7 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 8 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 9 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
10 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 11 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 12 (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to 13 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 14 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 15 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage
16 rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the 17 Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were 18 entitled.

19 Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code §
20 226(e) and injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h).

21 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiff
22 and the Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for 23 Defendants. Plaintiff and the Class regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-24 related expenses, including, without limitation, for the use of personal cell phone.

25 22. Plaintiff and the Class incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of 26 performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the 27 Class for these employment-related expenses.
28

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

23. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

24. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

25. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

26. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

27. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members and aggrieved employees.

28. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

(a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

(b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' and aggrieved employees claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative

1 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members
2 and aggrieved employees who are not named in the complaint with a type
3 of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time
4 as their privacy is protected.

5 29. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 6 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 7 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 8 (a) Failed to pay Class Members and aggrieved employees for all hours 9 worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
- 10 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 11 Class Members and aggrieved employees;
- 12 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
13 wages to Class Members and aggrieved employees;
- 14 (d) Failed to provide Class Members and aggrieved employees with timely 15 final wages;
- 16 (e) Failed to provide Class Members and aggrieved employees with accurate 17 wage statements;
- 18 (f) Failed to indemnify Class Members and aggrieved employees for 19 expenditures; and,
- 20 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 21 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

22 30. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 23 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 24 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 25 question affecting only individual members;
- 26 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 27 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 28 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;

(d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

(e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

(f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:

- 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
- 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

31. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

32. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

33. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

34. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

35. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

36. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

37. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

38. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

39. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages.

1 40. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all
2 wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to 3 this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
4 required by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times,
5 Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due
6 and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

7 41. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
8 and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California
9 Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

10 ///

11 ///

12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

14 42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
15 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

16 43. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 17 employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they 18 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

19 44. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California 20 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 21 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
22 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 23 by the IWC is unlawful.

24 45. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight 25 hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of 26 Defendants.

27 46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class 28 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

47. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

48. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

49. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

50. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

52. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff's and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a

1 violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work
2 during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

3 53. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff
4 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
5 and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact
6 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods),
7 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable
8 Wage Orders.

9 54. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 10 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 11 plus interest thereon.

12 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

14 55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
15 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

16 56. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 17 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 18 two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer
19 permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour
20 period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 21 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is 22 itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 23 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under 24 any Wage Order.

25 57. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 26 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a 27 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 28 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

58. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

60. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

61. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members and aggrieved employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

62. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members and aggrieved employees who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

63. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue

1 as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 2 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

3 64. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages
4 for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days
5 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

6 65. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also 7 entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this 8 action.

12 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant 14 Wage Records)

15 66. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
16 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

17 67. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 18 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement
19 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
20 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
21 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made
22 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages 23 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 24 employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 25 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 26 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 27 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

28 68. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with

1 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 2 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list
3 the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

4 69. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff
5 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

6 70. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by 7 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied
8 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage
9 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

10 71. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 11 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as 12 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
13 Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related 14 laws and regulations.

15 72. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 16 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or 17 an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

18 73. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 19 attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor
20 Code § 226(h).

21 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

23 74. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
24 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

25 75. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial 26 necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of 27 their obedience to directions of Defendants.
28

76. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

77. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

78. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(b).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

79. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

80. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business & Professions Code § 17201.

81. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, aggrieved employees, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

82. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

83. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages

84. Defendants' failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

85. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

86. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

87. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Business Expenses

88. Defendants' failure to reimburse expenses incurred in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

90. Plaintiff and the Class Members and aggrieved employees suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the

1 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 2 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 3 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 4 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

5 92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further 6 entitled to, and does, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair,
7 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
8 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
9 practices in the future.

10 93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no
11 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
12 and aggrieved employees suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or 13 fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
14 practices described above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, 15 has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of 16 them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent 17 business practices.

18 94. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 19 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 20 withholdings.

21 95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
22 and putative Class Members and aggrieved employees are entitled to restitution of the wages
23 withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years and 178 days
24 prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all 25 outstanding wages due to Plaintiff, Class Members, and aggrieved employees; an award of 26 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable
27 laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

96. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

97. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

98. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On January 13, 2023, she gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and former Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-929358-23.

99. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative remedies with California’s LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code § 2699.3(d).)

100. More than sixty-five (65) days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197,

1 1197.1, 1198, 2802, 2699(f)(2) and applicable Industrial Wage Order.

2 101. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award
3 of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of 4 Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown
5 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

6 102. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
7 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action
8 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."
