1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Paul Papel (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $2,400,000.00
4 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant McNib Corporation dba 5 McDonald’s (“Defendant”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to 6 approximately 3,767 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement 7 satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached 8 after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and 9 were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Steve Cerveris, Esq., over the course of a 10 full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. After extensive negotiations and discussions 11 regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties 12 reached a settlement on December 19, 2024. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court 13 preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the 14 proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

15 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

16 A. Plaintiff’s Claims

17 This is a wage and hour class action and PAGA (Private Attorney General Act) (Cal.
18 Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and putative class members worked 19 in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period.
20 Defendant is a McDonald’s franchise that, based on Plaintiff’s analysis, has operated at least 23 21 unique locations in Southern California throughout the class period. (Declaration of Benjamin 22 H. Haber in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement
23 [“Haber Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

24 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices 25 resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours 26 worked. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally 27 compliant meal and rest periods, and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based 28 on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

On January 31, 2023, Plaintiff filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); and (8) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200 et seq.). On June 21, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint against Defendant adding claims for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA on February 13, 2023. (Haber Decl., ¶ 4, Ex. 1 [LWDA Submission Letter].)

B. Discovery and Investigation

Following the filing of the Complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information before mediating this action. Defendant produced a sample of time and pay records for class members. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies and practices during the class period, and information regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices, analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, and interviewing Class Members, Class Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) The damages model was based on a sample size of 544,346 shifts out of an estimated 1,336,857 total shifts worked by class members. (Id.)

1 C. Settlement Negotiations

2 On February 8, 2024, the parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 3 action mediator Steve Cerveris, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom. The 4 settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner,
5 were adversarial. The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 6 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial 7 and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 8 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s 9 defenses, the Parties reached a settlement the material terms of which are encompassed within 10 the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class 11 Notice].)

12 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 13 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 14 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 15 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 16 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 17 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 17.)

18 Indeed, the $2,400,000.00 Settlement represents 61.9% of the realistic maximum 19 recovery of $3,874,146.80. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Although disputed by Defendant, Class Counsel 20 estimated that Defendant’s maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $40
21 million, when the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class 22 Counsel believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was $3,874,146.80, meaning the 23 Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 17-30.) Considering the risk and 24 uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class.
25 (Id. at ¶ 26.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, 26 guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

27 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

28 The Parties used the Los Angeles Superior Court’s Form Class Action and PAGA

Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. The Settlement’s key terms include:

1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

2. Class Period: “means the period from January 31, 2019 to April 8, 2024.” (Settlement, § 1.12.)

3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.35.)

4. Aggrieved Employees: “means all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, § 1.4.)

5. PAGA Period: “means the period from February 13, 2022 to April 8, 2024.” (Settlement, § 1.31.)

6. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $2,400,000.00, for all claims, including Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment and the Administrator’s Expenses. (Settlement, § 1.22.)

7. Uncashed Checks: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a valid mailing address by performing a skip trace search and, if another address is identified, shall mail the check to the newly identified address. Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after one hundred and eighty (180) days shall be transmitted to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no “unpaid residue” subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

8. Release: “All Settlement Class Members who do not timely opt out of the Settlement will release Defendant and its past, present and/or future, direct and/or indirect, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, insurers, partners, investors, shareholders, administrators, parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, predecessors,

1 successors, assigns, and joint venturers from all causes of action and claims that were alleged in 2 the Action or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts and legal theories contained 3 in the operative complaint, including all of the following claims for relief: (i) failure to pay 4 minimum and straight wages; (ii) failure to pay overtime wages; (iii) failure to provide meal 5 periods; (iv) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (v) failure to timely pay final wages at 6 termination; (vi) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (vii) failure to indemnify 7 employees for expenditures; (viii) unfair business practices that could have been premised on the 8 claims, causes of action or legal theories of relief described above or any of the claims causes of 9 action or legal theories of relief pleaded in the operative complaint. (collectively, the “Release 10 Claims”)” (Settlement, §6.2.) This Release will be deemed effective on the date when Defendant 11 fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the 12 Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments. (Settlement, § 6.)

13 9. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.”
14 (Settlement, § 3.1.)

15 10. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $50,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff’s 16 claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($37,500.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25%
17 ($12,500.00) being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 1.34.) Class Counsel 18 submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary 19 Approval. (Haber Decl., ¶ 10.)

20 11. Net Settlement Amount: The “Net Settlement Amount” is the amount that remains 21 and that shall be paid to Settlement Class Members after the following amounts are subtracted:
22 Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, 23 Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration
24 Expenses Payment. (Settlement, § 1.28.)

25 12. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 26 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 27 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 28 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties $12,500.00 by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods." (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

13. Tax Allocation: Any settlement money paid to Settlement Class Members will be allocated as 33% wages, 67% to penalties and interest. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

14. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff shall be paid an enhancement award not to exceed $15,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for Plaintiff's time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 6.1.1.) If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

15. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($800,000.00) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $30,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

16. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. 1, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 8.4.) ILYM Group, Inc., the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Haber Decl., ¶ 12, Ex. 5 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This

1 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
2 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 3 through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 4 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
5 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

6 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 7 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 8 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 9 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 10 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 11 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 12 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 13 that the class settlement is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 14 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 15 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 16 require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 17 prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy 18 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

19 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 20 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 21 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

22 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 23 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

24 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed
25 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

26 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 27 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 28 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)

1 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
2 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 3 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 4 to approve the settlement.”].)

5 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 6 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Steve Cerveris, Esq. (Haber Decl. ¶ 7.) The 7 settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner,
8 were adversarial. (Id.) The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 9 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 10 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 11 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, 12 the Parties reached an agreement. (Haber Decl. ¶ 8.)

13 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 14 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 15 records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 16 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 17 as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 18 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages 19 paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 20 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 21 litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 22 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

23 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 24 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 41-48.) Again, this supports the position that the 25 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 26 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 27 action.

28 ///

2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties' Respective Legal Positions

A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Haber Decl., ¶ 28.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 27.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

The proposed settlement of $2,400,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 17-30.) Because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $2,400,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $392.35. (Id. at ¶ 29.)

3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 41-48.) Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

1 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

2 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 3 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 4 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 5 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 6 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 7 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

8 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

9 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 10 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $800,000.00, which is 33 1/3% of the gross 11 Settlement Amount, and up to $30,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 12 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

13 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund"
14 Method

15 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 16 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 17 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 18 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 19 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 20 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

21 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common 22 fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all 23 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent v.
24 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 25 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in 26 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 27 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 28 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized

1 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 2 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

3 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 4 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 5 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 6 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 7 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 8 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 9 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 10 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—11 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
12 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

13 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

14 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 15 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 16 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 17 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 18 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
19 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 20 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 21 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 22 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 23 million].)

24 Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 25 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature 26 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 27 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the 28 lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].)

1 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys' fees as negotiated 2 by the parties and requested herein.

3 3. This Matter Involves A "Fee-Shifting" Provision of the Labor Code

4 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of "minimum wage or overtime 5 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit." Under this 6 section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys' fees, even if those fees were 7 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 8 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 9 Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 10 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class 11 Counsel. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 39-40.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 12 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the 13 Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class 14 ahead of all other concerns.

15 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 16 Requested Fee Award

17 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 18 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Haber 19 Decl., ¶¶ 41-48.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class 20 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class
21 counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel's requested fee 22 award is supported here.

23 Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 24 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
25 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 26 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 27 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 28 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award

1 is reasonable and fair.

2 D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

3 Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and “there is no 4 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other” class members, 5 such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr.
6 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for 7 PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement.
8 (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D.
9 Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v.
10 Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts 11 approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].) Here, 12 the amount to be paid to the LWDA is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved 13 by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g. Zubia 14 v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, 15 at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, supra, (N.D. Cal. Aug. 8, 2008) 2008
16 WL 3385452, at *1 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking,
17 Inc. (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving 18 a PAGA settlement of 0.27%].) Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith amount of $50,000.00, 19 75% percent of which ($37,500.00) will be paid to the LWDA, with 25% ($12,500.00) to be 20 distributed to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement at §1.33.) The $50,000.00 settlement amount 21 equates to approximately 2.1% of the Gross Settlement Amount, which far exceeds amounts that 22 are routinely approved. The parties negotiated to allocate 2.1% of the Settlement to PAGA
23 penalties in good faith and this amount is reasonable considering that the maximum PAGA 24 penalties were estimated at $4,501,200.00 (which assumed $100 per pay period). (Haber Decl. ¶ 25 25.)

26 E. The Service Award to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

27 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 28 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other

1 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 2 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 3 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 4 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
5 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

6 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 7 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 8 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 9 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 10 work under substandard unlawful conditions”). Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court 11 has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 12 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
13 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 14 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
15 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

16 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 17 a Service Award in the amount of $15,000.00 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for 18 Plaintiff’s general release of all claims against Defendant. Courts routinely approve a $15,000.00 19 enhancement award for plaintiffs represented by Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium 20 Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a 21 $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez, supra, 2024 WL 150721 at p. *4 [“The court
22 approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].) Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff 23 devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel
24 very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class 25 Counsel during the mediation. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 31-35.) This amount is reasonable particularly in 26 light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl 27 Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-DB, former Wilshire
28 Law Firm partner Justin F. Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339

1 class members, and the court approved a $25,000 class representative incentive award for each
2 named plaintiff. (Haber Decl., ¶ 35.)

3 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 4 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 5 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class
6 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg 7 & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev.
8 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class 9 actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named 10 plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median 11 award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in 12 employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 13 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization 14 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

15 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

16 A. Legal Standard

17 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 18 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 19 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 20 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 21 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 22 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 23 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) 24 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest 25 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 26 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 27 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 28 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 1 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class

2 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29
3 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

4 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
5 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 6 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 7 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 8 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 9 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

10 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 11 Settlement Purposes.

12 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

13 The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 14 approximately 3,767 employees of Defendant.

15 Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 16 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 17 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
18 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 19 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

20 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 21 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 22 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 23 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
24 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 25 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 26 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 27 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 28 Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

1 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

2 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 3 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 4 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 5 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 6 Cal.App.3d 605.)

7 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 8 policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendant had legally 9 compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; 10 whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including 11 overtime wages; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether final 12 payment of wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal period premium 13 wages, and rest period premium wages; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-14 compliant. Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified 15 class members, including Plaintiff. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, 16 the same alleged injuries.

17 3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

18 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 19 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 20 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 21 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 22 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 23 situated" vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 24 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 25 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as 26 such, he alleges that he was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 27 employees.

28 ///

1 4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

2 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 3 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 4 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 5 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

6 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel 7 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 8 previously settled. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 41-48.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 9 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 10 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, 11 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. Plaintiff's 12 willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates his serious commitment to bringing about the 13 best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

14 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

15 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 16 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
17 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the 18 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 19 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-20 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 21 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 22 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 443, 457-62; Leyva v.
23 Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the 24 superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

25 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

26 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

27 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 28 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an

1 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 2 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 3 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 4 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 5 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided 6 by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

7 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

8 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 9 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 10 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 11 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 12 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

13 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 14 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 15 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 16 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 17 Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 18 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 19 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 20 combined settlement-certification class notice.

21 VI. CONCLUSION

22 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 23 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing.

24 Respectfully submitted,
