DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff TERRELL REED ("Plaintiff"), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further
3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant OUTER AISLE GOURMET, LLC,
6 and DOES 1 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants") for California
7 Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants' failure to pay
8 for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal 9 periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to 10 furnish accurate wage statements, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, and failure to 11 produce requested employment records.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members," and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of 17 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Tenth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt employees by Defendants in 21 the State of California during the statute of limitations period for his PAGA claim (hereinafter 22 referred to as the "Aggrieved Employees").

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 24 establishment within the State of California, including Ventura County. As such, and based upon 25 all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are 26 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission
27 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

1 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants 2 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 3 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum,
4 straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor
5 Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 6 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 7 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 8 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 9 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 10 violation occurred;
- 11 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
12 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
13 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 14 period violation occurred;
- 15 (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all expenditures, minimum wages,
16 straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest
17 period premium wages due within the time period specified by California 18 law when employment terminates;
- 19 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
20 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 21 IWC Wage Orders;
- 22 (f) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct 23 discharge of duties of employment; and,
- 24 (g) Failing to timely produce requested employment records as required by the 25 California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order.

26 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 27 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 28

1 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 2 willful and deliberate.

3 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 4 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 5 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
6 Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of 7 herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

8 THE PARTIES

9 A. Plaintiff

10 8. Plaintiff TERRELL REED is a California resident who worked for Defendants in 11 Ventura County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 12 October 2018 to November 2022.

13 9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new 14 Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v.
15 American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

16 B. Defendants

17 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief 18 alleges, that Defendant TERRELL REED are and at all times herein mentioned, was:

- 19 (a) A business entity qualified to do business and actually conducting business
20 throughout the State of California, including in Ventura County; and,
21 (b) The former employer of Plaintiff, the current and/or former employer of 22 the putative Class, and the current and/or former employees of the 23 Aggrieved Employees, because Defendant TERRELL REED suffered and 24 permitted Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work,
25 and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

26 11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued
27 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names.
28 Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by

1 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this 2 complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been 3 ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

4 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 5 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
6 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in 7 the State of California.

8 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times
9 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 10 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 11 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 12 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
13 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
14 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 15 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 16 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
17 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted 18 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 19 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 20 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

21 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

22 14. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt
23 employee. During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly
24 wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff
25 to work Monday through Friday, from 6:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., working at least 8 hours a day, 40
26 hours a workweek.

27 15. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked 28 (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with legally

1 compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods, failed to 2 timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated her employment, failed to 3 furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for expenditures, and 4 failed to produce requested employment records. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience
5 working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

6 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 7 not paying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including 8 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff, the Class, and the 9 Aggrieved Employees to work "off-the-clock", uncompensated, by, for example, requiring 10 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to continue working during unpaid meal
11 periods. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay 12 for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff, 13 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

14 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff,
15 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants 16 regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work in 17 excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-
18 free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and 19 the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of 20 work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff, the 21 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform
22 work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal
23 periods, or by denying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a 24 meal period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to 25 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

26 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 27 and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest 28 periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to

1 work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting
2 them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or 3 major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued
5 to assert control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, 6 or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in 7 lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
8 Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to 9 not authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in 10 compliance with California law.

11 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely 12 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all final wages due at their termination of 13 employment. In addition, Plaintiff's, the Class', and the Aggrieved Employees' final paychecks
14 did not include payment for all expenditures, minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime 15 wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages owed to them by 16 Defendants at the conclusion of their employment. On information and belief, Defendants'
17 failure to timely pay Plaintiff's, the Class', and the Aggrieved Employees' final wages when 18 their employment terminated was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with 19 Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
20 Employees.

21 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff, the Class,
22 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable
23 hourly rates, all overtime hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct 24 hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with 25 California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take 26 in accordance with California law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code §
27 226(a), the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among 28 other things:

- (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they were entitled;
- (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;
- (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;
- (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had not been;
- (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages owed to them;
- (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;
- (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage rates to which Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

1 Thus, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 2 California Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h).

3 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiff,
4 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of 5 their duties for Defendants. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid
6 out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, 7 business-related cell phone expenses, among other things.

8 22. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as 9 a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify
10 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

11 23. On November 21, 2022, Plaintiff sent requests through his counsel to Defendants
12 for his personnel file, pay records, wage statements, timekeeping records, and other employment-
13 related documents pursuant to Labor Code section 226 and 1198.5. However, Defendants failed
14 to timely produce the requested employment records, in violation of Labor Code sections 226
15 and 1198.5. Defendants have not produced any of the requested employment records for Plaintiff
16 as of the date of this Complaint.

17 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18 24. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all 19 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil 20 Procedure § 382.

21 25. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief
22 authorized by California law.

23 26. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

24 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or 25 non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 26 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

27 ¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a)
28 (California Rules of Court), whereby "statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020."

1 27. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

2 28. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working
3 conditions of all Class Members.

4 29. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 5 readily ascertainable:

6 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so
7 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
8 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time;
9 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals
10 and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection
11 of Defendants' records.

12 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
13 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
14 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any)
15 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

16 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
17 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
18 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 19 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 20 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in 21 the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
22 Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 23 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 24 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 25 benefit of each class member.

26 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 27 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration 28

of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

30. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;

- (d) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- (f) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures;
- (g) Failed to produce requested employment records to Class Members; and,
- (h) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

31. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,

1 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other
2 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially
3 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but 4 not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from 5 those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

6 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 7 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 8 the class as a whole.

9 32. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 10 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own
11 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated
12 notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of 13 additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail 14 notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the 15 Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

16 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All 18 Hours Worked)

19 33. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
20 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

21 34. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 22 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 23 not required to do so.

24 35. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 25 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 26 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 27 provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which 28 require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

1 36. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight
2 time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

3 37. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 4 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

5 38. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 6 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class 7 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 8 Plaintiff and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

9 39. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
10 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
11 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

12 40. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 13 recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

14 41. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 15 wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to 16 this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
17 required by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times,
18 Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due 19 and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

20 42. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
21 and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California
22 Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

43. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

44. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

45. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

46. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of Defendants.

47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

48. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

49. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

50. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well

1 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 2 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

3 51. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all
4 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 5 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
6 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
7 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

8 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

10 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
11 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

12 53. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 13 Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 14 start of Plaintiff's and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
15 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor
16 Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide 17 unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
18 violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work
19 during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

20 54. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff
21 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
22 and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact 23 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods),
24 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable
25 Wage Orders.

26 55. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 27 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 28 plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

56. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

57. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage Order.

58. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

59. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

60. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

61. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if

1 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 2 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment,
3 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter,
4 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 5 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

6 62. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other 7 members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of 8 others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail
9 to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California
10 Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of 11 their leaving Defendants' employ.

12 63. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by 13 Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72)
14 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 15 202.

16 64. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 17 wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue 18 as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 19 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

20 65. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages
21 for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days
22 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

23 66. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also 24 entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this 25 action.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

67. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

68. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

69. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list the true "total hours worked by the employee," and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

70. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

71. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

72. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as

1 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
2 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related 3 laws and regulations.

4 73. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 5 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or 6 an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

7 74. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 8 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor
9 Code § 226(h).

10 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

12 75. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
13 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

14 76. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial 15 necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of 16 their obedience to directions of Defendants.

17 77. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and 18 indemnify Plaintiff and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct 19 consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

20 78. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 21 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

22 79. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and 23 costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California
24 Labor Code § 2802(b).

25 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records)

27 80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
28 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

1 81. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, current and former employees have the 2 right to inspect or receive a copy of their records pertaining to their employment, upon 3 reasonable request to their employer. Under this statute, an employer that receives a request to 4 inspect or receive a copy of records pertaining to a current or former employee must comply with 5 the request as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date
6 of the request.

7 82. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5(a), every current and former 8 employee, or his or her representative, has the right to inspect and receive a copy of the 9 personnel records that the employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any 10 grievance concerning the employee. Under this statute, upon written request from a current or 11 former employee or his or her representative, an employer must make the contents of those 12 personnel records available for inspection or provide a copy of the personnel records to the 13 current or former employee, or his or her representative, not later than thirty (30) calendar days
14 from the date the employer receives the written request, subject to some limited exceptions.
15 Failure to comply with these requests allows for a civil penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars
16 ($750), pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1198.5(k) and 226(f).

17 83. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class are current and former employees of 18 Defendants.

19 84. As set forth above, Plaintiff sent written requests through his counsel to 20 Defendants for his payroll records, timecards, and personnel records. However, Plaintiff has not 21 received any of his requested records as of the date of this Complaint.

22 85. Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5 by failing to timely
23 produce the required records requested by Plaintiff.

24 86. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff with his 25 requested employment records is not an isolated incident but was instead consistent with 26 Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiff and the Class.

27 87. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5, Plaintiff and the Class are 28 entitled to a penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendants, injunctive relief in

107. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.
