8. Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code §2699, et seq.

1 Plaintiffs WILLIAM GONZALEZ LUNA; MAGDALENA ZEFERINO LOPEZ;
2 WENDY PEREZ REYES; ROBERTO LOPEZ HERNANDEZ; ANDRES HERNANDEZ
3 SOLANO; MARCELINA ROJAS; ISIDRO ZARATE CRUZ (“Plaintiffs”) as individuals, on 4 behalf of themselves, all others similarly situated, and on behalf of the people of the State of 5 California and as “aggrieved employees” under Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 6 2004, § 2699, et seq. (hereafter “PAGA”), complains of Defendant DL FARM MANAGEMENT
7 INC. (“Defendant”) and each of them, as follows:

8 I.

9 INTRODUCTION

10 1. This is a Class and Representative Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §
11 382, on behalf of Plaintiffs and a Proposed Class defined as:

12 All persons who are employed or have been employed as a non-
13 exempt employee by DL FARM MANAGEMENT INC., in the 14 State of California since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present. (“Proposed Class”)

15 2. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class worked for Defendant in or near Santa Barbara 16 County, California as seasonal agricultural workers. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class worked in 17 the cultivation and harvesting of strawberries and other berries, and doing other agricultural work 18 on land owned, leased, managed, and/or operated, harvested, or otherwise made productive by 19 Defendant. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were paid on an hourly basis and also earned a piece 20 rate for work picking crops.

21 3. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
22 Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime to all Proposed Class
23 Members at the appropriate rate. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were not properly compensated
24 for all hours worked because Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for each 25 and every hour worked. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were required to routinely work “off the 26 clock” and performed compensable activities before, during, and after each working shift for which 27 no pay was provided.

28 a. With regard to pre-shift work, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required

1 to report to work prior to their scheduled shift and perform work but are routinely told by
2 Defendant to wait anywhere from approximately five (5) to twenty-five (25) minutes before
3 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can begin their scheduled shifts. This required time is spent
4 readying the harvest cart, donning and doffing gear such as gloves, and preparing boxes and
5 clamshells, among other required tasks. In addition, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
6 to walk five (5) to ten (10) minutes every day from their cars to the field. All of this work is
7 performed daily while “off the clock” and Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated
8 for this time or worked performed. During winter, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
9 to wait around thirty (30) minutes at least once during the season before they begin their scheduled
10 shifts. This required waiting time is not compensated by Defendant. These activities and time are 11 compensable, but Defendant fails to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for this time worked.

12 b. In the middle of shifts, Defendant required Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class
13 to travel between fields once Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are done picking at one field.
14 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can sometimes walk to the other field, but Plaintiffs and the 15 Proposed Class are sometimes required to use their own vehicle(s) to travel between fields per 16 shift at least once a week, and potentially more during peak season. The time spent by Plaintiffs
17 and the Proposed Class to travel between fields is approximately five (5) to ten (10) minutes.
18 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this travel time, nor are Plaintiffs and
19 the Proposed Class reimbursed for their use of their personal vehicle to perform required work.

20 c. With regard to post-shift work, at the end of each working shift, Plaintiffs
21 and the Proposed Class are instructed by the foreman to continue working to finish their boxes and
22 finish their “corte” (section) before leaving. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class worked from 23 approximately five (5) minutes to twenty (20) minutes at least once a week after the end of their
24 shift in order to finish their boxes and/or finish their section as required. This time spent finishing
25 their boxes and/or their section was performed after being “clocked out” and as such, Plaintiffs
26 and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this time even though this time is compensable.

27 d. Additionally, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages
28 and/or overtime to Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class at the appropriate rate of pay. Plaintiffs and

1 other Proposed Class members were not properly compensated for all hours worked over eight (8)
2 hours in one day or forty (40) hours in one week. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were not
3 properly compensated for overtime worked because Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 4 Proposed Class for all hours worked over 8 hours per day or 40 hours per week.

5 4. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the
6 present, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to inform Proposed Class members of 7 their right to take meal periods by way of a lawful policy and failing to provide Plaintiffs and the
8 Proposed Class members compliant meal periods, and failing to pay such employees one (1) hour
9 of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not
10 provided or provided after five (5) hours, as required by California state wage and hour laws.
11 Additionally, Defendant has a consistent policy of failing to pay meal period premiums in 12 compliance with California law.

13 5. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 14 present, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to inform Proposed Class members of 15 their right to take rest periods by way of a lawful policy and of failing to provide Proposed Class
16 members within the State of California, including Plaintiffs, compliant rest periods. Defendant has
17 had a consistent policy of failing to provide all required rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes
18 per four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Additionally, Defendant failed to pay such
19 employees one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday
20 that a compliant rest period was not provided, as required by California state wage and hour laws.
21 Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay rest period premiums in violation of Labor
22 Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

23 6. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 24 present, Defendant has failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for their tools and
25 mileage necessary to perform their job duties. The work performed by Plaintiffs and the Proposed 26 Class necessitated the use of special tools. The work performed by Plaintiffs and the Proposed 27 Class necessitated the use of tools such as, but not limited to, harvest carts, cannery carts, tires,
28 gloves, jackets, hats, knives, glasses, and various other tools. Defendant fails to reimburse

1 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for the costs associated with purchasing and using these tools.
2 Defendant also required Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to travel between fields to perform work
3 tasks. Because Defendant did not provide buses or other transportation to workers so that they
4 could travel from field to field in the middle of their shifts, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class used
5 their own vehicles to travel from field to field. Defendant did not reimburse Plaintiffs and the 6 Proposed Class for their vehicle use for travel between Defendant's job sites during the course of 7 a work shift, in violation of California law.

8 7. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
9 Defendant has failed to comply with Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order 14-
10 2001 and Labor Code § 226(a) by failing issue accurate itemized wage statements reporting all
11 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, and the corresponding number of hours
12 worked at each hourly rate by the employee and failing to include the required information on the 13 itemized wage statements.

14 8. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
15 Defendant has failed to pay all wages due at the time of termination or resignation to Plaintiffs and 16 the Proposed Class.

17 9. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and all Proposed Class members brings this 18 action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, and 19 2802; Wage Order 14-2001; and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11140, seeking 20 unpaid wages/overtime, meal and rest period penalties, unreimbursed expenses, accurate itemized
21 wage statements, other penalties, injunctive and other equitable relief, and reasonable attorneys'
22 fees and costs.

23 10. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and all Proposed Class Members, pursuant to 24 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, also seeks injunctive relief, restitution, and 25 disgorgement of all benefits Defendant enjoyed from its unlawful conduct as described herein.

26 11. For at least one (1) year prior to the date of the letter sent to the Labor Workforce
27 and Development Agency ("LWDA") and Defendant giving notice of the claims pursuant to 28 PAGA, Defendant has violated Labor Code provisions, as detailed below, giving rise to a claim

1 pursuant to PAGA. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and all aggrieved employees presently or 2 formerly employed by Defendant during the liability period as defined in their PAGA notice letter
3 (see Exhibit “1”), brings this representative action as a matter of right pursuant to Labor Code §
4 2699, et seq. seeking penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a),
5 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, and 2802.

6 II.

7 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8 12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein
9 pursuant to Article VI, § 10 of the California Constitution and California Code of Civil Procedure
10 § 410.10 by virtue of the fact that this is a civil action in which the matter in controversy, exclusive 11 of interest, exceeds $35,000, and because each cause of action asserted arises under the laws of the 12 State of California or is subject to adjudication in the courts of the State of California.

13 13. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant has caused 14 injuries in the County of Santa Barbara and the State of California through their acts, and by their 15 violation of the California Labor Code, California state common law, and California Business &
16 Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

17 14. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code of 18 Civil Procedure § 395. Defendant operates within California and does business within Santa 19 Barbara County. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and all Proposed 20 Class Members within the State of California and the county of Santa Barbara.

21 15. This case should be classified as complex according to Rule 3.400 of the California
22 Rules of Court, and assigned to a complex litigation judge and department, as it will involve
23 substantial documentary evidence, a large number of witnesses, and is likely to involve extensive 24 motion practice raising difficult or novel issues that will be time-consuming to resolve and would 25 require substantial post judgment judicial supervision.

26 16. Plaintiffs file this amended complaint as a matter of right adding a claim for 27 penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq. as a matter of right, pursuant to Labor Code §
28 2699.3(a)(2)(C)].

III.
PARTIES

A. PLAINTIFF

17. Plaintiffs WILLIAM GONZALEZ LUNA; MAGDALENA ZEFERINO LOPEZ; WENDY PEREZ REYES; ROBERTO LOPEZ HERNANDEZ; ANDRES HERNANDEZ SOLANO; MARCELINA ROJAS; ISIDRO ZARATE CRUZ are residents of California.

18. Plaintiff and all Proposed Class Members, were regularly required to:

- a. Work without being paid for all hours at the appropriate overtime rate;
- b. Work without being paid for all hours worked;
- c. Work without being provided compliant meal periods;
- d. Work without being provided compliant rest periods;
- e. Work without being reimbursed for necessary tools and equipment and using personal vehicles for work related purposes;
- f. Work without Defendant providing accurate itemized wage statements;

19. Defendant willfully failed to compensate Plaintiff and all Proposed Class members for wages at the termination of their employment with Defendant.

20. As a result of this conduct, Defendant has engaged in unfair competition and unlawful business practices.

21. Plaintiffs and all aggrieved employees as defined in their notice letter to the LWDA are “aggrieved employees” within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699, et seq. (see Labor Code §2699(c).)

B. DEFENDANTS

22. Defendant DL FARM MANAGEMENT INC. is believed to be a California corporation operating within the State of California. Defendant’s corporate address is believed to be 1414 N. Lincoln St., Santa Maria, CA 93458 and/or 1945 Roemer Place, Santa Maria, CA 93454. Or Upon information and belief, Defendant employed Plaintiffs and similarly situated persons as hourly employees within California. Defendant has done and does business throughout the State of California.

23. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiffs, who therefore sues Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

24. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class members.

25. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all respects as the employers or joint employers of the Proposed Class. Defendants, and each of them, exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of the Proposed Class, or suffered or permitted the Proposed Class to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with the Proposed Class. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed the Proposed Class.

IV.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

26. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are, and at all times pertinent hereto, have been classified as non-exempt employees by Defendant. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were paid on an hourly basis and also earned a piece rate for work picking crops.

27. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are covered by California Industrial Welfare Commission Occupational Wage Order No. 14-2001 (Title 8 Cal. Code of Regs. § 11140).

28. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime to all Proposed Class Members at the appropriate rate as follows:

1 a. With regard to pre-shift work, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
2 to report to work prior to their scheduled shift and perform work but are routinely told by
3 Defendant to wait anywhere from approximately five (5) to twenty-five (25) minutes before
4 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can begin their scheduled shifts. This required time is spent
5 readying the harvest cart, donning and doffing gear such as gloves, and preparing boxes and
6 clamshells, among other required tasks. In addition, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
7 to walk five (5) to ten (10) minutes every day from their cars to the field. All of this work is
8 performed daily while “off the clock” and Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated
9 for this time or worked performed. During winter, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
10 to wait around thirty (30) minutes at least once during the season before they begin their scheduled
11 shifts. This required waiting time is not compensated by Defendant. These activities and time are 12 compensable, but Defendant fails to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for this time worked.

13 b. In the middle of shifts, Defendant required Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class
14 to travel between fields once Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are done picking at one field.
15 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can sometimes walk to the other field, but Plaintiffs and the 16 Proposed Class are sometimes required to use their own vehicle(s) to travel between fields per
17 shift at least once a week, and potentially more during peak season. The time spent by Plaintiffs
18 and the Proposed Class to travel between fields is approximately five (5) to ten (10) minutes.
19 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this travel time, nor are Plaintiffs and 20 the Proposed Class reimbursed for their use of their personal vehicle to perform required work.

21 c. With regard to post-shift work, at the end of each working shift, Plaintiffs
22 and the Proposed Class are instructed by the foreman to continue working to finish their boxes and
23 finish their “corte” (section) before leaving. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class worked from 24 approximately five (5) minutes to twenty (20) minutes at least once a week after the end of their
25 shift in order to finish their boxes and/or finish their section as required. This time spent finishing
26 their boxes and/or their section was performed after being “clocked out” and as such, Plaintiffs
27 and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this time even though this time is compensable.

28 d. Additionally, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages

1 and/or overtime to Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class at the appropriate rate of pay. Plaintiffs and
2 other Proposed Class members were not properly compensated for all hours worked over eight (8)
3 hours in one day or forty (40) hours in one week. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were not
4 properly compensated for overtime worked because Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 5 Proposed Class for all hours worked over 8 hours per day or 40 hours per week.

6 29. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the
7 present, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to inform Proposed Class members of
8 their right to take meal periods by way of a lawful policy and failing to provide Plaintiffs and the
9 Proposed Class members compliant meal periods, and failing to pay such employees one (1) hour
10 of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not
11 provided or provided after five (5) hours, as required by California state wage and hour laws.
12 Additionally, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay meal period premiums in 13 compliance with California law.

14 30. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 15 present, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to inform Proposed Class members of
16 their right to take rest periods by way of a lawful policy and of failing to provide Proposed Class
17 members within the State of California, including Plaintiffs, compliant rest periods. Defendant has
18 had a consistent policy of failing to provide all required rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes
19 per four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Additionally, Defendant failed to pay such
20 employees one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday
21 that a compliant rest period was not provided, as required by California state wage and hour laws.
22 Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay rest period premiums in violation of Labor
23 Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

24 31. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 25 present, Defendant has failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for their tools and 26 mileage necessary to perform their job duties. The work performed by Plaintiffs and the Proposed
27 Class necessitated the use of special tools. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required to work
28 without being reimbursed for their business expenses. Defendant fails to reimburse Plaintiffs and

1 the Proposed Class for the costs associated with purchasing and using these tools. Defendant also 2 required Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to travel between fields to perform work tasks.
3 Defendant did not reimburse Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for their vehicle use for travel
4 between Defendant's job sites during the course of a work shift, in violation of California law.

5 32. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
6 Defendant has failed to comply with Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order 14-
7 2001 and Labor Code § 226(a) by failing issue accurate itemized wage statements reporting all
8 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, and the corresponding number of hours
9 worked at each hourly rate by the employee and failing to include the required information on the 10 itemized wage statements.

11 33. Defendant willfully failed to pay wages and compensation, when Plaintiffs and all 12 Proposed Class members quit or are laid off or were discharged. This failure was willful, without 13 legal justification, and interfered with Plaintiffs' and the Proposed Class members' rights.

14 34. As a result of the acts alleged herein, Defendants violated Labor Code §2699, et 15 seq.

16 V.

17 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18 35. Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of themselves, and all others similarly situated 19 as a Class Action pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiffs seek to represent a 20 proposed class composed of and defined as follows:

21 All persons who are employed or have been employed as a non-
22 exempt employee by DL FARM MANAGEMENT INC., in the 23 State of California since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present. ("Proposed Class")

24 36. Plaintiffs reserve the right under Rule 3.765(b) of the California Rules of Court to 25 amend or modify the class description with greater specificity, by division into subclasses, or by 26 limitation to particular issues.

27 37. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
28 under the provisions of § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure because there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Proposed Classes are easily ascertainable.

A. NUMEROSITY

38. The potential members of the Proposed Class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the members of the Proposed Class is impracticable. While the precise number of proposed Class Members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiffs are informed and believes that Defendant currently employ, and during the relevant time periods employed over 50 members of the Proposed Class.

39. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant's employment records would provide information as to the number and location of all Proposed Class Members. Joinder of all members of the Proposed Class is not practicable.

B. COMMONALITY

40. There are questions of law and fact common to the Proposed Class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual Proposed Class Members. These common questions of law and fact include, without limitation:

a. Whether Defendant failed to pay wages and/or overtime compensation as required by the Labor Code and Wage Orders under Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1199;

b. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 226.7 and IWC Wage Order 14-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to inform Plaintiff and the Proposed Class of their right to take meal periods and by failing to provide required meal periods throughout the term of employment and failing to compensate said employees one (1) hours wages in lieu of rest periods;

c. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 226.7 and IWC Wage Order 14-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to inform Plaintiff and the Proposed Class of their right to take rest periods and failing to provide required rest periods throughout the term of employment and failing to compensate said employees one (1) hours wages in lieu of rest periods;

d. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 2802 and/or Wage Order 14-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders by failing to reimburse out of pocket expenses for the

1 cost of tools and using their own vehicles to perform required work;

2 e. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 226(a) and Wage Order 14-2001
3 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Cal. Code Regs., Title 8, Section 11140 by failing by 4 failing to provide an accurate itemized wage statements that accurately report the total hours
5 worked and the applicable rates, including meal/rest period premiums, for Plaintiffs and the 6 members of the Proposed Class;

7 f. Whether Defendant violated §§ 201-203 of the Labor Code by failing to pay
8 compensation due and owing at the time that any Proposed Class Member's employment with 9 Defendant terminated;

10 g. Whether Defendant violated § 17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions
11 Code by engaging in the acts previously alleged; and 12 h. Whether Plaintiffs and the members of the Proposed Class are entitled to 13 equitable relief pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

14 i. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 2699, et seq. by engaging in the acts 15 alleged herein.

16 C. TYPICALITY

17 41. The claims of Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the Proposed Class. Plaintiffs
18 and all members of the Proposed Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused 19 by Defendant's common course of conduct in violation of laws, regulations that have the force and 20 effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein.

21 ///

22 D. ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

23 42. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the 24 members of the proposed Class.

25 43. Counsel who represent Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are competent and 26 experienced in litigating large employment class actions.

27 E. SUPERIORITY OF CLASS ACTION

28 44. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient

1 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Proposed Class Members is not
2 practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the Proposed Class predominate over any 3 questions affecting only individual members of the Proposed Class. Each member of the Proposed 4 Class has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendant's illegal policy and/or 5 practice of failing to pay all wages due, failing to pay at the appropriate overtime rate, failing to 6 provide meal and rest periods, failing to reimburse expenses, failing to provide accurate itemized
7 wage statements, and failing to pay all wages upon resignation or termination.

8 45. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their 9 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
10 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this 11 action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

12 VI.

13 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

14 PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

15 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND/OR OVERTIME UNDER

16 LABOR CODE §§ 510, 1194, AND 1199

17 46. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Proposed Class, reallege and incorporate
18 by reference all previous paragraphs.

19 47. Defendant has violated Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2 and 1199. These statutes
20 require an employer to compensate its employees at the minimum wage rate for all hours worked 21 and at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for any work in excess
22 of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek. Any work 23 in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular 24 rate of pay. California law also requires that any compensation must be included in the regular rate 25 of pay for the purposes of determining correct overtime rates.

26 48. Here, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime
27 to Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were not properly 28 compensated for all hours worked over eight (8) hours in one day or forty (40) hours in one week.

1 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were not properly compensated for all hours worked, because 2 Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for each and every hour worked.
3 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class routinely worked “off the clock” and performed compensable
4 activities before, during, and after each working shift for which no pay was provided as detailed 5 below.

6 a. With regard to pre-shift work, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
7 to report to work prior to their scheduled shift and perform work but are routinely told by
8 Defendant to wait anywhere from approximately five (5) to twenty-five (25) minutes before
9 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can begin their scheduled shifts. This required time is spent 10 readying the harvest cart, donning and doffing gear such as gloves, and preparing boxes and
11 clamshells, among other required tasks. In addition, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
12 to walk five (5) to ten (10) minutes every day from their cars to the field. All of this work is
13 performed daily while “off the clock” and Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated
14 for this time or worked performed. During winter, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required
15 to wait around thirty (30) minutes at least once during the season before they begin their scheduled
16 shifts. This required waiting time is not compensated by Defendant. These activities and time are 17 compensable, but Defendant fails to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for this time worked.

18 b. In the middle of shifts, Defendant required Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class
19 to travel between fields once Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are done picking at one field.
20 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can sometimes walk to the other field, but Plaintiffs and the 21 Proposed Class are sometimes required to use their own vehicle(s) to travel between fields per
22 shift at least once a week, and potentially more during peak season. The time spent by Plaintiffs
23 and the Proposed Class to travel between fields is approximately five (5) to ten (10) minutes.
24 Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this travel time, nor are Plaintiffs and
25 the Proposed Class reimbursed for their use of their personal vehicle to perform required work.

26 c. With regard to post-shift work, at the end of each working shift, Plaintiffs
27 and the Proposed Class are instructed by the foreman to continue working to finish their boxes and 28 finish their “corte” (section) before leaving. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class worked from

1 approximately five (5) minutes to twenty (20) minutes at least once a week after the end of their
2 shift in order to finish their boxes and/or finish their section as required. This time spent finishing
3 their boxes and/or their section was performed after being “clocked out” and as such, Plaintiffs
4 and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this time even though this time is compensable.

5 d. Additionally, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages
6 and/or overtime to Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class at the appropriate rate of pay. Plaintiffs and
7 other Proposed Class members were not properly compensated for all hours worked over eight (8)
8 hours in one day or forty (40) hours in one week. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were not
9 properly compensated for overtime worked because Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 10 Proposed Class for all hours worked over 8 hours per day or 40 hours per week.

11 49. Defendant failed to pay travel time, include work performed off-the-clock, and 12 failed to compensate Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for all hours worked.

13 50. By their policy of requiring Plaintiff and members of the Proposed Class to work 14 in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and/or forty (40) hours in a workweek without 15 compensating them at the rate of one-half (1 ½) their regular rate of pay, Defendant willfully
16 violated the provisions of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 and 1199.

17 51. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendant, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class
18 Members have been deprived of wages and/or overtime in amounts to be determined at trial, and 19 are entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys’ fees, and 20 costs.

22 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

23 PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

24 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS PURSUANT TO

25 LABOR CODE § 226.7 AND LABOR CODE § 512

26 52. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Proposed Class, reallege and incorporate
27 by reference all previous paragraphs.

28 53. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 require an employer to pay an additional hour of

1 compensation for each meal period the employer fails to provide. Employees are entitled to a first 2 meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts over five (5) hours, to be provided within the
3 first five (5) hours of the shift, and a second meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts
4 over ten (10) hours. If an employee is entitled to a second meal period, it must be provided after 5 no more than ten (10) hours of work. Defendant failed to maintain a policy informing Plaintiffs
6 and the Proposed Class of these rights.

7 54. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class consistently worked shifts over five (5) hours.
8 Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the Proposed Class with proper meal periods of not less 9 than thirty (30) minutes as required by the Labor Code during the relevant time period.

10 55. Here, Defendant failed to apprise Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class of their rights
11 associated with meal periods and failed to provide timely meal periods. Defendant has had a
12 consistent policy of: (1) failing to provide Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class compliant meal 13 periods; and (2) failed to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at the employees regular rate of 14 compensation for each workday that the first meal period was not provided within the first (5)
15 hours of the shift or that a second meal period was not provided. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class 16 members would be interrupted during their lunch breaks at least three to four times a year by the 17 foreman asking about strawberry sizes for the day.

18 56. Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed 19 Class one (1) hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each workday that all 20 required meal periods were not provided, as required by California state wage and hour laws. Very 21 recently, on July 15, 2021, in Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC, the California Supreme Court
22 set forth the formula for calculating the one extra hour of bonus pay that employees are owed if an 23 employer fails to provide a compliant meal period or rest break. Specifically, the Court held that 24 those bonus payments must include the hourly value of any nondiscretionary earnings (such as a 25 nondiscretionary bonuses, commissions, etc.), and cannot simply be paid at an employee's base
26 hourly rate. Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay meal period premiums in 27 compliance with California law.

28 57. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are entitled to

1 damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages per missed meal break, per day in a sum to 2 be proven at trial.

3 VIII.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

6 FAILURE TO ALLOW REST PERIODS PURSUANT TO

7 LABOR CODE § 226.7

8 58. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the proposed Class, reallege and incorporate
9 by reference all previous paragraphs.

10 59. Labor Code § 226.7 requires an employer to pay an additional hour (1) of 11 compensation for each rest period the employer fails to provide. Employees are entitled to a paid 12 ten (10) minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked (or major fraction thereof).

13 60. Defendant failed to appraise Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class of their rights
14 associated with rest periods and failed to provide all required ten (10) minute rest periods
15 throughout the relevant time period. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class also did not receive a 16 second rest period despite Defendant regularly requiring Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to work 17 over six (6) hours.

18 61. In addition, Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees were not compensated with one 19 (1) hour of wages for each compliant rest period not provided as required by Labor Code § 226.7.
20 As discussed above, Ferra requires the rest period premium payments must include the hourly 21 value of any nondiscretionary earnings (such as a nondiscretionary bonuses), and cannot simply 22 be paid at an employee's base hourly rate. Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay 23 rest premiums in violation of Labor Code § 226.7.

24 62. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are entitled to 25 damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages per missed rest period, in a sum to be proven 26 at trial.

2 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

4 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE EXPENSES PURSUANT TO

5 LABOR CODE § 2802

6 63. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Proposed Class, reallege and incorporate
7 by reference all previous paragraphs.

8 64. Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to indemnify employees for all necessary
9 expenditures incurred by employees in the discharge of their duties.

10 65. Defendant has failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Proposed Class the cost of using 11 their personal tools for business related purposes.

12 66. Defendant requires Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to purchase a variety of tools
13 in order to perform their work adequately. These tools/equipment include: (1) a harvest cart -
14 $60.00 per season; (2) a cannery cart – $35.00 per season; (3) tires for the harvest cart, $30.00 with 15 two sets necessary per season; (4) rubber boots - $40.00 per season; (5) a box of blue gloves, $5.00
16 with three boxes necessary per season; (6) a “chamarra” or specialized jacket - $35.00 per season;
17 (7) a protective hat - $15.00 per season; (8) glasses; and (10) a specialized knife ring for harvesting
18 berries - $10.00 with three rings per season. None of these tools are provided by Defendant, and if 19 Plaintiffs or the Proposed Class do not have a harvest cart, they cannot show up to work.
20 Additionally, if Plaintiffs or the Proposed Class do not have the tools necessary, Defendant
21 instructs Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to continue working with whatever tools are available
22 or to use their hands to harvest the berries. Defendant fails to reimburse Plaintiffs and the Proposed 23 Class for the costs associated with purchasing and using these tools/equipment.

24 67. Defendant also required Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to travel between fields
25 to perform work tasks. Because Defendant did not provide buses or other transportation to workers
26 so that they could travel from field to field in the middle of their shifts, Plaintiffs and the Proposed 27 Class used their own vehicles to travel from field to field. Defendant did not reimburse Plaintiffs 28 and the Proposed Class for their vehicle use for travel between Defendant’s job sites during the

1 course of a work shift, in violation of California law.

2 68. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendant, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class have 3 been deprived of reimbursement in the amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to 4 recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

5 X.

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

8 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(A)

9 69. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Proposed Class, reallege and incorporate
10 by reference all previous paragraphs.

11 70. Labor Code § 226(a) requires that every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time 12 of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, an accurate itemized statement in 13 writing showing all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, the corresponding 14 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. (Labor Code §§ 226(a)(2), and (9).)

15 71. As a result of Defendant's failure to pay wages as described above, Defendant has 16 failed to include the appropriate rates of pay and the accurate hours worked on itemized wage
17 statements for Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class.

18 72. Labor Code § 226(a)(2) requires that every employer shall semimonthly or at the
19 time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, an accurate itemized
20 statement in writing showing the total hours worked by the employee. Plaintiffs and the Proposed 21 Class are issued wage statements that do not include the total hours worked by the employee.

22 73. Labor Code § 226(a)(9) requires that every employer shall semimonthly or at the
23 time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, an accurate itemized
24 statement in writing showing all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 25 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. Plaintiffs and the 26 Proposed Class are issued wage statements that do not include all applicable hourly rates in effect 27 during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 28 employee.

74. Defendant's failure to provide accurate itemized wages statements according to Labor Code § 226(a) was all done on a regular and consistent basis.

75. An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

WAITING TIME PENALTIES UNDER LABOR CODE § 203

76. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Proposed Class, reallege and incorporate by reference all previous paragraphs.

77. Numerous members of the Proposed Class including the Plaintiffs are no longer employed by Defendant. They were either fired, quit Defendant's employ, or were seasonally laid off.

78. Defendant's failure to pay wages, as alleged above was willful in that Defendant knew wages to be due but failed to pay them, thus entitling Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue as a penalty until paid for a period of up to thirty (30) days from the time they were due. Such waiting time penalties apply and accrue even where employees are seasonal laid off, but subsequently recalled, with each seasonal lay off requiring full payment of wages due.

79. Defendant has failed to pay Plaintiffs and others a sum certain at the time of termination, seasonal lay off, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter. Pursuant to the provisions of Labor Code § 203, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are entitled to a penalty in the amount of Plaintiffs' and the Proposed Class Members' daily wage multiplied by thirty (30) days.

2 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

4 UNFAIR COMPETITION PURSUANT TO BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200

5 80. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Proposed Class, reallege and incorporate
6 by reference all previous paragraphs.

7 81. This is a Class Action for Unfair Business Practices. Plaintiffs, on behalf of 8 themselves, on behalf of the general public, and on behalf of the Proposed Class, bring this claim 9 pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of Defendant as alleged in 10 this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, the general
11 public, and the Proposed Class. Plaintiffs seek to enforce important rights affecting the public 12 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

13 82. Plaintiffs are each considered a “person” within the meaning of Business &
14 Professions Code § 17204, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive
15 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

16 83. Business & Profession Code § 17200, et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair business 17 practices.

18 84. California’s wage and hour laws express fundamental public policies. Providing 19 employees with proper wages and compensation are fundamental public policies of this State and 20 of the United States. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State to enforce 21 vigorously minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to 22 work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their 23 employees from competitors who lower their costs by failing to comply with minimum labor 24 standards.

25 85. Defendant has violated statutes and public policies as alleged herein. Through the 26 conduct alleged in this Complaint, Defendant has acted contrary to these public policies, have 27 violated specific provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair
28 business practices in violation of Business & Profession Code § 17200, et seq., depriving Plaintiffs,

1 and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons of rights, benefits, and privileges
2 guaranteed to all employees under law.

3 86. Defendant's conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 4 violation of § 17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions Code.

5 87. Defendant, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, either knew or in the exercise
6 of reasonable care, should have known that the conduct was unlawful. As such it is a violation of 7 § 17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions Code.

8 88. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendant, Plaintiffs and 9 others similarly situated have been damaged in a sum as may be proven.

10 89. Unless restrained, Defendant will continue to engage in the unlawful conduct as 11 alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this court should make such orders 12 or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use or 13 employment by Defendant, its agents, or employees, of any unlawful or deceptive practices
14 prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, and/or, including but not limited to, restitution
15 and disgorgement of profits which may be necessary to restore Plaintiffs and members of the 16 proposed Class the money Defendant has unlawfully failed to pay.

17 XIII.

18 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 PLAINTIFFS ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND THE AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES

20 PENALTIES PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE § 2699, ET SEQ.

21 90. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the aggrieved employees, reallege and 22 incorporate by reference all previous paragraphs.

23 91. As a result of the acts alleged above and specifically incorporated herein, Plaintiffs
24 seek penalties under Labor Code § 2699, et seq. use of Defendant's violation of Labor Code §§
25 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, and 2802; Wage Order 14-2001; and 26 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11140, which call for civil penalties.

27 92. Plaintiffs bring this representative action on behalf of themselves and the State of 28 California as well as a group of aggrieved employees defined as: "All persons who are employed

1 or have been employed as a non-exempt employee by DL Farm Management Inc., in the State of 2 California since one (1) year prior to the date of Plaintiffs' PAGA Notice Letter to the LWDA and 3 Defendant and continuing to the present". ("aggrieved employees").

4 93. As a result of the acts alleged above, Plaintiffs seek penalties under Labor Code §
5 2699, et seq. because of Defendants' violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510,
6 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, and 2802, which call for civil penalties.

7 94. For each such penalty, Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees are entitled to 8 penalties in an amount to be shown at trial, subject to the following formula:

9 a. $100 for the initial violation per employee per pay period.

10 b. $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period.

11 95. These penalties shall be allocated sixty-five percent (65%) to the LWDA and thirty-12 five percent (35%) to the affected employees.

13 96. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1), Plaintiffs uploaded a notice letter to the 14 LWDA¹ and mailed a letter by certified mail to Defense Counsel's addresses, which are 916 W.
15 Ventura Blvd., Camarillo, CA 93010 and 333 Salinas Street, PO Box 2510, Salinas CA, 93902-
16 2510, as proscribed by the Code on August 8, 2025, describing Defendants' conduct in violation 17 of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, and 2802, (see 18 Exhibit "1"). Plaintiffs also obtained an e-filing confirmation from the LWDA confirming receipt 19 of the notice (see Exhibit "2"). Additionally, Plaintiffs received signed green return receipts from 20 Defendants, indicating that it received Plaintiffs' letter. (see Exhibit "3").

21 97. As no letter evidencing the LWDA's intention to investigate was received by 22 Plaintiffs' Counsel within sixty-five (65) calendar days, Plaintiffs are entitled to commence a civil 23 action as though the LWDA had not chosen to investigate pursuant to Labor Code
24 §2699.3(a)(2)(A). Plaintiffs will also provide the LWDA with a filed-stamped copy of the Second 25 Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint immediately.

¹ Plaintiffs electronically filed a PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA, via the State of California
Labor and Workforce Development Agency / Department of Industrial Relations website (<https://dir.tfaforms.net/308>).

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for the following relief:

1. For compensatory damages in the amount of unpaid wages and/or overtime not paid to Plaintiffs and each Proposed Class Member from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present as may be proven;

2. For compensatory damages in the amount of Plaintiffs' and each Proposed Class Members' hourly wage for each rest period and/or meal period missed or taken late from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present as may be proven;

3. For compensatory damages in the amount of Plaintiffs' and each Proposed Class Members' unreimbursed out of pocket expenses as a requirement of employment;

4. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for violation of Labor Code § 226(a) in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000);

5. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all employees who were terminated or resigned equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days;

6. An award of prejudgment and post judgment interest;

7. An order enjoining Defendant and its agents, servants, and employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for it from providing Plaintiffs with proper wages and/or overtime, meal periods, rest periods, unreimbursed expenses, accurate itemized wage statements, and wages upon termination/resignation pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, 2802, and IWC 14-2001;

8. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., including disgorgement or profits, in an amount as may be proven;

9. For injunctive relief pursuant to Labor Code §226(a) requiring Defendant to remedy the inaccurate itemized wage statements issued to Plaintiffs and the Class.

10. For injunctive relief pursuant to Business & Professions Code §17200, et seq. to remedy the unfair, unlawful and fraudulent activity alleged above.

1 11. For penalties under Labor Code §2699, et seq. for Defendant's violation of Labor
2 Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, and 2802;

3 12. An award providing for payment of costs of suit;

4 13. An award of attorneys' fees; and 5 14. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.

6 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

7 Plaintiffs hereby demand a trial of their claims by jury to the extent authorized by law.

(“Plaintiffs”) and a proposed group of current and former employees working for DL Farm Management Inc. (“Defendant”) in the State of California. The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698, et. seq. We herein set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant’s aggrieved employees.

Plaintiffs wish to bring a representative action on behalf of themselves and the State of California as well as on behalf of a group of aggrieved employees defined as: All persons who are employed or have been employed as a non-exempt employee by DL Farm Management Inc., in the State of California since one (1) year prior to the date of this letter and continuing to the present. (“aggrieved employees”).

Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees worked for Defendant in or near Santa Barbara County, California as seasonal agricultural workers. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees worked in the cultivation and harvesting of strawberries and other berries, and doing other agricultural work on land owned, leased, managed, and/or operated, harvested, or otherwise made productive by Defendant. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees were paid on an hourly basis and also earned a piece rate for work picking crops.

Defendant has violated Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2 and 1199. These statutes require an employer to compensate its employees at the minimum wage rate for all hours worked and at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for any work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek. Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay. California law also requires that any compensation must be included in the regular rate of pay for the purposes of determining correct overtime rates.

Here, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime to Plaintiffs and all aggrieved employees. Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees were not properly compensated for all hours worked over eight (8) hours in one day or forty (40) hours in one week. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees were not properly compensated for all hours worked, because Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees for each and every hour worked. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees routinely worked “off the clock” and performed compensable activities before, during, and after each working shift for which no pay was provided as detailed below.

With regard to pre-shift work, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required to report to work prior to their scheduled shift and perform work but are routinely told by Defendant to wait anywhere from approximately five (5) to twenty-five (25) minutes before Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can begin their scheduled shifts. In addition, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required to walk five (5) to ten (10) minutes every day from their cars to the field and spend time prepping materials and boxes for the day of work, all of which is performed while “off the clock” and no pay is provided. This required “off the clock” pre-shift work is performed daily and Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this wait time or worked performed. During winter, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are required to wait around thirty (30) minutes at least once during the season before they begin their scheduled shifts. This required waiting time is not compensated by Defendant. These activities and time are compensable, but Defendant fails to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for this time worked.

In the middle of shifts, Defendant required Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to travel between fields once Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are done picking at one field. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class can sometimes walk to the other field, but Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are sometimes required to use their own vehicle(s) to travel between fields per shift at least once a week, and potentially more during peak season. The time spent by Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class to travel between fields is approximately five (5) to ten (10) minutes. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this travel time, nor are Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class reimbursed for their use of their personal vehicle to perform required work.

With regard to post-shift work, at the end of each working shift, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are instructed by the foreman to continue working to finish their boxes and finish their “corte” (section) before leaving. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class worked from approximately five (5) minutes to twenty (20) minutes at least once a week after the end of their shift in order to finish their boxes and/or finish their section as required. This time spent finishing their boxes and/or their section was performed after being “clocked out” and as such, Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class are not compensated for this time even though this time is compensable.

Additionally, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime to Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class at the appropriate rate of pay. Plaintiffs and other Proposed Class members were not properly compensated for all hours worked over eight (8) hours in one day or forty (40) hours in one week. Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class were not properly compensated for overtime worked because Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Proposed Class for all hours worked over 8 hours per day or 40 hours per week. Defendant failed to pay travel time, include work performed off-the-clock, and failed to compensate Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees for all hours worked.

Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 require an employer to pay an additional hour of compensation for each meal period the employer fails to provide. Employees are entitled to a first meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts over five (5) hours, to be provided within the first five (5) hours of the shift, and a second meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts over ten (10) hours. Likewise, the Wage Orders (14-2001) state that: An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(c), if an employer fails to provide an employee with a lawful meal period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period was not provided, was not provided in full, or was not provided in a timely manner.

Here, Defendant failed to apprise Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees of their rights associated with meal periods and failed to provide timely meal periods. Defendant has had a consistent policy of: (1) failing to provide Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees compliant meal periods; and (2) failed to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at the employees regular rate of compensation for each workday that the first meal period was not provided within the first (5) hours of the shift or that a second meal period was not provided. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees would be interrupted during their lunch breaks at least three to four times a year by the foreman asking about strawberry sizes for the day.

On July 15, 2021, in Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC, the California Supreme Court set forth the formula for calculating the one extra hour of premium pay that employees are owed if an Employer fails to provide a compliant meal period or rest break. Specifically, the Court held that those premium payments must include the hourly value of any nondiscretionary earnings (such as a nondiscretionary bonuses), and cannot simply be paid at an employee's base hourly rate. Here, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay meal period premiums in compliance with California law.

Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and Wage Order 14-2001, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees with rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes per four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof. Defendant failed to appraise Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees of their rights associated with rest periods and failed to provide all required ten (10) minute rest periods. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees also did not receive a second rest period despite Defendant regularly requiring Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees to work over six (6) hours. In addition, Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees were not compensated with one (1) hour of wages for each compliant rest period not provided as required by Labor Code § 226.7. As discussed above, Ferra requires the rest period premium payments must include the hourly value of any nondiscretionary earnings (such as a nondiscretionary bonuses), and cannot simply be paid at an employee's base hourly rate. Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay rest premiums in violation of Labor Code § 226.7.

In addition, Labor Code § 2802 provides that an employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

Defendant has failed to reimburse Plaintiff and aggrieved employees the cost of using their personal tools for business related purposes. Defendant requires Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees to purchase a variety of tools in order to perform their work adequately. These tools/equipment include: (1) a harvest cart - $60.00 per season; (2) a cannery cart – $35.00 per season; (3) tires for the harvest cart, $30.00 with two sets necessary per season; (4) rubber boots - $40.00 per season; (5) a box of blue gloves, $5.00 with three boxes necessary per season; (6) a “chamarra” or specialized jacket - $35.00 per season; (7) a protective hat - $15.00 per season; (8) glasses; and (10) a specialized knife ring for harvesting berries - $10.00 with three rings per season. None of these tools are provided by Defendant, and if Plaintiffs or the aggrieved employees do not have a harvest cart, they cannot show up to work. Additionally, if Plaintiffs or the aggrieved employees do not have the tools necessary, Defendant instructs Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees to continue working with whatever tools are available or to use their hands to harvest the berries. Defendants fail to reimburse Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees for the costs associated with purchasing and using these tools/equipment.

Defendant also required Plaintiffs and all aggrieved employees to travel between fields to perform work tasks. Because Defendant did not provide buses or other transportation to workers so that they could travel from field to field in the middle of their shifts, Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees used their own vehicles to travel from field to field. Defendant did not reimburse Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees for their vehicle use for travel between Defendant’s job sites during the course of a work shift, in violation of California law.

As a result of the claims alleged above, Defendant engaged in a practice of failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226(a) which requires that every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

Labor Code §226(a)(2) requires that every employer shall semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing the total hours worked by the employee. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees are issued wage statements that do not include the total hours worked by the employee. As such, Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees within the meaning PAGA and Defendants has violated Labor Code §226(a) with respect to Plaintiffs and all aggrieved employees.

Also, Defendant issued to Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees itemized wage statements that did not include all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9). The itemized wage statements provided to Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees did not include the hours worked at each hourly rate.

Labor Code § 203 provides that if “an employer willfully fails to pay...any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.” Here, Plaintiffs and all aggrieved employees were not paid all wages due upon their separation from Defendant’s employ. As such, Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees and Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and all aggrieved employees all wages due at the time of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter in violation of Labor Code §203. As such, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiffs and all aggrieved employees all wages due at the time of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter in violation of Labor Code §§201, 202, and 203. (See Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745, 754, reh’g denied (June 13, 2018), review denied (Aug. 8, 2018), allowing named Plaintiffs to pursue PAGA penalties for violations not personally suffered.

Further, under Labor Code § 2699.3, Defendant, if it employed fewer than 100 employees in total during the relevant time period, may cure the alleged violations within thirty-three (33) calendar days of the postmark date of this notice and within that period, may submit to the LWDA a confidential proposal to cure one or more of the alleged violations, specifying which of the alleged violations it proposes to cure.

We are constrained to move forward with the filing of this complaint alleging causes of action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1199, and 2802, with or without the PAGA claim. Thus, any action by the LWDA would not resolve the entirety of the case, and the interest of judicial economy will be served by allowing the case to proceed as a cohesive whole.

Very truly yours,
