Attorneys for Plaintiffs JOHNNIE BEHRMAN, DANIEL BERNAL on behalf of themselves and other aggrieved employees,

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

JOHNNIE BEHRMAN an individual;
DANIEL BERNAL an individual; on behalf of themselves and other aggrieved employees,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

HAWX PEST CONTROL, INC., a
California corporation; HAWX
SERVICES, LLC., a California limited liability company; and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO. CVRI 2302265

COMPLAINT FOR CIVIL PENALTIES
UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT ("PAGA") [California
Labor Code §§2698, et seq.]

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs JOHNNIE BEHRMAN ("Behrman") and DANIEL BERNAL ("Bernal") on behalf of themselves and other aggrieved employees, (hereinafter collectively "Plaintiffs"), and as private attorneys general, hereby assert representative claims against Defendants HAWX PEST CONTROL, INC ("Hawx Pest Control"), HAWX SERVICES, LLC., ("Hawx Services"), and DOES 1 through 100 (hereinafter collectively "Defendants"), and hereby complain and allege as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This lawsuit is directed at Defendants' California state law violations of wage and hour laws -- it is a representative action seeking recovery of civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), California Labor Code ("Labor Code") §§2698, et

1 seq. PAGA permits “aggrieved employees” to bring a lawsuit as a representative action on 2 behalf of themselves and other aggrieved current and former employees to recover civil penalties
3 for Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code, including, but not limited to Labor Code §§201,
4 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, 1198, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and all applicable
5 Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Orders.

6 2. This action is brought as a representative action on behalf of all current and 7 former aggrieved employees who were employed by Defendants in California and who work or 8 worked as non-exempt hourly employees during the applicable time period and who were subject
9 to Defendants’ meal period policy, rest period policy, compensation policy, overtime policy, 10 final payment of wages policy, and related wage and hour policies and/or practices.

11 3. As set forth in detail below, Defendants consistently implemented, maintained
12 and enforced unlawful policies and practices regarding Plaintiffs in violation of California’s
13 wage and hour laws, which led to Defendants’ violations of Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 14 510, 512, 1174, 1194, 1198, 2698, et seq. and IWC Wage Orders to Defendants’: (1) failure to 15 pay all wages, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation; (2) 16 failure to provide meal periods; (3) failure to authorize and permit rest periods or provide 17 compensation in lieu thereof; (4) failure to timely pay all wages owed; (5) failure to properly 18 maintain and submit accurate itemized wage statements; (6) failure to reimburse expenses; and 19 (7) waiting time penalties. Such policies and practices, as further described herein, violate the 20 Labor Code, and trigger civil penalties under Labor Code §2699. Therefore, Plaintiffs, on behalf 21 of themselves and all aggrieved employees, bring this representative PAGA action pursuant to 22 the provisions of the Labor Code as referenced herein. Plaintiffs seek recovery of civil penalties, 23 reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, and other relief as deemed proper.

24 4. The acts complained of herein occurred, occur and will occur, at least in part, 25 within the statute of limitations under the PAGA statute, or within the statute of limitations of 26 any other Complaint or other filing which has tolled the claims asserted herein, up to and through 27 the time of trial for this matter.

II. THE PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Johnnie Behrman is, and was at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing within the State of California. Plaintiff Behrman worked for Defendants as non-exempt employee between 2022 and the current date.

6. Plaintiff Daniel Bernal is, and was at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing within the State of California. Plaintiff Bernal worked for Defendants as non-exempt employee between March 2022 and September 2022.

7. Defendant Hawx Pest Control, Inc. is and has been, at all relevant times herein, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and doing business within the County of Riverside in the State of California.

8. Defendant Hawx Services, LLC, is and has been, at all relevant times herein, a limited liability company and existing under the laws of the State of California, and doing business within the County of Riverside in the State of California.

9. Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are sued herein under fictitious names. Their true names and capacities are unknown to Plaintiffs. When their true names and capacities are ascertained, Plaintiffs will amend their complaint by inserting their true names and capacities herein. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege that each of the fictitiously named Defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged and that Plaintiffs' damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by those Defendants.

10. Defendants, and each of them, are now and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint were the agents, servants and/or employees of some or all other Defendants, and vice-versa, and in doing the things alleged in this Complaint, Defendants are now and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint were acting within the course and scope of that agency, servitude and/or employment.

11. Defendants, and each of them, are now and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint were members of and/or engaged in a joint venture, partnership and common enterprise, and were acting within the course and scope of, and in pursuit of a joint venture, partnership and common enterprise.

12. Each reference in this complaint to “Defendant,” “Defendants,” or a specifically named Defendant refers also to all Defendants sued under fictitious names.

13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege that at all relevant times herein, Defendants maintained offices, employed persons, conducted business in, and/or engaged in illegal employment practices and policies in the State of California, County of Riverside.

III. JURISDICTION

14. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction in this matter due to Defendants' aforementioned violations of California statutory law and/or related common law principles.

15. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because both the relief sought herein exceeds the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established at trial, according to proof.

16. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because Defendants' corporate officers direct, control, and coordinate Defendants' activities from Defendants' offices located in the State of California.

17. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because during their employment with Defendants, Plaintiffs herein were all California citizens and Defendants have owned and operated offices within California. Further, there is no federal question at issue, as the issues herein are based solely on California statutes and law.

IV. VENUE

18. Venue in Riverside County is proper in this matter as Defendants' liabilities and obligations arose in Riverside County, including Defendants' statutory obligations to pay Plaintiffs wages for all hours worked, overtime wages, straight time wages, minimum wages, timely wages upon termination and/or resignation, provide legally compliant meal and rest periods, maintain and submit accurate wage statements, and other obligations as described herein.

20. Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees who Plaintiffs seek to represent worked for Defendants as non-exempt employees in California, during the relevant time period.

22. Defendants also fail to provide Plaintiffs with meal and rest periods under California law. Defendants failed to adopt, implement, and enforce a uniform meal period policy that complied with California law. For example, Defendants required Plaintiffs to take meal periods after they worked for more than five hours, and Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs with their full 30 minute duty-free meal period based on numerous factors, including but not limited to the fact that the amount of work required of Plaintiffs by Defendants necessitated that Plaintiffs take their meal periods late, return early from their meal periods, and/or interrupt their meal periods. Moreover, as a matter of policy and/or practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs one hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that a 30-minute duty-free meal period was not provided. Defendants also failed to keep accurate records of meal breaks taken by Plaintiffs in violation of Labor Code §1174 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

23. Defendants also failed to adopt, implement, and enforce a uniform rest period policy that complied with California law. Defendants failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take duty free rest periods of 10 minutes for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof, by requiring Plaintiffs to regularly work through their rest periods to complete their duties, and failing and refusing to provide a rest period for any hours in excess of 10 per day. As a result of

1 Defendants' lack of any meal or rest break policy that complies with California law, Defendants
2 have violated Labor Code §§512 and 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, among other 3 things.

4 24. Defendants also willfully failed to provide properly itemized wage statements to 5 Plaintiffs pursuant to Labor Code §226. Defendants, for example, fail to identify the correct
6 hours and rates of pay for hours worked for Defendants, including but not limited to violations of 7 Labor Code § 226(a)(9) by not setting forth “all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay 8 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.” Defendants also 9 violate Labor Code §§ 226(a)(1) and 226(a)(5) by failing to correctly state the total net and gross 10 wages earned by failing to itemize meal and rest period premium payments, among other things.
11 Defendants also violate Labor Code § 226(a)(4) by failing to itemize all deductions on the wage
12 statement, and Labor Code § 226(a)(8) by failing to state the name and address of the legal entity
13 of Plaintiffs’ employer. The failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements violates Labor 14 Code §§226, 2699, et seq., and IWC Wage Orders.

15 25. Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely pay all compensation due and 16 owing to Plaintiffs whose employment was terminated during the relevant time period, by failing
17 to pay all of Plaintiff’s compensation due upon termination by failing and refusing to pay
18 overtime and straight time wages, failing to pay Plaintiffs for time worked during meal and rest
19 periods, failing to pay Plaintiffs for an extra hour because Defendants failed to provide compliant 20 meal and rest periods and/or to pay for such meal and rest period premiums at the regular rate of 21 pay, and by Defendants’ other unlawful actions as described herein. As such, Defendants are 22 liable for accrued wages due, and waiting time penalties owed, in accordance with Labor Code 23 §§201, 202, and 203.

24 VI. PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT CLAIM

25 26. On or about February 14, 2023, Plaintiffs provided written notice via certified 26 mail to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendants of the 27 specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and 28 theories to support the alleged violations.

1 27. The LWDA failed to respond to Plaintiffs' counsel's correspondence dated 2 February 14, 2023 and failed to notify Plaintiffs' counsel as to whether it would investigate the 3 allegations contained therein, within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of Plaintiff
4 correspondence as required under Labor Code §2699.3. Plaintiffs have fully complied with the 5 notice requirements set forth in Labor Code §2699.3 in order to commence a civil action against 6 an employer pursuant to Labor Code §2699.

7 28. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs for all hours worked, minimum wages,
8 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest
9 periods, failure to pay all wages upon termination or resignation, and failure to provide accurate
10 itemized wage statements, will subject Defendants to civil penalties pursuant to, without 11 limitation, Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 256, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 1198, 2699 and the IWC Wage 12 Orders.

13 29. Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees as defined in Labor Code §§2699(a) and (c), 14 and related Labor Code provisions. Plaintiffs bring the causes of action below on behalf of 15 themselves, as private attorneys general, and in a representative capacity on behalf of other 16 aggrieved employees, affected by the labor law violations alleged herein.

17 A. FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION

18 30. Labor Code §1194 states that any employee receiving less than the legal 19 minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 20 recover the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, 21 including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

22 31. Labor Code §1197 states that the minimum wage for employees fixed by the 23 commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage 24 than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

25 32. Labor Code §510(a) and IWC Wage Orders regulating payment of wages in the 26 state of California, provide that eight (8) hours of labor constitutes a day's work and any work in 27 excess of eight (8) hours in one (1) workday and any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any 28 one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular

1 rate of pay for each employee and any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one workday
2 shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for each employee.

3 33. At all relevant times, Defendants required Plaintiffs to perform work without 4 compensation in violation of the IWC Wage Orders and the Labor Code. Specifically, Plaintiffs
5 were not paid for all of their hours worked, in that Defendants failed to pay non-exempt hourly
6 workers such as Plaintiffs for all of their hours worked by, among other things, capping
7 Plaintiffs' hours worked, requiring Plaintiffs to clock out of work, and continue working off-the-
8 clock for Defendants without compensation. Defendants are therefore in violation of Labor
9 Code §§510 and 1194, and the IWC Wage Orders.

10 34. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.6 and Civil Code §3287, Plaintiffs seek recovery of 11 pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein. Plaintiffs further request that this Court
12 award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in this action pursuant to Labor Code 13 §§1194(a) and/or 2699.

14 35. Pursuant to Labor Code §§2699, 2699.3, and/or 2699.5, Plaintiffs are aggrieved
15 employees, entitled to recover civil penalties pursuant to the Labor Code, including but not 16 limited to Labor Code §§558, 1197.1, and 2699(f). Plaintiffs seek only to recover the civil 17 penalties provided for in §§558(a) and 1197.1 for the violations alleged herein, and do not seek 18 to recover underpaid wages.

19 B. MEAL PERIODS (Labor Code §§226.7 and 512)

20 36. Labor Code §512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders state that an employer may 21 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing 22 the employee a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, and an employer may not employ an 23 employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with 24 a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes. The applicable Wage Orders state that unless 25 the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be 26 considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. Labor Code §226.7(a) further 27 states that no employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period
28 mandated by an applicable order of the IWC. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from exerting

1 coercion against the taking of, creating incentives to forego, or otherwise encouraging the 2 skipping of legally protected breaks.

3 37. Plaintiffs were not provided with nor given the opportunity to take the requisite 4 meal periods before the end of the first 5 hours of work, nor were they provided with or given the 5 opportunity to take a proper second meal period during the days when they worked more than 10
6 hours in a day. Plaintiffs are entitled to an additional one hour of pay at their regular rate of pay 7 for each day in which they were not provided a proper meal period under the above-described 8 authorities.

9 38. Pursuant to Labor Code §226.7(b) and the IWC Wage Orders, if an employer fails
10 to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provisions of IWC
11 Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular 12 rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided. As such, Plaintiffs 13 are entitled to an additional one hour's pay for each day in which Plaintiffs were not provided a 14 proper meal break under the above-described authorities.

15 39. Labor Code §558 and the IWC Wage Orders state, in pertinent part, that any 16 employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated,
17 a section of any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC shall be
18 subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each
19 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an
20 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred 21 dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was 22 underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. Plaintiffs seek only to 23 recover the civil penalty provided for in §558(a) for the violations alleged herein, and do not 24 seek to recover underpaid wages.

25 40. Plaintiffs request that the Court award interest on all unpaid wages at the legal 26 rate specified by Civil Code §3289(b), accruing from the date the wages were due and payable 27 pursuant to Labor Code §218.6.

28 41. Pursuant to Labor Code §§2699, 2699.3, and/or 2699.5, Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees, entitled to recover civil penalties pursuant to the Labor Code, including but not limited to Labor Code §§558 and 2699(f).

C. REST PERIODS (Labor Code §226.7)

42. The IWC Wage Orders provide that every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four hours of work, or major fraction thereof. An employer must provide employees with 10 minutes rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on. Furthermore, Labor Code §1198 provides, in pertinent part: . . . The employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”

43. Plaintiffs were not permitted to take proper rest periods and/or were required to work during any “rest periods” in contravention of California law. Further, Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees were required to waive the taking of their rest breaks because of the business of Defendants’ operations, and/or were coerced not to take legally mandated rest periods by Defendants’ criticizing, disciplining and/or reprimanding Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees who attempted to take legally required rest periods; failed to schedule rest periods; and pressured Plaintiffs to remain available during the workday.

44. Defendants further failed to pay Plaintiffs a missed rest period premium payment for each rest period that was not authorized or permitted, and/or failed to pay such rest period premium at Plaintiffs’ regular rate of pay.

45. Pursuant to Labor Code §226.7(b) and IWC Wage Orders, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

46. As such, Plaintiffs are entitled to an additional one hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each day in which they were not provided a proper rest period under the above-described authorities.

1 47. Plaintiffs request that the Court award interest on all unpaid wages at the legal
2 rate specified by Civil Code §3289(b), accruing from the date the wages were due and payable
3 pursuant to Labor Code §218.6.

4 48. Labor Code §558 and IWC Wage Orders state, in pertinent part, that any
5 employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated,
6 a section of any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC shall be
7 subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each
8 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an
9 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred
10 dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was 11 underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. Pursuant to Labor
12 Code §§558, 1198 and 2699, and/or IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs are entitled to civil penalties
13 for each pay period in which Defendants underpaid their wages as set forth herein. Plaintiffs 14 seek only to recover the civil penalty provided for in §558(a) for the violations alleged herein, 15 and do not seek to recover underpaid wages.

16 49. Pursuant to Labor Code §§2699, 2699.3, and/or 2699.5, Plaintiffs are aggrieved
17 employees, entitled to recover civil penalties pursuant to the Labor Code, including but not 18 limited to Labor Code §§558, 2699(f), and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

19 D. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE EXPENSES

20 50. Labor Code § 2802(a) states, in pertinent part: “An employer shall indemnify his 21 or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 22 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of 23 the employer. . .”

24 51. Defendants required Plaintiffs to maintain and use their own tools to perform their 25 job duties, and failed and refused to reimburse Plaintiffs for using their cell phones for company 26 business, or for purchasing work gloves and other personal protective equipment to perform their 27 jobs.

28 52. Defendants’ failure to reimburse and/or indemnify Plaintiffs for these necessary expenditures constitute a violation of California law. Pursuant to Labor Code §§2699, 2699.3, and/or 2699.5, Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees, entitled to recover civil penalties pursuant to the Labor Code, including but not limited to Labor Code § 2699(f).

E. FAILURE TO PROPERLY MAINTAIN AND SUBMIT ACCURATE
ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS (Labor Code §226)

53. Labor Code §§226, 1174, and/or the applicable IWC Wage Orders require employers to maintain and provide employees accurate time and employment records, as well as itemized wage statements showing, among other things, gross wages earned, the total hours worked by the employee, all deductions, net wages earned, all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. Furthermore, the applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code §226 requires every employer to keep accurate information with respect to each employee, including: (1) the employee's full name, home address, occupation, social security number, employee's date of birth, and time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period; (2) an employee's meal periods; (3) total wages paid each payroll period; and (4) total hours worked during the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

54. Defendants failed to properly maintain itemized wage statements in that, among other things, the wage statements provided do not set forth the accurate number of hours worked, correct rates of pay, all overtime compensation, meal periods, premium pay, the name of the legal entity that is the employer, and other related information required by California law. In addition, in implementing their illegal policies and practices regarding Plaintiffs, Defendants failed to record wages for rest period and meal period premiums and other wages that should have been paid to Plaintiffs as required by California law. Defendants have failed to record all items delineated in Labor Code §226 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and required under Labor Code §1174. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that these failures were knowing and intentional by Defendants as Defendants sought to deprive Plaintiffs of their legitimate right to unpaid wages, and otherwise deprive them of their proper compensation. As a result of Defendants' intentional and knowing failure to maintain adequate itemized statements, Plaintiffs

1 could not ascertain the actual amount of compensation they earned and/or were entitled to, and 2 thereby are presumed to have suffered cognizable injury in the form of the accrual of unpaid
3 wages, overtime, and interest pursuant to Labor Code §226(e)(2).

4 55. Pursuant to Labor Code §226(e), an employee who suffers injury as a 5 result of an employer's knowing and intentional failure to comply with subdivision (a), is 6 entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period
7 in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a 8 subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and 9 is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

10 56. Pursuant to Labor Code §226.3, "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 11 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)
12 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 13 for each violation in a subsequent citation. . ."

14 57. Pursuant to Labor Code §§2699, 2699.3, and/or 2699.5, Plaintiffs are aggrieved
15 employees, entitled to recover civil penalties pursuant to the Labor Code, including but not 16 limited to Labor Code §§226.3, 1174.5 and 2699(f), as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and 17 costs.

18 F. WAITING TIME PENALTIES (Labor Code §§201-203)

19 58. Labor Code §201 states that an employer is required to provide an employee who 20 is terminated all unpaid wages immediately upon termination.

21 59. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants failed to 22 pay Plaintiffs all wages due and owing immediately upon termination, thereby violating Labor 23 Code §201.

24 60. Labor Code §202 states, in pertinent part, that an employer is required to provide 25 an employee who quits his or her employment all wages due and owing not later than 72 hours 26 thereafter.

27 61. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants failed to 28 pay Plaintiffs all wages due and owing upon voluntary resignation, thereby violating Labor Code

1 §202.

2 62. Labor Code §203 states that if an employer willfully fails to pay an employee
3 wages according to Labor Code §§201 and 202, these wages shall continue as a penalty for up to 4 a maximum of 30 days.

5 63. Defendants willfully withheld paying Plaintiffs wages thereby violating Labor
6 Code §203, as further set forth herein. As such, Defendants are required to pay Plaintiffs a 30-7 day wage penalty in addition to all unpaid wages as described herein.

8 64. Pursuant to Labor Code §§2699, 2699.3, and/or 2699.5, Plaintiffs are aggrieved
9 employees, entitled to recover civil penalties pursuant to the Labor Code, including but not 10 limited to Labor Code §§256 and 2699(f).

11 G. ALL CLAIMS

12 65. Pursuant to Labor Code §2699, Plaintiffs seek to recover civil penalties, as 13 otherwise provided by statute and wage order, for which Defendants are liable as a result of their 14 violations of the Labor Code and applicable Wage Order(s) in an amount to be proven at trial.
15 These penalties include, but are not limited to, those provided by Labor Code §§210, 225.5, 16 226.3, 256, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699. Plaintiffs further seek an award of reasonable
17 attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the Labor Code §2699(g)(1) and any other applicable 18 statute.

19 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray:

- 20 a. For civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code §2699(f), in addition to and entirely 21 independent and apart from other penalties in the Labor Code and for Labor Code 22 violations without a specific civil penalty, in the amount of $100 for each 23 aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, and $200 for each 24 aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 25 b. For civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code §558, as follows:
- 26 i. For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved underpaid 27 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid;
- 28 ii. For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid;

c. For civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code §1197.1, as follows:

i. For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid;

ii. For each subsequent violation for the same offense, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed;

d. For civil penalties per Labor Code §226.3 in the amount of $250 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each violation, and $1,000 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

e. For civil penalties per Labor Code §1174.5 in the amount of $500 for each willful failure to maintain records as required by Labor Code §1174(c);

f. For civil penalties per Labor Code §256 in the amount of one day of pay, at the same rate, for each day that an aggrieved employee was paid late, at the time of termination, until payment was/is made, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days;

g. For civil penalties per Labor Code §210 in the amount of $100 for each failure to pay each employee, and for each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, $200 for each failure to pay each employee;

h. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred; and i. For such relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
