- (7) CIVIL PENALTIES UNDER THE
PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL
ACT (LABOR CODE § 2698, et seq.).

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL
UNLIMITED CIVIL CASE

1 Plaintiff Elias Martinez (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,
2 hereby brings this Class and Representative Action Complaint against TRC Investments LLC dba
3 Servpro; and Does 1 through 100, inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), and on information and 4 belief alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION

6 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this 7 class and representative action for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California
8 Business and Professions Code section 17200, et. seq.; Labor Code sections 201-204, 226.7, 510,
9 512, 516, 558, 1194, 1198, 2802, 2804, and 2698 et seq; and Industrial Welfare Commission
10 Wage Order No. 4 (“Wage Order 4”), in addition to seeking declaratory relief and restitution.
11 This class action is brought pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. This Court has 12 jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy
13 exceeds this Court’s jurisdictional minimum.

14 VENUE

15 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil 16 Procedure §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as at least some of the acts and omissions complained of herein 17 occurred in Los Angeles County. Defendants own, maintain offices, transact business, have an 18 agent or agents within Los Angeles County, and/or otherwise are found within Los Angeles
19 County, and Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

20 PARTIES

21 3. Plaintiff is an individual over the age of eighteen (18). At all relevant times herein, 22 Plaintiff was, and currently is, a California resident. During the four years immediately preceding 23 the filing of this action and within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of 24 action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee. Plaintiff
25 was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies and/or practices complained of herein, lost money
26 and/or property, and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by California Labor Code §§ 201-
27 204, 226.7, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1194, 1198, 2802, 2804, 2698 et seq; California Business &
28 Professions Code § 17200, et seq. (Unfair Competition), and Wage Order 4, which sets

1 employment standards for employees in professional, technical, clerical, mechanical, and similar 2 occupations.

3 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the four
4 years preceding the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants did (and do)
5 business as a fire and water damage cleanup and restoration company, and that they employed
6 Plaintiff and other similarly situated non-exempt employees within Los Angeles County and the 7 state of California.

8 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner,
9 or corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, and for that reason, said
10 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 11 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed 12 and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
13 partners, or corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, 14 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined in Paragraph 15) to be subject to the 15 unlawful employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

16 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
17 mentioned herein, Defendants were and are the employers of Plaintiff and all Class members.

18 7. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the acts 19 herein alleged to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore, the Defendants, and 20 each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other Defendants, as well
21 as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned were acting within the course
22 and scope of said agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, 23 and/or otherwise ratified each of the acts or omissions alleged herein.

24 8. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of 25 and engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course
26 and scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further,
27 Plaintiff alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and all Class
28 Members (as defined in Paragraph 15).

10. During Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff worked overtime hours, but did not receive overtime compensation equal to one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for overtime hours. Specifically, Defendants paid Plaintiff a base rate of pay and paid him at higher rates of pay for prevailing wage projects and/or other specific projects. However, Defendants paid Plaintiff for overtime at 1.5 times his base rate of pay and failed to incorporate Plaintiff's other rates of pay during the pay period into his "regular rate" when calculating overtime, and therefore failed to properly calculate Plaintiff's regular rate of pay for overtime purposes. For example, in the pay period ending December 27, 2020, Plaintiff's wage statement reflects a total of 37.85 regular hours paid at a rate of $16.00 and 4.00 Prevailing Wage hours paid at a rate of $57.78 per hour. In that same pay period, Plaintiff's wage statement reflects 4.39 hours of overtime, but rather than incorporating all of his rates of pay in the regular rate and paying Plaintiff overtime at 1.5 times his "regular rate" for those hours, Defendants paid him at 1.5 times his base rate of pay (i.e., at $24.00/hour) for those overtime hours. On information and belief, Defendants have paid other non-exempt employees in the same manner for their overtime wages. Thus, as a result of this practice, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were paid less than one and one-half times (or two times in the case of double-time hours) their "regular rate" of pay for overtime hours worked.

11. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other employees for expenses they incurred in the course of their employment. Specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff to use his personal cellular phone to, among other things, take pictures of his completed work and to check his work schedule. Despite requiring Plaintiff to use his personal cellular phone for work, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff for any portion of his personal cellular phone bill. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff and other employees are entitled to reimbursement pursuant to Labor Code § 2802 and Cochran v. Schwan's Home Service, Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1137 (2014).

1 12. Defendants have also failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees
2 with all statutorily mandated meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices.
3 Specifically, the workload imposed on Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees often made it
4 impracticable for them to take a 30-minute off-duty meal period prior to the end of the fifth hour
5 of work. In those instances that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt
6 employees with a legally compliant meal period, Defendants failed to pay the meal period
7 premiums required by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief, during at least a portion 8 of the putative class period, Defendants maintained no payroll code or other mechanism for 9 paying meal period premiums when Defendants failed to provide a legally compliant meal period.

10 13. Defendants have also failed to authorize and permit rest periods to Plaintiff and 11 other non-exempt employees. Specifically, Defendants have failed to authorize and permit a 10-12 minute net rest period for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof, as Plaintiff and other
13 non-exempt employees were frequently unable to take the rest periods to which they were entitled 14 as a result of the workload imposed by Defendants. In those instances that Defendants failed to 15 authorize and permit Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to take a legally compliant rest 16 period, Defendants failed to pay the rest period premiums required by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon 17 information and belief, during at least a portion of the putative class period, Defendants 18 maintained no payroll code or other mechanism for paying rest period premiums when 19 Defendants failed to authorize and permit a legally compliant rest period.

20 14. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages, as well as Defendants'
21 failure to pay meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed to pay all wages to Plaintiff
22 and other formerly employed non-exempt employees at the separation of their employment.

23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24 15. Class Definitions: Plaintiff bring this action on behalf of himself and the following 25 Classes pursuant to Section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

26 a. The Overtime Class consists of all of the Defendants' current and former non-27 exempt employees in California who have worked more than 8.0 hours in a workday and/or 28 over 40.0 hours in a workweek, and earned multiple rates of pay in the same pay period, at any time from four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

b. The Meal Period Class consists of all of the Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees in California who have worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours, at any time from four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

c. The Rest Period Class consists of all of the Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees in California who have worked at least one shift of 3.5 hours or more, at any time from four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

d. The Waiting Time Class consists of all members of the Overtime Class, Meal Period Class, and/or Rest Period Class, who are no longer employed by Defendants and whose employment with Defendants ended at any time from three years immediately preceding the filing of this lawsuit through the present.

e. The Expense Reimbursement Class consists of all of Defendants' employees who were required to use their personal cellular phones for work-related purposes, at any time from four years prior to the filing of this action through the present.

16. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impracticable. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the Classes number greater than fifty (50) individuals in each Class. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via Defendants' employment records.

17. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well Defined Community of Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

i. Whether Defendants' payroll practices violate the applicable Labor Code provisions including, but not limited to, Sections 510 and 1194 by requiring overtime work and not paying the Overtime Class for said work according to California's overtime laws;

ii. Whether Defendants provided legally compliant meal periods to members of the Meal Period Class;

iii. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted legally compliant rest periods to members of the Rest Period Class;

iv. Whether Defendants paid all wages due to members of the Waiting Time Class at the time of separation of employment;

v. Whether Defendants properly reimbursed expenses incurred by members of the Expense Reimbursement Class.

18. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that affect only individual Class members. The common questions of law set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member, such as Defendants' overtime, meal period, rest period, expense reimbursement, and final wage policies/practices. As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class member's showing as to his or her eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of his or her damages.

19. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Classes because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s) of limitation applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint in this action. As alleged herein, Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was deprived of all earned overtime wages, was subject to Defendants' uniform meal and rest period policies/practices, was deprived of all final wages upon his separation of employment from Defendants, and was not reimbursed for all expenses he incurred in carrying out his job duties for Defendants.

20. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's attorneys are ready, willing, and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have prosecuted numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the members of the Classes.

21. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily gain an unfair advantage, as they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources. Moreover, requiring each member of the Classes to pursue an individual remedy would discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by individual class members would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants. Further, the claims of the individual members of the Classes are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As such, the Classes identified in Paragraph 15 are maintainable under Code Civ. Proc. § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

22. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

23. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime wages for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

24. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class for all overtime hours worked pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 4. Wage Order 4, § 3 requires an employer to pay an employee “one and one-half (1½) times [the] employee’s regular rate of pay” for work in excess of 8 hours per workday and/or in excess of 40 hours in any workweek, and for the first 8 hours on the seventh consecutive workday in a workweek. Wage Order 4, § 3 also requires an employer to pay an employee double the employee’s regular rate of pay for work in excess of 12 hours in a workday and/or in excess of 8 hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in the workweek. Defendants caused Plaintiff and Overtime Class members to work overtime hours but did not compensate them at one and one-half times (or two times) their regular rate of pay for such hours.

25. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and create entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the Overtime Class in a civil action for the unpaid amount of overtime premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and attorneys’ fees and costs of suit according to California Labor Code §§ 204, 218.6, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

26. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporate by reference all previous paragraphs.

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to provide all their hourly non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all required meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the California Labor Code and Wage Order 4, for the reasons set forth in this Complaint.

28. As a result, Defendants owe premium compensation for meal period violations, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Wage Order 4, Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, Civil Code § 3287, and Art. XV, § 1 of the California Constitution.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

30. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516, and Wage Order 4, § 12 establish the right of employees to be authorized and permitted a rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour period worked, or major fraction thereof.

31. As alleged herein, Defendants failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Rest Period Class members to take their legally entitled rest periods. Defendants also failed to compensate Plaintiff and Rest Period Class members with a rest period premium for each rest period to which they were entitled while working.

32. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and Rest Period Class members in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, civil penalties, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; Civil Code § 3287; and Art. XV, § 1 of the California Constitution.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

WAITING TIME PENALTIES

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

34. This cause of action is brought per Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an employer to pay all wages immediately at separation of employment in the event the employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit, said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours after the employee quits.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their separation from employment, including (but not limited to) unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid meal and rest period premium wages.

36. Further, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-203.

37. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in a continued payment of daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due. Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class are entitled to compensation pursuant to Labor Code § 203, plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

38. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

39. At all relevant times, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which states that “an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.”

40. At all relevant times, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2804, which states, “any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any employee to waive the benefits of this article or any part thereof, is null and void, and this article shall not deprive any employee or his personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is entitled under the laws of this State.”

1 41. Due to Defendants' unlawful policy and practice of requiring employees to use
2 their personal cellular phones for work purposes, and their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and 3 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class, Defendants have violated Labor Code § 2802.

4 42. As a proximate result of Defendants' policies and/or practices in violation of Labor
5 Code §§ 2802 and 2804, Plaintiff and members of the Expense Reimbursement Class suffered 6 damages in sums, which will be shown according to proof.

7 43. Plaintiff and members of the Expense Reimbursement Class are entitled to 8 attorneys' fees and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(c) for bringing this action.

9 44. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(b), any action brought for the reimbursement of 10 necessary expenditures carries interest at the same rate as judgments in civil actions. Thus,
11 Plaintiff and members of the Employee Expense Class are entitled to interest, which shall accrue 12 from the date on which they incurred the initial necessary expenditure.

13 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 UNFAIR COMPETITION

15 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

16 45. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

17 46. Defendants have engaged, and continue to engage, in unfair and/or unlawful 18 business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by failing to pay
19 Plaintiff and the Classes all overtime wages due, failing to provide meal periods or pay meal
20 period premium wages, failure to authorize and permit rest periods or pay rest period premium
21 wages, failing to reimburse business expenses, and failing to pay all earned wages at separation 22 of employment.

23 47. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices has 24 deprived Plaintiff and members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally entitled,
25 constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 26 Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting 27 to do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

28 ///

1 48. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 2 herein, Plaintiff for himself, and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 3 monies as necessary and according to proof, to restore all monies withheld, acquired, and/or 4 converted by Defendants pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

5 49. The acts complained of herein occurred within the four years immediately
6 preceding the filing of this action.

7 50. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 8 protect his interests and those of the Classes, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf
9 of Defendants' current non-exempt employees, and to enforce important rights affecting the 10 public interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, 11 which he is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

12 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

14 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

15 51. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

16 52. Defendants have committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff and 17 other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" within the meaning of Labor
18 Code § 2698 et seq. Plaintiff, acting on behalf of himself and other aggrieved employees, brings 19 this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other
20 aggrieved employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§
21 558 and 2699 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial violation for 22 each failure to pay each employee and $200.00 for each subsequent violation or willful or 23 intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code § 210 for each failure to pay each employee, plus 24 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and $100.00 for each 25 subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3) $100.00 for 26 each initial violation and $250.00 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 1197.1
27 per employee per pay period; (4) $250.00 for each initial violation of Labor Code § 226 and 28 $1,000.00 for each subsequent violation, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3, per employee per pay period; and/or (5) $100.00 for each initial violation and $200.00 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided, based on the following Labor Code violations:

- a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all overtime and/or double-time compensation earned, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;
- b. Failing to provide all legally required meal periods and failing to pay meal period premiums to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees at the employees' respective regular rates of compensation, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198;
- c. Failing to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods and failing to pay rest period premiums to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees at the employees' respective regular rates of compensation, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 201, 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198;
- d. Failing to pay all wages owed to Plaintiff and other aggrieved former employees at their separation of employment, in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203;
- e. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with accurate and complete itemized wage statements, in violation Labor Code § 226;
- f. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees for all work-related expenses, in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802, 2804, and 1198; and
- g. Failing to maintain accurate records on behalf of Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees, in violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1198.

53. On or about February 13, 2023, Plaintiff notified Defendant TRC Investments, LLC, via certified mail, and the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") via its website, of Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code and Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. with respect to the violations of the California Labor Code identified in paragraph 52 (a)-(g) above. Now that sixty-five days have passed from Plaintiff's notifying Defendants and the LWDA of these violations, Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

54. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the interests of other aggrieved employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff has thereby incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which he is entitled to recover under California Labor Code § 2699(g).

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and for all others on whose behalf this suit is brought against Defendants, as follows:

1. For an order certifying the proposed Classes;
2. For an order appointing Plaintiff as representative of the Classes;
3. For an order appointing counsel for Plaintiff as counsel for the Classes;
4. Upon the First Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;
5. Upon the Second Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 1198;
6. Upon the Third Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, and 1198;
7. Upon the Fourth Cause of Action, for statutory waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203;
8. Upon the Fifth Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2804;
