1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff Amy Gordon (“Plaintiff”) respectfully submits this memorandum in support of the 3 unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the proposed class action and PAGA settlement with 4 Defendant Summit Medical Staffing LLC (“Defendant”), and seeks entry of an order: (1) preliminarily
5 approving the proposed settlement of this class and PAGA action with Defendant; (2) for settlement 6 purposes only, conditionally certifying the Class, defined as: “all individuals who were employed by 7 Defendant Summit Medical Staffing, LLC who were classified as non-exempt in the State of California
8 at any time during the Class Period,” which is April 17, 2019 through December 30, 2024; (3) 9 provisionally appointing Plaintiff as the representative of the Class; (4) provisionally appointing 10 Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP as Class Counsel; (5) approving the form and 11 method for providing class-wide notice; (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement be 12 given to the class; (7) appointing Apex Class Action LLC as the Administrator; and 13 (8) scheduling a final approval hearing date for May 15, 2026 to consider Plaintiff’s motion for 14 final approval of the settlement and for approval of attorneys’ fees and expenses. Plaintiff and 15 Defendant (collectively, the “Parties”) have reached a full and final settlement of the above-captioned 16 action (“Action”), which is set forth in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement
17 (“Agreement”) filed concurrently with the Court.¹ A copy of the fully executed Agreement is attached 18 as Exhibit #1 to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug (“Decl. Nordrehaug”), served and filed herewith.
19 The form of the Agreement is based upon the Los Angeles County Superior Court model form for a 20 class and PAGA settlement.

21 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount is Three Hundred 22 Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($325,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) to be paid by Defendant, 23 as set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues pending in the Action 24 between the Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released Class Claims in 25 exchange for the payments to Participating Class Members from the Net Settlement Amount, and 26 includes (a) the costs of administration of the settlement, (b) all attorneys’ fees and costs, (c) Class 27

28 ¹ Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

Representative Service Payment, and (d) the PAGA Penalties payment allocated 75% to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 3. The following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and the proposed deductions:

$325,000	(Gross Settlement Amount)
- $10,000	(Plaintiff’s proposed service award - not to exceed amount)
- $40,000	(Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- $108,333	(Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- $10,000	(PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
- $15,000	(Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
$141,667	(Net Settlement Amount)

Based upon 150 Class Members who collectively worked 6,486 pay periods (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $2,166 per Class Member and $50 per pay period and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $944.44 per Class Member and a recovery of $21.84 per pay period. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 6.

On October 30, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation session presided over by Tagore Subramanian, Esq., a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions. Following the mediation, the Parties agreed on the basic terms of a settlement pursuant to a mediator’s proposal which was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. The Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved because there is a substantial monetary payment, and there are significant litigation and class-certification risks. Therefore, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

The Gross Settlement Amount is Three Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($325,000). (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant’s share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion

1 to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 15.

2 Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary
3 to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later
4 than fourteen (14) days after the Effective Date. (Agreement at ¶ 4.3.) The distribution of Individual 5 Class Payments to Participating Class Members along with the other Court-approved distributions shall 6 be made by the Administrator fourteen (14) days after the Effective Date. (Agreement at ¶ 5.1.) Decl.
7 Nordrehaug at ¶ 16.

8 The amount remaining in the Gross Settlement Amount after the deduction of Court-approved 9 amounts for Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Class Representative Service 10 Payments, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the 11 Administration Expenses Payment (called the "Net Settlement Amount") shall be allocated to Class 12 Members as their Individual Class Payments. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.28 and 3.2.) From the Net Settlement 13 Amount, the Individual Class Payment for each Participating Class Member will be calculated by (a) 14 dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating 15 Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 16 Member's Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Workweeks will initially be based on Defendant's 17 records, however, Class Members can challenge their number of Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶ 8.6.)
18 Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 17.

19 Class Members may choose to opt-out of the Settlement by following the directions in the Class 20 Notice. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5, Ex. A.) All Class Members who do not "opt out" will be deemed 21 Participating Class Members who will be bound by the Settlement and will be entitled to receive an 22 Individual Class Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5(c).) All Aggrieved Employees, including those who 23 submit an opt-out request, will be paid their allocation of the PAGA Penalties and will remain subject 24 to the release of the Released PAGA Claims. (Agreement at ¶¶ 6.3 and 8.5(d).) Finally, the Class 25 Notice will advise the Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement and/or dispute their 26 Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶¶ 8.6 and 8.7, Ex. A.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 18.

27 A Participating Class Member must cash his or her Individual Class Payment check within 180 28 days after it is mailed. (Agreement at ¶ 5.2.) Any settlement checks not cashed within 180 days will

1 be voided and any funds represented by such checks to a Court-approved nonprofit organization or 2 foundation consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384(b) ("Cy Pres Recipient"). The Parties 3 agreed to the Katherine and George Alexander Community Law Center as the Cy Pres Recipient. The 4 Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, 5 financial or otherwise, with the intended Cy Pres Recipient. (Agreement at ¶ 5.4.) Decl. Nordrehaug 6 at ¶ 19.

7 Subject to Court approval, the Parties have agreed on Apex Class Action LLC to administer the 8 settlement in this action ("Administrator"). (Agreement at ¶ 1.2.) The Administrator will be paid for 9 settlement administration in an amount not to exceed $15,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(c).) Decl.
10 Nordrehaug at ¶ 20. A declaration from Apex Class Action as to their qualifications and their estimate 11 for this settlement ($6,250) is submitted herewith.

12 Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for Class Counsel to be awarded a sum not 13 to exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, as the Class Counsel Fees Payment. (Agreement 14 at ¶ 3.2(b).) Class Counsel will also be allowed to apply separately for an award of Class Counsel 15 Litigation Expenses Payment in an amount not to exceed $40,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(b).) Subject 16 to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a payment of no more than $10,000 to the Plaintiff as 17 the Class Representative Service Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 21.

18 Subject to Court approval, the PAGA Penalties will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount 19 for PAGA penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code Section 2698, 20 et seq. ("PAGA"). The PAGA Penalties are $10,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(d).) Pursuant to the express 21 requirements of Labor Code § 2699(i), the PAGA Payment shall be allocated as follows: 75% shall be 22 allocated to the LWDA as its share of the civil penalties and 25% allocated to the Individual PAGA
23 Payments to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees based on the number of their respective PAGA 24 Pay Periods. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(d).) As set forth in the accompany proof of service, the LWDA has 25 been served with this motion and the Agreement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 22.

26 III. CASE BACKGROUND

27 The description of the case and claims, along with the procedural history is set forth in the 28 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-14. The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the

1 exchange of documents and information in connection with the Action over more than two years which 2 permitted Class Counsel to perform a thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 10 and 3 14. The Parties participated in mediation on October 30, 2024 with Tagore Subramanian, Esq., which 4 after arms' length negotiations, resulted in this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 12.

5 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO 6 GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

7 California "[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation."
8 Nordstrom Comm'n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 9 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 10 proposed settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 11 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.
12 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

13 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 14 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class 15 members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument 16 concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class 17 members may be heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 18 1801 (1996); Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

19 The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 20 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is "within the range of possible approval."
21 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th 22 Cir. 1982).² Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that "the proposed 23 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection."
24 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is

26 ² California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). "It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions." Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

1 "a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining."
2 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho v.
3 Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court's 4 determination that settlement was "fair, reasonable and adequate" where the settlement "provided 5 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were 'particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would have 6 faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.'"); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the ultimate 7 question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate is made after notice of the 8 settlement is given to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the Court.

9 A. The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

10 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action is a matter within the broad discretion 11 of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th 1794. In 12 considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not have to 13 reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, 14 and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 239-40; Dunk, supra, 15 48 Cal.App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explains, "the very essence of a settlement is compromise, 16 'a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.'" Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 624.
17 Thus, when analyzing the settlement, the amount is "not to be judged against a hypothetical or 18 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators." Officers for Justice, 688 19 F.2d at 625, 628.

20 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 21 weight both because of counsel's familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases 22 such as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. As a result, courts hold that the recommendation
23 of counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 24 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

25 B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminarily Approval

26 A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary 27 approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether the "(1) 28 the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2)

1 has no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives
2 or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval." In re Tableware Antitrust
3 Litig., 484 F.Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). Courts hold that "a presumption of fairness exists 4 where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery 5 are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 6 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small." Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.
7 App. 4th 116, 128 (2008). Here, the Settlement meets all of these criteria for preliminary approval and 8 therefore the presumption applies, subject to the response of the Class.

9 1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and 10 Arm's Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

11 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations 12 before an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to 13 deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and 14 Class Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released
15 Class Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement.³

16 Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, 17 and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in

19 ³ The release applicable to the Class is appropriately tethered to allegations in the Action and the 20 "Released Class Claims" are defined as "all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been 21 alleged, based facts stated in the Operative Complaint which occurred during the Class Period, 22 including: (1) unfair competition in violation of Business and Professions Code sections 17200 et seq., 23 (2) failure to pay minimum wages in violation of Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1, (3) 24 failure to pay overtime wages in violation of Labor Code section 510, (4) failure to provide meal 25 periods in violation of sections 226.7 and 512, (5) failure to provide rest periods in violation of sections 26 226.7 and 512, (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code
27 section 226, (7) failure to reimburse employees for necessary business expenses in violation of Labor
28 Code section 2802, (8) failure to timely pay wages when due in violation of Labor Code sections 201-204, (9) failure to pay sick pay wages in violation of Labor Code sections 201-204, 210, 233, 246, and 246.5, (10) unlawful deductions in violation of Labor Code section 221, and (11) failure to provide suitable seating in violation of Labor Code section 1198. Except as expressly set forth in the Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period." (Agreement at ¶ 1.38)

1 wage and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel has previously litigated and certified similar 2 claims against other employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 31. The view of qualified and well-informed 3 counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable is entitled to significant weight.
4 See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008) (the trial court "undoubtedly should 5 continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity of counsel, the involvement of a qualified 6 mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement."); Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

7 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Tagore Subramanian, Esq., a 8 respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement.
9 In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with payroll and time data and 10 other information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and other compensation 11 and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance of damages 12 expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the mediator. The final 13 settlement terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now presented for this Court's 14 approval. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. Importantly, Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that this 15 Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

16 Class Counsel has conducted an investigation into the facts of the class action. Informal 17 discovery was performed along with the production of hundreds of pages of relevant documents and 18 data. Class Counsel engaged in a thorough review and analysis of the relevant documents and data with 19 the assistance of an expert. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel 20 possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on 21 the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. In addition, Class Counsel 22 previously negotiated settlements with other employers in actions involving nearly identical issues and 23 analogous defenses. Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation, evaluation 24 and experience, Class Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant on the terms set forth in the 25 Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light of all known 26 facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, and 27 potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14.

28 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying

1 class claims against Defendant through possible appeals which could take several years. Class Counsel 2 has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of litigation, especially in complex class 3 actions such as this action. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of 4 proof under, and alleged defenses to, the alleged claims. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiff and 5 Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of 6 the Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 23.

7 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 8 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced counsel who zealously 9 advocated their positions. Accordingly, “[t]here is likewise every reason to conclude that settlement 10 negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms’ length and without any suggestion of undue 11 influence.” In re Wash. Public Power Supply System Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. 1379, 1392 (D. Ariz.
12 1989).

13 2. The Settlement Has No "Obvious Deficiencies" and Falls Well Within 14 the Range for Approval

15 The proposed Settlement herein has no "obvious deficiencies" and is well within the range of 16 possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and 17 receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Based upon 150 Class 18 Members who collectively worked 6,486 pay periods (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the Gross Settlement 19 Amount provides an average value of $2,166 per Class Member and $50 per pay period and after 20 deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $944.44 per Class Member and 21 a recovery of $21.84 per pay period. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶6.

22 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 23 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiff’s damages expert. As to the Class whose claims are 24 at issue, Plaintiffs used the expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid wages for the 25 employees. The maximum potential damages as calculated by Plaintiff’s expert were calculated to be 26 $21,063 for the alleged unpaid wages due to rounding, $470,499 for the alleged unpaid wages due to 27 off-the-clock work based upon 1 hour per week, $896,001 for alleged meal period damages based upon 28 a potential 90.6% violation rate observed in the time records, $896,001 for alleged rest period damages

1 based upon the same potential 90.6% violation rate observed for meal periods, and $9,265 for alleged 2 unreimbursed business expenses for personal cell phone usage at $5 per month. Decl. Nordrehaug at 3 ¶ 6. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant was subject to a maximum 4 damage claim in the amount of $2,292,829. As to potential penalties, Plaintiff calculated that potential 5 waiting time penalties were a maximum of $2,628,363, and potential wage statement penalties were 6 $228,400. Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories. Decl.
7 Nordrehaug at ¶ 6.

8 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $325,000 represents more than 14% of the 9 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.⁴
10 Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v.
11 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for 12 waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above maximum 13 calculations should then be adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class certification and the risk 14 of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the settlement as compared to 15 the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendant, this settlement is fair 16 and reasonable.⁵ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 6.

17 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
18 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 19

20 ⁴ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 21 Plaintiff has not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The 22 PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 33.

23 ⁵ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 24 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 25 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 26 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents 27 approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Dunleavy 28 v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (affirming approval of a class settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery".) See also Viceral
v. Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Defendant 2 asserted that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that 3 Class Members were paid for all time worked and that all work time was properly recorded. Defendant 4 contended that its meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law and Defendant did 5 not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks. Defendant contended that 6 there was no failure to pay for business expenses, and that any cell phone usage was merely convenient 7 and voluntary such that reimbursement was not legally required. Finally, Defendant could argue that 8 the Supreme Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's 9 claims, on liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also 10 argued that based on its facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, 11 which if accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage 12 statements. See e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024) ("if an 13 employer reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage 14 statement in compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and 15 intentionally failed to comply with the wage statement law.") If successful, Defendant's defenses could 16 eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class. While Plaintiffs believe that these defenses 17 could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk 18 to recovery by the Class. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 24.

19 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would be unable 20 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on 21 behalf of any other employees. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully opposed the 22 propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, as 23 demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal.
24 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the class
25 has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 26 certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial was 27 by no means a foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 25.

28 After arm's length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel, the Parties

1 recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of 2 $325,000. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those here:

3 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 4 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 5 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 6 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 7 litigating an appeal. ‘The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 8 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.’”

9 2007 WL 221862, at *4 (quoting In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 213 F.3d 454, 458 10 (9th Cir. 2000)).

11 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 12 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

13 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does 14 not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiffs or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class 15 Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will 16 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 17 based upon the Workweeks worked by that individual. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 4.

18 Plaintiff will apply to the Court for a Class Representative Service Payment in consideration 19 for her service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Plaintiff 20 performed her duties admirably by working with Class Counsel for over a year. The Declaration of the 21 Plaintiff is submitted herewith in support. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 27. At this stage, the requested 22 service award amount not to exceed $10,000 is within the accepted range of awards for purposes of 23 preliminary approval. See e.g. Andrews v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 24 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (the requested service awards of $15,000 each are appropriate); 25 Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting 26 request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386
27 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL
28 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. 2008) (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs); Glass v. UBS
Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in overtime class action). As explained in Glass, service awards are routinely awarded to class representatives to compensate the employees for the time and effort expended on the case, for the risk of litigation, for

1 the fear of suing an employer and retaliation there from, and to serve as an incentive to vindicate the 2 statutory rights of all employees. 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17.

3 4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit
4 Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

5 The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 6 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted 7 a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began investigating the Class
8 Members' claims before the Action was filed, and during the course of litigation, Class Counsel 9 performed informal discovery which included the production of hundreds of pages of documents and 10 data. Class Counsel conducted a review and analysis of the relevant documents and data. Class 11 Counsel was also experienced with the claims at issue here, as Class Counsel previously litigated and 12 settled similar claims in other actions. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class 13 Counsel possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of 14 success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. Decl.
15 Nordrehaug at ¶ 28.

16 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 17 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set 18 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 19 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 20 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. There can be no doubt that Counsel for both 21 Parties possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of 22 success on the merits and the risks of further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 29.

23 V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

24 Plaintiff contends that the proposed settlement meets all of the requirements for class 25 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the 26 Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 27 conditionally certify the Class, for settlement purposes only, defined as:

28 All individuals who were employed by Defendant Summit Medical Staffing, LLC who were classified as non-exempt in the State of California at any time during the Class

1 Period.

2 (Agreement at ¶ 1.5).

3 The Class Period is from April 17, 2019 through December 30, 2024. (Agreement at ¶ 1.13).

4 A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

5 Plaintiff seeks certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil 6 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized the standard for determining whether 7 class certification is appropriate as follows:

8 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 9 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, 10 and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court....” The party seeking 11 certification has the burden to establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and 12 a well-defined community of interest among class members. (citations omitted). The 13 “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 14 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 15 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

16 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

17 While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute that the Plaintiff can satisfy these requirements, 18 the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied in this case 19 for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for purposes of 20 settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.12.)

21 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

22 Plaintiff bring this Action on behalf of a Class of non-exempt employees of Defendant during 23 the Class Period. Plaintiff asserts that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class 24 members can readily be determined through examination of Defendant’s files. Given that the Class 25 consists of approximately 150 members, Plaintiff maintains that numerosity is clearly satisfied. See 26 Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members sufficiently numerous); Rose 27 v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity 28 requirement.) Here, Plaintiff asserts that the 150 current and former employees that comprise the Class can be identified based on Defendant’s records and are sufficiently numerous for class certification.
Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 30.

1 C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

2 Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be 3 dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg 4 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). “Predominance is a comparative concept, and ‘the 5 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 6 fact questions predominate.’” Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

7 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 8 employer’s policies impact its employees. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 9 1536 (2008) (“[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 10 drivers.”) Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 11 certification stage since the question is “essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 12 is legally or factually meritorious.” Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

13 Here, Plaintiff contends that common questions of law and fact are present, specifically the 14 common questions of whether Defendant’s employment practices were lawful, whether Defendant 15 failed to provide meal and rest periods to Class Members, whether Class Members were lawfully 16 compensated for all hours worked, whether Defendant failed to provide required expense 17 reimbursement, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and penalties as a result of these 18 practices. Plaintiff contends that certification of this Class is appropriate because Defendant allegedly 19 engaged in uniform practices with respect to the Class Members. As a result, these common questions 20 of liability could be answered on a class wide basis. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 30. Defendant disputes that 21 common questions predominate but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

22 D. The Claims of the Plaintiff Are Typical of the Class Claims

23 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiff to demonstrate that the members of the class 24 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiff. “The typicality requirement is met when the claims 25 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories.” Tate v.
26 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 27 Circuit held that “[u]nder the rule's permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are 28 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.”

1 In this case, Plaintiff contends that the typicality requirement is fully satisfied. Plaintiff, like 2 every other member of the Class, was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee during the 3 Class Period, and, like every other member of the Class, was subject to the same employment practices.
4 Plaintiff, like every other member of the Class, also claims owed compensation as a result of the 5 Defendant's uniform company policies and practices. Thus, the claims of Plaintiff and the members 6 of the Class arise from the same course of conduct by Defendant, involve the same issues, and are based 7 on the same legal theories. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 30. For purposes of settlement, Plaintiff assert that 8 the typicality requirement is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant denies 9 disputes that Plaintiff's claims are typical of the class, but does not oppose a finding of typicality for 10 purposes of this Settlement only.

11 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protected the Class

12 Plaintiff contends that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiff and 13 representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will 14 prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is 15 met here. First, Plaintiff is well aware of her duties as the representative of the Class and has actively 16 participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiff effectively communicated with Class 17 Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and participated in the investigation 18 and resolution of the class claims. The personal involvement of the Plaintiff was essential to the 19 prosecution of the claims and the monetary settlement reached. Second, Plaintiff retained competent 20 counsel who are experienced in employment class actions and who have no conflicts. Decl.
21 Nordrehaug at ¶ 31. Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the Plaintiff and those of 22 the Class. Both the Plaintiff and the Class Members seek monetary relief under the same set of facts 23 and legal theories. Under such circumstances, there can be no conflicts of interest, and adequacy of 24 representation is satisfied. Reaves v. Ketoro, Inc., 2020 U.S. Dist. Lexis 167926, *23 (C.D. Cal. 2020).
25 Defendant disputes that the adequacy requirement is satisfied but will not oppose such a finding for 26 purposes of this Settlement only.

27 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

28 To certify a class, the Court must also determine that a class action is superior to other available

1 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. “Where classwide litigation of 2 common issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater efficiency, a class action may be 3 superior to other methods of litigation.” Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir.
4 1996). As courts have previously observed:

5 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 6 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert 7 testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense 8 to both the judicial system and the litigants.

9 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340.

10 Here, Plaintiff contends that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the claims 11 as pled by the Plaintiff. While Defendant disputes that class treatment is superior, Defendant does not 12 dispute a finding of superiority in this action for purposes of this Settlement only.

13 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

14 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. The Parties have 15 agreed upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the 16 Settlement similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements. In accordance 17 with the Agreement, Defendant will provide to the Administrator a confidential electronic spreadsheet 18 containing the Class Data. (Agreement at ¶ 4.2.) Within 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the 19 Administrator will mail the Class Notice Packet to all Class Members via first-class U.S. Mail using 20 the most current mailing address information available. (Agreement at ¶ 8.4(b).) The Class Notice 21 Packet will include a Request for Exclusion form and a Dispute form in the mailing. (Agreement at 22 ¶ 1.12.) The Class Notice Packet will include a Spanish translation. (Agreement at ¶ 1.11.)

23 The Class Notice, drafted jointly and agreed upon by the Parties through their respective counsel
24 and to be approved by the Court, includes all relevant information. (See Exhibit “A” to the Agreement.)
25 The Class Notice will include, among other information: (i) information regarding the Action; (ii) the 26 impact on the rights of the Class Members if they do not opt out, including a description of the 27 applicable release; (iii) information to the Class Members regarding how to opt out and how to object 28 to the Settlement; (iv) the estimated Individual Class Payment for each of the Class Members; (iii) the amount of attorneys’ fees and expenses to be sought; (v) the amount of the Plaintiff’s service award

1 requested; and (vi) the anticipated expenses of the Administrator. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 32.

2 The Class Notice will state that the Class Members shall have sixty (60) days from the date that 3 the Class Notice is mailed to them (the “Response Deadline”) to request exclusion (opt-out) or to 4 submit a written objection. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.42, 8.5, 8.7.) Class Members shall be given the 5 opportunity to object to the Settlement and/or requests for attorneys’ fees and expenses and to appear 6 at the Final Approval Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) Class Members who do not submit a timely and 7 proper request to opt-out will automatically receive a payment of their Individual Class Payment. This 8 notice program was designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all 9 pertinent information concerning the Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 32. The mailing and 10 distribution of the Class Notice satisfies the requirements of due process and is the best notice 11 practicable under the circumstances and complies with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).

12 VII. CONCLUSION

13 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and 14 sign the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, and schedule the final approval hearing for the proposed 15 date of May 15, 2026, which is at least one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of Preliminary 16 Approval.
