I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

This matter is a “Wage and Hour” representative (i.e., “PAGA”) and Proposed class action. Plaintiffs DAVID ALEGRIA and MAURO MORENO, Individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, brings Labor Code claims against Defendants NEXEN TIRE AMERICA, INC., (hereinafter, “NEXEN ” or “Defendant”).

Following approximately 31 months of formal litigation, multiple depositions, a full-day of Mediation, full briefing of a Motion for Class Certification, and extensive arms length negotiations, the parties agreed to the terms of a class and PAGA action settlement. The parties have drafted and executed a Joint “Stipulation of Settlement and Release” (the “Agreement”), lodged as Exhibit A<sup>1</sup> to the declaration of Eric K. Yaeckel. Briefly, the parties’ settlement figures are estimated as follows:

| Approximate size of class:      | 37 individuals                                  |
| Notice Period:                  | 45 days from Mailing of Notice                  |
| Settlement Fund (“GSA”):        | $250,000.00                                    |
| Settlement administration:      | $2,874.10 (or less)                            |
| Class representative incentive: | $15,000.00 ($7,500.00 each)                   |
| LWDA payment:                   | $11,250.00 (75 % Share of $15,000 allocation) |
| Attorney's fees:                | $83,333.00 (1/3 of total)                      |
| Litigation costs:               | $20,000.00                                     |

The estimated average payment (before taxes) to each Class Member based on the above figures will be $3,176.83. These estimates are an “average” only, and do not account for the fact that Class Members will receive more or less than an “average” share, as the amounts owed are calculated based on the number of workweeks each individual worked for Defendants during the class period.

Please Note: This is a non reversionary settlement, in that the entire Net Settlement Amount, after the awarded costs, taxes and fees are deducted, will be automatically disbursed to all Class Members who do not file a request to “opt-out” of participation in the lawsuit. (Ex. A at ¶51).

<sup>1</sup> This Memorandum incorporates by reference the definitions in the Agreement and the terms used herein are intended to have the same meaning as set forth in the Agreement.

1 Plaintiffs now move the Court for an order: (1) preliminarily approving the proposed class
2 action settlement; (2) directing that Notice (defined below) of the settlement be provided to Class
3 Members; and (3) scheduling a hearing for final approval of the proposed settlement and entry of the 4 parties' proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. Defendants do not oppose Plaintiffs' motion.

5 II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

6 The class is comprised of all hourly, non-exempt employees of Defendant who performed work
7 for Defendant in California at any time from February 22, 2019, through July 14, 2025.

8 1. The Operative Claims, Investigation and Informal Discovery Conducted

9 On February 22, 2023, Plaintiff Alegria filed the Complaint in this matter. The Complaint
10 alleged proposed class claims only, under the California Labor code involving, inter alia, (1) failure
11 to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay proper overtime compensation; (3) failure to provide meal
12 breaks; (4) failure to provide rest breaks; (5) failure to reimburse employees for necessary business 13 expenses; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and (7) failure to pay all wages to 14 upon termination. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶ 3; ROA # 5). On June 5, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended
15 Complaint, adding representative PAGA claims for penalties based on the same violations asserted 16 in his original complaint. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶ 3; ROA #19).

17 Please Note: As part of this settlement, and prior to preliminary approval, Plaintiff Alegria will 18 file a Second Amended Complaint (the "Operative Complaint"), (1) adding Plaintiff Mauro Moreno
19 as a plaintiff, and (2) to conform the pleadings with the scope of the Released Class Claims and 20 Released PAGA Claims. (Exhibit A at ¶32).

21 On July 17, 2023, Plaintiff propounded discovery requests on NEXEN. (Yaeckel decl. ¶4).
22 Through these requests, Plaintiff sought, among other information and documents, the identities of 23 putative class members, compensation policies, Meal and Rest Period policies, employee handbooks,
24 wage statements, payroll records, time records, job descriptions, and reimbursement policies. (Id.).

25 NEXEN provided discovery responses, documents, and objections to Plaintiff's requests. After 26 a lengthy meet and confer processes, NEXEN produced, inter alia, Plaintiff's time and wage records,
27 copies of the relevant employee handbooks, copies of all other relevant employee policies, the contents
28

1 of Plaintiff's employee file, Plaintiff's time records, and itemized wage statements. (Yaeckel decl. ¶5).

2 Defendant also propounded several sets of written discovery on Plaintiff. There were several 3 sets of written discovery exchanged between the parties. (Yaeckel decl. ¶ 6).

4 Following further substantive exchanges of discovery and litigation, the parties agreed to 5 explore resolution. As part of the settlement discussions, NEXEN agreed to voluntarily produce and 6 verify hundreds of pages of documents. The production included all relevant policies. It also included
7 a large sampling of other class members' time and wage data. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶7).

8 On July 14, 2025, the Parties attended a Mediation before experienced "Wage and Hour"
9 Mediator, the honorable Herbert Hoffman (Ret.). (Yaeckel Decl. ¶8). Following a full day of arms-
10 length negotiations, the Parties both agreed to a mediator's proposal to resolve all potential claims 11 against the Defendant. (Id).

12 Prior to mediation, the parties conducted depositions, including the depositions of (1) the 13 Person(s) Most Knowledgeable for NEXEN, and (2) Plaintiff Moreno. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶9).

14 2. Settlement Discussions

15 On July 14, 2025, the Parties attended a full day mediation before the experienced "Wage and 16 Hour" mediator, Herbert Hoffman (Ret.). (Yaeckel decl. ¶8). Prior to mediation, counsel for both 17 parties agreed to the informal exchange of information, and case theories and defenses pertinent to a 18 class-wide settlement. Prior to mediation, plaintiff prepared and provided a detailed mediation brief.
19 (Id).

20 As of September 2, 2025, the parties agreed on all final terms of the settlement which was 21 memorialized in the Agreement, which is attached to the declaration of Eric K. Yaeckel as Exhibit
22 A. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶10). Plaintiff now seeks the Court's preliminary approval of the Agreement. (Id).

23 III. SETTLEMENT TERMS

24 The Agreement includes the following key terms:

25 1. Contingent Nature of the Settlement

26 This Agreement is contingent upon preliminary and final approval by the Court. If for any 27 reason the Settlement does not become final, the Parties will be returned to their positions with 28

1 respect to the Action as if the Agreement had not been entered into. (Ex. A at ¶64).

2 2. Description of the Settlement Class

3 Solely for the purposes of the Agreement, the parties have agreed that the term “Class
4 Member” is defined as:

5 all persons who worked for Defendant in the State of California as a non-
6 exempt, hourly-paid employee at any time during the Class Period. (Ex. A at ¶5).

7 “Class Period” is defined as the period from February 22, 2019 through July 14, 2025. (Ex. A
8 at ¶7). The parties estimate that as of July 14, 2025, the Settlement Class consisted of Thirty-Seven 9 (37) individuals, as determined by Defendant’s employment records. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶11).

10 3. Appointment of Settlement Administrator

11 The parties agreed to use CAC Services, LLC, as the “Settlement Administrator” for purposes
12 of providing the Notice of Class Action Settlement, issuing payments pursuant to the Agreement, and 13 carrying out all duties pursuant to the Agreement. (Ex. A at ¶30). CAC’s sole business is the 14 administration of class action settlements and class action notices. (Yaeckel decl.¶12).

15 4. Scope of the Release

16 For purposes of the Agreement, Class Members release all claims that are either or both: (1)
17 alleged in the forthcoming Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”); or (2) which relate to or arise out
18 of the allegations and claims asserted in the SAC and could have been alleged in the SAC relating in 19 any way to violations of the wage and hour provisions of the California Labor Code or the California
20 Wage Orders, or any wage and hour provisions of California law. The precise release language is 21 reflected in Exhibit A at ¶¶ 52-53.

22 5. Cash Payment and Allocation

23 The Agreement provides for an automatic Individual Settlement Payment to the members of 24 the Class. No claims need be submitted. Class Members will be entitled to an average share of 25 approximately $3,176.83. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶13). The actual share will depend on the amount of 26 workweeks they were employed during the limitations period. (Ex. A at ¶41). The Individual 27 Settlement will be allocated as follows: twenty-five percent (25%) constitutes wages (subject to 28

1 withholdings and deductions and reported as wage income on a Form W-2) and seventy-five percent
2 (75%) constitutes non-wage penalties, and interest. (Ex. A at ¶59).

3 6. Proposed Settlement and Notice Program

4 Subject to Court approval, the Parties agree that, within twenty (20) days after the Court enters
5 any Order granting preliminary approval of the Settlement, Defendant NEXEN will provide to the 6 Settlement Administrator the following information for each Settlement Class Member in a readable
7 Microsoft Office Excel spreadsheet: class member names and last known addresses, social security
8 numbers, number of workweeks, and number of PAGA period workweeks. (See Ex. A at ¶¶4, 44). The 9 Settlement Administrator will perform address updates and verifications, including running all names
10 through the National Change of Address Database, prior to the first mailing. (See Ex. A at ¶46). Using 11 best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 10 days after receiving the class
12 data, the Settlement Administrator will mail the Class Notice (“Notice”) to each Class Member, by 13 first class mail. (See Ex. A, at ¶45). The parties’ agreed upon Class Notice is attached to the 14 Declaration of Eric K. Yaeckel, as Exhibit B. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶14).

15 The Notice is designed to provide Class Members with detailed information about the lawsuit,
16 the Agreement, their rights and settlement benefits, and how to participate, exclude themselves, or 17 object. (Ex. B). The Class Members will have forty-five (45) calendar days (from the date of notice)
18 to request to be excluded, or file objections. This deadline will be extended an additional 15 days if 19 notice is re-mailed. (Ex. A, at ¶28, 46; Ex. B at § IV).

20 The Class Members will be given notice of the release, and information about the expected
21 settlement amount based on the workweeks employed with Defendants during the Class Period. If they 22 wish to receive a share of the Settlement, Class Members need not take any additional action. Class
23 Members are also given instructions on how to exclude themselves, object to the Settlement, or appear 24 at the final approval hearing to state objections. (See Ex. A, at ¶¶50, 54; Ex. B at § IV).

25 The Notice process also has additional safeguards. For instance, for Notices returned as non-26 deliverable, the Settlement Administrator will perform a skip-trace and mail or re-mail Notice to an 27 updated address (if any), upon receipt of the returned mail. (See Ex. A at ¶46). It is the intent of the 28

1 parties that all reasonable means be used to locate Class Members.

2 The Notice will inform Class Members of the number of weeks worked during the Class Period
3 (according to Defendant's records) and their estimated settlement amounts. Class Members will have 4 the opportunity to dispute the workweek calculation by submitting written documentation to the 5 Settlement Administrator. (See Ex. A at ¶48; Ex. B at § III).

6 PAGA Members do not require notice prior to a settlement, nor may they opt out of the PAGA
7 penalty portion of the settlement. Robinson v. S. Ctys. Oil, (2020) 53 Cal. App. 5th 476, 482–83,
8 2020). PAGA members are nonetheless informed of the Settlement and estimated payments. PAGA
9 members can opt-out of the Class Settlement to retain all non-PAGA claims in their individual
10 capacities. These rights are explained in the Class Notice. (Ex. B at § IV).

11 7. Contingent Costs

12 The Agreement provides for Eighty-Three Thousand Three Hundred Thirty Three Dollars
13 ($83,333.00) in Attorneys' Fees, which is one-third (1/3%) of the total Settlement, and up to Twenty 14 Thousand ($20,000.00) in litigation costs. (See Ex. A at ¶34). For costs incurred in administering the 15 Settlement, the Agreement provides for an estimated Two Thousand Eight Hundred Seventy-Four 16 Dollars and Ten Cents ($2,874.10), or less. (See Ex. A at ¶36).

17 The Agreement also provides for Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) to be allocated for 18 Plaintiff's PAGA claims with 75% of the amount, or Eleven Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars
19 ($11,250.00) being paid to the LWDA, and 25%, or $3,750.00, being distributed amongst the PAGA
20 Members. (See Ex. A at ¶37).

21 The Agreement also provides payments to Plaintiffs Alegria and Moreno of Seven Thousand 22 Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500.00) each, which represents a Class Representative Enhancement 23 Payment in consideration for their services as Class Representatives. (See Ex. A at ¶35). The class is 24 being notified of the payments to Plaintiffs. (See Ex. B at § III).

25 The Class Representative Enhancement Payments were part of good faith negotiations and are 26 intended to recognize that it was the Class Representatives (Mr. Alegria and Moreno) who initiated
27 the lawsuits, initiated the PAGA claims, provided critical documents and witnesses to their attorneys,
28

1 and worked with their attorneys to propound and prepare written discovery, all in an effort to obtain
2 money allegedly owed not only to themselves, but to many other employees. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶15).
3 Please Note: the named Plaintiff's will submit detailed declarations attesting to their services
4 performed in support of the proposed enhancement awards as part of the Motion for Final Approval.

5 IV. SUMMARY OF CLAIMS AND ESTIMATES OF POTENTIAL DAMAGES

6 Counsel hereby submits estimates and calculations for the total potential value of all claims
7 so this Court may evaluate if the amount to be paid to the class ultimately could be determined to be 8 fair and reasonable when balanced against the probable outcome of the future litigation. Kullar v. Foot
9 Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133.

10 Concerning the strength of the plaintiff's case, the California Court of Appeal has said that the 11 "merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action; the 12 operative word is 'settlement.'" 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85
13 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1150 [citing, inter alia, City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp. (2d Cir. 1974) 495 F.2d
14 448,455 ("The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction the potential recovery
15 does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be 16 disapproved"); see also Linney v. Cellular Alaska P'ship. (9th Cir. 1998) 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 ("This 17 court has aptly held that 'it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful 18 and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements'"); Officers for Justice v. Civil Servo Com.
19 (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625 ("The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical 20 or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.")

21 Each of the primary claims also had risks to obtaining both class certification and a finding of 22 liability. If Defendants' defenses were successful, the class would not receive anything. Asset forth
23 below, Plaintiff submits that the most realistic "best case" scenario would be an average recovery per 24 class member of approximately $23,300.61, and a worst case scenario would be a recovery of $0, by 25 way of decertification or defense verdict. (Yaeckel decl. ¶16). Given all the risks on each claim, the 26 estimated $3,176.83 average recovery secured via this settlement is a reasonable compromise and is 27 in the best interests of the class given all the risks of continued litigation. (Yaeckel decl. ¶17).
28

1       A.     FAILURE TO PAY ALL COMPENSATION CLAIMS

2           Plaintiff's unpaid wages (and overtime) claims were based on the allegation that employees
3       were performing unpaid work due to the NEXEN timekeeping system, which required employees to 4       record their "scheduled" (not "actual") work times. Moreover, NEXEN "rounded" its employees work
5       time, even where NEXEN knows the exact time each employee "begins" and "ends" each work-shift.
6       Plaintiff alleged this resulted in regular time and overtime pay being owed where Defendants were on 7       notice of work being performed without pay. (Yaeckel decl. ¶25).

8           Defendants denied that any unpaid work occurred, and even if some did occur, Defendants
9       claimed it was not on notice of these alleged Labor Code violations and had a strict written prohibition
10      against off-the-clock work and a mandate that all time worked must be accurately recorded.
11      Defendants asserted proof of these alleged violations would require individualized inquiries, which 12      could preclude class certification and make any PAGA claims unmanageable. (Yaeckel decl. ¶26).

13           Based on Class Counsels' analysis, this claim was worth as little as $0 (a defense verdict) or 14      as much as $185,238.90. (Yaeckel decl. ¶18).

15       B.     MEAL AND REST PERIOD CLAIMS

16           Plaintiffs were able to identify hundreds of examples of missing or late Meal Periods without 17      the provision of a Meal Period penalty payment. Separately, it is undisputed that NEXEN "rounded"
18      its Meal Period times before deciding whether to pay a Meal Period Penalty. Defendants argued that 19      these records do not conclusively show whether (1) Defendants actually failed to provide the Meal
20      Period, (2) there was a voluntary waiver, (3) employees forgot to clock out, or (4) employees
21      voluntarily chose to skip or take them late even though they were provided. Defendant further argued 22      that evidence existed that rebutted any presumption that the same records could be used as a basis for 23      determining liability. Additionally, in light of the written Meal and Rest Period policy, NEXEN
24      contended there was no uniform policy or practice of denying Meal and Rest Periods, requiring 25      individualized inquiries that would make any PAGA claims unmanageable. (Yaeckel decl. ¶ 27).

26           Plaintiff alleges that the Rest Period policy (1) contained patently illegal language restricting 27      employees to the work premises, and (2) lacks additional required statutory language. Plaintiff also 28

1 alleged the Defendant's written policies improperly restricted class members from leaving the premises
2 during their Rest Periods, among other deficiencies. NEXEN pointed out that it provided for adequate
3 breaks and argued that witness testimony would demonstrate that in practice, no restriction on Rest
4 Periods was ever enforced. NEXEN also contended individualized inquiries abound as to why
5 individual employees may have failed to take appropriate Meal or Rest Periods. (Yaeckel decl. ¶28).

6 While there are time records to support the existence of alleged Meal Period violations, there
7 are no corresponding rest period records, making this aspect of the claim much harder to prove. Some 8 Courts have been disinclined to accept survey evidence that may have been needed to help establish 9 rest period violations. See e.g. Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2018) 19 Cal.App.5th 630.

10 Based on counsels' analysis, these claims were worth as little as $0 (a defense verdict) or as 11 much as $1,238,737.50. (Yaeckel decl. ¶18).

12 C. PLAINTIFF'S WAGE STATEMENT CLAIMS

13 Plaintiff acknowledges that these claims are largely derivative, in that both the gross and net
14 wages could be found to be inaccurate, due to the above-referenced claims. (Yaeckel decl. ¶29).

15 NEXEN argued that the failure to list gross and net wages are derivative of other claims that 16 may ultimately fail and as a result there is no "knowing and intentional failure" to list information, 17 which triggers liability under Labor Code §226(e). (Id.).

18 The California Supreme Court has recently held that the failure to pay meal and rest period
19 premiums may give rise to a claim for inaccurate wage statements (or waiting time penalties).
20 However, such derivative liability is not automatic and the Plaintiff still must show a "knowing and 21 intentional" or "wilful" failure to comply with the Labor Code. See Naranjo v. Spectrum Security
22 Services, Inc. (2022) 13 Cal.5th 93,109. Defendants (as with the underlying Meal and Rest Period 23 claims) maintained individualized inquiries would abound as to why breaks were missed and whether 24 meal and rest period premiums should have been paid, requiring individualized inquiries that would 25 make any PAGA claims unmanageable. (Yaeckel decl. ¶ 30).

26 Based on counsels' analysis, this claim was worth as little as $0 (a defense verdict) or as much
27 as $357,500.00. (Yaeckel decl. ¶18).
28

1       D.       PLAINTIFF’S REIMBURSEMENT CLAIMS

2               Plaintiff contended that NEXEN violated Labor Code section 2802 by failing to reimburse its 3 employees for certain costs. NEXEN contended that Plaintiffs’ (and others’) position did not require
4 the use of a personal cell phone. (Yaeckel decl. ¶31). Based on counsels’ analysis, this claim was worth
5 as little as $0 (a defense verdict) or as much as $370.00. (Yaeckel decl. ¶18).

6       E.       OTHER “DERIVATIVE” CLAIMS

7               The remaining claims are derivative in that PAGA and Labor Code § 203 penalties would only 8 be permissible if the above claims are proven.

9               The parties agreed to allocate $15,000.00 to the PAGA claims, which is 6% of the total
10 settlement. This PAGA allocation is in the range routinely approved by California Courts. See Garcia
11 v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal., Oct. 31, 2012, No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWISKO) 2012 WL 5364575,
12 at *7 (approving $10,000 PAGA penalty for a California class with a $3.7 million gross settlement
13 payment); Syed v. M-I, L.L.C. (E.D. Cal., Feb. 22, 2017, No. 112CV01718DADMJS) 2017 WL 14 714367, at *13 (approving 2.53% of the estimated $3.95 million Net Settlement Amount allocated to 15 the California class); Viceral v. Mistras Group, Inc. (N.D. Cal., Oct. 11, 2016, No.
16 15-CV-02198-EMC) 2016 WL 5907869 (approving allocation of $20,000 to the PAGA claim (0.15%
17 of its total value of $12,952,000) as reasonable in the context of the settlement as a whole); In re Uber
18 FCRA Litigation (N.D. Cal., June 29, 2017, No. 14-CV-05200-EMC) 2017 WL 2806698 (approving 19 a settlement agreement of $7.5 million, where the amount allocated to the PAGA claims was only 20 $7,500.00 – .01% of the total settlement amount).

21               Based on Class Counsel's analysis, the PAGA and Labor Code § 203 claims were worth as little
22 as $0 (a PAGA defense verdict or denial of certification of the § 203 claim) or as much as $250,500.00
23 and $100,415.70.00 respectively. (Yaeckel decl. ¶18).

24       F.       CASE LAW SUPPORTS A FURTHER REDUCTION ON ANY RECOVERY

25               Plaintiff concedes he would be highly unlikely to ever be awarded an amount approaching the 26 maximum damages set forth above. To wit, the majority of the recovery would be "derivative"
27 penalties under PAGA, Labor Code § 203 and Labor Code § 226. The Court would have great 28

1 discretion to mitigate any penalties awarded. Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc. (2012)
2 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (disapproved on other grounds).

3 In a recent trial involving Class Counsel in this case, the Court found liability, but then reduced
4 the PAGA penalties by 90%, from $50 per violation down to $5 a violation. See Carrington v.
5 Starbucks Corp. (2018) 30 Cal.App.5th 504; See accord Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., No.
6 ED-CV-10-1487-RGK(OPx), 2011 WL 7563047 at *4 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) (reducing PAGA
7 penalties by over 82%, in part because employer was "not aware" of violations). And in Carrington,
8 the Trial Court declined to award penalties under Labor Code §§ 203 and 226, noting that other trial
9 courts have declined to "stack" (impose multiple) penalties based on the same underlying Labor Code
10 violation. See Ruelas v. Costco Wholesale Corporation (N.D. Cal. 2014) 67 F.Supp.3d 1137.

11 Class Counsel believes a mitigation of the damages and potential PAGA penalties would be 12 warranted here. As in the Carrington case, there was evidence that NEXEN attempted to provide meal
13 and rest periods in practice. Given this, it is likely that some of the violations by NEXEN were not 14 "willful." Finally, given the defenses raised by Defendants, there was a significant risk that many of 15 the certified claims would not have been maintained through trial and appeal. (Yaeckel decl. ¶ 22).

16 Based on the above, it is possible that PAGA penalties could be reduced to approximately $5
17 per violation and the Court would find no basis for imposing Labor Code §§ 203 or 226 penalties.
18 (Yaeckel decl. ¶ 23). If this occurred, the average class member's pre-tax share of a realistic best case
19 recovery would be $23,300.61, after discounting 40% for contingent costs. (Yaeckel decl. ¶ 24).

20 Class Counsel submits the $3,176.83 average recovery secured via this Settlement, is a 21 reasonable compromise and in the best interests of the Class. (Yaeckel decl. ¶24).

22 V. PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS IS APPROPRIATE

23 Under California law, a class action is appropriate when the class is ascertainable and there is 24 "a well defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties
25 to be represented." Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382; Sav-on Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34
26 Cal. 4th 319, 341. State law requirements under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 for class
27 certification mirror those of federal law under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure:
28

1 numerosity, typicality of the class representatives' claims, adequacy of representation, predominance
2 of common issues, and superiority. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a); see also Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th
3 Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1019. Thus, for settlement purposes, each of these elements must be present.
4 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 237-38.

5 A. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT CLASS IS ASCERTAINABLE

6 The proposed class is ascertainable because all Class Members currently or formerly worked
7 for Defendant as a nonexempt employee and will be identified through Defendant's employment
8 records. See Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926 (1981) (finding that "Class Members are 9 'ascertainable' where they may be readily identified without unreasonable expense or time by reference
10 to official records"). Thus, the ascertainability requirement is met. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶34).

11 B. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT CLASS IS SUFFICIENTLY NUMEROUS

12 The numerosity requirement is met if the class is so large that joinder of all members would 13 be impracticable. In re Tobacco II Cases (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 298, 318. Here, Defendant's records show
14 that approximately 37 class members worked for the company during the limitations period. (Yaeckel 15 Decl. ¶33). Thus, joinder of all members of the class would be impracticable.

16 C. THE COMMONALITY REQUIREMENT WAS MET

17 The commonality requirement is met if there are questions of law and fact common to the class.
18 See Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1019. Here, for purposes of the Settlement, the parties agree the claims
19 of Class Members all involve the same questions of law and fact. Namely, all class members were 20 subject to the same employment policies and practices of Defendant. (Yaeckel decl. ¶35). The common 21 question exists as to whether the policies and practices Class Members were subjected to are illegal.
22 Therefore, the commonality requirement is satisfied. See Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1019-20.

23 D. THE TYPICALITY REQUIREMENT IS MET

24 The typicality requirement is met if the class representatives and class counsel have no interests
25 adverse to the interests of the proposed Class Members and are committed to vigorously prosecuting 26 the case on behalf of the class. See Wehner v. Syntex Corp., 117 F.R.D. 641, 644 (N.D. Cal. 1987).

27 Here, there are no such adverse interests. Plaintiffs have claims substantially the same as all 28

1 the other Class Members. (Yaeckel decl. ¶36). Factual differences may exist between the class
2 representatives and the Class Members so long as the claims arise from the same events or course of 3 conduct and are based on the same legal theories. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020; see also 1 Newberg
4 § 53.13 at 3-76-77 (“When it is alleged that the same unlawful conduct was directed at or affected both
5 the named plaintiff and the class sought to be represented, the typicality requirement is usually met
6 irrespective of varying fact patterns which under lie individual claims.”)

7 E. THE ADEQUACY REQUIREMENT IS MET

8 The adequacy of representation component of the community of interest requirement for class 9 certification “comes into play when the party opposing certification brings forth evidence indicating 10 widespread antagonism to the class suit.” Capitol People First v. Dep’t of Develop. Servs. (2007) 155 11 Cal. App. 4th 676, 696-97. The adequacy inquiry “serves to uncover conflicts of interest between 12 named parties and the class they seek to represent.” Id. To assure “adequate” representation, the “class
13 representative’s [...] claim must not be inconsistent with the claims of other members of the class.” Id.
14 Here, no such “inconsistencies” exist. Each Plaintiff will be compensated based on the same “pay 15 period” formula as all other members of the Class. (Yaeckel decl. ¶36).

16 Additionally, any Class Member who wishes to “opt out” of the Settlement may do so and 17 retain all of their individual rights. (Yaeckel decl. ¶37). There is therefore no conflict of interest
18 between the Class Representatives and the Class Members. (Id.) Thus, at least for settlement purposes,
19 the adequacy prong is met. (Id.)

20 F. COMMON ISSUES PREDOMINATE AND CLASS-WIDE SETTLEMENT IS 21 SUPERIOR TO OTHER AVAILABLE METHODS OF RESOLUTION

22 Class certification is authorized where common questions of law and fact predominate over 23 individual questions, and where class-wide treatment of a dispute is superior to individual litigation.
24 See Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc., 29 Cal.3d 462, 469 (1981).

25 The proposed class in this case is sufficiently cohesive because, for purposes of the Settlement
26 only, the parties have stipulated that all class certification elements are met. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶38). All 27 members of the Class worked under the same conditions and experienced the same policies and 28

1 practices of Defendant. (See section IV, supra). Thus, the class is sufficiently cohesive.

2 Further, it is preferable to resolve all of the Class Members' claims by means of a classwide
3 settlement than to require each Class Member to litigate individual claims. (Yaeckel decl. ¶39).

4 VI. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT IS PROPER

5 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether a class action settlement is fair and 6 reasonable. In re Microsoft I-V Cases (2006) 135 Cal.App.4th 706, 723. Fairness is presumed where 7 (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are 8 sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 9 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Chaves v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th
10 43, 52; Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802. But, even where it appears the 11 settlement is fair, the court must still determine on the record before it whether the settlement should 12 be approved after considering "the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and risks of the particular 13 litigation." Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129. The courts will 14 consider: (i) the strength of the plaintiff's case; (ii) the risks, expense, complexity and likely duration
15 of further litigation; (iii) the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (iv) the amount 16 offered in settlement; (v) the extent of discovery completed; (vi) the stage of the proceedings; (vii) the 17 experience and views of counsel; (viii) the presence of a governmental participant; and (ix) any 18 reaction of putative class members to the proposed settlement. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th, at 1800-1801;
19 In re Microsoft I-V Cases, 135 Cal.App.4th, at 723.

20 When evaluating factors, the court "must stop short of the detailed and thorough investigation
21 that it would undertake if it were actually trying the case," but nonetheless it "must eschew any rubber 22 stamp approval in favor of an independent evaluation." Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th, at 130. Ultimately, 23 the court approves the proposed class action settlement when the settlement is fair and falls "within 24 the range of reasonableness." Hernandez v. Vitamin (2009) 174 Cal.App.4th 1441, 1446.

25 A. FAIRNESS OF THE SETTLEMENT

26 For preliminary approval purposes, a proposed class action settlement is presumed to be fair 27 where, as here, (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and 28

1 discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; and (3) counsel is 2 experienced in similar litigation. Chaves, supra, 162 Cal.App.4th at 52.

3 The proposed settlement here meets these criteria, and merits preliminary approval. As 4 discussed above, the parties only entered into the Agreement after engaging in a full day of mediation
5 with an experienced mediator who routinely handles “wage and hour” class action litigation. (Yaeckel
6 Decl. ¶8). The mediation was preceded by extensive discovery, investigation of claims at issue,
7 interviews of Class Members, disclosure and review of documents detailing company-wide policies
8 and practices, informal information exchanges for mediation purposes, and ongoing discussions about 9 the merits between the parties’ counsel during the span of the litigation. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶¶4-9).
10 Thereafter, the parties memorialized the details of this Settlement via the Agreement. (Ex. A).

11 When negotiating the Settlement, both sides took into account the strengths and weaknesses
12 of their opponent’s positions as pointed out by mediator Herbert Hoffman (Ret.), the data available to 13 evaluate liability and damages, the lack of data or evidence on certain issues, and the substantial and 14 evolving law applicable to the merits of the claims. The Agreement was only agreed to after extensive 15 arms-length negotiations resulting in a unique compromise that permits all parties to move forward and 16 bring this action to close. Despite a mutual desire to resolve this action, the negotiations remained at 17 all times adversarial. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶40).

18 As set forth below in section H, infra., counsel for both parties have extensive experience in 19 litigating wage and hour class action lawsuits. Based on this experience, Class Counsel has determined 20 that the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Yaeckel decl. ¶32).

21 B. STRENGTH OF PLAINTIFFS’ CASE

22 The most important factor courts consider when evaluating the fairness of the class action
23 settlement is the strength of the plaintiffs’ case balanced against the amount offered in settlement.
24 Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th, at 130.

25 All of Plaintiffs’ claims — individual, PAGA, and class— presented hurdles including a 26 substantial risk of a defense verdict by way of summary judgment, or at trial. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶¶25-31).

27 The exchange of mediation briefs, the assistance of an experienced “wage and hour” mediator,
28

1 and the parties' ongoing negotiations all helped the parties realize the strengths and weaknesses of 2 their case, as well as the risks and expenses of continuing litigation.

3 Additionally, as trial approaches, each party's monetary risk increases significantly as 4 substantial additional attorney hours and expert witness hours would have to be devoted to this case
5 by each party. Each party bears a real risk at trial, and considering the balance of the strengths of 6 Plaintiff's claims versus the risks inherent in trial and the consideration given to settle now, the 7 settlement reflects a fair and adequate resolution to this action.

8 C. THE RISK, EXPENSE, COMPLEXITY, AND LIKELY DURATION OF FURTHER
9 LITIGATION

10 Plaintiffs' Counsel's effectiveness in prosecuting this case has translated into tangible monetary
11 and non-monetary benefits for the Settlement Class Members in the following respects: (1) a 12 guaranteed favorable result; (2) guaranteed monetary recovery over a reasonably short period of time,
13 as opposed to possibly waiting additional years for a potentially worse result; and (3) significant 14 savings in attorneys' fees and costs, which would have increased had the case progressed through trial
15 and possible appeals. (Yaeckel decl. ¶41).

16 Without entering into the Agreement, there existed a significant chance that Defendants would 17 prevail on the merits of some or all claims and that Class Members would receive nothing. Through 18 the Agreement, participating Class Members receive guaranteed cash, and this action has also been 19 the catalyst for programmatic relief. (Yaeckel decl. ¶42).

20 If the litigation were to proceed in lieu of settlement, additional and substantial attorneys fees
21 and costs, expert witnesses fees would quickly accumulate. Given the numerous claims being litigated,
22 the parties may be required to hire multiple experts each (as many as 6 total). This would result in not 23 only the production of six expert reports, but six depositions as well. And, based on previous 24 discussions between counsel regarding the remaining claims (including the PAGA claims), Plaintiff
25 anticipated at least one motion to compel, and two dueling motions for summary judgment /
26 adjudication (one from each side). (Yaeckel decl. ¶43).

27 Importantly, even after engaging in all of the potential continued and protracted litigation set 28

1 forth above, the putative class would continue to have no guarantee of success on any of the claims
2 advanced in this case. Thus, the parties and their counsel believe in good faith that the proposed
3 resolution is a fair, reasonable, and adequate compromise. (Yaeckel decl. ¶44).

4 D. THE RISK OF MAINTAINING CLASS ACTION STATUS THROUGH THE TRIAL

5 At the time of the settlement, a Motion for Class Certification had not been filed. (Yaeckel
6 decl. ¶45). As the Court never ruled on the Motion, neither side had a decided advantage in the 7 litigation. Even if Plaintiff did obtain class certification of the claims, each claim is subject to 8 substantial risk of a Defense verdict at trial. (Id.)

9 Regarding the representative (PAGA) claims, there is also a substantial risk that, at trial,
10 Plaintiff will either fail to obtain a favorable judgment on some of these claims, or that a favorable
11 award on one or more PAGA claims may be greatly reduced, as these claims are subject to mitigation
12 by the Court. See Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135.

13 E. THE AMOUNT OFFERED IN THE SETTLEMENT

14 After deduction from the total “Settlement Amount” of the projected costs of administration,
15 proposed class representative service awards, potential attorney fees and costs, the “Net Settlement
16 Amount” (“NSA”) will be distributed to all Class Members who do not file a request for exclusion.
17 Participating Class Members will receive their share of the NSA based on the total amount of time they 18 worked during the Class and PAGA Period. (Ex. A, ¶41).

19 Based on the current proposed figures, each Class Member will receive an average of $3,176.83
20 although the actual amount will vary based on the amount of pay periods employed. The Class Notice
21 will list that individual class member’s actual share. (See Ex. B.) Plaintiff’s counsel maintains this 22 recovery was significant in light of the circumstances of the case. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶48).

23 F. THE EXTENT OF DISCOVERY COMPLETED

24 Plaintiffs propounded multiple sets of separate written discovery devices on Defendant, 25 including requests for admission, special interrogatories, requests for production of documents, and 26 general and employment form interrogatories. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶¶4-6). Through these requests, Plaintiffs 27 sought, among other information and documents, the identities of putative class members, Defendants’
28

1 compensation policies, meal and rest period policies, employee handbooks, wage statements, time
2 records, job descriptions, and reimbursement policies. Id.

3 After significant meet and confer efforts, Defendants provided detailed substantive responses
4 detailing all relevant employment policies, in addition to producing hundreds of pages of documents.
5 The document production also included a large sampling of other putative class members time and 6 wage records. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶¶ 4-7). Plaintiff's counsel has also interviewed several Class Members
7 in the course of investigating and litigating this matter. (Yaeckel decl. ¶ 46). Counsel has also reviewed
8 hundreds of pages of documents produced by Defendants, Plaintiffs, and Class Members. (Id.)

9 This information, along with documents and information obtained through formal discovery
10 and from Class Members, allowed Plaintiff's counsel to prepare a detailed Mediation Brief. (Id.) The 11 Brief was provided to opposing counsel and contained a breakdown of potential damages based on all
12 of the information obtained from all Parties. (Id.)

13 Thus, sufficient discovery, both formal and informal, has been conducted to allow the parties 14 to participate in an informed, arms-length negotiation process.

15 G. THE STAGE OF THE PROCEEDINGS

16 Plaintiffs had already obtained the majority of written discovery, taken depositions, and the 17 parties were familiar with Plaintiffs' central allegations and Defendant's defenses thereto. The next 18 phase of this litigation would have been to complete class discovery, prepare expert reports and then 19 prepare for Trial.

20 H. THE EXPERIENCE AND VIEWS OF COUNSEL

21 Class Counsel has considerable experience in wage and hour and class action litigation.
22 William Sullivan has over 30 years of experience, 29 years of which has been devoted to both 23 prosecuting and defending class action litigation. Mr. Yaeckel has over 14 years of experience in "class 24 litigation." Mr. Kuhn has over 6 years of experience in class action litigation. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶47).

25 Plaintiff's counsel considers the Agreement to represent a fair, adequate and reasonable
26 settlement that is well within the accepted range of recoveries for similar cases. Counsel further 27 believes the Agreement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶48).

1       I.       PRESENCE OF A GOVERNMENTAL ACTOR

2           Although the State is not directly involved in this action, Plaintiff “stands in the shoes” of the 3       Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) by bringing his PAGA action. Consideration
4       has been made to compensate to Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) in the amount
5       of $15,000.00, even though the LWDA declined to prosecute the claims itself. (See Ex. A, at ¶37). To 6       confirm, 75% of the total allocation of $15,000 amount, or $11,250.00, is being paid to the LWDA,
7       and 25%, or $3,750.00, being distributed amongst the class members. (Id.). Counsel for the parties
8       believe this is a fair, reasonable, and adequate allocation. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶49).

9       J.       REACTION OF THE CLASS MEMBERS TO THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

10          Prior to preliminary approval, what can be said of the reaction the class members is limited.
11       However, Plaintiff’s counsel has spoken to some Class Members since the parties reached a proposed 12       settlement agreement, and all were in favor of the Settlement. (Yaeckel Decl. ¶ 50).

13          As explained in the Agreement, the Settlement Claims Administrator will send a Notice to the 14       Settlement Class Members. (See Ex. A at ¶45). The negotiated Class Notice form is attached to the 15       declaration of Eric K. Yaeckel as Exhibit B.

16          The proposed Notice advises the Settlement Class Members of their anticipated recovery under 17       the Agreement, how to object, how to exclude themselves, the amount of fees and costs sought by 18       Class Counsel, the amount of enhancement payment sought on behalf of the Class Representative, and 19       the date of the final approval hearing. (See Exhibit “B”). Thus, the proposed Notice complies with the 20       notice requirements set forth in CRC Rule 3.766(d) and Rule 3.769(f).

21                       VII. PROPOSED TIMELINE OF EVENTS AND FINAL APPROVAL

22          Assuming the Settlement merits Preliminary Approval from the Court, Plaintiffs request that 23       the Court set a Final Approval Hearing in accordance with the chronology of events set forth below:

- 24       1.       Within twenty (20) calendar days of Preliminary Approval, Defendant will provide to the 25               Settlement Administrator the Class List including Class Members’ names, last known 26               addresses, social security numbers, and the dates of employment;
- 27       2.       Within ten (10) calendar days of receiving the Class List, the Settlement Administrator will
- 28

- 1 perform an NCOA check for information to update and correct for any known or identifiable
2 address changes and shall mail a Notice Packet to all Class Members via regular First-Class
3 U.S. Mail, using the most current, known mailing addresses identified in the Class List;
- 4 3. 45 calendar days after Settlement Administrator has mailed the Notice Packets to Class
5 Members: Deadline for Class Members to postmark and submit all disputes of pay period
6 information, request exclusion, or file written objection to the Settlement;
- 7 4. Approximately 7 Calendar days after the conclusion of the Notice and Response Period:
8 Plaintiffs will file a Motion for Final Approval; and
- 9 5. 16 Court days after the filing of the Final Approval motion: the Court can conduct the Final 10 Approval Hearing.

11 Consistent with the above timeline, Plaintiffs request a Final Approval Hearing on or around 12 May 18, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. in department S26.
