1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This class action and PAGA settlement, arising out of Plaintiffs' allegations that 4 Defendants violated California's wage and hour laws, is sought on behalf of 192 non-exempt
5 employees who worked in California for Defendants between May 16, 2019 and July 25, 2025.

6 Pursuant to the preliminary approval order, the notice of class settlement and related 7 settlement documents were mailed to the class on August 22, 2025. Not one class member has 8 opted out of the settlement and no class member has objected to the settlement. (See Declaration 9 of Jarrod Salinas ("Salinas Decl.") ¶¶ 8-9).

10 There is no claim form requirement, and each member of the class has the right to receive 11 compensation, with no reversion to the Defendants. The gross settlement is $220,000. The net 12 amount to be paid to class members (after payment of class counsel fees and expenses, 13 settlement administration costs, Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") penalties, and 14 Plaintiffs' enhancement awards), is approximately $107,511. Each class member's share of the 15 settlement is based on 3,550 workweeks, and each shall receive, on average, approximately 16 $560.

17 II. THE SETTLEMENT

18 The class members entitled to the settlement fund are all current and former non-exempt 19 employees who have performed work in the state of California for Defendants at any time from 20 May 16, 2019 to July 25, 2025. There are 192 class members.

21 The settlement fund is all in (except for the employer's share of payroll taxes, which 22 Defendants shall pay in addition to the $220,000 settlement), there is no claim form requirement, 23 and no residual will revert to Defendants. (See Bartz Decl., ¶ 3.) Not one class member has 24 opted out, and no class member has objected to the settlement. (Salinas Decl., ¶¶ 8-9). In the 25 event a class member does not negotiate (cash) his or her settlement check, the claims 26 administrator shall distribute the unclaimed funds to the California State Controller's Unclaimed 27 Property Fund. (Bartz Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 4.4.3).

1 The payment to the Settlement Class Members will be characterized eighty percent 2 interest and penalties, and twenty percent wages. (Bartz Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 3.6.1). The administrator
3 will issue W-2 statements for the wage portion of the settlement, and a form 1099 for all amounts 4 paid as penalties and interest. (Ibid).

5 Based upon Class Counsel's independent analysis and investigation in this matter, the 6 Settlement Class will be compensated based on each member's respective number of workweeks 7 worked during the Class Period. The total number of workweeks is 3,550.

8 Based on the settlement terms, there will be an approximate net settlement fund of 9 $107,511. In exchange for their payment, the class will release Defendants from any and all 10 claims that were alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the 11 Action and Plaintiffs' PAGA Notice as set forth in the Settlement Agreement at Paragraph 5.3.
12 (See Bartz Decl., Ex. 1.) The named Plaintiffs will, in addition to releasing claims alleged in the 13 lawsuit, provide general releases of all claims pursuant to Civil Code section 1542 as set forth in 14 Section 5.1 and 5.2. (Ibid).

15 The all-in settlement fund will also include all of the attorneys' fees and costs allowed by 16 this Court. (Bartz Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 3.4). The attorneys' fees shall not exceed one-third of the 17 $220,000 settlement fund, or $73,333. (Id., ¶ 3.4). The settlement fund will also be used to pay 18 class counsel's costs of $12,206, as well as settlement administration costs of $6,950. (Id., ¶¶ 19 3.4-3.5).

20 The PAGA allocation of the settlement is $5,000, of which $3,750 (75%) will be 21 distributed to the Labor Workforce and Development Agency (LWDA), with the remaining 22 portion - $1,250 (25%) - going to PAGA Members (all allegedly aggrieved persons who worked 23 for Defendants at any time from February 16, 2022 through July 25, 2025). (Bartz Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 24 3.7).

25 The settlement also includes Plaintiffs' class representative enhancements. Based on 26 Plaintiffs' work in connection with this case, including connecting Class Counsel with other 27 witnesses, meeting and conferring with Class Counsel regarding legal strategies, and assisting 28

1 with developing the claims and theories in this case, and related work, Plaintiffs seek a total of 2 $15,000 (i.e. $7,500 each). (Bartz Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 3.3).

3 In summary, the settlement fund is allocated as follows:

- 4 (1) Net settlement fund: $107,511;
5 (2) Attorney's fees and costs: $73,333 in attorneys' fees and $12,206 in costs;
6 (3) Settlement administrator expenses of $6,950;
7 (4) PAGA payment: $5,000 (3,750 to the LWDA, and $1,250 to aggrieved 8 employees); and 9 (5) Class representative enhancements: $15,000 for the named Plaintiffs.

10 III. FINAL SETTLEMENT APPROVAL IS APPROPRIATE IN THIS CASE

11 Pursuant to both state and federal rules of civil procedure, "a class action shall not be 12 dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed 13 dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the Court 14 directs" (Cal. Civ. Code § 1781(f); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e).)

15 To prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a 16 class action requires court approval. (See Malibu Outrigger Bd. of Governors v. Superior Court 17 (1980) 103 Cal. App. 3d 573, 578-579.) The purpose of the requirement is the protection of 18 those class members, including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due 19 regard by the negotiating parties. (See Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Comm. (9th Cir. 1982) 20 688 F.2d 615, 625, cert. denied 459 U.S. 1217.) To determine whether to grant final approval to 21 a proposed class action under Civil Code section 382, the Court's overriding concern is whether 22 the proposed settlement is "fair, adequate, and reasonable." (Dunk v. Ford Motor Company 23 (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801 (quoting Officers of Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at 623-624).)
24 The settlement of a class action follows in three stages: (1) preliminary approval of the proposed 25 settlement; (2) notice to class members; and (3) final approval or fairness hearing at which 26 evidence and argument may be heard on the fairness of the settlement. Here, this Court already 27 preliminarily approved the settlement, notice was provided to all class members, no class 28 members have objected, and no class members have opted out.

1 A. The Settlement is Presumed Fair

2 A presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's 3 length bargaining, (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 4 act intelligently, (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation, and (4) the percentage of 5 objectors is small. (See Dunk, supra, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.) A court may also consider 6 relevant factors such as the strength of the plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and 7 likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the 8 amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, 9 the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant and the reaction 10 of the class members to the proposed settlement. (See Officers of Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at 11 624.) "This list is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Due regard should be 12 given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties." (Dunk, supra, 13 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1801.) Moreover, the trial court has broad powers to determine whether a 14 proposed class action settlement is fair. (See Mallick v. Superior Court (1979) 89 Cal. App. 3d 15 434.)

16 B. The Settlement Was Reached Through Arm's Length Negotiations

17 This settlement is the result of arms-length and hard-fought negotiations. Defendants 18 have denied and continue to deny all of the claims and contentions alleged in this case.
19 Nonetheless, Defendants have agreed to settle this case in the manner and upon the terms and 20 conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement in order to avoid the expense, inconvenience, 21 and burden of further legal proceedings, and the uncertainties of trial and appeals. (Bartz Decl., 22 ¶¶ 11-12).

23 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize the expense of continuing to litigate and trying 24 this case against Defendants through possible appeals which could take several years. Class 25 Counsel are also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged 26 defenses to, the claims asserted in the case. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiffs and Class 27 Counsel have determined that the settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement is in the best 28 interest of the Class Members. (Bartz Decl., ¶¶ 11-12).

1 Here the litigation has been hard fought and displayed capable and experienced advocacy 2 on both sides. “There is likewise every reason to conclude that settlement negotiations were 3 vigorously conducted at arm’s length and without any suggestion of undue influence.” (In re
4 Wash. Public Power Supply System Sec. Litig. (D. AZ 1989) 720 F.Supp. 1379, 1392).

5 C. Plaintiffs Conducted Sufficient Investigation and Discovery To Warrant
6 Settlement

7 The stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed are important 8 factors for courts to consider in determining whether a settlement is fair, adequate and 9 reasonable. (See In re Warner Communications Sec. Lit. (S.D.N.Y. 1985) 618 F.Supp. 735, 741, 10 affd., 198 F.2d 35 (2d Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility (N.D. Cal. 1980) 87 F.R.D.
11 15, 18, affd., 661 F.2d 939 (9th Cir. 1981).)

12 The agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient 13 information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and 14 the results that could be obtained through further litigation. Class Counsel obtained substantial 15 formal and informal discovery from Defendants, including personnel records and pay data for 16 Plaintiffs, employment policies, and timekeeping and payroll records for the class members.
17 (Bartz Decl., ¶ 10).

18 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, 19 Class Counsel is of the opinion that the settlement with Defendants for the consideration and on 20 the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the 21 best interest of the class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of 22 significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendants, and numerous issues raised on appeal and 23 potential appeals down the road. Defendants and their counsel also agree that the settlement is 24 fair and in the best interest of the Settlement Class Members. There can be no doubt that counsel 25 for both parties possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the 26 likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further 27 litigation. (Bartz Decl., ¶¶ 11-12).

1 D. Class Counsel Is Experienced In Similar Litigation And Endorse The
2 Settlement

3 The view of attorneys advocating for the class is “entitled to significant weight.” 4 (Fisher Bros. v. Cambridge-Lee Industries, Inc. (E.D. Pa. 1985) 630 F.Supp. 482, 488; see also 5 Ellis, supra, 87 F.R.D. at 18.) Class counsel has significant experience in class actions and 6 employment litigation, including wage and hour class actions. (Bartz Decl., ¶ 13-17; Declaration 7 of Thomas Rutledge (“Rutledge Decl.”), ¶¶ 21-25). As such, they are experienced and qualified 8 to evaluate the claims and defenses in this case, and unequivocally support the settlement
9 reached herein. The recovery for the class is fair, reasonable and adequate, and Class Counsel 10 supports the settlement. (Bartz Decl., ¶ 11; Rutledge Decl., ¶ 84).

11 E. There Are No Objectors To The Settlement

12 Significantly, there has not been a single objection to the settlement, and not one class 13 member has asked to be excluded from the settlement. (Salinas Decl., ¶¶ 8-9). This alone is a 14 testament to the fairness and adequacy of the settlement.

15 F. The Strength of Plaintiffs’ Case, The Amount Offered In Settlement, and 16 The Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Duration of Further Litigation Favors
17 Settlement

18 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement.
19 (Hanlon v. Chrysler Comm. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026. Moreover, “[t]he expense and 20 possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] 21 settlement.” (In re Mega Financial Corp. Securities Litigation (9th Cir. 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 22 458.)

23 Pursuant to Kullar v. Footlocker Retail Inc., 168 Cal. App 4th 116, 118 and Dunk v. Ford 24 Motor Co., (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, Class Counsel previously set forth in detail the 25 settlement’s reasonableness. (See generally, Declaration of Thomas Rutledge submitted in 26 support of preliminary approval, ROA # 99). Plaintiffs recognize the expense and length of 27 continued proceedings necessary to continue the litigation against Defendants through trial and 28 through any possible appeals. Plaintiffs have also taken into account the uncertainty and risk of

1 denial of motion for class certification and the uncertain outcomes resulting from further 2 litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. (Ibid.)

3 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel carefully weighed the likelihood of the class receiving 4 substantially greater benefit if the litigation continued, and concluded – in light of the very real 5 and substantial risks – settlement on the proposed terms and without prolonged and costly 6 litigation was in the best interests of the class. The overall $220,000 recovery represents a 7 significant percentage of Defendants’ potential exposure and, given Defendants’ multi-layered 8 defenses and all other potential risks of continued litigation, a total recovery for the class of 9 $220,000, which will result in average award of approximately $560 per class member, is a 10 significant result well within the range of reasonableness considering all potential outcomes, and 11 it will provide direct monetary awards to all Class Members without further delay. (Bartz Decl., 12 ¶ 12).

13 Importantly, the mere fact that a settlement does not provide the same recovery as might 14 be achieved at trial is not a proper indicator of whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and 15 adequate. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250 (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the 16 settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially 17 narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class 18 settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which 19 each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation”); 7-Eleven Owners for Fair 20 Franchising v Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1150 (“The fact that a proposed 21 settlement may amount to only a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and of itself, 22 mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be disapproved”); White v.
23 Experian Information Solutions, Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2011) 803 F.Supp.2d 1086, 1098 (rejecting 24 contention settlement was not fair and reasonable even though it represented 99% discount off 25 the maximum value of the claims); Facebook, Inc. (9th Cir. 2012) 696 F.3d 811, 819 (“[T]he 26 question whether a settlement is fundamentally fair . . . is different from the question whether the 27 settlement is perfect in the estimation of the reviewing court”). Moreover, the proposed 28

1 settlement is non-reversionary and will provide immediate benefits to the Class Members 2 without a claims process. White, 803 F.Supp.2d at 1098; c.f., Federal Judicial Center, Managing
3 Class Action Litigation: A Pocket Guide for Judges (3d ed. 2010) at 20, available at http://
4 www.fjc.gov/sites/default/files/2012/ClassGd3.pdf (reversionary provisions and/or cumbersome 5 claims process may indicate lack of fairness). Plaintiffs and their counsel submit the settlement is 6 within the “range of reasonableness,” and is fair and adequate for the Class.

7 G. All Class Members Have Received Proper Notice of the Settlement

8 Pursuant to the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order dated July 25, 2025, the Notice of 9 Class Action Settlement was sent out to all 192 Class Members via first-class mail by Claims 10 Administrator Phoenix Class Action Administrators (“Phoenix”) on August 22, 2025. (Salinas 11 Decl., ¶ 5). Before this date, the name, last known address, and social security number of each 12 Class Member were provided by Defendants through a review of its personnel files. Upon its 13 receipt of the Class Member contact information, Phoenix accessed the National Change of 14 Address (“NCOA”) database and updated the addresses provided by Defendants. (Id at ¶ 4).

15 After receiving the Class Notice, not a single Class Member has objected to the 16 settlement and not one class member has requested exclusion from the settlement. (Salinas 17 Decl., ¶¶ 8-9).

18 IV. PLAINTIFFS’ REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES ARE APPROPRIATE AND 19 JUSTIFIED

20 A. Fees Can Be Awarded As A Percentage of the Common Fund

21 When a common fund is created, attorneys who secured the fund have a right to a 22 percentage of the fund. (See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 [“the 23 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of 24 the fund created]; Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 26 [“percentage fees 25 have traditionally been allowed in . . . common fund cases”]). Plaintiffs’ request for one-third of 26 the common fund is reasonable, and is fair compensation for undertaking complex litigation on a contingent basis. (See, e.g., Ludlow v. Flowers Foods, Inc., 2024 WL 1162049, *8 (S.D. Cal. 2024) (“fee awards in class actions average around one third of recovery”).
27

Under the common fund doctrine, “a litigant or a lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee from the fund as a whole.” (Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980)). The Supreme Court explained:

The doctrine rests on the perception that persons who obtain the benefit of a lawsuit without contributing to its cost are unjustly enriched at the successful litigant’s expense. Jurisdiction over the fund involved in litigation allows a court to prevent this inequity by assessing attorney’s fees against the entire fund, thus spreading fees proportionately among those benefitted by the suit. (Citations omitted.)

(Id.; see also Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 503 [“the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts”]; Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977) [“one who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which other derive benefits, may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs”].)

Class counsel seeks an award of attorneys’ fees of $73,333, or one-third of the settlement. Class counsel’s fee is eminently reasonable here. Class counsel strongly believe they achieved a very good result for all class members, who will all have the right to receive their share of the settlement according to their workweeks during the class period. (Bartz Decl., ¶¶ 8-12; Rutledge Decl., ¶¶ 26-83.)

B. Plaintiffs’ Attorneys’ Fees Are Also Recoverable Under The Lodestar Approach

Class Counsel’s fee request is also reasonable when calculated using the lodestar method. The lodestar is produced by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by counsel by a reasonable hourly rate. See Graciano v. Robinson Ford Sales, Inc., 144 Cal. App. 4th 140, 164 (2006). The court then engages in a multiplier analysis and determines whether the lodestar figure should be augmented. Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal. 4th 1122, 1132 (2001). Under the lodestar method, “there is ‘no mathematical rule requiring proportionality between compensatory

1 damages and attorneys’ fees award.” Harman v. City and County of San Francisco, 158 Cal.
2 App. 4th 407, 421 (2007). While “the attorney who takes [a fee-shifting] case can anticipate 3 receiving full compensation or every hour spent litigating a claim[,]” Weeks v. Baker &
4 McKenzie, 63 Cal. App. 4th 1128, 1175 (1998), courts should not be “enmeshed in a meticulous 5 analysis of every detailed facet of the professional representation.” Serrano v. Unruh, 32 Cal.3d 6 621, 642 (1982); see also, Fox v. Vice, 131 S. Ct. 2205, 2216 (2001) (The essential goal in 7 shifting fees ... is to do rough justice, not to achieve auditing perfection”).

8 The starting point in determining the appropriate hourly fee is to discern the prevailing 9 rate for similar work in the pertinent geographic area. PLCM Group v. Perez, 22 Cal. 4th 1084, 10 1096-1097 (2000) (using prevailing hourly rate in community for comparable legal services even 11 though party used in-house counsel). Class Counsel’s hourly rates are comparable to, or less 12 than, those charged by other class action plaintiffs’ counsel and are commensurate with the rates 13 awarded to Class Counsel in similar actions. (See Bartz Decl., ¶ 22; Declaration of Walter 14 Haines (“Haines Decl.”), at ¶ 7; Rutledge Decl., ¶¶ 26-83).

15 Furthermore, the total attorney hours expended on this action are reasonable. Class 16 Counsel has spent in excess of 282 hours on this case. See Bartz Decl. at ¶ 23; Haines Decl. at ¶ 17 8; Rutledge Decl. at Ex. 1. Multiplying the total hours billed by Class Counsel by their 18 reasonable hourly rates yields a lodestar of $267,354. Class Counsel therefore believes that 19 pursuant to Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc., 82 Cal.App.4th 19 (2000), that the fee request 20 in this case is fair and reasonable in view of the typical common fund attorneys’ fees awards and 21 similar California class action settlements and warranted under the pertinent legal authority. This 22 is especially true where the requested fee award is substantially lower than Class Counsel’s 23 actual lodestar.

24 1. The Requested Award of Attorneys’ Fees is Supported by Class
25 Counsel’s Prosecution of this Case on a Contingency Basis

26 Recognizing that attorneys who represent clients under contingency-fee agreements 27 shoulder considerable risk of the possibility of minimal or low recovery, courts recognize that 28 contingent-fee attorneys should obtain a larger fee than the market-value of their services in

1 order to help assure skilled representation of class interests. See Graham v. DaimlerChrysler
2 Corp., 34 Cal. 4th at 580 (“[A] lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides 3 legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second 4 of these functions.”); Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal. 4th at 1132 (2001) (“[A] contingent fee 5 contract, since it involves a gamble on the result, may properly provide for larger compensation 6 than would otherwise be recoverable.’).

7 The risks faced by attorneys working on contingency are substantial. This is particularly 8 true in the context of class action litigation where there can be numerous hotly contested 9 procedural and substantive issues, considerable outlay of costs without guarantee of recovery, 10 and the possibility that intervening factors, such as the financial condition of the defendant, may 11 limit the scope of potential recovery. California courts thus recognize that “the experience of the 12 marketplace indicates that lawyers generally will not provide legal representation on a contingent 13 basis unless they receive a premium for taking that risk.” Ketchum, 24 Cal. 4th at 1136. “Given 14 the unique reliance of our legal system on private litigants to enforce substantive provisions of 15 law through class and derivative actions ... [attorneys] must be provided incentives roughly 16 comparable to those negotiated in the private bargaining that takes place in the legal 17 marketplace, as it will otherwise be economic for defendants to increase injurious behavior.”
18 Lealao, 82 Cal. App. 4th at 47. These policies support Plaintiffs’ fee request, as Class Counsel 19 undertook substantial risk in prosecuting this case.

20 2. The Requested Award of Attorneys’ Fees is Supported by the Results 21 Achieved on Behalf of the Class

22 Courts assess the reasonableness of a request for attorneys’ fees by examining the 23 results achieved on behalf of the Class. See Serrano, 20 Cal. 3d at 49. This settlement 24 represents a substantial recovery for the Settlement Class in light of the compelling defenses to 25 liability.

26 As set forth above and in the supporting declarations, Class Counsel undertook a 27 thorough analysis of the claims in this action including spending hundreds of hours of legal 28 research and data analysis to develop the core theories of liability in this case. Using this data,

Class Counsel was able to determine that the maximum settlement amount of $220,000 was well within the range of the “risk adjusted” valuation of the potential recovery. Class Counsel also expended substantial efforts and resources communicating with Plaintiffs and other settlement class members, in order to maximize the total amount claimed by class members under the settlement. The result is that participating Class Members will receive over $107,511 in total settlement payments at an average recovery of approximately $560. Accordingly, the cumulative benefits achieved by the Settlement favor approval of the requested fees.

3. The Requested Award of Attorneys’ Fees is Supported by Class Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Skill

The “skill and experience of the attorneys and nature of work performed” are also evaluated under California law in connection with a fee motion. Northwest Energetic Services, LLC v. Cal. Franchise Tax Bd., 159 Cal. App. 4th 841, 880 (2008). Class Counsel regularly litigate wage and hour claims and have considerable experience settling wage and hour class actions. See Bartz Decl. at ¶¶ 13-15; Haines Decl. at ¶ 3; Rutledge Decl. at ¶¶ 3-25.

V. PLAINTIFFS’ REQUESTED COSTS ARE REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

Class Counsel has incurred a total of $12,206 in costs and expenses that would normally be billed to a fee-paying client. Defendants have agreed to pay out these costs out of the settlement amount. The majority of costs incurred in this action relate to filing fees, expert fees, and mediator fees, which are costs that are reasonable and necessary to the litigation of this case. See Bartz Decl. at ¶ 24; Rutledge Decl. at ¶¶ 95-99.

In accordance with the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel requests an award of $12,206, which is the amount of costs Preliminarily Approved by the Court in this Action. Accordingly, the requested costs should also be awarded.

VI. THE REQUESTED PAYMENT TO THE CLAIMS ADMINISTRATOR IS REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

Plaintiffs request final approval of claims administration costs in the amount of $6,950 to be paid to Phoenix, which, per the Court’s preliminary approval Order, attests

1 that it has promptly and properly distributed the Class Notice, to all Class Members and has 2 otherwise completed all of its duties in administering and facilitating the settlement terms in this 3 action. (See generally Salinas Decl.)

4 VII. THE ENHANCEMENT AWARDS FOR THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVES
5 ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

6 The proposed enhancement awards for the class representatives are intended to recognize 7 their initiative, risks, and efforts on behalf of the Settlement Class. Courts routinely approve 8 class representative service payments, also known as incentive awards, to compensate named 9 plaintiffs for the services they provide and the risks they incur during class action litigation. See 10 In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1393 (2010); see also Bell v.
11 Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal. App. 4th 715, 726 (2004) (upholding “service payments” to named 12 plaintiffs for efforts in bringing the case); Manual for Complex Litigation, § 21.62, fn. 971 13 (noting that such awards “may sometimes be warranted for time spent meeting with Class 14 Members, monitoring cases, or responding to discovery”). “An incentive award may be 15 appropriate to induce someone to serve as a class representative. In determining whether to make 16 an incentive award, the court may consider (1) the risk, both financial and otherwise, the class 17 representative faced in bringing the suit; (2) the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered 18 by the class representative; (3) the amount of time and effort spent by the class representative; 19 (4) the duration of the litigation; and (5) the personal benefit received by the class representative
20 as a result of the litigation.” Golba v. Dick’s Sporting Goods, Inc., 238 Cal.App.4th 1251, 1272 21 (2015).

22 In this litigation, the class representatives testify to their risks, time and effort incurred, 23 the adverse consequences suffered, and the benefits received in this case. (See generally, the 24 Declarations of Nadia Scurry and Jennifer Machado). In addition, class representatives are 25 required to execute a general release of all claims against Defendants, which includes a waiver of 26 unknown claims and their rights under California Civil Code § 1542. For all of these reasons, 27 the requested service payments of $7,500 for each Nadia Scurry and Jennifer Machado are 28 appropriate and justified.

1 VIII. CONCLUSION

2 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiffs very respectfully request that this Court issue an Order
3 and Judgment approving the Settlement, and grant Plaintiffs' attorneys' fees and costs, Phoenix's 4 administrative expenses, and Plaintiffs' enhancement awards.
