1 Plaintiff Patricia Salas Munoz (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants Walt Oxley Enterprises, Inc. dba
6 Ciarra Construction, and Does 1 through 10 (Defendants are collectively referred to as 7 “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from 8 Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide 9 meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of 10 hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure 11 to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of 17 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present employees of Defendants (hereinafter 21 referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

22 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 23 establishment within the State of California, including San Mateo County. As such, and based 24 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants
25 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
26 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

27 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 28 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 1 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
2 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code
3 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 4 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 5 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 6 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 7 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 8 violation occurred;
- 9 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
10 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
11 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 12 period violation occurred;
- 13 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 14 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 15 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within 16 the time period specified by California law when employment terminates; 17 and
- 18 (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked.
- 19 (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
20 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 21 IWC Wage Orders.

22 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 23 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 24 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 25 willful and deliberate.

26 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 27 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 28 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees.

Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of San Mateo, State of California, as a safety monitor from approximately December 2021 to October 2022.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant Walt Oxley Enterprises, Inc. is:

- (a) A California corporation with its principal place of business in San Mateo, California.
- (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in San Mateo County;
- (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions;
- (d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendant Walt Oxley Enterprises, Inc. is and was doing business as Ciarra Construction.

11. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will

1 amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they
2 have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

3 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 4 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
5 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees
6 in the State of California.

7 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times
8 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 9 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 10 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 11 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
12 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
13 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 14 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 15 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
16 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted 17 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 18 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 19 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

20 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

21 14. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of San 22 Mateo, State of California, as a safety monitor during the statutory period. During the statutory 23 period, Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from California overtime laws, and paid
24 Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees an hourly rate of pay.

25 15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours
26 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with 27 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest
28 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all

1 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish 2 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 3 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

4 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 5 not paying Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including 6 all overtime wages. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were only paid for their 7 scheduled shifts, and not the actual time worked. Despite regularly working in excess of the 8 scheduled shift times, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were not 9 compensated for that time, including overtime compensation. For example, Plaintiff and the 10 Class and the Aggrieved Employees typically arrived early at work in order to put on safety 11 equipment and such as hard hats and vests and obtained materials and equipment for the day's 12 work such as hammers, measuring tapes and caution tape rolls, all off the clock and 13 uncompensated. After their scheduled shifts ended, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved
14 Employees typically continued to work in order to clean up and put materials and tools away, 15 leading to additional unpaid time off the clock. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and 16 the Class and the Aggrieved Employees received non-discretionary bonuses. However, 17 Defendants failed to incorporate all remuneration when calculating the correct overtime rate of 18 pay, meal break premium rate of pay, and sick day rate of pay, leading to underpayment. In 19 maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate
20 records of the hours Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

21 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 22 Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods.
23 Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved
24 Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing 30-minute, 25 continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 26 compensating Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were 27 not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not 28 adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a

1 meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of 2 the tenth hour of work. Further, Defendants automatically deducted meal periods, despite them
3 being short regularly due to the fact that Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees
4 were required to walk to specified areas for their meal periods. Also, Defendants maintained a
5 policy and practice of not permitting Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to 6 leave the premises during meal and rest periods. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice
7 was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees in 8 compliance with California law.

9 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 10 and permit Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest 11 periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class and the 12 Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants
13 authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period
14 for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff
15 and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or 16 permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved
17 Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate 18 policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Class and the 19 Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the 20 timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify
21 whether Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were taking their required rest 22 periods. Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and 23 therefore Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved
24 Employees took rest periods during the middle of each work period. Accordingly, Defendants'
25 policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved
26 Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

27 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the 28 Class and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of

1 their duties for Defendants without reimbursement. For example, Defendants failed to reimburse
2 for use of personal cellular telephones for work purposes. Also, Plaintiff and the Class and the 3 Aggrieved Employees were required to purchase certain tools and materials, such as vests,
4 certain types of shoes, helmets, power drills, and masks.

5 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
6 pay Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of their employment
7 all wages for all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period 8 premium wages.

9 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 10 Class and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all 11 applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked,
12 correct wages earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal
13 periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods
14 that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and 15 Defendant's address). Further, the wage statements do not show Defendant's address as required
16 by California law. As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff
17 and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- 18 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
19 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 20 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 21 entitled;
- 22 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, 23 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 24 though they had not been;
- 25 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid
26 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 27 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 28

- (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had not been;
- (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;
- (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages rates to which Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

22. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

23. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

24. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-exempt employee or misclassified as an exempt employee, at any time during

1 the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this
2 action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

3 25. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

4 26. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 5 conditions of all Class Members.

6 27. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 7 readily ascertainable:

8 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 9 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
10 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, 11 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 12 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 13 Defendants' records.

14 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 15 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
16 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) 17 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

18 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
19 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
20 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 21 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 22 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in 23 the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
24 Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 25 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 26 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 27 benefit of each class member.

28 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the

1 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration 2 of:

- 3 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually
4 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 5 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
6 already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 7 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of 8 the claims in the particular forum; and
- 9 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a 10 class action.

11 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California
12 is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through 13 a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their 14 rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are 15 also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former 16 employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
17 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members 18 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 19 for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 20 protected.

21 28. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 22 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 23 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 24 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 25 wages, and overtime wages;
- 26 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 27 Class Members;
- 28 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium

wages to Class Members;

(d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their discharge or resignation;

(e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;

(f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; and

(g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

29. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

(a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;

(b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;

(c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;

(d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

(e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

(f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:

1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or

2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

30. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

31. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

32. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

33. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully

1 violated the provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional 2 applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

3 34. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 4 recover minimum wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

5 35. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class and the 6 Aggrieved Employees have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of 7 their employment with Defendants.

8 36. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 9 Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for their non-overtime hours worked 10 without pay, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees suffered, and will continue to 11 suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class and the 12 Aggrieved Employees, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which 13 will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

14 37. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
15 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
16 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees.

17 38. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class and the 18 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for 19 Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

20 39. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 21 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable
22 to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to be 23 paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all 24 such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class and the 25 Aggrieved Employees all such wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

26 40. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to seek 27 recovery of all unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs
28 pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

48. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

49. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

50. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

51. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

52. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully

1 violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage
2 Orders.

3 53. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are 4 entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided 5 with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

8 54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
9 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

10 55. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 11 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 12 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that 13 the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 14 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten 15 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so 16 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 17 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest
18 period mandated under any Wage Order.

19 56. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 20 Class and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked 21 more than 4 hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class 22 and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that 23 Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), 24 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 25 the applicable Wage Orders.

26 57. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are 27 entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided 28 with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

3 58. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
4 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

5 59. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by 6 failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees for their 7 necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties
8 or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

9 60. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were damaged at 10 least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their 11 wages.

12 61. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees they represent are entitled to 13 attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest
14 pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(b).

15 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 17 Penalties)

18 62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
19 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

20 63. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 21 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 22 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, 23 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, 24 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 25 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

26 64. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 27 other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 28 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and

1 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be 2 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 3 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

4 65. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer
5 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 6 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor
7 Code §§ 201 and 202.

8 66. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 9 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 10 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 11 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

12 67. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 13 Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular 14 hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

15 68. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the 16 Class and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, 17 interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

18 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 20 Compliant Wage Records)

21 69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
22 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

23 70. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 24 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement
25 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
26 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
27 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made
28 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages

1 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 2 employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee
3 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 4 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 5 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

6 71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 7 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 8 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved
9 Employees, the failure to list the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to 10 list the true net wages earned.

11 72. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff
12 and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-13 protected rights.

14 73. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by 15 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied 16 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage 17 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

18 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class and the 19 Aggrieved Employees is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, 20 Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees were also injured as a result of having to 21 bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to 22 comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

23 75. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 24 Defendants their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor
25 Code § 226(a).

26 76. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to injunctive 27 relief, as well as an award of attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, 28 pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h).

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200,
3 et seq.)

4 77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
5 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

6 78. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business
7 & Professions Code § 17201.

8 79. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
9 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff
10 seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 11 Procedure § 1021.5.

12 80. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 13 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions 14 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

15 81. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 16 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 17 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of 18 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, 19 and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of 20 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

21 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

22 82. Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 23 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California
24 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

25 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

26 83. Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation
27 of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
28 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

1 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

2 84. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 3 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or 4 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

5 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

6 85. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor
7 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or 8 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

9 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

10 86. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 11 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 12 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

13 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

14 87. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 15 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above,
16 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§
17 17200, et seq.

18 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

19 88. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance 20 with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
21 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22 89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
23 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 24 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly 25 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

26 90. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees Members suffered monetary 27 injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

28 91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled

1 to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 2 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved
3 Employees have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or 4 fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class and the Aggrieved Employees are not 5 obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to 6 recover restitution.

7 92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 8 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair,
9 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
10 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 11 practices in the future.

12 93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no
13 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
14 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
15 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 16 above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and 17 will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained 18 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

19 94. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 20 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 21 withholdings.

22 95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
23 and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 24 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a 25 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 26 Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §
27 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

97. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

98. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

99. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On March 28, 2023, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and former Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. At the time of this filing, 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

100. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins

1 and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
2 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total 3 hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

4 101. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 5 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to 6 maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing when employees
7 begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by 8 the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to 9 know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of 10 their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 11 Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an 12 unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 13 Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and 14 enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking 15 to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective 16 damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to 17 comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
18 Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, 19 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

20 102. Based on the conduct described in this First Amended Complaint, Plaintiff is 21 entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of himself, the State of California, and similarly 22 Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an 23 amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies 24 permitted by law.

25 103. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant 26 to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action 27 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

1 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

2 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to 3 the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as 4 follows:

5 Class Certification

- 6 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second,
7 Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;
8 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and 9 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

10 As to the First Cause of Action

- 11 4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
12 Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 13 minimum wages due;
14 5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
15 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
16 such amounts were due;
17 7. For liquidated damages;
18 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 19 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
20 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

21 As to the Second Cause of Action

- 22 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
23 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 24 overtime wages due;
25 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;
26 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing 27 from the date such amounts were due;
28 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to

1 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

2 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

3 As to the Third Cause of Action

4 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
5 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

6 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

7 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
8 such amounts were due;

9 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 10 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

11 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

12 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

13 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
14 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

15 21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

16 22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
17 such amounts were due;

18 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 19 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

20 24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

21 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

22 25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code §
23 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

24 26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be 25 appropriate;

26 27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
27 such amounts were due;

28 28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

1 41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and 2 prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

3 42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all
4 funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by 5 Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

6 43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 7 California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

8 44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California 9 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

10 45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

11 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

12 46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California 13 Labor Code by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and 14 overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal 15 periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to maintain accurate records of all 16 hours worked and meal periods, failing to indemnify necessary business expenses, failing to pay 17 final wages at termination, and failing to furnish accurate wage statements;

18 47. For all actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to 19 proof. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, et seq., and all other 20 applicable Labor Code provisions;

21 48. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 22 California Labor Code § 2699;

23 49. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

24 As to all Causes of Action

25 50. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION AND PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

WALT OXLEY

SAN JOSE, CA 95125

[✓] BY U.S. MAIL: I deposited such envelope in the mail at Los Angeles, California. The envelope was mailed with postage thereon fully prepaid. I am “readily familiar” with the firm’s practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it would be deposited with U.S. postal service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid at Los Angeles, California in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

Executed on June 2, 2023, at Los Angeles, California.
