Attorneys for Plaintiff FRANK NARANJO,
on behalf of the general public as private attorney general,

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

FRANK NARANJO, on behalf of the general public as private attorney general,

Plaintiff,

v.

SEMA CONSTRUCTION, INC., a Colorado
Corporation; and DOES 1-50, inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO.: CVRI2506302

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT PURSUANT TO THE
PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT
(Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.)

COMES NOW Plaintiff FRANK NARANJO (“Plaintiff”), on behalf the general public and all non-exempt aggrieved employees, acting on behalf of the California Attorney General as private attorney general, asserts claims against Defendants SEMA CONSTRUCTION, INC., a Colorado Corporation; and DOES 1-50, inclusive (collectively “Defendants”) as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a representative action for recovery of penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Cal. Lab. Code sections 2698 et seq. PAGA permits “aggrieved employees” to bring a lawsuit as a representative action on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other current and former aggrieved employees, to recover civil penalties and address an employer’s violations of the California Labor Code.

2. In this case, Defendants violated various provisions of the California Labor Code. As set forth below, Defendants implemented policies and practices which led to unpaid wages resulting from Defendant’s: (a) failure to pay wages including overtime, (b) failure to provide meal periods for every work period exceeding more than ten (10) hours per day and failure to pay an additional hour’s of pay or accurately pay an additional hour’s of pay in lieu of providing a meal period; (c) failure to provide rest breaks for every four hours or major fraction thereof worked and failure to pay an additional hour’s of pay or accurately pay an additional hour’s of pay in lieu of providing a rest period; (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (e) failure to timely pay wages upon separation. As a result Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq. on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other aggrieved employees.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California Constitution Article VI, Section 10, which grants the Superior Court “original jurisdiction in all cases except those given by statute to other trial courts.” The statutes under which this action is brought do not give jurisdiction to any other court.

4. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant either has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally

1 avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the 2 California Courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

3 5. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district pursuant to Code of 4 Civil Procedure section 395. Defendants are doing business throughout California, including but 5 not limited to Riverside County, and each Defendant is within the jurisdiction of this Court for 6 service of process purposes. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and 7 all other aggrieved employees within the State of California. Defendants employ numerous 8 aggrieved employees in in the State of California.

9 6. On information and belief, Defendants have conducted business within the State of 10 California during the purported liability period and continue to conduct business throughout the 11 State of California. The unlawful acts alleged herein have had a direct effect on Plaintiff, and the 12 similarly situated non-exempt aggrieved employees within California.

13 7. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because on 14 information and belief there are no federal questions at issue, as the issues herein are based solely 15 on California statutes and law, including the California Labor Code, the IWC Wage Orders, the 16 California Code of Civil Procedure, the California Civil Code, and the California Business and 17 Professions Code.

18 8. On information and belief, during the statutory liability period and continuing to 19 the present ("liability period"), Defendant consistently maintained and enforced against 20 Defendant's Non-Exempt Aggrieved Employees, among others, the following unlawful practices
21 and policies, in violation of California state wage and hour laws: (a) failure to pay wages including 22 overtime, (b) failure to provide meal periods for every work period exceeding more than ten (10)
23 hours per day and failure to pay an additional hour's of pay or accurately pay an additional hour's 24 of pay in lieu of providing a meal period; (c) failure to provide rest breaks for every four hours or 25 major fraction thereof worked and failure to pay an additional hour's of pay or accurately pay an 26 additional hour's of pay in lieu of providing a rest period; (d) failing to provide accurate itemized
27 wage statements, and (e) failure to timely pay wages upon separation. As a result, Plaintiff seeks 28 penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq. on behalf of the general public as private attorney

1 general and all other aggrieved employees.

2 9. Plaintiff on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other
3 aggrieved employees bring this action pursuant to Labor Code 2698, et. seq. for violations
4 enumerated under 2699.5 as follows: sections 201-203, 246, 510, 512, 558, 226, 226.7, 226.3, 5 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and seeking penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and 6 costs

7 III. PARTIES

8 10. Plaintiff, FRANK NARANJO, was at all times relevant to this action, a resident of 9 California. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in approximately April 26, 2024 as a Non-10 Exempt Employee with the title of Laborer until Plaintiff's separation from Defendants' employ in 11 September 2024. Plaintiff's duties included, but were not limited to: cleaning and preparing 12 construction sites, loading and unloading material, assisting tradespeople and ensuring the site 13 safety and organization.

14 11. Defendants SEMA CONSTRUCTION, INC., operates as a full-service
15 construction firm specializing in heavy and civil infrastructure development. Plaintiff estimates
16 there are in excess of 100 Non-Exempt Employees who work or have worked for Defendants over 17 the last year.

18 12. Other than identified herein, Plaintiff is unaware of the true names, capacities, 19 relationships, and extent of participation in the conduct alleged herein, of the Defendants sued as 20 DOES 1 through 50, but is informed and believes and thereon alleges that said defendants are 21 legally responsible for the wrongful conduct alleged herein and therefore sues these defendants by 22 such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint when their true names and capabilities 23 are ascertained.

24 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each defendant, directly 25 or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and other members of 26 Aggrieved Employees, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions.
27 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendants acted in all respects
28 pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business

1 plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendants are legally
2 attributable to the other defendants.

3 14. On information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to pay all earned wages in 4 the form regular wages and overtime wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, to its Non-5 Exempt Employees and members of the Representative Group; nor have Defendants returned to 6 Plaintiff or members of the Representative Group, upon or after separation from employment with 7 Defendants, all wages earned and owing. Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq.
8 on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other aggrieved employees.

9 IV. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

10 15. At all times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons in the 11 capacity of non-exempt positions, however titled, throughout the state of California.

12 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes Aggrieved Employees have at all times pertinent 13 hereto been Non-Exempt within the meaning of the California Labor Code and the implementing 14 rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

15 17. Defendants continue to employ Non-Exempt Employees, however titled, in 16 California and implement a uniform set of policies and practices to all non-exempt employees, as 17 they were all engaged in the generic job duties related Defendants' construction business.

18 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants are and 19 were advised by skilled lawyers and other professionals, employees, and advisors with knowledge
20 of the requirements of California's wage and employment laws.

21 19. Plaintiff alleges that all Aggrieved Employees are citizens of the State of 22 California.

23 20. On information and belief, during the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and Aggrieved
24 Employees frequently worked well over eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in a work 25 week.

26 21. During the relevant time frame, Defendants compensated Plaintiff and Aggrieved
27 Employees based upon an hourly rate.

28 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to

1 compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all time worked resulting in an underpayment
2 of minimum and overtime wages.

3 23. In addition, the Aggrieved Employees frequently worked in excess of eight (8)
4 hours a day and/or over forty (40) hours in a workweek, but were not properly paid for such time
5 at the employee's correct rate of pay per hour for overtime.

6 24. As a result of the above practices, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not 7 compensated correctly for minimum and overtime wages.

8 25. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to work shifts in 9 excess of five hours without being provided a lawful meal period and over ten hours in a day
10 without being provided a second lawful meal period as required by law.

11 26. Indeed, during the relevant time, as a consequence of Defendants' staffing and 12 scheduling practices, lack of coverage, work demands, and Defendants' policies and practices,
13 Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees timely, legally complaint 14 uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods on shifts over five hours as required by law. In fact,
15 Defendants failed to provide any meal period to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees at any time at 16 all.

17 27. Similarly, as a consequence of Defendants' staffing and scheduling practices, lack 18 of coverage, work demands, and Defendants' policies and practices, Defendants frequently failed
19 to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees legally compliant second meal periods on shifts 20 over ten hours as required by law.

21 28. On information and belief, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not waive their 22 rights to meal periods under the law.

23 29. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with valid lawful on-duty 24 meal periods.

25 30. Despite the above-mentioned meal period violations, Defendants failed to 26 compensate Plaintiff, and on information and belief, failed to compensate Aggrieved Employees,
27 one additional hour of pay at their regular rate as required by California law when meal periods
28 were not timely or lawfully provided in a compliant manner.

1 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants know,
2 should know, knew, and/or should have known that Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees
3 were entitled to receive premium wages based on their regular rate of pay under Labor Code
4 §226.7 but were not receiving such compensation.

5 32. Additionally, during the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and the Non-Exempt
6 Employees were systematically not authorized and permitted to take one net ten-minute paid, rest
7 period for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof, which is a violation of the Labor
8 Code and IWC wage order. Defendants failed to provide any rest periods at all, at any point.

9 33. Defendants maintained and enforced scheduling practices, policies, and imposed 10 work demands that frequently required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to forego their lawful, 11 paid rest periods of a net ten minutes for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof. Such 12 requisite rest periods were not timely authorized and permitted as a result of Defendants' failure to 13 provide relief for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to take their lawfully required breaks.

14 34. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were prohibited from leaving the premises 15 during rest periods.

16 35. Despite the above-mentioned rest period violations, Defendants did not compensate 17 Plaintiff, and on information and belief, did not pay Aggrieved Employees one additional hour of 18 pay at their regular rate as required by California law, including Labor Code section 226.7 and the 19 applicable IWC wage order, for each day on which lawful rest periods were not authorized and 20 permitted.

21 36. Defendants also failed to provide accurate, lawful itemized wage statements to 22 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in part because of the above specified violations. In 23 addition, upon information and belief, Defendants omitted an accurate itemization of total hours
24 worked, including premiums due and owing for meal and rest period violations, gross pay and net
25 pay figures from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' wage statements.

26 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
27 mentioned, Defendants knew that at the time of termination of employment (or within 72 hours 28 thereof for resignations without prior notice as the case may be) they had a duty to accurately

1 compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all wages owed including minimum wages and 2 overtime, meal and rest period premiums, at the time of separation. Defendants had the financial 3 ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, recklessly, and/or intentionally failed
4 to do so in part because of the above-specified violations. Therefore, Defendants failed to timely 5 pay such owed wages pursuant to Labor Code sections 201-203.

6 38. Upon information and belief, Defendants knew and or should have known that it is 7 improper to implement policies and commit unlawful acts such as:

8 (a) requiring employees to work four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof without 9 being provided a minimum ten (10) minute rest period and without compensating the employees
10 with one (1) hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each workday that a 11 rest period was not provided;

12 (b) requiring employees to work in excess of five (5) hours or ten (10) hours per day
13 without being provided an uninterrupted thirty-minute meal period and/or a second meal period,
14 and without compensating employees with one (1) hour of pay at the regular rate of compensation
15 for each workday that such a meal period was not provided;

16 (c) failing to pay all wages including overtime and minimum wages;

17 (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;

18 (e) failing to timely pay wages upon separation;

19 (f) failing to reimburse business expenses;

20 39. In addition to the violations above, and on information and belief, Defendants knew
21 they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for the allegations asserted
22 herein and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, 23 knowingly, recklessly, and/or intentionally failed to do so.

24 40. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees they seek to represent are covered by, and 25 Defendants are required to comply with, applicable California Labor Codes, Industrial Welfare
26 Commission Occupational Wage Orders (hereinafter "IWC Wage Orders") and corresponding 27 applicable provisions of California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et seq.

28 VI. REPRESENTATIVE CLAIMS

1 THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT- LABOR CODE §§ 2698 *et seq.

2 41. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation
3 contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

4 42. On August 28, 2025 Plaintiff complied with notice requirements pursuant to Labor
5 Code section 2699.3. A copy of the letter sent to the LWDA is attached hereto as Exhibit A,
6 indicating that the LWDA and Defendants were put on notice of the claims alleged here and that 7 the notice requirement has been satisfied. Sixty-five days have passed and the LWDA has not
8 indicated intent to investigate the claims. Therefore, Plaintiff may proceed with this action in a 9 representative capacity. The substance and violations set forth in this Complaint of which the 10 LWDA was provided timely notice, Plaintiff has also sent a copy of this PAGA Representative
11 Action Complaint to the LWDA.

12 43. Plaintiff is an aggrieved employee as defined in Labor Code Section 2699(a).
13 Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of all current and former California Non-Exempt
14 Employees of Defendants.

15 44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a) Plaintiff seek to recover civil penalties for 16 which Defendants are liable due to numerous Labor Code violations as set forth in this Complaint,
17 including without limitation Labor Code section 201-203, 246, 510, 512, 558, 226, 226.7, 226.3, 18 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and, 2698 et seq., applicable IWC Wage Orders
19 and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et. seq.

20 45. At all times relevant, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees regularly 21 performed non-exempt work in excess of 50% of the time, and thus, were subject to the meal and 22 rest break requirements of the applicable IWC wage order and the Labor Code.

23 46. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Aggrieved employees are 24 entitled to penalties to the extent they were not paid at the prevailing wage rate for all hours 25 worked.

26 47. For the violations below, Plaintiff and the Representative Aggrieved Employees are 27 entitled to recover Penalties and attorneys' fees and costs sunder Labor Code section 2698, et. seq.
28

FAILURE TO PAY WAGES INCLUDING OVERTIME

48. At all times relevant, the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees require employers to pay its employees for each hour worked at least minimum wage. "Hours worked" means the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so, and in the case of an employee who is required to reside on the employment premises, that time spent carrying out assigned duties shall be counted as hours worked.

49. At all relevant times, Labor Code §1197 provides that the minimum wage for employees fixed by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the established minimum is unlawful. Further, pursuant to the IWC Wage Order and Labor Code, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are to be paid minimum wage for each hour worked, and cannot be averaged At all times relevant, the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' employment by Defendants provided that employees working for more than eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a work week are entitled to overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a work week. An employee who works more than twelve (12) hours in a day is entitled to overtime compensation at a rate of twice the regular rate of pay.

50. At all relevant times, Labor Code §1197.1 states "[a]ny employer or other persons acting individually as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties pursuant to Section 203.

51. Labor Code §510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a work week and to overtime compensation at twice the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the 1 seventh day of work in a particular work week.

2 52. At all times relevant, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees regularly performed non-
3 exempt work and thus were subject to the overtime requirements of the IWC Wage Orders, CCR §
4 11000, et. seq. and the Labor Code.

5 53. At all times relevant, Defendants have failed to accurately pay minimum and 6 overtime owed to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees as a result of the off-the-clock work, and 7 failure to incorporate all remunerations in the employee's regular rate for overtime calculation
8 purposes described above.

9 54. Accordingly, Defendants owe Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees overtime wages, 10 and have failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees the overtime wages owed.

11 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF

12 55. Pursuant to Labor Code §512, no employer shall employ an employee for a work
13 period of more than five (5) hours without providing a meal break of not less than thirty (30)
14 minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties. An employer may not 15 employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the 16 employee with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total 17 hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual 18 consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

19 56. Pursuant to the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees'
20 employment by Defendants, in order for an "on duty" meal period to be permissible, the nature of 21 the work of the employee must prevent an employee from being relieved of all duties relating to 22 his or her work for the employer and the employees must consent in writing to the "on duty" meal
23 period. On information and belief, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not consent in writing
24 to an "on duty" meal period. Further, the nature of the work of Plaintiff and Aggrieved 25 Employees was not such that they were prevented from being relieved of all duties. Despite the 26 requirements of the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees'
27 employment by Defendants and Labor Code §512 and §226.7, Defendants did not provide 28 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with all their statutorily authorized meal periods.

1 57. For the four (4) years preceding the filing of this lawsuit, Defendants failed to 2 provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, timely and uninterrupted meal periods of not less than 3 thirty (30) minutes pursuant to the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved
4 Employees' employment by Defendants. As a proximate result of the aforementioned violations,
5 Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees have been damaged in an amount according to proof 6 at time of trial.

7 58. By their failure to provide a compliant meal period for each shift worked over five 8 (5) hours and their failure to provide a compliant second meal period for any shift worked over ten 9 (10) hours per day by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, and by failing to provide 10 compensation in lieu of such non-provided meal periods, as alleged above, Defendants violated
11 the provisions of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

12 59. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Plaintiff seeks to represent did not 13 voluntarily or willfully waive meal periods and were regularly required to work shifts without 14 being provided all of their legally required meal periods. Defendants created a working 15 environment in which Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not provided all of their meal
16 periods due to shift scheduling and/or work related demands placed upon them by Defendants as 17 well as a lack of sufficient staffing to meet the needs of Defendants' business as discussed above.
18 On information and belief, Defendants' implemented a policy and practice which resulted in 19 systematic and companywide violations of the Labor Code. On information and belief, 20 Defendants' violations have been widespread throughout the liability period and will be evidenced 21 by Defendants' time records for the Aggrieved Employees.

22 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF

23 60. Pursuant to the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees'
24 employment by Defendants, "Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest 25 periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period.... [The]
26 authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10)
27 minutes net rest time per four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.... Authorized rest period
28 time shall be counted as hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages." Labor

1 Code §226.7(a) prohibits an employer from requiring any employee to work during any rest period
2 mandated by an applicable order of the IWC.

3 61. Defendants were required to authorize and permit employees such as Plaintiff and 4 Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods, based upon the total hours worked at a rate of ten (10) 5 minutes net rest per four (4) hours worked, or major fraction thereof, with no deduction from 6 wages. Despite said requirements of the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff's and Aggrieved
7 Employees' employment by Defendants, Defendants failed and refused to authorize and permit
8 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, to take ten (10) minute rest periods for every four (4) hours 9 worked, or major fraction thereof.

10 62. On information and belief Defendants created a working environment in which 11 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not provided all of their rest periods due to shift
12 scheduling and/or work related demands placed upon them by Defendants as well as a lack of 13 sufficient staffing to meet the needs of Defendants' business as discussed above. On information 14 and belief, Defendants implemented a policy and practice which resulted in systematic and 15 companywide violations of the Labor Code. On information and belief, Defendants' violations 16 have been widespread throughout the liability period.

17 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

18 63. Section 226(a) of the California Labor Code requires Defendants to itemize in wage 19 statements all deductions from payment of wages and to accurately report total hours worked by 20 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees including applicable hourly rates and reimbursement expenses
21 among other things. Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Labor
22 Code section 226 and 204 on wage statements that have been provided to Plaintiff and Aggrieved
23 Employees.

24 64. IWC Wage Orders require Defendants to maintain time records showing, among 25 others, when the employee begins and ends each work period, meal periods, split shift intervals 26 and total daily hours worked in an itemized wage statement, and must show all deductions and 27 reimbursements from payment of wages, and accurately report total hours worked by Plaintiff and 28 Aggrieved Employees. On information and belief, Defendants have failed to record all or some of

1 the items delineated in Industrial Wage Orders and Labor Code §226.

2 65. Defendants have failed to accurately record all time worked.

3 66. Defendants have also failed to accurately record the meal and rest period premiums
4 owed and all wages owed per pay period.

5 67. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees have been injured as they were unable to 6 determine whether they had been paid correctly for all hours worked per pay period among other 7 things.

8 68. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are 9 entitled up to a maximum of $4,000 each for record keeping violations.

10 69. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, any employer who violates subdivision (a)
11 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)
12 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee
13 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a 14 wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.

15 FAILURE TO PAY TIMELY PAY WAGES UPON SEPARATION LABOR CODE § 203

16 70. Plaintiff incorporates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above as 17 though fully set forth herein.

18 71. Labor Code §§201-202 requires an employer who discharges an employee to pay 19 compensation due and owing to said employee immediately upon discharge and that if an 20 employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 21 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-22 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is 23 entitled to his or her wages on their last day of work.

24 72. Labor Code §203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay compensation 25 promptly upon discharge, as required by Labor Code §§201-202, the employer is liable for 26 waiting time penalties in the form of continued compensation for up to thirty (30) work days.

27 73. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed and refused, and 28 continue to willfully fail and refuse, to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages,

1 earned and unpaid, either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their
2 voluntarily leaving Defendants' employ. These wages include regular and overtime, meal and rest 3 period premiums.

4 74. As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for waiting
5 time penalties pursuant to Labor Code §203, in an amount according to proof at the time of trial.

6 FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE RECORDS

7 75. Additionally, Defendants have no accurate records relating to aggrieved
8 employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours worked, total hours worked per payroll

Re: NOTICE PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, et seq.

To Whom It May Concern:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that plaintiff FRANK NARANJO, individually and on behalf of all similarly situated representative aggrieved employees, gives NOTICE to commence and/or amend a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code Sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff hereby gives written notice by certified mail to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and SEMA CONSTRUCTION, INC. through its Agent for Service of Process.

Plaintiff hereby attaches a copy of the Proposed PAGA Representative Action Complaint to be filed in the Riverside County Superior Court, as though fully set forth herewith setting out the specific provisions of the Labor Code Plaintiff alleges have been violated, including the facts and theories. All labor provisions in the Proposed PAGA Representative Action Complaint alleged to have been violated pertain to all entities and individuals named in the Complaints, even if not expressly specified.

Please advise within sixty (60) days of the post mark on this letter if the LWDA intends to investigate these claims. Thank you, and if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very Truly Yours,

Gregory Mauro
