MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Jamie Miguel Moen (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a putative class and representative action settlement with Defendant Automated Engineering Services, Inc. (“Defendant”) (Plaintiff and Defendant collectively referred to herein as “the Parties”) on behalf of himself and a proposed class of all persons who worked for Defendant Automated Engineering Services, Inc. as non-exempt, hourly paid employees in the State of California at any time from August 12, 2021, through June 10, 2026 (“Settlement Class” or “Class Members”). After participating in mediation, the Parties reached a settlement in the gross amount of $215,000.00 to resolve the foregoing action, subject to this Court’s final approval.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed settlement agreement between the Parties, the terms of which are set forth in the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”). (See Declaration of Enoch J. Kim (“Kim Decl.”), Exhibit 1). The Settlement Agreement was reached after the Parties engaged in formal and informal discovery and investigation, participated in mediation with a skilled mediator, and negotiated at arms-length through experienced counsel on both sides.

As discussed below, the proposed Settlement Agreement satisfies all criteria for preliminary approval under California law, falls well within the range of reasonableness, and is in the best interests of the Class. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court: (1) grant preliminary approval of the Settlement; (2) conditionally grant certification of the proposed Settlement Class solely for the purposes of Settlement, (3) approve the appointment of Apex Class Action, LLC (“Apex”) as Settlement Administrator, (4) authorize the Settlement Administrator to send the Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval (“Class Notice”), attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A, to the Class Members, (5) appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative and Plaintiff’s Counsel as Class Counsel, (6) and schedule a final fairness and approval of settlement hearing.

II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

A. Procedural History

On August 12, 2025, Plaintiff commenced a Class Action by filing a Complaint alleging eleven causes of action against Defendant for (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages and for All Hours Worked; (2) Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime Under Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (4) Rest Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226(a); (6) Failure To Maintain Records Required Under Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5; (7) Violation of Labor Code § 204; (8) Violation of Labor Code § 203; (9) Violation of Labor Code § 221; (10) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses Under Labor Code § 2802; and (11) Violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200 et seq. (the “Action”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 3.)

Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subd.(a), Plaintiff gave timely written notice to Defendant and California’s Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) by sending his PAGA Notice on August 12, 2025 (LWDA-CM-1118168-25) (Kim Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff subsequently filed his First Amended Complaint, which adds a twelfth cause of action for Penalties Under PAGA Labor Code § 2698, et seq. on October 16, 2025 (“Operative Complaint”). (Id.)

Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to pay all wages due by requiring Class Members to work off the clock, failed to pay overtime wages, failed to provide meal and rest breaks and premium wages for non-compliant meal and rest breaks, failed to reimburse business expenses, failed to keep required payroll records, failed to furnish accurate wage statements, unlawfully collected wages, and failed to timely pay wages including final wages. (Kim Decl., ¶ 5.)

B. Investigation

Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation and researched the facts and circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and applicable law. (Kim Decl., ¶ 6.) This required thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, in addition to the above-described research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.) After filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and claims giving rise to the action, including (1) meeting and conferring with defense counsel and conducting formal and

1 informal discovery; (2) reviewing and analyzing records and data, as well as employment-related 2 policies; (3) reviewing Plaintiff's personnel files and other documentation; (4) interviewing Plaintiff
3 regarding Defendant's policies and workplace; (5) researching the applicable law and potential 4 defenses; (6) constructing damage models based on interpretations of California law and the facts 5 and numbers provided by Defendant; and (7) reviewing information provided by Defendant in 6 response to informal discovery and in advance of the mediation. (Id.) The Parties conducted their 7 own evaluations of the potential recoveries based on the claims alleged in the Action, including 8 consulting experts. (Id.)

9 Defendant, for its part, vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, and 10 the propriety of class certification. (Kim Decl., ¶ 7.) After analyzing the relevant documents and 11 other gathered data, Class Counsel believed that this case was appropriate for resolution via 12 mediation. (Id.) Given the high level of risk present for both sides, the Parties elected to mediate 13 Plaintiff's claims and explore the possibility of settlement. (Id.)

14 C. Settlement Efforts

15 On March 12, 2026, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with mediator Jeffrey P.
16 Fuchsman, a respected and highly experienced mediator in wage and hour class actions. (Kim Decl., 17 ¶ 8.) During mediation, counsel for Plaintiff and Defendant discussed all aspects of the case, 18 including the risks of litigation and the risks to both Parties of proceeding with a class certification 19 motion, as well as the law on unpaid wages, meal periods, rest periods, reimbursements, wage 20 statements, and final pay. (Id.) Despite a full day of mediation, the Parties were unable to reach a 21 resolution. (Id.) With the continued assistance of mediator Fuchsman, the Parties continued 22 negotiations and accepted a mediator's proposal. (Id.) The Parties continued to work together 23 negotiating the long form settlement terms following mediation, as set forth in the Settlement
24 Agreement. (Id.)

25 Based on their own independent investigations and evaluations, Class Counsel is of the 26 opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and terms set forth herein, 27 considering the representative and class claims, and the risk of loss, is fair, reasonable, and adequate.
28 (Id. at ¶ 9.) Class Counsel is also of the opinion that the total consideration and payment set forth in

1 this Settlement Agreement is adequate in light of the uncertainties surrounding the risk of further 2 litigation, the possibility of losing class certification, that the PAGA claim could be deemed 3 unmanageable, and the defenses that Defendant has asserted and/or could assert as to the substantive 4 merit of the claims. (Id.) Based on the settlement negotiations, which were extensive and conducted 5 in good faith and at arm's length between attorneys with substantial experience litigating wage and 6 hour class action cases, the Settlement was the product of a non-collusive settlement process and 7 compromises in the interest of reaching a full and complete settlement. (Id.) As a result, Class
8 Counsel has determined that the Settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class. (Id.)

9 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

10 Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay 11 $215,000.00 ("Gross Settlement Amount" or "GSA") on a non-reversionary basis to settle and 12 release all claims asserted by Plaintiff in the Operative Complaint on behalf of the proposed 13 Settlement Class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 10, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 18.) The Gross Settlement
14 Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the PAGA 15 Settlement Amount, Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Class Representative Enhancement Payment, and 16 the Settlement Administration Costs. (Id. at ¶¶ 45–53.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not 17 include the employer's share of payroll taxes, which will be paid by Defendant in addition to the 18 Gross Settlement Amount. (Id. at ¶ 45.)

19 The Gross Settlement Amount was calculated with, and is premised on, the understanding 20 that Class Members worked approximately 5,000 Workweeks during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 63.)
21 If the actual number of Workweeks during the Class Period increases by more than 10% (i.e., to 22 more than 5,500 Workweeks), then the Gross Settlement Amount will be increased proportionally 23 by the number of Workweeks worked in excess of 10%. (Id.) For example, if the total number of 24 Workweeks increases by 15% over 5,000 Workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase 25 by 5%. (Id.) Alternatively, at its option, Defendant can avoid increasing the Gross Settlement 26 Amount by electing to end the Class Period and PAGA Period on the date by which the number of 27 Workweeks does not exceed 5,500. (Id.)

28 The Settlement Agreement defines the "Settlement Class" as all persons who worked for

1 Defendant Automated Engineering Services, Inc. as non-exempt, hourly paid employees in the State
2 of California at any time from August 12, 2021, through June 10, 2026. (Kim Decl., ¶ 11, Exhibit 1, 3 Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 5, 8.) The Settlement Agreement also defines “PAGA Members” as all 4 persons who worked for Defendant Automated Engineering Services, Inc. as non-exempt, hourly 5 paid employees in the State of California at any time from August 12, 2024, through June 10, 2026.
6 (Id. at ¶¶ 28, 30.)

7 The “Net Settlement Fund,” available for distribution to Participating Class Members, is the 8 Gross Settlement Amount, less the following payments in the amounts approved by the Court: the 9 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, the Class Representative Enhancement Payment, the PAGA Settlement 10 Amount, and Settlement Administration Costs. (Id. at ¶ 22.) The remainder is to be paid to 11 Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments. (Id.) These amounts are detailed as 12 follows:

- 13 • Attorneys’ Fees: Up to one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, or $71,666.67, to 14 Class Counsel as attorneys’ fees for the litigation and resolution of this Action (Kim Decl., 15 ¶ 11, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 46);
- 16 • Attorneys’ Costs: Reimbursement of actual expenses incurred to prosecute the Action, 17 which is currently estimated not to exceed $15,000.00 (Kim Decl., ¶ 11, Exhibit 1, 18 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 46);
- 19 • Class Representative Enhancement Payment: Up to $5,000.00 to Plaintiff as an award for 20 his service as the Class Representative (Kim Decl., ¶ 11, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, 21 ¶ 47);
- 22 • Settlement Administration Costs: Up to $5,490.00 to the Settlement Administrator for its 23 fees and costs to administer the Settlement (Kim Decl., ¶ 11, Exhibit 1, Settlement 24 Agreement, ¶ 48); and
- 25 • PAGA Settlement Amount: $15,000.00 for settlement of claims for civil penalties under 26 PAGA, with 35% allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments ($5,250.00) to be paid on a 27 pro-rata basis to the PAGA Members and 65% allocated to the LWDA ($9,750.00) to be 28 paid to the LWDA (Kim Decl., ¶ 11, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 49.)

1 If the Court approves the above allocations from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net 2 Settlement Fund is estimated to be $102,843.33 (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.) Each Class Member's share of 3 the Net Settlement Fund ("Individual Class Payment") will be calculated by (a) dividing the Net
4 Settlement Fund by the aggregate total number of Workweeks, resulting in the "Workweek Value," 5 and (b) multiplying each individual Class Member's total number of Workweeks by the Workweek 6 Value. (Kim Decl., ¶ 12, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 53.) For the approximately 100 Class 7 Members (if no exclusions), the average Individual Class Payment, using a straight average, is 8 $1,028.43. (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.) If the Court approves a lesser amount for any of the above requested 9 allocations from the Net Settlement Fund, none of the Gross Settlement Amount would revert to 10 Defendant. (Kim Decl., ¶ 12, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 45.) Instead, the remainder will be 11 added to the Net Settlement Fund to be distributed to Participating Class Members. (Id.)

12 Not later than ten (10) days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement,
13 Defendant will deliver the Class List to the Settlement Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft
14 Excel spreadsheet. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 56.) Not later than ten (10)
15 days after receiving the Class List, the Settlement Administrator will send to all Class Members
16 identified in the Class List, via first-class United States Postal Service ("USPS") mail, the Class
17 Notice substantially in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A. (Kim Decl., ¶ 18 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 57.) The Class Notice includes a summary of the case and 19 settlement terms and provides Class Members with detailed instructions on how to exclude 20 themselves, object to the settlement, and dispute the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay 21 Periods attributed to each Class Member per Defendant's records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, 22 Settlement Agreement, Exhibit A, Class Notice). Class Members will have sixty (60) days from the 23 mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional fourteen (14) calendar days for Class Members whose 24 Class Notice is re-mailed) to opt out of the Settlement, object to the Settlement, and/or dispute the 25 number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods ("Response Deadline"). (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 26 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 40.)

27 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS APPROPRIATE

28 Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage and hour actions as class actions. Prince v.

1 CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29
2 Cal. 3d 462. Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of 3 class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 473-75.) The 4 decision to certify a class is a procedural one and should be based on the allegations in the operative 5 complaint, and not on the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil 6 Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.

7 To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for 8 maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-9 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be represented.
10 See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab Company (1967)
11 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704. These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

12 A. There Is a Numerous and Ascertainable Class

13 Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size of 14 the class, and the means available for identifying class members. See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal. 3d at 15 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego County (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271.
16 Class members are “ascertainable” when they may be readily identified without unreasonable 17 expense or time.

18 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that the 19 numerosity and ascertainability elements are satisfied here. Class Members are all persons who 20 worked for Defendant Automated Engineering Services, Inc. as non-exempt, hourly paid employees 21 in the State of California at any time from August 12, 2021, through June 10, 2026. (Kim Decl., ¶ 22 15, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 5, 8.) At the time of executing the Settlement Agreement, 23 Defendant has identified 100 Class Members based on a review of its payroll and personnel records.
24 (Kim Decl., ¶ 15.)

25 Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

26 B. There Is a Well-Defined Community of Interest

27 A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and 28 fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

1 [D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each 2 member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of any 3 recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The mere 4 fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself preclude 5 a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as every 6 member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate 7 numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right 8 to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which 9 determined in plaintiffs' favor whatever questions were common to 10 the class.

11
12 Id. at 809.

13 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that common 14 issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiff, and the Settlement 15 Class is united in its proof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 16.) Because Plaintiff has alleged a single scheme, “the 16 relevant proof [does] not vary among class members” and “clearly presents a common question 17 fundamental to all class members.” See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation (SDNY 18 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, (SDNY 19 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518). California courts show “no hesitancy” in inferring class-wide causation, 20 class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common course of action has been shown. B.W.I.
21 Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350. This inference “eliminates the need for each class member 22 to prove individually the consequences of the defendants’ actions to him or her.” Id. at 1351 (quoting 23 Rosack v. Volvo of America Corp (1982) 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 753 [emphasis added]).

24 This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendant’s alleged failure to pay 25 wages and overtime due to allegedly common Class Members to work off the clock, failure to pay 26 overtime wages, failure to provide meal and rest breaks and premium wages for non-compliant meal 27 and rest breaks, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to furnish accurate wage statements,

1 failure to keep required payroll records, unlawful collection of wages, and failure to timely pay wages
2 including final wages. (Kim Decl., ¶ 16.) Plaintiff contends Defendant's practices affected Class 3 Members in the same way and presents questions that are suitable for common adjudication because 4 all Class Members were subject to the same employment policies and practices. (Id.) The outcome
5 of litigation in this matter depends upon questions that are common to Class Members. (Id.)

6 C. The Named Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical

7 A Class Representative's claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, or 8 course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their claims 9 rest on the same legal theories. The class representative's claims must be "typical" but not necessarily 10 identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative is similarly 11 situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class members. Classen v.
12 Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc. (1987) 191 13 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 ("[I]t has never been the law in California that the class representative must 14 have identical interests with the class members."). Thus, it is not necessary that the class 15 representative should have personally incurred all the damages suffered by each of the other class 16 members. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228.

17 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 18 Plaintiff's claims are typical of Class Members' claims because they arose from the same factual 19 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Kim Decl., ¶ 17.) Thus, Plaintiff's claims are typical 20 of the claims of the putative Settlement Class. (Id.)

21 D. Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representative

22 As detailed below, Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their 23 clients and the Settlement Class zealously, and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim Decl., ¶ 18.) The 24 Class Representative's interests are aligned with those of the Class Members, as he has suffered the 25 same injuries as the Class Members and has no conflicts of interest. (Id.) Plaintiff has not shrunken
26 from this responsibility. (Id.) Indeed, Plaintiff has devoted a substantial amount of time and energy 27 to litigating this Action and effectuating a settlement. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel and the Class 28 Representative are adequate.

E. Predominance and Superiority

Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the Settlement Class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 19.) As explained, supra, Plaintiff alleges there are common issues of law and fact given that Plaintiff and all Class Members were subjected to the same policies and pay practices during the relevant time period. (Id.) Plaintiff and Class Members seek meal and rest premiums, unpaid wages and overtime, and penalties for work performed as non-exempt employees for Defendant. (Id.) Plaintiff alleges that these issues are suitable for common adjudication because all Class Members were allegedly subject to the same employment policies, and Plaintiff contends the practices applied uniformly to all Class Members. (Id.)

Plaintiff contends that class resolution is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, as there is little interest or incentive for Class Members to individually control the prosecution of separate actions. (Kim Decl., ¶ 20.) Although the alleged injuries resulting from Defendant's policies and practices are real and significant, the cost of individually litigating each such case against Defendant would easily exceed the value of any relief that could be obtained by any one Class Member individually. (Id.) If Class Members are forced to litigate their claims individually, it would potentially result in 100 individual actions against Defendant, each for relatively small amounts. (Id.) Hence, an individual suit would prove uneconomical for potential plaintiffs because litigation costs would dwarf a potential recovery. (Id.)

V. THE THREE STEP APPROVAL PROCESS

California Rule of Court 3.769 requires court approval of the settlement of class action lawsuits. Preliminary approval is merely the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for settlements of class actions. See Manual for Complex Litigation, Second § 30.44 (1993); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The second approval step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all Class Members. Id. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and Class Members may be heard. Id.

The determination of whether a settlement should be preliminarily approved requires "basic information about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.” 1 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. However, the record need not 2 contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that the class could recover. See

3 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 409 (“Kullar 4 does not,... require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record which allows “an 5 understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the 6 litigation.”). “If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive 7 negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class 8 representatives or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then the 9 court should direct that notice be given to the Class Members of a formal fairness hearing, at which 10 evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.” Manual for Complex 11 Litigation, Second § 30.44, at 229.

12 In deciding whether to approve a proposed class action settlement, the Court must find that a 13 proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable” and falls within the “range of approval.”
14 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801-02. The trial court considers all relevant factors, such as “the strength 15 of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 16 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery 17 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 18 governmental participant, and the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.” Id. The 19 Settlement satisfies all of these requirements.

20 VI. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

21 The Court’s decision to preliminarily approve a settlement is granted great deference as an 22 exercise within its broad discretion. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 23 234-235. As a matter of public policy, courts both encourage the use of the class action device and 24 favor settlement over continued litigation. See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 25 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure 26 of justice in our judicial system.”); Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 27
28

1 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class action litigation
2 is concerned.”). Applying the above factors, the proposed Settlement provides a substantial benefit 3 to the Settlement Class. It is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved.

4 A. The Settlement is the Result of Serious, Informed, Non-Collusive Negotiations

5 The proposed settlement was reached as a result of arm’s-length negotiations after the 6 completion of pertinent discovery and the exchange of necessary class data. (Kim Decl. ¶ 22.) The 7 negotiations have been, at all times, adversarial and non-collusive in nature. (Id.) See, 4 Newberg on 8 Class Actions § 13:45 (5th ed.) (due to the preference of settlement over litigation, “a court will 9 presume that a proposed class action settlement is fair when certain factors are present, particularly 10 evidence that the settlement is the product of arms-length negotiation, untainted by collusion.”).
11 Although Plaintiff steadfastly maintains that his claims are meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that 12 there were substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding with litigation. (Id.) As discussed below, 13 Defendant presented multiple defenses to Plaintiff’s claims, both on the merits and with respect to 14 class certification. (Id.) Thus, while Plaintiff was prepared to litigate these claims through class 15 certification, and ultimately trial, success was far from certain. (Id.) Assistance from a well-respected 16 mediator ensured negotiations between the Parties were non-collusive and well-informed. (Id.)

17 B. Extent of Discovery and Stage of Proceedings

18 As stated above, the Parties engaged in substantial formal and informal discovery before the 19 Settlement was reached to allow them to fully evaluate the class claims and Defendant’s defenses.
20 (Id. at ¶ 23.) This litigation has reached the stage where the Parties have a clear view of their 21 respective strengths and weaknesses in this case. (Id.)

22 C. The Strength of Plaintiff’s Case and the Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely 23 Duration of Any Litigation

24 Plaintiff’s claims are based on Defendant’s alleged failure to pay wages (including overtime), 25 failure to provide meal and rest periods, failure to pay final wages when required, failure to provide 26 accurate wage statements, failure to reimburse business expenses, and largely derivative claims 27 under the UCL and PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 24.)

28 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members at least minimum

1 wages for all hours worked and proper overtime wages for hours worked in excess of eight hours in 2 a day and 40 hours in a week. (Kim Decl., ¶ 25.) Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required Plaintiff
3 and Class Members to be prepared to begin work at scheduled shift start times or be reprimanded, 4 thus requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to arrive at the facility well before their start time and 5 before clocking in. (Id.) Further, Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff and Class Members were contacted 6 by Defendant's managers regarding work-related matters and scheduling after work hours and when 7 they were off duty, for which they were not paid. (Id.)

8 Defendant contends that it instructed Class Members to record all hours worked, that it paid 9 Class Members for all reported hours worked, that any off-the-work was performed without 10 Defendant's knowledge and was de minimis, and that it paid wages to Class Members at the proper 11 rates. (Kim Decl., ¶ 26.) Defendant contends that off-the-clock work allegations will be difficult to 12 certify because Defendant has a lawful policy prohibiting off-the-clock work. (Id.) Defendant also 13 argues that, given its written policies and practices, any unrecorded hours are likely subject to 14 individualized inquiry and unlikely to be certified. (Id.) Given the difficulty in certifying this claim, 15 Class Counsel applied a significant discount to damages based on this theory. (Id.)

16 Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to provide proper meal breaks to Plaintiff and 17 Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 27.) Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required Plaintiff and Class 18 Members to record meal periods that appeared compliant and automatically deducted meal period 19 time regardless of whether a lawful meal period was actually provided. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges 20 that Class Members routinely took late, short, interrupted, and/or missed meal periods due to 21 management demands, which included responding to work related calls and inquiries. (Id.)

22 Defendant contends that Class Members were authorized, permitted, and never denied the 23 opportunity to take their meal periods, and that any deviations from their scheduled meal breaks were 24 at the voluntary election of Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28.) Defendant also contends that it had a 25 lawful meal period policy that applied to Class Members. (Id.) Defendant further contends that the 26 meal break claim requires individualized inquiries, which would preclude class certification. (Id.) If 27 Defendant's contentions are proven true and prevail in trial, the likely outcome would be no recovery
28 for the Class Members on the meal break claim. (Id.)

1 Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant did not provide Class Members with paid 10-minute rest 2 breaks for every four hours or a major fraction thereof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 29.) Plaintiff contends that 3 Class Members were not permitted to leave Defendant's premises during rest periods and that 4 Defendant failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take their required duty-
5 free, net ten-minute rest periods. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges that if Plaintiff and Class Members 6 ever did take a rest break, it was often interrupted by client demands and calls and instructions from 7 management. (Id.)

8 Defendant maintains that it authorized and permitted Class Members to take duty-free rest 9 breaks of at least ten minutes for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 10 30.) Defendant contends that there are no restrictions, in policy or practice, on where employees can 11 go during their rest breaks. (Id.) Considering that, unlike meal periods, rest breaks need not be 12 recorded, these violations would likely be difficult to prove at trial and potentially depress the 13 damages ultimately awarded. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel applied significant and appropriate 14 discounts to the rest break claim. (Id.)

15 Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to use 16 their cellular phones to respond to calls from Defendant's managers for which they were not 17 reimbursed. (Kim Decl., ¶ 31.) Defendant maintains that Plaintiff and Class Members were not 18 required to use their cellular phones and that any unreimbursed business expenses pertaining to 19 personal cell phone usage were not necessary expenditures as required by Labor Code section 2802.
20 (Id.)

21 As for the wage statement and waiting time penalties claims, Defendant contends that these 22 claims are merely derivative of the underlying claims and that Plaintiff and Class Members would 23 be unable to first establish liability for the underlying claims for the reasons described above. (Kim 24 Decl., ¶ 32.) Defendant further contends that even if they could first establish liability for the 25 underlying claims, Plaintiff and Class Members would be unable to establish that Defendant's 26 conduct was willful and knowing as required by the relevant statutes since Defendant acted in good 27 faith to provide accurate wage statements and pay all wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members.
28 (Id.) Thus, Defendant contends that the wage statement and waiting time penalties claims have little to no value. (Id.)

Similarly, Defendant contends that the PAGA claim is also derivative of the underlying claims in the Action and ultimately fails because the underlying claims have no merit. (Kim Decl., ¶ 33.) Defendant also contends that even if Plaintiff and Class Members could establish Labor Code violations, the Court has the discretion to award less than the maximum civil penalty amount and would award substantially less civil penalties here because Defendant acted in good faith to comply with the relevant wage and hour laws and any violations were minor and technical in nature. (Id.)

Defendant generally denies all claims alleged in the Action and further denies that class and/or representative treatment is appropriate for any purpose other than this Settlement and that it complied with all applicable laws. (Kim Decl., ¶ 34.) However, after careful consideration, Defendant has concluded that further litigation would be protracted and expensive and that it is desirable that the Action be fully and finally settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions herein. (Id.)

As stated above, while Plaintiff and Class Counsel contend the claims asserted in the Action have merit, they also acknowledge the expense, delay, and risks of continued litigation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 35.) Although the Parties engaged in significant informal discovery in advance of mediation, the Parties still had significant discovery to complete had the matter not been settled. (Id.) This would have required the expenditure of substantial time and resources by both Parties that would have very likely spanned several years. (Id.) Even if Plaintiff was to certify the class, the Parties would incur considerably more attorney fees and costs through a possible decertification motion, trial, and possible appeal. (Id.) This Settlement avoids those risks and the accompanying expense. (Id.)

D. The Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial

Plaintiff had not yet filed his motion for class certification, and as such, the extent to which Plaintiff's proposed Settlement Class was certifiable is somewhat speculative. (Kim Decl., ¶ 36.) Absent a settlement, there was a risk that there would not be a certified class at the time of trial, or if there were, it could consist of a significantly smaller group of employees than the proposed Settlement Class, resulting in less overall recovery. (Id.)

1 Finally, in class actions, decertification is always a possibility, and there is always a risk that 2 a trial of this magnitude can become unmanageable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 37.) Cases like Duran v. U.S.
3 Bank Nat. Assn. (2014) 59 Cal. 4th 1, 34 addresses the complexity of using statistical samples in 4 class actions and demonstrates that decertification is a real risk that Class Counsel must consider.
5 (Id.) A class trial would have also required expert witnesses, the accrual of extensive litigation costs, 6 and the commitment of extensive further time and financial resources. (Id.) Finally, given the 7 complexity and unsettled nature of the issues, it is likely that any outcome at trial would have resulted 8 in a lengthy and costly appeal. (Id.) An appeal would result in further delay for the Class Members 9 who have already waited years for resolution in this matter. (Id.) Risk and legal uncertainty must be 10 dealt with in any litigation, and this Settlement was the product of a compromise accounting for those 11 risks and uncertainties. (Id.)

12 E. The Presence of a Governmental Participant

13 As of the date of this submission, the LWDA's website is non-functional. (Kim Decl., ¶ 38.) 14 Accordingly, Class Counsel will submit the Settlement Agreement and this Motion to the LWDA as 15 soon as the LWDA's website becomes functional again pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). (Id.)

16 F. The Amount Offered in Settlement is Fair Given the Potential Value of the 17 Claims

18 Based on an analysis of Plaintiff's time and pay records and a sampling of time and pay 19 records for the Settlement Class, Plaintiff estimated the potential realistic exposure for the main 20 claims as follows: $81,266.25 for the unpaid wages claims, including minimum and overtime wages, 21 due to off the clock work; $97,519.50 for meal period violations; $32,506.50 for rest period 22 violations; $375.00 for reimbursements; $8,930.00 for wage statement penalties; $24,336.00 in 23 waiting time penalties; and $18,140.00 for PAGA penalties. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 41-63.) As such, the total 24 estimated realistic exposure Defendant could face is $263,073.25. (Id. at ¶ 66.)

25 The Gross Settlement Amount of $215,000.00 represents a recovery for the Settlement Class 26 of approximately 81.7% of the total realistic exposure Plaintiff estimated Defendant could face on 27 the primary claims in this case. (Id.) Plaintiff and Class Counsel submit that this is an excellent result 28 in the face of uncertainty and the prospects of protracted and contested litigation through class certification, summary judgment, and trial, and particularly in light of all of the factors described above. (Id.)

G. A Balance of Risk Factors and Kullar Analysis Support Approval

In deciding whether to approve the settlement, the Court must balance these risk factors against an “understanding of the amount in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130, 133; Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-09. The court “must stop short of the detailed and thorough investigation that it would undertake if it were actually trying the case” Munoz, at 408. Class Counsel used the comprehensive data and documents provided to perform an analysis of the potential exposure Defendant faced on Plaintiff’s main class-wide claims, establishing the realistic range of outcomes in this case. As noted above, the Gross Settlement Amount represents a recovery of approximately 81.7% of the estimated total realistic exposure facing Defendant. (Kim Decl., ¶ 66.)

There was a very real prospect that nothing would be recovered by the Settlement Class if litigation continued and class certification were ultimately denied. At the same time, further litigation would require the expenditure of significant time and financial resources, and there is always the possibility of adverse developments in the law and the likelihood of extended battles in both the trial court and the courts of appeal. Settlement is a prudent compromise that benefits the Class Members promptly.

H. Experience and Views of Counsel

Experienced counsel, operating at arm’s length, have weighed the strengths of the case, examined all the issues and risks of litigation, and endorsed the proposed settlement. Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their clients zealously, and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 9, 18, 72-77.) Class Counsel submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable in view of the risks and other considerations addressed and is well-suited for final approval upon completion of the administration process. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 9, 77.)

1 VII. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS FAIR AND 2 REASONABLE

3 “‘At the conclusion of a class action, the class representatives are eligible for a special 4 payment in recognition of their service to the class.” 5 Newberg on Class Actions § 17:1 (5th ed.).

5 Plaintiff is entitled to a reasonable enhancement payment for his efforts and initiative in 6 bringing and helping to prosecute this action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 68.) Plaintiff spent significant time better 7 apprising himself of his rights, deciding whether remedial action should be taken and how it should 8 be taken, searching for attorneys, and contacting Class Counsel, who spent many hours with Plaintiff 9 discussing the case and the law. (Id.)

10 Both before and after the filing of this lawsuit, Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel to 11 discuss every aspect of his case. (Kim Decl., ¶ 69.) Plaintiff provided Class Counsel with information 12 about Defendant and about the industry generally, produced and reviewed documents, identified 13 witnesses, consulted with Class Counsel regarding litigation strategy, participated in the mediation 14 process, monitored the progress of the litigation with Class Counsel, and reviewed and signed the 15 Settlement Agreement. (Id.)

16 In light of the foregoing, Class Counsel believes that the $5,000.00 Class Representative 17 Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff is fair and reasonable. (Id.)

18 VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE PROVIDES ADEQUATE NOTICE TO THE 19 CLASS MEMBERS

20 To be deemed proper, a notice must provide the Class Members with sufficient information 21 to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement. Mullane v. Central 22 Hanover Bank & Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314. The notice must apprise the Class Members 23 of the pendency of the action; reasonably convey information regarding the settlement and the Class 24 Members’ rights, entitlements, and obligations; and afford Class Members the opportunity to present 25 their objections. Id.

26 The proposed Class Notice includes a summary of the case and settlement terms and provides 27 Class Members with detailed instructions on how to exclude themselves, object to the settlement, 28

1 and dispute the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods attributed to each Class Member
2 per Defendant's records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, Exhibit A, Class
3 Notice.)

4 The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether it has "a reasonable chance 5 of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members." Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 6 Cal.App.3d 960, 974. Here, the Class Notice will be sent via first-class USPS mail to each of the 7 Class Members based on Defendant's records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶
8 57.) Not later than ten (10) days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement,
9 Defendant will deliver the Class List to the Settlement Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft
10 Excel spreadsheet. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 56.) Not later than ten (10)
11 days after receiving the Class List, the Settlement Administrator will send to all Class Members
12 identified in the Class List, via first-class USPS mail, the Class Notice substantially in the form 13 attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement 14 Agreement, ¶ 57.)

15 IX. THE STIPULATED AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE 16 REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

17 Class Counsel respectfully requests, without opposition from Defendant, an award of 18 $71,666.67 for attorneys' fees and up to $15,000.00 for reasonable expenses incurred to prosecute 19 the Action, subject to approval by the Court. (Kim Decl., ¶ 67.)

20 Class Counsel submits it has the requisite experience, knowledge, and resources to serve as 21 Class Counsel and to zealously represent the Settlement Class. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 72-77.) Class Counsel 22 has incurred substantial hours in prosecuting this action on a contingency basis and will not receive 23 any compensation for their efforts until recovery is obtained for the Settlement Class. (Kim Decl. ¶ 24 67.) In addition, Class Counsel's efforts in reaching the Settlement on behalf of the Settlement Class 25 will confer a significant benefit to the Settlement Class. (Id.) As such, the requested Attorneys' Fees 26 and Costs are reasonable.

1 X. ACTION REQUESTED AS A PART OF THE MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY
2 APPROVAL

3 The Parties respectfully request this Court, as part of the preliminary approval process, to 4 grant the following relief and make the following orders:

- 5 1. Review and approve the Settlement Agreement;
- 6 2. Review and approve the Class Notice, attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A;
- 7 3. Consider and determine that the proposed class action settlement as set forth in the 8 Settlement Agreement preliminarily appears fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- 9 4. Enter an order conditionally certifying the action as a class action for settlement purposes 10 only and preliminarily approving the proposed class action settlement and the Settlement Agreement;
- 11 5. Approve and appoint D.Law, Inc. to serve as Class Counsel for settlement purposes;
- 12 6. Approve and appoint Plaintiff to serve as the Class Representative for settlement purposes;
- 13 7. Approve and appoint Apex as the Settlement Administrator to handle the notice and claims 14 procedures as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;
- 15 8. Approve the proposed settlement's allocation of funds to claims made under PAGA;
- 16 9. Order Defendant to provide the Class List to Apex as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;
- 17 10. Order Apex to mail the Class Notice to Class Members; and
- 18 11. Set a date for the Final Approval Hearing.
