DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff LUIS SANCHEZ (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of aggrieved employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Los Angeles. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff LUIS SANCHEZ is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

1 6. Defendant SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC dba WALLY’S WINE &
2 SPIRITS at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a Delaware
3 limited liability company headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein
4 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 5 California, including the County of Los Angeles.

6 7. At all relevant times, Defendant SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC dba
7 WALLY’S WINE & SPIRITS was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all
8 applicable California laws and statutes.

9 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendant SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC
10 dba WALLY’S WINE & SPIRITS, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the 11 agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees,
12 successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant
13 hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint 14 venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-
15 conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with 16 the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each
17 defendant designated herein.

18 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 19 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sue 20 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 21 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
22 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 23 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
24 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 25 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

26 10. Defendant SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC dba WALLY’S WINE &
27 SPIRITS and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

28 ///

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time from October 23, 2020, through November 22, 2025 or the date of preliminary approval, whichever date is earlier.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time. However, the class is estimated to be greater than one hundred (100) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has 4 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;

28 ///

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to
2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 6 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay
7 and sick leave pay;
- 8 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class 9 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 10 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to California
11 Labor Code section 226.7(c);
- 12 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 13 other class members for all hours worked;
- 14 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 15 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 16 resignation;
- 17 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 18 the other class members during their employment;
- 19 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 20 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 21 j. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
22 for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 23 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 24 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 25 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 26 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 27 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

28 ///

n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and

o. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members' employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members.

22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

23. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

1 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
3 or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia,
4 failing to pay them for all hours worked, sick leave, and failing to provide legally mandated
5 meal and rest breaks or pay related premium wages in lieu thereof, in violation of California
6 law.

7 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
9 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 10 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

11 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required meal and rest periods
13 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”)
14 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

15 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 18 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 19 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
20 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
21 period was missed.

22 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
24 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s
25 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 26 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 27 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 28 missed.

1 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 4 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
8 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did 9 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

10 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 their wages within a specified time during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the other 13 class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period during 14 their employment.

15 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
18 Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
19 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number 20 of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

21 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
23 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did 24 not keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

25 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 27 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

28 ///

1 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
3 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
6 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 9 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more

21 Plaintiff and the other class member wages within a specified time period during their 22 employment.

24 complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

25 43. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep 26 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

27 44. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse
28 Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses.

45. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

46. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC dba WALLY'S WINE & SPIRITS,
and DOES 1 through 100)

47. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 46, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

48. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

49. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

50. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

2 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
3 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh

6 of work.

11 willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

12 54. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
13 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 14 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

16 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and

During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting.

85. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

86. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

87. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC dba WALLY'S WINE & SPIRITS,
and DOES 1 through 100)

89. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 88, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 90. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section
2 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of their employees an accurate itemized
3 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee,
4 (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid
5 on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders
6 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 7 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 8 the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other

13 the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall 14 be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a 15 central location within the State of California.

16 91. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 17 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include
18 but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and 19 other class members.

20 92. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
21 Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
22 protected rights.

23 93. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 24 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 25 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
26 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

27 ///

28 ///

1 94. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the
2 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
3 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 4 employee.

5 95. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 6 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

7 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

9 (Against SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC dba WALLY'S WINE & SPIRITS,
10 and DOES 1 through 100)

11 96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
12 through 95, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
13 forth herein.

14 97. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 15 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct 16 consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to 17 the directions of the employer.

18 98. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 19 other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the 20 other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and 21 costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the 22 date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments
23 in civil actions in the State of California.

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2698, et seq.)

3 (Against SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, LLC dba WALLY’S WINE & SPIRITS,
4 and DOES 1 through 100)

5 99. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
6 through 98, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 100. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that 9 any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected
10 by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its 11 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for a violation of the 12 Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on 13 behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

14 101. On September 26, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and 15 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that he contends were violated and 16 the theories supporting the contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by 17 reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about 18 November 30, 2025, the sixty-five (65) day notice period will expire, and the LWDA will not 19 take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Thus, Plaintiff exhausted the statutory 20 time period to bring this action.

21 102. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved 22 employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current and former 23 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time
24 from September 26, 2024, through November 22, 2025 or the date of preliminary approval, 25 whichever date is earlier, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against 26 them. Plaintiff alleges that he and the aggrieved employees experienced, inter alia, the 27 following violations warranting penalties pursuant to PAGA:

28 ///

1 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

2 103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
3 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
4 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 5 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

6 104. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other
7 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all
8 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

9 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

10 105. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512,
11 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
12 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further 13 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five 14 (5) hours worked.

15 106. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
16 aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks
17 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

18 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

19 107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
20 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

21 108. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
22 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required
23 time period.

24 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

25 109. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
26 all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections
27 201 to 204.

28 ///

110. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

111. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226, 1174, and 1776.

112. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

Failure to Provide and Properly Pay Paid Sick Days

113. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to provide their employees with paid sick days at their regular rate of pay pursuant to Labor Code section 246, et seq.

114. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other aggrieved current and former employees with paid sick days at the proper rate of pay pursuant to Labor Code section 246, et seq.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

- b. Penalties under Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- c. Penalties under Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the Labor Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes; and

f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

Re: Southwest Wine & Spirits, LLC dba Wally's Wine & Spirits

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Luis Sanchez against Southwest Wine & Spirits, LLC dba Wally's Wine & Spirits (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (collectively referred to as "SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS").

Mr. Sanchez is pursuing California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Sanchez may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS is a Delaware limited liability company that is headquartered at 10459 Jefferson Blvd, Culver City, California 90232.

SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS employed Mr. Sanchez as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee in the State of California. SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS directly controlled the wages, hours, and/or working conditions of Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Sanchez may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS within the State of California.

SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum wages and overtime wages, and for noncompliant meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Sanchez has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.5, 202, 203, 204, 210, 212, 218.5, 221, 223, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 229, 232, 232.5, 245, 246(l), 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 438.8, 510, 512(a), 558, 1102.5, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1527, 2800, and 2802, and Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than 8 hours in one day and/or over 40 hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Firstly, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS did not compensate Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees for the time it took to prepare for the start of their shifts before clocking in, coupled with the time they waited to clock in almost every day. Secondly, even after Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees had completed their shifts and clocked out for the day, they still needed to work off-the-clock to complete heavy workloads without being compensated for that overtime work. Thus, Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for minimum and overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than 1 hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

During the relevant time period, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS failed to pay Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246. This included failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. Instead, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS only paid sick leave at Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees' base hourly rate of pay.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee 1 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided.

During the relevant time period, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS frequently prevented employees from receiving compliant meal and rest breaks. SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS failed to maintain Brinker-compliant meal and rest break policies during the relevant time period. SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS also failed to permit Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees to take duty-free rest breaks since they were not permitted to go further than five (5) minutes away from the work premises without first clocking out. Furthermore, Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees were regularly forced to work through their meal and rest breaks to complete their heavy workloads and to meet customer service needs without adequate staffing. Even when Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees were afforded opportunities to take their meal and rest breaks, they were cut short by supervisors asking them work-related questions, or by customers asking questions or placing orders. Finally, despite these facts, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS failed to compensate Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees for all premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable no later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is commenced. But the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

During the relevant time period, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS failed to pay Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees all wages, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 through 203. Therefore, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. In addition, California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

During the relevant time period, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS failed to pay Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages owed for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees.

During the relevant time period, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS did not provide Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees received from SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include:

(1) gross wages earned by Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees; (2) total hours worked by Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees; (3) all deductions for Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees; (4) net wages earned by Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees; and (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC Wage Order shall be subject to a civil penalty. The civil penalty is as follows: (1) for any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; (2) for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; and (3) wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and wages paid to employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than 3 years.

During the relevant time period, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and wages paid to Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

During the relevant time period, SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS did not provide Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite having constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work and work performed during meal and rest breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Sanchez and other aggrieved employees incurred various necessary business-related expenses that were not fully reimbursed by SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS. An example of unreimbursed business expenses includes use of employees' personal vehicles for work purposes.

The violations alleged also includes, inter alia, California Labor Code sections 350 – 356, pertaining to any violations experienced related to improper control over gratuities; and California Labor Code sections 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 432.8 pertaining to allegations of record keeping and other documentary violations.

We believe that Mr. Sanchez and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.5, 202, 203, 204, 210, 212, 218.5, 221, 223, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 229, 232, 232.5, 245, 246(l), 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 510, 512(a), 558, 1102.5, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198, 1198.5, 1527, 2800, and 2802, and IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant must send a certified letter to the employer in questions and California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims and basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Sanchez will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of SOUTHWEST WINE & SPIRITS within 1 year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for your attention to this matter and the noble cause you advance each and every day.

Very truly yours,
