DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

This case has been assigned to Judge Freeland, John D
Dept. 23
Department _____, for all purposes including Trial.

COMES NOW, Plaintiff WILLIAM HILL (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff WILLIAM HILL is an individual residing in the State of California.

///

1 6. Defendant VIRTUS NUTRITION LLC, at all times herein mentioned, was and
2 is, upon information and belief, a Delaware limited liability company, and at all times herein
3 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 4 California, including the County of Stanislaus. Defendant NUTRIUS LLC, at all times herein
5 mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a Delaware limited liability company, and
6 at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged
7 throughout the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus.

8 7. At all relevant times, Defendants VIRTUS NUTRITION LLC and NUTRIUS
9 LLC were each an “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws
10 and statutes.

11 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants VIRTUS NUTRITION LLC, NUTRIUS
12 LLC, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers,
13 joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators
14 and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course
15 and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, 16 representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or 17 omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission,
18 encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

19 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 20 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
21 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 22 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
23 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused
24 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
25 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 26 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

27 ///

10. Defendants VIRTUS NUTRITION LLC, NUTRIUS LLC, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former California-based (i.e., currently “residing” in California with the intent to remain in California indefinitely) hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of this Complaint to final judgment to final judgment.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

- 1 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
- 2 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately
- 3 protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a
- 4 well-defined community of interest.
- 5 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
- 6 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
- 7 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has
- 8 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's
- 9 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
- 10 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has
- 11 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
- 12 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily
- 13 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of
- 14 each class member.
- 15 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the
- 16 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
- 17 of all class members is impractical.
- 18 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
- 19 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
- 20 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
- 21 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
- 22 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are
- 23 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of
- 24 their rights.

25 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that

26 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common

27 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

28

- 1 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 2 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 3 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
4 employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed
5 meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 6 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to 7 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
8 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
9 and the other class members;
- 10 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 11 the other class members to worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- 12 e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of 13 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class
14 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 15 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 16 other class members for all hours worked;
- 17 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 18 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 19 resignation;
- 20 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 21 the other class members during their employment;
- 22 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 23 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 24 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 25 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 26 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;

27 ///

- 1 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 2 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 3 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary
4 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 5 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 6 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

7 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

8 17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff
9 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California,

12 exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of 13 Stanislaus.

17 20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 18 Plaintiff and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and 19 the other class members.

20 21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other
21 class members.

23 State of California.

24 23. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
25 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

26 ///

27 ///

1 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or
3 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing
4 to pay them for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of 5 California law.

6 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 9 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

10 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
12 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
13 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

14 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
16 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's 17 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 18 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
19 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal 20 period was missed.

21 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
23 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff
24 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 25 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 26 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 27 missed.

1 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 4 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
8 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did
9 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

10 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, Plaintiff
13 and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 14 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 15 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

16 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 18 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

19 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
21 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not
22 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

1 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
3 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
6 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 9 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)

22 41. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
23 compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to 24 increase Defendants' profits.

25 42. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
26 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty 27 due to him [or her] under this article."

1 87. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the
2 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include
3 but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and

5 88. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
6 Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
7 protected rights.

8 89. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 9 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 10 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
11 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

12 90. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 13 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
14 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 15 employee.

16 91. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to

19 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

20 (Against VIRTUS NUTRITION LLC, NUTRIUS LLC, and DOES 1 through 100)

21 92. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1

Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about April 13, 2023, the sixty-five (65) days' notice period will expire as to all Defendants and the LWDA, and Plaintiff will amend the Complaint to plead exhaustion.

7 99. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
8 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours

14 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

15 101. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to authorize and permit 16 their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or

22 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

23 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

24 103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees

7 Code sections 201 to 204.

8 106. As a policy and practice, as a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations
9 alleged above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees
10 their final wages, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 201 through 204.
11 Accordingly, Defendants owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

12 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

14 regarding their California employees, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 226 and

16 108. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 17 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
18 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding
19 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 20 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 21 hours worked at each hourly rate.

22 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

23 109. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse their 24 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
25 consequences of the discharge of their duties, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 26 2800 and 2802.

Re: VIRTUS NUTRITION LLC AND NUTRIUS LLC

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent William Hill against Virtus Nutrition LLC and Nutrius LLC (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "VIRTUS").

Mr. Hill is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Hill may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Virtus Nutrition LLC and Nutrius LLC are Delaware limited liability companies located at 5213 W. Main St., Turlock, California 95380.

VIRTUS employed Mr. Hill as an hourly-paid non-exempt Plant Operator and Maintenance Mechanic within one year of the date of this letter (until in or about July of 2022) in the State of California. VIRTUS directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Hill may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of VIRTUS within the State of California.

¹ Mr. Hill does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Hill will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Hill is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Hill and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

VIRTUS failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Hill has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at VIRTUS, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

VIRTUS has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. VIRTUS failed to compensate Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. VIRTUS also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Hill and aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, VIRTUS failed to pay Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees with paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, VIRTUS routinely required Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with VIRTUS's policies and expectations. VIRTUS failed to provide coverage to Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Moreover, VIRTUS also failed to authorize and permit Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, VIRTUS failed to compensate Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." VIRTUS required Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." VIRTUS required Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, VIRTUS failed to pay Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, VIRTUS failed to pay Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, VIRTUS did not provide Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from VIRTUS were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, VIRTUS failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, VIRTUS did not provide Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Hill and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by VIRTUS.

We believe that Mr. Hill and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Hill will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of VIRTUS within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
