- (4) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 (Unpaid Minimum Wages)
- (5) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 (Final Wages Not Timely Paid)
- (6) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 204 and 210 (Wages Not Timely Paid During Employment)
- (7) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 226(a) (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements)
- (8) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 (Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses)
- (9) Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.
- (10) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 2699, (Private Attorneys General Act)

1 Plaintiffs ALFONSO LOPEZ and SIMON ARIAS DIAZ (“Plaintiffs”), individually and 2 on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney
3 general, based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary
4 support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, allege as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiffs bring this Action against Defendants DIAMOND GENERAL, INC., 7 CRESCENCIO SANDOVAL, and DOES 2 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred 8 to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil 9 penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide 10 meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure
11 to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate 12 time and payroll records, and failure to provide potable water and handwashing materials.

13 2. Plaintiffs’ First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of themselves and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants 15 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in 16 paragraph 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary 17 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the 18 Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiffs’ Tenth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf
20 of themselves and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one 21 or more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 22 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiffs are 23 an aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 24 penalties sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and 25 will be established according to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to the California Constitution,
27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
28

1 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this Action is brought do
2 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
4 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 5 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 6 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 7 substantial justice.

8 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 9 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of 10 Alameda.

11 PARTIES

12 7. Plaintiffs ALFONSO LOPEZ is an individual residing in the County of Alameda, 13 State of California.

14 8. Plaintiffs SIMON ARIAS DIAZ is an individual residing in the County of 15 Alameda, State of California.

16 9. Defendant DIAMOND GENERAL, INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned
17 was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California and registered
18 to do business in the State of California.

19 10. Defendant CRESCENCIO SANDOVAL is an individual residing in the County
20 of Stanislaus, State of California.

21 11. Plaintiffs are ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 2 through 50, inclusive, 22 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 23 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and thereon
24 alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, 25 agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and 26 was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 27 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiffs will amend
28

1 this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiffs are informed
2 and believe and thereon allege that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible
3 in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiffs' damages as herein alleged
4 were proximately caused by its conduct. DIAMOND GENERAL, INC., CRESCENCIO
5 SANDOVAL, and Doe Defendants 2 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as 6 "Defendants".

7 12. Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business
8 in the County of Alameda, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiffs consistent with 9 the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

10 13. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 11 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 12 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants 13 employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

14 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15 14. Plaintiffs bring the First through Ninth Causes of Action as a class action on his 16 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, 17 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

18 15. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
19 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four 20 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiffs' complaint up until the time that notice of the certified
21 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members").

22 16. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

23 17. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 24 litigation:

- 25 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class 26 Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to 27 Plaintiffs at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50)
28

1 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by 2 inspection of Defendants' employment records.

3 b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated
4 herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class
5 Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

6 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class
7 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
8 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs has no interest that is antagonistic to 9 the other Class Members. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 10 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
11 Plaintiffs has incurred, and during the pendency of this Action will continue to 12 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 13 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class
14 Member.

15 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 16 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
17 Members is impractical.

18 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 19 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 20 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 21 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
22 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint
23 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

24 18. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 25 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
26 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

27 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 28

1 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;

2 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiffs
3 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late, or 4 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

5 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other Class Members to work
6 more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and 7 failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and the other 8 Class Members;

9 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other Class Members of meal
10 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other Class Members to work
11 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

12 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 13 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;

14 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members
15 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 16 periods;

17 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other 18 Class Members for all hours worked;

19 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other Class Members the 20 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;

21 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other Class Members proper 22 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;

23 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other Class 24 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 25 employment;

26 k. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other 27 Class Members during their employment;
28

1 23. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 2 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

3 24. Plaintiffs is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged
4 in an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
5 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 6 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock without compensation,
7 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
8 Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic 9 underpayment of wages to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including 10 minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiffs,
11 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked,
12 resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.
13 In addition, Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
14 Employees to take timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California
15 law. Defendants also failed to provide potable water and handwashing materials.

16 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
17 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
18 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiffs, the Class,
19 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
20 control over Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
21 regularly failed to permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
22 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiffs, the Class,
23 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
24 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
25 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 26 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiffs,
27 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
28

1 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
2 inform Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods
3 under California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
4 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiffs, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
7 meal periods, and to require Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 8 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

9 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
10 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 11 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 12 have known that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
13 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
14 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 15 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 16 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiffs, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, 18 short, late, and/or interrupted.

19 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
20 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 21 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 22 permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest
23 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
24 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 25 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 26 work period.

27 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
28

1 inform Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
2 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
3 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiffs, the Class,
5 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 6 duty-free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
7 to work through their rest periods.

8 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
9 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 10 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
11 have known that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
12 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
13 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
14 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-
15 free rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 16 Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, and/or 17 interrupted.

18 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required 19 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 20 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiffs, the Class, and 21 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiffs, the Class, 22 and the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which 23 they were not compensated.

24 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
25 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
26 ensuring that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 27 time worked.

1 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented
2 policies that prohibited Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately
3 recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 4 Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

5 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 6 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 7 week.

8 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 9 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 10 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single workday and/or forty (40) hours in a single 11 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single workday and/or eighty (80) hours in a 12 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 13 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 14 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

15 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
16 overtime to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 17 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

18 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 19 pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
20 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved 21 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 22 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
23 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
24 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiffs, the 25 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock, and implementing time
26 rounding policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiffs, the Class,
27 and the Aggrieved Employees.

1 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
2 pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge
3 or resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 4 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within 5 the time permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 6 Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge
7 or resignation, including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time
8 permissible under California Labor Code section 202.

9 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 10 pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
11 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 12 or should have known that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 13 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
14 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 15 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

16 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse 17 Plaintiffs and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses, including but not limited to 18 personal cell phone for work-related communications and tools and equipment, such as hammers, 19 tape, and tweezers. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to 20 reimburse Plaintiffs and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in 21 fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

22 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 23 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
24 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved 25 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 26 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 27 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
28

1 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, the inclusive pay period dates,
2 net wages earned, all applicable hourly rates, number of piece-rate units paid and any applicable
3 piece rate, and the name and address of the legal entity of the employer.

4 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 5 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
6 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 7 accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance 8 with California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

9 43. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 10 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiffs', the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work 11 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

12 44. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiffs and other Aggrieved
13 Employees with an adequate supply of potable water, soap or other suitable cleansing agent, and 14 single use towels for handwashing.

15 45. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 16 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
17 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 18 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiffs, the 19 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 20 Defendants' profits.

21 46. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor 22 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 23 to him [or her] under this article."

24 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 47. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and 28

1 every allegation set forth above.

2 48. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
3 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 4 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 5 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

6 49. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 7 were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and 8 working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the 9 rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than 10 forty (40) hours in a workweek.

11 50. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 12 required to pay Plaintiffs and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 13 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 14 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

15 51. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 16 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 17 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 18 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 19 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

20 52. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other Class Members regularly 21 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

22 53. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 23 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other Class Members.

24 54. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other Class Members the unpaid 25 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 26 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

27 55. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other Class
28

Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

56. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

57. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiffs and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

58. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

59. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

60. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other Class Members who were scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their

1 legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 2 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

3 62. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other Class Members who were 4 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 5 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 6 thirty (30) minutes.

7 63. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
8 Plaintiffs and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 9 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiffs and the other Class
10 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

11 64. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other
12 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 13 226.7.

14 65. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
15 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

16 66. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
17 226.7(b), Plaintiffs and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 18 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the 19 meal period was not provided.

20 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 67. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 68. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor 26 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiffs' and the other Class Members' employment by 27 Defendants.
28

69. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

70. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that “[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours.”

71. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiffs and other Class Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

72. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiffs and the other Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiffs and the other Class Member to take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the other Class Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

73. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other Class Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7 for work performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and other Class Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

74. Defendants’ conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7.

75. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiffs and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees’ regular hourly rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period was not provided.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 76. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and
5 every allegation set forth above.

6 77. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 7 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees and the payment of a lesser wage than 8 the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

9 78. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay minimum wage
10 to Plaintiffs and the other Class Members as required pursuant to California Labor Code sections 11 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

12 79. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other Class Members the minimum 13 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to 14 those sections, Plaintiffs and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance
15 of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated 16 damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

17 80. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the other Class
18 Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully 19 unpaid and interest thereon.

20 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 81. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 82. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 26 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 27 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his 28

1 or her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 2 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case
3 the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

4 83. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiffs and many other
5 Class Members with Defendants ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants
6 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiffs and other Class Members who are no longer
7 employed by Defendants all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to 8 minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 9 leaving Defendants' employ.

10 84. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and other Class Members who are no longer 11 employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 12 leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

13 85. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to 14 pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 15 continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is 16 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

17 86. Plaintiffs and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants
18 are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not 19 paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 204 and 210)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 87. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 88. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all 26 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any 27 calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable 28

1 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

2 89. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
3 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of 4 any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and 5 payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

6 90. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
7 wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday
8 for the next regular payroll period.

9 91. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 10 pay Plaintiffs and other Class Members all wages due to them, within any time period permissible
11 under California Labor Code section 204.

12 92. Plaintiffs and other Class Members are entitled to recover all available remedies
13 for Defendants' violations of California Labor Code section 204, including statutory penalties
14 pursuant to Labor Code section 210(b).

15 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 93. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and 19 every allegation set forth above.

20 94. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) 21 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized
22 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3)
23 the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a 24 piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 25 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates
26 of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social 27 security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 28

1 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
2 worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall 3 be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and 4 a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at 5 least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

6 95. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 7 Class with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited
8 to, the failure list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct
9 rates of pay, the inclusive pay period dates, net wages earned, all applicable hourly rates, number
10 of piece-rate units paid and any applicable piece rate, and the name and address of the legal entity 11 of the employer.

12 96. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), 13 Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

14 97. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the Class have been injured by Defendants'
15 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 16 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 17 itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

18 98. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 19 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 20 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

21 99. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance
22 with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

23 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 100. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and 27 every allegation set forth above.
28

101. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

102. Plaintiffs and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary business-related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiffs and the Class for costs incurred as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

103. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

104. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

105. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

106. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

107. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies

1 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiffs and the Class, to work overtime without 2 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
3 Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiffs and 4 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation
5 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and 6 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiffs and the Class violate California Labor Code
7 sections 201, 202, 203, and 204.

8 108. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 510, 9 1174(d), 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

10 109. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 11 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

12 110. Plaintiffs and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful 13 business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of 14 money and/or property.

15 111. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
16 Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 17 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an 18 award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other 19 applicable laws; and an award of costs.

20 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 112. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 113. Plaintiffs brings his ninth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 26 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 27 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
28

1 (“PAGA”).

2 114. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
3 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 4 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
5 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
6 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 7 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 8 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 9 2699(a).

10 115. Plaintiffs was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged 11 above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiffs is therefore, an 12 “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

13 116. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants
14 have routinely subjected Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 15 Codes by:

- 16 a. Failing to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 17 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 18 b. Failing to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
19 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 20 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 21 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees an 22 additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor
23 Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 24 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to 25 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 26 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 27 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

- e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- g. Failing to furnish Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- i. Failing to provide potable water and handwashing materials to Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

117. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11160, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 210, 226, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

118. Plaintiffs have exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On October 11, 2024, Plaintiffs, through their counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiffs' intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiffs also paid the

1 filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-
2 five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiffs' notice, and the LWDA has not
3 indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly,
4 Plaintiffs may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved
5 Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

6 119. Plaintiffs were compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action
7 to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
8 owed by Defendants. Plaintiffs therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs
9 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

10 120. Plaintiffs may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
11 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
12 specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

13 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

14 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of all other members of the general 15 public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, prays for relief and judgment against 16 Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
