NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT, ATTORNEYS'
FEES AND COSTS, ENHANCEMENT
PAYMENT, AND SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS;
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT THEREOF

Date: July 10, 2026
Time: 10:30 a.m.
Dept: 1

Complaint Filed: April 3, 2023
FAC Filed: October 29, 2025
Trial Date: Not Set

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on July 10, 2026 at 10:30 a.m. in Department 1 of the 3 above-captioned Court located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, pursuant 4 to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, and 5 California Labor Code section 2699(l), Cesar Ibarra (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move the Court
6 for an Order granting final approval of the proposed class action and Labor Code Private Attorneys 7 General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) settlement between 8 Plaintiff and Defendant Leuen, Inc. dba The Original Pantry Cafe (“Defendant”).

9 Plaintiff requests that the Court enter an Order:

- 10 1. Granting final approval of the class action and PAGA settlement;
- 11 2. Approving the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the terms as set 12 forth in the Court-approved Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement 13 Agreement” or “Settlement”), including payment by Defendant of the Gross Settlement Amount of 14 One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($150,000.00) equal to the amounts to pay (1) 15 the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Employees pursuant to the terms of the Settlement; (2) the 16 Court-approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs; (3) the Court-approved Enhancement Payment; (4) the 17 Court-approved Settlement Administration Costs; and (5) the Court-approved payment to the 18 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) pursuant to PAGA;
- 19 3. Approving Class Counsel’s request for one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, 20 i.e., Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00) in attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement of 21 actual costs and expenses in the amount of Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred Two Dollars and Twelve 22 Cents ($20,802.12);
- 23 4. Approving the Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff in the amount of Seven Thousand 24 Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00) in recognition of his services to the Class Members;
- 25 5. Approving the Settlement Administration Costs to Apex Class Action LLC in the 26 amount of Six Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($6,250.00); and 27 ///

28 ///

6. Approving Six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($6,500.00) to be paid to the LWDA as sixty-five percent (65%) of the Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) allocated to civil penalties under PAGA.

This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 and Rule 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which require approval by the Court of a class action settlement and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda.

This Motion is based on the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Settlement Agreement, the Declarations of Class Counsel (Alexandra Rose), the Class Representative (Cesar Ibarra), and the Settlement Administrator (Missy Carey on behalf of Apex Class Action LLC), the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter, and such evidence or oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: June 10, 2026

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Cesar Ibarra (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) seeks final approval of the class 4 action settlement reached with Defendant Leuen, Inc. dba The Original Pantry Cafe (“Defendant”).
5 Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have settled the Released 6 Class Claims and Released PAGA Claims as defined in the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and 7 PAGA Settlement (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”) for a total amount of One Hundred Fifty 8 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($150,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”). (See Declaration of 9 Alexandra Rose in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA
10 Settlement, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs 11 [“Rose Decl.”], ¶ 14, Exh. 1).

12 The Court conditionally certified, for settlement purposes only, the Class defined as: “All 13 current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State 14 of California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or “Class Members”). (Settlement 15 Agreement, ¶ 9.b; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The “Class Period” is defined as the period from April 3, 2019 16 through March 10, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.f; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The “Settlement Class 17 Members” consist of all Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion.
18 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.mm; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The “PAGA Employees” consist of “all current 19 and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of 20 California at any time during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.y; Rose Decl., ¶ 12).
21 The “PAGA Period” is defined as the period from August 25, 2024 through March 10, 2025.
22 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.aa; Rose Decl., ¶ 12).

23 As discussed herein, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for final settlement 24 approval under California law because it is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Rose Decl., Exh. 1; See 25 also, Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-30; Dunk v. Ford Motor 26 Company (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 180 1). The response of the Class to the Settlement confirms 27 that final settlement approval is appropriate. There have been no objections to and no requests to opt- 28 out from the Class Settlement. (Declaration of Missy Carey of Apex Class Action LLC, Regarding 1 Notice and Settlement Administration [“Apex Decl.”], ¶¶ 11 and 12).

2 Because the Settlement achieves outstanding results for the Settlement Class Members, the 3 PAGA Employees, and the State of California, Plaintiff respectfully requests, on behalf of the Class 4 and without opposition from Defendant, that the Court approve the Settlement as fair, adequate, and 5 reasonable, and enter judgment in accordance with the Settlement’s terms.

6 Plaintiff seeks the Court’s approval of an attorneys’ fee award of one-third (1/3) of the Gross 7 Settlement Amount, equaling Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00), plus 8 reimbursement of actual litigation costs and expenses in the amount of Twenty Thousand Eight 9 Hundred Two Dollars and Twelve Cents ($20,802.12) (together, “Attorneys’ Fees and Costs”). Class 10 Counsel’s request for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs is reasonable and appropriate in light of 11 the outstanding work performed by Class Counsel in the matter, the contingent nature of this action, 12 and the results achieved under the Settlement. (See Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 13 Cal.App.4th 19).

14 Plaintiff also requests the Court’s approval of the amount to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount 15 of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00) (“Enhancement Payment”) for 16 his services on behalf of the Class. This amount proposed to be awarded to Plaintiff is fair and 17 reasonable for the reasons Plaintiff provided in his declaration. (See Declaration of Plaintiff Cesar 18 Ibarra in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, Attorneys’ 19 Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs [“Ibarra Decl.”] filed 20 concurrently herewith). Courts approve incentive awards to plaintiffs when justified and appropriate 21 to compensate plaintiffs for their time, effort, and inconvenience. (See e.g., Van Vranken v. Atlantic 22 Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294, 299).

23 Finally, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the payment of Six Thousand Two Hundred 24 Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($6,250.00) (“Settlement Administration Costs”) to Apex Class Action 25 LLC (“Apex” or “Settlement Administrator”) as compensation for its administration services it has 26 and will provide in connection with the Settlement. (See, generally, Apex Decl.).

27 ///

28 ///

1 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to 2 grant final approval of the Settlement and award the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement 3 Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing 4 of this single consolidated memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California 5 Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d), instead of filing several separate motions.

6 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 Defendant was a coffee shop and restaurant located in Los Angeles that opened in 1924 and 8 closed on March 10, 2025 (i.e., the end of the Class Period). Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as 9 an hourly-paid, non-exempt Cook from approximately January 2004 to approximately March 2020.
10 (Ibarra Decl., ¶ 2).

11 On April 3, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint for Damages in the action entitled 12 Cesar Ibarra v. Leuen, Inc. dba The Original Pantry Cafe, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case 13 No. 23STCV07182 ("Action"), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Rose 14 Decl., ¶ 2).

15 On April 15, 2024, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Jason Marsili, 16 Esq. ("Mediator"), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex wage and 17 hour matters, which did not result in a settlement. (Id., ¶ 3).

18 On July 17, 2024, Plaintiff propounded written formal discovery onto Defendant (specifically, 19 Form Interrogatories – General (Set One), Form Interrogatories – Employment Law (Set One), Special 20 Interrogatories (Set One), and Requests for Production of Documents (Set One)). (Id., ¶ 4).

21 On September 17, 2024, Defendant served responses to Plaintiff's discovery requests. (Id., ¶ 22 5).

23 On November 18, 2024, Plaintiff noticed the deposition of Defendant's Person Most 24 Knowledgeable. (Id., ¶ 6).

25 On July 16, 2025, after further negotiations and with the assistance of the Mediator's 26 evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and 27 representative basis. (Id., ¶ 7). The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the 28 terms in a long form settlement agreement. (Ibid.).

1 On August 25, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the California Labor and Workforce 2 Development Agency (“LWDA”) by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, 3 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor 4 Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant (“PAGA Letter”). (Id., ¶ 8).

5 On September 15, 2025, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 9 and Exh. 1).

6 On October 29, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action 7 Complaint (“Operative Complaint”) in the Action, which added a cause of action under Private 8 Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”). (Id., ¶ 10). The Operative Complaint alleges nine (9) causes of 9 action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay overtime wages, failure to pay 10 minimum wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, 11 failure to provide compliant rest periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide 12 compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and failure to reimburse 13 necessary business expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code Section 17200, 14 et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil penalties under 15 PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations. (Ibid.).

16 On October 6, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and 17 PAGA Settlement (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) and supporting documents. (Id., ¶ 11). On 18 March 4, 2026, the Court entered the Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA
19 Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”), thereby preliminary approving the terms of the Settlement 20 Agreement, the Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”), and the proposed administration 21 procedures and associated deadlines. (Id., ¶ 11 and Exh. 2).

22 The Parties agree that the Class described herein may be certified for settlement purposes only.
23 If for any reason the Settlement is not approved, the certification will have no force or effect and will 24 immediately be revoked. The Parties further agree that certification for purposes of approving the 25 Settlement Agreement is in no way an admission that class certification is proper under the more 26 stringent standard applied for litigation and that evidence of this limited stipulation for settlement 27 purposes only will not be admissible for any purpose in this or any other proceeding.

28 ///

1 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

2 The Parties have agreed to settle the Class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative 3 Complaint for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars
4 and Zero Cents ($150,000.00), which is exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Settlement 5 Agreement, ¶ 9.q; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) Class Counsel’s fees 6 in the amount of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Fifty Thousand Dollars 7 and Zero Cents ($50,000.00); (2) Class Counsel’s actual litigation costs and expenses, in the amount 8 of Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred Two Dollars and Twelve Cents ($20,802.12); (3) Settlement
9 Administration Costs in the amount of Six Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents 10 ($6,250.00); (4) Enhancement Payment in the amount of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and 11 Zero Cents ($7,500.00); and (5) PAGA Amount in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero 12 Cents ($10,000.00). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.q, 12, 13, 14, and 15; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). After the 13 above Court-approved amounts are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Class 14 Members will share in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately Fifty-Five Thousand Four Hundred 15 Forty-Seven Dollars and Eighty-Eight Cents ($55,447.88). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.v; Rose Decl., 16 ¶ 14).

17 The Settlement does not require Settlement Class Members to submit claims as a prerequisite 18 to receiving their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Settlement Share”) nor 19 does it require PAGA Employees to submit claims as a prerequisite to receiving their pro rata share 20 of thirty-five percent (35%) of the PAGA Amount (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Settlement 21 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.r and 9.t; Rose Decl., ¶ 15). Individual Settlement Shares are calculated by the 22 Settlement Administrator by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of weeks each 23 Settlement Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in 24 California during the Class Period (“Workweeks”) and multiplying the result by each Settlement Class 25 Member’s Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.nn and 17; Rose 26 Decl., ¶ 15). Individual PAGA Payments are calculated by the Settlement Administrator by dividing 27 the amount of the PAGA Employees’ thirty-five percent (35%) share of the PAGA Amount 28 ($3,500.00) by the total number of pay periods each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as an

1 hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period (“Pay Periods”) and 2 multiplying the result by each PAGA Employee’s Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period.
3 (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.cc and 18; Rose Decl., ¶ 15)

4 Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty 5 percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., 6 ¶ 17). The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated 7 to penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by 8 the Settlement Administrator. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 17). The Settlement 9 Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages 10 portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their 11 net payment of their Individual Settlement Share (“Individual Settlement Payment”). (Settlement 12 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.s and 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 17). The employer’s share of taxes and contributions in 13 connection with the wage portion of Individual Settlement Shares will be paid separately and in 14 addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.l, 9.q, and 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 15 17). Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and 16 will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. (Settlement 17 Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 17).

18 Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 19 negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 20 thereafter, shall be canceled. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 37; Rose Decl., ¶ 18). Any funds associated 21 with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the State of 22 California’s Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Settlement Class Member and/or PAGA 23 Employee at issue. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 37; Rose Decl., ¶ 18).

24 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all 25 Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 26 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of any and all claims which were 27 alleged or which could have been reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative 28 Complaint, arising during the Class Period, which shall specifically include claims for Defendant’s

1 alleged failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and 2 associated premium payments, timely pay wages upon termination, provide accurate wage statements, 3 and reimburse necessary business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 4 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, the applicable
5 Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, and California Business and Professions Code sections 6 17200, et seq. (collectively, “Released Class Claims”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.ff and 38).

7 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State 8 of California with respect to all PAGA Employees, and all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have 9 fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released 10 Parties of any and all claims arising from any of the factual allegations in the PAGA Letter and the 11 Operative Complaint, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys 12 General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., which shall specifically include 13 claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide compliant meal 14 and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay wages upon termination, provide 15 compliant wage statements, maintain complete and accurate payroll records, and reimburse necessary 16 business-related expenses in violation of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 17 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare 18 Commission Wage Order (collectively, “Released PAGA Claims”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.gg 19 and 39).

20 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, 21 individually and on his own behalf, will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 22 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties from any and all claims, debts, 23 liabilities, demands, obligations, guarantees, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, damages, or causes of 24 action of any kind or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or 25 unasserted, arising out of, relating to, or resulting from his employment and/or separation of 26 employment with Defendant, which Plaintiff, at any time up until the execution of the Settlement 27 Agreement, had or claimed to have or may have. (Id., ¶ 40). It is agreed that this is a general release 28 and is to be broadly construed as a release of all claims, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing,

1 this Paragraph expressly does not include a release of any claims that cannot be released hereunder by 2 law. (Ibid). Any and all rights granted under any state or federal law or regulation limiting the effect 3 of the Settlement Agreement, including the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, 4 ARE HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVED. Section 1542 of the California Civil Code reads as follows:

5 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE 6 CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO 7 EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE 8 AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY 9 AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED 10 PARTY.
11 (Ibid).

12 The “Released Parties” means Defendant and its current and former officers, directors, 13 members, insurers, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns. (Id., ¶ 14 9.hh).

15 IV. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

16 Apex has taken all necessary steps to effectuate the notice and settlement administration 17 process, as set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order.

18 On February 24, 2026, Apex received the Court approved text for the Class Notice from Class 19 Counsel. (Apex Decl., ¶ 4).

20 On February 25, 2026, Apex received the class data file from Defendant’s counsel, which 21 contained the full name, last known mailing address, Social Security number, dates worked for 22 Defendant during the Class Period, and such other information as is necessary for the Settlement 23 Administrator to calculate Workweeks and Pay Periods (collectively, “Class List”). (Id., ¶ 5). The 24 Class List was uploaded to Apex’s database and checked for duplicates and other possible 25 discrepancies. (Ibid). The Class List contained 107 individuals identified as Class Members who 26 worked 9,776 Workweeks during the Class Period and 21 individuals identified as PAGA Employees 27 who worked 294 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Ibid).

28 As part of the preparation for mailing, all 107 names and addresses contained in the Class List were then processed against the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database, maintained by the United States Postal Service (“USPS”), for purposes of updating and confirming the mailing addresses of the Class Members before mailing of the Class Notice. (Id., ¶ 6). The NCOA contains requested

1 change of addresses filed with the USPS. (Ibid). To the extent that an updated address was found in 2 the NCOA database, the updated address was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid). To the 3 extent that no updated address was found in the NCOA database, the original address provided by 4 Defendant's counsel was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid).

5 On March 11, 2026, the Class Notice was mailed, via U.S. First Class Mail, to all 107 6 individuals contained in the Class List. (Id., ¶ 7). 6 Class Notices were returned to Apex as 7 undeliverable. (Id., ¶ 8). Apex performed a computerized skip trace on the 6 returned Class Notices 8 that did not have a forwarding address in an effort to obtain an updated address for the purpose of re-9 mailing the Class Notice and the Class Notice was promptly re-mailed to those Class Members, via 10 U.S First Class Mail. (Ibid). A total of 2 Class Notices have been deemed undeliverable as no updated 11 address was found notwithstanding the skip tracing. (Id., ¶ 9).

12 Class Members had forty-five (45) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator mailed the 13 Class Notices to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or Dispute ("Response 14 Deadline"). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.jj). The Response Deadline was April 27, 2026. (Apex Decl., 15 ¶ 10). The Settlement Administrator did not receive any Requests for Exclusion, Notice of Objections, 16 and/or Disputes. (Id., ¶¶ 11-13).

17 The estimated average gross Individual Settlement Share is $478.97, the estimated highest 18 gross Individual Settlement Share is $1,617.62, and the estimated lowest gross Individual Settlement 19 Share is $0.73¹; the estimated average Individual PAGA Payment is $166.67, the estimated highest 20 Individual PAGA Payment is $166.67, and the estimated lowest Individual PAGA Payment is 21 $166.67. (Id., ¶¶ 12 and 13)².

22 V. COMPLIANCE WITH PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS OF PAGA

23 On October 6, 2025, Class Counsel submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the 24 LWDA through its online submission portal in compliance with California Labor Code § 2699(s)(2).
25 (Rose Decl., ¶ 19). The LWDA has not objected or otherwise responded to the submissions. (Ibid).

26
27 ¹ The actual average, highest, and lowest Individual Settlement Shares will be larger than the amounts stated in the Apex 28 Decl. because the Net Settlement Amount is larger due to Class Counsel's request for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in an amount that is less than $25,000.00 (the difference between the amount sought and the amount authorized under the Settlement, i.e., $4,197.88 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount).

² The average, highest, and lowest Individual PAGA Payments are the same amounts because each PAGA Employee had the same number of Pay Periods.

1 VI. EVALUATION OF SETTLEMENT FOR FINAL APPROVAL

2 A. The Legal Standard for Final Approval

3 Before granting final approval of a class action settlement, the Court must review the 4 settlement for fairness. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 5 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801). A court must take into account relevant factors, including, for example, the 6 strength of the plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, 7 the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, 8 the experience and views of counsel, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.
9 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 244-45; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 10 [“The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case”]; Officers for Justice v. Civil 11 Serv. Comm’n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625). Considering such factors, a presumption of fairness 12 exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and 13 discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced 14 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; 15 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802). “The settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or 16 rehearsal for trial on the merits. [The trial court is not] to reach any ultimate conclusions on the 17 contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, for it is the very uncertainty 18 of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual 19 settlements.” (Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at 625).

20 B. The Settlement Should be Finally Approved

21 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 22 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.
23 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties’ settlement negotiations 24 were at all times made at arm’s-length and were adversarial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 20). The Parties engaged 25 in extensive formal and informal discovery prior to reaching a settlement. (Id., ¶ 21).

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable

2 Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement 3 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 4 Defendant produced a random twenty percent (20%) sampling of putative class members' time and 5 pay data as well as Defendant's relevant wage and hour policies, and information regarding the total 6 number of putative class members, the number of current versus former employees, the total 7 workweeks worked by the putative class members, and the average rate of pay for the putative class 8 members. (Rose Decl., ¶ 21). This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and 9 analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Ibid).
10 Plaintiff's investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot
11 Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 12 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 ("Dunk/Kullar").

13 Based on the information exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class 14 certification and liability and provided their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate 15 the strengths and weakness of their respective positions. (Rose Decl., ¶ 22). At all times, Plaintiff 16 was willing and prepared to litigate this matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had 17 been unable to reach a favorable resolution. (Ibid). Additionally, settlement negotiations were 18 conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. (Ibid). Class Counsel are respected members 19 of the California State Bar with strong records of vigorous and effective advocacy and are experienced 20 in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Ibid). Accordingly, Class Counsel had 21 sufficient information and experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

22 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 23 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
24 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 25 must consider "the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 26 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 27 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and 28 views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to

1 the proposed settlement.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

2 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal 3 and factual grounds for defending the Action. Based upon Class Counsel’s experience litigating 4 similar complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class 5 certification and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

6 Class Counsel is aware of Defendant’s defenses and arguments and has also taken into account 7 the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in 8 such litigation, including those involved in class and/or representative adjudication. (Rose Decl., ¶ 9 24). Plaintiff further recognizes the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims 10 asserted in the Action, Defendant’s defenses, and the difficulties in establishing entitlement to 11 monetary recovery. (Ibid). Plaintiff has also considered the Parties’ settlement discussions, as well 12 as the evaluations of the Mediator, who is experienced and well-regarded in complex labor and 13 employment matters. (Ibid).

14 Defendant denied and continues to deny any liability and wrongdoing of any kind associated 15 with the claims alleged in the Action, and further denies that class certification is appropriate for any 16 purpose other than the Settlement. (Id., ¶ 25). Defendant believes that it would ultimately prevail in 17 the Action. (Ibid). Defendant proffered defenses to both certification and to the merits of Plaintiff’s 18 claims. (Ibid). Defendant contended that Plaintiff’s claims are not suitable for class certification 19 because individual issues would predominate should this case go to trial. (Ibid). As with all class 20 actions, these complex cases raise difficult management and proof issues and, accordingly, there is a 21 significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Ibid).

22 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 23 amount of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and extremely 24 uncertain proposition. (Id., ¶ 26). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel would need 25 to request and analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members’ contact 26 information, contact them, and obtain declarations at great expense. (Ibid). Moreover, even if Plaintiff 27 prevailed at class certification and trial, possible appeals would substantially delay any recovery by 28 the Class. (Ibid).

1 In light of the Parties' respective legal positions and the risks of continued litigation, the Gross 2 Settlement Amount for resolution of the Class and PAGA claims, is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
3 (Id., ¶ 27).

4 VII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE
5 AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

6 Class Counsel seeks one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $50,000.00) for fees 7 for the time spent litigating this matter and reimbursement of actual costs and expenses totaling 8 Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred Two Dollars and Twelve Cents ($20,802.12) incurred in the 9 prosecution of the Action. (Rose Decl., ¶ 28). The requested fees and costs are fair compensation for 10 undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation on a contingent fee basis, 11 especially in light of the substantial benefits achieved by Class Counsel for the Class Members. (Ibid.).

12 A. Plaintiff's Fee Request of One-Third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount 13 is Proper Under the Common Fund Doctrine

14 Courts have long recognized the "common fund" or "common benefit" doctrine, under which 15 attorneys who create a common fund or benefit for a group of persons may be awarded their fees and 16 costs to be paid out of the fund. (See Serrano v. Priest ("Serrano III") (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 17 quoting D'Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees'
18 Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995) 19 15 Cal.3d 162, 16 7; see also Boeing Co. v. Van Gernert (1980) 444 U.S. 472,478; Mills v. Electric 20 Auto-Lite Co. (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392).

21 The California Supreme Court has held that, "when a number of persons are entitled in 22 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results 23 in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys' fees 24 out of the fund." (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D'Amico, 11 Cal.3d 1; see also Boeing, 25 supra, 444 U.S. at 478 ("[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than 26 himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee from the fund as a whole."); Mills, supra, 27 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common fund approach in class 28 actions)). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter Group) at § 17:172.3

1 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

2 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property benefiting 3 others as well as plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court has inherent 4 equitable power to order plaintiffs attorney fees paid out of the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

5 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees in 6 traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a “certain or easily 7 calculable sum of money,” use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate. (Serrano III, 20 8 Cal. 3d at 35).

9 In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, a wage and hour class action wherein 10 class counsel obtained a $19 million non-reversionary settlement on behalf of the class, the California 11 Supreme Court approved the use of the percentage of fund or common fund method to award one-12 third of the settlement amount or $6,333,333.33 to class counsel for attorneys’ fees. The Court stated:

13 Whatever doubts may have been created by Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d 25, [], or the 14 Court of Appeal cases that followed, we clarify today that use of the percentage method 15 to calculate a fee in a common fund case, where the award serves to spread the attorney 16 fee among all the beneficiaries of the fund, does not in itself constitute an abuse of 17 discretion. We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding 18 that when class action litigation established a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 19 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of 20 that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created. The recognized advantages of the percentage method - including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation [] convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

21 (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503).

22 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court stated: 23 “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive 24 benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” Similarly, 25 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, the California Supreme 26 Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when 27 an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.”
28

1 Numerous appellate courts have similarly found. (See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 2 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a “contingent percentage” award of 3 attorneys’ fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court’s broad equitable powers); 4 Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 1 I Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys’ fees and expenses properly 5 awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); Bank of America v.
6 Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit created by action 7 compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts); Parker v. Los Angeles (1974) 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 8 567-568 (court upheld fee award equal to one-third of the damages to owners of residential property 9 in an inverse condemnation action)).

10 The Supreme Court noted that several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative 11 “lodestar” approach for deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and 12 often indecipherable time records. (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503; see Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc.
13 (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 31 n.5 citing In re Activision Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F. Supp. 1373, 14 1375). The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the interests of class 15 counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the litigation by providing 16 an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands on judicial resources.
17 (In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 1378-79). The Ninth Circuit now routinely uses the 18 percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (Lealao, 82 19 Cal.App.4th at 30-31; see e.g., In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 20 (approving attorney’s fee of 33%)).

21 A fee of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $50,000.00) is easily within the 22 range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have awarded percentage fees in the range of 20% to 23 50%, depending on the circumstances of the case. (See In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 24 1378). According to Professor Newberg: “No general rule can be articulated on what is a reasonable 25 percentage of a common fund...Usually 50 per cent of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable fee 26 award from a common fund, in order to assure that fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the 27 recovery obtained for the class, though somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.”
28 (Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed.), § 14.6). Class Counsel’s requested fee is reasonable and falls

1 well within the historical range of attorney's fee awards under the common fund theory. Based on 2 Class Counsel's showing of reasonableness, the Court should approve the requested fees pursuant to 3 the common fund approach.

4 B. The Circumstances of this Case Support a One-Third (1/3) Fee Award

5 Given the significant results achieved under the circumstances of this litigation, the requested 6 fee award is reasonable. As discussed in Sumitomo Copper Litigation, supra, 74 F. Supp. 2d at 396:

7 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent on the 8 success of his services to charge, when successful, as little as he 9 would charge a client who in advance of the litigation has agreed to 10 pay for his services, regardless of success. Nor, particularly in 11 complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a fee 12 depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

13 In that vein, this Court should consider the contingent nature of this case, the uncertainty of 14 the outcome, the quality of the counsel, and the preclusion from other employment.

15 C. The Contingent Nature of This Matter

16 From the outset of the Action to the present, prosecution of this matter has involved significant 17 financial risk for Class Counsel. Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, 18 with no guarantee of recovery. Class Counsel has placed its own resources at risk to prosecute this 19 matter with no guarantee of success. The risks of this matter are apparent in that class certification 20 would likely have been a hard-fought issue, especially given the uncertainty regarding certification of 21 cases such as this. Moreover, even if class certification were granted over Defendant's opposition, 22 there was no assurance that Plaintiff would succeed at trial. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 24-26). Despite such 23 challenges, Class Counsel was able to persuade Defendant that it faced significant liability exposure 24 such that it was willing to pay $150,000.00 to settle the Class Members' claims.

25 D. The Experience, Reputation, Ability of Counsel, and Skill in Litigation

26 Class Counsel has substantial experience in wage-and-hour and other class action litigation, 27 including litigation involving the legal issues in this matter. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 31 and 32). Class 28 Counsel's skill in developing a factual record and convincing Defendant of its litigation exposure under California law was essential to achieving the Settlement. Through its skill and reputation, Class Counsel was able to obtain a settlement that provides an outstanding result for Class Members. (See generally Rose Decl.).

1 E. The Results Achieved

2 The excellent results achieved by the Settlement support Class Counsel's request for attorneys' 3 fees. Class Members' support for the results achieved by Class Counsel is demonstrated by the 4 absence of any objections to either the Class Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for fees, both of 5 which were described clearly in the Class Notice. As of the date of this Motion, Settlement Class 6 Members will be paid, on average, approximately $478.97 each, which is intended to compensate them 7 for the alleged wage and hour violations they suffered during their employment. (Rose Decl., ¶ 16).
8 This is a significant benefit for the Settlement Class Members here as it represents a recovery for 9 highly disputed claims. Equally important is the fact that the State of California will receive $6,500.00 10 for enforcement of labor laws and education of employers. (Id., ¶ 38).

11 Furthermore, the efficiency with which this litigation was conducted and resolved should be 12 rewarded. After preparing and investigating the case prior to filing the Action, Class Counsel strongly 13 litigated and then resolved the case in an efficient manner. The Class Members will directly benefit 14 from the prompt and fair resolution of their claims. They will be receiving a significant award in a 15 relatively short period of time, as opposed to waiting years to recover some undetermined amount if 16 they succeeded at trial, which is an uncertainty in itself.

17 F. Preclusion of Other Employment

18 As California law recognizes, Class Counsel's commitment to this litigation should not be 19 assessed in a vacuum. (See Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 49). A relevant factor in determining 20 attorneys' fees is whether the litigation required Class Counsel to forego other employment. (See 21 ibid). Class Counsel had to consider its workload during this litigation when considering taking on 22 additional work that was available, and which Class Counsel had to forego in order to devote the time 23 necessary to pursue this litigation. (Rose Decl., ¶ 30).

24 G. The Requested Fees Are Also Justified Under the Lodestar Method

25 Fee calculations under the lodestar method would result in a similar award, demonstrating the 26 fairness of Class Counsel's percentage fee request. Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is 27 calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on the case and the reasonable hourly 28 compensation of the attorney. The base amount is then adjusted by use of a multiplier in light of 1 various factors. (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). Class Counsel's hourly rates are summarized 2 in the Rose Decl. at ¶¶ 31-32.

3 One difficulty in determining the hourly rate of attorneys of similar skill and experience in the 4 relevant community is the scarcity of hourly fee-paying clients in class action litigation. (Rose Decl., 5 ¶ 32). As a practical matter, few if any employees or consumers pay attorneys' fees on an hourly basis 6 for such extensive litigation, and thus retainer agreements in such cases are based on a stepped-up 7 contingency fee (with the percentage increasing from one third to forty-five – and sometimes even 8 fifty percent, which is on par with personal injury contingency fee agreements – if the case goes to 9 trial). (Ibid). Therefore, there is no customary hourly billing rate for work that is routinely based on 10 a contingent fee relationship, but the nature of class action work should be strongly considered by the 11 Court. (Ibid). Wage and hour work presents a specialized and challenging area of law that is not 12 within the knowledge of many lawyers. (Ibid). This kind of class action work requires specialized 13 learning and the willingness to take large risks. (Ibid).

14 Class Counsel has spent approximately 197 total hours litigating these claims to date.³ (Rose 15 Decl., ¶ 32). Class Counsel expects to spend another 10 hours in connection with the final approval 16 process (including preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing, and managing the 17 Settlement through its conclusion, including anticipated communications with defense counsel, the 18 Settlement Administrator, our client, and Class Members). (Id., ¶ 33). In addition to time spent during 19 litigation, reasonable hours also include the time spent before the Action was filed, including time 20 spent interviewing the client, investigating the facts and the law, preparing the initial pleadings, as 21 well as litigating the case. (Webb v. Board of Educ. (1985) 471 U.S. 234). Further, the fee award 22 should include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys' fee claim. (Serrano v. Priest (1982) 23 32 Cal .3d 621, 639 (“Serrano IV”). Based on the rates of Class Counsel, the total fees incurred to 24 date are $183,468. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32). By the conclusion of this matter, the total fees are estimated 25

26 ³ In Martino v. Denevi (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 553, 559, the court addressed the issue of what evidence is required in 27 California to support a fee application. The court held: “Testimony of an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a 28 particular case is sufficient evidence to support an award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time records.”
Id. There is no need to attach the voluminous invoices prepared in a case as a basis for an award of fees and costs. Id.
Through Class Counsel's declaration in support of this application, however, Plaintiff presents a thorough breakdown of the hours spent and costs incurred in prosecuting this class action. Pursuant to Martino, supra, this presentation is sufficient to support the amount requested.

1 to be approximately $190,968. (Id., ¶ 33).

2 In cases where a common fund analysis is not used, once the court establishes the lodestar 3 amount, it should adjust the fee award by a multiplier in order to make an appropriate fee award.
4 (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). In applying the multiplier, Newberg on Class Actions states that 5 “[m]ultiples ranging from one to four frequently are awarded in common fund cases when the lodestar 6 method is applied. A large common fund award may warrant an even larger multiplier.” (4 Newberg 7 on Class Actions 4th (4th ed. 2002) § 14.6). If the class members paid the fees that the market would 8 bear, they would pay a fee of anywhere from one-third to forty-five percent of any recovery. Since 9 this is the market rate, the lodestar calculation should be enhanced to reflect what the class members 10 would pay on the open market. (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48).

11 In Lealao, the court held that trial courts should award lodestar fees by examining the 12 percentage-of-the-benefit and adjusting the lodestar calculation accordingly. (Id. at 49 and 53). The 13 court indicated that this is an upward adjustment and should be akin to a contingency fee recovery; 14 the court stated, “[a]n adjustment reflecting the amount of the class recovery is not significantly 15 different from an adjustment reflecting a percentage of that amount; and California courts have 16 evaluated a lodestar as a percentage of the benefit.” (Id. at 46). The Lealao method appears 17 particularly appropriate because class actions generally are contingency fee cases for plaintiffs - and 18 the class action clients do not expect to pay an hourly fee.

19 The rationale of Lealao comports with the purpose of the multiplier. The multiplier is 20 “primarily to compensate the attorney for the prevailing party at a rate reflecting the risk of 21 nonpayment in contingency cases.” (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1138). The Lealao 22 court reasoned:

23 Given the unique reliance of our legal system on private litigants to enforce 24 substantive provisions of law through class and derivative actions, attorneys 25 providing the essential enforcement services must be provided incentives 26 roughly comparable to those negotiated in the private bargaining that takes 27 place in the legal marketplace, as it will otherwise be economic for defendants to increase injurious behavior. It has therefore been urged (most persistently by Judge Richard Posner) that in defining a reasonable fee in such representative actions, the law should mimic the market.

28 In the class action context, that would mean attempting to award the fee that informed private bargaining, if it were truly possible, might have reached.
The simplest way for the law to duplicate the bargain that informed parties would reach if agency costs were low is to look to fee award levels in actions

1 brought by sophisticated private parties under the same or comparable 2 statutes.

3 (Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48 (internal citations and quotations omitted)). The court added:

4 [T]rial judges need the flexibility Serrano III provides, as it enables them to 5 relate fee awards to the economic realities that determine the efficacy of the 6 private enforcement contemplated by our civil justice system.

7 Accordingly, we hold that, in cases in which the value of the class recovery 8 can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty and it is not 9 otherwise inappropriate, a trial court has discretion to adjust the basic 10 lodestar through the application of a positive or negative multiplier where 11 necessary to ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely 12 negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.

13 (Id. at 49-50).

14 In looking at similar cases, including those set forth above, Class Counsel's requested fee 15 comports to the market. Based on the reasonable hourly rates suggested by Class Counsel and the 16 collective hours worked in this matter, the requested fee award would represent a negative multiplier 17 of the current total fee lodestar. In this regard, Class Counsel's fee request is reasonable.

18 H. No Class Member Objected to the Requested Attorneys' Fee Award

19 Class Counsel's intention to request the Court's approval for payment of attorneys' fees was 20 clearly disclosed to each Class Member in the Court-approved Class Notice. (Rose Decl., ¶ 35; See 21 also, Apex Decl., Exh. A). As of the filing of this Motion, there has not been a single objection to the 22 request for attorneys' fees. (Apex Decl., ¶ 12). It is fair to conclude that the Class approves of/does 23 not take issue with the requested award of attorneys' fees. Based thereon, Class Counsel's request for 24 one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents 25 ($50,000.00), should be granted.

26 I. Plaintiff's Cost Request is Reasonable

27 Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of a total amount of Twenty Thousand Eight Hundred 28 Two Dollars and Twelve Cents ($20,802.12) in costs and expenses in this matter, which includes reasonable future costs for filing the Motion. (Rose Decl., ¶ 34 and Exh. 4). All costs and expenses were reasonably incurred in prosecution of this matter.

1 VIII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT TO PLAINTIFF IS 2 REASONABLE

3 The named Plaintiff should be awarded an Enhancement Payment in the amount of Seven 4 Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00) for his services as the Class 5 Representative and the risks in connection with that role. (Rose Decl., ¶ 36). Enhancement awards in 6 wage and hour cases typically range from $5,000.00 to $20,000.00, although some awards are higher.
7 (Ibid). Often, multiple class representatives receive awards in the above range. (See e.g., Munoz v.
8 BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 [approving an 9 enhancement request of $10,000.00 per named plaintiff in a 188 member class]; Cook v. Niedert, 142 10 F.3d 1004, 1016 (7th Cir. 1998); Thornton v. East Texas Motor Freight, 497 F.2d 416, 420 (6th Cir.
11 1974) [“We also think there is something to be said for rewarding those drivers who protect and help 12 to bring rights to a group of employees who have been the victims of discrimination.”]). Here, the 13 requested Enhancement Payment is modest, reasonable, and should be approved.

14 Plaintiff’s actions establish that: (1) he sought to protect the interests of the Class above his 15 own personal interests; (2) the Settlement Class Members will be benefitted from his actions by 16 receiving a payment without having to do anything; and (3) Plaintiff has put forth a significant amount 17 of time and effort pursuing the litigation and seeing it through to resolution. (See, generally, Ibarra 18 Decl.; see also Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 19 (discussing the criteria for determining class representative enhancement awards in concluding that a 20 requested award of $25,000 for two class representatives was too high)).

21 The requested award for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the financial and personal risk he 22 took in commencing the Action, and in light of the benefits that his actions have conferred upon the 23 Class. (Ibarra Decl., ¶ 7; See also Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co. (N.D.Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 24 299-300). Additionally, in considering a requested class representative enhancement award, courts 25 take into consideration a plaintiff’s reasonable fear of retaliation. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th Cir. 2003) 26 327 F.3d 938, 977). Here, it is easy to see that a potential future employer could expend little effort 27 to discover Plaintiff brought the lawsuit – and based thereon, decline to offer Plaintiff employment.

28 ///

1 In sum, Plaintiff has performed considerable services on behalf of the Class during the 2 litigation. (See, generally, Ibarra Decl.). Class Counsel cannot understate the importance of the role 3 of an employee who is willing to search out an attorney and step forward to assume the risk of litigation 4 and retaliation in order to represent a class and put the interests of the class before their own interests.
5 Plaintiff has understood that this is a class action where he is serving as the Class Representative and 6 must protect the Class Members' interests. (Id., ¶ 10). Plaintiff was the catalyst to the benefit reached 7 for the Class Members, and has actively protected the Class Members' interests during the pendency 8 of this matter and will continue to do so even if the case was required to go to trial. (Ibid.). Plaintiff 9 spent numerous hours participating in this matter by searching for an attorney, communicating with 10 his attorneys on numerous occasions, searching for and producing relevant documents related to his 11 employment, responding to his attorneys' inquiries, reviewing the settlement documents, and 12 approving the Settlement on behalf of all Class Members. (See, generally, Ibarra Decl.).

13 In contrast, without having to take on any of the risk incurred by Plaintiff or time spent by 14 Plaintiff in litigating this matter, Settlement Class Members will automatically be issued a payment 15 for their claims. It appears that the Settlement Class Members recognize this enhancement was 16 justified because since the time the Class received notice of the requested Enhancement Payment, no 17 one has objected to the request. Thus, the Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff is warranted to 18 compensate him for his time and effort, the fear and stress associated with assuming the responsibility 19 of serving as the Class Representative, and the concrete risks he assumed as the Class Representative.

20 IX. THE REQUESTED SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE 21 REASONABLE

22 In Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff requested, and the Court approved, 23 Settlement Administration Costs not to exceed Six Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero
24 Cents ($6,250.00). (Rose Decl., ¶ 37). Apex Class Action LLC is the approved Settlement 25 Administrator. (Ibid.). It is an experienced class administrator and has adequately performed the 26 administration tasks required by the Preliminary Approval Order. Apex's actual costs to administer 27 the Settlement are only Six Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($6,250.00). (Apex 28 Decl., ¶ 18 and Exh. B). Based thereon, the requested costs should be approved.

1 X. THE PROPOSED LWDA ALLOCATION IS REASONABLE

2 Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699(s)(1), the Superior Court shall review and 3 approve the settlement of penalties sought under that California Labor Code Section. (Cal. Lab. Code 4 § 2699(s)(1)). For all of the reasons stated above, the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and 5 should be approved. As part of the Settlement, Defendant has agreed to pay Ten Thousand Dollars 6 and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) to settle the claims of the PAGA Employees brought pursuant to PAGA, 7 of which the payment of Six Thousand Five-Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($6,500.00) (65% of 8 the PAGA Amount) will be paid to the LDWA for education and enforcement purposes. (Rose Decl., 9 ¶ 38).

10 It is extremely common in approved wage and hour class action cases that settle that only a 11 small portion of the total settlement is paid to PAGA penalties “in order to maximize payments to 12 class members.” (Magadia v. Wal-Mart Assocs. (N.D. Cal. May 31, 2019, No. 17-CV-00062-LHK) 13 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 91732, *90-91, citing as examples Ceja-Corona v. CVS Pharm., Inc. (E.D.
14 Cal. Jan. 14, 2015) 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5118, 2015 WL 222500, at *2-3 [preliminarily approving 15 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $900,000]; Thio v. Genji, LLC (N.D.
16 Cal. 2014) 14 F. Supp. 3d 1324, 1330 [preliminarily approving $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a 17 total settlement amount of $1,250,000]; Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2012) 2012
18 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 [granting final approval of $10,000 in PAGA 19 penalties out of a total settlement amount of $2,500,000]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
20 Oct. 31, 2012) 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [granting final approval of 21 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $3,700,000]; Chu v. Wells Fargo Invs.,
22 LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15821, 2011 WL 672645, at *1 [granting final 23 approval of $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $6,900,000]). Like here, 24 in these approved settlements, the parties generally maximized statutory penalties and minimized 25 PAGA penalties to focus on claims to the class members, the persons who actually suffered the 26 California Labor Code violations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 39).

1 XI. THE CLASS RECEIVED THE BEST PRACTICABLE NOTICE

2 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 3 program. (See California Civil Code § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-4 74). To protect the rights of absent class members, the parties must provide class members with the 5 best notice practicable of a potential class action settlement. (Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts (1985)
6 472 U.S. 797, 811-12; Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin (1974) 417 U.S. 156, 174-76 [individual notice 7 must be sent to all class members who can be identified through reasonable efforts]; Mullane v. Central 8 Hanover Bank & Garretson Company (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314 [best practicable notice is that which 9 is "reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of 10 the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections"])). The content and method of 11 the notice should be designed to apprise the class members of the terms of the proposed settlement 12 and of the class members' rights regarding the settlement. (See Mullane, supra, 339 U.S. at 314; 13 Philadelphia Housing Authority v. American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1970) 323 14 F. Supp. 364, 378).

15 The Class Notice approved by the Court met these requirements: it identified the Parties and 16 described the Action, the Class, the Gross Settlement Amount, the proposed method for distribution 17 of the Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts proposed to be paid as the Enhancement Payment to 18 Plaintiff, the Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator, and the Attorneys' Fees 19 and Costs to Class Counsel. (Rose Decl., ¶ 40; see also Apex Decl., Exh. A thereto). The Class Notice 20 described the proposed Settlement with enough specificity to allow each Class Member to make an 21 informed choice whether to accept and participate in it. (Ibid). It also explained how and when Class 22 Members may object to or opt out of the Class Settlement. (Ibid). Finally, the Class Notice provided 23 the date for the hearing on final approval of the Settlement and informed Class Members how to obtain 24 additional information about the Settlement. (Ibid).

25 XII. CONCLUSION

26 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff's 27 Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, and approve: (1) the requested 28 attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of $50,000.00; (2) the requested reimbursement of actual costs and expenses to Class Counsel of $20,802.12; (3) the requested Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff of 1 $7,500.00; and (4) the requested Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator of 2 $6,250.00; and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.

3 Respectfully submitted,
